Whilst engaged in passing bags of coal from the stevedore into the dinghy for the purpose of landing, there being a considerable swell running at the time, a bag of coal was accidentally dropped on this man's finger, thereby causing the injury.

I consider that if this expenditure is to be charged to the Miscellaneous Vote a special warrant will be necessary. To charge it to Miscellaneous Contingencies Item 22 would not be strictly in conformity with Colonial Regulation 245. Neither do I think that it should be charged to 'Incidental Expenses' under Post & Marine.

2. The wages of men engaged in the transport of coal and other stores to the Lighthouse are charged to Post & Marine A Item 8, the Government receiving payment from the Board of Trade for this service at the rate of £30 a year. The appropriate head under which this charge should be defrayed is

I think Head V A Post Marine Item 8.
