I examined prisoner on 17/6/29.

His recent illness involved his heart, and not being quite satisfied that his heart was fit again to bear the burden of manual labour I left him on light duty for another week, when I shall again examine him. This is, in my opinion, a case for caution.

- i This person's heart seems to be permanently damaged to a slight extent.
- ii I have ordered him light work to see if the heart muscle will eventually compensate for the valvular leak, if so he may do full duty.
- iii This is a matter of months.
- iv As person is under "public care" it behoves us to walk warily in this matter

Sir

I beg to submit my report on prisoner L. Bounds, who was taken sick on the night of the 24<sup>inst</sup>, at or about 12-50<sup>AM</sup>, I was called by the Gaol Matron, who reported that Bounds was ill; I went in his cell and he seemed to be very feverish. he also complained of pains under his shoulder blade. I called in Dr. Jones, who ordered his removal to H. & M. Hospital, which order I carried out at 1-20<sup>AM</sup>, Bounds had not complained of any pains or sickness early in the evening when I left him for the night

I am Sir
Your obedient Servant
Sew. Constable Hooley
