

RUSSELL FAMILY

NB: The following is prepared from Falkland Islands Registers and files – there may be other family born outside the Falklands. Unless stated otherwise, all dated births, deaths and marriages occurred in the Falklands and all numbered graves are in Stanley Cemetery. Various spellings of names are recorded as written at the time.

William RUSSELL was born circa (not in Falkland Islands).

By March 1868, William, the late steward of the Foam, had established himself as a baker in Stanley. He was expected to take nearly 1,000 bags of flour a year. [FIC/D1; 17]

William, a baker from England living on Ross Road, was married to Catherine CARDLE, from Dumfries, Scotland and living on Ross Road, 26 November 1868 at Trinity Church Stanley according to the rites and ceremonies of the Church of England after Banns by Charles Bull MA Colonial Chaplain. The witnesses were Elizabeth Kendall and Hendrick Law. William's father was recorded as John Russell, farm labourer, and Catherine's father was recorded as Patrick Cardle, carrier and draper.
