Harbour Master

Such a light was approved
in Council in 1929 see sheet
5 in 566/27. A light appears to have been put up?

in 566/27 also sheet

Hon Col Sec.

There was originally an oxy-acetylene light on the Jetty which was continually out of order owing to vibration of the Jetty, & the cylinders being tampered with. This was replaced with an oil lamp which also was not a success, from when the matter appears to have lapsed, a period I should say of about 7 years.

Can you instal a light?
Please see the Harbour Master
as to what is required.

Hon Col. Sec.

Regret unable to instal light on public jetty at present owing shortage of cable and fittings. Vote for Extension to E. Light would not permit purchase of cable this year. Supervisor mentioned before leaving Colony that it would be necessary to increase his vote next year to permit extensions requiring cable, overhead lines, poles & fittings.

Have seen Harbour Master re this light and have recorded necessary installation should be carried out when materials available.

Haston Master.

To note. Apparently nothing can be done owing to shortage of material.

This is not quite correct. The light on Government Lobby is switched on at 4.30 pm and off 8.30 am. each week day. On Saturdays, the light is switched on at 12.30 a.m. and remain on until Monday at 8.30 am.

In my opinion the small amount of electricity consumed does not warrant bringing the bases of "Alert" off the hill to switch this light on and off on Sundays.

Mr. Gutteridge is arranging for a new light with a time switch to be erected at a later date.

THE COLONIAL SECRETARY,

Stanley, Falkland Islands.

I beg to submit that the installation of a light on the Public Jetty may be considered.

2. The master of "Lafonia" and local cutter men complain that the jetty is hard to pick up after dark, against the light of the street lamps, and a light would be of valuable assistance coming alongside.

3. There is already a lamp standard on the jetty to which an extension from the street could be led.
