It is presumably quite clear that the balance is subject to salvor's lien (if the owners agents were not the salvors) but it may be as well that that should be recorded

Hon:Col:Sec;

Will you please see para: 3 of my minute of 31st January last, in C.S.1129/21; also para: 2 of the Governor's minute, in the same paper, of 1st February. I think this covers the point raised in your minute above? Paragraph 113 of Board of Trade Instructions makes the position quite clear as to duties of Receiver, I think.

To

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,

Stanley, Falkland Islands.

I beg to submit the attached report regarding certain damaged and perishable goods salvaged from the wreck "GUVERNOREN", and subject to the Governor's approval I propose to engage an Auctioneer, and deal with the goods in the manner provided for in sec:22 of the Wrecks Ordinance 1899.

B. Thompson
Treasurer & Receiver of Wrecks.

Custom House,

Stanley.

January 24th. 1922.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the undermentioned goods of a perishable nature salvaged from the wrecked "Governoren" and landed and stored in the Customs Warehouse are in a more or less damaged condition due to sea water, and I am of opinion that if kept will become useless and unsaleable, I would therefore recommend they be sold by auction at the earliest opportunity under Section 22 of the Wreck Ordinance No. 3 of 1899.

27 C/s unsweetened Milk
10 Tins Margarine, each 23lb. (tins rusted)
3 do. do. (do perforated)
21 Tins Corned Beef-long tins-(do rusted)
12 : Meat ,round tins (do do)
1 C/- Meat. small round tins(do do)
1 part case do. do (do do)
1 Keg Fruit Juice (not air tight)
1 do Salted Beans (do do)
3 C/s Canned Salmon(tins rusted)
