THE NORWEGIAN CONSULATE.

STANLEY. FALKLAND ISLANDS.

27th November, 1929.

Sir,

I beg to apply for the release from prison of G.K.Larsen, a Norwegian subject who is now serving a short sentence as I understand that s.s."Fleurus" is sailing tonight and this provides an opportunity of deporting him from the Colony.

I presume that he will be under police surveillance until the ship sails.

I am,

Sir,

your obedient servant,

Acting Consul.

The Honourable

The Colonial Secretary.

Stanley.

PRISON REMISSION.

TO THE CHIEF CONSTABLE AND KEEPER OF THE PRISON.

Whereas G. K. Larsen was on the 16th day of November, 1929, convicted before the Magistrate's Court of the offences of Drunkenness, Using Obscene Language, and Assault and was sentenced to one months' hard labour commencing from the 16th day of November, 1929.

And whereas His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to remit three days of the said sentence.

Now the said G. K. Larsen having undergone twelve days of his said reduced sentence, and having during this period been industrious in labour and of exemplary behaviour, His Excellency the Governor is pleased to order that fifteen days of his said reduced term be further remitted and that the said G. K. Larsen be discharged from your custody.

This 27th day of November, 1939.

By His Excellency's Command,

E. H. Brown

Acting Colonial Secretary.

568/29.

29th November.

29.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 27th instant, I am directed by the Governor to inform you that G.K. Larsen was released from prison on the 27th November, and that he left Stanley by the S.S. Fleurus on that date.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Acting Colonial Secretary.

L.W.H. YOUNG. ESQ.,
ACTING CONSUL,
NORWEGIAN CONSULATE, STANLEY.
