Hon. Col. Sec,

Postage stamps are not taken back into stock and I do not recommend that such practice should be commenced.

I believe, however, that the Falkland Islands Co, Ltd have done business of this description.

Dear Sir:

We have in our possession about 652 uncanceled penny stamps of the Falkland Islands for which we should like very much to find a purchaser. We have accumulated these stamps as a result of people sending them as payment for an Art Panel and set of samples we furnish for 8 pence.

If you can purchase these stamps, or if you know of some business firm or bank who would purchase them, we should be very glad to hear from you and from the face value of the stamps would allow a discount of 20%.

We assure you that any help you can render us towards disposing of this small accumulation will be very greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,

THE POMPEIAN COMPANY,

Sir,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, enquiring whether we are prepared to purchase 652 uncanceled F.I. Stamps (1d) from the Pompeian Company of Cleveland, Ohio, U.S.A.

2. In reply I beg to say that in order to oblige that Company we will take over the stamps, if in good condition, on the terms stated in their letter. Payment would be made through our London Office if they will advise us who are the Agents of their Bankers in London. This information should be sent to us at the same time as the stamps.
