THE MOSCOW TRIAL.

Ambassador Returns To England.

The Foreign Secretary, Sir John Simon, announced in the House of Commons on Thursday that the whole subject of the arrested employees of the Metropolitan Vickers Company in Moscow is receiving the most serious and urgent attention of His Majesty's Government.

He therefore telegraphed on Wednesday to Sir Esmond Ovey, the British Ambassador in Moscow requesting him to return home immediately for consultation.

He left for London on Thursday. In the meantime the Embassy will be in the charge of Mr. Strang, Counsellor of the Embassy as Charge d'Affaires.

The trial of the employees is fixed for the 9th and 10th April in the Supreme Court. The chairman will sit with Professor Martens, director of the Deisel Institute, and Dimitriev, director of the Thermo-projecting Trust. The prosecutors on behalf of the State are Vishinsky and Rouginski.

AIR CRASH CAUSE.

Preliminary Enquiry,

The preliminary enquiry into the air liner disaster in Belgium discounts a passenger's cigarette as the cause and suggests the possibility of a faulty exhaust pipe, probably damaged on landing or taking off, and letting out sparks on to the framework.

The pilots', mechanics', and wireless service logs do not provide a clue.

DISCUSS THE JEWS.

References to the treatment of Jews in Germany were made in both Houses of Parliament on Thursday.

During the discussion of foreign affairs in the House of Lords Viscount Cecil said that many thousands of Jews were subjects of the King and were among the most peaceful and orderly citizens in Britain. It was obvious that the events in a foreign country which had caused unrest and anxiety among a large section of the British population must give concern to the Government. Whether the Government could do anything was another matter but they would be grateful if they could be given some assurance.

Viscount Cecil's remarks were supported by Lord Ponsonby who also recognised that the Government's position was very difficult regarding this subject.

Lord Reading stated that the attack at the moment was directed against university professors and other professional men in Germany for no other reason than that they happened to be members of the Jewish community. The Government, he said, should use such legitimate means as were within their power to show Germany what was felt by British people, but he could not press them to do anything further.

Lord Iddisleigh, as a Roman Catholic, expressed real sympathy for the Jews in Germany and the Archbishop of Canterbury associated himself with Lord Reading's remarks.

WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

The Daily Telegraph announces that as an outcome of the conversations between the Premier, Mr. MacDonald, and Mr. Norman Davis, the American ambassador to the Disarmament Conference, the end of May or early in June has been fixed for a World Economic Conference in London.

Notwithstanding the Geneva agreement that a three months' notice is necessary, it is now considered that six weeks should be sufficient and invitations are to be issued shortly. The Premier, Mr. MacDonald, will preside.

The War Debt question was not raised during the interviews but the American delegate pleaded that as the preliminary conferences were a success America would probably agree to the main agenda, presumably the monetary and tariff policy.

THE RECKONING.

The financial year ended on Friday last and the Treasury issued returns showing that the revenue has amounted to £744,791,000.

Excluding the payment to the United States Government of the instalment of the war debt on the 15th of December, 1932, the expenditure amounted to 748,114,000.

The deficit is reached after providing £17 1/4 millions for the Sinking Fund. The payment to the United States was £28,956,000, making a total deficit of £32,279,000.

As against the payment to the United States there would normally have been received since last July £30 1/2 millions from the Allied War Debts to this country (Britain) and from reparations, and a further £7 1/2 millions from Dominion War Debts, Relief debts, et cetera, making £37 1/2 millions in all at the current rates of exchange.

Reparation and War Debt payments, however, are under the arrangements made at Lausanne, suspended until the Lausanne Agreement has been ratified, or a decision is reached not to ratify that agreement.

If all the payments normally due to Britain since July 1932 had been received in full the Budget would have been balanced with a surplus of £5 1/2 millions.

The conversations between Mr. Norman Davis, the chief of the United States delegation to the Disarmament Conference, and the Prime Minister and the Foreign Secretary were continued on Friday afternoon. A further discussion on the matter is to be considered at the World Economic Conference which may take place before Mr. Davis leaves for Paris next week.

The date of the Conference rests with the League Organising Committee of which Sir John Simon is chairman, and a meeting of which has not yet been summoned.

Tenders for a £45 millions 2 1/2 per cent Conversion Loan 1944 - 1949 and Treasury Bills were opened on Friday. The total amount applied for exceeded £78 millions. The amount of Conversion Loan allotted was £9,165,000, applicants at £94 1/8 and above receiving their requirements in full.

DEFENCE FORCE SICKLE.

Distribution Of Prizes.

About seventy members of the Defence Force Rifle Club were present at a very enjoyable smoking concert given in the Drill Hall on Friday night last week when His Excellency the Governor distributed the shooting prizes and presented the Inter-Platoon Shooting and Football shields.

His Excellency was supported by the Hon. J.M. Ellis C.B.E. and among the guests were the Hon. G. Roberts, the Hon. L.W.H. Young, Captain D.W. Roberts, Mr. E.G. Rowe, Mr. B. Nowing and Mr. G.L. Challen. The officers present were the Hon. J. Innes Moir (late Commanding Officer), Captain D.R. Watson, Lieutenant W.M. Allan (adjutant), Lieutenants S.W. Harding, G. Edmunds and J. Morton and Second Lieutenant F.A.W. Byron.

In introducing His Excellency Lieutenant Allan traced the history of the Rifle Club mentioning that among those who had materially assisted in consolidating its existence were Messrs. W. Cooper, E.J. McAtasney and C.G. Allan. He also gave some valuable statistics conclusive of the Club's sound position and finally commented on their success in winning the Crown Colonies' Small Bore Competition the first year of its existence.

His Excellency, after distributing the prizes, spoke of his great pleasure in being amongst the members and he exhorted them to let themselves go and make merry on such occasions as the one that evening. The Governor added that while he would be the first to maintain the dignity of his office he was anxious his position should not deter them from making the most of such occasions and he hoped his presence would not act as a cold shower-bath. His Excellency concluded by saying how keenly interested he was in the Club and that he would do anything he could to promote the welfare of the Force (loud applause.)

Not the least important part of the evening's programme was the selection of concert items.

Billy Catten started the ball rolling with some of his inimitable turns and later came back with his confederate, Syd. Summers, in a dialogue full of fun. Popular Irish songs brought "Doc." and "Fat" O'Sullivan into the lime-light and John Davis was pulled out of his modest corner "egged" on to do his bit. The rest thus inspired, Corporal Bill had no difficulty in getting them to respond to his rollicking choruses. Des. Peck with his inseparable fiddle touched on a more serious note in the "Broken Melody" and "Reverie" after which Jimmie Watts put all he was worth in his accordion version of "The Road to the Isles" which brought to the front more than one enthusiastic devotee of the "pas seul." This appetite having been whetted Mr. A.W. Beardmore and his band conjured up more merry movements and inspired Donald to give his celebrated highland fling. Then there was Charlie Thompson who sang a song of thirty years ago and Karl Lellman whose popular ditties were also included in the rounds of well deserved applause. With so much talent on the boards a more congenial and happy evening could not have been conjured up.

The prizes distributed were : Inter-Platoon Shooting Shield - No. 3 Platoon; Lt. Allan's Prize (A. Class) - W.J. Grierson; Lt. Allan's Prize (B. Class) - C. Bradbury. D.E. Richardson's Prize - A.V. THE VETERANS WIN.

In ideal summer weather the annual Shooting Match between the Veterans (1914) and the Young Soldiers of the Defence Force Rifle Association was fired off on Sunday. Both teams had absentees, the Young Soldiers having eleven men present while the Veterans had only nine, so it was decided that the best nine scores of the Young Soldiers should count against the total score of their opponents. Even with this disadvantage the Veterans won by fourteen points. But the Young Soldiers still consider the event undecided so a "Final" has been arranged for this coming Sunday.

EMPIRE BROADCAST SERVICE.

We publish the following notes on the Empire Broadcast Service in the hope that they will be of interest to local wireless listeners in particular and to our readers in general.

A Specially Equipped Station.

The history of the service starts with the establishment by the British Broadcasting Corporation in 1927 of the experimental short-wave transmission at Chelmsford known as G.5. S.W.. This transmission was distinctly experimental and tentative but it resulted in the receipt of a great quantity of helpful information from short-wave experts and ordinary listeners all over the Empire and demonstrated a general desire for a regular service.

The British Broadcasting Corporation have assumed therefore the responsibility for an Empire service and opened - as is well known - in December last a new station equipped especially for the purpose with the most modern apparatus obtainable including two transmitters, eight wave lengths and seventeen aerials. The plans laid down for the new station are advisedly indefinite at the present time: the details of future policy will be decided in the light of experience.

At first the main appeal is to the direct listener with a short-wave receiving set and the improvements in short-wave transmission and reception are such that reasonably good reception should be possible to such listeners.

It is realised that the service will not be without difficulties owing to the size of the Empire, spreading as it does over 300 degrees of longitude involving a time difference of twenty hours at Greenwich. A general Empire broadcast, while not impossible, is neither convenient nor satisfactory, but arrangements have been made to transmit programmes at suitable times to various separate zones.

The Falkland Islands come in the West African Zone to which programmes are transmitted daily between 16.30 and 18.30 G.M.T. or 4.30 p.m. and 6.30 p.m. local time (winter.)

A Helpful Questionnaire.

The British Broadcasting Corporation cordially invite the co-operation of listeners in all parts of the Empire in promoting the success of the service. This listeners can do by sending reports of reception to the British Broadcasting Corporation, by making suggestions to them and especially, when reception is good, by letting their neighbours hear transmissions from England. The service has in some measure emerged from the experimental stage but it cannot reasonably be expected to be perfect in its early days. The British Broadcasting Corporation have no illusion upon this point, and while they ask for patience from listeners they do solicit their co-operation in giving them the fullest possible information upon the technical aspects of local reception.

For this reason they have produced a questionnaire of which a supply is being obtained for distribution to local listeners who are asked in this way to co-operate in the substantial promotion of a good Empire service.

The Superintendent of the Electrical Department in Stanley, Mr. F.A.W. Byron, will be glad to receive applications for copies of the questionnaire from local listeners and to forward them as soon as they become available.

The British Broadcasting Corporation will welcome constructive criticism of every kind; but it will be realised that criticism which is confined to mere details of programmes or of times selected for broadcasting, and which is either based upon purely personal preferences or is lacking in any concrete proposals for improvement, will be of little value.

THE MOSCOW TRIAL.

British Cabinet Considers Report.

Formal charges of espionage, damaging activities, bribery and counter-revolutionary propaganda are to be presented against the Metropolitan Vickers employees imprisoned in Moscow while against Mr. A. Monkhouse, the local manager, another undefined charge is pending.

The Supreme Court of Soviet Russia is examining the evidence in camera for a decision if the trial is to be on all the charges.

Sir E. Ovey, the British Ambassador at Moscow, recalled for consultation with reference to the Metropolitan Vickers affair arrived in London on Sunday and proceeded at once to the Foreign Office. On Monday the Cabinet Committee considered Sir Ovey's report and a full Cabinet was called afterwards.

FOUR POWER DECISION EXPECTED.

According to a message from Paris considerable modifications have been introduced in the Four Power Pact following the week-end diplomatic activity.

Lord Tyrell presented the British Government's note to the French Foreign Minister.

M. de Jouvenal, the French Ambassador in Rome interpreted to Italy the Government's intentions.

M. Titulescu is watching the Little Entente interests and has been interviewing the leaders of all parties.

THOUSANDS OF JEWS RUINED.

Boycott Cost Incalculable.

The World Alliance combating anti-Semitism, having declared an anti-German boycott, is considering the new German situation and their decision was expected to reach Germany to-day when the Hitler Government's anti-Jewish truce expires.

The cost of the resumption of the anti-Jewish boycott will be incalculable towards Germany says the Daily Telegraph in view of the stock market reactions of the past few days. Many thousands of Jews have already been ruined.

Herr Frick, the German Minister of the Interior, speaking at a Nazi demonstration on Monday foreshadowed a law providing that only officials of German blood may incorporate State authority while the Berlin municipality, it is understood, has ordered all Jewish teachers to take indefinite leave.

An order preventing Jews from leaving Germany without special permission was expected to be issued on Tuesday.

The political police embargoed the bank account of Professor Einstein with the allegations that "the money was doubtless intended for the preparation of treason and sedition," while Professor Kantorowicz, the head of the University of Bonn has been arrested for unknown reasons.

FINED 10 SHILLINGS.

John Albert Kirk, aged 17½, a carter, was fined ten shillings in the Police Court yesterday morning for leaving the Common Gate open on Saturday last.

The Chief of the Police pointed out that animals had strayed from the Common and their owners had complained of them being impounded and said that the common gate had been left open. There were notices on the gates drawing attention to the fact that if they were left open a fine of £10 might be imposed.

It was stated that the offence was the first of its kind that had come before the Court for some time but the trouble was annoying and the next defendant would be dealt with more seriously.

THE EVEREST EXPEDITION.

His Majesty the King has sent a message of congratulation to the members of the Houston Everest Expedition as a result of their wonderful flight over the summit.

The Prime Minister and the Secretary of State for India, Sir Samuel Hoare, are among the many others who have sent congratulations on the successful achievement.

A further message from Purnea states that two of the Westland planes which on Wednesday topped Mount Everest's 29,000 feet tried later a similar feat over Kanchenjunga but one of them was forced down owing to petrol shortage. There were no injuries.

AIRWAYS' PLANE CRASH DEVELOPMENT.

That a man named Voss, one of the "City of Liverpool's" passengers and a victim of the crash in Belgium was concerned with drug smuggling was suggested at the inquest on Tuesday in the form of a coroner's question.

It was hinted that illicit goods were parachuted and picked up by a confederate who was also stated to be a victim of the disaster

The inquest was adjourned until the 27th April.

Startling theories have been advanced concerning Voss. It is suggested that he took poison prior to setting fire to the aeroplane.

The evidence showed that Voss fell two miles clear of the disaster scene and only his hands and head were burnt. He was also insured, including the flight, for a large sum of money. He was an undischarged bankrupt financially embarrassed and wanted by the police for alleged embezzlement.

CELEBRATING WITH BEER.

According to a message from New York celebrations including parties, processions and fireworks are being arranged to christen officially the legalisation of beer in the United States which takes place at mid-night on Friday.

The "Return of Liberty" is to be inaugurated by an aeroplane flock from the breweries conveying free consignments of beer to White House as a tribute to Roosevelt's part in terminating the thirteen year old national thirst.

The legalisation only applies to twenty-four States on Friday later dates are to be announced for the other States.

THE U.S. AIR DISASTER.

Eighty Lives Lost.

Two Blimps Also Crash.

The United States Navy Department announce that the officers and crew on board the airship Akron numbered 77. The apparent death list is therefore 74 from the loss of this vessel since one of the four survivors has died.

Those missing include Admiral Moffet, the American delegate to London for the Naval Conference. Hope of rescuing other members of the crew is almost abandoned. Persistent search by ships and aeroplanes has been hampered by fog and rain.

The British people have been deeply shocked by the event and the utmost sympathy is felt for America in her national disaster. Many messages have been sent.

The Daily Telegraph in publishing the text of Lieutenant-Commander H.V. Wiley one of the survivors from Akron who was in charge when the disaster occurred, says the vessel was not struck by lightning but a thunderstorm literally plucked the craft from the clouds 1,600 feet in the air and dashed it on to the Atlantic's stormy surface as "an eggshell against the pavement."

In the storm centre the ship tossed violently and despite ballast thrown out the descent continued after the controls had been destroyed, the ship being demolished on coming into contact with the surface of the sea.

The rescue vessels were unable to discover the wreckage which is believed to have sunk but the dead body of Commander F.E.M. accord has been picked up.

The day of the dirigible disaster was completed by the U.S. Blimp J. 3, one of the Akron's rescuers, crushing and sinking off Beach Haven and the French semi-dirigible E. 9 crashing near Querande while test flying, two men in the latter being injured.

A later message from New Jersey states two of the crew of the Blimp J. 3 were rescued and five, including the commander, were drowned.

THE MOSCOW TRIAL.

Prisoners Allowed Bail.

Metropolitan Vickers in London have been officially informed of the release of Messrs. Thornton, Cushny and Gregory on bail in the sum of 55,000 roubles but bail has not been accepted on behalf of W.H. MacDonald.

Mr. Sylvester Yates, a barrister and a fluent Russian scholar, is prepared to depart for Moscow at a moment's notice in connection with the case but it is not yet known whether the Russian authorities will or will not permit his appearance on behalf of the Britons.

A White Paper has been published giving the details of the Ambassador's efforts and says it is inconceivable that the Soviet can produce credible evidence of criminal malpractice on the part of the Metropolitan Vickers Company

---o---o---

THE JEWISH BOYCOTT.

Although the anti-Jewish boycott was not resumed on Wednesday the position is being made permanent in another form, says the Daily Telegraph, by the placing of large plates on business places which are not owned by Jews.

So far as the public services are concerned the anti-Semitic purge is completed and this is now extending to sport. The German Boxers' League is expelling all Jewish members while Germans under Jewish contracts are being released.

WAR DEBT PAYMENTS.

In reply to a question in the House of Commons on Wednesday regarding Britain's war debt payments to the United States and her receipts from other countries, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, said that including the payment of £29 millions on the 15th December last Britain's payments to the United States amounted altogether to £355,200,000. Britain's receipts from foreign war debts are £71,100,000 and from Reparations £121,300,000, making a total of £192,400,000.

GOLD ORDER RELAXED.

U.S. Off The Standard.

An order relaxing the embargo on the gold movement was signed by President Roosevelt at Washington on Wednesday, announces the Daily Telegraph.

This permits the export of gold earmarked by foreign governments and bullion export for trade purposes under license and formally marks the dollar's triumph over the 4th of March crisis with a greater recovery than generally assumed.

America remains off the internal gold standard and the President has ordered the return of all gold over 100 dollars held by individuals before the 1st May. Refusal will involve a penalty of 10,000 dollars fine and or ten years' imprisonment.

Coincidentally further gold purchases by the Bank of England makes the holding total a record figure of 177 million sterling.

It is inconceivable that an early return to the gold standard is intended says the Daily Telegraph until the future can be seen more clearly and the government is fully assured that the world would, generally, co-operate to work the standard as it is meant.

According to the Daily Telegraph Von Papen, who is a Catholic, is visiting the Pope to negotiate with the Vatican as to the development of the German Catholic movement while Goehring is to be Mussolini's guest and is repeating the stay made last Autumn on the occasion of the opening of the German Academy in Rome.

Earlier rumours of Herr Hitler's visit are not mentioned.

THE RUSSLAN BILL.

The remaining stages of the Government's Bill enabling them to prohibit by proclamation the importation of Russian goods to the United Kingdom were considered in the House of Commons on Thursday.

The President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Runciman, proposed however, a time limit of three months with a provision that the measure could be continued by means of a Parliamentary resolution before the expiration of that period, or until a further resolution, praying for it to be revoked, was passed by each House.

Sir Herbert Samuel said he was most grateful for Mr. Runciman's statement and had it been made the previous day the Liberals would have voted for the second reading.

THE PREMIER'S AMERICAN VISIT.

Surprise is expressed in Washington announces the Daily Telegraph that Premier MacDonald is visiting America at a time when the negotiations on War Debts and the Economic Conference are only in the preliminary stage.

It is also believed that upon this meeting hangs the fate and the location of the World Economic Conference and whether in fact, there will be a conference at all.

There is no ground for supposing that a moratorium on war debts will be granted by America pending the conference while a White House official declares that President Roosevelt has not authorised any other person to announce that a moratorium has been granted to Britain.

The American debt policy is for bargaining and if Premier MacDonald can suggest a substantial compensation in world trade for America, acceptable to both parties, in return for a debt reduction, the visit may become historically significant.

BRITISH IRON & STEEL SCHEME.

An announcement was made in London on Thursday of the submission to the Chancellor of the Exchequer and the Tariff Tribunal of a scheme for re-organising the iron and steel industry by its national committee.

The scheme is designed to create machinery whereby the home industry control will be exercisable and agreements with foreign producers can be negotiated. This is to be achieved through the agency of a proposed Iron and Steel Corporation of Great Britain which will co-ordinate the work of the Industry branch association.

The Chancellor commenting on the matter said "success will depend upon the degree and singlemindedness with which the machinery is used."

The scheme is the result of a conditional grant and a two years' extension of the 33 per cent import duty on foreign iron and steel goods.

The Royal Aero Club, so a message reports from London, is supporting the financial group which is organising the high-speed air races to take place in England in August. The contests are replacing the Schneider Cup Event, the trophy having been won outright by England.

The fastest civil aircraft in the world are participating and will make a series of the most thrilling air spectacles ever seen.

Aircraft constructors unanimously welcome the project and are giving the scheme their wholehearted support.

The machine classifications are unlimited with 8½ and 6½ litre racing round a ten mile pylor course at 500 feet.

August the 4th, 5th and 7th are suggested as the days for the events. A separate race being flown daily over one of the south of England municipal aerodromes - Portsmouth probably being the place.

JAPANESE COTTON ENCROUCHES.

Master Spinners' Resolution.

The Manchester Cotton Trade Statistical Bureau points out that during the last six months of 1932 Japanese piece goods exports exceeded the British by 27.6 million square yards while for the first time Japanese exports of cotton to India exceeded the British with Egypt's figures only fractionally less. Japanese increases are also recorded in the Dutch East Indies and Siam, but there is a decrease in China owing to boycott.

Simultaneously the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners' Associations have passed a resolution urging the need for a price rise in silver pointing out that the contraction in Britain's textile industry was mainly due to the lessened far-eastern custom where purchasing power was dependant upon the silver's sterling valuation.

The Federation resolved to urge the Government to make a more extensive use of silver in coinage and take international action at the earliest possible opportunity to increase silver's price "which should be stabilised at the minimum of 2/- per ounce."

ROOSEVELT'S PLAN

FOR WORLD RECOVERY.

According to a Reuter message from Washington informal conversations in which the representatives of Great Britain, France, Italy, Germany and possibly Japan will participate, are being arranged as a preliminary to the World Economic Conference and for the staging of President Roosevelt's "American Plan" for a world recovery which will result in the "realistic action" demanded by the world situation.

President Roosevelt will shortly be asking the Congress for power to conclude reciprocal agreements in the matter of War Debt Concessions while it is also reported that a recommendation for a ten per cent cut in the import tariff is likely.

The Daily Telegraph's Diplomatic correspondent points out that Washington's invitation to Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the British Premier, is mainly inspired by the fear that the European debtors might default with their June war debt payments unless, in the meantime, some provisional arrangement is arrived at.

AUSTRALIAN ELECTIONS.

A Seession From The Commonwealth ?

A Reuter message from Perth reports that a large majority in favour of the secession of Western Australia from the Commonwealth is indicated by the results so far in Saturday's referendum.

A proposal for a Convention of the representatives of all the States to consider alterations in the Commonwealth Constitution was defeated.

The West Australia State elections also took place and resulted in Labour obtaining a clear majority. The Nationalist Premier, Sir James Mitchell was defeated.

Another message from Adelaide stated that the Labour Government was defeated in the State elections and a Liberal victory was assured consequent upon a split in the Labour ranks. A bulletin received yesterday reports that the South Australia State elections resulted in a sweeping victory for the Liberals and their leader, Mr. R.L. Butler has succeeded Mr. R. Richards, the Labour leader, as premier.

LITTLE ENTENTE PROTEST.

Outcome Of Rome Discussions.

According to a message from London vigorous opposition is being offered by Poland and the Little Entente States of Czecho-Slovakia, Rumania and Yugo-Slavia to the Four Power Pact Plan which was announced to the world following the meeting in Rome of Premier MacDonald and Signor Mussolini.

Protests and warnings against the execution of the Plan, says the Sunday Times, have been expressed as follows :

The Polish Ambassador in London - Poland, unless consulted, will not be bound down by any decision of the Powers for a Treaty Revision.

M. Titulescu for Rumania - A Treaty revision will lead to war.

Dr. Benes for Czecho-Slovakia - If the Powers insist upon forming a directorate outside, my country will leave the League of Nations.

Mr. MacDonald stated last week that these States, so far as the conversations are concerned need have no fears: they have the right to be consulted where-ever their special interests are concerned and that will be done.

German Degradation.

The degradation of the Jews in Germany to second class citizens has taken a step further with the new Civil Service Law which provides that Germany is to be governed by "Aryans."

Thousands of officials of the old regime are to be dismissed and Jews are to be barred in the future from entering the civil service.

Although it is not yet announced it is now certain that Captain Goerhing will be the Prussian Premier and Von Papen, who is also a candidate, will be given another important post.

WORLD ECONOMIC REDEMPTION.

Move To Recognise The Soviet.

America's informal discussions with the foreign governments for the purpose of reviving world trade was further developed on Saturday and is rapidly assuming an importance even greater than the Washington Arms' Conference of 1921 - 22 when the first successful effort to limit armaments was made.

Virtually all the nations with which America has diplomatic relations are invited to Washington to discuss the economic redemption of the world in advance of the World Economic Conference.

There is a movement in the Congress at Washington, states the Sunday Times correspondent, to recognise Soviet Russia.

ITALIAN "MILLE MIGLIA."

Thrilling Car Race.

A Reuter message from Rome states that ninety cars of all sizes and designs left the starting point at Brescia on Saturday in glorious weather on the "Mille Miglia" - the thrilling thousand miles road race round Italy.

The three tiny 12 horse power British cars M.G. Magnettes were manned by three of Great Britain's famous drivers - Earl Howe, Sir Henry Birkin and Captain Eyston.

Borzacchini, the Italian driver and the winner of the Mille Miglia in 1932 has won Mussolini's prize for the fastest time between Brescia and Rome in an Alfa Romeo.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA & SECESSION.

Western Australia's 2 to 1 majority in favour of seceding from the Commonwealth is, says a message from Perth, the culmination of a campaign which has been more or less active for twenty years but which has grown rapidly during the recent years of depression.

The Federal Premier, Mr. Lyons, states that he will now convene a convention to discuss the constitutional issue raised.

The States are to be asked whether an impartial body should be appointed to ascertain if assistance would be required by the less populated States.

A later message from Perth discloses that the voting in the secession poll was - 109,476 for, 55,109 against.

The next step is the petitioning of the British Parliament for release from the Commonwealth and if refused the cooperation with South Australia and Tasmania in support of a Bill to amend the constitution.

It is considered that if the latter step is taken the combined voting strength will be too small against almost insuperable difficulties.

ANGLO-ARGENTINE AGREEMENT.

A £10,000,000 Trade Scheme.

According to a message from London there was every expectation in well informed circles that the new trade agreement between the British and the Argentine governments which has been the subject of lengthy negotiations, would be signed either yesterday or the day before (Monday.)

Both sides have made concessions, the Argentine taking a favourable view of Britain's proposal regarding the meat question which was designed to effect the release of "frozen deposits" in the Argentine.

Argentina has accepted the "cut" resulting from the Ottawa Agreement but has resisted the British proposal for the right to impose a further cut of ten per cent on meat imports to Britain should the necessity arise but an understanding on this point has been reached.

It is learned, says the Daily Telegraph, that arrangements for a loan to Argentina have been completed and there is a likelihood that a £10,000,000 trade scheme will be a feature of the agreement.

The prospect of an immediate and satisfactory settlement in the negotiations is cordially welcomed by both sides.

BRITISH "BABY" CARS TRIUMPH.

Outstanding Success In "Mille Miglia."

A message from Rome states that the "Mille Miglia" - the Italian 1,000 miles road race - the longest and most perilous event in the world as far as motor racing goes, ended on Monday in an outstanding triumph for British "Baby" cars.

Two of the three 12 horse power M.G. Magnettes, driven by Captain Eyston and Earl Howe, finished first and second in the 1,000 c.c. class against a strong Italian and continental opposition.

Both broke the records for their class at every stage of the race, their times being - Captain Eyston 18 hours, 1 minute, 4 seconds, average speed 56.90 miles an hour; Earl Howe, 18 hours, 2 minutes, 37 seconds, average speed 56.82 miles an hour.

The winner of the big cars' class was the Italian ace Nuvolari in 15 hours, 11 minutes and 55 seconds with an average speed of 67 miles an hour.

ILLICIT DRUG COUP.

The greatest coup in illicit drug traffic history was made by the secret police in Constantinople at the beginning of the week, involving the arrests of leading members of the commercial community and others numbering in all over 100 while a British firm's agent, an hotel proprietor and a Greek actress are alleged to be implicated.

Four secret factories were discovered capable of supplying one ton of heroin monthly says the Daily Telegraph correspondent, and sea, air and land transport routes for dispersal have been revealed.

The widespread ramifications of the organisation are said to include prominent Greeks and Parisians.

The gang's chief is believed to be among the arrested. This man was caught as he was approaching the Turco-Bulgarian frontier in a car with a load of dope.

As State Air Commissioner Goering's visit is believed to portend a discussion of co-operation in aviation matters particularly in the civilian services.

Von Papen's arrival was unobstentatious and after an hour's conversation with the Papal Secretary of State on Wednesday it is understood he would be visiting the Pope.

MANCHUKUO RETALIATION.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent at Dairen reports the suspension of freight traffic on the Chinese Eastern Siberian Railway by order of the Manchukuo Executive as a retaliation for the Soviet's seizure of considerable rolling stock.

The Soviet has agreed to return the property but the Manchukuo authorities are enforcing a pass-port barrier for controlling the passenger entry to their country.

A long series of aggravations affecting all nations are alleged against the Soviet, particularly in malicious interference with British and German traffic by the insistence upon unnecessary visas.

NEW YORK'S BEER SUPPLY.

Referring to the end of America's prohibition the Daily Telegraph says "New Beer's Eve was celebrated in New York by confetti throwing, processions, the blowing of tin horns headed by bands with such jubilation that words cannot describe it."

The States which have already legalised the sale of beer are : Washington, Oregon, Nevada, California, Colorado, Minnesota, Arizona, Montana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, Kentucky, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey District, Columbia, Delaware (partly) and Maryland (partly.)

Owing to the low alcoholic content of the beverage sold at 10 cents a pint there is no danger of orgies while New York's supplies are only 400,000 barrels and 200,000 bottles.

A Bill is projected taxing imports at 20 dollars a barrel.

The object of the visit was not to negotiate and fix terms but to discuss questions with which both of them were confronted.

---O---O---

THE JEWS & THE LEAGUE.

Sir John Simon was asked in the House of Commons on Tuesday whether any action to protect the Jewish minority in Upper Silesia was to be taken by the League of Nations under Article 11 of the Covenant and whether the Jewish Minority was not guaranteed full equality under the German Polish Convention of 1922.

He said the League Council had laid it down that the procedure under Article 11 should not normally be employed in cases relating to the protection of minorities under Treaties, and "should only be invoked in grave cases which produce feeling that facts exist which might effectively menace the maintenance of peace between Nations."

It was doubtful therefore whether Article 11 could be properly invoked in the case of the Jewish minority in Upper Silesia.

Regarding the German Polish Convention he was not aware that any appeal had been made to the Council on the ground that the Jewish minority had been deprived of its rights secured under that Convention.

Replying to further questions Sir John Simon said the whole subject of the position of the Jews in Germany was receiving a great deal of public attention and he was himself making enquiries.

The Home Secretary, Sir John Gilmour, explained that the London Police, as a measure of precaution against breaches of the peace, had advised the removal of Jewish posters advocating the boycotting of Germany and German goods. Further questioned he said that the Jews might exhibit posters if they chose to do so but he was sure the House would agree that it was undesirable that members of the public should at present take any action liable to inflame feeling. It was certainly the intention of the Government to allow a reasonable expression of opinion in Britain on the matter.

The following officers and members of the committee were elected for the ensuing year :

Captain - the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., Vice Captain - the Hon. J. Innes Moir, Hon. Secretary & Treasurer - Mr. M.G. Creece. The members of the Committee are - Messrs. C.A. Parkinson, F.A.W. Byron, L.B. White and J.D. Creamer with Mr. W.D.A. Jones auditor.

The annual report showed the financial position to be satisfactory but it was pointed out that the new Committee would be faced with fairly large expenses this year as it was decided that the time had come, mainly for reasons of public safety, to consider the abandonment of the first and last holes along the front road which would mean a considerable alteration to the course.

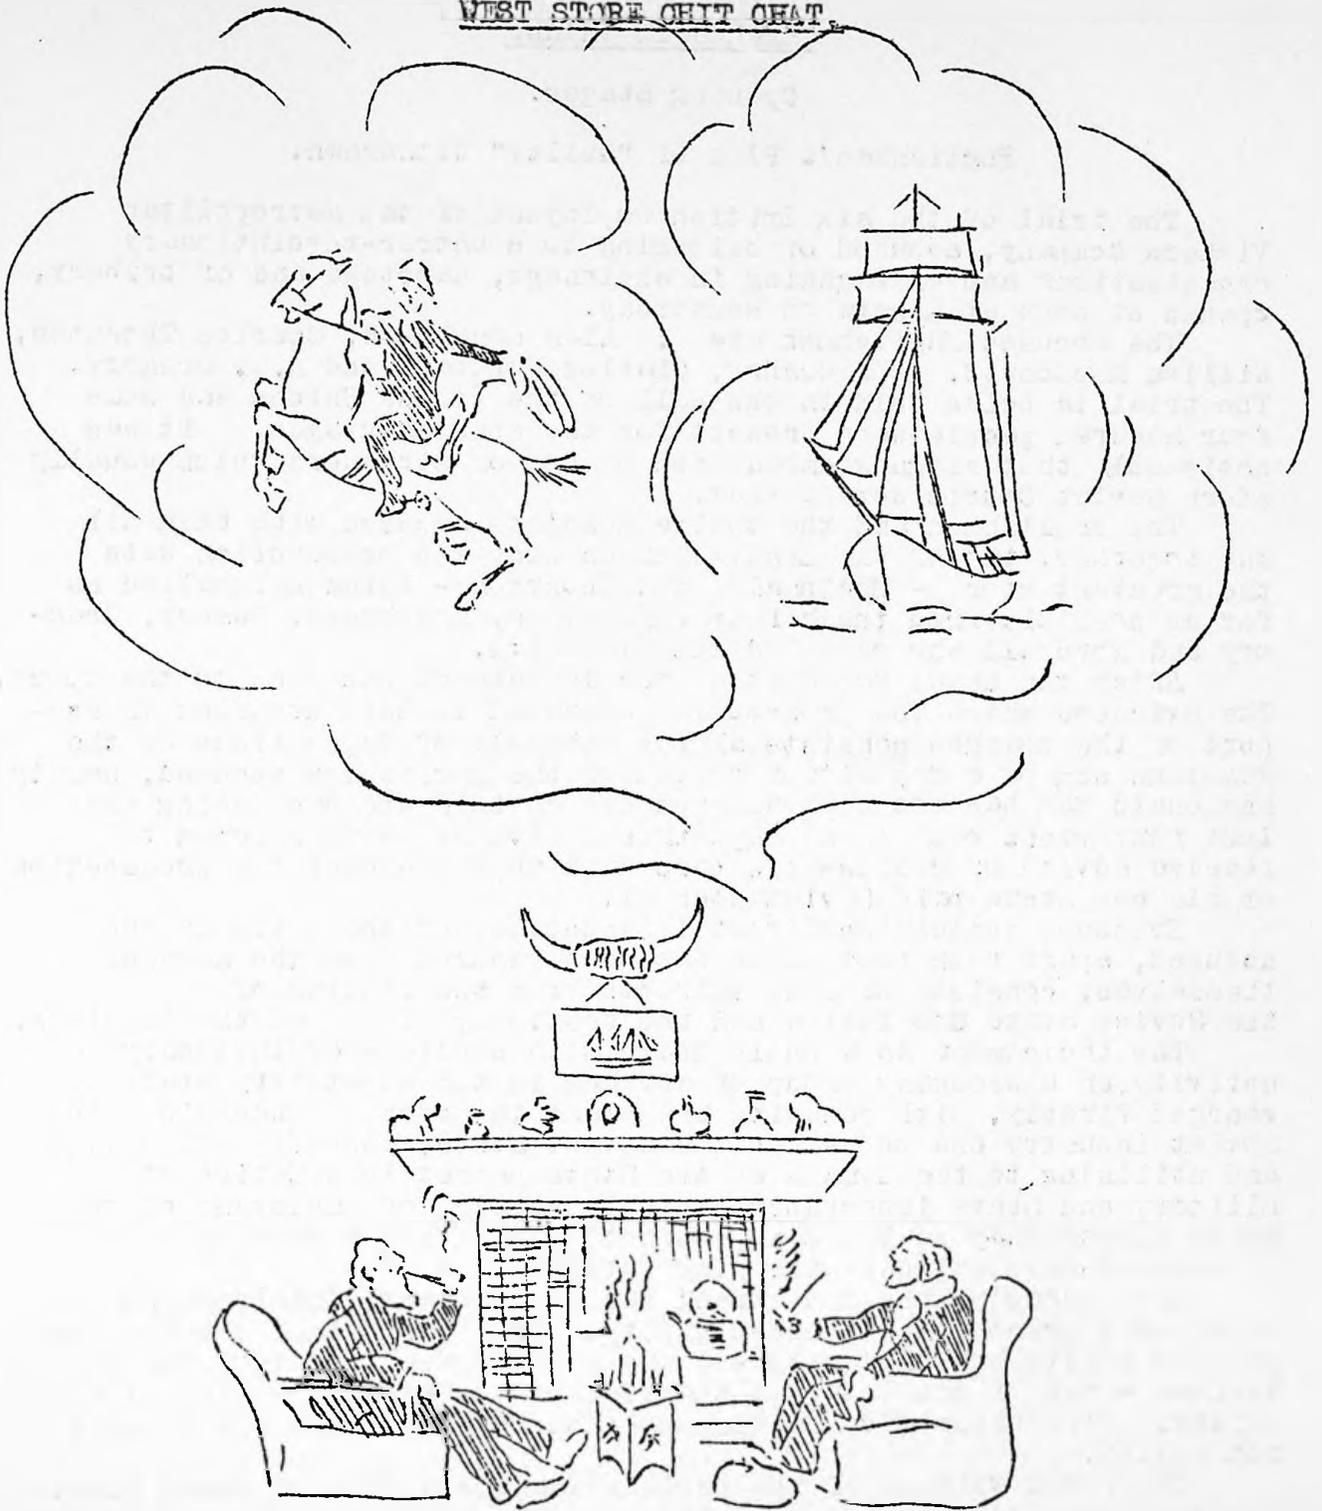

The Annual Subscription was fixed at 15/-.

THE MOSCOW TRIAL.

Opening Stages.

Englishman's Plea Of "Guilty" Withdrawn.

The trial of the six British employees of the Metropolitan Vickers Company, accused of belonging to counter-revolutionary organisations and of engaging in espionage, sabotage and of bribery, opened at noon at Moscow on Wednesday.

The accused Englishmen are : Alan Monkhouse, Charles Thornton, William MacDonald, John Cushry, Charles Nordwall and A.W. Gregory. The trial is being held in the Hall of the Trades Unions and some four hundred people were present for the opening stages. It was noticeable that slogans emblazoned on cotton streamers which usually adorn Soviet Courts were absent.

The Englishmen and the twelve Russians accused with them all sat together, two of the Englishmen on whom the prosecution sets the greatest store - MacDonald and Thornton - being marshalled as far as possible from their four companions, Monkhouse, Cushry, Gregory and Nordwall who occupied the back row.

After the usual formalities the indictment was read to the Court. The evidence which the prosecution advanced in this document in support of the charges consists almost entirely of depositions of the Russians and of a deposition of one of the Englishmen accused, namely MacDonald who has not been allowed out on bail and has during the last four weeks been in an OGPU prison without being allowed to receive advice or discuss his case with anyone except the prosecution or his own State paid Soviet Counsel.

Evidence containing direct insinuations of the guilt of the accused, apart from that which has been secured from the accused themselves, consists of some extracts from the finding of the Soviet State Commission and the testimony of two of the Russians.

The indictment as a whole deals with counter-revolutionary activity, of a wrecking group of workmen in the electricity station, charged firstly, with damaging the plant in order to undermine the Soviet industry and to weaken the Soviet State, secondly collecting and utilising to the damage of the State secret information of military and State importance, thirdly bribing of employees of the State electricity stations in connection with the execution by them of counter-revolutionary wrecking activities.

After reading the indictment the accused were interrogated as to whether or not they pleaded guilty. All but one of the Russians pleaded guilty and MacDonald who was interrogated first of the Englishmen - out of his order in the list of the accused - also pleaded guilty. The other five Englishmen interrogated after him pleaded not guilty.

The first witness of the prosecution was a Russian named Gusev who confessed to wrecking activities and declared that he received a proposal from MacDonald to supply information especially with regard to the military departments and also types of shells manufactured in Russia.

On Thursday the proceedings were continued until 10.0 o'clock at night. The session was devoted to the calling of evidence in support of the charges of espionage, wrecking and bribery at Zlatoust and was occupied by the examination of Gusev, the chief of the Zlatoust Power Station. Gusev made a complete confession. He gave his life history and said he had met with sympathy from MacDonald who discussed with him among other things the deplorable living conditions in Russia. After a time he said MacDonald asked him to supply information about the production of ammunition and also stated that he had on MacDonald's instructions the breakdowns which he described at length and that he had been paid 3,000 roubles for this work. MacDonald and his chief, Thornton, were asked about this matter, the former who withdrew his plea of guilty said the information was for his personal account while Thornton replies gave no reason for the money transaction.

the post of Clerk to the Medical Department. Miss Bonner was for some time a member of the Stanley Ladies' Hockey Club while for the past two years she has been employed as cashier in the West Store Millinery Department. She is still a member of the Committee of the Badminton Club at the Defence Force Drill Hall.

The happy pair were the recipients of a host of presents of exceptional utility, among them being gifts from the Colonial Secretary's Office, the West Store Office and Staff and the Jazz Band.

In a final word wishing the young couple every happiness it would not be out of place also to express a word of praise to Mr. J.F. Summers whose excellent wedding cake marked the starting point of their joint venture in life and to Mrs. J.F. Summers whose skillful hands blended so well the bouquets in a harmony in which we hope their own two lives will be blended.

FOOTBALL.

A practice game was played on Good Friday between two teams captained by O. Pike and W. J. Grierson. For the initial turn out of the season the match was well contested and now and then a bright spot of combination illuminated the otherwise merely passable play. It was interesting to watch the shaping of the new players Kirk and Clifton in the sides and they should with perseverance adapt themselves admirably to the game. The goals were scored by O. Pike, H. Thomas and M. G. Creece for the "Aston Villa's" and D. Atkins (2) and W. Aldridge for the "Black & Tans," making the final score

THE EASTER WEATHER.

On Thursday last there seemed little prospect of the Easter Holidays being favoured with fine weather for the wind which had been blowing up from the south seemed to increase in velocity and, as a matter of fact at one time touched the guage at 45 miles an hour, and appeared well laden with rain. Friday was over-cast but the wind had hopefully veered to the west though Saturday was disappointing for the wind again rose and brought rain. Sunday, however, was perfect but Monday could not have been much more bad-tempered than it was and the enjoyment of activities out of doors was out of the question.

THE MOSCOW TRIAL.

"Framed" Charges.

Considerable interest is being displayed in New York in connection with the Moscow Trial states the Daily Telegraph correspondent, particularly in view of the Metropolitan Vickers' prisoners allegations of duress and "framed" charges.

Russia's case for recognition will be irretrievably damaged if America is convinced that illegal methods have been adopted in view of the large number of American engineers engaged under Soviet contracts and their interests being involved.

A meeting of "American friends of Russia" scheduled for New York on Sunday was abandoned without reason but a statement has been circulated that the friends activities have been suspended until evidence repudiating the British allegations of having to submit to third degree methods is received.

From Berlin press reports indicate that the trend of the trial follows the earlier case heard against German engineers and the result is likely to be similar to that, namely the prisoners will be evacuated from Russia.

IND. LABOUR PARTY PROPOSAL.

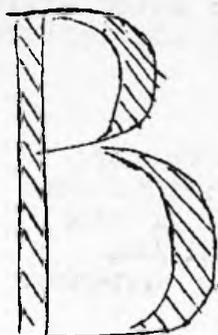

The Annual Conference of the Independent Labour Party being held at Derby passed a proposal to approach the Communist International with a view to co-operation though not actual affiliation.

The proposer, Mr. Warbey, said there was no longer any hope of working with the Labour Party and the Socialist International as the I.L.P. was now declared a revolutionary party which was finished for ever with the old democracies and their absurd dogmas.

Despite general secretary Paton's view that the Russian policy of rigid dominance was unworkable in Britain which was accustomed for generations to exercise an administrative initiative of a high order, the resolution was passed by 85 against 79.

TRADE OUTLOOK OPTIMISTIC.

The Postmaster General, Sir Kingsley Wood, addressing the Chamber of Commerce at Nottingham on Tuesday, stated that the provisional figures showed a steady increase in the postal business since September last as compared with the steady decline from October 1930 to August last.

This was a most hopeful sign of a trade recovery he said as the Post Office was a reliable barometer of the prospects.

The financial year's profits were :- £108,000,000 postal, and £500,000 telephones; but the telegraphs had lost £800,000 making the surplus £1,500,000.

GERMAN "MAY DAY" CELEBRATIONS.

According to a message from Berlin the Minister for Propaganda has published a stupendous programme of celebrations to mark May 1st which has been officially proclaimed as the German Labour Day says the Daily Telegraph correspondent.

In Berlin the festivities are to include a demonstration on the Tempelhof parade ground where it is hoped a million voices will join in singing Ernstmarndt's song which is an exhortation to vengeance by sword and calling upon the Germans to band together for a "Holy War." Apparently the song is henceforward to be used in place of the Internationale at May Day celebrations.

The colonial expansionist views of the "awakened Germany" are reflected in the formation of an African-German Cultural Society with the avowed object of achieving a closer understanding with the Boers. It is stated that in Africa General Hertzog is the patron and Werner Schmidt of Pretoria the territorial president.

Meanwhile the Minister of the Interior has issued an order supplementing the law for the exclusion of Jews from official positions which compels the proving of pure Aryan descent and when there are any doubts a racial research expert's investigation.

THE MOSCOW VERDICT.

Englishmen Sentenced.

Prosecution's Harangue.

The Moscow trial on the six Englishmen of the Metropolitan Vickers' Company who were charged with being engaged in espionage, sabotage and bribery against the Soviet concluded on Wednesday.

The verdict was :- Thornton - three years' imprisonment; MacDonald - two years' imprisonment; Gregory - acquitted; Monkhouse, Cushny and Nordwall to be deported within three days.

In the prosecution's statements on Tuesday Vishinsky admitted that MacDonald's confession was "not absolutely straightforward" and explained that it was because he was an experienced spy and had burned his correspondence which might be useful as evidence so that "our OGPU should not get hold of it." MacDonald could, therefore, be charged with military espionage in the organisation of break-downs, bribery and corruption. "MacDonald is now caught," he said, "and he will have to answer for his crimes." Vishinsky then resumed his attack on Nordwall. "If we are asked," he said, "whether our grounds are sufficient to charge Nordwall we can answer with the firmest conviction that they are more than sufficient." He was, continued Vishinsky, "obviously in touch with the wreckers. He concealed the defects of the Metropolitan Vickers equipment, gave bribes and supplied information to Thornton."

Vishinsky then discussed the alleged payments of 5,000 roubles to Lobanov. He said that he did not know whether Nordwall had tempted Lobanov or Lobanov, Nordwall, but he was certain that they co-operated. After a long discussion regarding the transaction involving a fur coat with which, the prosecution claimed, Nordwall had bribed Lobanov Vishinsky said "Nordwall cannot get away from this coat and he will have to wear it himself. It is a warm coat and he will need it." He concluded his attack on Nordwall by referring to him as one of those mentioned in the statement to which the prosecution secured Thornton's signature and since repudiated, which gives a list of 27 past and present employees of the Metro. Vickers in the Soviet Union and describes them as members of an organisation for espionage.

The concluding stages of the trial on Wednesday consisted mainly of speeches by the Russian Counsel on behalf of the accused men. On the conclusion of these the accused made their final statements. MacDonald said he had already said he was guilty and had nothing to add. Cushny said he had nothing to add to the defence of his counsel who had quite torn to shreds the flimsy fabric of the prosecution's case. Nordwall stated that he was not guilty. He had always been a friend of the Soviet Union and still was, and was not afraid to say so in front of the foreign press. Thornton re-affirmed his plea of not guilty and stated that the evidence brought against him was unreliable. Monkhouse made a statement at some length, He repudiated the allegations of the prosecutor that he had misinformed the British Embassy regarding his interrogation in prison and showed the complete inaccuracy of the prosecutor's calculations of the period of the examination. As regards the prosecution's charges against him he affirmed his certainty that Thornton did not voluntarily sign "document number 27" which constituted the prosecution's only serious evidence. In any other court of law he said that that document would not hold good. He was interrupted by the President of the Court who reminded him that he did not know what the attitude of the present court was towards that document.

As regards the charge of machine wrecking Monkhouse criticised the suggestion of the prosecution that the interests of the Metro.

Vickers Company and the Soviet Government were opposed but he was interrupted by the prosecutor who reminded him that the case was against him and not against his company. Monkhouse continued by claiming that he had always valued his association with the development of Soviet industry and that it was therefore inexplicable that he should be accused of wrecking it. Regarding the third charge of bribery against him Monkhouse said he had never given a bribe in his life; that all his diaries for nine years and his private accounts for eight years had been examined by the OGPU and they had not found one figure which indicated any form of bribery. He added that he was entirely innocent of the charges against him.

Gregory stated that he had nothing to say as the public prosecutor had withdrawn his charge.

All the Russian accused had reaffirmed their pleas of guilty.

The court then adjourned and on returning announced their verdict.

COTTON TARIFF QUESTION.

Following the passing of the Anti-Dumping Bill by the Indian Legislature the cotton industrialists are not unduly alarmed says the Daily Telegraph correspondent from Tokio and the markets have only slightly been affected by the move to denounce the 1905 Trade Convention.

The textile traders are hoping that the economic conferences at London and Washington will bring an amelioration of the tariff barriers thus tempering the blow before the abrogation of the convention becomes effective in six months time.

Fear is expressed, however, that efforts towards a new and desirable treaty will be difficult.

FURIOUS GALE.

Quite unexpectedly a furious gale blew up from the south-west on Wednesday evening between 6.30 and 7.30 p.m. and accompanied by rain the wind raged over Stanley at a velocity of over 70 miles an hour. Pedestrians caught in it could hardly walk while fences were considerably damaged. Two corrugated iron fences were torn down while the old Lafonia and Fleetwing hulks droved their anchors.

The outstanding incident resulting from the storm was the collapse of the frame-work of Mr. J. Dettleff's house on the hill.

Fortunately most of the boats in the harbour were protected by the hill otherwise more damage to vessels and hulks would undoubtedly have been done. The wind abated in force as quickly as it had risen but for the rest of the night the weather was wild.

The Fleurus was expected to arrive first thing yesterday morning from South Georgia but was delayed until about 10.30 a.m. on account of the gale.

"GERMAN CHRISTIANS" AIM !

According to a message from Berlin there is a movement within the Hitlerite ranks for the reform of the Lutheran Church sponsored by "German Christians" who aim, apparently, at the union of all the protestant churches into one national body to place itself in line with the regenerated nation.

The churches are offering a strong opposition to the new project and while acknowledging the benefits accruing to Germany from the new strong national leadership argue that the Church can accomplish its part in the great work only if it is permitted a complete freedom of movement.

CANADA'S TRADE.

Canada's favourable trade balance for the fiscal year ended in March shows 67,693,000 dollars.

The exports amounted to 475,907,000 dollars and the imports totalled 406,214,000.

The total trade amounted to $87 million dollars which is 297 million less than the previous year when, however, there was an adverse balance of 2,149,000 dollars.

Coincidentally Lieutenant-Governor Bruce, in a speech from the throne proroguing Ontario's legislature referred optimistically to the Province's progress with the farmers in a better position owing to the upward trend in commodity prices while gold mining is expanding and a long step has been taken towards balancing the Budget.

FEARS FOR PEKING.

Fears are expressed at the apparent Japanese menace to Tientsin and Peking areas says the Daily Telegraph, Japanese and Manchukuo troops having already seized 250 square miles of territory inside the Great Wall, an action which involves important British and American interests in the vicinity of Chinwangtao.

The Japanese Charge d'Affaires at Peking casts doubt on the suggested imminent occupation of Tientsin and Peking and states that the troops are to be withdrawn when the Chinese attacks on the Great Wall passes end. The clashes so far have resulted in 4,000 killed and 10,000 wounded. Intense fighting is still continuing fifteen miles west of Peitaiho which is believed to be captured and from where foreigners have hurriedly left.

DRUNKENNESS DECREASE IN THE STATES.

Considerable revenue increase coupled with drunkenness decrease all over the United States marks the first week of legalised beer according to an authoritative report from the New York.

Chicago, Boston, Cincinnati and Philadelphia give returns of a sharp drop in the number of arrests relating to intoxication. Beer is replacing synthetic gin while speak-easy trade is affected by breweries working twenty-four hours daily to meet the demands with a stimulus to glass and barrel factories.

The week's consumption in Boston was 6,000,000 bottles, Chicago 100,000 barrels while Philadelphia gathered half a million dollars in licences or excise stamps.

The Wet leaders, it is reported, are expressing delight at the orderly reception of beer.

CHILDREN'S CENTENARY ESSAY.

We are now able to announce the results of the Children's Essay Competition organised by the Centenary Committee in connection with the Celebrations in February last, the prizes for which were very generously provided as a result of a donation from Mr. Charles Hansen of Carcass Island.

The subject of the Essay was to be on any topic in connection with the Centenary and six prizes were offered in two classes, the senior of which was for children from the age of 12 to 15 inclusive and the junior for children under the age of 12. The essays, which were to be the unaided work of the competitors and done outside of school hours, were judged by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., and the Hon. L.W.H. Young.

The successful competitors who sent in their essays under noms de plume which are given below, are requested to communicate their names to the Joint Hon. Secretary of the Centenary Committee, Mr. A.I. Fleuret at the Colonial Secretary's Office when arrangements will be made for the presentation of the prizes to them.

A good number of essays were received in both classes and the general standard of the work was high, reflecting great credit on intelligence of the children and on the high standard attained by them through the perseverance of their teachers. There were 16 entrants for Class 1 and 11 for Class 2, the successful essays being those of :

AMERICA & THE GOLD STANDARD.

Pound Sterling 9d Higher In 40 Minutes.

Commenting on the restoration of the gold export embargo by President Roosevelt the Daily Telegraph takes the view that America is definitely off the gold standard.

Washington's effort at controlled inflation and desire to "Let the dollar take care of itself", seeking its own natural level, has led to a world flight from America currency and the ultimate low level cannot be foreseen.

In terms of sterling the pound rose ninepence in forty minutes in New York on Wednesday while on the French exchange there was a jump from 25.25 to 24.60.

President Roosevelt's reversal of policy came as a sensation and a shocking disappointment to the city which anticipated adherence to the gold standard, giving the world a demonstration of the dollar's invulnerability and establishing a presidential triumph.

The act which is really due to a rapid increase in the Congress and Senate demand for inflation is likely to result in other countries depreciating still further so that exporters shall not lose power in competitive markets and the statesmen's new task now is to prevent chaotic currency conditions.

PEKING IN DANGER.

An American Killed.

According to a message from Peking Martial Law has been proclaimed and the fall of the city is thought to be imminent with the extension of Japanese aeroplanes bombing in the direction of Peking and Tientsin with troops occupying Luanho triangle thereby widening operations.

The native population is panic stricken and the staff of the Peking National University is packing scientific apparatus, and rare manuscripts and archives preparatory to shipment to Shanghai in view of the threatened occupation.

It is unofficially reported that Miyunshien has been bombed rasing missionary buildings and killing one American.

Luanchow on the Tientsin-Mukden Railway has been bombed and eighty per cent of the population has evacuated the place. As a result of this a discussion has ensued between the British and Japanese Legations at Tientsin with reference to the national interests involved.

The Japanese Legation gave safeguarding assurances and in Tokio the opinion is growing that the Chinese eastern railway control will gravitate into Japanese and Manchukuo hands in the near future. The Daily Telegraph correspondent there learns from an authoritative source that the Karakhan has informed the Japanese Ambassador at Moscow that the Soviet might sell the railroad. Japan is not likely to pay cash but it is understood that it probably might take the railway over on a basis of the cancellation of the Russian debts at present unrepudiated and amounting to 312,500,000 yen.

The Soviet, apparently, are prepared to make the best of a bad job receiving some sort of "quid proquo."

CENTENARY COMPETITION.

The winning essay which secures the premier award of books to the value of £1. 10s. 0d. generously provided by Mr. Charles Hansen of Carcass Island in the competition organised by the Centenary Committee, is that of "Nil Desperandum" whose effort is published below :

The Centenary Celebrations commenced with a trip to Fort Louis in the s.s. "Lafonia" on Sunday, the eighth of January. The day was glorious and all set out in the highest spirits, intending to make the most of the holiday. Up till eight o'clock everyone had been anxiously waiting for the "Lafonia's" sirene to give the signal that they were going. At last, however, we were relieved to hear the long expected signal and at nine a.m. when all the 124 passengers were aboard she weighed anchor and steamed down the harbour, bedecked with flags and firing maroons. As we continued our voyage we passed several islands on one, "Cauchon Island," we could see the seals floundering among the tussac grass. Further on, as we passed "Hog Island" we could see the settlement with the Red Ensign floating aloft and the inhabitants, some 26 in number, moving like more specks towards the beach. More maroons were fired as the ship anchored off the shore, and two large skows were lowered to take the passengers ashore and were towed by a motor-boat.

After lunch the Governor accompanied by Mr. Jack Robson and Mr. George Robson proceeded to the hollow in which lay the old cemetery to lay a wreath on the grave of Captain Matthew Brisbane who was massacred by Gauchos in 1833. After this we wandered off to see the settlement; we could still see the ruins of several houses that were more than 100 years old. Having had a good look round the settlement we went down to the far beach where we met with an unfortunate accident when Master Leslie Gleadell fell from a small cliff and received a nasty cut on his leg. Except for this we had a splendid day and were all sorry to leave this beautiful spot that was carpeted with sweet smelling sea-lavender. We were towed aboard again in the skows and when all were aboard and the skows stowed safely the "Lafonia" weighed anchor, started her engines, and made her way down the Sound. As we passed down the Sound we saw penguins jumping out of the water and porpoises swimming pass the ship. After several hours steaming we reached Stanley and anchored alongside the F.I.C's. east jetty and made our way home tired but happy.

During the second week in February crowds of visitors began to arrive from the surrounding camps in the "Lafonia", "Fleurus" and on horseback. On Friday, the tenth of February the arrival of H.M.S. "Durban" caused much excitement because many of the camp people had never seen a large ship before. A big parade was held in Government Paddock and was attended by a party of men from the "Durban" and then, after the guns had finished, the Marine's Band played "God Save The King" after which they marched past the Governor and then down to the Cathedral.

As Wednesday dawned fair and calm we packed our lunch and made our way up to the race-course at nine a.m. intending to make the most of the day's racing. "Bambina", the new horse from Punta Arena, owned by Mr. Peter Coutts, won the Governor's Cup, the Douglas Plate, and any other race she entered. There was great excitement in many races because people in all directions were shouting for the horses they were backing. What the younger people liked even more than the horse racing was the running to and fro from the various tents with pennies for sweets and bottles of "fiz."

The second day of the sports was colder and not so many people attended. One item which caused much enjoyment was the sailors' musical chairs when they were prancing about with the sailors half falling off their horses.

Monday, 24th April, 1935.

On the third day's racing there was another race for sailors in which several were thrown off but luckily no one was hurt. We were told by one sailor that "his horse came to a bog-hole and the horse jumped over and he fell in."

The scene that will live longest in our memory took place on Wednesday night when a brilliant display of Fireworks was given. Among the most beautiful were "Hanging Lights", Catherine Wheels, "Whistling Shells" and the most beautiful of all was the "Falls of Niagara" which was a silver curtain of fire falling wave after wave to the ground. After this the "Burban" gave a beautiful display of lights and also a beautiful Searchlight Display, and everyone was sorry when it finished.

Although Saturday afternoon was cold and bleak it did not keep us home from the steer riding which caused much enjoyment for although some of the camp people had seen it before the majority of the people in Stanley had not.

Having seen the finish of the steer riding we went straight down to the Town Hall where a tea was being held for all the children. After tea the six tier cake was cut and each child given a piece after which we were presented with one of the Centenary Medallions by Mr. Roberts that we hope to keep and hand down to our descendants for the next Centenary.

We also went to see the Stock Show and Sheep Dog Trials on Tuesday but did not take so much interest in them as the day was bitterly cold. The object of the Sheep Dog Trials was to drive a certain number of sheep into a pen. Whichever dog succeeded in getting the sheep inside the pen in the shortest time wins the competition. None of the dogs succeeded in this but one dog won by points.

Everyone was sorry when the celebrations came to an end, having thoroughly enjoyed the week and we all wish there would be a Centenary week every year.

"Nil Desperandum," aged 13 years.

THE WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

In the following statement to the "Sunday Times" it is stated that "all the experts have proclaimed that one of the essential causes of the crisis was the instability of money and one of the principal objects of the World Conference was to apply the remedy.

"The position of France is very clear. We want all the powers to come back to the gold standard as soon as possible. There cannot be any question for the moment of France giving up the gold standard."

In view of the urgency of this matter the French Government will appeal for a meeting of the World Economic Conference as soon as possible.

A Reuter message from Paris states that the decision of France to remain on the gold standard has restored equilibrium in French financial circles and confidence is expressed that the internal markets will escape panic so long as the inflated dollar remains under control.

It is believed, however, that a full French protective programme has already been drawn up for immediate operation should the dollar drop any appreciable extent.

MISSING AVIATRIX FOUND.

A Reuter message from Rangoon reports that Mrs. Harry Bonney, the Australian airwoman who was attempting a record flight to England from Port Darwin, Australia, and who has been missing since Thursday of last week, has been found on the Siamese island of Bangbaing in the wildest of jungle and on the most barren piece of coast on the whole route.

Mrs. Bonney encountered a terrific storm. In attempting to land on a sandy beach one wheel and the wing-tip touched the water with the result that the plane overturned.

Mrs. Bonney was located by Flying Officer Ross in a flying boat from Singapore and a relief launch has been despatched with supplies.

MOTOR WORKS RE-OPEN.

A message from Paris states that the Citroen Motor Works which closed owing to a labour dispute on the 5th of April, were to re-open to-day.

No settlement in the wages dispute has been reached but individual letters have been sent to a number of the workers stating that the works are re-opening on a wage basis somewhat higher than proposed though lower than paid before closing.

According to the French press the workers are only ready to consent to a one-third cut which the Citroen firm is anxious to achieve.

ANGLO-AMERICAN DISCUSSIONS.

The President of the United States, so a message from Washington reports, spent the whole of Monday in close consultation on board the Government yacht "Sequoia" on the Potomac River and the yacht did not return until some hours after M. Herriot had arrived.

The outstanding points of the Anglo-American discussions, says the Daily Telegraph, may be summarised as follows :

1. Agreement that war debts must be subordinated to currency and tariff problems.

2. British and American experts hope to present the President and Mr. Ramsay MacDonald with an agreed basis of economic action before the British Premier sails, though two British experts - Sir Frederick Leith Ross and Mr. Overton may remain another week.

3. There will be no three-power talks between the United States, Great Britain and France.

Mr. MacDonald has done much to enhance British prestige by the emphatic refutation of the suggestion that Britain regarded America's gold embargo as a mere astute political bargaining move.

There is no official schedule of the subjects the experts are discussing but a reliable opinion indicates the probable basis of the Anglo-American agreement is firstly a multi-lateral treaty stabilising currency by fixing gold and silver parity. One plan provides for a 35 $ gold base instead of 40 with a 5 ; as silver base.

Secondly the treaty would provide for a multi-lateral and single trade agreements with horizontal cuts in the former and specified reductions in the latter on named commodities and raw materials.

S.S. LAFONIA.

The s.s. Lafonia was expected to leave Stanley last night at 10.0 o'clock for the West Falklands en route to Montevideo. Her passengers from Stanley were Mr. and Mrs. J. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. A.G. Bennett and Master A. Bennett, Mr. J.W. Grierson, and Mr. G. Sweet. The vessel is expected to take on board Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark and Miss A. Clark at Speedwell and Mr. and Mrs. W. Luxton at Chartres.

Mr. J. Morton, Veterinary Surgeon, is on his way home before going to Nigeria with Mrs. Morton where he has a similar post in the Colonial Service there. Mr. Bennett is hoping to present to the Zoo in London two Macaroni penguins - Oscar and Horace - which he captured in Stanley some time back. Mr. J.W. Grierson is the captain of the Colony's Bisley team this year and we wish him and the other members of the team who will be leaving for England later the very best of Luck in the Junior Kolapore and Junior MacKinnon Competitions.

Miss M.L. Reave, the Matron of the Hospital, was to have departed on the occasion of this trip but owing to an unfortunate accident to her eye her leave-taking has been postponed in order that she can undergo the treatment which has been found necessary to ensure her sight not being affected.

CARNEGIE PRIZE WINNER.

ITALY ACCEPTS MACDONALD'S PLAN.

According to a message from London an optimistic view is taken of the re-opening of the Disarmament Conference. This has been mainly inspired by Italy's acceptance of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's plan, Germany's acquiescent attitude and America's willingness to join the consultative pact.

The German stand is generally ascribed to Mussolini's influence and advice relative both to the original plan and the amendments thereto.

It is probable that France and Poland will be critical while the Soviet is anticipated as an obstructionist, but it is felt that America's consent to consultative implementation of the Kellogg Pact will go far towards satisfying the French demands for security although failing to placate all the allies.

There is every prospect of the plan's adoption without there being too many structural alterations since no great power could afford individual responsibility for the failure of the Conference.

POUND STERLING AT 3.87 DOLLARS.

A London message reports that much quieter market conditions prevailed on Monday with few striking currency changes but the unsettled feeling remained.

In Sterling the dollar fluctuated between 3.82 and 3.89½ closing at 3.87 as compared with 3.85 on Saturday while the franc depreciated to £9 3/16.

American reports indicate the probability of an Inflation Bill passing the Senate to-day (Wednesday) with a sharp fight in the House of Representatives but with good prospects of the simultaneous stabilisation of the dollar and the pound.

The Daily Telegraph's correspondent in New York states that the suggestion that the experts have already fixed standards for the two currencies is premature.

GERMANY CRITICISED.

Criticism of the present German administration, made by Sir Austen Chamberlain in the House of Commons, has had repercussions abroad.

The German Government has instructed their Ambassador in London to make an immediate protest against Sir Austen Chamberlain's reference to the new Reich spirit which embodied " the worst of the old Prussianism with the added savagery of national pride and exclusiveness which cannot allow fellow subjects equality, rights and citizenship within the country to which they belong."

The German press unanimously condemn the statement which is attributed in some quarters to the British attitude towards "Marxist propaganda."

The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent states that the French view is that it is a matter gravely important from the international point of view and it is taken as a clear proof of the British outlook regarding Germany to have altered completely since the advent of Hitlerism.

CENTENARY COMPETITION.

The winning essay securing the first prize in Class 2 of the Centenary Essay Competition, submitted by "Red," is as follows :

The Firework Display.

The Centenary of the Falkland Islands was held during one of the weeks of February. Among the celebrations was a firework display in Government House Paddock on Wednesday, the fifteenth, from eleven o'clock until midnight. I liked that best. The night was beautiful and as I looked over the harbour I saw the battleship lit up from end to end all over. It looked just like a drawing made of lights instead of pencil. Searchlights were playing over the town, and as they lit up each part in turn I could see the houses and gardens and shops and Sappers Hill as plainly as in daylight.

The fireworks were very beautiful and the people for miles around who could not get away from their work for the Centenary, could see them quite plainly, they went up so high. The rockets flew up and beautiful coloured stars burst out of them and each star left a trail of smoke behind it as it fell. They all looked as if they were on fairy strings. Others had snakes bursting and wriggling down. Some snakes were very long, others were stumpy and short. The Prince of Wales Feathers were very pretty, but they melted away too quickly. There were many little coloured lights low down which kept on changing colour, and the fireworks that looked like water called Niagara Falls went up with a rush and burst and showers of white light came pouring out.

A great big bomb went off with a huge bang and many coloured lights shot into the sky, and each light burst with another bang. It was like a lot of guns shooting.

The display stopped at midnight. I thought there would be an extra special one for the last, but there wasn't, and we went home. I enjoyed it very much, and I could not say which one I liked best, as they were all so beautiful.

THE BUDGET.

No Income Tax Decrease.

Beer Cheaper.

The general opinion expressed is that the Budget is not spectacular but has an honest character with confidence, the optimistic import of which, says the Daily Telegraph, stays behind and the sacrifices placing taxpayers on firm ground have not been in vain.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer pointed out that but for the American debt payment of last September which was not budgetted for the deficit would have been only £3,000,000 while the duties produced £6,000,000 less than anticipated. The exchange equalisation account functioned well without securing undervaluation in sterling and since heavy capital (foreign) withdrawals produced the crisis in 1931 a repetition could not be risked and additions to the funds' resources have therefore been made.

The National Balance Sheet shows the expenditure to be 777 millions sterling, and the revenue to be 745. But there is a real saving compared with the estimated position two years ago amounting to 113 of which 52 was due to saving on interest and 61 on economies elsewhere.

The City gave the Budget a favourable reception applauding the decision to suspend the Sinking Fund. Industrialists are disappointed that the income tax has not been reduced but in other directions the Budget has been received uncomplainingly. The Co-Operative representatives announce, however, their determination to fight any measure taxing the Societies' earnings which the Chancellor may contemplate but which, as yet, have not been announced.

The anticipated beer tax remission of one penny became operative on Monday night and the Brewers' Society has announced that a stronger liquor will be available within a week.

ANGLO-DANISH TRADE AGREEMENT.

By a new trade agreement signed on Monday between the United Kingdom and Denmark, each country undertakes to see that the imports duties on certain classes of goods in which the other is interested shall not be raised above the specified rates.

In most cases the specified rates are those at present in force but reductions are conceded by Denmark on certain classes of goods including printed cotton, certain unbleached cotton piece goods, certain piece goods of artificial silk mixed with cotton or wool, carpeting piece goods etc., etc.. The alteration is being made on the basis upon which import duties are levied on motor cars.

Denmark agrees to maintain a freedom from import duty on coal, coke, iron and steel and certain other goods and that country also undertakes not to increase the import duties applied to a wide range of goods including certain textiles, linoleum, motor-cycles and gin and other goods.

If the Danish market is flooded with cheap textiles from other countries the two Governments will discuss proposals which Denmark may wish to make for the purpose of preserving or restoring the economic level of prices, no change, however, being made before July 1935.

WASHINGTON TALKS CREATE OPTIMISM.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald left the United States at midnight Wednesday for England in the Berengaria, having concluded his conversations with President Roosevelt.

The Daily Telegraph special correspondent reports from Washington that American optimism is apparent with reference to the World Conference as a result of the Roosevelt-MacDonald conversations, the statesmen having found themselves in greater sympathy than has been the case for a long time between the British and American leaders.

It is emphatically stated that no agreements have been entered into and neither country is committed in any way but while both sides are free it is evident that the Premier and the President are in favour of some form of consultative pact.

Roosevelt's rigid instructions to all concerned for secrecy have been implicitly observed but it is not justifiable to state that nothing has been done during the talks which undoubtedly have been carried through successfully.

A belief is widely prevalent that Roosevelt has succeeded in relegating the war debts to a position permitting the solution of them while the impression is growing in the United States that last December's quarrel will not be repeated this June.

HITLER'S NEW BAN.

Hitler's black list of books has been published and is inclusive of all works depicting the war in unpleasant colours while among the authors concerned are - Barbusse, Feuchtwanger, Remarque, Kautsky, Lenin, Karl Marx, Leibknecht, Rathenau and Upton Sinclair.

The volumes of the above authors have been banned from the public libraries but are available to students in the State Library.

The vacant shelves are to be filled with Hitler's "My Fight" and the writings of other Nazi leaders.

Sir James Barrie, the President of the Society of Authors, in a letter to the German Ambassador in London points out the international benefits of literature, protesting against the proscription of books thereby impairing intellectual life which should be protected against the malice of political and racial prejudices.

CLEARING THE WAY FOR THE ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

A Washington report states that while the official point of view is that all the debtor countries are expected to meet their obligations by the 15th of June the Daily Telegraph correspondent states that the White House spokesman has admitted that the President is seeking power to adjust the war debts and negotiate tariffs prior to the World Economic Conference Meeting.

It is thought speedy progress is being made since the State Department has indicated that the world tariff truce which America regards in a favourable light is now under consideration for effectivity by the time the Conference is summoned while the Canadian Premier, Mr. Bennett, on Thursday discussed reciprocal tariff reductions.

The Herriot conversations are obviously satisfactory in view of Roosevelt's sympathetic attitude towards the French security problems. Through the Arms Embargo and the Consultative Pact which has been suggested, and especially in the President's roughly outlined scheme in relation to aggressive nations France's fears of Hitlerite Germany are considerably quietened.

It is understood that there are divergencies in Herriot's and MacDonald's views but it is acknowledged that France cannot recede from any understanding arrived at between Mr. MacDonald and the President of the United States.

FEARS FOR THE FAR EAST.

According to a message from London diplomatic circles are becoming acutely anxious concerning the growing tension between the Soviet and Japan, especially in view of the possibility that Japan, in the interest of Manchukuo, may be impelled to undertake operations embracing the maritime province of Eastern Siberia.

It is now believed that the Japanese operations south of the Great Wall are only a mask for wider troop movements possibly in the neighbourhood of Vladivostok.

Inspired Russian press reports reveal a plot by Japanese officials to oust the Soviet from the control of the Chinese Eastern Railway and call on the Japanese Government to rebuke the Harbin officials concerned.

The opinion is generally held that the railway question is only one aspect of the Manchukuan dispute.

CENTENARY COMPETITION.

The Essay securing the second prize in Class 1 of the Centenary Essay Competition, submitted by "Rattlesnake" is as follows :

Saturday 18th February 1933 was not a very fine day, yet crowds of people could be seen making their way towards the race course anxious to see the steer riding, this being the first time this special event had been included in our sports programme.

At the east end of the course the people were standing behind iron hurdles, the north and south Grand Stands were filled, and boys climbed the roofs to get a better view.

The steers for this occasion being lent by the Manager of Port San Carlos Station, were horned, red and white animals. They were driven into a pen on the north side of the course, this pen had two smaller divisions, into the first of these they put three of the animals and then parted one animal off to the next division where they put two straps on him, one round the hind quarters being a kicking strap, the other on the fore part for the jockey to hold on by.

When all was ready the jockey got up on the pen and mounted the steer, one of the Committee announced the name of the jockey to the spectators through a megaphone. Then the gate of the pen was flung open and out came the steer bucking to rid himself of his rider; in some cases the jockey came out first the steer bucking just at the gate-way and throwing its rider out on to the course. Others again stuck on their steers a bit longer the animals bucking and bellowing with anger.

There was an anxious moment when one jockey got thrown across the top of a pointed batton fence, but luckily he received no injuries and was able to ride again after a short spell.

There were over fourteen entrants mostly from the East and West Falkland camps, and a couple belonging to Stanley also a member of the crew of R.R.S. Discovery II who soon discovered that a steer is not the best of mounts. Some of the steers were stubborn and laid down, the men using all kinds of methods to entice them to rise which they did after putting the men to a bit of trouble.

The two best jockeys were C. Perry and L. Sallis, the former winning by the narrow margin of three points, the jockeys being given a number of points for using the spurs, also for landing on their feet when thrown, the judges taking into consideration the bucking ability of the animal.

The judges were Messrs. S. Miller and C. Robertson. Two horsemen were engaged in catching the steers after they had thrown their riders, and much skill was shown in the use of the lasso, one unfortunate steer went off up the course leaving the end of his tail lying on the ground attached to the lasso.

Three men who appeared to know the way how to throw a steer rushed up as soon as the lasso drew tight on the steer, one getting the animal by the tail and hind leg, another catching it by the horns turned it over on the ground one holding it there by the head while the other two took off the straps.

They helped it to rise and drove it up the course to the west. This being the last of the outdoor events of the Centenary and lasted about two hours. Everybody seemed to enjoy this event even the jockeys who had provided us with the laughs and thrills and I am hoping to see steer riding appear on our sports programme again soon.

According to a report from Florence the body of Squadron Leader Bert Hinkler has been found and is lying in state in the village church of Castelsannicchio with Fascists and troopers on guard throughout the night.

Members of the British Embassy and the Italian Air Ministry left for the scene on Saturday.

It is understood that the body might be brought to England meanwhile the Italian Government is rendering official honours.

An examination of the wreckage indicates that Hinkler sighted the mountain at a low altitude and struck it obliquely when endeavouring to rise.

COMMANDER CAREY LOST.

Tragic Ending To Discovery II Cruise.

The Colonial Office, a press message received last night stated, reports that Commander W.M. Carey, the captain of the Royal Research Ship Discovery II was lost overboard off Ushant yesterday morning. The shocking news of an event so tragically ending an epic Antarctic cruise must penetrate to the hearts of all in the Colony, particularly in view of the intimate association of the Research Ship with Stanley where Commander Carey, his officers and men compelled the admiration of everyone. Our deepest sympathy goes out to his bereaved relatives, to his officers and men and to the Discovery Committee in their loss of so gallant a sailor and gentleman.

Due to arrive in England to-day the R.R.S. Discovery II was returning from a nineteen months' marine research voyage on an extreme south course during which the Antarctic Continent was circumnavigated in the southern winter for the first time in history. Her researches were mainly directed towards saving the antarctic whaling industry from too great a destruction of whales following on the boom of recent years.

CENTENARY COMPETITION.

The Essay securing the second prize in Class 2 of the Centenary Essay Competition, submitted by "Johnny Nelson" is as follows :

18th February, 1933.

On Saturday afternoon there was a tea party for the children. There were more than 400 children at tea. It was at 4.30 p.m.. I went to it at quarter past four. There was a Centenary Cake, it was a six tier. There were five tables and they were all full. Nearly all the grown ups were taking around the eats. There were a lot of cats there, there were tarts, buns, cakes, sandwiches and pastries. They gave three cheers when they cut the cake. The tables were three for the boys and two for the girls. His Excellency the Governor gave a speech after which Mr. Roberts presented all the children with a medallion. It ended at 6.0 o'clock. The party was in the Town Hall.

15th February, 1933. Three days of the Races.

The three days of the races were all nice. The first day I thought it was going to rain but after, it turned out lovely. "Bambina" went in for a lot of races. She went in for four races. All the races she went in for the first day she won and then she went in for three races on the third day and won them. Jim Middleton was the jockey of "Bambina." The second day was not so nice. The first race on the first day was the Maiden Plate. The first one on the second day was the 200 Yards. The first race on the third day was the Troop Race.

14th February, 1933. The Assault-at-Arms.

Tuesday, the 14th was the Assault-at-Arms. It was at 6.0 p.m.. There were two lots of men boxing. Mr. Burley was on the Horizontal Bars. He was doing all sorts of tricks. Some men were doing gyms on chairs and they were standing on their hands. Two men were fighting with guns. They had guards over their heads and faces. The boxing and gymnastics were in the Gymnasium. They were jumping right over the chairs. We had to pay one shilling to get in. There were a lot of people there. There was a Marine and Sailor fighting with a bayonet. The men were doing things on the parallel bars. Some of them were putting their hands on the bar and one man was holding on to their feet and standing on their necks.

LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL.

Five Bills were passed at the meeting of the Legislative Council held in the Council Chamber at the Town Hall on Tuesday. His Excellency the Governor presided and there were present the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary,) the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Colonial Treasurer,) the Hon. Dr. J. Innes Moir (Principal Medical Officer,) the Hon. G. Roberts (Director of Public Works,) the Hon. G.J. Felton and the Hon. L.W.H. Young with the clerk, Mr. A.I. Fleuret.

In moving the Second Reading of a Bill to legalise payments made in 1932 in excess of the expenditure sanctioned in 1931 the Colonial Secretary said these payments were not considerable and an analysis would show them to be very much lower than for many years past. The total excess was £4,246. Of that sum £970 under "Post Office" was necessary in order to cover the production of the cost of the Centenary Stamps while the amount of nearly £3,000 under "Public Works Extraordinary" was inevitable on account of the need for finding work to relieve unemployment in Stanley. Excluding these two unforeseen liabilities the excess expenditure for the Colony was reduced to £296 while that for the Dependencies was £245. In other words the estimates for the year worked out very nearly exact.

A Bill to amend the Savings Bank Ordinance, 1868, provided for the constant holding of a 110 % cover for the deposits in the Bank and for the transference of surplus moneys to general revenue after paying interest and meeting all expenses required for the administration of the Bank, while a Bill amending the Whale Fisheries Ordinance, 1908, included a clause giving the Governor power to remit the whole or part of any payment or fee prescribed in respect of any whaling licence. The latter Bill had been introduced in accordance with the wishes of the Secretary of State. Another Bill introduced as a result of telegraphic instructions from the Secretary of State was that amending the Customs Ordinance, 1903, providing for an absolute and unconditional power to prohibit the exportation of fire-arms and ammunition from the Colony.

The Auctioneers' Ordinance, 1853, was also amended with the object, the Colonial Secretary explained, of providing for the issue of an occasional licence for the purpose of any particular sale by auction it having been shown that the annual licence at a fee of £5 was apt to be prohibitive on account of the small number and low value of the sales by auction actually conducted.

The Council also passed two resolutions sanctioning expenditure from Public Funds in one case of the sum of £2,357 9s. 10d. to make further provision for the Service of the Colony in 1932, including the sum of £1,009 representing the cost of the production of the Centenary Stamp Issue, and the sum of £547 on account of the Dependencies; and in the other case the sum of £100 for the Service of the year 1933 which sum, however, was met by equivalent savings ear-marked under other heads or sub-heads on the estimates of the current year.

ALL IRELAND "IDEAL."

Cosgrave speaking at his party's annual convention in Dublin on Tuesday said that an all-Ireland Republic ideal could not be advanced by "ridiculous evolutions of toy soldiers" and "Swash-buckling of sabre-rattling" and unity would only come through good-will towards their fellow countrymen of the north.

RECORD FLYERS HOME.

Squadron Leader Gayford and Flight Lieutenant Nicholetts who won for Britain the world non-stop long distance record by a 5,508 miles' flight from Oranwell to Walfis Bay, South Africa, reached England on Tuesday. They flew back from South Africa in easy stages and on landing at Farnborough, Hampshire, were greeted by the Air Minister, Lord Londonderry, and many officials and friends.

The airmen highly praised the huge Fairey Napier Monoplane. They said they knew before they started that they would not reach the Cape and expected to come down near Walfis Bay. They then had fourteen gallons of petrol left and 130 gallons would have been required to reach Cape Town. Neither of them slept during the fifty-seven hours' flight.

THE EVEREST EXPEDITION.

A wireless message received from Hugh Ruttledge, the leader of the Everest Expedition, which the Daily Telegraph exclusively publishes states that the base camp was reached safely and the mountain peak was only twelve miles distant. All the members of the expedition were fit.

The traverse from Kampa Dzong on the 2nd of April was uneventful except that the doctor was called upon to treat local inhabitants suffering from small-pox. On leaving Shekar on the 13th April, good progress was made and the Pangla Pass (17,000 feet) was reached on the second day and the Rongbuk Valley was entered on the fourth day. The base camp was established on Easter Monday and the advance party made the first camp beyond two days later.

The weather continues to be remarkably fine and not unduly cold and an inspection of Everest's north face through an astronomical telescope gave considerable hope of progress being made along the eastern ridge.

Up to date the advance has been strictly in accordance with plans and the leader pays a high tribute to the medical officer's care in the matter of food supplies, kitchen discipline and the availability of fresh food daily as mainly contributing to this and to the party's health and spirits.

Ruttledge's message effectively disposes of all the earlier and unauthenticated reports that the expedition was being held up on account of snow blindness of porters and bad weather.

ANGLO-JAPANESE TRADE.

According to a message from Tokio the Japanese Minister of Commerce, Baron Nakagi, informs the Daily Telegraph correspondent that the British invitation to send a delegation of industrialists is welcomed for the sake of Anglo-Japanese trade but India's inclusion as a condition of Japan's acceptance of the division of the markets was impossible.

The Minister is meeting the Asaka spinners shortly and is anticipating their acceptance although some opposition will undoubtedly be given.

The Minister of Finance, Takahashi, says the prospects of the success of the plan is fair while industrial opinion in Japan is favourable.

SINO-JAPANESE TROUBLE

REACHING CLIMAX.

The Japanese War Minister, General Araki, has issued a warning stating that if China persisted in challenging Japan the Imperial Army was ready and would act to any extent considered necessary, states the Daily Telegraph correspondent in Tokio.

General Araki, further denied the Manchurian-Siberian border incidents in connection with the Chinese Eastern Railway as being unrelated to the Japanese troop movements in North-East China.

From the same source it is learned that the Japanese Foreign Office spokesman has expressed doubt as to whether the peace making efforts of Sir Miles Lampson, the British Minister in China, will provide tangible results as the Chinese faith in negotiations is questionable.

Answering questions in the House of Commons on Wednesday, Mr. Stanley Baldwin also expressed doubt as to the results of Sir Miles' intervention and in the matter of the Chinese Eastern Railway he thought the dispute normally to be capable of adjustment since Japo-Russian relations were still functioning.

GOLD PROTESTS IN WASHINGTON.

According to a message from Washington strong protests are being made against the American Government's refusal to permit the export of gold to meet the interest of foreign-held securities or the release of foreign holed gold in safe deposits.

Many quarters regard this as a breach of contract and the British attitude of going off the gold standard when foreign bond holders received preferential treatment is cited as "Not only British prestige but British credit was advanced thereby" according to the New York Times.

The Government's stand is believed to be an indication of President Roosevelt's intention of not making any concessions to Europe before the World Conference.

THE OATH BILL PASSED.

A press message from Dublin on Wednesday announced that the Dail passed the Bill removing the Allegiance Oath by 76 against 56 votes and the Governor-General immediately assented to it becoming operative at mid-night.

The Deputy FitzGerald, on behalf of the Cosgrave Party, in opposing said that the breaking of the principles of treaties made their international position impossible and the present motion seemed a justification of the old charge that Irishmen were not fitted for self-government.

MacDermot, the Centre Party leader, described the Republic in prospect was far more damaging than the Republic in reality with the Oath Bill responsible for economic war and the misery flowing therefrom.

De Valera, replying to the debate, said the majority of Irishmen did not want any confession of allegiance to a foreign king and with the abolition of the Oath elected representatives would gain the respect they never had before.

THE DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE.

Outlook Gloomy.

The outlook for the future of the Disarmament Conference, a message from Geneva reports, is decidedly gloomy - this affirmation comes from the Daily Telegraph correspondent and is given "with authority."

As a result of Germany's multiple amendments and proposals practically nothing has been done beyond a slight measure of agreement on the status of militarised police and the spirit of the British draft convention has not been upheld.

Following the adjournment of the general commission after only a forty minutes session Captain Eden is returning to London by air for an urgent Cabinet consultation and explanation of the deadlock.

A hope held that the British convention will be accepted as a basis of work and change the Conference's bickering atmosphere has been dashed by Germany's obstructionism.

THE ANGLO ARGENTINE TRADE CONVENTION.

Three Years' Agreement.

The text was published on Tuesday of the Anglo-Argentine Trade Convention which was signed the previous evening by Doctor Roca, the head of the special Argentine Mission to Britain, and the President of the Board of Trade, Mr. Runciman.

The subjects dealt with in the Convention are the treatment of Argentine meat, the exchange position in the Argentine and the tariff treatment of the goods of both countries.

The articles dealing with the Argentine meat provide that if it should become necessary in order to secure remunerative prices in the United Kingdom market to reduce various categories of Argentine meat below the Ottawa level: the effect upon the price level desired shall not be negated by replacing these reduced imports from the Argentine by increased imports of meat from other countries including British Dominions. Argentine meat is promised a fair and equitable treatment.

Regarding the exchange position the Agreement provides that after a deduction of a reasonable sum annually towards the payment of the service of Argentina's external debts in countries other than the United Kingdom, the full amount of the sterling exchange resulting from the United Kingdom purchases of Argentine products will be made available for current remittances to the United Kingdom. The frozen peso balances will be funded by the issue by the Argentine Government of Sterling Bonds.

Regarding tariffs a supplementary agreement containing provision as to duties and quantitative regulations to be applied to each country to the other's goods, will be concluded as soon as possible and will form an essential part of the Convention.

If this supplementary agreement is not concluded by the 1st of August next the Convention may be ended by either party at one month's notice.

Any dispute which may arise shall, at the request of either party, be submitted to the Hague Court unless both agree to some other tribunal or procedure.

The Convention comes into force when ratification notes are exchanged. It will remain in force for three years and be terminable at six months' notice. The ratifications will be exchanged in London as soon as possible.

RAMSAY'S STATEMENT.

Conversations In Washington.

Mr. Ramsay MacDonald made a statement in the House of Commons on Thursday upon his recent conversations in Washington with President Roosevelt.

He said he had been anxious first of all to ascertain the President's views on the calling of the International Economic Conference and finding that they were agreed and that, subsequently, M. Herriot shared their opinion they had communicated with the Organising Committee and the 12th of June had been fixed for the meeting of the Conference.

The Premier continued :- "We discussed in some detail the subjects to be brought before the Conference. These included the questions of tariffs, quotas, exchange, control and the stability of international currency. A tariff truce during the sitting of the Conference was also discussed. Our purpose was to ascertain by intimate talks what prospects there were of co-operation without coming to any definite agreements.

"We both shared the view that our respective countries should enter the Conference which is now to meet so soon, with hands completely united.

"The result of these exchanges of views and the examination of the problems is most encouraging.

"In view of the controversy which has arisen with reference to the suggestion of a tariff truce, I felt it my duty to point out how different is the position of a country like our own from that of those which are already high tariff countries with policies and economic defences already fully worked out and in operation.

"I took the opportunity of putting before the President a full account of a broad policy of disarmament, and as a result of our discussions we reached common views which have been reflected in the effective co-operation of the British and American delegates in support of a draft Convention now before the Disarmament Conference at Geneva.

"We also discussed the question of duties and quite frankly examined the problem in all its aspects. These exchanges of views were of particular importance as they brought out in well defined detail all the differences which had to be reconciled, not only in the final settlement but in the immediate handling of the question.

"Whilst welcoming the idea of a truce during the period of the Conference I made it plain that its application would have to be subject to a safeguard which the differences in our own positions required. This was considered to be reasonable. On this subject I can make no further statement at present as the matter has necessarily not yet reached the stage of agreement.

"As for the visit as a whole I wish to convey no exaggerated impression but I would say with confidence that the mutual understanding between ourselves and America has been materially improved by the discussions which I have had with the President for whose friendly hospitality and unreserved helpfulness throughout all our deliberations the warmest thanks of the Government are due."

The Premier's Washington conversations and the German questions will be debated next Tuesday in the House of Commons where the Premier will undertake to answer, as far as possible, any questions then put to him.

When asked whether the subject of war debts would come before the World Conference he replied in the negative.

- Men's Doubles : 1st - W. Allan & C. Henriksen who won all their games.
- 2nd - J. Turner & F. O'Sullivan who only lost to W. Allan & C. Henriksen, and H. Jennings and H. Thomas. In order to make certain of their position as runners-up the Seconds had to play Jennings & Thomas twice. In the first they lost but secured a win in the second.
- Booby - W.J. Grierson & B. Fleuret.

This week a mixed doubles event has been organised and some excellent encounters should be witnessed.

CENTENARY COMPETITION.

The Essay securing the third prize in Class 1 of the Centenary Essay Competition, submitted by "Port Louis" is as follows :

The Fireworks Display.

A most memorable week was spent in Stanley to celebrate the Centenary of the Falkland Islands. Among the many interesting incidents and festivities that were held was one, the Fireworks Display.

On Wednesday night, the 15th of February 1933, a great and joyful crowd, the largest there had ever been, gathered on Government Paddock at eleven o'clock to await the commencement of so fascinating a sight, the Fireworks Display. The night was just perfect for such a scene, and a great murmur arose as the H.M.S. Durban, anchored in the harbour was suddenly illuminated making a dazzling brightness against the inky black sky. But the people were entranced still more when the H.M.S. Durban swept her powerful searchlight to and fro across the sky sometimes flashing over the paddock making it appear as bright as day.

The actual fireworks took place a few minutes after eleven o'clock, and the applause was great, when the first rocket was followed by another and yet another, shooting far into the air, then bursting into hundreds of blue stars. These were followed by maroons which soared high above the paddock before bursting in clusters of colours with a loud explosion and more beautiful colours. Next came a series of comets, curious star-like bodies with long golden tails that floated across the sky intermingled with sprays of dazzling splendour. Some of the shells whistled as they went higher and higher into the air, making the people shout to show their delight.

The Niagara Falls was a great novelty causing much admiration, as curtains of silvery fire fell, as if in reality, to the ground. Another interesting scene was myriads of different rockets mounting into the blackness and exploding together, making the sky have a peculiar effect as the coloured stars, green, golden and blue bumped against one another as if in a fight, before bounding to earth. At the conclusion several rockets were fired, placed round a part of the paddock in the shape of a circle, thus ended a most enjoyable Display.

THE CARGO BOAT.

The m.v. Losada arrived at Stanley from Bahia Blanca yesterday afternoon about 4.0 o'clock with 202 bags of mail - letters, papers & parcels, and about 370 tons of cargo.

The only passenger for the Colony was Miss Oldham, the new Assistant Mistress at the Government School.

Departing by the vessel are - the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. and Mrs. Ellis, Miss M.L. Reeve (Nurse-Matron) and Mr. Jasumal. The Losada is expected to leave for Magallanes this evening.

MISS M.L. REEVE.

With the departure of the m.v. Losada to-day the Colony will be bidding "Good Bye" to a devoted servant in the person of Miss M.L. Reeve, the Nurse-Matron of the King Edward Memorial Hospital.

Miss Reeve, whose home is in Yorkshire, came to the Falklands in October 1929 as Nursing Sister and on the departure of Miss M. Cooper in March 1932 assumed the duties of Nurse-Matron, proving herself both efficient and capable and exceptionally popular. It is with real sincerity we wish her "Bon Voyage" and every best wish for the future.

DEFENCE FORCE SMOKING CONCERT.

A most enjoyable Smoking Concert, attended by His Excellency the Governor, was held in the Defence Force Club Rooms on Monday evening when the Guest of Honour was the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) who is going home on leave. The concert was also given in honour of the members of the Bisley Team - Sgt. J.J. Harries, Cpl. C.F. Thompson and Pte. J.M. Campbell who will be going to England later to compete in the Junior Kolarose and Junior MacKinnon Competitions, their captain, ex-C.S.M. J.W. Grierson, already having departed.

Lieutenant W.M. Allan (Adjutant) presided over the proceedings and among those present were the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Colonial Treasurer), the Hon. J. Innes Moir, Captain D.R. Watson, Lieutenants S.W. Harding and R.H. Edmunds, and 2nd Lieutenants A.I. Fleuret and F.A.W. Byron.

A merry time was spent a feature of the programme being the community singing led by Private W. Cooper. Others who contributed to the evening's entertainment were Mr. A.W. Beardmore's Band, K.J. Lollman (songs), F. Davis (songs), W. Catten (songs), D. & A. Peck (Duets), J. Peck (songs), D. O'Sullivan (songs) and Mr. J. McNicol (songs).

A short speech was made by Lieutenant Allan who said how much they all appreciated the great interest Mr. Ellis had taken in the Force and they would have failed in their duty if they had not taken the opportunity that evening of showing him their appreciation.

Referring to the Bisley Team Mr. Allan continued they would go home with the complete confidence of the Defence Force and the Defence Force Rifle Association, and if they had the fortune to win these two bodies would be the first to send them a wire of congratulation and appreciation.

Finally on behalf of the Officers, N.C.Os and Men of the Force, Mr. Allan wished Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Ellis God Speed with a safe and pleasant voyage and a very jolly leave.

Mr. Ellis, who was accorded "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" thanked them very sincerely for their kind wishes. It was his only regret, he said, that he did not think he would be in England when the Team would be firing in the Competitions. He wished them the very best of luck in case he did not see them at Bisley but hoped he would be able to see them in London Town.

The gathering broke up after hearty cheers had been given for Mr. Ellis and the members of the Bisley Team.

THE SOVIET & JAPANESE

Position Critical.

The Soviet offer to sell their control of and interest in the Chinese Eastern Railway is diplomatically regarded as Moscow's admission of military inability to defence the line against a formidable seizure, says the Daily Telegraph correspondent.

It is thought that Japan is unwilling to pay a big price in these circumstances and this gesture will not necessarily deter Japan from claiming and occupying the eastern maritime provinces on behalf of Manchukuo.

The Soviet press does not mention the Manchukuoan "Ultimatum" expiring on the 10th of this month (to-day,) wherein was demanded the return of the rolling stock otherwise the railway would be seized. It is alleged, however, that Japan is aiming to command the Urga road cutting direct communication between China and Siberia and permanently threatening Peking.

From Tokio it is officially stated by the Foreign Office spokesman that Japan does not intend being lured from the Peking and Tientsin area which action is likely to cause complications with other powers. Meanwhile operations are continuing south of the Great Wall.

---O---O---

OBSTRUCTIVE GERMAN TACTICS.

According to a message from Geneva hopes of securing a Convention on the lines of the British plan are rapidly waning, no amicable settlement of the protracted deadlock being apparent.

It is considered in the highest quarters that the Conference should vote showing that the opinion of the world is opposed to Germany's obstructionist attitude or adjourn it until better temper prevails.

The Conference Bureau met secretly and a general Commission Assembly was followed by another private meeting, but no progress has been made.

Apparently the Italian support to some of the German claims is becoming luke-warm.

Interviewed in Berlin, General Von. Blomberg, the War Minister, defended Germany's attitude, adding that no dictation regarding their defensive forces would be tolerated; Germany's stand would depend on the disarmament of other countries and until this is known she will make no decision.

THE O.B.E. CONFERRED ON THE HON. J.M. ELLIS.

Investiture At Government House.

At Government House yesterday morning, before Members of Councils, His Excellency the Governor presented the Hon. J.M. Ellis (Colonial Secretary) with the Insignia of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire.

In view of the fact that the Order with the Insignia only arrived in the Colony the previous evening by the m.v. Losada and that Mr. Ellis with Mrs. Ellis were departing yesterday evening in the cargo boat, there was no opportunity of arranging a ceremony for the Investiture to take place in public.

His Excellency before pinning the Order on the breast of the Hon. J.M. Ellis said, "Your name appeared on the List of New Year's Honours conferred by His Majesty the King and now, by command, I present you with the Insignia of the Order hoping you will live long to wear it on all public occasions. I have also to present you with the Certificate indicating the dignity of the Order and I do so with my personal congratulations."

In response the Hon. J.M. Ellis thanked His Excellency very much saying how deeply sensible he was of the honour His Majesty had done him.

My Dear Governor,

The King was much interested in the report of the Centenary Celebrations of the Falkland Islands which you forwarded on the 28th February. In conveying His Majesty's thanks for your kindness in sending the Report, I am to assure you of the King's unfailing interest in all that concerns the welfare and prosperity of the people of the Islands.

Yours sincerely,

(sd.) Clive Wigram."

CENTENARY COMPETITION.

The essay securing the third prize in Class 2 of the Centenary Essay Competition, submitted by "Blossom" is as follows :

The Children's Party.

The Children's Party was held in the Town Hall on Saturday afternoon, the 10th of February. The party started at half-past four, there was very many children present in spite of the day being rather windy. The reason of the party was on the occasion of the Centenary Celebrations which were kept up for one week, from the 12th to the 19th of February. In February 1833 the British Government started to rule the Falkland Islands, so in February this year we celebrated the anniversary of the Falkland Islands which we have owned for one hundred years. Some of the things we had at the party was cakes, tea, sandwiches, tarts, and a five decker cake made by Mr. J.F. Summers. Many cheers were given when the cake was cut, but many more when it was served. In pink icing sugar was engraved on this cake "Falkland Islands Centenary 1833 - 1933". These words looked very nice on the cake, and also looked very touching. Before we left the Town Hall His Excellency the Governor presented each child with a medal and gave a short speech. In the speech His Excellency explained to us that the party was given on a very special occasion, and when we were grown up we should remember and appreciate the day when we went to the Town Hall to celebrate the anniversary of the Falkland Islands when we had owned it for one hundred years.

The suspension Gandhi suggests "in no way fulfils the conditions which are satisfactory to the Indian Government that the Civil Disobedience Movement has been definitely abandoned," the communique adds.

ANTI-JEWISM IN VIENNA.

The Daily Telegraph in Vienna reports that exceptionally brutal anti-Jewish riots started by Nazi students on Saturday resulted in between twenty and thirty persons being injured, including seven American doctors, the latter having formally protested to the American Consulate, diplomatic action being probable.

The Nazis assembled in ranks outside the lecture room armed with nail-studded sticks, truncheons and battered the emerging students many of whom were girls, with shouts of "Hail Hitler. Perish the Jews."

Those seeking safety were forced to jump from first floor windows when the doors were broken down.

The police were banned by law from entering the university but later threw a cordon round the building and eventually dispersed the Nazi students.

The Daily Telegraph Montreal correspondent also reports that authority is sought by the Minister of Finance, Mr. Rhodes, for a Canadian Conversion Loan of 750 million dollars with flotation in the autumn but the terms have not yet been considered though the interest will probably be 3½ per cent.

In addition it is expected that the Government will need a further 150 million dollars for current railway requirements.

WAR DEBT PAYMENTS.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent at Washington understands from authoritative sources that President Roosevelt is perturbed by the recent War Debt despatches from London and Paris.

Pre-eminently anxious to secure complete success for the World Conference the President is asking the Congress during the next fortnight for limited authority to deal with War Debt payments.

He is consulting the Democratic and Republican leaders and while sentiment is opposed to cancellation it is rapidly shifting towards a radical revision favouring an adjustment based on reciprocal benefits.

In view of America's supreme confidence in their President the belief is widely held that the Congress will be glad to grant the request when they will repeal the resolution forbidding the re-opening of debt settlement negotiations.

It is not anticipated that President Roosevelt will seek supreme power but only authorised opportunity to consider a radical revision with a subsequent report to Congress concerning new terms.

PROGRESS OF DISARMAMENT DEADLOCK.

According to a message from London the latest aspects on the conversations on the Disarmament deadlock is the changed view taken by the German demands, particularly in respect of the transformation of the present military system which postulates a transitional regime.

It is pointed out also that some of the German amendments reproduce the original Anglo-American suggestions which were abandoned as impracticable and

It is unquestionably that Germany is alarmed at the prospect of isolation and doesn't wish to be harnessed with the responsibility of the Conference's ultimate wreck and therefore her concessions are anticipated hopefully.

THE FALKLANDS & FLYING.

In the United Empire Journal for March a report of the Falkland Islands Centenary Meeting at the Royal Empire Society states that Colonel The Master of Gompill, in proposing a vote of thanks to the Chairman of the proceedings (Admiral Sir Richard Phillimore), and to Mr. G. Bonner O.B.E., suggested that the importance the Falkland Islands occupied before the opening of the Panama Canal would in future years be far greater with the development of long distance communication by airship and flying-boat.

Sir Douglas Mawson in a speech at the same gathering said that the Falkland Islands were a wonderful example of how a comparatively inhospitable part of the Empire could be developed. It was a wonderfully creditable performance of the people of these islands to have done so much and to have developed the group on commercial lines, and an illustration of what could be done with the other islands in the sub-Antarctic region. The Falkland Islands, he went on to say, were the gate-way to the Antarctic, and from there much had been done in the way of scientific investigation and discovery. He thought that with sound method of development, such as had been carried out in the Falkland Islands region, much could be done to develop the islands further south, and that after a scientific stock-taking of southern regions, other schemes of development would be formulated.

FRANCE & BANKRUPTCY.

France is facing a grave risk of bankruptcy is the opinion of the Budget Rapporteur, Marcel Regnier, who states that if steps are not taken inflation will be inevitable with the reduction of the value of the franc to five centimes.

This is a prelude to the Chamber Budget discussion next week. The Senate has already reduced the deficit somewhat but great difficulties are foreseen through textual alterations by the Chamber and an agreement between the Assemblies is likely to be laborious.

JARDINE & ACCURACY.

In a later message referring to his decision to write a book on the recent Australian Cricket Tour Jardine says "Piecemeal comment is as unnecessary as it is inadequate since our silence and forbearance has not called forth reciprocity and in the interests of accuracy and bare justice I am compelled to write my account."

GERMANY DISAPPOINTING.

Despite the heroic efforts of Captain Eden, reports a message from Geneva, to effect a compromise on the German points relating to the British Convention for disarmament the efforts have failed markedly and at a meeting of the Five Powers he said "I cannot speak with any hope and must report that my efforts at reconciliation have been unsuccessful."

Hard words were spoken at the final Nadolny-Eden conversation arising from the press article by Baron Neurath, the German Foreign Minister, in which it was stated that Germany decided to repudiate her military clauses in the Peace Treaty.

Indications as to how far Germany has receded in international esteem will be exemplified when the vote is taken on German auxiliaries (specifically civil constabulary) and other armed forces.

A RAILWAY "COLLISION."

A report from Harbin states that the Manchukuoan Government has adopted an unbending attitude relative to the Chinese Eastern Railway question, pointing out to the Soviet the ultimatum demanding the return of rolling stock etc., on the eve of the expiry of the ultimatum and asserting that if it is not complied with the railroad will be blocked.

Meanwhile it is stated that the Soviet is concentrating troops on the Siberian maritime provinces' frontier and already 5,000 reinforcements have arrived.

From Japan the Daily Telegraph says that Japan questions the sincerity of the Soviets in offering to sell the railway pointing out that the deal is prohibited by treaty limitations and the claims of French investors.

It is authoritatively stated that Russia's next move will be to give the world a formal notice that Japan and Manchukuo have made the operation of the railway impossible and that the Soviet is thus compelled to withdraw while still maintaining her claims of ownership.

It is also thought that Russia may intend re-entering Manchuria when Japan is hampered by financial complications.

---O---O---

ROOSEVELT & WAR DEBTS.

The sentiment of the Congress, a Washington message states, is strongly in favour for a War-Debts' settlement with a moratorium on the June payment almost inevitable.

The feeling is inspired that such a settlement is precedent to a world economic recovery and if such a recovery is lacking American prosperity must disappear.

The Roosevelt Cabinet, and particularly the Secretary of State, Mr. Hull, is finding as much difficulty in separating War Debts from World Economics as did Europe in respect of the German Reparations and the Allied War Debts.

On a question of ways and means the Congress was confronted with much ambiguous controversy without any definite information.

THE SAVE THE CHILDREN FUND.

Through the courtesy of Father Migone we are able to publish the following received by him from the Overseas Organiser of the Save the Children Fund in aid of which special Cinema Shows were held during the Centenary Celebrations in February last.

"Dear Father Migone,

I am writing to acknowledge with our warmest thanks the receipt of the splendid gift of £11. 1. 6d. being the money collected for the "Save the Children Fund" during the Centenary Celebrations, and to send you our official receipt herewith.

We were delighted to receive this token of the deep sympathy and interest of the people of Port Stanley towards the work of the Save the Children Fund, and to realise afresh that the common desire to relieve the sufferings of the little children, brings together in a bond of friendship all those who have the welfare of the little ones at heart, in spite of the distance we may be apart.

Your gift is particularly welcome as we are finding it extremely difficult to meet the many needs that press around us. As well as the children of the unemployed in England, the Armenian refugees are in a pitiable condition. of misery and poverty, the children are suffering from under-nourishment and from the effect of living in the dreadful huts they call home. We have a great work to do here, and it is with gifts such as yours that we can press forward to relieve in some measure the distress of these little ones.

Would you please convey to all those who contributed to your generous gift our most grateful thanks, and say how much we are encouraged and cheered by this gracious act to help us in our all-important work among the children who through no fault of their own are enduring terrible hardships.

With renewed and personal thanks to yourself, and with all good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Miss Cecilia John.

Hon. Overseas Organiser,
Save the Children Fund.

TENSE ATMOSPHERE IN FAR EAST.

According to a message from Harbin a tense atmosphere prevails in the far east following the expiration of the Manchukuoan Ultimatum to the Soviet relative to the Chinese Eastern Railway to which the Soviet has not replied.

According to press reports all Soviet citizens are warned that immediate evacuation may be necessary, many having already departed.

The Manchukuo Government has taken over from the railway officials and it is expected that an official notice will be issued shortly indicating that Manchukuo does not intend to conform any further with the Agreements of 1924 on the grounds of the Soviet's action in abusing and destroying the basic principles and committing illegalities.

Reuter reports from Mukden that a bomb was thrown into a railway compound causing minor damage but no casualties.

There are further grounds for dispute concerning the navigation of the Amur River concerning which no agreement exists but the question has been re-raised by the departure from Harbin for Taiho of two steamers flying the Manchukuo flag. Since 1929 when the Soviet seized Chinese steamers (which have still not been returned) on entering the Amur River, there has been no navigation.

HITLER'S ENVOY RECALLED.

Surprise has been caused in London by the sudden recalling of Herr Rosenberg, Hitler's envoy, who previously intended staying until Tuesday, but his presence is needed at a meeting of the Reichstag that day when Hitler will reply to attacks making Germany's position clear, says the "Sunday Times."

Herr Nadolny, the German delegate to the Disarmament Conference has also suddenly decided to return to Berlin and consequently Mr. Henderson has postponed the discussion in which both of them were engaged from Monday to Thursday.

Nadolny's departure has caused surprise and indignation since the German attitude towards the British Disarmament Convention has been the root cause of all the disruptions in the negotiations.

From all sources it is clear that Lord Hailsham's warning and other speeches in the House of Lords have brought home to Germany the seriousness of her position which is accentuated by the bourse situation.

INDIA'S POLICY UNCHANGED.

The Bombay Sunday Times correspondent learns that the Indian Government has definitely decided not to change its present policy in respect of the lawless campaign supported by the Congress and not to release political prisoners until the Congress calls off permanently the revolt.

A month's armistice does not impress the authorities at Simla and it is pointed out that if the Congress sincerely desires to co-operate and obtain the release of prisoners they have but to cancel the anti-Government campaign.

The doctors attending Gandhi say that his blood pressure is higher but his general health is unimpaired though the necessity for isolation remains.

THE MOUNT EVEREST EXPEDITION.

The Mount Everest Expedition leader, Hugh Ruttledge, in a wireless message to the Daily Telegraph at Rongbuk says that progress from camp 2 to camp 3 was decided on the 27th April last and the following day a practical route was found and which was used by the Expedition in 1924. Two climbers inspected the site of the camp 3 at 21,000 feet and 4,500 feet above the base and within 8,000 feet of the summit.

Camp 3 was established on the 3rd of May, the party being accompanied by a Tibetan mastiff.

The weather almost throughout has been favourable to work on the glacier but on the nights of the 2nd and 3rd of May snow obscured the track making re-establishment difficult. The health of the party remains good.

VIENNA PREPARING.

According to a message from Vienna the city was facing a highly critical week-end, gigantic police preparations having been made in readiness of the visit of the German Nazi leaders and Ministers.

The reception oratory is being muzzled and street demonstrations prohibited.

The Nazis car route will be patrolled by police and if a demonstrative welcome is projected a detoured will be arranged for.

The only address allowed will be that of Dr. Francks with a large police force attending and these have been ordered to break up the assembly if there are any political allusions made more recent than 250 years ago.

HITLER WREATH BOHC.

Following the London Cenotaph incident when Herr Hitler's wreath was removed, a party visited Madame Tausauds Wax Works where the effigy of Hitler was smeared with red paint and a card placed on it bearing the words "Hitler, the murderer."

Three men and one woman have been arrested in connection with the outrage.

There have been continuous demonstrations outside the hotel where Herr Rosenberg has been staying and numbers of men and women have been distributing anti-Fascist and anti-Hitler leaflets.

According to a message from Dublin there was an uproar in the Dail when the Irish Budget was discussed. As many as twenty members were on their feet at one time endeavouring to address the House.

The Budget resolution was passed by 73 against 53.

LORD HAILSHAM'S "HYPOCRASY".

Von Papen The Militarist.

In attacking Great Britain and the League of Nations' pacificism, the German Vice-Chancellor, Von Papen, speaking at Meunster on Saturday, extolled the German military spirit as the guarantee of that country's future. The war showed who the real warriors were, he said, for whom it was an heroic epic through which the joy of the future was derived and thus martial tradition survived the unhappy issue and lives on as a guarantee of their national future.

The soldier is he who remains bellicose, body and soul, in the Storm detachments or Steel-helmets.

Referring to Lord Hailsham, Von Papen said - "He evidently does not realise his hypocrisy by calling on the League of Nations to apply sanctions against the power which was merely attacking immoral treaties while the League did not take action against powers embarking on war."

In a significant forecast of Hitler's speech in the Reichstag to-morrow he added that the world would then learn that only for a brief period could a great nation be robbed of vital rights.

The Geneva Daily Telegraph correspondent writes that the meeting of the General Commission on Disarmament was postponed at the last minute when the delegates will have Hitler's views before committing themselves to a definition of policy.

ECONOMIC CONFERENCE DIFFICULTIES.

France & Germany Demur.

Publicity has been given to the inner history of the meeting of the organising committee of the World Economic Conference dealing with the successful issue of the Tariff Truce which is due to Sir John Simon.

Several powers it is stated, notably France and Germany, have insisted on the incorporation of new clauses which are potentially nullifying to the policy.

A protracted debate followed on Saturday until tea-time when Sir John Simon took the opportunity of a quiet discussion with the delegates concerned and their Governments' reservations were subsequently entered in the minutes instead of shaping as textual amendments.

The French reservations particularise that only countries accepting the Agreement should benefit from it, that the measures counter-acting the currency disturbances should not infringe the Agreement, and that Bills already voted should not be considered an infringement.

The Daily Telegraph Washington correspondent reports that in the opinion of the Secretary of States for the United States, Mr. Hull, and in view of the preliminary ground already covered in the conversations, the Economic Conference should not last more than two months.

FOOTBALL.

No. 2 Platoon 4 : No. 1 Platoon 3.

The Champions of the past season suffered a somewhat unexpected set-back on Sunday when the season's league matches were commenced. Although it was recognised that in spite of the radical changes in No. 2 Platoon's eleven they would be fielding quite a strong team, not many expected them to beat their opponents by 4 - 3.

In the first half when the "Twos" had a strong wind behind them they monopolised the play and the "Ones" hardly got the ball over into the formers' territory without it being quickly returned to harass their own defence.

So strong was the wind that the very first goal of the season was conceded by Williams who put the ball into his own "net" from a kick which was blown back in the opposite direction to which he was trying to place the ball. The "Twos" second goal was neatly scored by one of the "youngsters", Phillip Hardy, who made no mistake with a first time shot. A third goal was scored by Dr. O'Sullivan, the ball in passing between the posts being assisted on its way by one of the defenders. At half time the score stood at 3 - 0 in Number 2 Platoon's favour.

In the second half, although the wind had abated in force somewhat No. 1 Platoon attacked vigorously particularly on the left wing Clifton, another recruit doing some admirable work. That player scored the first goal and by a neat pass was instrumental in L. Sedgwick securing the second while the third was shot by L. Aldridge who sent a rasping shot through from off the cross-bar. Twenty minutes from the end the score stood at 3 - 3 and the spectators were treated to some great thrills both from the saves of Creece in the "Twos" goal and from the efforts of the "Ones" forwards, ably supported by Pike who played a fine game, to break through the opposing defence. Within five minutes of the end of the game Jennings gave his side the winning goal thus capping an energetic and quite effective display in which he was a conspicuous figure throughout the game.

LOOKING TO HITLER.

According to a press message from London developments in relation to disarmament and the World Conference are now dependent upon Germany's attitude, particularly as it may be expressed by Hitler in his speech to-day.

Captain Eden, who was consulting the British Cabinet yesterday was returning to Geneva to-day fully armed with instructions, while Sir John Simon is remaining in London.

Meanwhile Washington is greatly concerned over the Papen sabre rattling says the Daily Telegraph correspondent, and it is believed in some quarters that the fate of the 1921 Naval Treaty, the World Economic Conference and the future of American naval and aircraft building may hinge on Hitler's Reichstag speech.

The Nazi leaders are uneasy but they think Hitler will qualify with a bold tone by expressing willingness to come to an understanding "on a basis of equality and security for Germany."

Norman Davis's conversations with M. Paul Boncour in Paris are also sterile in view of the prevailing situation.

As a potential reply to Hitler the most that can be at present envisaged are the inter-related statements between Britain, France and Germany at to-morrow's Disarmament Conference assembly.

The general opinion expressed is that if Roosevelt, following the Washington conversations with Schacht Luther, would reveal the plans of the Consultative Pact the diplomatic scales might be tipped in favour of a conciliation.

JAPANESE MARCH ON PEKING.

Reports over a wide area indicate that the Japanese are closing on Peking and Tientsin, and missionaries and foreigners are evacuating the outlying stations.

Conflicting reports have been received as to the capture of Migunhsien and an advance on Tangshan, both strategically placed cities while a third report states that an advance is being made on Tsunhua thus completing the Japanese enveloping movement.

If the news of these movements is correct the advances are in keeping with the intention of General Lumuto, the Japanese Commander-in-Chief, who has intimated that Japan intends creating a neutral zone in Northern China from Miyunhien to the mouth of the Luan River, and the Chinese have been asked to keep their troops outside this area.

ITALY ANTI-FRANCE.

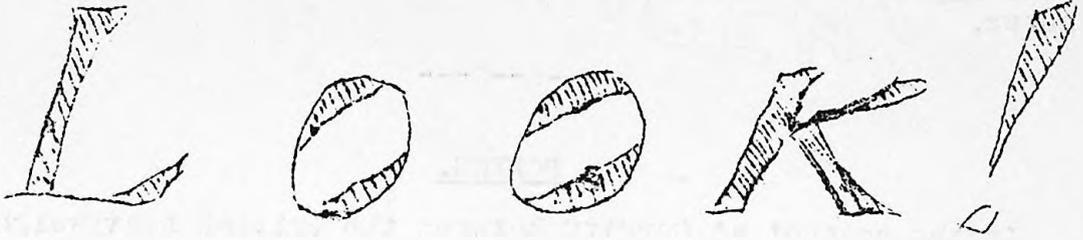

A message from Rome reports that the news-paper "Giornale d'Italia" which is the mouth-piece of the Italian Foreign Office, makes a violent anti-France attack concerning the activities at Geneva, stating that suspicion has been aroused at the rapid increase in the French armaments which are regarded as quantitatively irreconcilable with that country's profession to pay its war debts instalment to America.

It is suggested that France has abandoned Geneva and assumed a liberty of action which is directly in opposition.

The article exonerates Germany for the disarmament deadlock stating that the repression policy has been dominated by absurdities and a lack of vision.

NAZIS IN VIENNA.

Undeterred by the Austrian Government's intimation that his presence was undesirable, Hitler's envoy, Dr. Franck made a triumphal progress in the city; results of which included five hundred arrests.

In addressing 14,000 Nazis Dr. Franck insulted and defied the Austrian Government in a cleverly camouflaged speech.

The Heimwehr, representing the Austrian Fascist Government, boomed but maintained discipline in the face of Nazi provocation and Prince Starherberg, the Heimwehr leader, promised them vengeance for the alleged abuse by the Nazis.

Expelled.

A later message from Vienna states that Dr. Franck had been expelled from the country. The drama of the expulsion of Dr. Franck is now elaborated by the published details of his provocative speeches leading to his departure.

At Graz Dr. Franck stated that Hitler had just telephoned stating that he would take counter measures against Austria for its disdainful treatment of Nazi officials while, after referring to the Heimwehr as "an undisciplined mob" Franck continued "The Germans have had enough of this doll fuss. I call upon you all to take fresh action to liberate Austria from this rule."

The expulsion order was telephoned to Graz but Franck was already on his way to Salzburg where he was intercepted and ordered to depart immediately.

The Austrian press is highly indignant and declares that there is no question of Hitler being permitted to visit the country until ample apology is made. They ask "What would have happened to some foreign Minister in Germany who, in attacking Hitler's Government, made one-tenth of the remarks that came out of Franck's speech?"

According to a message from London the first impression of the Roosevelt appeal was one of acute disappointment for it was anticipated that some concrete American contribution to European security would be made in the shape of presidential adhesion to the Consultative Pact coupled with an undertaking to discourage American trading with aggressor States.

A diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Telegraph states with assurance, however, that President Roosevelt is intending to announce the Consultative Pact at an early date. This has been temporarily withheld either because the final terms are not yet settled or because the Pact is only grantable on the strength of a real European armaments cut.

Italy is prepared to accord a warm welcome to Roosevelt's suggestions provided that they coincide with the policy already declared & with unreserved national acceptance of Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's plan.

LLOYD GEORGE'S WAR MEMOIRS.

The first extracts of Mr. Lloyd George's long awaited war memoirs are being published exclusively by the Daily Telegraph and deal with the tense hours prior to and subsequent to the expiration of the Ultimatum in August 1914 which gave a "different direction to the advance of the human race."

At the fateful Cabinet meeting he advocated not merely a passive non-intervention but a strengthening of the army's numbers and equipment with a view to intervention at an opportune moment when the belligerents could not afford to disregard the appeal.

His opinion was that if Britain had been able to throw a well equipped army of a million men to support the fleet, Germany would have hesitated before rejecting peace terms but, could all the revolution, anarchy and famine which swept Europe had been foreseen, Britain could have taken no other course than that which she adopted.

On the receipt of the news of the Mons Retreat Mr. Lloyd George felt, he says, that nothing but the mobilisation of the whole of our strength could save Europe and the world from incalculable disaster.

HITLER CONCILIATORY.

According to a report from London Hitler's speech in the Reichstag on Wednesday has had, generally, a good international reception and his conciliatory and eminently sensible tone is freely commented upon.

While pointing out that the two nations views on disarmament are still far apart, France welcomes his moderation while Roosevelt finds his announcement encouraging as an endorsement to his own move to secure peace.

Geneva expresses satisfaction and Mr. Henderson, who states that his own view has never been pessimistic, finds that his attitude is justified and has accordingly postponed the general commission of the Disarmament Conference from Thursday till to-day (Friday.)

The German extremists regret Hitler's placative strain though elsewhere his speech is described as a most statesmanlike utterance - the best that has been heard in Germany for years.

Nevertheless the apparent conflict between this and Von Papen's week-end speech has given rise to discussion in international circles for Von Papen's more violent passages have aroused foreign resentment.

---o---o---

ROOSEVELT & JAPAN.

The views on the Roosevelt pronouncement on the far east predicament have been somewhat qualified by press reports and comments. The Italian journals are withdrawing their advocacy of "unconditional acceptance" while the Vatican organ welcomes the proposals in that definite obstacles have been placed to increase the expenditure at the same time practically ruling out the possibility of surprise hostilities.

The Japanese army is strongly opposed to the pronouncement unless the nations agree to classify seditious Bolshevik propaganda and the Chinese boycott as military offensives says the Daily Telegraph Tokio correspondent.

The Japanese War Office spokesman, in scouting the practicability of the proposals, says that Roosevelt apparently ignores Japan's position, sandwiched as it is between the Soviet and China.

The official French opinion associates itself heartily in the words of the Premier who remarks upon the "dissipation of fears", while the President, M. Lebrun, has sent a message to President Roosevelt expressing his appreciation of the latter's high sentiment.

The Kings of Sweden and Denmark have replied to Roosevelt sincerely participating in the hope that all the nations will join in a concerted action for economic and political peace.

DISARMAMENT HOPES.

The General Commission of the Disarmament Conference reassembled yesterday in a more hopeful atmosphere.

According to the Daily Telegraph correspondent at Geneva in quoting the highest authority, Mr. Norman Davis was expected to outline America's attitude and, in supplementing Roosevelt's manifesto, indicate some basis of action.

It was also expected that Davis would stress the need of such action immediately and that all the countries must put their cards on the table with the probability that Mordukhai-Boltovskoy would approach the Commission in a new frame of mind, indicating exactly what Germany wants in armaments.

Hitherto Germany has not declared her wants with reference to men and materials and Mordukhai-Boltovskoy is expected to put forward a basis in both respects.

Reuter messages from Paris suggest the great probability of a meeting between Daladier and Hitler in the near future to seek a way out of the two nations impasse.

Washington has received a reply from each of fourteen countries to Roosevelt's appeal including Britain, France, Germany, France, Austria, Italy, Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Holland, Switzerland, Latvia, Chile, Mexico and Cuba.

Von Hindenberg has cabled his appreciation while Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, pending the nomination of the Cabinet, has replied on her own initiative while King Victor has done so personally.

---o---o---

FRANCO-SOVIET PACT.

According to a message received from Paris the French Chamber has unanimously approved of the Franco-Soviet Pact on Non-aggression which M. Herriot negotiated in 1932.

M. Herriot stated that he sought to restore the balance between Russia and the rest of Europe and it was a loyal attempt to liberate France and Russia from the incubus of difficulties hitherto obstructing satisfactory political relationships.

He added that it was foolish to maintain the gulf created since the war while the Pact should serve to terminate the foreign intervention mania and abolish the legend of France's endeavour to restrict Russian liberty.

---o---o---

WAR DEBT WORRIES.

According to a message from Washington it is learned that President Roosevelt is not asking the Congress for a free hand in the revision of War Debts but he is expected to send a message to the Senate before its adjournment outlining his hopes of accomplishment through diplomatic channels, possibly asking for suggestions in framing the replies to foreign proposals.

In some quarters of Paris it is understood that the British Government is expected to approach the French Government to discuss the respective June instalments but while Britain will probably pay the full instalment, partly in silver, France is unlikely to pay.

VEST POCKET NAVIES.

The smallest navy in the world, which belongs to Panama, is for sale. It is a steam yacht manned by four men under a lieutenant. Ecuador's navy is one gun-boat, manned by fifty-three officers and 264 ratings. Mexico has five gun-boats, and Peru owns three cruisers, a destroyer, six gun-boats and four submarines.

Despite music hall jokes Switzerland has a navy - a number of small vessels which patrol Lake Geneva. Holland's navy is a fleet of twenty-four submarines, most of which are on patrol duty in the East Indies.

WHO INVENTED THE GRAMOPHONE ?

A claim that Professor Luca de Samuele Cagnazzi, who taught at Naples University during the beginning of last century, was the real inventor of the gramophone has been made by the University authorities.

It is said that he exhibited an ingenious apparatus to reproduce sound at a science congress held in Florence in 1844.

SHE CAN'T BE DOWN-AT-HEEL.

Safe-deposit shoes, with detachable hollow heels, are the latest Paris novelty in footwear. To remove the heels it is necessary to know the right combination of turns, as with a combination of a safe. Within the heels is room to stow several bank-notes, gold pieces or gems.

So now women must beware of "shoe-snatchers."

SMUGGLED A KING TO SAFETY.

Mr. John Tattersal, a Brighton car-park attendant, has applied in vain for the renewal of a pension of £50 a year which was granted by Charles the Second to his ancestor, Captain Jack Tattersall.

Captain Jack was the proprietor of an inn in Middle-street, Brighton, and when the King fled to the continent he sought refuge there. Next day Captain Jack smuggled him in disguise to Shoreham, where a boat was waiting. After the restoration, Captain Jack was awarded the pension, and for many years after his death it was paid to his descendants.

But it was allowed to lapse, and now, apparently, it has been "dead" so long that it cannot be renewed.

ANNUAL VESTRY MEETING.

The Annual Meeting of the Registered Vestry of The Cathedral Church of Christ took place in the Parish Room on Thursday last.

The Very Reverend the Dean presided and there were also present twenty-one other members.

After the Minutes of the previous meeting had been confirmed the following were elected to form with the Dean, the Church Council for the year 1933 - 1934 : Dean's Warden - Mr. T. Binnie, People's Warden - Mr. R.H. Hannaford, Acting Hon. Treasurer - Mr. T. Binnie, Hon. Secretary - Mr. C.A. Parkinson, other members of the Council - Messrs. P. Smith, S. Bennett and K.V. Lellman.

The chairman in his remarks spoke feelingly of all those who had assisted in the work of the Cathedral during the past year and the financial help accorded by so many. He made special mention of the assistance given by the Colonial Government and the Falkland Islands Company.

He informed the meeting that nearly £240 had been contributed towards the Dean and Mrs. Brandon Memorial Fund. He knew that many more wished to assist and he therefore was not closing the Fund for a year or two. He was gratified to announce that the attendance at the Sunday School showed an average of 115 each Sunday throughout the year.

SIMLA FINANCE.

It is understood that the Maharajah of Alwar is leaving his State to-day (Monday) and going abroad for a year or two.

Reports from Alwar show that there are acute differences between the Maharajah and the British authorities regarding revenue collection and finance.

A later report states that the Maharajah intends first of all to proceed to the Indian Hill stations. Within a week he is expected to proceed to London where he will confer with the British authorities.

Last January, recalls the Daily Telegraph, the Maharajah's Moslem subjects revolted against the demand for heavier taxes and British troops had to be sent to restore order. British administrators were then appointed.

The Treasury is depleted and apparently all attempts by the Maharajah to raise loans privately have been unsuccessful.

The Government informed him that if he asked for financial help they would insist on his fixing the Privy Purse at two Lakhs (£15,000) but the Maharajah refused to agree.

His departure will enable his British Premier to straighten up his affairs.

The Maharajah, who is fifty-one years of age and a noted sportsman and polo player is reputed to have shot over 300 tigers and panthers.

---o---o---

THE DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE.

At to-day's meeting of the General Commission of the Disarmament Conference, Mr. Norman Davis will make a definite statement on the policy of the United States.

Europe, the Sunday Times understands, will be told that it must reduce its military expenditure if it wishes the United States to participate in pledging security by way of the Consultative Pact.

Since Hitler has modified his attitude the future of the Conference now depends on the United States and France.

The new point of view in international politics was expressed by M. Mottra of Switzerland who said that a satisfactory agreement could not be reached until Europe knew how far the United States would join the other States in dealing with any aggressor.

A Reuter message from Paris states that M. Paul Boncour is leaving for Geneva with definite and carefully worded instructions. M. Daladier's speech in the Senate on Saturday leaves little doubt of his determination to yield nothing except in exchange for an inviolable guarantee.

---o---o---

ATHLETICS.

The Oxford Centipedes won the Universities' Athletic Union Championships at the White City on Saturday.

---o---o---

SLIMMING MENACE.

Desire for "modern figures" has gained such a grip on the pupils in some European schools that authorities are seriously worried. They say that it has become a menace and fear that their girls' health will be permanently injured.

Special Board meetings have been called in some parts but the school authorities have found themselves helpless before the modified "hunger strike" on which their pupils have embarked in search of beauty.

A plump girl is stated in some schools to be "socially ostracised" - other girls who have achieved a sylph-like slenderness will hardly deign to speak to her.

FEASTS BANNED.

A regime of strict economy is to be ordered in the social life of China during the present crisis of the country. Rules to prevent extravagance at social functions have been drawn up by the Minister of Home Affairs and submitted to the Executive Yuan (Cabinet) for formal adoption.

The rules provide that no more birthday parties shall be given to people under sixty years of age; the price of meals is to be restricted and no one must pay more than seven-pence for a plate of food. In addition banquets must not last more than two hours. All officials and private individuals are to be subject to these regulations but diplomatic social functions will be exempt.

HENPECKED FLEE.

The tongue of Woman can have terrors that will drive Man to despair. But France's Foreign Legion cannot complain. It owes one-fourth of its members to "nagging" wives, whose "hen-pecked" husbands have fled for shelter to the ranks of a force which is perhaps the most rigorously disciplined of any in the world.

Prince Aage of Denmark, an officer of the Legion, is the authority for this statement.

WHY THEY WERE NOT IN COURT.

Two "Frenchmen" a short time ago were sentenced in their absence to one year's imprisonment each by a Rennes court-martial because they had not presented themselves for military service.

When the gendarmes went to their homes, however, it was discovered that the two "men", Georges Shepp and Maurice Hegeippe, had both died eighteen years ago shortly after birth.

DEPRESSING DEATH.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death yesterday morning of Mr. Andrew Nut Cartmell who passed away suddenly and under distressing circumstances.

Mr. Cartmell who was between 22 and 23 years of age and the son of Mrs. Cartmell and the late Mr. R. Cartmell, had come into Stanley from Darwin for a brief holiday. He appeared to be in normal health and over the week-end mixed with his friends without giving alarm.

Early yesterday morning though while staying at Mrs. H. Sedgwick's he awoke complaining of severe pains and the doctor was called but he died before 9.0 o'clock.

The deepest sympathy of all goes out to his bereaved relatives and friends in their sad loss.

THE BRITISH DISARMAMENT PLAN.

Parliamentary circles in Paris on Sunday expected M. Paul Boncour to announce at Geneva yesterday the French Government's acceptance in principle the British Disarmament Plan.

The newspaper Populaire however gives a detailed account of a stormy Cabinet meeting and announces that the following conditions are attached to the acceptance :

1. There must be an organisation for international control of armaments.
2. Disarmament should be effected by stages.

If an agreement is reached the French will undertake to cease all new air, sea and land armament construction. If this international control is decided upon France will accept the prohibition of all offensive arms.

SIR ABE BAILEY RETIRING.

According to a press message from London Sir Abe Bailey who is a director of twenty-seven companies and the chairman of nine - practically all gold-mining concerns - is retiring from active participation in public affairs "but his interest in them will continue unabated."

He is sixty-eight years of age and intends to devote some of his time to writing his memoirs.

He was born in Cape Colony and sent to England for his education. He was working at an early age but before he was twenty-one he had made the first of several fortunes and had lost it.

Sir Abe was a participant of the gold rush to Barberton in 1886 and shared in the Jameson Raid.

---O---O---

HITLER AT KIEL.

At Kiel on Saturday Herr Hitler reviewed the small but highly efficient German Navy which has been created during the past nine years.

The Reichsflotte consists largely of vessels which in proportion to size are the most formidable fighting ships afloat.

Built regardless of expense they average nearly £400 a ton compared with the contemporary British constructions of £200. Only one of the four pocket battleships is ready but there are five powerful cruisers with a radius exceeding that of any foreign cruiser, and twelve destroyers.

Behind these brand new units, the Daily Telegraph points out, there is a number of old battleships and smaller craft formidable in capable hands.

A Reuter message from New York states that the stumbling block to the "Currency Truce", according to the New York Tribune, is the divergence between the United States and Great Britain over the ratio of the Dollar and the Pound.

The United States suggests four dollars to the pound while Great Britain would have 3.50.

DASHED TO DEATH IN A CRATER.

According to a report from Wellington, New Zealand, John Wall, the nineteen-year-old son of Dr. A.H. Wall of Wanganui, fell 200 feet into the crater of the Ruapehu Volcano on Sunday.

Two men were lowered by ropes into the lake which was here icy cold and there boiling hot. They managed to reach the body which was lodged on a lofty pinnacle and float it to where it could be drawn up.

It is believed that the fall killed him outright.

NEW DAM FOR THE NILE.

A Cairo message states that J.W. Gibson whose tender of £2,078,086 to build the Gebel Awlia Dam was recently accepted is negotiating to form a company.

Gibson was agent for Messrs. Pearson and Son for the construction of the Sennar Dam.

The new dam which is to cross the White Nile south of Khartum is estimated to increase Egypt's cultivable soil by 300,000 acres.

The scheme has been repeatedly held up by the Wafdists who see it as an opportunity of the British to increase their "strangle-hold" on Egypt.

THE FOUR POWER PACT.

The Four Power Pact, a bulletin from Rome announces, is now practically ready for signature.

The Daily Telegraph understands that it will be signed in Rome at Whitsuntide when Hitler may visit the Italian capital for the ceremony.

The absence of any pretensions to dictate political solutions to the smaller European States is now clearly indicated in the text. Apprehension has also been removed that it might fall outside the framework of the League of Nations' Covenant.

It remains to be seen whether President Roosevelt will agree that America as an observer should be associated with the activities of the four European Powers.

COTTON TARIFF POSITION.

A report from Manchester states that though not unexpected, the new tariff on cotton piece goods imported into China is reacting adversely on the Manchester trade particularly in relation to the finer fabrics where Lancashire earlier held an advantage.

While it is said that the increased duties aimed against Japenese dumping the effect on Lancashire cannot be estimated until the full text of the Tariff is available.

THE LEAGUE WANTS MONEY.

At a secret session of the Seventy-second Meeting of the League of Nations' Council on Monday it was made clear that the whole of the League's work was being seriously impeded on account of financial stringency, says the Daily Telegraph correspondent.

An urgent appeal is being made to the nations whose dues are still unpaid to contribute forthwith so that the League's essential work could be continued uninterruptedly.

It is pointed out that the World Economic Conference is making serious demands on the resources of the League in the matter of organisation and the more needed is many thousands of pounds short; this money should have been paid by the various nations in South America and Asia.

GERMANY'S HONOUR & PRESTIGE.

Herr Hitler, in addressing the naval garrison at Kiel prior to boarding the cruiser on which he was accompanying the manœuvring fleet said - "We need peace perhaps more than others to create work for our unemployed. Germany has found herself again and though the fleet is small the German people regard it with pride because it is more than a tangible symbol of Germany's honour and prestige. We shall not rest until we are again an honoured and free country."

U.S. BANK ENQUIRY.

According to a message from Washington the Senate Banking Enquiry opened yesterday with an investigation covering the activities of Kuhn Loeb, Dillon Reads and others for which 900,000 dollars have been appropriated as legal costs.

All the heads of the affected banking houses have been sub-poena'd to give evidence of the past and present dealings of their concerns. John Pierpont Morgan was the first witness called.

It is the biggest banking investigation ever staged in America, arousing great curiosity among the public and is regarded as not only of national but international importance.

The objects of the enquiry include among other things to ascertain to what extent financial organisation controls the major industries and what profit accrued to the bankers in floating bond issues, many of which are now in default.

HAN ON PADDED RIFLEMEN.

No Aids To Steady Aim.

The Daily Sketch of the 26th of March last prints an exceptionally interesting article on what are given as new shooting conditions for Bisley. The article reads :-

"Riflemen when competing at future Bisley gatherings will have to endure the harshness of the ground and the recoil of their rifles unrelieved by specially-padded shoulders and elbows.

"For many years past many of the expert marksmen have enjoyed these comforts, but the Council of the National Rifle Association has now placed an embargo on them.

"No exterior or interior shoulder or elbow padding will be now allowed except a piece of leather or cloth devoid of hair, fur, wool or rubber.

"Lord Cottesloe, chairman of the National Rifle Association, referred to the amended clothing regulation at the meeting of the association yesterday at the Royal United Service Institution, Whitehall.

"There was a growing tendency, he said, to make use of clothing as some kind of artificial assistance in steadying a person when firing. If it were not checked there might be no end to its development.

"We might even see," he said, "Bisley marksmen attired in the thick coats of animals in cold climates"

U.S. BANKING ENQUIRY.

According to a message from Washington Pierpont Morgan, the first witness in the Senate on the banking enquiry, revealed the depths of the industrial depression in his evidence on Tuesday. He stated that his New York firm Allied Drexel Company of Philadelphia, had in 1931 assets amounting to 700 million dollars but these dropped to 420 million by December 1932 with deposits totalling 250 millions.

Morgan stated that the partners in the firm held the directorships of 157 companies but he defended the private banks as an asset and not a danger, pointing out that they risked money in undertaking certain responsibilities which the incorporated banks could not assume thus fraudently aiding distressed clients.

THE DISARMAMENT & ECONOMIC CONFERENCES.

Britain's Reply To Roosevelt.

The British ambassador at Washington on Tuesday delivered the following reply to President Roosevelt's recent message :

"His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom have read with much appreciation the message which the President of the United States has addressed to the heads of all the countries participating in the Disarmament and Economic Conferences on 16th May.

"His Majesty's Government feel that the action which President Roosevelt has taken in addressing this message to the peoples of the world is of the highest importance and is well calculated to further the aim which His Majesty's Government have striven to secure, namely the successful outcome of these Conferences. They entirely share the President's view that on the successful outcome of these two Conferences hang the future happiness and prosperity of the world.

"They are all the more encouraged by Mr. Roosevelt's message because the President places as the first step of his programme the adoption of the draft of the Disarmament Convention presented to the Disarmament Conference by the Prime Minister.

"His Majesty's Government see in this an earnest of the intention of the United States Government to collaborate at Geneva in pressing for the general adoption of this Draft Convention as a whole. His Majesty's Government believe for their part that if this can be attained the result will be the restoration of confidence between the nations of the world and that thus, the best preparation will be made for the vital decisions which the monetary and economic Conference will be called upon to take."

Replies from the Governments in the British Dominions have also been delivered to the President.

EMPIRE DAY MESSAGE.

We are privileged to publish the following Empire Day Message received by His Excellency the Governor from the Admiral of the Fleet Earl Jellicoe G.C.B., O.M., G.C.V.O., President of the Empire Day Movement. :

"In sending my hearty greetings and best wishes as President of the Empire Day Movement to every part of His Majesty's Dominions, I wish to express my admiration of the magnificent spirit which has dominated the whole Empire during the very difficult year through which we have passed - a year in which industrial depression has caused much suffering and sorrow to all classes. It is a happy thought that the great Conference at Ottawa last year drew still closer the ties which bind the Empire together in a bond of mutual co-operation for the benefit of all.

"The true Empire spirit-which inspired the representatives at Ottawa from all the Dominions sounded a very welcome note of hope for the future industrial prosperity of the Empire. Should we not then unite in a firm determination, when celebrating Empire Day, to support Empire unity both in spirit and in deed ?

"Remember the Watchwords of our Movement :

CUSTOMERS - LISTEN !!!!!

The above are genuine reductions, comprising many everyday commodities, rendered possible by cheaper prices at the source of supply. That is how it is done! There is no "catch" in it. Cheaper buying means cheaper selling, and it is the WEST STORE'S policy to pass the benefit on to the customer at once. It should be noted that these are not cheaper, inferior lines. They are of the same grade and quality that have appealed to our customers before. It is only the price that is different.

There may be times when prices have to be raised in accordance with home costs, but if you study our lists and SHOP WITH US, you will soon be convinced that you are dealing in the best and most reliable local market - the one that gives the customer the benefit of reduced costs at once.

THE FALKLAND ISLANDS CO. LTD. STORE DEPARTMENT.

TRUCE IN FAR EAST.

According to a message from Tokio the Foreign Office Spokesman announced that a provisional truce for the suspension of hostilities pending negotiations, was signed by Li Yun yesterday. Meanwhile the Japanese are maintaining their present positions but they will not enter Peking provided provocation ceases.

It is understood that the terms will provide for the withdrawal of the Chinese troops to a line roughly parallel with the railway from Kalgan to Tientsin thus creating a neutral zone and subsequent Japanese retirement to the Great Wall.

Simultaneously the Chinese Eastern Railway question is cropping up and a Moscow agency is alleging that at a special meeting at Changchun the Japanese Legation decided to sever connections to Vladivostock for the purpose of diverting Manchurian goods and traffic to Dairen, thus lessening the value of the railway in view of the selling negotiations. The Soviet press comments upon the action as violating the Peking and Mukden Treaties and the Special Railway Conventions.

Tentative reservations through the Embassies are as follows : Claridges - America, Greece and Italy; Hyde Park Hotel - Egypt, France and Japan; the Ritz, Carlton, Savoy and Kensington Palace - Roumania, Norway, New Zealand, South Africa and the Irish Free State respectively with the Egyptian Secretariat at Knightsbridge Hotel.

The General Post Office is laying a special telephone service to all points.

OTTAWA INFLUENCE ON COTTON.

According to a message from Manchester as a result of the Ottawa Conference considerable developments are foreshadowed in the Lancashire and Indian cotton trade, revealing a successful termination of the manufacturing experiments recently carried out.

Hitherto Indian cotton has been little used in Lancashire owing to its short staple but it is now possible to produce over forty types of cloth suitable for various markets therefrom.

While the cotton trade is strongly criticising the tariff on foreign dyes it is reported that the business has improved over fifteen per cent during the year with the textiles with re-acting to the processes in a manner unequalled since 1928.

NO HOPE FOR RAFFLES.

The strongest strong-room in Europe is one of the features of the re-constructed west wing of the Prudential Assurance Company's building in London.

It has a steel door seven feet high and three feet thick, which weighs thirty tons, but can be moved easily by a man using only one hand - provided he knows how. The floor is of reinforced concrete five feet thick, and the walls and ceiling are three feet thick.

This strong-room measures forty-eight feet by thirty-eight feet by ten, and £260,000,000 worth of securities will be kept in the steel, glass-fronted cases which line it.

It is noteworthy that British material has been used throughout in the work on the new wing.

THE NEW YORK TIMES

ON THE FALKLANDS CENTENARY.

The New York Times, - one of the most influential of the daily papers in the United States, in an article on the Celebration of the Falkland Islands Centenary states :-

"The islanders have been getting ready for a twelvemonth to observe the Centenary. About half of them live in Port Stanley and the other half scattered over the two main islands. The country outside the clean, compact built town is known as the "Camp". Travel is by horse, wagon and boat. In remote parts there are sheep-herders who have never been to Port Stanley except on the occasion of the Centenary while others have not visited the town for many years. But during the Centenary Week the "Camp" was almost deserted.

"The presence of a British cruiser and a tourist steamer in the harbour was irresistible. There was to be a parade of the Defence Force - a well-trained body of men - also a Commemoration Service, and afterwards a stock and dog show and a steer riding competition.

"Sir James O'Grady, the Governor, was also to make an official pilgrimage to the grave of the pioneer Matthew Brisbane.

"While the depression had hit the sheep industry, everybody had enough to eat and the Colony was out of debt."

THE EVEREST EXPEDITION.

Hugh Ruttledge, who is leading the climbing expedition of Mount Everest, cabling from Camp 5, 22,800 feet up tells a graphic story in an exclusive Daily Telegraph message outlining the party's advance and establishment of Camp 5 and prospecting beyond to the height of 25,600 feet.

All progress has been hazarded, states a Saturday message, by the high winds and snow storms but on the 22nd of May, Wynharris, Greene, Birnie and Coustead with twenty porters prospected the site discovering a good tent platform.

During the ascent Greene found a number of the 1922 Finche expedition oxygen cylinders. One was in perfect condition and was used with good results. There was also discovered a Kodak film, the container of which is believed to be exposed and is being returned for development.

The monsoon clouds on the one side and the snow laden west wind on the other is staying every attempt to establish Camp 6 but should the weather improve a further effort was being made within two days.

Providing the effort was successful Smythe and Shipton would endeavour to reach the summit at the earliest possible opportunity. The entire party is in excellent health and the morale could not be better.

GANDHI.

A Saturday message from Bombay states that excepting for exhaustion, Gandhi is progressing favourably and should complete the fast since only seventy hours remained. If no understanding is reached he will subsequently return to gaol.

A message from Poona last night states that Gandhi's fast ends to-day (Monday) and will close with a day's silence.

The doctors' bulletin states that despite extreme exhaustion Gandhi is holding his own and his general condition warrants confidence in his survival of the ordeal.

One hundred friends are being invited to the breaking the fast ceremony when Gandhi will drink orange juice prepared by an untouchable boy while Mrs. Gandhi will eat the pulp of the same orange.

ASCOT.

The Ascot racing authorities have requested the Daily Telegraph to state that arrangements have been completed under which the Totalisator will operate at the annual race meeting on June 13, 14, 15 and 16th.

Erisk Derby backing is apparent. Manitoba is backed to win £10,000 and has closed as favourite at 15/2. Other bettings are: Hyperion 8/1, Rodosto 100/9, Young Lover 100/8, King Salmon 100/7.

U.S. BANK ENQUIRY.

A message from Washington on Saturday states that questions at the Banking Enquiry the previous day referred to Morgan floating a 200 million dollar loan to the British Government in 1931 for the support of sterling, and counsel alleged that while Morgan's associations' costs amounted to 35,000 dollars, commission totalled two million.

The Chairman, Senator Fletcher, announced in relation to the allocation of shares to Coolidge that these were made after the office was vacated by him.

Diplomatic circles in London are expressing surprise at American public concern relative to their statesmen's borrowings since it is well known that their pay allowances are well below other national standards. A typical instance is that of the American delegates to the World Economic Conference who are to be allowed only thirty shillings daily according to the Daily Telegraph correspondent in New York.

The American press consider it most likely, as a result of the enquiry disclosures, that many members of the Roosevelt "family" will resign, among those taking that step will be, it is expected, Woodin, Norman Davis. Others are likely to exercise a diminishing influence in the political life of the country.

EMPHATIC COTTON DEMANDS.

The report by the Cotton Trade League, a message from Manchester states, shows that the industry is fighting for its life in the greatest world market challenge ever experienced, and emphatically demands the sweeping away of the treaties which are helping Japan and instead, bringing to the Dominions and Colonies the realisation that they are partners in the Empire from which they have derived great advantages.

It is pointed out that it is unfair that Japan should have equality with Empire markets whereas a common customs policy would abolish the present handicaps of British trade in British Colonies.

In view of Japan's decreasing demand for Indian cotton and Lancashire's likely increase in consumption after experimentation, it is considered that the present is the most propitious time for taking action.

Simultaneously the Empire Cotton Growers' Corporation reports that Uganda's crop constitutes a record while Nyasaland's and Tanganyika's increased acreage is progressing.

THE MAY BALL.

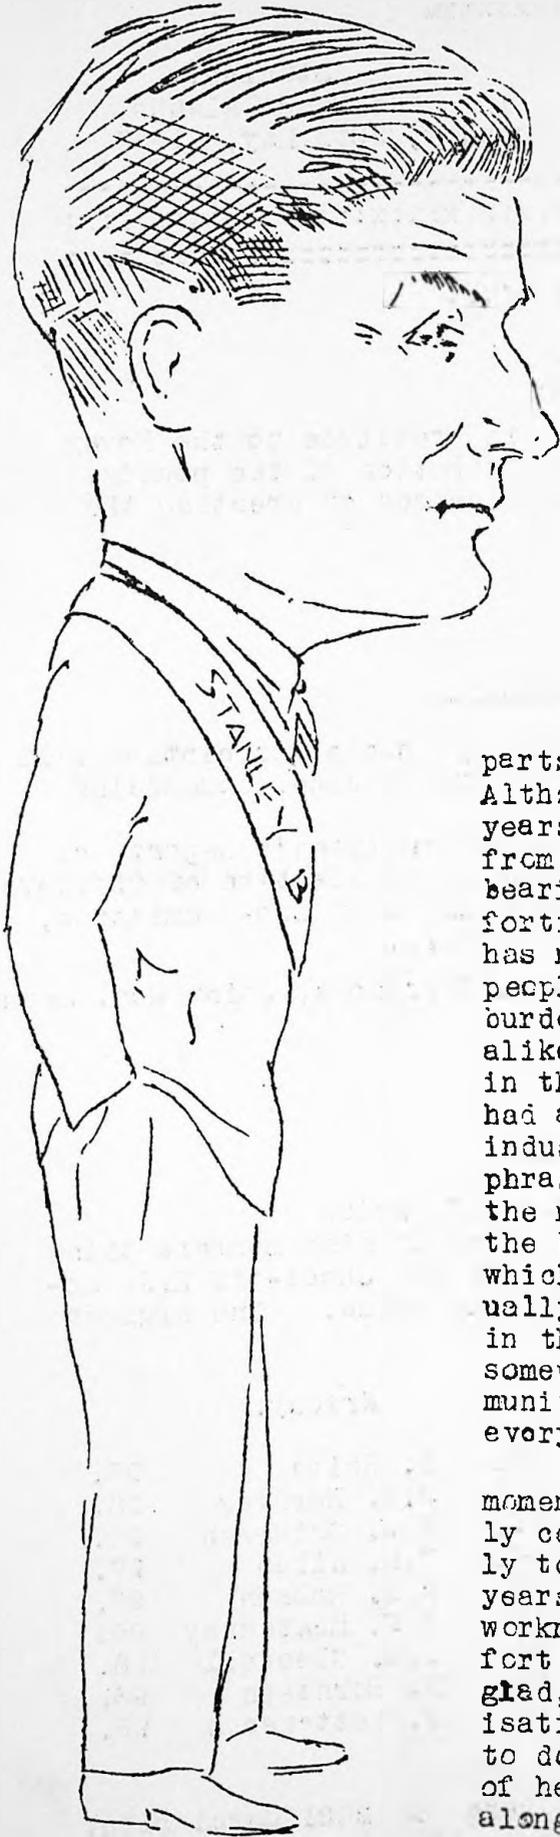

Loyalty To The Benefit Society.

Those who attended the annual May Ball held in the Town Hall on Tuesday and Wednesday last week under the auspices of the Stanley Benefit Club, spent a most enjoyable time.

On the first night His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. M.C. Craigie Halkett was present. In introducing His Excellency, Mr. E.V. Dixon, chairman of the S.B.C. apologised for the fact that public speaking was outside his latitude but he was sure all present would join with him in extending a hearty welcome to His Excellency.

In response to the warm applause His Excellency said "Though we are living in somewhat depressed times I think we ought to be grateful for the fact that we have not suffered so much as other parts of the Empire, particularly the Old Country. Although compared with twenty-five or thirty years ago the unemployment figures have grown from 200,000 to over three millions yet we are bearing the burden cheerfully and with great fortitude. In the matter of debts too, Britain has never yet defaulted and we have let other people off who have owed us money - the full burden being borne by the employers and workmen alike with all other sections of the community in the Old Country. Only just lately I have had a letter from probably one of the greatest industrialists in England and he uses a graphic phrase 'I am glad to say we are getting out of the mire; in other words we have ceased bumping the bottom.' This is a very graphic phrase which indicates that we are just going up gradually towards greater prosperity and I think here in the Falklands we shall experience the move somewhat sooner than the greater mass of the community that exists in the Old Country and indeed, every other country in the world.

"These are general observations up to the moment. Coming to something which more intimately concerns us I do hope you men will stick loyally to your Benefit Society. During thirty-five years of public life I know no organisation among workmen that has been of such great help and comfort to them. I was very proud, or rather, very glad, to find when I came here so live an organisation in your midst and I am sure you are going to do your level best to support it in its work of helping you meet those adversities which come along in all our lives, sickness in particular. And if there is anything I can do that will be helpful to your organisation, depend upon it I will do it most willingly, freely and as enthusiastically as I can."

LLLOYD GEORGE MEMOIRS.

Further instalments of Mr. Lloyd George's Memoirs, published by the Daily Telegraph, reveal the confliction of opinion relative to the rival claims of the western and eastern fronts as Germany's vulnerable point.

In France, M. Millerand, supporting Joffre, was for the "Western" while Ms. Poincare, Briand, Painleve, and Albert Thomas, were insistent upon the "Way round" through the eastern flank of the central powers.

The French generals Gallieni, Franche and Disprey joined Kitchener in the belief of the impossibility of breaking the western barrier and since there was no way of outflanking the German lines in France without appalling loss, other means were sought.

Lloyd George suggests that if the Allies had taken strong timely action by organising the turbulent races from the Danube to the Chersonese and thence to Peloponnesus, a formidable army could have been created, the equipping of which would have cost comparatively little; and these would have been available for an eastern offensive.

As an outcome of deliberations he communicated a memorandum to the War Council in December 1914 proposing an attack on Austria conjointly with the Serbians, the Romanians and the Greeks, employing one and a half millions of men, and an attack on Turkey by landing 100,000 troops in Syria to cut off the forces invading Egypt.

Kitchener expressed a considerable measure of agreement and two days later he communicated with General French relative to the eastern assault, French later agreeing that if it were impossible to break through on the west it would be desirable to seek new spheres; "Austria, for example."

This finally led to the adoption of Churchill's Dardanelles plan.

CENTURY OF PROGRESS EXHIBITION.

A message from Chicago states that the Century of Progress Exhibition there was opened by the United States Postmaster General, Mr. Farlet, on Saturday, as the personal representative of President Roosevelt who was unable to attend owing to the pressure of politics.

The Exhibition is designed to show the century's progress in science and to celebrate Chicago's Centenary, among the prominent features of the Show being the British Rail engine "Royal Scot" which is attracting widespread attention; this is the first occasion that an entire working train has been shipped for such a purpose.

The Opening Day on Saturday was dramatised by the illumination of the grounds in the evening through the agency of rays from the star "Arcturus" which were radiated forty years ago and were astronomically captured through a photo-electric cell and amplified before being transferred to Chicago by wire. A "mysterious glow" was achieved as a result of this extraordinary experiment says the Daily Telegraph correspondent.

GETTING TO THE TOP.

"If the weather remains good Wyn-Harris and Wager will reach the summit of Mount Everest to-day" reported Hugh Ruttledge in an exclusive message to the Daily Telegraph on Monday, adding that the present conditions were favourable and the party in excellent health and spirits.

In an amplification of last Saturday's message Ruttledge says that Boustead, Firnie, Smythe and Shipton were unable to reach Camp 5 on Thursday last week owing to the heavy wind and on descending they made contact with the remainder of the party who on advancing subsequently shifted Camp 4 to a sheltered crest on the north Col, the first site being dangerous owing to the heavy snow-falls.

Smythe, Shipton and Wyn-Harris with Firnie, Wager and Longland then made a successful return to Camp 5 on Sunday and anticipated the successful establishment of Camp 6 at 27,700 feet on Monday. It is to be from this Camp that the final ascent is made. It is intended that Smythe and Shipton will also follow to the peak.

The weather experts state that a calm spell is likely to prevail providing every opportunity for a successful assault.

A NEW WIRELESS AGE.

The Daily Telegraph in publishing an exclusive interview with the Marchese Marconi, states that the inventor predicts a new wireless age in which there will be no congestion and no interference from storms, steel structures and refrigerators etc., with crystal clarity in the transmission of voices and music.

This is to be effected through the use of micro-waves whereby there will be between wave lengths of 20 centimetres and 1 metre as many stations as there are possible at present between 200 and 1,000 metres in which individuality will be distinct and reception will be of better quality.

His recent discovery and the instruments connected with it have been brought to England and successfully tested with speech transmission by a beam on a micro-wave length over a distance of 168 miles. As a result of these investigations it "should be possible" to broadcast on a 50 centimetres' wave length over a radius of perhaps twenty miles. Marconi added that it appeared that the earth curvature and other obstructions by solids had been overcome.

The Marchese is receiving the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Science at Cambridge on the 8th of June.

THE PIONEER FARMERS OF PATAGONIA.

Falkland Islands Foundations.

We take the liberty of re-printing from the Magellan Times the following interesting extracts of an article published in La Razon and subsequently in La Revista Menendez-Behety written by Sr. R.J.C. Ravazzo and entitled "The Falkland Island Emigrants", with due acknowledgments :

"If we investigate the history and origin of the first stockman who peopled the extreme South of Argentina, we shall find ourselves faced by the surprising fact that the small and misty islands - the Falkland Islands - supplied dogs, sheep and the men who definitely laid the foundations of our southern riches.

"From 1878 to 1894 more than 20,000 sheep were brought over from these isles to the fertile Magellan fringe known as Punta Arenas, whose camps in comparatively few years..... made those early settlers almost millionaires. And many of them, almost all, in partnership or alone, extended their business interests in farms scattered up the coast from Rio Gallegos to Deseado.

"The cost of the stock brought across, brought across from the Falklands in quick schooners, varied about £1 per head, but the losses in transport, reaching almost 50 per cent, considerably increased the original figure.

"As a matter of curiosity it is worth while stating that the first sheep imported belonged to the Lincoln and Merino breeds.

"It is only just to put on record that the first of the Falkland Islanders who settled at Cape Virgins was Thomas Greenshields with his brother-in-law William Douglas. Messrs. Rudd, Halliday, Eberhardt, Felton, Scott, Smith, Jamieson, Dickie and many others took up the Rio Gallegos camps. Later on Messrs. Patterson, Frazer, Wallace, Blake, Monroe, Hope, Kyle and others chose the region of San Julian; while Mr. John Greenshields settled in Camerones Bay.

"That immigration, so beneficial for the future of those distant places was afterwards backed up by the first Governor of the Territory, Sergeant-Major Carlos M. Moyano (1884) who gave the pastoralists from the Falklands every facility for the settlement of those vast deserted plains."

Climbers Lost To Sight.

Following the establishment of Camp 6 on Monday on the ascending ridge 27,400 feet up and 1,740 feet below the summit by Wyn-Harris, Wager, Longfield and eight porters, in the face of a high wind, the final climb began yesterday morning, says the Expedition's leader, Hugh Ruttledge, in a message to the Daily Telegraph.

The climbers chosen for the final stage are Wyn-Harris and Wager and they left the party in the early hours. The last time they were seen, at 7.0 a.m. they were making good progress but after that they were lost to sight; light clouds obscuring the view.

WOMEN IN THE PULPIT.

"A Brass Face Needed!"

In addressing the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland which opened on Tuesday at Edinburgh, the Rev. J. McMillan said that there were too many women in the pulpits - far too many.

To be a Minister, McMillan said, one needed "a constitution like that of an elephant, the skin of a rhinoceros, the heart of a lion and any Assembly ordaining a woman - that creature who sighed like a saint, suffered like a martyr and loved with the zest of a seraph - to the Ministry must have a face of brass."

He believed that it was a reversal of the Divine Order and that the Almighty wanted the church to be a man's church.

SOLVING THE WORLD'S DIFFICULTIES.

Call For Anglo-American Cooperation.

A powerful call for Anglo-American cooperation in solving the world's difficulties and banishing the fear of war was voiced by the Hon. Robert Bingham, the United States Ambassador, at the Pilgrims' Dinner in London on Tuesday.

"In this, the greatest crisis in human history, I believe the world's foundation and hope lies in the whole-hearted cooperation and the concerted action of Great Britain, the British Commonwealth and the United States," he said.

"This is no time for bargaining and seeking any form of advantage one over the other he continued, and he did not believe that two nations with such traditions would fail themselves and mankind in such a grave emergency.

The Americans were at last prepared to lower the tariff barriers so that international trade could move again and President Roosevelt's pledge to support world action against an aggressor had the loyal and enthusiastic backing of the Congress and the people to a degree unequalled in American history since George Washington.

LAST SUNDAY'S MATCH.

No. 2 Platoon 5 : No. 3 Platoon 3.

Although No. 2 Platoon beat No. 1 two weeks previous to the encounter on Sunday last No. 3 were confident that they could turn the tables on the "Green 'Uns." But they had the shock of their lives when, after an hour and a half's endeavouring to "keep their end up" they had to admit defeat by the decisive score of 5 - 3.

As a re-organised team No. 2 Platoon have certainly shown themselves far more powerful than they expected themselves to be, and though some people are rather inclined to believe that they have shot their bolt and will not be able to keep up their run of wins, there is no reason why they should not reverse the position they have held in the past at the end of the season.

From the point of view of football last Sunday's game did not stand out conspicuously except that opportunism battling against a weak defence gave No. 2 the victory. Although the "Green 'Uns" were without their captain, Pike, they found just as reliable a man as him in Stan. Atkins. Jennings who scored three of the winners goals showed what long legs could do when put to the right use while D. O'Sullivan always forceful (an attribute lacking in most of those seen on the field at any time) scored the other two. Creece also played well and defended his goal admirably.

At first the No. 3s were all at sea and before half time the score stood at 4 - 1 in the 3s favour. Their great difficulty seemed to be their failure to keep the ball moving while their attack lacked definition. Two of their goals were scored by E. Pettersson and the third by A.W. Beardmore.

One noticeable fault which is still common on the field and, if not rectified will result in the same conclusion as heretofore when the Force meets a Ship, is that individual players forget that there are ten other men on the side. In other words every-one seems to consider that the great idea when you get the ball is to hang on to it until beaten and then blame something or somebody-else. First time kicking (as long as you know where you are kicking the ball) is the essence of good football.

JUTLAND ANNIVERSARY.

The anniversary of the Battle of Jutland was celebrated with tattoos and parades in Germany, Rear-Admiral Lutzow, who commanded the Moltke at the bombardment of Yarmouth described Jutland as a victory for the entire German people.

In London the day passed uneventfully, the First Lord of the Admiralty stating in the House of Commons that no special steps were being taken to commemorate the anniversary, such not being the Naval custom.

At Invergordon, H.M.S. Malaya flew Malaya's flag, the same as was flown at Jutland throughout the battle and while on patrol the following day after the enemy's flight.

MOUNT EVEREST.

First Climbers Fail.

Hugh Ruttledge's message from Camp 4 and dated the 31st of May, states that Wyn-Harris and Wager returned uninjured that day after making an unsuccessful attempt that morning to scale the summit from Camp 6 on the morning of Tuesday last.

Between the Camp and the first ice-step, they found an ice-axe believed to be Mallory's who lost his life in the final stage in 1924.

Following the Norton 1924 route Wyn Harris and Wager turned at the second step and crossed the great couloir at the same point as Norton who reached 28,000. Realising at 00.30 that they would not have time to attain the summit and, discovering a smooth and difficult snow slope to the south, the climbers returned.

Meanwhile Smythe and Shipton had arrived at Camp 6 and they were proceeding along the same route the day the message was despatched.

If the peak is not attained they are sleeping at Camp 6 and re-attempting the following day (Friday.). Clouds are obscuring the upper Camps from Camp 4.

JAPANESE THRUST INTO EMPIRE MARKETS.

According to a message from London the Federation of British Industries have issued a report on the Japanese Thrust into British and Empire markets.

The report says that unless rice is made equivalent to beef the beef standard will cease to exist for many industries. It is added that the Yen's depreciation has been deliberately employed by Japan to embark on reckless national sales - a policy that is having disastrous results upon traders in all the world markets. Typical cases cited showed that in 1928 Britain exported eight times more rayon fabric than Japan while in 1932 Japan exported three times more than Britain.

In the cotton textiles Japan's monthly average for export is 200 million yards and these efforts are being assisted by wage rates one third of those applying in England. The selling price too is from 10 to 25 per cent below the British.

THE BENEFITES CONCERT.

Speech By His Excellency.

The Benefites Concert Party is to be heartily congratulated on its performance held in the Town Hall on Wednesday last week and organised by Mr. W. Catten. Such opportunities of appreciating displays of local talent are all too rare and this endeavour serves to whet an appetite that will appreciate with real relish yet further entertainments the Benefites can stage for us.

Not only did the individual items show considerable merit but, what is just as important, each turn followed the previous without undue delay. Apart from the artists and organisers a word of praise is due to Mrs. R.L. Robson, the accompanist, and Mr. G.W. Butcher who was responsible for the lighting effects.

There was a good attendance and among those present were His Excellency the Governor and the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Acting Colonial Secretary.)

Those in the know realised their expectations but those not so well informed had more than an agreeable surprise when And. and Des. Peck fronted the foot-lights in a duet. Their harmony was a decided asset to the Party. Then Fred Davies and Syd Summers kept us in a cheery mood with their "Tall Story" and brought a good turn to a happy conclusion with "the assistance of the Band." Already a favourite with audiences Karl Lellman and his banjo entertained all with a jolly Irish song with a swing and a local appeal, while a Monologue entitled "Mrs. Tiggles Classy Swarry" saw Billy Catten in his element and completely in favour with the audience. And after this "Atmospherics by the Band" - a didident caption for so harmonious an ensemble - brought the first half of the programme to an end.

After a ten minutes' interval Ted Gleadell opened the second half with a song in which his versatile face was given full range - he might well be called the man with the India-rubber face - and a great success he was too. Karl Lellman gave another of his popular songs for which he was well applauded and this was followed by one of the best turns of the evening, namely, illuminated club swinging by Messrs. D. At the conclusion of the performance Mr. Catten explained that the concert was in aid of the Stanley Benefit Club's Party Fund and he thanked all those who had attended for their kind support, hoping all had enjoyed themselves. He also thanked Mrs. Robson and Mr. Butcher for their valuable assistance.

On the invitation of Mr. Catten His Excellency the Governor then addressed the audience saying -

"I am sure we have all enjoyed the concert this evening and I think as we go on we shall see a development among the artists and we shall be able to enjoy their entertainments even more than we do now. But the purpose of the concert this evening is a good one, and, personally, I am delighted to see such a large gathering present.

"You know what I have told you before along these lines - we meet all too infrequently and we do not gather together enough either at concerts or dances; I am rather surprised that we don't because we have some long winter evenings ahead of us and during those evenings I would like to see you enjoy yourselves and forget for the time being the worries of life. In addition your presence at these gatherings gives encouragement to those who so kindly entertain us as we have been entertained to-night with the various items on the programme.

"If, as I said when I first came to the Colony, we set ourselves to evolve the team spirit, endeavouring to understand each other and talkin' a little less scandal about each other we would really be doing something worth while.

"We ought, everyone of us, to try to see good points in each other. Personally, I always have held the view, through life, that there is no man or woman really evil - although perhaps it might be sometimes that we are inclined to become vicious but that is, I think, largely due to the circumstances in which we live. If we can catch a glimpse of the fundamental spirit that is in all men and women - we want to be true, we want to be fair and we want to be just - then we shall all be the happier for it. For instance, let us give to those who have entertained us this evening our hearty thanks and goodwill. They have done their best; I have enjoyed the show anyway - I like the spirit behind the men and women who have submitted to us such a fine programme this evening. THE KING'S BIRTHDAY PARADE.

Impressive Ceremony.

His Majesty the King's Birthday was commemorated on Saturday, the 3rd of June in a fitting manner in Government House Paddock with a Grand Parade of the Defence Force, the Sea Rovers, Boy Scouts, and Girl Guides, Wolf Cubs and Brownies followed by a Review of the Defence Force with His Excellency taking the Salute.

The Defence Force paraded smartly headed by the Brass Band recently formed, and under the command of Captain D.R. Watson. It would not be out of place to express here a word of praise particularly to the Band whose performance was highly commendable while the convolutions of the whole Force during the Review were most satisfactory. The following officers were on parade - Lt. W.M. Allan (Adjutant), the Very Reverend the Dean (Chaplain), Lt. R. Greenshields, 2nd Lieutenant F.A.W. Byron (Colour Officer) and 2nd Lieutenant A.I. Fleuret. The Sea Rovers were under Rover Mate S. Bennett, the Scouts and Cubs under the charge of Mr. H. Thomas (Scoutmaster), the Girl Guides under the charge of their Patrol Leaders, and the Brownies under the charge of Miss J. Miller (Brown Owl.)

His Excellency the Governor arrived at the Saluting Base at 11.0 o'clock accompanied by the Hon. C.M. Craigie-Halkett (Acting Colonial Secretary) and members of Councils. After inspecting the Parade His Excellency took the Salute as the Defence Force marched past in Review Order.

At the conclusion of the Parade the Governor and his staff visited the Defence Force Headquarters where His Majesty the King's health was drunk. Captain Watson then addressed the company upon the importance of the occasion and expressed his pleasure for the way the men had responded. He also expressed his appreciation of the honour done to the Force by the Governor visiting the Headquarters with his staff. His Excellency suitably responded.

FOOTBALL.

No. 3 Platoon 7 : No. 1 Platoon 2.

There was no disputing the fact that No. 3 Platoon were far superior to No. 1 Platoon on Sunday and had the winners taken full advantage of their opportunities the score might have been even more prolific.

No. 1 Platoon, except when they scored their first goal, seemed to be absolutely devoid of luck. Their forwards only worked together spasmodically while as a result of the persistent pressure of the opposing half backs who were mainly responsible for the success of No. 3's forwards, No. 1's defence were completely at sea. Although the losers had undoubtedly one or two weak spots in their side had they shown the dash of spirit and confidence which they exhibited towards the end of the first half, all through the game, there is no reason why they should not have forced a draw with their vanquishers.. As it was, however, they lost heart and with it any hope they might have had at the start of putting up a good show. No. 1's outstanding fault was the lack of cohesion not only between the different lines of defence and attack but also among the individual players. It was a great pity that they did not remember to keep their positions. What combination and proper positioning can do was only too plainly obvious just before half time when they gave a demonstration of their trophy winning form of previous years - but, alack, it was all to brief.

Both the goal-keepers played well but they both still are inclined to take flying kicks rather than gather the ball. This fault gave No. 1 their first goal for the ball rebounded off Des. Peck and went through the posts with a flash. Jim. Peck distinguished himself with some excellent punches and also saved a penalty at the expense of a corner. S. Thompson scored a good goal for No. 3's while No. 1's second goal was a great credit both to O'Sullivan who headed it neatly through and to Aldridge who placed the corner. No. 1's first goal came off L. Seigwick; No. 3's remaining goals were scored by Grierson (2), Beardmore (2) White and Pedersen who put the ball in his own goal.

EMPIRE PRODUCTS.

According to a message from London last night the Empire Marketing Board report for the year 1932, issued yesterday, provides striking evidence of the rising tendency in the United Kingdom's demand for Empire products with twenty-four quantitative records established during the year.

Outstanding is the increase shown in the demand for Australian eggs which have risen from nine million dozen to fifteen million dozen while the West Indies bananas have jumped to over three and a half million bunches. Other figures include a rise in Canadian tobacco from six million pounds to eleven million pounds.

EMPLOYMENT INCREASING.

The Ministry of Labour figures issued in London on Tuesday night showed that the employment is increasing coupled with a substantial decrease in unemployment extending in every industry practically except coal-mining, with notable benefits in heavy trades.

Between April 24th and May 22nd the registered unemployed fell 114,755 to 2,592,679 which is 158,427 less than the year before and the lowest monthly total since March 1932.

Since September 1931 when the National Government took office employment has increased 326,000 and unemployment has declined 241,393. The comparison shows that the betterment is not merely seasonal.

The only district with increased unemployment is the north-eastern where there is an advance of 1,440 due to the seasonal coal-mining decline.

AFGHAN MINISTER SHOT DOWN.

According to a message from Berlin Sirdar Mohammed Azziz Khan, the Afghan Minister in that city, was shot down at the Legation on Tuesday afternoon by a fellow national named Kemal Syed.

The assassin, shouting "for freedom's sake", fired two shots one of which entered the Minister's breast; the other struck a companion in the shoulder. Before being overpowered Syed fired three more shots all missing.

An immediate operation was performed on the wounded Minister in the hospital but it was unsuccessful. Moreover he was in a dying condition when placed on the table.

HINDUS & MUSLIMS TO MEET.

There are hopes of ending the political stalemate if the Congress is reasonable, says the Daily Telegraph correspondent in Bombay. From the same source it is reported that a conference is likely to be called shortly when the Hindu and Moslem leaders will meet to discuss a political and communal settlement.

Gandhi's health does not yet permit him taking an active part in the arrangements of the conference but he has already been asked for his views about the date and the place.

STANLEY SPORTS ASSOCIATION.

Annual Meeting.

The Annual General Meeting of the Stanley Sports Association was held in the Church Hall on Tuesday last when Mr. R. Greenshields presided and there were present the following gentlemen :

Messrs. V.A.H. Eiggs, (vice-chairman), G.I. Turner (Hon. Treasurer), A. Newing and A.W. Beardmore (Joint Hon. Secretaries), B. Fleuret, W. Aldridge, L. Aldridge, D.R. Watson, W. Newing, R. Reive, R. Hutchinson, W. Hutchinson, L. Hardy, S. Aldridge, J. Bowles, H. Thomas, T. Paico, E. Aldridge, W.M. Allan, K. Jennings, J. Barnes and T. Campbell.

The Secretary's Report showed that the Centenary Sports Meeting held in February last in place of the usual Christmastide Meeting, had been a great success and, in addition, had passed off in an entirely satisfactory manner.

The finances showed that the Association had a balance in hand of £253. 9s. 7d.. The cash and sweepstake prizes for the Centenary Meeting had amounted to over £500 while the money taken for the Governor's and the Douglas Plate Sweepstakes was more than £400. The Totalisator had cleared over £125 which constituted a record.

The Joint Hon. Secretary said that during the past twelve-months the Executive Committee had lost the services of Mr. A.W.N. Vincent who had been a keen worker and a valuable one in the furtherance of the interests of the Sports Association and his untimely death while returning to England was to be deeply deplored.

The membership of the Association numbered fifty-six while the number of annual subscriptions received amounted to forty-three.

In his remarks the Chairman said that, taking things all round, they had had a very successful meeting last February and he supposed it would be years before they would see such another meeting. Whether or not a Stock Show would be held in another five years and the West-ers would come in again rested in the hands of the gods. Personally he would like to see such another race meeting as they had just had every five or three years - it would be all for the benefit of the Sports.

One pleasant thing about the Treasurer's report was that forty-three members had paid their subscriptions which was a considerable improvement on previous years; he considered that their little chivvy-ing up at the last General Meeting had done a lot of good.

Referring to the Sweepstakes the chairman went on to say that they had done fairly well out of them this year - he believed that it was the first time they had not had to pay out money on the Douglas Plate and for once they had a balance in hand on it.

Taking things all round they had an extraordinarily successful year and he thought they would all agree with him that it had been an extraordinarily successful meeting.

Going on to speak of the late Mr. Vincent, Mr. Greenshields in expressing his regret of the former's sad death, said that he thought that it should be put on record in the Minutes the deep appreciation of the Association for his services, for he was always a strong supporter, and how sorry they all were to hear of his death.

The chairman then went on to comment on the attendance that evening and declared how encouraging it was to have so large an attendance. There were twenty-three present as compared with fifteen the previous year.

In conclusion he expressed his warm appreciation of the services of the members of the various sub-committees and the Executive Committee for all the work they had done and of all the members of the Association for their loyal support.

The election of officers resulted as follows :-

President - His Excellency the Governor; Vice-Presidents - the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., W.H. Harding Esq., the Hon. G.J. Felton, Vere Packe Esq., and Jos. Aldridge Esq.; Chairman - Mr. R. Greenshields; Vice-chairman - Mr. V.A.H. Biggs; Hon. Treasurer - Mr. G.I. Turner; Joint Hon. Secretaries - Messrs. D.R. Watson and T. Campbell.

Finance Sub-Committee - Messrs. G.I. Turner, E.J. McAtasney, and B. Fleuret; Course Sub-Committee - S. Aldridge, W. Aldridge, H. Jennings, J. McGill, R. Reeve, T. Paice and A. Pettersson; Sweep-stake Sub-Committee - Messrs. E.J. McAtasney, W.M. Allan and V.A.H. Biggs; Entertainments Sub-Committee - Messrs. R. Aldridge, J. Aldridge, E. McAtasney, L. Sadwick, A.W. Beardmore, W.D.A. Jones, L.E. White, J. Barnes and R. Hutchinson; Tote Sub-Committee - Mr. J.D. Creamer to organise; Auditors - Messrs. A.W. Beardmore and W.D.A. Jones.

The chairman paid a tribute to the services rendered by Mr. A. Newing who retired from the position of Joint Hon. Secretary after serving in that capacity for some six years and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Newing.

During the course of the election of officers a suggestion was made that there should be changes in the Course Sub-Committee but Mr. Newing staunchly supported the motion that it should remain as it was. The Race Course Committee, he said, was really the best Committee on which he had served and it would be a great mistake to alter its present composition.

After considerable discussion as to whether it would not be wiser to have the annual sports in February in future it was finally decided to hold them at Christmastide so that the next Sports Meeting of the Association will take place this coming December 26th and 27th,

It was also decided to hold Sweepstakes on both the Governor's Cup and on the Douglas Plate which is to be run again this year; the price of the tickets on the Governor's Cup sweepstake however have been lowered from 5/- to 2/6.

Mr. H. Newing raised the question of handicapping horses. He was supported in his contention by Mr. B. Fleuret but after discussion these gentlemen formulated a resolution whereby the matter should be brought forward for discussion another year. The resolution was passed.

A long discussion followed on the awarding of prizes. The matter was raised by Mr. Watson who proposed that no prizes of kind except those kindly presented by donors should be awarded and in this he was supported by Mr. T. Campbell, who seconded the motion. Mr. Watson said he had heard many remarks on the race course concerning the matter of the presentation of such prizes by the Association and he gathered that the winners would prefer money awards. As a result of the "grievance" being fully ventilated Mr. Watson and Mr. Campbell withdrew their proposition and on the further motion of Mr. K. Jennings seconded by Mr. B. Fleuret it was decided that all the Association's prizes of kind should have a suitable inscription.

There being no further business the meeting closed about 11.30 p.m., having commenced at 8.0 p.m..

COLONIAL SMALL BORE RIFLE MATCH

The Winners Their Medals.

Friday last week was a Red Letter Day in the history of the Defence Force for during a dance held in the Town Hall that evening His Excellency the Governor received the Colonial Small Bore Rifle Competition Trophy on behalf of the Colony from the captain of the winning Falkland Islands team - Mr. E.J. Mcatasney, while the members themselves were presented with their medals by His Excellency.

There was a good attendance, among those present being the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Acting Colonial Secretary), Captain D.R. Watson, Lieutenant W.M. Allan (Adjutant) Lieutenant H.G. Edmunds, Second Lieutenants F.A.W. Byron and A.I. Fleuret.

In introducing the Governor Lieutenant Allan said :

"Before asking His Excellency to present the medals to the members of the winning team it may be of interest to you all if I gave briefly an outline about the Colonial Small Bore Rifle Match which our team from the Falkland Islands have won. Started in 1932 by the Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs on the suggestion of Commander Sir Lionel Fletcher this competition has had a good send off with an entry from nine Colonies. The competition is open to teams of ten members who fire two cards of ten rounds at twenty-five yards, the highest possible score per member being 200 points. The cards are sent out from the Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs to the Secretary of the competing club who then arranges the match. A date is fixed and a supervising officer appointed to control the shoot. Last year the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. supervised the match. In addition to a number of the general public His Excellency the Governor was present throughout the shoot and took a great interest in each individual effort.

"The participation in this event speaks much for the hold that rifle shooting has in the Colony. In addition to sending teams home to compete at Bisley, one of which won the Junior Kolapore Cup in 1930, our Small Bore Team has now won the Colonial Small Bore Match in its initial year. The team scored a total of 1,901 points out of a possible 2,000 - a great effort. The individual scores were :-

Sgt. J.R. Gleadell	194	Pte. E.J. Mcatasney	194.
Pte. A.H. Mills	192	" C. Henriksen	191.
Cpl. C.F. Thompson	191	" L. Reive	190.
Pte. W.J. Grierson	189	Sgt. J.J. Harries	189.
" E. Lellman	186.	2/Lt. F.A.W. Byron	185.

"The position of the other teams and their scores were :- Trinidad 1,894, Kenya 1,893, Fiji 1,871, Ceylon 1,829, Jamaica 1,640. Bahama and the King's Own Malta Regiment did not return cards.

"I will now read a letter of congratulation from the Secretary of the S.M.R. Clubs :- 'Dear Sir - After some delay we have been able to prepare the challenge trophy, and to obtain delivery of the medals for your splendid success in the above competition (Colonial Rifle associations Small-Bore Match 1932) and the trophy and the medals have to-day been despatched.

"We take this opportunity to again congratulate your team on its victory, and to express the hope that you will arrange a formal presentation in collaboration with the Government of your Colony, sending us a printed report for inclusion in "The Rifleman," if possible.

"Please acknowledge receipt of the trophy and medals at the earliest possible moment. Yours faithfully, G. Pethard, Secretary. 14th March, 1933."

After thanking His Excellency for being present among them that evening Lieutenant Allan called upon the members of the team to come forward whereupon Private E.J. McAtagney asked His Excellency to accept the Colonial Small Bore Cup on behalf of the Colony. Each member then received his medal from the Governor who concluded the ceremony by addressing the following words to those present -

"To-night as the Governor of the Colony I am rather a proud man to know that our team have won this great prize. It is indeed an Empire Prize although the Dominions are not allowed to take part since it is a competition for the Colonies; and when one remembers that the Colonies are, in the main, populated by coloured people, and that the contest is held among those of our own race who are among them, it is indeed an achievement of which one might well be proud. I saw the score results for this competition and they are extremely interesting. Out of a possible 2,000 points our Team only lost 99 and we had a hard fight for it since we won only by seven points; the next team was Trinidad with 1,894.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, we won it at the first time of asking and our real thanks are due to those men who secured this magnificent trophy for us.

"I know that Governor Hodson when he was here took a great delight in shooting and he was also himself a very good shot. But I am afraid that if I took a small bore rifle I should need a haystack as a target if I wanted to hit it. Nevertheless I have taken a keen interest in rifle shooting all my life. I spent some time of my life in the Artillery Volunteers and in the Regular Army and used the old Schneider carbine which had a kick like a mule. Since I have been here I have taken a keen interest in shooting both on the butts and indoors. The particular feature of this competition is that the conditions are equal. Of course, if you go to Bisley it all depends upon the weather. If it were Falkland Islands weather at Bisley we would win every time. But in this competition the conditions were absolutely equal; there was no handicap or weather conditions to consider and so I think the victory was a splendid one.

"I have received a letter from Sir Arnold Hodson in Sierra Leone in which he sends his warmest congratulations and asks if we are going to send a team to Bisley as he is taking one from Sierra Leone. I wrote and told him we are and we are going to give them a good run and a thorough good whacking (Applause.)

"So, you see, the Falkland Islands, in the matter of shooting are really on the map and they will be even more so in view of that splendid letter received from the Secretary of the Club which presented the Trophy for this Competition and which, through him, sends its warmest regards.

"I hope that every time you take part in competitions the same spirit and resource which you put into this one will be forthcoming and that you will win these trophies thereby keeping us well to the fore in the attention of our fellow British subjects.

"Moreover, I hope the kiddies, the boys in particular, will make a point of looking at the Trophy in its case in the Town Hall where I wish it to be placed so that they will come along and join the Defence Force and be even better than their fathers at rifle shooting." (Applause.)

BRITISH WAR DEBTS.

British Ministers, so a message from London reports, are now agreed that there are to be no more unconditional payments of War Debts to America and the policy adopted regarding this June payment of £19 millions is the suggestion that as Britain is receiving nothing from her debtors or Germany on account of reparations, payment should be suspended while the Debt Settlement is negotiated.

It is understood that the Ministers are prepared to make a "Token" payment if this facilitates negotiations but in the event of its rejection there will be no payments.

President Roosevelt has been acquainted with the British Government's views and from Washington it is reported that Sir R. Lindsay visited White House on Saturday and had an oral communication but the details of the "informal conversation" have been withheld.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, is making a statement relative to the war debts' position in the House of Commons to-morrow (Tuesday). Prior to this nothing official is being issued.

STOCK MARKETS.

The stock markets on Saturday closed with irregularity due to some of the profit taking British Funds being slightly easier with War Loan $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent at $98\frac{7}{8}$.

German Bonds after fluctuating somewhat freely throughout the day closed somewhat steadier with $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent at 44 and 7 per cent at 64.

City opinion is critical of Germany's action regarding the moratorium but it is regarded as inconceivable that Germany should really intend to default on her Young and Dawes payments, as this would obviously strike a deadly blow at Germany's credit at a time when she needs credit most.

Saturday's recovery in German Bonds from lower levels touched at the outset is based on hopes regarding the meeting in London of Germany's long term creditors and representatives of the Bank of International Settlements, called for the 13th of June.

THE EVEREST CLIMB.

Hugh Ruttledge's cable dated the 11th June (yesterday) states that the climbing parties have descended to Camp 3 and they are remaining there until the new snow is off the mountain. They arrived at this base on the 2nd of June. They are all needing a rest as all are slightly frost-bitten and except for Smythe are suffering from slight heart dilation.

During the Smythe - Shipton assault the latter became unwell above Camp 6 and descended although a blizzard was blowing. Smythe continued alone by Norton's route reaching the same point as Wyn-Harris and Wager but snow on the slabs of rocks on the couloir made progress impossible. He returned alone through blizzard conditions to Camp 4 and after twelve hours' sleep continued until he arrived at Camp 6.

The Monsoon is active on the snow-covered peak but when the weather moderates, Smythe, Harris, Shipton, Longland, Crawford, Brooklebank and Greene are re-ascending the glacier, the first four making an attempt on climbing to the summit along the route already assaulted while Shipton and Longland will attempt the climb in another direction.

In the event of failure by both parties on this occasion they will combine and make an attempt along Norton's route.

THE WORLD CONFERENCE.

The work of preparing the new Geological Museum at South Kensington to accommodate the World Economic Conference was completed on Saturday.

Among the equipment is the installation of twenty-two amplifiers.

Practically all the delegates have now reached London. Probably some arrangements will be agreed upon to ensure brevity of speeches.

His Majesty the King at the opening ceremony is expected to set an example by speaking for less than an hour while Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the President of the Conference, who will be the first speaker after the King will confine his address to a quarter of an hour.

It is hoped that the delegates will produce their proposals in their opening speeches and make these as precise and as definite as possible.

Mr. MacDonald on Saturday lunched with Mr. Cordell Hull, the head of the American delegation.

THE LATE MR. A.E. FELTON.

We deeply regret to have to record the death on the 10th instant of Mr. Arthur E. Felton J.P. of West Point Island, West Falkland. The deceased gentleman had been in failing health for some months.

Mr. Felton, who was seventy-eight years of age, was born in the Colony where he spent the whole of his life engaged in the sheep farming industry. As one of the last of the pioneer sheep farmers Mr. Felton often compared the difficulties and hardships of farming in the early days with the conditions now obtaining. He was the Senior Justice of the Peace for the Colony having been appointed in February 1904.

Mr. Felton was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Felton who were among the earliest British settlers in the Falklands. He has a surviving brother Adolph Felton who is living in Australia.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mrs. A.E. Felton and Miss Felton in their sad bereavement. The funeral will take place to-day (Tuesday) at 2.30 p.m., the service being held in the Cathedral.

SEA ROVER WEDS.

A wedding of particular interest took place on Sunday after morning service in the Cathedral. It was the marriage of Mr. J.D. Clarence Evans, Assistant Sea Rover Leader of the Stanley Sea Rovers to Miss Emily J.B. Davis, the fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Davis of Dunnose Head. Mr. Evans is the eldest son of Mrs. Evans and the late Mr. John D. Evans. The Very Reverend the Dean who is the Leader of the Sea Rovers officiated whilst after the ceremony the bridegroom's fellow Rovers, under the charge of Rover Mate H. Evans (his brother) formed an arch with the bars of the Rovers' boat the "Sea Wolf."

The bride who was dressed in blue crepe de chine with hat to match was attended by Miss K. Smith who was also dressed in blue crepe de chine. The bride was given away by Mr. S. Bennett while the best man was Mr. E. Lellman (both being fellow Rovers.)

After the ceremony a reception was held at the house of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson where the happy couple are living. Among the many presents was a token from the Sea Rovers in the form of an Oak Clock and a sugar basin while from the Dean was received a number of Falkland Island crested silver spoons.

THE ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

When His Majesty the King opened the Monetary and Economic Conference in the Geological Museum, South Kensington, yesterday afternoon, he addressed the representatives of sixty-six nations containing 2,000 million people and his words through an elaborate system of relays and broadcasts were clearly heard on the other side of the world. Three hours before the Conference began a great crowd notably cosmopolitan in character had assembled outside the entrances and the King who drove from Windsor was loudly cheered on his arrival and when he left.

As His Majesty entered the Conference, escorted by the Prime Minister as President of the Conference, Sir Eric Drummond, Secretary General of the League, and M. Joseph Avenol, Secretary General of the Conference, everyone rose and remained standing while His Majesty delivered his address.

In the course of his remarks the King said :- "At this time of widespread economic distress, it is with a feeling of deep responsibility I welcome you to this country." He referred to the work of the League which he followed with the keenest appreciation and said that without the League and its ideals he doubted whether the Conference would ever have taken place.

He also recognised the spirit of helpful cooperation which had brought the representatives of several non-members of the League to these discussions and he extended a special welcome to Empire delegates.

All nations were suffering from a common ill shown only too clearly by unemployment figures the meaning of which in terms of human suffering had been his constant concern in recent years as it had been of everyone present on whom the responsibility of Government rested.

"It cannot be beyond the power of man so to use the vast resources of the world so as to ensure the material progress of civilisation."

Interposing a passage in French the King said - "It is with very profound emotion that I see around me at this august assembly which seems so vast but which represents an infinitely vaster conception - hope and the wishes of the entire world."

THE WORLD CONFERENCE.

"History in the making could definitely describe the opening of the World Economic Conference which began in London yesterday with the nearest approach to a Parliament of Man yet known.

Never before have so many leading statesmen and personalities representing so many different nations been gathered together in one place.

In the list which is still incomplete the representatives are gathered from four continents, 1,800 million people and sixty-seven countries and they include one President, eleven Premiers, over twenty Foreign Ministers and the same number of Finance Ministers with about twenty-five holders of Cabinet Portfolios. There are yet more to come.

The personnel of the Conference is a happy mingling of old and new blood auguring well for the success of this great event. But, while many nations' delegates figured in all international meetings since the war there are a number of countries represented by men who have but recently risen to power. This latter is particularly notable in the delegates from France, Germany, the United States and Italy.

Many of the delegates are accompanied by their own body-guard but a special branch of Scotland Yard is providing day and night supervision during the whole period of the Conference both inside and outside the Geological Museum and at the hotels concerned. Strict instructions have been issued to prohibit the approach of unauthorised persons.

WAR DEBT DEVELOPMENTS.

According to a message from Washington Sunday night President Roosevelt is definitely expecting an official communication from the British Government on War Debts during the next two or three days.

The Daily Telegraph special correspondent in Washington adds that the President does not intend making any reference on his views until this communication is received.

Popular speculation is intensified by frequent White House visits by Sir R. Lindsay whose task it is believed, is not to specify any particular sum but to discover the President's reactions to the problem.

While Britain's total default is not seriously considered a general view of Britain's acknowledgement of these obligations and a part payment by her would be received in America well and would prevent any outburst of feeling.

---o---o---

GERMANY & FOREIGN DEBTS.

A New York press message states that Germany's suspension of her service of foreign debts is regarded in the U.S. as a political move which that nation similarly adopted prior to other international conferences.

The feeling in London is that the Economic Conference may find the German position less desperate than it is made out to be, and it is hoped that she may be persuaded to avoid the transfer of the Moratorium on the Young and Dawes Loans since such a measure might gravely affect her credit which is now her greatest need.

FOOTBALL.

No. 1 Platoon 1 : No. 2 Platoon 1.

Whatever may have been the opinion prevailing before the match on Sunday the one and only comment at the conclusion was that No. 1 Platoon ought to have won - and ought to have won by at least two clear goals. Not that they were so much superior to No. 2 Platoon for as a matter of fact the teams were extraordinarily well matched; the ball was well distributed and both goal-keepers were well taxed.

No. 1 Platoon owed their failure to their inability to take advantage of the opportunities fortune gave them - or shall I say their centre-forward did not seem to grasp the idea that his part in the game was not to help the opposing goal-keeper in the latter's task of saving but make it his job to put the ball between the posts. There were three occasions when he should have scored - to my certain knowledge! - once from a pass by Aldridge in the first half, again in the second half from a pass on the right and thirdly and most patent of all when O'Sullivan put a perfect centre across an open goal for him to head over the bar when almost underneath it.

As a result of No. 2 Platoon securing a draw they stand a more than healthy prospect of "pulling off the Shield". Had they won interest in the League would almost have petered out whilst had they lost the championship would still have been an open question.

No. 1 Platoon won the toss and kicked with a fair easterly wind behind them. It was obvious from the start that their team was far better organised than on any previous occasion and that their opponents looked like having a rough time but No. 2 Platoon had some staunch defenders; among them Stan Atkins played an excellent game as did the captain Pike also. Hardy had some rare dashes on his wing to help relieve the pressure while D. O'Sullivan was a great source of anxiety to his brother. Jennings was also effective. The outstanding player of the team though was Creece in goal who who with as much sang-froid as you could stuff into a whale calmly dealt with some awkward situations.

After Clifton, who is shaping well, had almost dispossessed Creece of his equanimity about half-way through the half, Charlie Allan sent in a hard low shot which the goalie failed to hold and when tackled let spin into the "net" for No. 1 Platoon to secure the opening point.

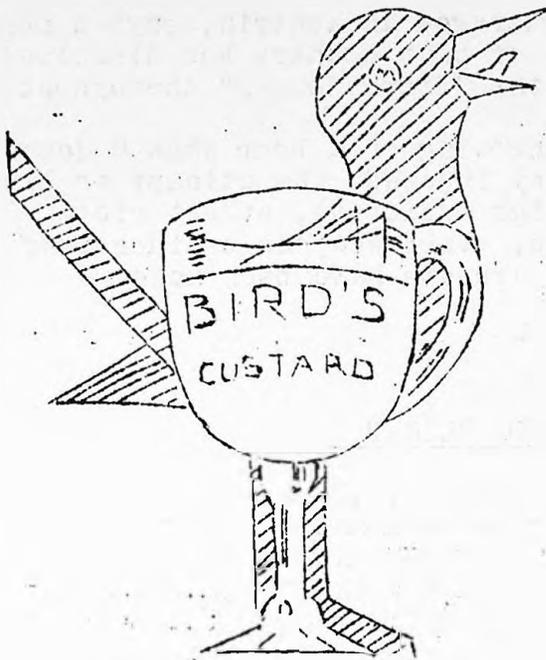

In the second half No. 1 Platoon's defence withstood the onslaught of No. 2's forwards exceptionally well and with the assistance of Veteran Charlie, who put in some yeoman service the forwards in the wine-coloured shirts were not starved of opportunities - these latter though were not working as well as they had been doing partly owing to Williams having received an injury which hampered his play considerably. F. O'Sullivan worked powerfully as did both of the O's backs while Jim Peck was no wit less spectacular than Creece and when the equalising goal came from Pike's foot it was a piece of right down bad luck that he should be unsighted by Bert Fleuret who was equally unfortunate in deflecting the ball into the goal. No further score eventuated in this half although, as already mentioned, two more might and should have been scored by No. 1 Platoon and the game ended with the honours even and No. 2 Platoon almost offering their opponents a drink - but not quite.

NAZI OUTRAGE.

As a sequel to a series of outrages in Austria, says a message from Vienna, the Government of that country has dissolved the Nazi organisation and closed the "Brown Houses" throughout the land.

Nazi violence included the throwing of a bomb when a jeweller and a customer were killed and many injured, the attempt to blow up a cafe with thirty pounds of high explosive, street riots necessitating police baton charges, other weapons besides tear gas having to be used. Numerous arrests have been made.

GRAVE SITUATION IN AUSTRIA.

A London message states that the existing tense situation between Austria and Germany is viewed with much gravity in diplomatic circles both in England and Rome.

The Austrian Chancellor, Herr Dollfuss returned to Vienna yesterday from England, going by air, but he stated that this was in accordance with a previous arrangement, adding that the prevailing state of affairs would soon be settled.

Meanwhile in Vienna 170 "Brown Houses" have already been closed and the newly appointed commissaries, invested with plenary powers, have already arrested the Hitler emissary Habicht who is the leader of the Austrian Nazis, with a hundred other arrests include members of the army, the police and civil service belonging to the Hitlerite party.

Fifteen members of the Nazis who are associated with the State Legislature in Vienna have been detained for over twenty-four hours at the police headquarters and searchingly examined.

Further bombing outrages have occurred involving a Jewish department store, a Roman Catholic Boy Scouts Club and other buildings.

INDIAN BOYCOTT BY JAPAN.

According to a press message from Tokio, the Japanese Spinners' Federation, comprising sixty-three companies, have formally confirmed an Indian cotton boycott.

A Daily Telegraph correspondent in the Far East says that this is becoming effective at once.

Meanwhile the Economic Federation in Japan has cabled the representatives of the Federation of British Industries' Association and the British Chamber of Commerce and the International Chamber of Commerce, expressing a keen desire for an Anglo-Japanese trade pact in order to adjust the present intense competition.

The message regrets the "antagonism" towards the traditional Anglo-Japanese friendship and points out that the abrogation of the Indian trade pact has shocked Japan. There is a further hint of the placing of prohibitive tariffs on other British Empire products.

THE WAR DEBT POSITION.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, was unable to make in the House of Commons on Tuesday evening the full statement that he had hoped to make regarding the War Debts Instalment due to-day (Thursday.)

It was known that there had been constant communications by cable and wireless between the Washington Embassy and London throughout Tuesday and it was first of all announced that the Chancellor would speak in the House at 6.30 p.m. during the debate on the Foreign Office Vote.

At that hour, however, the Chancellor said he was unable then to make his promised statement but he hoped to do so at 10.0 o'clock..

Extremely interested the House was again disappointed for at 10.10 the Chancellor rose and said that he was even then unable to make a statement on the June instalment. He went on to mention, however, that there had been lengthy exchanges of views between the British and United States Governments.

"As a result," he continued, "the British Ambassador in Washington has to-day handed to the State Department a note setting forth the British proposals. We expect to receive the President's reply to our note to-morrow" (yesterday, Wednesday.) We have no reason to suppose that it is other than satisfactory to us. But it has not yet reached us and I am not in a position to state its terms."

The Chancellor then said that he understood arrangements had been made by which it would be possible for the debate to be adjourned at 10.0 on the Wednesday night when he hoped he would then be able to make a complete statement on all the documents that had been exchanged between Britain and the United States.

COTTON STATEMENT.

A statement by Mr. J. Grey, the chairman of the Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers association, to the district organisations at a meeting held in Manchester on Wednesday, says that Japan's keen competition is not entirely due to the low wage rates but equally to the depreciation of the Yen which at par would mean doubled prices.

Lowering conditions to the Japanese level was unthinkable he continued but the Western industries would have to consider seriously Japanese competition; one solution presented itself and that was the possibility of agreement on marketing zones and quotas. Failing Japanese co-operation in this, the world would be faced with the necessity of finding a solution in other directions.

HOME TRADE RETURNS.

A message from London states that the Board of Trade returns issued on Wednesday disclosed a reduction of over £20 million in the adverse trade balance during the first five months of the year, with trade increases during May as compared with the previous month and the corresponding month in 1932.

The imports were over £6 million higher in May than in April and the exports nearly £4½ million higher with increases in manufactured goods spread over eleven trades.

Notable among the increased imports were tobacco and tea - these being over three, and two million pounds respectively - while the higher exports included coal, cement, locomotives, aeroplanes and motor cars.

There has been a considerable falling off of Russian imports due to the embargo.

Many cases show a vastly increased quantity though the monetary terms are lower.

SECRETARY OF COLONIES BROADCAST SPEECH.

On Thursday from 4.0 p.m. to 4.25 p.m. the speech delivered by the Right Hon. Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies was broadcast from the Corona Club, London to the whole Empire.

In Stanley, although every endeavour was made by the Broadcast Department to relay the speech, conditions were such that reception was very poor and, unfortunately, hardly a word of the distinguished speaker could be understood.

Sir Philip's remarks dwelt upon the economic crisis and of the ability of Britain with the cooperation of the Colonies to bring back not only the trade of the Empire but that of the whole world to a healthy condition with security of markets and prices.

The Secretary for the Colonies emphasised the significance of the World Economic Conference which has just started, signifying to what extent the decisions emanating from the Conference would bear upon the further development of the Colonies. He stressed the underlying motives of the Ottawa Agreement and how they re-acted already favourably in the interests of the Dominions and Colonies. Continuing Sir Philip made detailed reference to Colonial welfare and development both from the economic and social points of view emphasising how important it was that Britain with the cooperation of her Colonies should "pay her way and trade her way". Unless she and the Colonies did so all the world would go down in consequence. "We are obliged to set our house in order and administer wisely - if we succeed and place our own development on the right lines then every problem confronting the nations will be easier - financially and industrially - and so the foreigner will look up to the British Empire with gratitude and admiration for the system of Government, Administration and Rule which has accomplished this."

With such words as these the speaker emphasised the justification of the Empire and her Dependencies.

"What we have brought to these lands which comprise the Empire," he said, "is justice, security, help and education with scientific and agricultural markets for their products with benefits to their own Institutions which could never have come to them save under British Rule." - that is the answer which we can make to the world and that is our justification for the Possessions which are now our trust."

GERMANY'S "DAY OF MOURNING."

A report from Berlin states that the 28th of June is being recognised throughout Germany as a "national day of mourning" this being the anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Versailles.

Throughout the country, by order of the Reich Government all public buildings will fly the Nazi flag half mast while school teachers are instructed to devote one hour from the schedule explaining the significance of the Treaty to Germany.

At country-wide "Versailles meetings" to be held in the evening all young persons over ten years of age are obliged to attend.

ANGLO-IRISH RECONCILIATION.

Although the outlook for a settlement is not favourable, according to well informed circles in London there is a possibility of a resumption of Anglo-Irish negotiations through the intervention of General Smuts, of South Africa, who is showing considerable interest in the matter.

---o---o---

WAR DEBT SETTLEMENT.

Discussions with the object of furthering plans for the ultimate settlement of the war debts between the United Kingdom and the United States, says a London press message, will be continued by Sir Ronald Lindsay, the British Ambassador in Washington, upon whom has fallen mainly the conduct of the negotiations which culminated in the Chancellor of the Exchequer's announcement in the House of Commons on Thursday evening.

In London political circles it is considered that the final adjustment largely depends upon the course of events during the World Economic Conference and that not for some weeks at least, and possibly not until September, is it likely that the British War Debt Mission would proceed to Washington.

If such a mission crossed the Atlantic it would probably be headed by Mr. Neville Chamberlain. Any final settlement would, of course, need to be ratified both by the United States' Congress and the British Parliament.

CRICKET.

Yorkshire beat Northamptonshire by an innings and 206 runs. The matches produced more high scoring - Gloucestershire made 529, (Hammond 239); Glamorganshire 245 for two (Turnbull 121); Surrey 313 for two (Hobbs 100 - this is the 192nd century in his career); Worcestershire 343 for four (Gibbons 155 & Nichol 102.)

---o---o---

FRENCH & U.S.A. TRUCE.

There are strong grounds in London for hope that this week-end will witness the announcement of a monetary truce between Britain, France and the United States.

It is expected to take the form of a joint declaration embodying an agreement on a temporary measure of "de facto" currency stabilisation.

Moreover, it is understood that the United States has abandoned its earlier claim for the stabilisation of the pound at 4.30 and is now prepared to accept a rate slightly above four dollars, - believed to be about 4.05 - but the actual rate is being kept secret so as to prevent speculation.

France is expecting an announcement of Monday while American opinion thinks it will be possible after the stock exchange closes on Friday, but British circles are more reserved and cautious.

THE COTTON QUESTION.

British Reply To Japanese.

Replying to the telegrams from the Japanese Economic Federation which has threatened an anti-British trade boycott as a retaliation for the Indian cotton tariff, the British Industrial Organisation state that they are giving the present situation, which is intolerable, their careful consideration and hope that an understanding will be reached.

In regretting the Japanese attitude which might lead to measures having disastrous results on international relationships, they point out that the Indian action is not related to the United Kingdom's interests and stress the desire for cooperation ensuring the continuance of the two countries traditional friendliness.

NAZI TERRORISM IN VIENNA.

Nazi terrorism and sabotage is continuing in Vienna, the latest development being the wreckage of the underground telephone cables connecting Vienna with Italy and Jugo-Slavia and also the trunk line between Vienna and Graz besides the burning down of thirty-four telephone call-boxes, says the Daily Telegraph correspondent in Vienna.

The Austrian Nazi leaders who have been arrested during the past few days number 1,142, among them are 337 State officials, 7 judges, 3 State attorneys, 54 State teachers, 37 Gendarmerie officers, 61 railway officials, 81 Mayors, 37 lawyers, 111 municipal councillors, besides a number of doctors. Of these thirty-seven have already been transferred to the Central Gaol to stand their trial for high treason.

WINTER AT LAST

After many conjectures as to when snow would fall and give Stanley a real wintry atmosphere, the weather obliged this week-end. Friday night was accompanied by a stinging frost and snow laden clouds blew up from the south-east on Saturday afternoon. By evening it was obvious that the snow was settling and another night of intense frost left no doubt in the minds of all the young people that the time was ripe for bringing out the sleighs.

The icy surface of the roads was a sufficient inducement for most sleighing enthusiasts and all the popular routes had their fair share of custom.

Unfortunately the happy augury was somewhat marred by a nasty accident on "Wong's" Hill at the east end of the town where Edwin Meierhofer, aged 13, sustained a severe scalp wound as a result of a collision. He was taken to the hospital where about five stitches were inserted in his head. The accident happened about 7.45 p.m. last night (Sunday).

THE U.S. & INFLATION.

The Daily Telegraph has been given to understand that the United States Government does not intend to go with the inflation plan it had recently been inclined to favour.

It is understood, says a Reuter message, that the President has outlined the limits within which the delegates in London may act but he is not favourably inclined towards any plan for merely a temporary form of stabilisation.

The United States dollar for the last fortnight has been far more hampering to American business than European.

Importers and exporters have found that they are unable to do more than a quarter of their normal business because they cannot forecast the value of the dollar from day to day.

AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR FLIES HOME.

Nazi Fears.

A Vienna message states that Chancellor Dollfuss arrived in the Austrian capital on Saturday by air from Salzburg in circumstances of great secrecy although it had been expressly announced that he would not leave the train in which he was travelling at Salzburg.

A number of threatening letters have been addressed to him.

Dr. Dollfuss, says Wickham Steed in the Sunday Times, has gone home to face the music. He will find that on the frontier between Bavaria and Austria preparations have been made for a raid into Austria by German Nazi Storm troops which, it is believed, were to have come into action simultaneously with an armed rising of the Austrian Nazis under German leadership in the North Tyrol.

It is an open question whether the drastic action taken last week to suppress the Nazi organisation will avail to thwart the Hitlerite plans.

Behind the ominous events of the past week is the concept of a community of Germanic peoples.

o--o

A Paris Reuter message states that Dr. Dollfuss outlined in an interview fronted him by M. Madier, a plan of action convincing him of the wisdom, from the French standpoint, of supporting the Austrian Government in keeping the Nazis from obtaining power in that country.

GERMANY & COLONIES.

According to a message from London the German delegation has informed the Head Economic Committee of the World Conference that Herr Hugenberg's memorandum on the German need for colonial expansion in no way conforms with the opinion of the German delegation and that it is merely an expression of opinion.

It is officially announced in Berlin that Herr Hugenberg is returning forthwith to Germany but official circles discredit the rumours that he may resign as a result of his disagreement with his colleagues.

It is pointed out that the memorandum contains a number of economic theories and ideas in accordance with German sentiments concerning "this vital question" and may be regarded as an advertisement for Germany's colonial demands, gradually accustoming the world towards a favourable view of them.

SWELTERING PRAIRIES.

£2 MILLION SUPPLEMENTARY BUDGET.

According to information received from London the Chancellor of the Exchequer has proposed a supplementary Estimate of £2,500,000 in connection with unemployment insurance and transitional payments issued, bringing the total for the present year to £73,193,000.

---o---o---

£200 BLOOM MISSING.

The Police in England are investigating the loss of a plant with a single orange bloom globe flower, stated to be worth £200 and the only one of its kind in the world, which is missing from the rectory of the Rev. J.F. Anderson, of Great Glen, Leicestershire.

The plant was discovered six years ago and it is not only a personal loss but a loss to the whole horticultural world.

American Sensation.

The American delegation to the World Economic Conference in London provided an outstanding sensation over the week-end.

A series of proposals providing among other things a "ten per cent horizontal reduction in tariffs" was received by the Conference Secretariat. It bore every evidence of having been considered and approved with submissions from the American delegation.

On Sunday it transpired that a considerable proportion of the American delegation was not in sympathy with a ten per cent tariff cut notwithstanding the fact that this idea was first voiced by President Roosevelt some time ago.

An announcement was made to the press by the American Secretariat that it was only on a suggestion that it was submitted by the American tariff experts and it was not expected to figure on the official programme.

The various delegations, says the Daily Telegraph, have expended a large proportion of time considering the American document with a view to harmonising their own suggestions with its proposals.

---o---o---

U.S. & FRENCH WAR DEBTS.

A Reuter message from Washington states that, ignoring France's appeal for a re-consideration of her war debts, the United States have firmly reminded her that two instalments now remain unpaid.

It is indicated informally that although President Roosevelt will not ignore further French representations France must place herself on the same footing as the other States, which have made at least partial payments, before her debt can be considered.

BRITISH SAFETY SHIPS.

Death Risk By Fire - .00003 %

When the annual meeting of the Chamber of Shipping of the United Kingdom was held in London recently, Mr. W.J. McAlister, the President, paid tribute to the freedom of British ships from the risks of fire at sea.

"Statistics in recent years show," he said, "that the risk of loss of life by fire in our ships is less than .00003 per cent.

"In other words, if you made a sea trip every year you would have to live three million years to be sure of being burned alive.

"Shipowners of the United Kingdom cannot be held responsible for the present world excess of tonnage," he went on to say, "Their tonnage is the same as pre-war, while the tonnage of the rest of the world had been doubled - largely by State action."

Lord Runciman deprecated pessimistic talk about the slump in trade. "I have been through five depressions in my lifetime," he said, "all equally as bad as the present one. It is all to the good that we should have them, for they keep our brains active."

JAPAN HONOURS A BRITISH SAILOR.

Buddhist priests wearing splendid brocade capes and chanting prayers amid the burning of incense recently saluted the spirits of a dead Englishman and his Japanese wife.

It was on the occasion of the three hundredth anniversary of the death of William Adams, a sailor born in Gillingham, Kent, who was the first Englishman to visit Japan, arriving in Tokio in 1607 and being detained as shipbuilding adviser to the country's feudal ruler.

His remains are buried beneath a hill overlooking the Bay of Yedo, near Tokio, a site chosen by himself. There is a street in Tokio named after him.

The Governor of the Province read a long oration, praising Adams and Great Britain, and laid offerings at the altar erected before the sailor's tombstone.

WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

The World Economic Conference began a detailed consideration of its vast problems in committee on Monday: the unofficial conversations between the delegates and the experts are continuing on the various aspects of these questions.

An important statement was made on Monday afternoon concerning the British attitude to the Economic Commission of the World Conference in conjunction with the Commission's discussions on its duties concerning a commercial policy.

Mr. Walter Runciman, the British President of the Board of Trade, expressed the view that the proposals for the regulation of production were not in conflict with the general aim to lower the obstacles to international trade. Nearly every nation had suffered from the results of unlimited and uncontrolled production.

The speaker warned the delegates against living in a world of make believe in dealing with trade barriers. Tariff reductions would be useless unless real and effective. Multilateral agreements would serve no purpose unless they covered a very wide area. He emphasised the point that the British delegation would not countenance multilateral agreements which would penalise foreign countries.

ROYAL VISIT TO LONDON.

King Faisal of Iraq made a State visit to the City of London yesterday where he was presented with an Address of Welcome by the Lord Mayor and the Corporation of London.

The king drove through crowded streets in an open landau accompanied by the Duke of Gloucester and members of his suite. The carriage was drawn by four horses with outriders while the Sovereign's escort of Life Guards escorted the procession.

THE MOUNT EVEREST CLIMB.

Hugh Ruttledge's telegram to the Daily Telegraph on Wednesday (yesterday) states that avalanches are pouring down the sides of Everest and the mountain cannot be approached for many days.

While the party is still going strong the climbers are badly in need of a rest after their immense exertions with the natural difficulties with which they have been confronted.

In the face of terrible winds and continual fresh snow the parties re-assembled at Camp 3 on June 16th when Crawford and Brocklebank examined the North Col slopes and fixed ropes which were soon completely covered with snow. The apparent improvement in the weather was fallacious as the evening snow replaced the effects of the morning sun.

The Calcutta Meteorological Office reports that there is little indication of a change before September so the parties will return to the Base Camp.

ST. LEGER SWEEPSTAKE.

Influential backing headed by the Duke of Atholl and other notabilities for the promotion of a racing competition-cum-sweepstake on the St. Leger with the object of endowing hospitals is announced and for which nine million tickets at a half a guinea each are being printed. The matter is being questioned in the House of Commons.

£2,000 GEMS AS TOY.

Returned After 3 Years.

A £2,000 collarette belonging to the Duchess of Rutland, lost three years ago, has just been restored to its owner in remarkable circumstances.

In February 1930 the duchess motored from Belvoir Castle, Grantham, to attend the Cottesmore Hunt Ball at Oakham, Rutland. On returning to Belvoir Castle she missed a diamond collarette of eighteen large stones, which she had been wearing.

A reward of £50 for its recovery was offered.

Nothing was heard of the collarette until a few days ago when a young woman asked a jeweller in a Staffordshire town to value it.

She explained that she had recently come into the district to take up her post as a domestic servant, and that the collarette had excited much comment at a dance she had attended.

The girl's father, a groom, stated that he found the collarette lying in the road in Church-street, Oakham. He gave it to his children to play with.

The gems had been thrown and kicked about the house until his daughter had taken a fancy to them.

NOW GOLF AT A' !

Golf is a queer game. When Gene Sarazen suggested that the holes should be enlarged to eight inches in diameter he thought he had a bright idea.

On the Chertsey (Surrey) course, nearly one hundred British amateurs and four professionals tested his theory - but with six inch holes instead of the regulation $4\frac{1}{2}$ inches.

They were unanimous that the idea was not so bright after all. The enlarged holes were deceptive. Expert golfers looked at it and smiled derisively. "Much too easy," they remarked, as they pulled non-chalantly in the right direction. But more often than not they missed !

Sandy Herd summed it up in good round Scotch.

"It's no gowf at all," he remarked glumly. "If ye hole the putt he feel no plaisir, an' if ye miss it ye feel a fool."

LANDLADIES SHOCKED.

Thousands of delegates went to Aberystwyth for the National Union of Teachers' Conference.

Landladies wrote to people for whom they had arranged to cater asking them what they would like for food and drink. It is not recorded how many of them were taken aback when they learnt from the replies of the lodgers that beer was to be the drink.

A few wrote "A conference without beer is unthinkable."

THE NAZIS BANNED.

According to a message from Vienna immediate effect is given to the Government ban on the Nazis in Austria with the early morning seizure of the editorial offices and printing works of the official Nazi newspapers on Tuesday while similar steps were taken with hundreds of provincial journals.

Cases of private violence have been reported while several hundreds of arrests have been carried out - all legally - on grounds of suspicious activities.

The bomb-thrower of Monday's auxiliary police outrage has been arrested and has confessed implicating others. He is stated to be a Nazi group commander.

Further bombing and incendiarism to bridges, water-works, railways and telephone lines are reported. Many towns are under curfew orders.

MANCHUKUO SCHEME.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent at Changchun states that a comprehensive scheme for bringing about a satisfactory pacification of the "Manchukuo interests" has been drawn up.

The scheme provides for the territory to be divided into seven districts, each sub-divided with Japanese regulars, Manchukuo troops and police embodied in the Roman cohort system.

In addition the village headmen will be charged with the responsibility of maintaining order in their immediate neighbourhood while labour enlistment along the railroads is designed to inculcate personal interest in their own protection.

NEW ROPE TRICK.

All about a piece of string, or chiefly about that :-

Two unsuspecting people, a man and wife, living in Bermondsey were the victims of a new dodge recently. There was a knock at their door, and they readily admitted a man who said he was the sanitary inspector who had come to inspect the house.

The visitor got the wife to hold one end of a piece of string from an upstairs backwindow, while the husband gripped the other end.

While pretending to take measurements the "inspector" also took everything portable that was near at hand. Inquiries are being made for him by the police.

Colonel Navine Juan, China's prettiest and most able woman diplomat, is coming to London. She is a seasoned soldier, who has survived numerous perils in the battlefields of Northern China. Now, in her fine clothes and eton crop, she looks more like a mannequin than a soldier.

Here are some of the things she said to a press representative : "France ought to set up the guillotine again and do a little public beheading. That would soon put a stop to crime."

"Executions are necessary in China but they are regarded as holiday affairs even by the condemned felons, who have the right to delay their death by several hours and by purchasing anything they like from the shops they pass on their way to death."

RINGWORM.

This is a highly infectious skin disease and is at present prevalent in the East Falklands. It may be transmitted by direct or indirect contact.

Ringworm affects cattle, horses, cats, dogs, pigs and even birds, and is capable of transference to humans on the slightest contact. Infected animals should be treated or destroyed and their contacts segregated. The contacts should be disinfected with dip and kept under close observation, so that, should the disease appear, immediate measures may be taken to deal with it.

Ringworm appears on the skin as small red, round patches which often have a scaly appearance. It affects also the beard, nails and scalp, and may go on to suppuration and loss of hair. It spreads by extension of the margins, scratching and rubbing. In animals bald patches usually indicate the presence of this disease.

Treatment of Ringworm : Careful personal hygiene is essential. Frequent resort to soap and water is necessary. The hair should be worn very short and shaved off in the vicinity of the sores, and the scalp frequently washed. Tincture of Iodine, or Iodine Ointment, or Ammoniated Mercury Ointment, or coarse salt mixed in fat should be applied to the sores.

The disease may become very chronic and spreads easily, so that only rigorous, daily attention to its treatment will serve to eradicate it.

Those afflicted should be careful to use only their own brushes, combs, towels and personal clothing, and these articles should be frequently washed. It is foolishness to conceal this disease. Advice and treatment should be sought as soon as it is detected.

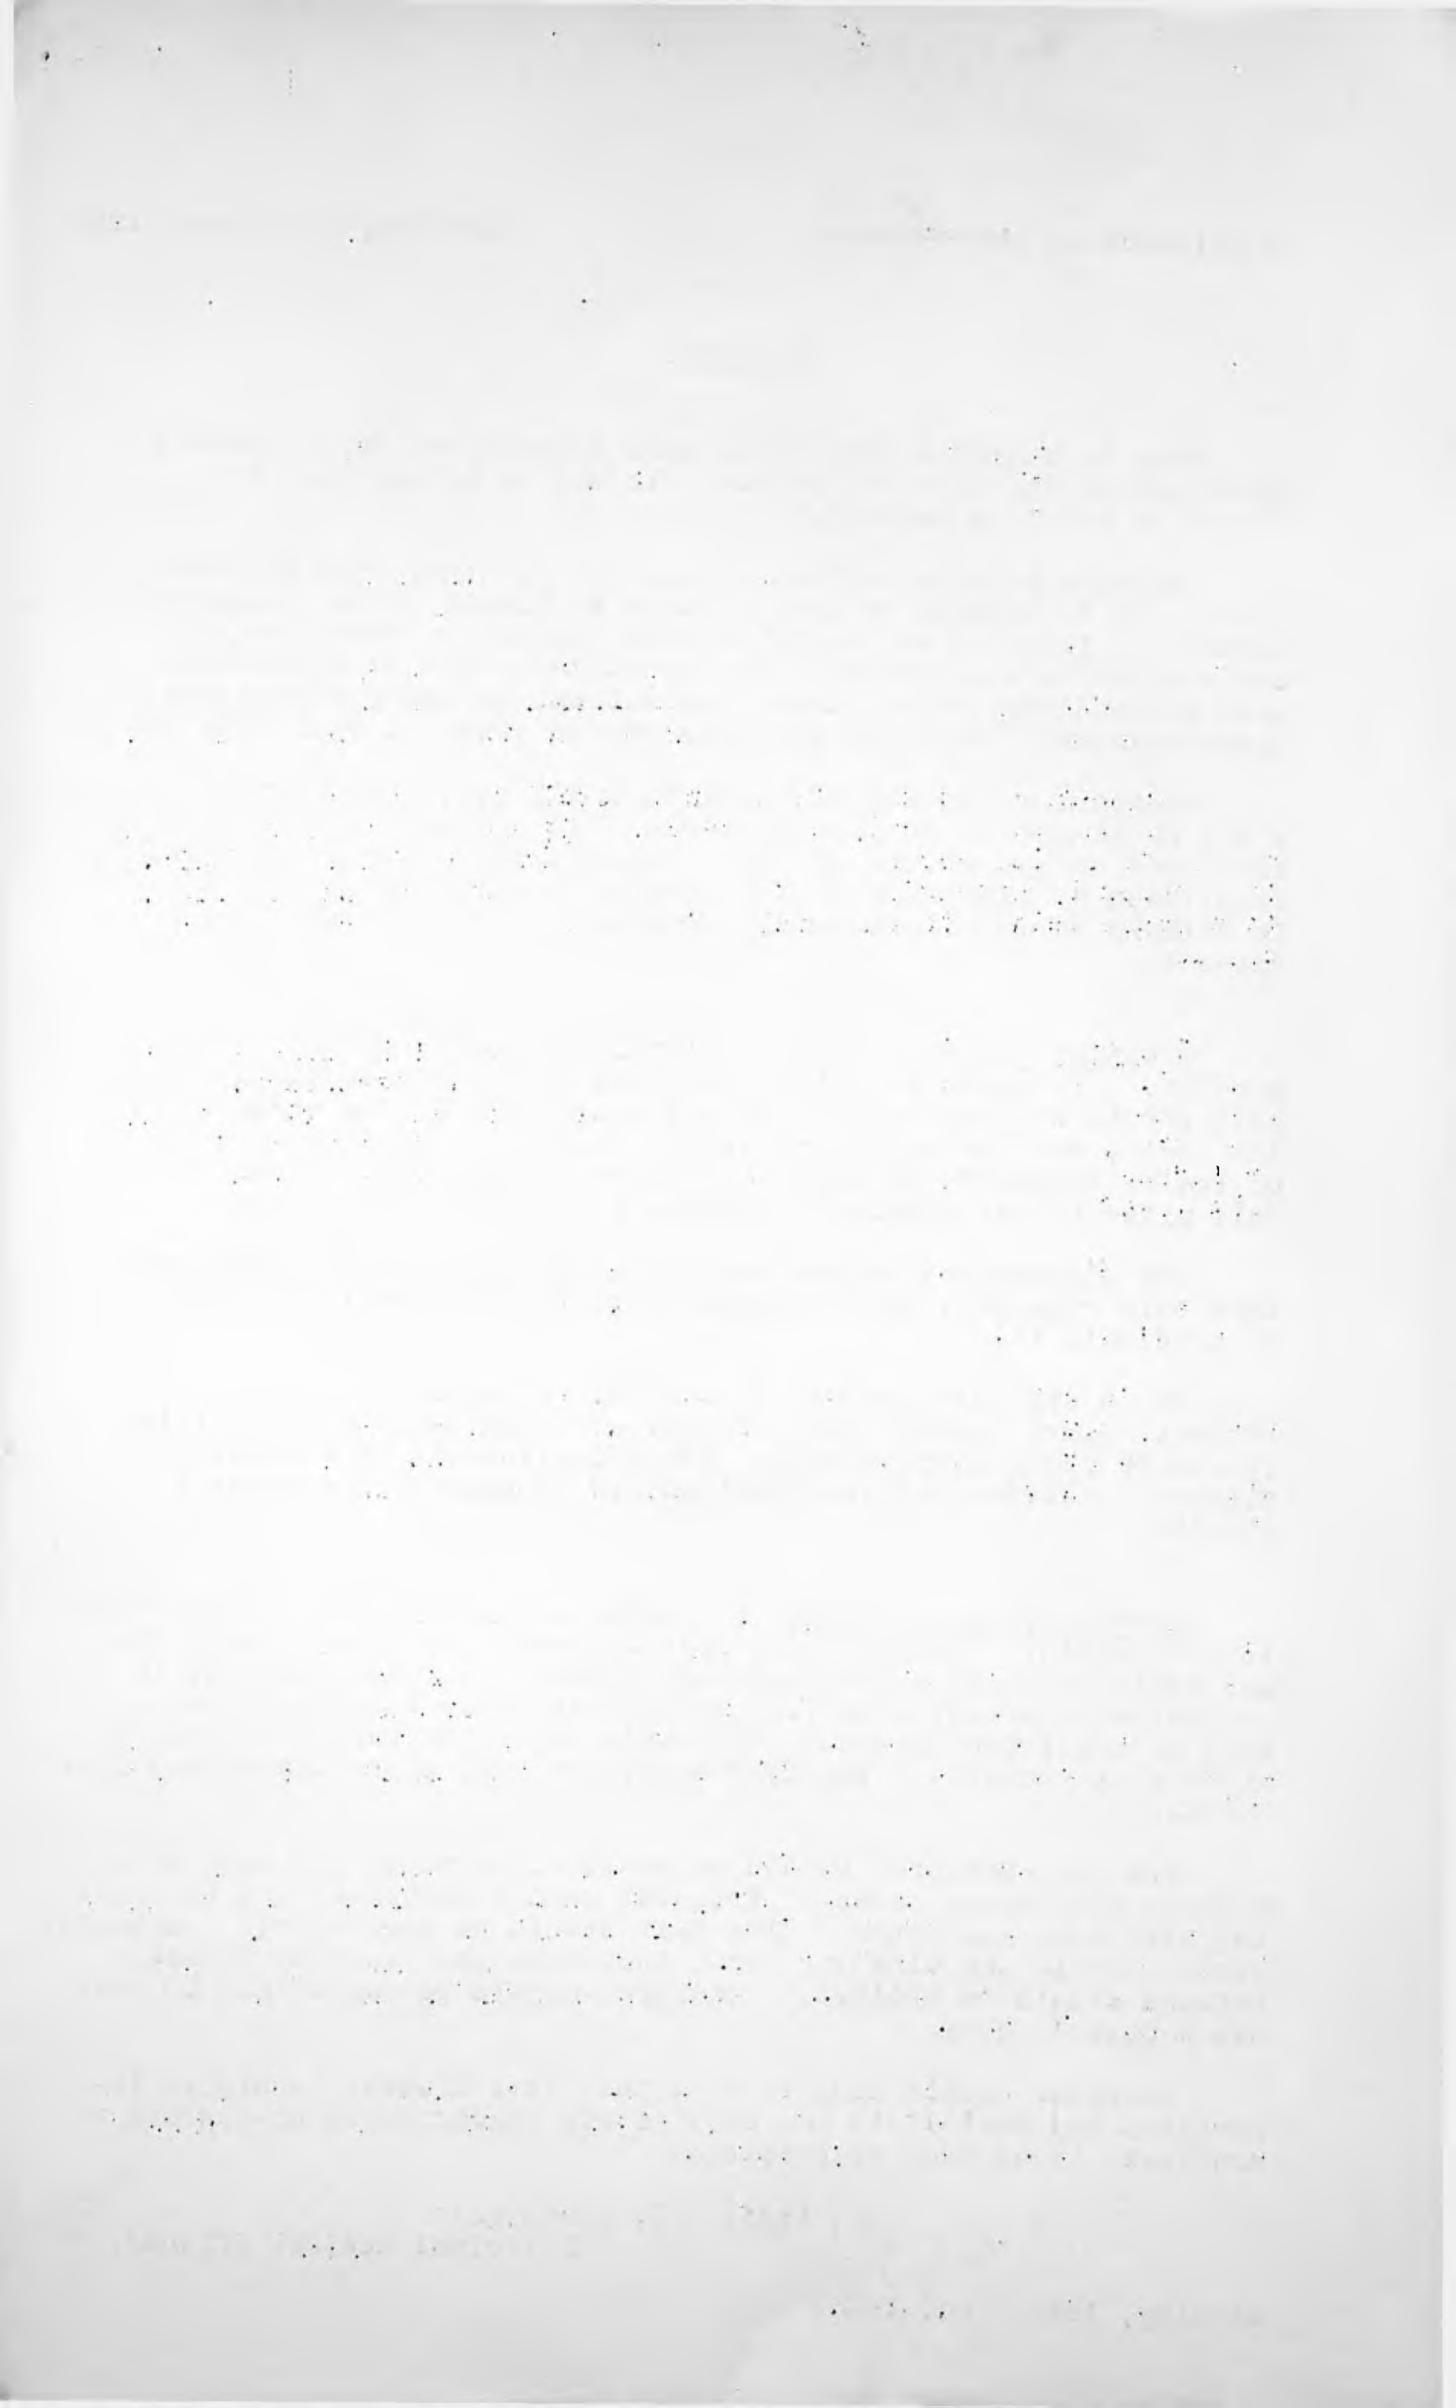

Prevention of Ringworm : Animals affected must be destroyed or treated. The affected animals should be treated with dip, and their contacts segregated and dipped. Workers who come in contact with affected cattle, or persons, must exercise extreme care of their own person. The hands should be carefully washed after each contact. The hair should be worn short and washed frequently.

The same measures should be employed by those who come into contact with human cases. Frequent resort should be had to washing with soap and water. The hair should be worn short. Brushes, combs, towels and clothing etc., that have been used by infected persons should be avoided. Children should be warned not to wear one another's caps.

Everyone should keep in mind that this disease is highly infectious and that it is the duty of all concerned to co-operate to eradicate it as soon as possible.

STAMP COLLECTING INNOVATION.

Finely Engraved Designs.

In a Kent paper of recent date appeared an interesting stamp article written by Mr. B.S.H. Grant F.R.P.S.L., who has successfully exhibited collections at Berlin and Vienna. We take the liberty of publishing extracts from this article below :

Something quite startlingly novel has been introduced into stamp designs - the combination of colours to represent sunset and similar effects in landscape objects. The first sign of the apparent change appeared in 1929 in Switzerland. This stamp created something of a mild sensation at the time, but it has now been completely eclipsed by two sets of stamps issued by the British firm of Messrs. Bradbury Wilkinson and Co.. One of these sets is for the Falkland Islands and the other for Trans-Jordan.

It is in the Falklands series however, that the judicious colour combination of land and sky has been most successfully carried out, for the fourpenny value shows us the rugged mountains, with the ~~valley~~ low, of South Georgia, bathed in the red glow of what is doubtless a typical summer evening of that bleak and dreary neighbourhood.

The whole design is so finely engraved that even the minute details of the distant ships under the gaunt cliffs are plainly discernible under a glass. These bi-coloured recess printed stamps are certainly an innovation, and if the process is developed, will do much to stimulate public interest.

Other values in what has been described as the "Crown Agents' most ambitious effort", the Falkland Islands Centenary of occupation issue, are most beautifully engraved and easily the finest series by any British Colony.

ROAD RACE THRILLS.

Frenzied excitement attended the dramatic ending of the twenty-four hours International Road Race at Le Mans which, as already announced, was won by the Italian Nuvolari.

Nuvolari, who was driving with Sommers, won only by nine seconds.

He was caught and passed by Chinetti and Varent's Alfa-romeo on the last lap but the Italian passed again and won by masterly cornering.

In spite of the average pace of 81.6 miles an hour there was only one serious accident reports the Daily Telegraph correspondent and this occurred to Madame Sike whose car dashed off the road and crashed among the trees to burst into flames. She was flung clear.

THE WORLD ECONOMIC CONFERENCE.

The work of the World Conference was continued on Wednesday in the Economic Commission and in two sub-committees of the Monetary Commission.

Proposals advanced in the first of these sub-committees by Mr. Neville Chamberlain were supported in speeches by several delegates including M. Bonnet, the French Finance Minister, who suggested proposals made should be considered by a special sub-committee instructed to bring back definite recommendations as early as possible.

He added that while it was necessary to discipline production they must also try to increase consumption and thus end the paradox of mankind starving in the face of plenty.

He agreed that a policy of cheap money made available in each country at lowest rates which circumstances of a loan would permit, was essential.

Operations in the open market must be carefully considered by technical experts.

The Italian delegate, Professor Beneduce, while in general agreement, urged that for a liberal credit policy to have the desired effect upon prices it should not precede the demand for credit otherwise there was a danger of the volume of credit available being diverted to speculative transactions which might produce a period of artificial prosperity liable to be followed by another crisis.

HITLER TAKES ACTION.

According to a message from Berlin Hitler has taken drastic action towards gaining complete control of the country and shaping the nation to one mind by disbanding on grounds of communistic tendencies all the organisations under the control of Hugenberg and the Nationalist party.

These organisations, known as the "Fighting Ring", the main body of which is led by Count Von Bismark, have been dissolved and forbidden to exist while their distinctive green shirts have been banned and the members ordered to wear the swastika.

As a result of this thousands of young people have been subordinated to the Nazi movement.

Simultaneously with the promulgation of the ban, all the "Fighting Ring" headquarters were raided and documents and all funds were seized but no untoward incidents are reported in connection with the manoeuvres.

---o---o---

THE CONFERENCE.

The American attitude on stabilisation is being severely criticised in Foreign circles in London says the Daily Telegraph. It is being freely suggested that the United States has "torpedoed" the monetary side of the Conference.

According to the French official thesis economic recovery is impossible without monetary stabilisation while Latin logic finds it impossible to reconcile America's ruthless economic nationalism with the international spirit which apparently inspires their other statements on tariff reduction.

While France is determined to remain on the gold standard the smaller European countries on gold are fearful of financial anarchy. These later profess the keenest concern lest Britain should be tempted to allow the sterling to follow the dollar's descent.

The prospect of debating throughout the summer the economic issues while awaiting Washington's approval of domestic price levels makes no appeal to the Conference delegates and considerable feeling is being expressed at the threatened extension of the timetable.

NEW HITLER DECREE.

According to a message from Berlin another Hitler decree was issued on Thursday. This decree sweeps away the Social Democrats, the second largest party in the Reichstag. Under this ban all the Socialist deputies, numbering 300 lose their seats in the Reichstag and the Prussian Diet and in all the Government departments and municipalities, while their salaries are cancelled.

No socialist papers may be published and the party's property is to be entirely confiscated.

Herr Frick, the Minister for the Interior, in announcing the prohibition declared that the socialists were preparing for high treason by maintaining international connections with their leaders who had established their headquarters at Prague.

The decree declares that "henceforth no difference will be made between the Socialists and the Communists."

A message from the Vatican City states that a bomb exploded in the portico of St. Peters during mid-day mass on Sunday and as a result four Italians were injured.

It is understood that a terrorist had wrapped the handbag containing the infernal machine in a handkerchief rendering it inconspicuous but he had been prevented from entering the basilica by the beadle enforcing the rule against carrying parcels into the edifice.

An arrest was subsequently made when a person suspected of making another attempt was detained with a parcel similarly made up.

AUSTRIAN PLANS SHELVED.

The diplomatic correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in London learns that the rival plans for Austria's future have now been shelved. They were - an Austro-German union, an Austro-Hungarian union or a Danubian Federation.

A revision of the "Iron Crown Oath" taken by the Hapsburgs on accession is being considered by royalist circles it is believed. This originally laid claims to considerable territories now incorporated within the Little Entente and to placate the latter, the territorial claims in question are to be deleted or curtailed.

The central European situation is now considered to be somewhat smoother in consequence of Hitler's assurance that he does not intend pressing for the Anschluss contingent and as a result of which Italy is not supporting a counter scheme for the restoration of the Austro-Hungary links.

The direct result of this is to negative the Little Entente's threat to mobilise in the event of an attempt to restore the monarchy.

INTERNATIONAL CURRENCY.

Many people are nervous that the decrease in the American dollar is getting out of hand and they are wondering how it will be checked before the foundation of serious trouble is laid.

The disappointment in France is growing concerning America's decision that stabilisation is "untimely" and a resolution was tabled in the Chamber of Deputies on Saturday recommending that the Economic Conference should adjourn.

Although it is stated from Paris that there is no possibility of the French delegation withdrawing the view is held that all the economic discussions are theoretical unless and until the dollar is "pegged."

In a public speech in Glasgow on Saturday Mr. Baldwin expressed the opinion that in the present state of currencies and exchanges international trade can only proceed haltingly and on crutches. And until things are straightened out no general revival will be possible.

RAIN - THE SPOIL-SPORT.

A wonderful programme of out-of-doors spectacles in London was ruined by heavy rains which fell continuously over the weekend.

The Royal Review of Territorials in Hyde Park was cancelled while the West Indian Test Match was a "wash-out" with the first pair - Walter 21 and Sutcliffe 19 - still batting and the total score 43 for no wickets.

King Feisal and Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the Premier, were among those present at the Hendon Air Pageant where the pilots carried on with amazing dexterity despite adverse conditions, before a drenched crowd of spectators.

At Wimbledon the lawn tennis finals in which Mrs. Wills-Moody and Mrs. Ellsworth Vines are appearing could not be played owing to the courts being flooded. The Champion Polo Cup final at Hurlingham also had to be abandoned on account of the weather.

Numerous other sporting events were also affected.

A message from Berlin reports that a mysterious "air-raid" took place over Germany on Saturday when anti-Nazi pamphlets, it is alleged, were dropped, the source of which is stated to be foreign.

Only the obviously inspired press gives the "official report" but no private individuals appear to have heard or seen the aeroplanes.

Consequently a campaign is opened in favour of an air-force for Germany, one of the points being urged is that the police were unable to take action as they were without machines.

The official papers insist on Germany being permitted to equip itself in the air for protection adding that "this time it was leaflets but next time it will be bombs and gas that will issue from these planes."

NAZIS' SWIFT ACTION.

According to a message from Berlin the completeness of the Hitler campaign against the Nationalist Party is emphasised by the eleventh hour ban on the Hugenberg meeting in the Kroll Opera House.

Hugenberg, who was a Cabinet Minister, was to have addressed the National League of Middle-class Traders who have been officially banned though they were ignorant of the fact as the suppression edict was wrongly addressed through the post.

In Bavaria the Nazis have taken swift action against the natives in reply to the growing criticism launched against them by wholesale arrests of prominent members of the Roman Catholic Party and its Reich deputies.

The Vatican City correspondent of the Daily Telegraph states that the Bavarian Primate, Faulhaber, has protested to the German Government and to the Vatican against the maltreatment of priests and others at the Munich Conference.

The Vatican upholds Faulhaber's defence of the clergy's prestige and shares in his indignation at the unprovoked attacks, but it does not yet consider that a direct issue lies between the German Government and the Holy See which represents the churches in a sacred and spiritual character.

THE DOLLAR QUESTION.

A message from London states that although the dollar's fall has been checked commodity prices are still rising and an interesting table shows that while currency has depreciated 20 per cent for New York commodities, the market averages are 45 % up proportionately with Rubber 63 %, Maize 53 %, Copper 48 %, Cotton 40 %, Wheat 37 %, Sugar 32 % and others correspondingly.

A dominating factor of the United States policy of "domestic recovery first" is furthered by the reconstruction plan towards which 400 million dollars, as a first instalment of the Senate Grant, will be available in a few days, says the Washington correspondent of the Daily Telegraph.

Elaborate plans have been formulated by General Hugh Johnson, the American "Industrial recovery Field Marshall". These plans provide for the putting of between three and four million men back to work within ninety days "if everybody co-operates."

Meanwhile in European markets forward sales of Dutch guilders and Swiss francs are reported while Sir Henri Deterding, in a letter to Rotterdam Society for Commerce and Industry, urges the voluntary inflation of the guilder to bring about a new exchange standard.

ST. PETERS BOMB OUTRAGE.

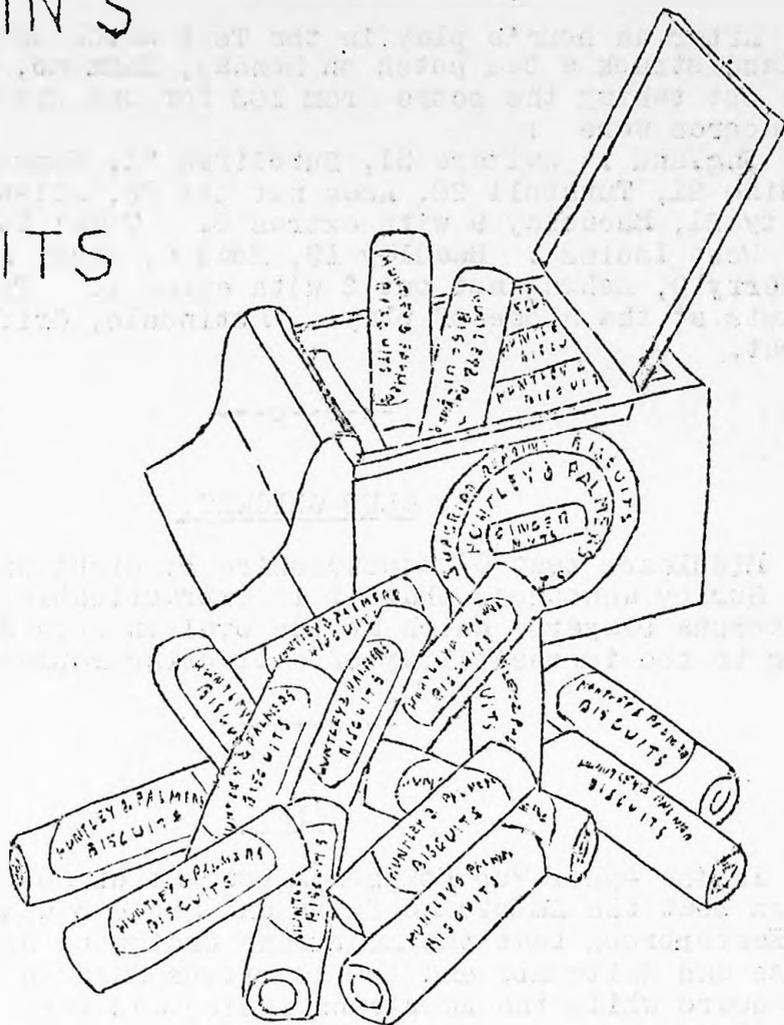

The man arrested in connection with the bomb outrage at St. Peters is understood to be a Spanish anti-clerical fanatic named Demetrio Salamon who, when charged, confessed to journeying from Barcelona to Rome for the purpose of carrying out the deed. He has been identified by a pass-port found near the scene and by the St. Peters verger who prevented his entry to the Basilica.

CONSERVATIVES & REFORM.

Nearly a thousand conservatives of the Central Council of the Conservative Party, London, met yesterday to discuss constitutional reform proposals which appeared in the India White Paper.

A resolution opposing the policy was proposed by Lord Lloyd and supported by Winston Churchill and Lord Carson. This proposal, however, was defeated by 838 votes to 356 and the Government attitude was endorsed.

Mr. Stanley Baldwin strongly defended the Government's attitude.

---o---o---

STILL SEARCHING FOR MATTERN.

According to a message from Moscow, Soviet frontier detachments and vessels in the northern waters are continuing their search for the missing American flier Mattern.

It is understood that he had a rifle, ammunition and fishing tackle and the authorities believe that if he has alighted on land he may still be alive.

Nothing has been heard of him since the 12th of June.

---o---o---

FOREIGN CURRENCY REACTIONS.

A London message states that excitement in the foreign exchange market has shifted from the dollar to continental gold currencies with the main apprehensions in the direction of Holland where self-confidence is obviously waning.

While the franc, the mark and the Swiss franc have deteriorated the most severe decline was to be seen in the guilder.

The unsettled continental view dates from the United States rejection of the monetary truce and the damage the isolation policy has inflicted is now becoming apparent.

Holland is facing heavy odds with regard to its budget and foreign trade and unless the Economic Conference can quickly find a remedy the deliberations may have to be extended by the fresh developments.

---o---o---

HENDERSON DESPONDENT.

The president of the Disarmament Conference, Mr. Henderson, returned to Geneva on Tuesday in a despondent mood and stated that his visit to London was without real avail.

He is convinced that the only feasible method of progress is through unofficial negotiations and he proposes that the General Commission should adjourn until October in order that these may continue with the hope of finding an effective arrangement.

EVEREST CLIMBERS RECALLED.

The London Committee of the Mount Everest Expedition have decided to recall the climbers states the Daily Telegraph, since they do not feel justified in allowing the continuance of the risks involved, although Hugh Ruttledge's last message indicated that the party was well and anxious to persevere.

The Committee's reasons are - strain which the climbers have been enduring for the past eight weeks, the present condition of the mountain, taking into consideration the snow-fall with its accompanying dangers, while the fear of high winds and snow-drifts are alone sufficient to prevent climbing after the monsoon. It is pointed out that the attempt has not been without achievement since the climbers reached within 1,000 feet of the summit without accident. In addition, having failed in their objective they are retreating orderly.

STERLING WORTH 18/-.

A message from London states that another great fall in the dollar has brought the sterling to its highest value - equivalent to eighteen shillings - since Britain's departure from the Gold Standard.

Wall Street selling on Wednesday had all the signs of panic but actually the United States flight from capital is not heavy though New York's offering of dollars is persistent and buyers are holding aloof.

There is a strong believe that with the continued fall and the higher commodity prices, President Roosevelt may decide sooner than expected to open negotiations for currency stabilisation.

---o---o---

MODERN "CRUELTY."

Speaking at the first sitting of the Council of Experts on Population and Race Questions in Berlin on Wednesday, the German Minister for the Interior, Herr Frick, said that Humanity, with its exaggerated care for the sick has, in effect, proved to be of the "greatest cruelty".

He stated that the chief concern should be for the unborn and the soundest constitutions must be encouraged to have large families which, in the case of officials, could be achieved by the graduation of salaries according to the number of children, and for others through an Equalisation Fund to which the entire nation should be contributory while the blossoming of the family should become a higher possession than wealth or comfort.
