FIODA
THE FALKLAND ISLANDS OPERATIC AND DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION
PRESENTS:
AN EVENING OF THREE, ONE ACT PLAYS

Three, one act plays will be staged at the end of September 2003 and FIODA need YOU to make this happen! Here is a brief idea of each of the three plays – all are very short (around 20 minutes each) so time spent on stage will be at a minimum – excellent for the first-time performer, a doddle for the seasoned professional!

15 Minute Hamlet by Tom Stoppard (to be directed by Jason Lewis)

All is not well in the country of Denmark, the ghost of the Old King tells his son, Hamlet, that he was murdered by Claudius, Hamlet's Uncle. Hamlet tries to get his revenge but for his troubles he is sent to London to be killed! Somehow he escapes and returns to Denmark, then, almost everyone dies! A classic Shakespeare play which normally lasts over 2 hours, with a cast of over 20. HOWEVER, we are going to condense this to about 15 minutes with a reduced cast of 5! There will be a few quick changes and a few lines missing but all the major factors will still be in the play, including:

- The famous line "Alas Poor Yorick"
- The fight scene at the end
- And the appearance of Shakespeare

This version of Hamlet is designed to be a comedy and FIODA are looking for 5 adult male or female actors who are definitely prepared to have fun!

The Monkey's Paw by W W Jacobs (to be directed by Fraser Wallace)

Written by W W Jacobs and dramatised by Louis N Parker, "The Monkey's Paw" was first staged in London in 1903. The story is based on the mysterious power of a monkey's paw. This strange talisman is said to be able to grant three wishes from three people, however
