FALKLAND ISLANDS.

NO. 58.

Downing Street,
26th July, 1916.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch No.50 of the 3rd April relative to the claim of Messrs. Salvesen and Company in respect of the hire of the steam whaler "Hanka" in October 1914.

2. You will have learnt from the correspondence enclosed in my despatch No.47 of the 18th April that Messrs. Salvesen and Company have now withdrawn their claim: and, in these circumstances, the sum of £21. 10. 0 to which you refer should be returned to the persons from whom it was collected.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient,
humble servant,

A. Brown Law
