BRITISH CONSULATE GENERAL,
BUENOS AIRES.

24th February, 1930.

Sir,

The Director of the National Museum of La Plata, has informed me that Doctor Erich Dautert will shortly sail for South Georgia on board the s.s. "Tijuca". Doctor Dautert is being sent by the Museum to make a collection of the maritime fauna of the South Georgian Islands, and any specimens he may gather will be placed in the Department of Zoology of the La Plata Museum.

2. The Director of the Museum requests that all possible assistance may be given to Doctor Dautert to enable him to forward any specimens he may collect as expeditiously as possible, for undue delay may affect their conservation.

3. I have informed the Director of the Museum that I am acquainting Your Excellency of Doctor Dautert's visit, and that I have no doubt that he will be given all possible facility so that his visit may be successful.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,
