Dear Sir,

I advise having received through the Crown Agents for the Colonies the sum of £200.11.10 in respect of a contribution to my National Air Raid Distress Fund from the Falkland Islands, being the amount subscribed locally towards the Fund, and in this connection I enclose my official receipt No. 76306.

It gives me great pleasure in accepting this generous gift evincing, as it does, the deep sympathy and concern of the people of Falklands Islands for those of our air raid victims upon whom have been imposed severe distress and suffering, as a result of enemy bombing, and I shall be glad if you will kindly convey to all contributors my warmest gratitude for this splendid token of their friendship and help at a time when these things mean so much to us.

I can assure you that it is most encouraging to me personally to know that I have the ready response and generous support of so many friends, who are all so anxious to help in alleviating the distress imposed upon a great number of our people.

Thanking you for your kindness in this matter,

Yours truly,
