

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to solicit the kind consideration of Your Excellency to the state of my case, in the hope that you may be induced to reconsider & rescind your order for my departure from this Colony. -

And, in humbly praying for permission to remain here, I beg to call Your Excellency's notice to the facts, that I have resided upwards of nine years in this Colony, - that during that time I have, by my own labours, respectably supported myself & my family, & have borne a character without reproach. -

In now suddenly leaving the Country of my adoption, I should be thrown destitute on the world with a wife and family to support; the importance of which circumstance to me I need not enlarge upon, & which must be my principal excuse for now troubling Your Excellency; - and it is on behalf of my family I would appeal to the feeling, and claim the indulgence of Your Excellency; - firmly believing, that, as I have, until now, been able to maintain my social position, the way in future will not be wanting, the will I can assure. -

Leaving my fate in the hands of Your Excellency, I have the honor to subscribe myself,

Your Excellency,
most obedient, humble servant,

Lino Pasquely

Your Excellency.

His Excellency

Governor & Commander in Chief.
