FIODA would like to dedicate this show to Rene Rowlands, who passed away last week. Rene was involved in Dramatics within the Islands from the Stanley Players onwards. She was a founder member and long-time Secretary of FIODA. Rene had an amazing stage presence, and was often seen 'front-of-house' (as late as Variety Show 2007). She will be greatly missed, and FIODA's condolences go out to her family and friends.

FIODA, the Falkland Islands Operatic and Dramatic Association, brings live entertainment to the Stanley Stage. Over the years, we've staged musicals, pantomimes, comedies, melodramas, murder dinners and variety shows. If you want to get involved in future productions, please contact Nick Barrett (tel. 21806), Geoff Pring (tel. 21785) or Alison Inglis (tel. 22817). We're grateful to everyone who's supported us along the way, and this year we especially want to thank Director Jason Lewis and his team for tonight's show, Simon Yeoman and Dave Roberts for stepping into the breach, and Shirley Adams-Leach and Martin Cant for all their hard work and commitment.
