LONDON, E.C.4.

18th March 1957.

The Secretary,
Government Department of Trade,
FALKLAND ISLANDS.

Dear Sir,

As the exploration of the south polar regions is in progress, I take the liberty to ask you if hairseal skins from these regions are put on the market.

For your information, I should like to mention that I am a large importer of all sections of hairseal skins from the north polar regions, and 99% of the skins which I import are sold for export.

I should greatly appreciate it if you would put me in touch with the departments, or firms, which are in a position to make me offers.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

Anselm Heilpern
