Subsequent Paper.

Hon: Col: Secy:

I believe a S of S despatch exists (of fairly recent date) closing all fur sealings until such times as a complete knowledge of them had been worked up by R.R.S "Discovery". In this case Mr Goodwin's letter could not be entertained

Port Stephens,
West Falklands,
February 23rd 1933

To the Hon Col Secretary
Stanley.

Sir,

Would it be possible to obtain a license
for killing Fur Seal on Bird Island, as I know
I could get a fairly good market for the skins.
I would like to obtain the license for this season
if the Hon Government would grant it.

I am, Sir,

Yours Truly,
Thomas Goodwin

56/33.

13th March, 33.

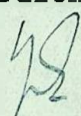

Sir,

With reference to your application of the 25th of February, 1933, I am directed to inform you that it is regretted that it is not possible to grant you a licence to take fur seal on Bird Island in accordance with the policy of total protection now in force.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Colonial Secretary.

Mr. Tom Goodwin,
Port Stephens,
WEST FALKLAND.
