

RYAN FAMILY

NB: The following is prepared from Falkland Islands Registers and files – there may be other family born outside the Falklands. Unless stated otherwise, all dated births, deaths and marriages occurred in the Falklands and all numbered graves are in Stanley Cemetery. Any variations which may occur in the spellings of names are recorded as written in the records at the time.

James Henry LEWIS was born circa 1847 (not in the Falkland Islands).

James, a mariner living in Stanley, was married to Jane RYAN, widow, 4 June 1896 in the House of Mrs Ryan Stanley according to the Rites & Ceremonies of the Established Church by Licence by Edwin Coupland Aspinall Canon of Christ Church Colonial Chaplain. The witnesses were Arthur Hardy and Emily Hocking. James' father was recorded as Henry Lewis, mariner and Jane's father was recorded as John Nixon, printer and pensioner 55 Regiment.

James, age 56, died 29 March 1903 of Brights disease of kidneys and was buried 1 April 1903 in Grave I 652. The informant was J Ryan of Stanley.

Jane, age 56 and a widow of Stanley, died 24 March 1907 of chronic myocarditis and was buried 27 March 1907 in Grave A 27. The informant was Clara Brown of Stanley.
