THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,

Stanley, Falkland Islands.

May I request that part of the Telegraph office be partitioned off for the complete use of Mr A. Mercer.

I do not like men of my staff intruding on Mr Mercer, but at the present it is unavoidable, as all the Telephone & Broadcasting lines are concentrated in this office, in addition to which my receiving set & control loudspeakers are also in this office.

It would be much more satisfactory both to Mr Mercer & myself if we each had our own particular room. The Telegraph Office is a large room, and I feel sure that all Telegraphic business could be transacted in a much smaller space.

F. A. Byron.
