Hon C.S.

I agree with the Hon C.S.'s recommendation. It is no use paying the grant this year as we have so much money i.e. £277. Discontinue it till we require more funds. What is the good of it going idle?

November 28th 19 29

From Colonial Treasurer

To

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,

Hon.Col.Sec.

I notice that the Public Library & Museum have a balance in hand amounting to £277. To this must be added the annual grant of £60 for this year which will bring the balance up to £337.

2. In view of the satisfactory financial position of this Institution the question might be now considered as to the necessity of continuing the grant or otherwise. A sum of £60 is paid each year under head, Miscellaneous, item 2, but it may be found possible, to save this amount to Revenue.
