

1919

CUL/LIB/1#2

Library	Museum
No.	244.

C.S.

Mr. Craig-Hallett

SUBJECT.

1919

25th March

Repts further sales of
"The Story of the Dalhland Islands"

Previous Paper.

257/17

MINUTES.

Total cost of printing	£ 19 . 1 . 9.
Revised by sales ...	16 . 15 . 0
outstanding --	£ 2 . 6 . 9

Mr. Hallett.

Yes remainder of copies might be handed over to librarian as you suggest after library is at-into working order.

27.3.19

[Signature]
Cor

Hon. Sec.

Noted.

[Signature]
Craig-Hallett.

29.3.19.

Subsequent Paper.

Dill

P. J. O.

Hon. Col. Sec.

I have handed over the balance of the stock of the book "Story of the Falklands" to the Public Library, and attach herewith the attendant receipt for same.

Mbraygi Barber
12th May 1919.

Verbal instructions received from H. G. the Governor not to place "Story of Falklands" in Library for sale just at present.

These have been temporarily placed in room used by the Superintendent, Cable Station.

Mbraygi Barber
13th May 1919

Sern. Yes I do not want this account of the Falkland Islands to be on sale until further instructions be issued respecting it.

15.5.19 AD.
Cw

minutes
withdrawn
See note
below.
trch

216

2004/19

C.S.No. 257/17.

Hon. Col. Secy.

Since reporting on the 13th March 1917 that 233 copies of the "Story of the Falklands" had been sold value £11--13--0, I beg to report that to date a further 102 copies have been sold value £5--2--0, making a total realized so far of £16--15--0 for the benefit of Museum Funds.

2. Perhaps the remaining stock of these books could hereafter be handed over to the Library for sale.

Murray Barber

March 25th 1919

Remaining stock of books
652 copies. mch
13. V. 19