Sir,

With reference to my despatch No. 61 of February 15th last on the subject of the Meteorological Station in the South Orkney Islands, I have the honour to report that the new staff are now preparing to start for that station to relieve the men whose period of service will shortly expire.

As usual the new men are Scandinavians. The names are given as follows :-

Chief Engineer, Hugo Valentiner;

2nd do. Sigur Schjaer;

Adjutant, Gunnar Vergaard;

2nd do. Hans L. Wouge

and one other not yet appointed.

It is expected the above will sail in the middle of February on board the corvette "URUGUAY".

I have, etc.,

(SD) Reginald Tower.

The Right Hon.

Arthur James Balfour, O.M., M.P.,
