Gentlemen

With reference to your further letter of this day's date on the subject of the circulation of filthy literature in the Settlement I am directed by the Governor to inform you that H.E. has seen the Colonel Chaplain who states that a copy of the publication in question was sent to him by Dr Hamilton, and that he showed it to Mr Harris with the view of making some joint efforts to suppress the evil which would result from its circulation, but that he had no knowledge of any person having sold the book, or hired it out for gain, so as to bring it an offence under the Criminal Law.

I am further to say that H.E. has no wish to peruse filthy or immoral books, and will certainly not do so unless they are brought before him as Judge of the Supreme Court, in Open Court, as evidence in a prosecution, but Ministers of Religion should be able to exercise an influence in the suppression of immorality which is beyond the power possessed by Government.

Gentlemen,

With reference to your second letter of the 25th instant on the subject of the circulation of obscene literature, I am directed by the Governor to inform you that H.E. regrets to find that he misunderstood the Colonial Chaplain when he stated that Mr Brandow had told him that a copy of the publication in question was lent to him by Mr Hamilton, and that he showed it to Mr Harris with the view of making some joint efforts to suppress the evil which would result from its circulation etc, whereas what Mr Brandow actually did say - was, that Mr Hamilton had shown him a copy of the book in question, and that he found another person who also had a copy of it, from whom he borrowed it and lent it to Mr Harris with a view of making some joint effort to suppress the evil. The matter is however is unimportant as it appears that Dr Hamilton did actually show a copy of the book to Mr Brandon and that Mr Brandon did actually lend a copy of the book to Mr Harris.

2. The Governor has no reason to believe that Mr Brandon has been 'guilty of falsehood' as is so officiously stated in your letter - or that he is in any way connected with the circulation of the vile publication referred to.

3. When R.E. said that Ministers of Religion should be able to exercise an influence in the suppression of immorality - he had no thought of "the pulpit being the proper place to declaim against such a work", as seems to have been inferred, but the influence which you might exercise privately in the families of your respective co-religionists.

4. The Governor declines to notice any further correspondence on this unpleasant subject which appears to partake even more of a personal attack on the Colonial Chaplain than of a genuine effort to suppress a social evil.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 25th instant on the subject of the circulation of filthy literature in the Settlement, I am directed by the Governor to inform you that H.E. has referred to the Colonial Chaplain the statement contained in your communication that "he (Mr Brandon) had received a consignment of a series of these books" - to which that gentleman has replied in the following words:

- "1st That I never made such an admission"
 "2nd. That I never received a consignment of such books"
 "3rd That I never circulated such books"

2. With regard to the other statement in your letter of "Father Diamond having received an oral letter stating that the only book Mr Brandon knew of he obtained from yourself and lent it to Mr Harris" - you have evidently been misinformed as the letter to Mr Diamond stated that "a copy of the publication in question was lent to Mr Brandon by Dr Hamulton, and that he showed it to Mr Harris".

3. On subsequent enquiry the Governor finds that he had misunderstood Mr Brandon - who said that you had shown him a copy of the book in question and that he had procured a copy of the same from another person which he left with Mr Harris with a view of their making a joint effort to suppress its circulation if possible.

4. The Governor regrets to find the offensive language you make use of in your communication in speaking of the Colonial Chaplain.

Sir,

The Government School Inspector having reported that the buildings used as school rooms "are utterly unsuited for educational purposes" and that the wing of the barracks occupied by the Schoolmaster "is utterly unsuited for a Schoolmaster's residence" the Governor requests you to be good enough to associate yourself with the Honble Mr. Fenton and Mr. F. S. Langmuir on Monday the 14th instant at 11 A.M. at the Senior School room and proceed to inspect that building, and afterwards the Infant School room and the Schoolmaster's residence, and report to His Excellency on the statements made by the School Inspector with regard to them, both as to their present condition and as to whether that condition is worse than when these premises were appropriated to their present uses, and if so in what respect they have become so. The Governor has requested Mr. Joseph Sellman, who fitted up the present Senior School and made considerable repairs to the Banacks - and Mr George Turner who has also been employed in making repairs and alterations to these several buildings - to attend and give you any information you may require

I am desired by the Governor of the Falkland Islands to acknowledge the receipt of your letter N^o. 649 of the 4th June last calling attention to a charge in the A/c^{ts} of the Colony for the year 1889 of a sum of £74. 9. 9 under the head "Advances received from Works & Buildings Vote 1890."

2. In reply I am to furnish you for your information with the following extract from H. E.'s letter to the Comm. Agents for the Colonies - dated the 5th of November 1889, requesting them to procure and forward the stores for which the charge referred to is made -
"If there is no reason to the contrary it would be expedient that the payment for these requisites should be made after the end of the current year so as to bring the expenditure under the estimate for Works & Buildings in the Account for 1890."

3. I am further to state that H. E.'s reason for making this request was that the Vote for Works & Buildings in in 1889 was exhausted and had the Loan Agents informed him that his request could not be amplified until 1890. I am to observe was in England at the time and could easily have arranged the matter and avoided the irregularity complained of.

As regards the personal property of the deceased I am disposed to accept a sum of £30 for the same as per Inventory & this will avoid the necessity of removing the things to Stanley. 4. I shall be glad to receive an explanation of the item of £29 charged against King in the A/c with Mr. Cameron under date March 1889. It seems to me unlikely that a man with a balance due to him by Mr. Cameron at that date of £274 4.8 could require the advance of his passage money & this item cannot be balanced by Chisholm's passage to the Falkland Islands charged on the other side, as I understood from him that he was brought out to the Colony at Mr. Cameron's expense under agreement. 2. I am further to inform you that in accordance with the discretion left to H.C. by the Secretary of State he will be prepared to issue the lease for three years from the 23rd of December last as soon as he is satisfied that the affairs of the partnership between Mr. Coulson and yourself have been finally settled; but that as long as there are conflicting interests existing H.C. does not feel justified in issuing a lease to you, whose term of holding will expire on the 23rd of December 1890, according to the Notice which has been served upon you.

No. 398.

Gentlemen,

G. O. Stanley, F. I.
7th October 1890.

With reference to your letter S. 176/890 of the 20th of May 1890 respecting the Ingersoll Rock Drill and to the copies of reports made by your inspectors and the Supplies which you enclosed, I am directed by H. E. the Governor to inform you as follows.

1. The Machine itself after being landed from the "Haddassah" was not subjected to any adjustment of the working parts before it was put to work, only the legs and handles with their shafts which arrived separately being added.
2. When put to work in strict accordance with the printed instructions which were sent with it it was found that the piston after being turned to its full height did not descend as it seemed that the spring had not sufficient power to drive it downwards or that it was jammed in some inexplicable way. The Administrator applied to Captain Bigge R. N. of H. M. S. "Flamingo" to allow his Chief Engineer Artificer to examine the Machine and it was taken to pieces and examined but the cause of the failure could not be discovered and when the Governor arrived from England shortly afterwards he caused it to be carefully packed and sent back to the Makers by the first homeward bound Messageries Steamer in order that the defect whatever it might be should be remedied.
3. By the next outward Steamer a spare driving spring was received which had been forwarded by the Makers.
4. The Rock Drill came back in the Messageries Steamer "Abydos" which arrived here on the 9th of June. It was packed in a single case and so carelessly that when opened it was found that the legs had been forced against one of the cast iron driving wheels, the arms of which were fractured in three places.
5. The injured wheel was secured so as to be workable (with great care) and the Machine was tried in the Governor's presence in strict compliance with the instructions forwarded by the same Mail; but after a few turns the piston again jammed at the top of the stroke - descending into full force when pressure was applied to the head of it to assist assist the Spring. The Spring was then removed and the spare one inserted, after which the driving action was perfect.

6. It was evident that the original spring when forced back jammed in its own folds the surface being pressed so tightly together that it would not release itself. It was chamed and oiled and tried again repeatedly but without effect.

7. It was hoped after this that the Machine would work satisfactorily, but the rotatory motion does not act and the drills wear so rapidly in the quartz rock and the hole tapers so much after the first few inches that it is impossible to use it effectually. It is an utter failure.

8. The Governor does not admit the justice of the remarks which impute improper and ignorant usage as the cause of this regrettable failure. The persons who directed its operation are intelligent and painstaking and the Governor himself had opportunities of witnessing the successful operation of a similar Machine (although not from the same makers), which was used in the blasting operations under the casemates of the Battery at the entrance of Weymouth Harbour; the experience and information then gained having led him to apply for the Machine which has been the cause of so much useless expense, trouble and annoyance.

Government Office
Stanley 8th November 1890

Sir,

I have the honour to ask if you will kindly furnish me with the following information with regard to the German barge "Hanover" which vessel arrived here on the 21st April last with the shipwrecked crew and passengers of the late British barge "Janet Cowan" as a query has been received from the Board of Trade with reference to the charges made by Captain Benecke of the German vessel.

1. Whether the "Hanover" underwent any repairs while in this port.
2. Whether any provisions or water were obtained other than mentioned in Captain Benecke's account.

I enclose the copy of the account sent by the Board of Trade which please return.

Sir

No 5713

In reply to your letter of 25th August last
 I have the honour to forward an extract from the protest of the Master of the "Janet Cowan" in which there is an apparent discrepancy with the statement which he made to the Board of Trade.

In the protest he says that all provisions and water were spoiled by the sea, and the statement quoted in your letter runs as follows "that the master of the Janet Cowan" also states that he and his crew while on board the "Hanover" lived entirely upon provisions saved from their own ship."

I also forward a copy of a letter received from Mr Cobb the Manager of the Falkland Islands Company in reply to a letter from this office asking for information as to whether the "Hanover" underwent any repairs in this port, and whether her master procured any more provisions or water than that mentioned in the account.

I understood that the master of the Janet Cowan guaranteed all expenses of coming back to this port and had the crew been landed at the Navarino Island Mission station
 as suggested by Captain Livingstone (in your letter
 they would probably have had to wait a considerable time until a vessel came there from Punta Arenas.

As regards the statement that it was the master of the "Hanover's" own wish to this Colony this day amounts to $19002. 6. 10.

 I should think that water could have been procured at Nanarima Island if required
 and as a matter of fact he was only supplied with three turns of water at this port, which was not more than he would probably require
 in consequence of his deviation from his voyage.
