

PARTRIDGE FAMILY

NB: The following is prepared from Falkland Islands Registers and files – there may be other family born outside the Falklands. Unless stated otherwise, all dated births, deaths and marriages occurred in the Falklands and all numbered graves are in Stanley Cemetery. Various spellings of names are recorded as written at the time.

External information on the family from <https://www.wikitree.com/wiki/Partridge-1345>

William PARTRIDGE was born 11 June 1843 in Ashbury, Berkshire, England to William H PARTRIDGE, carpenter, and Elizabeth PARTRIDGE formerly MAXWELL.

William was married to Martha SEALEY in July 1866 in England.

William, a shepherd, Martha and their three children were passengers on the Lion leaving the docks at 9am on the 13th January 1874. William was coming out on contract to James Waldron at Port Howard . The Lion arrived in Stanley 3 April 1874. [FIC/C1; desp 464, 13; desp 465, 2]

William and his family returned to England sometime after the end of January 1878 and before his daughter's birth circa 1880. As most shepherds came out to the Falkland Islands on five year contracts he most likely returned in 1879.

In the 1881 English census William's occupation was recorded as coal merchant and the family were living at Highworth, Wiltshire. William and his family departed from Liverpool 10 May 1881 on board the Corean, arriving at Quebec, Canada 27 May 1881.

In the 1891 Canadian census William's occupation was recorded as gardener.

William died 7 Feb 1913 in Guelph, Wellington, Ontario, Canada.
