

SMITH FAMILY (1)

NB: The following is prepared from Falkland Islands Registers and files – there may be other family born outside the Falklands. Unless stated otherwise, all dated births, deaths and marriages occurred in the Falklands and all numbered graves are in Stanley Cemetery. Various spellings of names are recorded as written at the time.

Peter SMITH, his wife and five children were brought out on contract by the Falkland Islands Company Limited. His sister Jane (Mary) SMITH accompanied them. They left Liverpool on board the barque Record, a 450 ton British barque, with 33 passengers and a full cargo for the Falkland Islands Company Ltd. The Record arrived at Stanley, Falkland Islands 28 September 1852 after 101 days out. Also on board were Andrew SMITH, shepherd, James SMITH, shepherd and David SMITH, shepherd, all also brought out by the Falkland Islands Company Limited. There is no mention of whether they are related to Peter Smith in the emigration documents but their age at marriage/death corresponds with the dates of birth of his sons by the same name. The Zerviah, Captain W H Smyley, sailed for Hope Place 30 October 1852 with "...Shepherd Smith's family...". The family were as follows:

Peter SMITH was born 8 October 1795 in Eskdalemuir, Dumfriesshire, Scotland. According to Falkland Islands Company Ltd records (these records are incomplete) in 1858 he was earning a basic wage of £6 a month and by 1861 he was earning a basic wage of £7 a month. He was on half pay of £3-10-0 a month from August 1865 until his death. He died from general debility 30 October 1865, age 70, at Cantera House and is buried at Hope Place, Lafonia. The Falkland Islands Company Ltd's Store Ledger D shows a balance of £93-4-7 being paid out at the end of October 1865.

In his despatch dated 3 February 1859 to London, James Lane (the Colonial Manager of the Falkland Islands Company Ltd) states "Scotch shepherds are invaluable of the class of the Smiths..." and in a despatch dated 10 November 1858 "The Smiths have paid great attention to the Cheviot Sheep & the old Man's experience is valuable – he & his sons will remain I have no doubt. The Ground down to Swan Inlet is excellent for sheep & as they increase it shd be appropriated for all the Sheep & those at Marequita & Orquita will be as soon as possible after lambing removed there, so that all the Sheep may be under the eye of the Head Shepherd which I have made Peter Smith Senr." Despatch 14 March 1859 "The lambs were all counted by Peter Smith as cut & the Sheep as sheared & I can fully rely on the old Man whose zeal & interest in the Sheep is very great....Peter Smith very strongly urges 50 or 100 Ewes & 4 or 5 Rams, one year old, of the Blackfaced horned Highland sheep being sent out – his cousin Mr David Peterson, Wood, Kirkmichael, Dumfriesshire, wd, if written to, select good ones from Douglas & Douglas water nr Glasgow which are the best" Despatch 14 June 1862 "I am sorry to say that a Bull unhorsed one of Peter Smith's Sons & run his Horns deep in his side below the ribs – I hope he will do well, but he is obliged to remain at Darwin Harbour"
