In (52) & (53) Mr. Hanning refers to a delay in the delivery of stamps and in view of nets (47) + (48) it appears to me that the cause of the delay is due to correspondence which is passing between the S.G.S. and the Crown Agents.

What was done in the case of the Centenary and Jubilee. In both cases the date of issue was a public holiday.

2. In the case of the Coronation Stamps the instructions received from the S. of S. are that the stamps are to be placed on sale on the 12th May, 1937, and those instructions must be adhered to. Presumably orders

For the stamps can be got ready by you on the 11^E May and handed over to them early in the morning of the 12^E May. If necessary get additional assistance for dealing with the stamps. In the meantime will you please say for the information of H.R. what was done about the sales on the occasion of the Centenary and Jubilee.

W.H.H.
9.4.37

Hon. Sec.

The craze for "First Day covers"
has grown considerably of late.

There were few covers to be postmarked on the first day of Issue of the Centenary stamps and not more than a thousand covers when the Silver Jubilee stamps were issued. They were dealt with on the First Day.

To enable a buyer to affix quantities of stamps for postmarking on the 12^E May he will require the stamps to be issued to him a week or so before that date.

There are not more than six persons with very large orders. The small orders could be dealt with on the first day.

As the Post Office and Count Room will be used for mail I suggest that the vacant Telegraph Office would be suitable for dealing with stamps, cash &c.
on that date.

26th May, 1936.

Sir,

I beg to refer to a batch of postage stamps sent via the Crown Agents for the Colonies, by mail of the 11th March last, to Messrs Wingfields of 24, Chancery Lane, London, W.C.2. payment for which was to be made on delivery.

Under date of the 20th April, 1936, I received the following telegram from Messrs Wingfields:-

"Holdup this end their excuse you are not the sender arrange relief cable position"

On acquainting the Colonial Secretariat of the receipt of this message, I was informed that a cable concerning the matter had been received from the Crown Agents, to which a reply was being sent and after the receipt of this reply in London, it was thought the stamps would be released.

As nothing further had been heard by me concerning these stamps, I had taken it for granted that they had all been delivered, and consequently was very surprised to receive the following message dated London the 23rd inst.

"Mint released others held"

I understand the stamps actually arrived in London during the first week of April., and in view of the long interval they have been held up by the Crown Agents, Messrs Wingfields have probably lost the sale for many of these stamps. In addition, the cost of telegrams exchanged with Messrs Wingfields and myself due to the delay in delivery, is mounting up.

I shall be pleased if you would kindly enquire of the Crown Agents the reason for the delay.

Perhaps you would also be good enough to take whatever steps you may deem to be necessary to have the stamps delivered at an early date.

THE HONOURABLE

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY

STANLEY.

Anything you may be prepared to do to expedite delivery will be greatly appreciated.

For your information, I would state, the mint stamps that have been delivered amount in value to £325.- and the post-marked specimens held up by the Crown Agents amount to £246.17.6.

Thanking you in anticipation for your kind attention,

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

London, S.W.5.

28th October, 1936.

Gentlemen,

Falklands x x x x x x x x x

I must ask you to return this parcel debiting me with postage. The reason is as under.

(a) When I ordered these large parcels I held an order for U.S.A. which was then cancelled.

(b) The stamps have been packed in a rather confined box with the result that some margins are creased and the gum has cracked on some sheets. Also some high values are badly centred although I asked that only well centred sheets should be sent.

In view of (b) I found it impossible to secure orders to replace the lost orders mentioned in (a).

STANLEY,

Falkland Islands.

7th April, 1937.

Sir,

Having received orders for stamps of the Coronation issue as per details attached hereto, I beg to enquire whether arrangements could be made whereby the stamps would be issued to me some days previous to Coronation Day.

As all the stamps required are to be torn into single sets by me and affixed to envelopes and the envelopes addressed to several different persons, a considerable amount of time will be required, particularly as all stamps are to be ready to be passed through the Post Office for cancellation on the first day of issue.

It will be readily understood that it would be impossible for me to deal with this large quantity of stamps on the one day. It is, therefore, for this reason, - coupled with the fact that a mail from Europe is due to arrive on Coronation Day, - that I ask that the stamps might be issued to me several days before Coronation Day in order that I will have sufficient time in which to deal with them and have them actually posted on Coronation Day.

In addition to these stamps, I expect to receive orders for several thousand more sets by the mail due to arrive at Stanley on the 23rd inst.

Thanking you in anticipation for your courtesy and kind attention in this connection,

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

The Colonial Secretary,

I have the honour to forward herewith the attached letter from Mr. A. Newing J.P.

Requests of this nature have been made to me from several members of the public who are dealing with large orders in Postage Stamps.

It is unfortunate that a mail is arriving in the Colony on or about Coronation Day.

First day covers must be postmarked the 12th May, therefore I can only suggest that these large orders are dealt with before Coronation Day and handed over on the eve of the 12th May.

There is no opportunity of them being despatched from the Colony before the above date.

Dear Sir,

I hope you will excuse the liberty of me writing to you, but I do so in the hope that you can help me.

There are a number of His Majesty's loyal citizens here very keen on getting together a collection of envelopes each franked with a complete set (3 values) of the forthcoming Coronation issue of postage stamps on the first day of issue.

I am enclosing herewith 10/- together with a number of envelopes and if you could kindly get someone to frank and post them on commission on the first day of issue I should be extremely obliged.

Thanking you in anticipation,

I am,

Yours faithfully,
