Louis James HALL died intestate 4 November 1939. On 25 June 1941 his heirs agreed that his property consisting of two houses and land should be transferred to their mother and his widow, Catherine Ann HALL. [BUG-REG-11; 266]

In her will dated 17 February 1942 Catherine Ann HALL bequeathed Crown Grant 227 consisting of house, land and adjacent buildings to her youngest son Arthur William HALL of Port Howard. [BUG-REG-11; 287]

In 1944, 6 James Street consisted of a house, had a rateable value of £30, was owned by Mrs L J HALL and was occupied by R CAREY. [BUS/RAT/2#1]

Catherine Ann HALL, age 77, died in Stanley 21 June 1947. The property passed to her daughter Louisa Annie CAREY and her son Albert Henry HALL

In 1949, 6 James Street was recorded as a two storey stone house with a timber and iron lean-to. It had a total floor area of 1,093 square feet, a peat shed of 364 square feet, a grain shed of 20 square feet, a hen house of 59 square feet, a lumber shed of 96 square feet, a wash house of 90 square feet, a workshop of 64 square feet, and an outside earth closet of 24 square feet. The property was owned by Louisa A CAREY and Albert H HALL and was occupied by Louisa A CAREY. [BUS/RAT/2#7]

In December 1947 A M CAREY wrote with regards to two previous letters sent by Mrs C A HALL about the condition of the stone wall to the rear of 6 James Street. It was a dry stone revetment supporting the rough public footpath, beneath which ran the water main, and also the road. When the army lorries began to use the road and particularly when they began to go on the footpath because of the bad condition of the road, the stones began to bulge. As the revetment was Government property they put the work in hand in 1948. [BUS/JAM/1#18]
