With reference to the Colonial Secretary's letter to the Crown Agents for the Colonies, No. 0660 of the 13th February regarding the War Gratuity paid to D.D. Gleadell, although the amount given in your telegram No. 363 is £25.13.0, it was assumed that as this was in respect of a period of 53 months 9 days at 10/- a month, the correct amount should be £26.13.0.

25th May, 48.

Gentlemen,

2 With reference to my letter No. 0660 of the 13th of February, 1948, regarding war gratuity paid to Mr. D.D. Gladdell, I am directed by the Governor to express regret that telegram No. 363 was miscoded and in consequence the Secretary of State was informed that Mr. Gladdell's war service amounted to 33 months 9 days instead of 31 months 9 days. This accounts for the overpayment of £1.

2. In the circumstances I am to ask you to be good enough to endeavour to collect the amount overpaid from Mr. Gladdell whose address is Deposit Account - War Gratuities.

1. I have the honour to inform you that a Deposit Account was opened in July, 1945 and the Auditor advises that this account should now be closed, in view of the breach of C.R. 272 involved in its original opening.

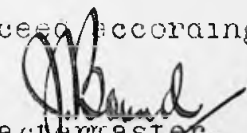

2. Some £800 remains yet to be collected by

(a) camp members of the F.I.D.F.

(b) non-resident members of the F.I.D.F.

with reference to (a) it is suggested that a broadcast notice be published giving camp members until say the end of October to advise as to the disposal of their amounts; warning them that applications received after that date will not be entertained (i.e. it will revert to revenue). As to (b) this balance will revert to revenue at the end of the year but in view of the fact we are unable to inform the persons concerned their claims will be met from revenue if and when they come to light.

3. May I have your approval to proceed accordingly, pl.

A large proportion of the outstanding amount is due to overseas members - the whereabouts of whom I am not aware: these claims have been outstanding for over three years & I do not anticipate hearing from the people concerned, but of course if they do register a claim it will have to be met and a further S/W. may be necessary.
