THE ACTORS

CRISPIN FISHER (Ben Rumson) was dubious about the role of Ben because of the American accent. No problems, we said. We were right. MADELEINE BOWD (Jennifer, Ben's daughter). Although this is her first FIODA performance Madeleine is no stranger to the stage and it shows. ALAN JONES like Jake Whippany has a dream. Jake's is to build the finest music hall west of the Rockies. Alan's is to get a night's sleep. CONOR NOLAN (gold prospector Steve Bullnack) didn't realise in his first FIODA performance he would be left holding the baby. Welshman GERWYN MICHAEL plays Mexican prospector Julio Valveras. A Welsh Mexican? Anythings possible with FIODA. HELEN ANDREWS (madam, Cherry Jourdal) with an accent like that she could have been born in France (or Portsmouth).

CRAIG PAICE (Irish prospector, Mike Mooney) said he couldn't do the accent. We said, imagine you're an Irishman from New Zealand. No sweat! PETE BURNARD (Sandy Twist) enjoyed every minute of PYW especially the first one in Jakes Palace, Act Two, Scene 1. ROGER DIGGLE (Cockney prospector, Edgar Crocker). We can't quite place the origin of the accent. Eastenders? MIKE BINGHAM (storekeeper, Salem Trumbull) conserving his energy for FIODA.

EMMA DILNUTT, MARILYN GRIMMER (Elizabeth & Sarah) branching out from the chorus into Mormon wives. ALEX SMITH (Jacob, Mormon husband). The show must go on injured or not. FRASER WALLACE (gambler, Raymond Janney) couldn't be persuaded to sing under any circumstances ... phew! SIMON JONES - Walt, scene changer, understudy, Jack ... of all trades! JOHN LEONARD (Jasper) the only authentic American accent.

MIKE GRANT, JIM SOUTER, PETE HARRIS, WAYNE SERGEANT, SID LAKE, BOB WILLIAMS, 'JESSE' JAMES (prospectors) acting, singing, dancing in PYW on stage in the Falklands was the last thing they ever expected when they signed on for military service.

HANNAH HUMPHREYS, FELICITY CLARKE, ROXANNE CROWIE, ABIGAIL HARDING-PRICE, MARGARET NORMAND (Fandangos and other roles). First time on stage for most. Didn't they do well! JEREMY CLARKE (chorus) from the airline to the dance line.

JEMMA MARLOR-JACKSON, SINEAD DOHERTY, JENNIFER PAICE (Can-Can dancers) in at the deep end a week before the show.

LINDA BURNARD, EILEEN DAVIES, PAULINE KERR, LIZ BURNETT, ELIZABETH VILLALON (male chorus). Aren't we fortunate women are so adaptable.

DAVID JEREMIAH, KEN GREENLAND (musicians) arrested by the music. Judge for yourself!

COMMENTS FROM THE PRODUCTION TEAM

CRISPIN & KARI FISHER (music). Come on miners - harmony!
DAVID HARDING-PRICE (sound&light). Bank'n'harbour 3/4 blackout.
GRAHAM DIDLICK (sets). Hang on a min, me swivels are stuck.
ALAN JONES. Producer, actor, singer, musician, schizophrenic.
JENNIFER JONES (director). NEVER AGAIN!

FIODA

THEATRE 2000 was initiated by the FIODA committee to undertake the development of a community theatre by the millennium. This theatre would be used for FIODA productions, school plays, CSE shows, lectures, conferences and as a cinema.
