Letter from Manager, F.I.C., 26.11.19.

H.E.

Submitted.

Until 1916 the 1st January was always regarded as a Public Holiday and was then cancelled because the then manager of the F.I.C. Ltd. - Mr W.A. Harding - was averse from granting it to the Company's employees.

If H.E. desires this paper to go to F.I.C. next Monday the Gov. Notice, which has not yet been issued, can be held back for the time -

Office

Yes. In meantime draft a letter to F.I.C. saying that if it is shown to be the wish of the majority of the ~~shareholders~~ business houses that Jan 1st should be a public holiday the matter would be considered.

Nov 27/19.

T-to Siphon
Adm;

H.E.

Mr Conway telephoned me yesterday that it was H.E.'s wish that this should be arranged by word of mouth.

I have this morning spoken to Mr Houston, but he does not seem inclined to to canvass for further opinions on the subject. In his view there are not any ~~other~~ business houses in Stanley other than that under his management.

T.H.

28.11.19.

No. I think there has been a misunderstanding.
I meant the letter, as in my minute of Nov 27th, still to go, but I told Mr Conway that Mr Houston could be also informed verbally that the only way the wish of the majority could be ascertained was if a letter signed by all the business houses asking for the same thing was received. I thought it would be simpler to explain this verbally.

The Falkland Islands Coy., Ltd.,

Stanley, 26th November, 1919.

Sir,

I venture to suggest, for the consideration of His Excellency the Administrator, that, in addition to the usual Christmas holidays, New Year's Day be again gazetted as a Public holiday in the Colony. I feel sure that the observation of that day as such would be appreciated by the majority of the residents.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Manager.

The Honourable

The Colonial Secretary.

81/19.

29th November, 1919.

Sir,

I am directed by the Administrator to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 23th instant suggesting that the 1st January be gasetted as a Public Holiday, and adding that such a step would be favoured by a majority of the public.

I am to say that it appears to His Excellency that the only way in which the opinion of the majority of the inhabitants of Stanley can be obtained is by means of a statement signed by all the business houses in Stanley. Should you be willing to send in a request similar to your letter of the 23th instant, so signed, His Excellency will be prepared to give the matter his favourable consideration.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

for Colonial Secretary.

The Manager,

Falkland Islands Company, Limited,
Stanley.
