Public Notice

His Excellency the Governor has received from the Right Honorable Sydney Herbert M.P. copies of Resolutions agreed to at Public meetings in London and the principal cities of the United Kingdom. The Resolutions have reference to Miss Nightingale and the Ladies who assisted in the Hospitals in the East during the recent War. The substance of the Resolutions are as follows.

That the noble and devoted services of Miss Nightingale and her associates in the Hospitals of the East and the invaluable services rendered by them to the sick and wounded of the British Forces demand the grateful recognition of the British Nation

That as she does not desire to accept any tribute to her own personal advantage, funds are to be raised to enable her to establish an institution for the training sustentation and protection of Nurses and Hospital Attendants

His Excellency the Governor observed that the Committee of the Nightingale fund is composed of gentlemen professing every variety of religious and political creeds who are united to commemorate by an abiding memorial the extraordinary disinterested and noble devotion of this young and accomplished lady who by overcoming difficulties of no ordinary character succeeded in alleviating in so large a degree the sufferings unavoidably incident to a state of warfare.

His Excellency desires that all classes of the Colonies be afforded an opportunity of contributing towards the Nightingale fund which he is satisfied will afford a proof that the same sentiments of admiration for distinguished virtue and heroism animate Her Majesty's subjects in this distant Isle, as in other parts of the Empire less removed from Her Gracious Sovereign's influence.

To aid in carrying out this object The Revd. Wm Faulkner the Colonial Chaplain and the Stipendiary Magistrate have kindly consented to receive the contributions of the Colonists to the Nightengale fund, which His Excellency will undertake to transmit to the Central Committee in London accompanied by the expressions of the Donors.

His Excellency is pleased to communicate to the Public the fact, and that in addition to other and large donations from the British Army a Subscription of one days pay had been spontaneously commenced by the Commander of the Forces which had been unanimously responded to.

Sir

I am directed by the Hon Secretaries and the Committee of the Nightingale Fund to acknowledge the receipt of Your Excellency's letter of the 16th July, enclosing a Bill on Messrs Searing for £23. 4. 2d, together with Lists of the Contributors of such sum, and other most interesting documents.

I am desired to convey the Committee's most cordial thanks to Your Excellency and to the other Gentlemen who have promoted the movement in the Falkland Islands & the valuable cooperation thus afforded. And to request that Your Excellency will kindly give expression to the pleasure with which the Committee have received the gratifying evidences of public feeling in your Colony towards Miss Nightingale and her associates, and the good wishes expressed by the subscribers for the prosperity of the Institution which they in common with the other Contributors in all parts of the World have assisted to found.

The fact mentioned by Your Excellency that the first subscription ever sent from the Falkland Islands is that remitted for the Nightingale Fund, imparts a singular and additional interest to the Contribution from so remote a Colony.

No. 1.

The Committee of the Indian Relief Fund have appealed to all the British Colonies for aid in relieving the sufferings caused by the Indian Mutinies. The disastrous events of that mutiny, with the foul massacres of hundreds of men, women, and children, have excited the indignation and deep sympathy of Englishmen all over the world. Whilst our armies are re-establishing British rule in India, and inflicting just vengeance on the Mutineers, subscriptions have been liberally made in every town and village in England, Ireland, and Scotland, to supply food, clothing, passages home and other assistance to all (without distinction of nationality or religion) who have no claim for assistance from Government, or the East India Company, or other means of aid.

In making known this appeal H.E. Governor Throne has full confidence that it will be responded to here as nobly as it has been in England.

A Sermon in aid of the Funds will be preached by the Reverend the Colonial Chaplain on Sunday next the tenth instant. Subscriptions to the fund will be received on behalf of the Committee by the undersigned at any time before the departure of the next mail for England when the amount subscribed will be transmitted to the Committee at home. ~~by order~~

— A bill to regulate the rights of Commonage has been laid by the Governor before the Legislative Council.

The Objects of the bill is to secure to every householder in Stanley a free right to graze two animals on the Common, and, secondly, to provide that no one shall take more than his right, - because by doing so, he must injure his neighbours and he must also injure the Colony by using the pasturage required for the cattle killed weekly for the Settlement.

The Governor also desires to make known that he has continued the F. I. Company in the tenancy of the Government farm, on the condition (amongst others) that the Company shall supply during the tenancy - as much beef for the Settlement

Settlement as may be required at a price not exceeding three pence per ℔ so long as the Government farm is not fenced off from the Common the Settlers horses and the Cattle of the Company must graze in Common. A copy of the Commonage bill is open for the Public at the Government Offices & His Ex^y. hopes that this measure which is purely for the interests of the settlers themselves will receive the attention of the inhabitants & that by petition & communication with the members of the Council they will aid in framing an Ordinance which will secure the interests of the Settlement and the rights of each Colonist.
