ENCLOSURE TO DESPATCH

No. 31. OF 1613/16

N.L.1/38157/16.

Admiralty,

2nd March, 1916.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 25th ultimo, No. 8185/1915-1916 forwarding a copy of a despatch from the Governor of the Falkland Islands relative to the sale of picture postcards of the German Cruiser "Dresden", I am commanded by My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty to acquaint you, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, that the publication of pictures of enemy ships is not prohibited, and they see no objection to the sale of these postcards in the Falkland Islands.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) W. J. EVANS,
for Secretary.

THE UNDER SECRETARY OF STATE
COLONIAL OFFICE.

152/16.

Honourable Colonial Secretary.

Secretary of State No. 31 of 16. 3. 16.

Yesterday I informed you that the Home Authorities had no objection to the sale of the picture postcards of the German Cruiser "Dresden" and I asked you to request the Censor to inform Mr. Hardy and Mr. Binnie that they were at liberty to sell the cards.

The Censor should at same time inform the Editor of the Falkland Islands Magazine and Church Paper, if he has not already done so, that there is no objection to the publication of the photo he has, and that he may do so now if he wishes. I annex a draft letter for him.

Douglas Young
Governor.

27th April, 1916.

The Office of the Colonial Secretary.

27th April, 1916.

Sir,

With reference to previous correspondence,
I have the honour to inform you that it has been ascertained from the authorities at Home, that they have no objection to the sale in the Falkland Islands of the photographs of the German Cruiser "Dresden", in which case you are now at liberty to reproduce the photograph of the "Dresden" in you paper should you wish to do so.

I am, Etc.

Censor.

To The Editor of the Falkland Islands Magazine and Church Paper.
