I note with regret that the Dalhousie Co. is one of the few places in the world that is not to be regarded as a war zone.

In November & December 1914 it was very much a war zone. I trust that efficient members of the Volunteer Force serving at that time will not be entirely overlooked in this award.

ARMY ORDER. 491

WAR OFFICE,
30th August, 1919.

| | | |
|-----------|--|------|
| A.O. 301. | British Expeditionary Forces, 1914/1919—Grant | 68 |
| 1919. | of "Victory Medal".—1. His Majesty the King has | 121 |
| | been graciously pleased to recognize by the grant of a | 1066 |

distinctive medal the services rendered by His Majesty's military forces in theatres of war since the 5th August, 1914.

2. The medal, which will be designated "The Victory Medal," will be identical in design with that issued by the other Allied and Associated Powers for service in theatres of war, and will obviate the interchange of Allied Commemorative war medals.

3. The medal will be in bronze, and will be attached to the riband by a ring.

4. No clasp will be issued with the medal.

5. The riband will be red in the centre with green and violet on each side, shaded to form the colours of two rainbows.

6. Provided the claims are approved by the competent military authorities, the medal will be granted to all officers, warrant officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the British, Dominion, Colonial and Indian Forces, members of women formations who have been enrolled under a direct contract of service for service with His Majesty's Imperial Forces, civil medical practitioners, nursing sisters, nurses and others employed with military hospitals, who actually served on the establishment of a unit in a theatre of war and within the periods as defined in Appendix A.

7. Instructions as to the submission of claims and the disposal of the medals will be issued in due course.
