GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

No. 26.

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Stanley, Falkland Islands,
16th February, 1927.

It has been brought to the notice of the Acting Governor that there is a desire among ex-service men including ex-members of the local forces to take part in the unveiling ceremony of the Falkland Islands Battle Memorial on the 26th of February, 1927.

His Excellency is pleased to give every possible encouragement to this desire and to arrange that suitable opportunity shall be afforded to ex-service men to participate as a body in the parade at the unveiling ceremony if they present themselves in a sufficient number.

Accordingly any ex-service man who desires to take part as such in the unveiling ceremony on the 26th of February, 1927, is requested to send in his name to the Colonial Secretary, Stanley, with the least possible delay, stating particulars of his service, rank, and corps or regiment.

By Command,

J. M. ELLIS,

Acting Colonial Secretary.
