OBITUARY.

News of the death of Mr. Fred Cheek on 22nd December at Teal River was received with deep regret not only in Stanley but especially on the West Falklands, where the greater part of his life was spent and where he was universally liked.

In many respects Mr. Cheek was a remarkable man. At the age of eight, owing to an accident, he lost an arm. Yet in spite of this handicap Mr. Cheek learnt to perform all the duties of a shepherd with great efficiency. It was surprising to see how skillfully he could cut peat, wheel a barrow, and carry a baby on horseback. For many years Mr. Cheek worked on the Hill Cove Station, where his sterling worth and loyalty were highly appreciated by the Manager.

In his last illness Mr. Cheek displayed an admirable cheerfulness of spirit. He was grateful for the many acts of kindness bestowed by numerous friends, but of his own suffering he had little or nothing to say. He was only concerned lest his relatives should worry.

Mr. Cheek, who was only 36 years of age, leaves a widow and three children. To them and to his sisters, Mrs. Charles Betts and Mrs. Henry Newing, we offer our deepest sympathy.

3. Elizabeth Emma CHEEK born 8 January 1883 at Fox Bay. Her father's occupation was recorded as carpenter. Domestic. Married Henry Newing, age 25 and an engine driver, 8 May 1902 in the Cathedral Church of Christ Stanley according to the Rites & Ceremonies of the Established Church after Banns by N Blount MA Assistant Colonial Chaplain.
