FRIDAY'S ACCIDENT.

On enquiry we learn that May Porter, the 2½ year old daughter of Mr. Porter, the caretaker of the Gymnasium, who met with an unfortunate accident on Friday afternoon, is as comfortable as can be expected and quite bright and cheery.

The news of the little one's mishap have brought to Mr. and Mrs. Porter considerable sympathetic expressions which are greatly appreciated. The accident happened about tea-time when she fell from the gate of Government Paddock. She was conveyed to the Hospital where an x-ray revealed a complete fracture of the left thigh. The bone was set and the limb placed in plaster with every hope of the fracture knitting together satisfactorily.

THE SECOND TEST.

England's Threadbare Hopes.

With the Australian score at 228 and the English score 161 for nine - the latest available results - the second Test has been flung into the melting pot and the game we have been counting on as ours is open again very much in the Australians' favour.

On Friday Australia collapsed before the English fast bowlers but our batsmen failed more miserably still.

Not many more runs could be expected from England's first innings and to-day the Australians will bat again with the comfortable little credit balance of perhaps sixty runs.

England will, therefore, have to make their runs in the fourth innings of the match but if Bradman fails again England may need only 200 runs or so for victory, and this should be a task within England's powers unless the wicket crumbles or is affected by rain, says the Sunday Times.

CRISIS RESING IN IRELAND.

A National Party ?

A press message from Dublin reports that political events in Ireland are rapidly approaching a crisis.

Following immediately upon a meeting held at Dublin Mansion House on Thursday last week, when a lead was given for the formation of a new national party with the object of overthrowing the de Valera Government, it was stated that there was every indication of a breach between the Government and the Labour Party who hold the balance of power in the Dail.

A deputation from the Labour Party met de Valera the next evening to protest against the proposed cuts in the wages of the lower paid civil servants. The Labour leader, Mr. Norton, said later that he believed the cuts would be enforced and the situation is regarded as extremely delicate says the Daily Telegraph.

Mr. Cosgrave, in a statement to his followers regarding the proposed new national party, said that the idea has great possibilities for the country and "must command the support of right thinking citizens of every class."

S. AFRICA & THE GOLD STANDARD.

As a sequel to South Africa's abandonment of the gold standard there were wild scenes of excitement on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange on Friday. The brokers shouted themselves hoarse.

Some stocks rose tremendously and all those quoted showed an improvement.

It is also understood that the agreement between the Reserve Bank and the Chamber of Mines has been renewed, and it is believed that the Chamber has gained a considerable advantage. This steadied the Exchange and proved a valuable aid to commercial banks in maintaining the value of the Union pound.

Dealings in the Exchange on Saturday morning started at the rate of 91 South African pounds for 2100 sterling.

THE PHILIPPINES & FREEDOM.

A Washington report states that President Hoover is expected to veto the Bill granting independence to the Philippines.

He is understood to have said that he regards the proposal as unsound, unsafe and premature.

The proposals are sharply criticised in other quarters as being founded solely on the selfish impulse of American farmers who are desirous of putting the Philippine products outside the U.S.A. tariff wall.

Stanley,

Tuesday, 3rd January, 1953.

Probably Next Sunday.

In order, however, to comply with the general wish of the public it is hoped, weather and other conditions being favourable, to arrange for the visit to be paid next Sunday, the 8th instant, in the same manner as originally intended.

Why He Swan The Harbour.

After flourishing for some time fortune went against him and when he was about thirty years of age he moved to the settlement near Whalebone Bay and engaged himself principally in making walls on the South Shore and other places about Port William. It was during this period that he swam the harbour, the wager being a barrel of beer for which he and another man competed.

The contestants started off from Whalebone Bay for a point directly opposite. But on the way Augustine's companion (whose name is unfortunately lost in obscurity) got into difficulties in the kelp, and had to be assisted by Roba. When the other man had been rescued by the accompanying boat, Roba pursued his course and won the barrel of beer.

There are several residents in Stanley who remember Augustine Roba as an old man of small stature, crooked back, long flowing white, curly hair, and now familiarly known as "Prim", living at Salvador and eventually being brought into Stanley to die when he was over seventy years of age. He attributed his deformity to a kick in the chest received from a horse when quite a boy and in view of his slight build and physical defects his performance at Whalebone Bay is all the more amazing.

S. AFRICAN GOLD DIFFICULTIES.

News from Johannesburg states that despite the reported agreement between the Transvaal Chamber of Mines and the Reserve Bank concerning the realisation of the gold output the exchange difficulties are still unsolved.

The Reserve Bank have stopped quoting rates and the commercial banks are imposing the severest restrictions so that only small fractions of the amounts applied for are being granted.

A BALKAN VENDETTA.

A short but furious revolver fight took place on Saturday last at the gates of King Boris's palace in the heart of Sofia.

It was an episode in a vendetta between rival Macedonian revolutionary groups. One man was killed and seven wounded. The fight followed upon the resignation the same morning of Mushanoff, a member of the Cabinet. The police arrested three men, one of whom had pursued them and thrown a bomb which failed to explode.

THE HOME BALANCE SHEET.

Details of the National Balance Sheet in Britain for the nine months to the 31st of December, 1932, now issued, show that out of £766,800,000 of ordinary revenue to be received in the estimates for a full year, £404,532,000 has so far been collected.

The expenditure, reckoned at £787,431,000 for the full year, has, including the Sinking Fund allocation of £14,391,000, already amounted to £581,014,000. Including the War Debt payment to America in gold of £19,500,000 which in sterling required £28,956,000, the total outgoings is £609,900,000. This gives a deficit of £203,752,503.

Outstanding among the revenue receipts are the customs figures which show an increase of £26,000,000 so far over the same period of 1931.

Allowing for the unexpected War Debt payment, the position to-day is better than a year ago when the Hoover Moratorium was in operation.

MUSSOLINI IN THE SUNDAY TIMES.

A Reinvigorated International Policy.

A demand for a reinvigorated international policy was made by Signor Mussolini in the New Year article contributed to the Sunday Times.

That policy he declares "must be capable of guiding the peoples towards a better future instead of leaving them to languish in misery - the misery of the past. We stand on the threshold of great decisions and the way in which we make those decisions will settle the destiny of the world for some time to come."

Mussolini points out that some of the thorny problems pressing on all sides are such as might lead to war in economically normal times.

EARTHQUAKE IN S. AFRICA.

A message from Johannesburg reports that the biggest earthquake in South Africa's history, exceeding the Koffifontein earthquake in 1912, occurred over a wide area on Sunday.

The shocks started about half-past eight in the morning local time, lasting for about an hour when the main quake of exceptional severity was experienced and lasted about a minute and forty seconds, causing many buildings to rock.

Shocks were still shaking districts in the Orange Free State some hours later and severe tremors, lasting nine minutes, shook Zululand and Natal with the result that many buildings were damaged.

The centre of the disturbance is believed to be in the Koffifontein area again.

FRANCE WINE HARVEST.

Below Expectations.

There has been a distinct falling off in the wine harvest in many parts of France this year, says a message from Paris. The official figures show the quantity produced to be 1,047,200,000 gallons which is 220,000,000 less than in 1931.

On the other hand the output in Algeria has increased by 66,000,000 to 408,600,000 gallons chiefly as a result of the extension of the vineyards.

In France the harvest fell below expectations principally in the four departments of Midi which produce half the French wines.

The decrease is less marked in the south-western departments including the Bordeaux region.

On the whole, the quantity of wine, especially in the Midi, is said to be disappearing.

NO MEETING OF 5 GREAT POWERS.

Poland Objects.

It is understood in London that the strenuous opposition of the smaller powers, notably Poland, has been one of the chief reasons for the abandonment of the meeting of the Five Great Powers in London due this month.

This meeting was to have preceded the resumption of the Disarmament Conference. Warsaw, it would appear, made very strong representations on the subject. The Polish Government held that since any alteration in Germany's military status and strength would affect Poland directly and materially more than any other power, it would be little short of outrageous that it should be dealt with at a meeting whereat Poland was not even represented.

SPANISH EXILES ESCAPE.

White Guard Celebrate New Year.

Twenty-nine Spanish political prisoners in the penal colony of Villa Cisneros at Rio-de-oro, Africa, have escaped in a freighter, says a British United Press message from Madrid.

Among the exiles in the penal colony were 135 Spanish grandees and other royalists who were sent there for partaking in the revolt last August.

The reports of the escape declare that the refugees took advantage of the fact that the garrison were celebrating the new year.

The Spanish naval authorities express confidence that they will soon locate the vessel wherein the exiles are said to have escaped.

Election Manifesto.

The new National Party in Ireland issued on Tuesday evening the following manifesto to the Irish people :

"We will continue to stand up for Irish rights as we have always done, with courage.

"We will strive to end the economic war and make a financial settlement with Britain to the honour and advancement of Ireland.

"We will assure to the farmers, by a reduction in their annuities, the fullest possible advantages of that settlement and secure a trade agreement which will assure his markets to the farmer and enable him to get prices for produce.

"We intend to provide markets instead of bounties, work instead of doles, fair play instead of writs for the farmers and courage and hope instead of suffering and sacrifice.

MORE FIGHTING IN CHINA.

A Mukden report states that Japanese forces are now in complete occupation of the walled town of Shanhaikwan. Extensive hostilities cannot be ruled out of possibility in view of the present disturbed state of the area.

Japan places sole responsibility on China for the fighting at Shanhaikwan. It is declared that on New Year's Day hand grenades were thrown into posts occupied by Japanese troops. The commander of the Shanhaikwan command despatched a small force to the main gate of the town with the intention of seeking an explanation of the act. On the way the troops were, it is alleged, attacked, an officer and two men being killed.

General fighting then broke out.

THE BRITISH POST OFFICE'S 21ST.

Sir Kingsley Wood, Postmaster General, opening the Young People's Telephone Exhibition at Birmingham on Wednesday, referred to the fact that it was twenty-one years ago that the British Post Office took over the responsibility of providing the telephone service in the country.

CENTENARY MEDALLION.

Nothing could be more fitting on the occasion of the Centenary of the Colony than that the inhabitants should receive a token perpetuating their association with so auspicious an event. It is therefore, with the greatest pleasure we learn of the provision of a Medallion for the purpose, struck with the special sanction of His Majesty the King.

Recommended by the Centenary Committee, the Medallion was designed by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) and the Hon. G. Roberts (Director of Public Works). The obverse side bears an effigy of His Majesty and the reverse side the Arms of the Colony with the words "Falkland Islands Centenary 1833 - 1933" engraved round it.

The Medallions are made of light toned bronze and are expected to arrive at Stanley by the next mail when the Lafonia returns from Montevideo. They are to be distributed to all the school-children and old people in the Colony and placed on sale to the general public at 2/6d and 1/6d each, according to the class of case provided.

NEW FLAGSHIP.

Intimation has been received from Rear-Admiral the Hon. R.A.R. Plunkett-Ernle-Erle-Drax, C.B., D.S.O., Commander-in-Chief of the America and West Indies Squadron, that he has transferred his flag from H.M.S. Delhi to H.M.S. Norfolk.

The Norfolk, of 9,850 tons, is a sister ship of H.M.S. Cornwall which, it will be remembered, visited the Colony at the beginning of July 1928 for three days when a terrific snow storm raged almost continually and prohibited her company from taking shore leave. She is commanded by Captain H.E.C. Blagrove and has a main armament of eight 8-inch guns, four 4-inch and four 3-inch guns.

The County class type of cruiser is nearly twice the tonnage of the older "D" class and by reason of size therefore, is more suitable for use as a flagship of a station such as the America and West Indies.

It is understood that H.M.S. Delhi is to relieve H.M.S. Colombo on the Mediterranean Station.

DEATH OF PRESIDENT COOLIDGE.

A press message yesterday (Friday) reported that President Coolidge of the United States of America has died. His death is attributed to heart disease. He had complained of indigestion for the last two or three weeks but did not consult a doctor.

As the United States President he was accepted by the people as an enigma but was popular as a simple plain-speaking New Englander. He is praised by his supporters as a "Strong silent man" and ridiculed by his critics as a "very ordinary man with the mentality of a local politician."

During his presidency prohibition was a big issue but he took no part in the interminable discussions which divided the Congress and the country beyond announcing that he stood simply for the enforcement of the law so long as the 18th amendment of the Volstead Act was on the Statute Book.

After leaving the Presidency Coolidge wrote articles for the American newspaper syndicates. These were often short and wise in their comment on men, things and institutions. He was known as "Silent Cal" because he seldom talked.

DOCTOR'S PHILANTHROPISM.

Doctor Axel Munhe who, after a distinguished career as a doctor, won international fame as the author of "The Story of San Michele", has made over the proceeds of his book to King Gustav of Sweden in order that they might be distributed by him for the benefit of the blind people, Lapps and animals.

The sum amounts to £5,500 and it is understood that the gift would have been even greater had not Munhe lost a large part of the proceeds of the book in the Kreuger crash.

For many years Munhe, who was of Swedish birth, was a medical attendant to the late Queen of Sweden and his Christmas gift of the proceeds of his book is dedicated to her memory.

Munhe himself is a victim of partial and increasing blindness.

RESUMPTION ECONOMIC CONFERENCE WORK.

The Preparatory Committee of the World Economic Conference reassembled at Geneva yesterday to frame the agenda of the conference.

This Committee broke up unexpectedly on the 9th of November last after a fortnight's session, without achieving its object. The cause was an attempt to bind Britain to stabilise her currency and return to the gold standard in advance of the Conference, but the British members refused to allow the issue to be thus prejudiced. They also made perfectly plain the attitude of the British Government which remains unchanged to-day.

According to the Daily Telegraph the British Government would be prepared to return the country to the gold standard on three conditions:--

The final settlement of the war debts problems; the restoration of an adequate trade balance and adequate price levels in the chief commodities; and proper safeguards against any repetition of circumstances which led Britain's abandonment of the gold standard in 1931, namely - the unequitable distribution of the world's gold reserves.

THE FREE STATE ELECTIONS

Expectation of lively incidents in the Irish Free State election was abundantly fulfilled on Sunday.

There were scenes of wild disorder at Cosgrave's meeting in Dublin in the afternoon when General Mulcahy was the principal speaker. There were many baton charges and over thirty were injured during the disturbance which was on a well organised scale.

As soon as the chairman began to speak ear-splitting yells were raised by a section of the crowd.

So menacing were the crowds that the police finally made a baton charge but the crowds returned and broke through the police cordon and there were scenes of intense excitement.

Meanwhile the candidates continued to speak into the microphone. At the conclusion of the meeting there were wild bursts of cheering with counter-cheering and more baton charges.

U.S.A. & WAR DEBTS.Gold Currency Policy Discussed.

Following on the big Senate War Debts debate on Wednesday last, the whole subject with its related issues of the gold currency policy and international trade is being animatedly rediscussed in Washington.

There is a growing opinion that the Congress will use the future war debt settlements as a club to persuade England to return to the gold standard, states the Daily Telegraph.

It is predicted that at the proposed International Conference for remonetising silver, suggested by the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, Mr. Borah, the American delegates should argue that Britain must not expect relief from her war debt burdens unless she is willing cooperate and correct the situation wherein, with her depreciated currency, she is enjoying great trade advantages over the United States.

GERMAN POLITICS.

A message from Berlin states that Chancellor Schleicher's position is seriously imperilled. This is the only conclusion permitted by what has been known regarding the long and secret consultation between Hitler and Papen at Cologne.

Clearly the plan is to reinstate Papen in power and keep him there by Hitlerite toleration in the Reichstag. The plan is based on one essential fact, namely, that President Hindenburg was, to the last moment, determined to keep Papen as Chancellor. He agreed to part with him only when the leading departmental Ministers refused to remain in his Cabinet.

Hindenburg's confidence in Papen has remained unimpaired and despite the enormous majority against him in the National Reichstag, the President doubtless, will be glad to have him back as Chancellor if it could be proved to his satisfaction that Schleicher has failed in his mission.

RECUPERATING THE BUDGET IN FRANCE.

A Reuter message from Paris reports that the Minister of Finance, M. Cheron, is now in possession of the report of the Commission of Financial Experts which he appointed to investigate the Budget proposals.

The greatest secrecy is being maintained regarding the contents of the Experts' report. At present orders have been given for the printing of only four copies - one for the President, one for the Premier and two for M. Cheron.

It is already known that Cheron's plan for establishing the Budget on a healthy basis demands considerable sacrifices among the civil servants and from the soldiers whose pay and pensions are likely to be cut down.

RUMANIAN CRISIS.

News from Bucharest reveals that the resignation of the Cabinet is imminent. All the members are expected to hand in their portfolios after the next meeting of the Cabinet.

The crisis has arisen over the appointment of the new Chief of Police.

The Minister of the Interior, Mihalache, has demanded the replacement of this official who holds his appointment by direction of the King himself. King Carol has refused to replace the present holder of the position.

The Chief of the Police himself, M. Marenescu, refuses to be displaced saying that he was appointed by the King and that he would disloyal, besides acting disgracefully, if he removed himself from the post.

The Minister of the Interior has already handed in his resignation, so the report goes, and he is supported by the Premier, M. Maniu.

EXPEDITION TO PORT LOUIS.

His Excellency Lays Wreath On

Matthew Brisbane's Grave:

A glorious day favoured the expedition to Port Louis on Sunday when the initial recognition of the Falklands Centenary was observed with the paying of a tribute to the memory of Matthew Brisbane, Britain's first appointed Governor of the Islands.

Among those on board the Lafonia which made the trip were, His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Chairman of the Centenary Committee) and the following members of the Committee - the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett, the Hon. J. Innes Moir, the Hon. G. Roberts, the Hon. L.W.H. Young and Messrs. B. Newing and A.I. Fleuret (Joint Hon. Secretaries) with Mr. W. Barlas (representing the Dependencies.)

The Lafonia, bedecked with flags and making her departure from the Company's East Jetty to the accompaniment of the firing of maroons, carried 124 people. She steamed out through the Narrows, round the point to cruise placidly along Berkeley Sound, the smooth water disturbed only by the ripple of her advancing bow. As the expedition passed Hog Island the settlement could be easily seen with the Red Ensign aloft and the inhabitants, some twenty-six in number, moving like mere specks across the camp to the beach. More maroons were fired in a salute as the ship anchored off shore and two large skows, specially brought for the purpose, were quickly unshipped to take the passengers to land, while the hosts of the day, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robson and Mr. and Mrs. George Robson, came on board to meet His Excellency and to join the official party at lunch.

The Heritage of The Falkland Islands.

After lunch, the Governor, accompanied by Mr. J. Robson and Mr. G. Robson, with the members of the Committee and Mr. Barlas, proceeded to the hollow in which lay the old cemetery. Here, standing by the grave of Matthew Brisbane with some 160 people gathered about the rim of the hill, His Excellency said the following touching and inspiring words :

"In the Old Settlement of Port Louis, just a hundred years ago all but some seven months, Matthew Brisbane was brutally done to death by Gauchos and Indians, and this wreath I hold is being laid upon his grave in the name of the population of the Colony. In performing this solemn rite I feel myself, as Governor, greatly privileged to have to do this on your behalf and in your name.

"Before me at this ceremony I see boys and girls as well as the older people of the community. I beseech ~~every~~ one of you to read up and try always to bear in mind the work of the pioneers, those forefathers of ours, who laid the foundations ~~of that~~ Political Entity known as the British Empire. Each in his own way and by his own work; simple, honest, God-fearing men, laid ~~the~~ foundation of that Empire, and among them in this isolated Outpost, ~~stands the name of~~ Matthew Brisbane. Let us really treasure his memory and the memory of the men who worked under him.

"In the days that are coming our boys will venture forth in the world. Matthew Brisbane and the men of his ~~type~~ have left them the heritage of the Falkland Islands that they too may leave to their children after their life's adventure, trials, difficulties and troubles, a greater heritage than they themselves received in their time.

"I think there is a greater future even than that already experienced before the Falkland Islands. But I wish to emphasise how important it is that we should work together as a solid body, venturing forth and carrying on in the spirit begun by those forefathers, like Matthew Brisbane on whose grave I lay this wreath in your name and the name of the Colony."

The wreath, a beautiful tribute made by Mr. C.A. Parkinson (Government House Gardener) was composed of Schizanthus and Madonna lilies on a groundwork of Veronica, and was placed against the tombstone upon which was the inscription :

"To the memory of Mr. Matthew Brisbane who was barbarously murdered on the 26th August 1833.

In the command of the Beaufoy Cutter he was the zealous and able companion of Capt. James Weddell during his enterprising voyage to beyond the 74th degree
of South Latitude in February, 1823.

His remains were removed to this spot by the Erebus and Terror on the 25th August 1842.

This tombstone was renewed by Governor
Allardyce C.M.G., 1906."

At the conclusion of this impressive little ceremony the Governor and the official party retired to enjoy the kind hospitality of their hosts and to meet Mr. & Mrs. J. Smith and Mr. & Mrs. A. Smith of Johnson's Harbour in the old Barrack House with its thick stone walls and musket loop-holes still visible.

The large throng of people at the grave side dispersed quietly to make the most of the ideal pic-nic conditions and to make a tour of the Settlement. The ruins of the old French fort were visited and after passing the remains of the store of William Dickson, one of those whose lives were lost in the massacre, a walk down to the beach revealed the massive stone shell that once was Antonita's canteen. Standing by the threshold one's imagination went back to that ominous day, the 26th August, 1833, when the five Indian convicts and three Gauchos led by Antonio Rivero, hatched within those walls their murderous plot. Up the hill were the bare walls of Mr. Brisbane's once spacious house, the door by which they entered and the spot where he fell. The assassins accounted for five victims, plundered and looted and made off up-country with their booty while the remaining inhabitants fled to Hog Island for safety.

It was difficult to associate so fiendish an action with Sunday's peaceful scene for everyone felt happy and content and made the homeward journey with the pleasant recollection of a memorable visit. A final word of appreciation must be expressed to the Hon. L.W.H. Young (Manager of the Falkland Islands Company) and Captain D.W. Roberts of the Lafonia for the excellence of the arrangements and the way they were carried out.

INTERIM REPORT ON LOTTERIES.

A Social Menace.

The Royal Commission on Lotteries and Betting have presented a unanimous Interim Report in which they recommend that totalisator betting in clubs and on greyhound racing tracks should be brought to an end as soon as possible. The totalisator clubs which have multiplied rapidly in the past two years are stated, in the report, to constitute a grave social menace and the report says that totalisators on greyhound racing tracks involve serious social consequences.

Totalisator betting, whether on credit or cash basis should be declared illegal except on authorised race courses as provided by the Race Course Betting Act of 1928.

Some time must elapse before the Betting Commission are in a position to report on the whole field of enquiry on lotteries and betting, but the present Interim Report on one aspect of the subject has been submitted to the Government immediately, owing to its urgent importance in view of the development of the various totalisators for betting.

FRENCH CRISIS THREATENS.

France's new Cabinet under M. Paul Boncour, is threatened with a crisis over the balancing of the Budget. The Minister of Finance, M. Cheron, stated on Tuesday that his proposals would include new taxation to produce 5,545,000,000 francs, economies estimated to save over 5,326,000,000 francs and loans to liquidate past commitments.

The Socialists on whom the Government depend for a majority, declare that they will oppose such a heavy additional tax burden reports the Daily Telegraph.

The civil servants whose salaries and pensions it is proposed to cut, have rejected M. Cheron's new scale.

The existence of the Cabinet therefore is at stake.

INSENSING ITALY.

A series of front page articles which are now appearing in the paper "Giornale d'Italia" from the pen of its influential editor, Signor Gayda, leave no doubt that the smouldering fire of resentment harboured by the Italians against Yugo-Slavia is being kept well alive.

Headed "Yugo-Slavia Against Italy" these articles comprise a detailed indictment of Italy's eastern neighbour, covering her real and alleged deeds of the past ten years. The names and dates of each alleged act of provocation are given and even the text of the anti-Italian songs, which, to judge by these articles, would seem to be the favourite form of amusement and entertainment in Yugo-Slavia. They are quoted chapter and verse.

TROUBLE AVERTED IN INDIA.

A report from Delhi states that the menacing situation at Alwar has been averted by the timely arrival of British Indian troops, 1,000 strong from Delhi.

Following the Cavindgarh riots the peasantry on Tuesday were summoned to assemble for the attack by the beating of drums. Many thousands responded to the call but the drums ceased and the mobs dispersed on hearing the news of the arrival of the troops.

FIREWORKS IN U.S.A. SENATE.

A bitter duel took place in the Senate at Washington on Tuesday between Senators Johnson and Borah - two veteran Republican insurgents, over the war debts.

Borah ventured to repeat his assertion that out of the visit of M. Laval to Washington in connection with the Hoover Moratorium, the French had the right to draw the inference that if they gave up the reparations the Americans would re-open the War Debts' question.

Johnson hotly contended that the French Government could not possibly hold any such idea, especially after the Congress had attached to the Moratorium the declaration that the cancellation of the revision of the war debts was not implied.

The spectacle of these two stormy petrels in the Congress denouncing each other was a rare treat for the Senators who stood up as if at a prize fight and crowded round so as not to miss a word. At one time it appeared that a physical encounter was imminent.

FIRES IN SHIPS.

Thorough Investigation.

The question of safety from fire in ships at sea is undergoing a thorough investigation at the hands of the Ship-Building Employers Federation and the Chamber of Shipping.

The Enquiry on this subject was suggested last June by the Board of Trade but at that time the matter had already been raised. Although the record of British ships shows a remarkable freedom from serious fires it is recognised that the disasters which have overtaken other vessels built to a high standard of specification, have made the reconsideration of fires a desirable and prudent step.

Recent occurrences have increased public interest and it is anticipated that the report under compilation will deal specially with the relation between the outbreaks of fire and the design of the liners in which the higher decks are without obstructionary bulkheads, and with the material used for the internal construction and decoration.

STRAIGHTENING OUT EUROPEAN PROBLEMS.

U.S. Statesmen In Conference.

The conference arranged between the Secretary of State for the United States, the President and Mr. Roosevelt; at the latter's request, took place on Tuesday at Mr. Roosevelt's House, Hyde Park, New York.

It is understood that among the subjects discussed were the war debts, the Manchurian conflict, Disarmament and the World Economic Conference.

Mr. Stimson is reported to have urged Mr. Roosevelt to endeavour to persuade Britain to return to the Gold Standard states the Daily Telegraph. There is thus a prospect that the deadlock regarding foreign affairs will be broken shortly.

President Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt have been reminded by urgent advices from abroad and by competent authorities at home, that there is a positive danger in the "do nothing" policy between now and March 4th, when Mr. Roosevelt takes office.

They, and an increasing number of their followers, realise that the fact is not yet appreciated by the vast majority of the American citizens and that the United States prosperity depends to a great measure, upon the settlement of the financial and business problems which the political partisans have dubbed "purely European."

SOVIET DEATH SENTENCE.

Twelve "class enemies" have been sentenced to death in the north-east district of the Caucasus as part of the new campaign against State enemies, says a message from Moscow. DIFFICULT SITUATION IN FRANCE.

Courage & Good Humour Needed.

France's budget deficit is increasing at the rate of £256 a minute.

The Premier, M. Paul Boncour, has admitted that an end must be put to the state of things wherein the daily resources of the country are being drained only to fall like drops in the ocean.

The Minister of Finance, M. Cheron, had a long conversation with the Premier on Wednesday and on leaving the Quai d'Orsay said, "the situation is very difficult but it must be faced with courage and good humour."

During the conversation he outlined the plans for balancing the budget. These were to be communicated to the Cabinet the next day (yesterday) but the final examination by the Council of Ministers has been postponed for a day or two.

SHAH OF PERSIA EXPLAINS.

Concession Unfair & One-Sided.

In a statement from Teheran upon the Anglo-Persian's oil concession, the Shah of Persia declared on Wednesday that the concession was, in the very beginning, obtained under "unfair and one-sided" conditions. "The annulment was not a sudden or impulsive act. We have repeatedly attempted to straighten out the serious causes for complaint with the company hoping to obtain conditions more consonant with Persia's rights and interests."

The ghah insisted that it was decided to declare the concession annulled only when the hope of a settlement seemed ended, says a British United Press message.

BRITAIN'S TRADE POSITION.

In a year in which an international decline in trade has been pronounced, Britain, during the past twelve months has more than maintained her position among the world's trading nations. The preliminary Board of Trade returns issued on Thursday night show that her exports for 1932 amounted to £36,513,800. With the exception of the United States this total is likely to be considerably larger than any other country. If the figures are converted at par on the exchange, the values of Britain's exports are actually higher than those of the United States, reports the Daily Telegraph. Moreover the balance of Britain's trade is gradually improving in contrast with the situation of other nations wherein the balance is becoming more adverse.

Employment For British Farm Hands.

The revival of British corn-growing promises to prove even greater in extent than as shown by the Minister of Agriculture's Report. The area of land sown to wheat this year was given as 17% greater on January 1st. than it was a year ago.

Farmers assert that many more acres of grass land will be broken up during the coming Spring says the Daily Telegraph.

This will continue still further the generally improved outlook in British agriculture. Employment is already resulting to farm hands who otherwise would have been driven to swell the numbers of the workless there.

ENGLAND & WAR DEBT.

Anxious To Get On With The Work.

It is understood that the real purpose of the British Ambassador's call on Senator Borah on Saturday was to ask him unofficially whether he had any suggestion as to how to begin the reconsideration of the War Debt immediately.

This inquiry has been construed in Washington that the British Government is dissatisfied with the delay and is anxious to get down to business.

The upshot of the conversation was that the ambassador and Senator Borah, who is the chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, have agreed that an effective beginning is impossible until it is known who is to be the Secretary of State in Mr. Roosevelt's Cabinet.

Neither the Ambassador nor Mr. Borah would give any facts about the visit which was confidential and friendly.

Throughout her flying career Miss Spooner had only one accident. This was in December 1930 when with Flying Officer Edwards, on an attempted fast flight to the Cape and while flying by night, she fell into the sea off the Italian coast and both occupants had to swim about until rescued.

APPEAL TO SOUTH AFRICANS.

Ex-Minister's Meeting Mobbed.

An appeal to the rank and file of all parties in South Africa to work for coalition in their own interests is the latest move of Tielman Roos, the Nationalist ex-Minister. Roos urges that questions like the Gold Standard could be discussed dispassionately and the present administration could be induced to "pursue a rational course" and adopt measures outlined in his recent speeches for the benefit of the farmers, namely, to prevent the rise of the cost of necessities and enable the South African industries to create a white South Africa.

The speech was received with mixed feelings at Cape Town but at Bloemfontein astonishing scenes took place. Roos' public meeting was wrecked and wild bouts of hooliganism occurred. It appears that Nationalists made complete plans to stop the meeting and hundreds came from the country districts for that purpose.

A CENTENARY MEMENTO.

Falkland Islands Brochure.

Historical & Descriptive.

We have been favoured with an advance copy of a Brochure containing a notice, historical and descriptive of the Falkland Islands prepared by the Hon. J.M. Ellis C.B.E. (Colonial Secretary,) on the occasion of the Centenary of the Colony.

Attractive in appearance and appealing in its simplicity this informative pen-sketch has the added distinction of being completely produced in the Falklands except for the cover which, though designed locally, came from elsewhere. The latter is particularly impelling because of its bold but modest lines on a suitably coloured ground bordered in red and black, while the arrangement of the context harmonises admirably with the general high tone of the production.

The actual printing is being carried out at the Government Printing Office and Mr. C.G. Allan, the Government Printer, is to be warmly congratulated on issuing so fine an example of the printer's art - from the first page to the last the arrangement of the letterpress and the impression typify the care and painstaking efficiency characteristic of Mr. Allan's work.

Copies of this most interesting and valuable memento are in the course of preparation and will be placed on sale to the general public shortly at the price of one shilling.

MR. THOMAS & THE IRISH FREE STATE.

Dominion Minister's Denials.

The Secretary for the Dominions, Mr. J.H. Thomas, speaking at Monmouth on Friday last dealt with the Government's attitude to the Irish Free State.

He said "it has been suggested that the British Government were not prepared to make a serious effort to reach a settlement with the present Free State Government because they hoped to secure the return of another government. That I deny. Our attitude is, and always has been, that we are ready to negotiate a settlement with any Government which is prepared to observe its honourable obligations.

"It is alleged I told one of the Free States delegates at Ottawa that there was no need for us to settle with them since there would be a civil war in the Free State within a few months. I said no such thing.

"It is a fact that at the time I was alleged to have made the statement I was engaged almost daily, in conversations with members of the Free State Ottawa delegation in order to discover whether some basis of a settlement could not be found."

FRENCH GOVERNMENT IN SEVERE STRAITS.

The prospect of the French Government in this week's vital Budget debate is by no means rosy. It is becoming clear that it will risk its existence in an endeavour to make the country accept its financial proposals, says the Daily Telegraph.

The Premier, M. Paul Boncour, and the Minister of Finance, M. Cheron, received in twenty-four consecutive hours one delegation after another of representatives of the Bodies who object either to the economics, or the increased taxation, in the forms which M. Cheron is believed to have proposed.

Another blow at the Government's confidence in its immediate future was struck on Friday when the heads of the Socialist Groups informed the Premier that they were not prepared to support the Government in its demand for a Vote of Extreme Urgency.

BOLSHEVIKS TALK CAPITALISM.

The gravity of the rebellion against Stalin's rule has been revealed by the decisions of the leading Bolsheviks under his influence, stated a report emanating from Moscow on Friday.

At a joint sitting of the Central and Control Committees of the Bolshevik Party an illegal group had, it is reported from Berlin, been organised with the object of "obstructing the industrialisation of Russia and restoring capitalism by favouring the Kulaks."

The Minister of Food, Eismont, and the ex-Minister Tolmouchoff, have been expelled from the Party while the Minister of Posts, Rykoff, and the former chairman of the Trade Unions Federation have been publicly censured for having friendly relations with the opposition instead of combatting them.

PROGRESS OF THE TEST MATCH.

Australian Protest Surprise.

At the close of play yesterday (Tuesday) the scores stood as follows:
England - 341 first innings 296 for six second innings; Sutcliffe 7, Jardine 56, Wyatt 49, Allan 15, Hammond 85 and Leyland 42.
Australia - 222 first innings.

The rumour that the Australian Board of Control has cabled an official protest to the M.C.C. against the use of the leg theory tactics of England's bowlers, has received further support. It is now authoritatively stated that the Australian officials held a conference with Messrs. Warner & Palairat on the subject and the joint managers of the English team pointed out that they had no control of the actions of the team on the field of play. The result of this statement caused the Australian officials to hold another meeting where it was decided to cable a formal protest to London.

ODDS AGAINST DE VALERA.

Cosgrave's Position Steadily Improving.

The steady improvements of Cosgrave's party are the subject of general comment in Dublin. News comes from Cork that the bookmakers are offering 6 to 4 against de Valera being returned with a working majority. It is expected that bigger odds would be offered to-day (Wednesday) says the Daily Telegraph.

Apparently alarmed at losing ground de Valera is engaged now in a frantic attempt to re-establish his position. With the polling only a week away he has been compelled to completely alter his appeal. Notwithstanding all his previous enthusiasm for republicanism he is wily enough to continue to shirk that subject at this stage. Instead, he is beginning to demand the amalgamation of Northern and Southern Ireland. He does not attempt, for instant, to face the fact that Northern Ireland is coldly contemptuous of any such notion.

QUEEN MARY VISITS
PRINCESS POCAHONTAS'S DESCENDANT.

The Queen yesterday, visited Mrs. Torney of Meacham, Norfolk, a descendant of John Rolfe, one of the pioneer settlers in Virginia who 300 years ago married the Red Indian princess Pocahontas, and conveyed her greetings to this lady who is celebrating her eightieth birthday.

For several years Pocahontas assisted her husband at his Virginian tobacco plantation but when she came to England the magnificent court bewildered her and the climate ruined her health. She died when she was about to return to her own country and it is believed that she is buried at Gravesend.

POPE SORROWFUL.

Breach Of Bulgarian Baptism Promise.

The news of the baptism of the infant Bulgarian princess according to the orthodox rites has caused the Pope great sorrow as being a breach of the solemn promise, made and signed by King Boris and Queen Ionna prior to the wedding, that any children of the union should be brought up in the Roman Catholic faith.

On this condition the requisite dispensation was granted. There is no disposition at the Vatican to blame the Queen as she is regarded to have acted under duress, but an apostolic delegate has been instructed to convey to King Boris the fact that the Pope regards the baptism as a breach of the undertaking given in 1930.

CHINA & JAPAN STILL DISSATISFIED.

Sir John Simon's Protest.

There was a stormy secret meeting yesterday of the League Committee of Nineteen which is dealing with the Manchurian problem.

The Chinese delegation complained that it had been kept in the dark concerning recent negotiations and had not been given copies of the latest proposals. Both Nanking and Tokio have rejected these. The latter has promised its reply within twenty-four hours and the Committee reluctantly agreed to adjourn until Wednesday.

Sir John Simon made a strong protest against a further delay and declared that if a decision was not speedily reached he would urge the adoption of the paragraph in the Covenant provided for in the recommendations, for action.

MEIRUT CONSPIRACY CASE ENDED.

3 Englishmen Among Those Convicted.

The conspiracy case at Meirut ended yesterday in the conviction of three Englishmen and twenty-four Indians of conspiracy to deprive the King of his sovereignty and making war against him. The sessions judge, in giving judgment said the evidence showed that from 1924 the Russian Committee had been endeavouring to bring about a revolutionary situation in India by the instigation of communism there, and to active conspiracy by acting through the Communist party in Britain, Holland and other countries.

In the course of the trial three Indians were acquitted.

OLD PEOPLE'S DINNER.

Invitations are being sent to all residents in the Colony, ladies and gentlemen alike, of the age of seventy years and over, to partake of an Old People's Dinner which is being organised by the Honourable G. Roberts and Mr. A.R. Hoare on behalf of the Centenary Committee, and which will be given in the Gymnasium at 6.30 p.m. on Thursday, the 16th of February, during the Centenary Week.

The list of these ladies and gentlemen who are being invited has been prepared from the Census returns taken in April, 1931. It is hoped that this list is complete and that no unintentional omission has been made. If, however, any lady or gentleman has been overlooked and wishes to receive an invitation she or he is requested to inform the Joint Hon. Secretary, Mr. A.I. Fleuret, at the Colonial Secretary's Office, as early as possible.

FALKLAND ISLANDS DEFENCE FORCE.

Lewis Gun Prize Shoot.

The Defence Force Lewis Gun Prize Shoot was fired off on Tuesday evening in ideal weather. Twelve members took part in the competition which was open to all trained Lewis gunners.

At the end of the first round two competitors - Privates E. McAtasney and J.M. Campbell - tied for the first place with four plates down while six competitors - Privates A. Pettersson, H.H. Sedgwick, J. Watts, D. Atkins, D. Lehen and K. Lellman - tied for the third place with three plates down.

It required two additional attempts before the tie with McAtasney and Campbell could be decided. In the first tie both shot down three plates each but in the deciding tie McAtasney shot down four plates to Campbell's three. Campbell received, therefore, the second prize.

Not one plate was shot down by the first five competitors in the tie shoot for the third place. The bad light which was playing right into the marksmen's eyes was partly responsible for this. Lellman, who was the last to fire, shot down one plate and thus obtained the third prize.

The Competition which was witnessed by the Commanding Officer, Major the Hon. J. Innes Moir, was very enjoyable. The Adjutant, Lieutenant W.E. Allan acted as time-keeper and range officer during the event.

It should be pointed out that only eight rounds were allowed per firer with a time limit of fifteen seconds each to decide the tie for the third prize.

GETTING READY FOR THE BUDGET.

With the conclusion of the Ministerial holidays the Chancellor of the Exchequer will now set about the task of preparing the Budget which he will open in April.

The two guiding principles which Mr. Chamberlain will have before him in framing his plans are, says the Daily Telegraph, stringent economy in national expenditure and relief for the taxpayer.

No effort will be spared by the Government to secure a reduction in the rate of the income tax if the condition of the National balance sheet allows this.

The sum of £38,000,000 which the Chancellor will save during the coming year as a result of the Conversion operations will be a valuable help towards securing relief.

In the financial year 1933 - 34, the Chancellor will be able to Budget for a greater yield from the tariff duties.

In the report presented by the Economy Committee savings amounting to £100,000,000, are recommended, and in the report by the Committee representing the Local Authorities of Great Britain, cuts amounting to £46,000,000 are proposed.

All the proposals of the two Committees cannot be adopted but Whitehall consider some as eminently useful and these will, no doubt, find a place in the economy programme.

THE IRISH ELECTION.

Fierce scrimmages occurred on Saturday afternoon at the greatest election meeting ever seen in Dublin.

It was a great rally of the Cosgrave party and the crowd is believed to have numbered 20,000.

Many demonstrators were removed in police vans though few injuries were reported. But for the police protection which was on an unexampled scale however, bloodshed would have been inevitable. It was known that troops were in readiness, ambulances and first aid men were numerous, while at the hospitals, doctors waited for casualties.

Cosgrave, after outlining his party's proposals for the virtual cancellation of the Annuities until 1934, said they proposed, if returned to power, to negotiate with Britain to end immediately the economic war and bring about the discontinuance of the war tariffs imposed by both sides.

SPANISH EXILES LAND IN PORTUGAL.

The twenty-nine Spanish prisoners implicated in the monarchist rising last August and who escaped from Villa Cisneros, North Africa, recently, landed in Portugal on Saturday evening. They had covered 1,800 miles in a fishing boat of 100 tons, eluding the Spanish war vessels which were searching for them. Their unkempt appearance did not suggest that they were nearly all grandees of Spain. Among them was Don Alfonso of Bourbon, a cousin of the ex-king.

The escaped exiles were taken to Lisbon where they were assured they would be given "all facilities which a hospitable nation may provide for political refugees."

CONSCRIPTION SUGGESTED IN GERMANY.

Speaking before a great gathering at the Sports Palace, Berlin, in celebration of the 62nd anniversary of the Foundation of the German Empire, arranged by the Kyffhauser League of Old Soldiers Association on Monday, General Von Schleicher, the Chancellor, said that he had in mind as the chief goal of his policy the raising of the militia by conscription.

The new times required new forms he said, and he hoped soon to find the means by which the present army, which trained on the old spirit and tradition, might be connected by closer ties with the three million former soldiers united in the Kyffhauser League.

Among those present were President Von Hindenberg, Baron Von Neurath, the ex-Crown Prince and other members of the former ruling house together with many generals and officials of all ranks.

THE LATE MRS. GILCHRIST.

The news of the death of Mrs. Gilchrist of the Globe Hotel while in England has come as a great shock to her many friends in the town and throughout the Colony. A radiogram was received at the beginning of the week stating that she passed away on the night of the 11th of January, death being caused by pneumonia.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Gilchrist left Stanley for the Homeland as recently as November last with her husband who was making the journey in order to obtain a specialist's advice in England. Born in Uruguay sixty years ago she came to the Colony with her parents as a young girl and later married Mr. Gilchrist who has been in the employ of Messrs. Estate Louis Williams for the past thirty-four years.

During the time she and her husband have lived in the Falklands they have earned for themselves a well merited reputation for their good natures and charming personalities while Mrs. Gilchrist, as a housekeeper and a keen horticulturist, has hardly an equal in the Islands. Her flowers were the envy of all who knew her and her passing is a great loss to the community. Our deepest sympathy goes out to her husband, four brothers and two sisters who survive her and who mourn their loss.

FRANCE FEARS THE "ANSCHLUSS".

A Diplomatic Proposal.

The French government has under consideration a new and startling move on the diplomatic chess board of Europe.

It concerns the future of Austria's International status. According to the Daily Telegraph this republic should be like Switzerland, perpetually neutral and recognised as such and, if possible, guaranteed by the League of Nations.

Secret soundings on the subject have already been proceeding in at least three capitals. The chief object of such a policy would be to avert for all time the dreaded "Anschluss" or political union between Germany and Austria, and probably any customs or economic union between Austria and Germany and Italy.

THE STOCK SHOW.

One of the most interesting and popular features of the Centenary Celebrations should be the Stock Show to be held on Tuesday, the 14th of February under the Patronage of His Excellency the Governor.

As was to be expected the Sheep command a large proportion of the Classes and from all accounts there will be a good representation from both the East and West Falklands. There is also a Championship Class for the best Ram and the best Ewe in the Show. The programme, copies of which can be obtained as already announced for the price of 3d, caters for cattle in the form of a Class for Dairy Cow with Calf at foot and both riding and cart horses. It is stipulated that the riding horse be Falkland Islands bred saddled with Falkland Islands gear.

To those who intend putting animals in the Show a word of warning is tendered for entries will not be accepted later than the 31st of this month (January.) Mr. A. Newing, the Hon. Secretary of the Stock Show, Stanley, will receive and deal with all applications.

The conditions imposed for the entry of Sheep include that the animal "will be shorn in the wool with the exception of mutton sheep. All sheep will be grass fed (i.e. not fed by hand) and will not have been fed on tussac grass later than three months previous to the date of the Show. Such artificial feeding only will be allowed as may be necessary on the voyage into Stanley and while in Stanley immediately prior to the Show.

"In judging riding horses it should be noted that points will be awarded on the basis of 75 % for the horse and 25 % for the gear."

The entry fee for the Sheep Classes will be 5/- for each pen of three, no entry fee being required under the Championship Class. The entry fee for cattle and horses will be 2/6 for each entry. Provided that sufficient entries are received the prizes will be allocated as follows :

The Committee of Nineteen at Geneva which is dealing with the Manchurian problem decided on Wednesday to continue its conciliation effort on the following basis. It was prepared to abandon the idea of co-opting representatives of the non-League powers, namely the United States and Russia, if Japan would agree to accept the terms proposed by the Nineteen on the other issues contained in the December resolutions and statement of the reasons which is virtually the Lytton Report.

For the moment the future status of Manchukuo and the demand for direct negotiations between China and Japan were to be left on one side states the Daily Telegraph. There is no expectation that Tokio will accept such conditions. Their rejection involves a breach with the League. A complete network of canals with marble pipes, hydraulic works for watering the garden have been laid bare. The discovery reveals a similarity of structure to the Pompey Theatre in Rome.

In A Whisky War.

The "Whisky War" between Britain and Germany, as it is called in Berlin, has entered a new phase. By a recent judgment in the Berlin courts the German distillers may only sell their own products as whisky if it is declared on the bottles that the contents are of German manufacture.

As a reprisal they are now asking for a judicial order that the labels on the British whisky reveal whether the beverage is being sold in the condition wherein it was imported. It is alleged that British proof whisky has been brought to Germany and mixed with German spirit or diluted to a potable strength before being sold.

STILL SEARCHING FOR HINKLER.

Despite rumours that Captain Hope has given up the search for Bert Hinkler, it is asserted that the attempt to find the missing airman is not definitely ended and that Captain Hope will go on with it.

Doctor J.A. Webb, who is in charge of the plans of the Search Committee states that Capt. Hope requires the assistance of two Englishmen to co-operate with him. It may be that he will go to England to find them if the Committee cannot find them for him.

SMUTS ASKS GOVERNMENT TO RESIGN.

When the South African Parliament reassembled on Saturday the leader of the Opposition, General Smuts, announced that he would move to-morrow (Tuesday) that the Government should resign forth-with.

He held that it should take that step in view of the fact that it was now giving effect to a monetary policy which it had condemned as fatal to the interests of the country. He asserted that the Government had repeatedly given assurances that it would not remain in office if the gold standard was abandoned.

By resigning it would afford the opportunity for the formation of a National Government.

The terms of the motion have won the wide approval of the States, says the Daily Telegraph, but it is extremely doubtful that Mr. Tielman Roos and his followers will give it their audience.

"H I U O H E T"
SCENES AT NAZI DEMONSTRATION.

Police Cordon & Communists.

Under the protection of police measures of unprecedented rigour in Berlin the Hitlerite troops on Sunday were allowed to muster in front of the Communist stronghold in Bulow Platz. The police fortification of the square bordered on the grotesque says the Daily Telegraph.

All the houses in the Square were locked up and 1,000 police stood armed with carbines and fixed bayonets with a number of armoured cars ready for action. The square muster was only a pause in the march to the neighbouring cemetery where Hitler unveiled the memorial to the murdered Nazi clergyman Horst Wessels. The Nazis singing of war songs was echoed by angry boeing and howling by the Communists from behind the far-flung police cordon.

Several persons were wounded as a result of the scuffles between the police and the Communists during the march to and from the Square but only one of the wounded is said to be in danger. The absence of more serious collisions is probably explained by the fact that there were ten degrees of frost and the Communists feared the Government were seeking pretexts to suppress their party entirely.

FREE STATE EVE OF POLL.

Forecast Of Result.

With the arrival of the eve of poll in Ireland the only question of importance in the Free State election is the result. For all practical purposes one may disregard the complications of a vote which is spread over half a dozen parties, because there are only two to be taken into account, namely the party supporting de Valera and the party opposing him.

The difficulties of forecasting have never been greater and all over Ireland there are people who regard the complexities as too considerable to enable anyone to say with confidence which side will be the victor, says the Daily Telegraph.

Non-party experts forecast the voting as :- for de Valera 70; the opposition 33.

The Public Health authorities at Recife, the important North Brazil seaport, have decided upon a "rigorous supervision of all arrivals from Europe" states a Reuter message.

In France the number of persons affected by the influenza is still on the increase. Since the beginning of the outbreak there have been about 100 deaths in Paris. There are also many new cases in London. The Police Magistrate, Mr. Fry, was unable to sit at Bow Street Police Court on Saturday when several summonses were adjourned owing to the fact that forty constables of Bow Street Division were also ill.

WAR DEBT DISCUSSIONS HOPE.

Choice Of Britain's Representative.

Great satisfaction is felt in London circles at the American President-elect's decision to begin the War Debt discussions with the British Government soon after his inauguration in March.

No formal invitation to the discussions has yet been received in London but the U.S.A. Secretary of State, Mr. Stimson, saw the British Ambassador at Washington immediately after the White House statement and it is understood that the invitation is now on its way states the Sunday Times.

As soon as it arrives a choice will have to be made of the British representative who is to conduct the discussions.

In view of his popularity in the United States and the leading part he took in the Lausanne Settlement, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald is a likely choice. It may be difficult for him to leave the country, however, for any length of time and in a critical period before the Budget it will be equally difficult for the Government to spare Mr. Neville Chamberlain. It is therefore possible that the choice may ultimately fall on the president of the Board of Trade.

Mussolini has decided upon a complete overhaul of the mechanism of the Italian industrial system. The worn out parts are to be scrapped or replaced while abundant lubrication is to be ensured by easing the flow of credits thus enabling the wheels of trade to turn smoothly when the moment comes for the machine to resume work.

It is on the optimistic assumption that this moment will not be too long delayed that a new semi-governmental department is to be created. It is to be known as the Institute of Industrial Reconstruction and it will be composed of two sections, namely the Office of Industrial Finance and the Office of Industrial Demobilisation.

THE PERSIAN OIL DISPUTE.

According to a Reuter message from Geneva the Anglo-Persian Oil Company has two alternatives - namely to negotiate with the Government or appeal to the law courts. This is the gist of the memorandum addressed by Persia to the League setting forth its case in the dispute with Britain.

The Persian Government contends that the company has not yet exhausted the legal procedure open to it and it has not attempted even to have recourse to the Courts of Law in the matter. There can, therefore, be no justification for diplomatic intervention.

Defending its action in cancelling the concessions, Persia says "foreign collaboration deserves reward but it is not entitled to claim excessive profits to the detriment of the country nor can it justifiably obtain a monopoly in order to limit the exploitation thereof."

PERSEPHONE STATUE DISPUTE.

"A Colossal Swindle."

The authenticity of the Berlin statue of Persephone, known also as the statue of the Seated Goddess, for which Germany paid £50,000 at the beginning of the war, is disputed by Professor Galli, the Director of Art and Museums in Calabria.

The ex-Kaiser himself contributed £25,000 and the remainder was raised by public subscription in the belief that the work was a Greek original of the Fifth Century B.C..

Galli, however, in an article shortly to appear in a review, maintains that the statue is "a colossal swindle". In archaeological circles in Rome it is maintained that the statue is the work of a modern Sicilian sculptor who is in a position to obtain expert advice regarding Greek art of that period.

BANDITRY IN CORSICA. TIME

More Outrages.

A Paris message reports that fears are being expressed that a fresh outbreak of banditry is imminent in Corsica where the terror of vendetta has been almost unknown since the campaign nearly a year ago to free the island of lawless men.

An outrage was perpetrated on Sunday in the little village of Sartene in the southern part of the island. Two masked men entered a cottage and killed a woman and wounded her husband so severely that he may die at any moment. They then disappeared in the bush.

It is unknown whether the object of the men was vengeance or robbery. They stole nothing but it is believed that the alarm raised may have caused them to beat an unexpectedly hasty retreat.

THE LATE MRS. M.A. ENESTROM.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Mrs. Mary Ann Enestrom who passed away suddenly in the early hours of yesterday morning following an attack of coughing. For some time Mrs. Enestrom, who was sixty-one years of age, has been ailing but her many friends and acquaintances little thought the end was so near.

Mrs. Enestrom was the wife of Mr. C.W.P. Enestrom who is the only remaining survivor in the Falklands of the crew of the Great Britain, and a daughter of the late Mr. William Roberts of the Royal Marines besides being a niece of the late Mrs. Rose Robson of Port Louis. She is survived by her husband, three sons and four daughters to whom our deepest sympathy is extended in their sad loss.

The competitor will be allowed to advance up to the level of a gap in a fence about fifty yards to his front and on his right hand, and to assist his dog in driving the sheep through the gap and then right-handed through the rails, and about fifty yards to a gate, also right-handed, through which the sheep are to be driven and then penned. THE DEAN & MRS. BRANDON MEMORIAL FUND.

We understand that the promises of the amount to be paid by the date of the Centenary amounts to about £200, and in order that none may be disappointed who wish to subscribe the Fund will remain open for about two years. Many who cannot subscribe now may desire to do so later.

The money at present about to be received will be used to commence the erection and gradually the work will be finished as the late subscribers contribute. It is hoped to complete the erection of the Clergy and Choir Stalls in the Cathedral Chancel in the name of the former Dean and his wife.

The Dean desires that an opportunity may be given for local labour and has sought for tenders within the Colony, the decision, however, is in the hands of a body and consultation must take place before this can be decided.

The Dean will be pleased to receive the amounts promised at some early date. The Chartres is the first amount received from the Camp. There are twenty-one subscribers, generous subscribers, and the amount is considerable. It is a good omen and it is hoped that the contributions following from other sources may be the same.

FREE STATE ELECTION SCENES.

Escorted all the way by members of the Free State Army and in armoured car, Mr. Cosgrave arrived at Dublin on Tuesday afternoon from Cork. De Valera also journeyed with armed protection to his own constituency in Clare.

These happenings indicate a tense atmosphere wherein the polling was conducted on Tuesday in the Free State, reports the Daily Telegraph.

There have been some starting incidents. Early morning bill posting by squads of the rival parties came into conflict at Dalkey. Several shots were fired but nobody was hurt. In some parts of the Free State there has been a serious intimidation of voters. In Tralie, threats were uttered against the Cosgrave voters by gunmen. An outbreak of wholesale personation at one period caused alarm in Dublin and six persons were arrested on personation charges.

Reports indicate that the polling is particularly heavy everywhere in the Free State.

BOER LEADERS FACE EACH OTHER.

Resignation Motion.

Once again before a crowded assembly General Smuts and General Hertzog faced each other on a great national occasion.

On Tuesday General Smuts, in an atmosphere of tense expectation tabled his promised motion calling upon the Government to resign and to make an opportunity for the formation of a real National Government, reports the Daily Telegraph.

The speeches of the two leaders compelled the feeling that one spoke as a national leader and the other as the leader of a nationalist party.

General Smuts declared that South Africa faced the biggest emergency since the Boer War. In a singularly frivolous reply General Hertzog denied that he had ever given assurance that he would leave office if the country abandoned the gold standard under compulsion. That pledge had been given only in the contingency of the voluntary abandonment of the gold standard.

The debate was adjourned until Wednesday.

GERMAN PICKLE.

The demand that the Government should proclaim a "state of national emergency" and rule without Parliament, has been made in the Nationalist, Steel-Helmet and similar newspapers and organs in Germany.

They are now advocating the dissolution of the present Reichstag and the postponement of the elections at least until the Autumn, on the grounds that the present distribution of power in Parliament does not give the Government the necessary support for carrying out the essential measures.

The Nationalist members of the Reichstag on Tuesday passed a resolution accusing Schleicher's government of "dilly-dallying" and invalidating the idea of an authoritative government.

---O---O---

NEVILL CHAMBERLAIN'S WARNING.

A grave warning to the United States of the danger to herself in insisting on the continuation of the war debt payments on the present scale was uttered by Mr. Neville Chamberlain on Tuesday night.

He was speaking at the dinner of the Leeds Chamber of Commerce, and pointed out that the payment of the war debts would be made possible only by £1,000,000,000 of loans raised in the United States. America had stopped lending money. Her tourist expenditure in Europe and the remittances from immigrants was now very low and she had more gold than she wanted. If the payments were to be resumed the money could be found only by increasing the sales to the United States or by reducing the purchases from her.

In pointing out the effect of resuming payments Mr. Chamberlain said he was not using threats but warning a man who was walking along a precipice that the ground in front of him was undermined.

THE MINIATURE RIFLE CUP.

Colony's Success.

Our heartiest congratulations are extended to the Falkland Islands Miniature Rifle Team which entered for the Colonial Rifle Associations & Defence Forces small bore match last year, in carrying off the trophy the first year for which it has been competed.

The "Times" Bisley Correspondent writes :

"Falkland Islands has added to its many target shooting successes a convincing victory in the Small Bore Match, which was started by the Society of Miniature Rifle Clubs this year (1932). Many members of the seven teams which took part are well known at Bisley, where the Junior Kolapore and Junior Mackinnon matches bring an increasing number of teams together each year from the smaller units of the Empire. The success of the Falkland Islands, who made 1,901 out of a possible 2,000 is much appreciated here, for we have come to regard those men from the windy edge of the Antarctic Ocean as very fine sportsmen.

"Trinidad were second, being seven points below the Falklands. The other entries were : Kenya, Fiji, Ceylon, Barbados, and Jamaica."

Further details concerning the Colony's success will be published in a later issue.

EFFECT OF CHAMBERLAIN'S SPEECH.

Welcomed In U.S.A.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain's speech at Leeds on Tuesday has been welcomed in the United States as clarifying the situation says the Daily Telegraph.

But it is pointed out that he does not indicate what Britain proposes to offer in return for a debt reduction.

The leader of the Democratic majority in the House of Representatives, Mr. Rainey, says the American people will not tolerate lower debt payments. He considers the object of the Conference is merely to discover some means whereby the United States can be paid.

SCHLEICHER DOOMED.

The defeat of Chancellor Schleicher is now regarded as certain if the Reichstag meets on the 31st of January.

Both the Nazis and the German Nationalists have demanded his resignation on the grounds that he doesn't show "sufficient backbone", while the Socialists and Democrats, the centre party, warn him against attempting to establish a dictatorship on the lines urged by the leader of the Nationalist Party, Hugenberg.

It is understood that President Von Hindenberg is still opposed to all political experiments which conflict with the constitution.

OIL IN TROUBLED WATERS.

At Geneva on Wednesday the League Council appointed M. Benes, of Czechoslovakia, as rapporteur on the dispute between Britain and the Persian Government regarding the repudiation by the latter of the Anglo-Persian Oil Company's contract, instructing him to get into touch with both parties and report back to the Council.

The British Government's case was to be placed before the Council yesterday (Thursday) by Sir John Simon who left for Geneva Wednesday night. The Persian delegates were already there and have revealed some of the arguments by which they hope to justify their repudiation of the contract. Their contention is that the company ought to have had recourse to the Persian courts and the matter was not one that should be dealt with by the League.

From information available it appears that many of the statements in the Persian Government's memorandum are based on a misunderstanding and it is hoped that the majority of the points will be easily cleared up upon an explanation being given.

SENSATION IN SMUTS DEBATE.

A Ruter message from Cape Town states that excitement was undiminished on Wednesday when the debate on General Smuts motion calling upon the Government to resign and give place to a National Government was continued.

A great sensation was provided by Doctor Hjalmar Reitz, one of the staunchest of the Nationalists who declared himself in favour of a National Government. His move electrified the House as he is the first speaker on the Government benches to support a coalition, and it is generally supposed that he has got the support of seven other Nationalists who, if they crossed the floor of the House, could bring about the Government's defeat.

"Let Hertzog and his four best men join Smuts and his four best men with Tielman Roos as Premier" he counselled amidst cheers and laughter.

The debate was then adjourned until Thursday.

THE FREE STATE ELECTION.

De Valera Ramping Home.

A message from Dublin reports that the counting of the votes in the Irish Free State election is still incomplete but the final result appears unmistakable - namely, a decisive victory for de Valera.

There is every prospect indeed that he will be returned to the Dail with a majority which will render him independent of all other parties, says the Daily Telegraph.

In that case the events expected will develop quickly. The leading republican newspaper is already putting forward its demands on the questions of a Republic, the Oath, and the Partition.

De Valera's triumph has spread alarm in the business circles of Ireland. Guinness's shares dropped seven shillings on Thursday.

The state of the parties at a late hour on Thursday night was :

A message from Birmingham reports that Mr. Neville Chamberlain speaking there on Saturday said that there was nobody more anxious to reduce taxation than he but "if I were to deliberately unbalance the Budget in order to reduce the income tax or cheapen the cost of the national beverage the consequence would very soon be felt in a way far more disagreeable to the taxpayers even than the continuance for a little while longer of the burdens which press upon us so hardily."

Referring to Mr. McKenna's advocacy of controlled inflation he said "We have made it abundantly clear that we are not going to trust ourselves to the gold standard unless and until we are assured that it will work and, in order to be sure there has to be an international agreement as to the conditions under which it shall be worked."

SCHLEICHER RESIGNS.

General Von Schleicher and his Cabinet resigned on Saturday afternoon following a conference with the President Von Hindenberg.

It was inevitable that the Government would be defeated when it met in the Reichstag on Tuesday and the Cabinet decided that it could not force the Reichstag unless they had the President's assurance that if a "no confidence" motion was passed the Reichstag would be dissolved for an indefinite period.

General Von Schleicher told the President that there were only three courses now possible - one was a Cabinet with a parliamentary majority with Hitler as Chancellor, two, a minority cabinet supported by parties of the right which also could only be formed with Hitler as Chancellor, and three, a super-party cabinet wielding autocratic powers.

He warned the President against the dangers of the last.

The President called upon ex-Chancellor Von Papen to ascertain the chances of forming a Government.

It seems certain that either Von Papen or Hitler will be the next Chancellor. Hitler may succeed if he can guarantee President Hindenberg a stable government backed by a majority in the Reichstag.

THE FREE STATE ELECTION.

De Valera Wins.

A wireless message received Friday night last, before the actual results of the Irish Free State election were known, stated that it was not believed that the final results of the election which would not be announced until the Saturday evening would materially alter the relative strength of the parties as it stood then. The

The position then was :- de Valera 67, Cosgrave 40, Independents 8, Labour 7, Centre 10, Independent Labour 1.

De Valera expected to have a majority of a few seats over all the other parties.

There was much anxious speculation in Ireland regarding the use de Valera will make of his majority. In the country districts no doubt is entertained that the Fianna Fail will hasten to declare a Republic, says the Daily Telegraph.

The other half of the community is hoping that the success at the polls will not make de Valera more reckless in his policy but more cautious.

Regarding an all-Ireland Republic and its future relationship with Britain, the Premier for Northern Ireland, Lord Craigavon said on Friday - "The loyalists of the north are thoroughly prepared to defeat any attempt to incorporate Ulster in an all-Ireland Republic."

The Saturday night bulletin stated that Mr. de Valera had obtained a clear majority of three over all the other parties and with the alliance of labour would have a working majority of nineteen.

The results are - de Valera 78, Labour 8, Cosgrave 47, Independent Centre 11, Independent Labour 1.

In an interview Mr. de Valera said the victory was due to "the national sentiment of our people but does not indicate hostility towards Great Britain." Our desire and the desire of the vast majority of our people is to live on the friendliest terms with the people of the neighbouring island.

"The removal of the Petition is a necessary preliminary to establish a true and lasting peace between the Island and the people of Britain."

It is inconceivable that the loss of trade will continue says the Sunday Times correspondent, and in some vague way there is a hope that a settlement will be reached.

What will be de Valera's next step will be to remove the Oath, sweep away the Senate in its present form, abolish the office of Governor-General and declare a republic.

SCOUTING ACTIVITIES.

Some fifteen Wolf Cubs with their Cubmistress, Miss Reeve, spent a happy day at Moir Creek in Port William when they went out in the launch "Penguin", by kind permission, for a pic-nic on Saturday. They started off soon after 9.0 a.m. returning soon after tea and although the weather was dull it did not interfere with the enjoyment of the Cubs.

In squally weather on Saturday afternoon the Rover Sea Scouts, hiked out to Cave Rosia to the north west of Port Harriet where they spent the night, camping in the cave. This is the first time for some years that such a venture has been undertaken. A great time was spent by all, a feature of the camp being the sing-song before a huge diddle-doe fire on the Saturday night. The hike took about three hours to accomplish each way, the outward journey being by way of the Bluff Cove trail to the south of Mount William and Mount Harriet while coming home they hiked through the pass between the two heights and approached Stanley along the Moody Valley.

On Friday last Senior Patrol Leader Noel Biggs passed his First Class Swimming test. This is the first time this test has been passed, as far as is known by a Scout who learnt to swim in the Falklands.

The detailed scores of the Falkland Islands team which, as announced in the "Penguin" last week carried off the Challenge Cup of the S.M.R.C. in the first competition of the Colonial Rifle Association & Defence Forces small-bore match, are :

The Times correspondent reports that Trinidad seemed fated, in 1932, to come second in inter-Empire shooting. They lost the Junior Kolapore by 12 to the Gold Coast, and the Junior Muckinnon to Nyasaland. Now they are seven points below the winners of the small bore match. One point behind Trinidad came Kenya. After that there was a considerable falling off in the scoring, Fiji having 1,371, Ceylon 1,329, Barbados 1,828, and Jamaica 1,640.

The highest individual score in the match was made by Mrs. C.J.D. Irvine, of Kenya. She dropped three points on one of her cards and two points on the other. Mrs. Irvine is well-known at Bisley. Her daughter was the second highest for the Kenya team with 194 and her husband third with 193.

CAPE TOWN COALITION PROSPECTS.

During the week-end the South African Party met to consider the latest offer of Tielman Roos that in the proposed coalition General Smuts should be allotted seven portfolios while Roos received four, including the Premiership.

Though the weightiest opinion in the party seems opposed to this scheme there is a strong element which will not readily forgive the South African party if it misses the opportunity of getting rid of General Hertzog by making a compact with Roos.

The meeting postponed its decision until Tuesday (to-day) which probably means that it has been left in the hands of General Smuts who may declare his decision in replying in the debate which was to have taken place yesterday.

Doctor Steyn arrived at Cape Town on Monday with full authority from Roos to conduct further discussions.

The election result in Galway giving one seat to de Valera and one to Cosgrave, instead of two to de Valera as believed at first, gives the Fianna Fail 77 seats including the Speaker who only exercises the casting vote, leaving them a majority of only one over all the other parties who have 76.

The principal difficulty, writes the Daily Telegraph, lies in the appointment to this department. The question of the balancing of the Budget which led to the downfall of the last Cabinet is the touchstone at the moment by which any Cabinet must stand or fall.

HITLER, GERMANY'S CHANCELLOR.

According to a message received from Berlin, Hitler has been appointed Chancellor.

He has already formed his Cabinet consisting of Nationalists, Socialists and Monarchists. Papen is the Vice-Chancellor, Hugenberg, Minister of Trade, Seldte Minister of Labour, Captain Goehring Minister for Air, Frick, Minister for the Interior. Three Ministers have been retained from the old Government including the Foreign Minister, Neurath. Hitler and the Ministers have taken the Oath to the Constitution and the Government is therefore dependent on the Reichstag's approval.

The Socialists have already intimated that they will move a "No Confidence" resolution when the House meets, states the Daily Telegraph. The attitude of the centre whose report would be required to give Hitler a majority is unfavourable.

On Monday night 17,000 Nazi Storm Troops and Steel Helmets marched with torches to the Chancellor's palace to acclaim Hitler who took the salute. There were scenes of wild rejoicing in the streets.

SEQUEL TO DE VALERA'S RETURN.

According to information received from Dublin there has been a remarkable sequel to the return of de Valera to power.

The decline of the Free State trade during the last year, coupled with the fears for the future, has caused alarm among all sections of the community, says the Daily Telegraph.

Fremises are being offered for sale or are closing down and the owners, rather than face further losses, are preparing to leave for England.

The Free State exports last year decreased by £10,478,000 compared with 1931 while the imports are down by £7,885,000. The trade in the export of livestock which is one of the great mainstays of the agricultural community has declined by £6,438,000.

HOOF BEATS.

On being asked to purchase one of the new Sports Programmes which have just arrived from England it suddenly dawned upon me that the Race Meeting is almost upon us. Every Islander should possess one of these very creditable little booklets at least, it only costs 6d.

After perusing its pages I thought it was about time I sent along some turf information regarding the training and form of some of the horses in and around Stanley.

Firstly, our curiosity is centred on the latest arrival from the Magallanes race course, namely "Pambina" a rare recently imported by Mr. Peter Coutts of Goose Green. She comes with a good reputation but everybody was sorry to see her limping on arrival, due to her bucking while in the sling which resulted in a few cuts and bruises.

However, I am glad to learn that she is now none the worse for her high kicking and appears very much at home. Good luck to her new owner.

"My Lord", owned by Mike McCarthy came in to Stanley a short while ago with his stable companions "Tronador" and "Sally." The two former are not looking as well as we have seen them but probably the trip in the cold weather has made them look dull. "Sally" looks very well.

We are really pleased to see Bill Aldridge riding his mare "Blossom" which was unable to run last year owing to lameness, and feel sure she will do her best to uphold the prestige of the Stanley crowd. She, together with Tom Faice's recent importation from Hill Cove are the only Falkland Island Breds to represent us in here.

Many people witnessed the "arrest" of Tom's horse last week but on inquiry it was found he had only strayed on to somebody else's ground. At the same time Scs's two were impounded, one of them, it will be remembered was made "famous" in these pages last year by its "stolen" trip to Long Island.

Bus Aldridge's "España" is very fit and has many admirers who will show their appreciation at the tote. "Maggie" is being kept at Goose Green under the care of Findlay Morrison who will ride her during the Meeting. She is reported to be very much fitter than ever before. She is well worth following.

"Mr. Jim", it is rumoured, has changed hands and from what we hear his new owner hopes to follow in father's footsteps and "Phil" the Cup. Bob Hutchinson is seen out most evenings on "Monti" who looks his very best and will, no doubt, give a good account of himself against the rivals from the West.

Bob is also exercising "Casino" owned by Jim Binnie of Chartres. This pretty horse, it will be remembered, won all he could two years ago and was given a well deserved ovation on the Stanley course at the end of the meeting.

Another early trainer whom I see when going to cut my "turf" most mornings is Mansell Hardy riding his "Ramona" on which he places high hopes of getting among the firsts.

It is well that we have so many new arrivals for this Meeting because one misses the old familiar "Beauty", Kicndyke, "Plushy" "Joan", "Arrogan" and "Bluebell". The last named we hear, now has a foal which will, most likely, be heard of in years to come. "Dunmore", like myself, seems to be chiefly interested in removing turf.

The s.s. Fleurus left South Georgia for Port Stanley on the afternoon of Monday, the 30th ult.. Among the passengers on board were Messrs. Jones, Hirtle, Alazia, Bundes and Bonner.

DEFENCE FORCE RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

A ten round shoot at the 300, 500 and 600 yards was held on the range during the week-end. The weather was bad throughout thus accounting for a poor attendance.

Although it was cold and squally the firing conditions were otherwise good. On Sunday afternoon the wind was blowing hard straight down the range and no deflection was required, not even at the 600 yards. As one marksman was heard to quip "Stright" at "im" was the order of the day.

On Saturday the leading scores were :

	300.	500.	600.	Total.
Sgt. J.R. Gleadell	42	49	43	134.
Lt. W.M. Allan	43	44	42	129.

On Sunday the leading scores were :

THE NEW FRENCH CABINET.

Socialists Angry.

A message from Paris reports that M. Daladier has completed the formation of his Cabinet. It will come before the Chamber of Deputies on Friday.

The Ministry with its under-secretaries includes ten lawyers. It is modelled on the style of the Herriot & Boncour Cabinets which preceded it, and consists principally of Radical Socialists.

The new Premier has named it a "Government of Republican Action". says the Daily Telegraph.

From the Parliamentary point of view Daladier's Cabinet is dependent for its existence on socialist support.

For the moment though, the Socialists are angry with Daladier, They are expected to give him their votes for the moment, but the cut will come, as it did in Boncour's time, when the proposals for balancing the Budget are presented to the Chamber.

NEWS IN BRIEF : Harry Geen, the financier and former associate of Jacob Factor was, at the Old Bailey, on Tuesday, found guilty of receiving £14,000 from the Broad Street Press, knowing it to have been unlawfully obtained. Sentence was postponed.

CHANCELLOR IN NAME ONLY.

announcement From Doorn.

"Hitler is Chancellor in little but name and is virtually a prisoner of his own Ministry." This, according to the Daily Telegraph, is the view held by the leading German business circles. It is pointed out that practically all the vital Reich departments have been withdrawn from his purview.

Coming events will probably show that the most powerful personality in the new German Government is neither Hitler nor Hugenberg, but Papen who sits in the Cabinet as the wielder of the Presidential prerogative.

As vice-Chancellor Papen has been given unprecedented powers and can exert a decisive negative influence on all the Cabinet's decisions.

Meanwhile it is announced from Doorn that the ex-Kaiser will answer any call this people may make to him to return to Germany, but he has no intention of returning without an invitation.

Guarding all the volunteers were armed police.

The Railway Strike with which Ulster has been threatened for some time began on Monday and 6,000 men ceased work. But the service was maintained, mails and passengers reaching their destinations safely.

The Hon. Secretary of the Sports Association tells me he has already received eight or nine entries for the Governor's Cup among them being the following from the West :

"King of Clubs", Gordon Stewart of Chartres, "Rubicon", John McAskill of Chartres and "Teresina", W. Rutter of Port Stephens.

This is very encouraging, and in view of the fact that the Sweepstake on the Governor's Cup is to be drawn some days before the race takes place, and that there are to be two firsts, seconds and thirds and starters also, it will be well to ask yourselves "Have I bought a ticket yet ?"

As more news comes to hand it will be passed on for the information of those readers who like form up to date.

FRENCH SOCIALISTS COMPROMISE.

It is learned from Paris that the Socialists conditional acceptance of the principles of Daladier's invitation to join the Cabinet depends upon Daladier undertaking to be guided by the character, circumstances and general principles of the programme adopted by the Socialist party last June. These include the drastic reduction of expenditure in the military department, the nationalisation of insurance, the prohibiting of the trafficking of arms, the balancing of the Budget without reduction in social expenditure, salaries & pensions, and the control of the banks.

---O---O---

HITLER NOT HITLER.

Long Life For Chancellor Predicted.

A comparatively long life is predicted for Hitler's Cabinet. Not only by political observers but by bourse and general comment is Chancellor Hitler made out to be very different from Agitator Hitler. Another factor reassuring trade and industry is that Von Krosigk is to be head of the Ministry of Finance. Observers of both Hitler and Hugenberg's followers are agreed that there is no other so thoroughly acquainted with the finances of Germany.

The Cabinet will encounter the united opposition of organised labour but it is possible that the Catholic Party will be tolerant to it if not supporting it even while the Centre stands neutral - waiting developments.

The unexpectedly speedy solution of the crisis is attributed to reports that certain sections of the army contemplated a coup to enforce a dictatorship or the restoration of the monarchy.

The press comments follow the Parties - the Nazis are jubilant, the Socialists hostile, while the moderates speak of a dangerous experiment and a leap in the dark.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING.

Acting on medical advice the King and Queen have postponed their departure from Sandringham to London.

They intended returning on Monday. The new arrangements are expected to be announced shortly.

The King is in excellent health but their Majesties have been advised that their travelling to London is an important risk and the risk of contracting influenza should be reduced to a minimum.

It was stated by the Daily Telegraph that the influenza epidemic in London though likely to show a diminution in its incidence is at the moment extensive and it is impossible to secure complete protection from infection.

This is the sole reason for the postponement of their Majesties return to London.

RAIL STRIKE INCIDENTS.

The second day of the railway strike in Northern Ireland was marked by serious outrages in the Free State and the decision by the Unions to call upon their members employed by the railway companies and on the omnibuses, to cease work.

At Dromskin, near Dundalk, a train was re-railed through the line having been torn up during the night. Two men were killed and five injured.

Shots were fired on Wednesday night at a train passing through Carrigans, County Donegal while a fusillade of stones was directed against a train just outside Belfast.

It is a significant fact that the worst outrages are being perpetrated in the Free State although men employed there by the railway companies have not had their wages cut.

About three thousand of them, however, have struck in sympathy reports the Daily Telegraph.

Despite intimidation volunteers are offering their services to the company in Ulster and on Wednesday a fairly satisfactory local service was maintained.

SPANISH ROYALISTS IN FRANCE.

Three of the twenty-nine Spanish royalists who escaped from internment in North Africa while their guards were celebrating New Year landed at Brest on Thursday morning from a British steamer.

As they came ashore they cried out in unison "Vive la France". They were immediately greeted by friends and relations and there were scenes of great emotion as old friends were re-united.

After signing an undertaking not to take part in any political activities on French soil they were allowed to go to Paris.

HITLER'S PLANS.

In a message to his party regarding his position as the new Chancellor Hitler says the "hour of crushing the terror is at hand". This sentence is printed in huge type in Hitler's official organ.

The earlier part of his manifesto is as follows : "For some days past the Communist murder organisations have been recklessly inciting against a national revival. Let nobody lose his nerve. Be calm and disciplined. Don't allowed yourselves to be disturbed by spies, agents - provocateurs - in the observance of this, my command."

In an interview with British journalists on Thursday night, Hitler said "I only ask for four years for my plans. At the end of that time the world can form what judgment it likes on me and even crucify me."

JAPAN & THE LEAGUE.

May Leave Shortly.

Japan may leave the League of Nations before the Assembly meets in ten days time reports a message.

This grave contingency is the result of the Committee of Nineteen's decision on Friday to reject the latest Japanese suggestions for a conciliation in the dispute with China over the control of Manchuria. Rarely has Japan suffered such a direct rebuff.

The chief Japanese delegate, Mr. Matsuka, said to the Sunday Times correspondent that from the Japanese point of view "Manchuria exists."

If the League, disregarding that fact, attempted to enforce the penalties in Article 16 of the Covenant the result would be a second world war. Japan did not wish to leave the League, Matsuka added, but she might be forced to do so by the "ignorance of the western powers who know nothing of the far eastern conditions."

It is published in the "Echo de Paris". Kipling says "We have no other ally whose interests coincide with those of our country's. Because of that I follow a course of constant attack from different quarters on the Anglo-French Entente."

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

In French Government.

In the Chamber of Deputies, a message from Paris reports, d'Aladier's Government on Friday, secured a vote of confidence by 370 votes against 200 thanks to the support of the Socialists.

D'Aladier came before the Parliament with a forceful and energetic ministerial declaration the keyword of which was "action."

He uttered a warning against the illusion that "adventurous solutions" were the sole remedies against the present ills. He said the Government would ~~subse~~ its existence on the rapid adoption of new budget proposals.

This speech raised little applause except from his own supporters.

FOOTBALL OR FIGHTBALL ?

The toll of football in America and Catalonia is worrying the authorities of these two countries.

Ten players have been killed this season in American rugby football matches. In one week-end two men were killed and one knocked unconscious for two days. One of the players, a boy of sixteen years, died of a broken back and the other had his neck broken at Coldwater, Michigan.

No fewer than 200 players and three referees have been injured in Soccer football matches in Barcelona.

The question of "aggressive and brutal play" is to be tackled by the Catalanian Federation, which has announced that it is taking drastic measures to avert rough play in the future.

A DELICATE QUESTION.

Besides remarks about the wind, "Is it going to rain to-day ?" is a frequent query in the Falkland Islands. In China, however, the question is equal to an insult and ought to be avoided.

The Chinese believe a tortoise's back always gets wet when rain is going to fall, and that it can therefore unfailingly predict the weather. To ask if it will rain, is, for this reason, considered the equivalent of calling a man a tortoise. That, in China, is a serious offence.

Chinese, when they meet, do not wish each other a fine day, but exchange the polite greeting "Have you eaten rice ?" To obtain a rest from the perpetual weather question in the Falkland Islands we suggest that a similar variation might be applied here by greeting our neighbours with "Have you eaten mutton.?"

BORN LUCKY.

The two luckiest people in Central Europe last week-and :
One is a peasant woman aged eighty. She fell down a well fifty feet deep. Friends pulled her out - uninjured.
A painter was working outside a building at Znaim, Poland, when a rung of his ladder broke. He crashed to the pavement fifty feet below. Then he got up and walked back to work !
The old lady's exploit happened at Bekes, Hungary.

GLASS GLUTTON !

There is a man for whom there seems to be no such word as "impossible". He has done things in the presence of witnesses which have made them doubt the evidence of their own eyes, and has smiled at their looks of horror.

"Samson" Bessford, of Lilburn-street, Sunderland, is one of the most extraordinary men alive. Here, for instance, are some of the things he can do at any time :

Eat an electric light bulb; let himself be run over by a thirty hundred-weight motor-van; and allow himself to be nailed in an air-tight coffin.

He has just given a demonstration of glass eating to a Committee of Sunderland business men. As he bit off a piece of glass with his teeth, one of those present looked away hopelessly and then walked out. It was too much for him ! The others remained because they were too horror stricken to move.

"I am only strong because I have faith," he said. "All my strength comes from my little talisman," and he patted a small gilt medallion on the lapel of his coat. On the talisman is written "God looks after his children !"

Afterwards "Samson" invited the committee to see him being run over. The van driver took fright when the car was on top of him and could not move it, and photographers became so nervous that they could not take pictures !

---o---o---

THE ENGLISHMAN DIDN'T !

Two natives of California and an Englishman met over tea, stayed to argue over war debts, and concluded their debate in the police-court.

At the court the two Americans were found guilty of assault.

Henry Skipworth, the Englishman, suffered the major casualty in "the war over the debts of the war;" he ended the battle with a broken nose and a fractured shoulder.

And what was the fight over ? Skipworth argued that Britain should pay. The Americans were arguing that debts should be cancelled.

MORE HASTE LESS FREEDOM.

David Lawrence, a negro, who was on trial for murder, grew impatient when the jury had been absent an hour considering their verdict.

"Judge," he declared, "I'd like to plead guilty of manslaughter.

The jury began to file back into the court, but Judge Pegrem accepted Lawrence's plea and sentenced him to prison for seven and a half years for manslaughter."

Then, as an after thought, the Judge asked the foreman of the jury what was the verdict on the original charge.

"Not guilty," was the answer.

The Judge's sentence stands, however.

Mr. Ramsay, a slightly built Australian of forty years, was asked if he had not feared the sharks.

He replied that "they always seemed playful."

HOOF BEATS.

The following entries have been received for the Governor's Cup :
 "Teresina", "King of Clubs", "Rose Marie", "Nini II", "Ma Jong",
 "Almada", "Mr. Jim", "Tronador", "My Lord", "Maggie", "Bambini" and "Espana".

We are sorry to hear that the entry of "Rubicon" has been cancelled. We understand "Bambini" is quickly recovering from her lameness and stiffness and her trainer expects her to be in "good form" for the races.

"Espana", it is rumoured, is slightly lame, and as great things are expected of him this year we sincerely hope he will shortly recover.

"Rose Marie", "Nini II", "Ma Jong" and "Almada" are all being exercised and reports from the "stables" state they are all doing good work.

We are told too that "Mr Jim" is settling down to work in a satisfactory manner.

"Tronador" and "My Lord" are also undergoing training. The former, we are told, is up to his usual form ; and the latter is doing excellent work.

There seems to be some mystery concerning "Maggie's" progress in training. The "King" (her owner) is keeping things dark, but a certain visitor to Stanley who has recently seen her trainer has offered to bet a "bottle o' pickles" that she will be among the first three to pass the winning post. We hand the information on for what it is worth.

The British Ambassador to Washington, Sir Ronald Lindsay, is expected to arrive back in London to-day. Important Ministerial consultations will commence immediately, says a Reuter message.

It is expected that Sir Ronald Lindsay will emphasise the following points ; America will be disinclined to reduce War Debts without some compensation; the best interests on both sides will be served by the minimum of public speeches on the subject pending negotiations; Roosevelt is greatly concerned by the present world economic situation and fully appreciates the necessity of readjustments.

The British Ministers during the next few days are to decide what, in their opinion, should be the composition of the Washington Mission and also the general plan of the negotiations.

Two presidential decrees of far reaching moment have been promulgated in Berlin.

The first annuls the judgment of the State Court regarding the Braun Government in Prussia and makes Papen dictator, with the Prussian Diet dissolved.

The second re-imposes in a more drastic form the restrictions on the freedom of speech decreed under the Chancellorship of Papen.

One of the new provisions empowers the Minister of the Interior to ban for six months the circulation in Germany of foreign periodicals which break the rules laid down for the native press.

Seven further deaths are reported as a result of political violence.

FIVE POWER CONVERSATIONS.

A message from Geneva reports that the Five Power Conversations on Disarmament are about to be resumed in form if not in fact.

There is a distinct endeavour on the part of the British Delegation at Geneva to hasten the work of the Disarmament Conference towards some satisfactory conclusion, says the Daily Telegraph.

For that reason unofficial talks are about to take place between the representatives of the Five Powers whereby it is hoped some common ground for an agreement will be reached.

Without this common basis it is recognised that the Conference is doomed to failure.

AIR RECORDS.

One of the most outstanding performances in aviation concluded on Thursday when the Royal Air Force long range monoplane landed at Walvis Bay, South Africa, approximately 5,340 miles from Cranwell, England.

The Air Ministry claim that they have established a new world's record for long distance non-stop flight. The previous record was held by America and the distance covered was 5,012 miles.

The flight was intended to carry on to the Cape if the airmen encountered good weather all the way, but after flying for fifty-seven hours the pilots, Messrs. Gayford and Nichollette decided to land.

The Air Ministry highly praise the navigation over snow, sea and desert, also the makers of the craft and the instruments for the machine on its splendid achievement.

THE CENTENARY REVIEW.

Sapper's Hill Gun Fires Salute.

Never before has so large a throng assembled on Government Paddock to witness so impressive a Parade as when yesterday, the Centenary Week of Celebrations began officially with a Review of a detachment from H.M.S. Durban and the Defence Force by His Excellency the Governor.

As His Excellency took up his position at the Base on the north side of the Parade Ground the six inch gun mounted on Sapper's Hill & manipulated by a Naval gun team, fired a shot across the Harbour in Salute. H.M.S. Durban then replied with a salvo of seventeen guns and as the echoes of the reports died away the Royal Marines Band struck up "God Save the King."

His Excellency, accompanied by Commodore R.H.O. Lane Poole O.B.E., and the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) with attendant officers, then inspected the Parade which subsequently marched past the Base while the Governor took the Salute. In the enclosure with His Excellency were Commodore R.H.C. Lane-Poole O.B.E., the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., the Hon. M.G. Craigie-Halkett and Mrs. Halkett, Major the Hon. J. Innos Moir and Mrs. Moir, the Hon. G. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts, the Hon. G.J. Felton and Mrs. Felton, the Hon. L.W.H. Young, the Very Reverend the Dean and Mrs. Lumsdale, Captain R. Carey and Mr. John (Chief Scientist) of B.R.S. Discovery II, and Mr. T. Norris.

HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP'S

CENTENARY MOTTO.

Will Direct Thy Path."

Following the impressive Review held in Government Paddock a Solemn Commemoration Service took place in Christ Church Cathedral at 10.30 yesterday morning when His Lordship the Bishop, who had only arrived in the Colony but an hour or so earlier, gave the address while the Very Reverend the Dean, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ennes, conducted the service.

His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E., and the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., attended with members of the Executive and Legislative Councils and their wives. There were also present representatives of the public bodies and organisations in the Islands besides a small detachment from H.M.S. Durban and the Defence Force with a number of the public including visitors from the Reina del Pacifico.

His Lordship the Bishop took as his text "But seek Ye first the Kingdom of God and all His Righteousness and all these things will be added unto you." (6th Matthew, 33rd verse.)

"We are assembled here," the Bishop said, "at the commencement of a very memorable week. East and West have come together in one place. We have representatives here of the Royal Navy, the Research Ship Discovery II, the Islands Forces, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts and distinguished visitors from the Reina del Pacifico just passing through. And here we are assembled together with His Excellency the Governor, the Colonial Secretary and members of the Councils - Why are we collected in this Church to-day? It is to commemorate the Centenary of the Foundation of a British Colony in these Islands. But there we might stop. What more need we say? 'The Centenary of a British Colony.' What has happened during that

THE FOURTH TEST.

At the close of play on Saturday - the second day of the Fourth Test Match which is being played at Brisbane England's position appeared favourable.

Although the Australians were the first to take the batting the end of the first day (Friday) found them with a score of 231 with only the loss of three wickets. But on Saturday the remaining seven wickets failed to get more than 109 and Sutcliffe and Jardine made 99 without either wicket falling when stumps were drawn.

The scores were :-

Australia, 1st innings : Richardson 83, Woodfull 67, Bradman 76, McCabe 18, Ponsford 18, Darling 17, Bromley 26, Lowe 5, O'Reilly 6, Ironmonger 8, Wall not out 6, extras 9. Larwood took four for 36. Total 340.

England, 1st innings : Sutcliffe 51 not out, Jardine 41 not out, extras 7. Total 99 for no wickets.

hundred years ? If a cinematographic picture could produce all the details of those years I wonder what kind of an impression it would leave on us. I take it we should be both pleased and grieved."

The Bishop then spoke of the long line of men who had done so much for the British Empire and cited the association of the great Lord Nelson with the Islands, the magnificent work of Bishop Sterling and the pioneering endeavours of the farmers whose names are household words in the great sheep lands on the coast. Some of them had lost everything, but British-like they rose again. What did it mean. People from the colder climates had far greater characters than those in the tropics; the rigours of the cold built up character and went to make Life.

In spite of all our failings and short-comings, and," His Lordship added, "there are many in these Islands let me tell you, we should pray that we may follow in the lead of those who have gone before. We are here to-day at a Service of Thanksgiving in the most southerly Cathedral in the World. I want, for a moment to draw your attention to an article in the "Times" for an appeal to which the collection to-day will be devoted; it is to unify this Cathedral in the name of Dean Erandon who, with Canon Blount, went out to declare the Gospel in these Islands. This service as the first Commemoration Service is just an alliteration of the text I gave you at the beginning of this address and in your endeavours to serve the King and the King of Kings I leave you this motto - "In all thy way acknowledge Him and He will direct thy path."

IS JAPAN SUSPICIOUS?

A message from Tokio reports that Japan attaches great importance to the announcement of Admiral Pratt the United States Chief of Naval Operations, that the American Atlantic Fleet is to remain in the Pacific until 1934.

The reasons put forward are discredited and the change is regarded as a veiled threat coming at a time when Japan's relations with the League of Nations are critical.

THE RETURN OF THE HOHENZOLLERNS.

Europe, and Germany herself at this moment, is agog with persistent rumours founded or unfounded which allege the imminence of the Hohenzollern restoration.

This being so the personal attitude of the ex-Kaiser towards such a move, as he is understood to have recently disclosed it to his relatives and intimates, is of considerable interest, says the Daily Telegraph.

It has been repeatedly declared by his Doorn entourage that the ex-Kaiser would never attempt to regain the throne by force but would only agree to return peaceably in response to the call of the ex-German people. But it would appear that the ex-Kaiser has really no desire to rule. What he craves is a spectacular rehabilitation in the eyes of the German people, and then abdication in favour of the Crown Prince.

BRITISH NAVAL ARMAMENTS.

According to a message from London a very substantial increase in British naval armaments will be necessary in the near future unless some concrete and universal scheme is carried through at the Disarmament Conference at Geneva. The news emanates from the Daily Telegraph.

The Telegraph naval correspondent states that as the latter possibility appears to be remote it is safe to assume that plans for the rehabilitation of British sea power are already being prepared.

It is in the last degree likely that Great Britain will, in 1936, renew the existing naval agreements in their present form. Experience has shown these covenants to be incompatible with the main trade and inter-Empire requirements. Their effect has been to reduce Britain's naval defences below the normal safety line while, at the same time, promoting a large expansion of foreign fleets.

Since 1922, the date of the Washington Treaty, Britain has declined to a secondary rank in several elements of naval power and is now weaker at sea than at any period within the past one hundred and fifty years.

The B.B.C. Broadcast Talks.

Splendid Reception.

Conditions could hardly have been more favourable for the reception of the special Talks by the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister G.B.E., P.C., M.C., Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Hon. George Bonner O.B.E., arranged to be broadcast over the Empire Service by the B.B.C. on Monday evening in connection with the Colony's Centenary Celebrations.

As one heard distinctly the words of the speakers, only very slightly distorted by fading and in one place confused by a slight crackle, a thrill as never experienced before must have passed through the hearts of all local listeners.

A word of congratulation is due to the Stanley Studio which relayed the messages to individual loudspeakers and made possible so splendid a reception of the B.B.C.'s happy messages transmitted through an excellent Empire Service.

At 7.30 p.m. the announcer's voice was heard to say :
"London calling the West African Zone and especially the Falkland Islands. During this week the Falkland Islands are celebrating the Centenary of the Colony and it is our privilege to welcome to the Studio to-night, the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, on the occasion of the Centenary of the Colony, followed by Mr. George Bonner O.B.E., a member of the Executive Council and the Chairman of the Falkland Islands Sheep Owners' Association who will speak."

"The Empire Listening In."

Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister said : "The occasion on which I am speaking to-night - the Centenary of the establishment of a British Settlement in the Falkland Islands - is a memorable one and made more memorable by the message sent by His Majesty the King.

"It is the first time that I have been able to avail myself of this new and wonderful service which can be heard all over the Empire and it will, I feel confident, draw closer the ties which bind us together.

"I would like to begin by offering the people of the Falkland Islands very hearty congratulations on their achievement in that Centenary of historical establishment and in the past four years, more particularly in the town of Stanley; congratulations to all and to the Governor Sir James O'Grady, sincere felicitations on the success of the celebrations and a prosperous future.

"Speaking to you in the Falkland Islands, thousands of people in other parts of the Empire are listening-in and many are trying to picture to themselves who you are - the people to whom I am speaking.

"I am speaking from a city with eight million inhabitants, from a crowded country carrying five hundred people to a square mile, to remote Islands with scarcely a single person to every two square miles; a place of wide solitude, scanty pastures, bare and barren in fields. These vigorous conditions have bred a hardy stock on which a sound physical and sturdy character, loyal and law-abiding, deeply attached to the British Constitution and His Majesty, has been built.

"Desire The Right."

"The history of the Colony is bound up with maritime traditions. The Islands were discovered more than three hundred years ago by Captain Davis in the ship 'Desire' from which the Colony takes its Motto - 'Desire The Right.'

"More recently the Colony has been made conspicuous through the victory of Admiral Sturdee's Squadron in 1914 and through the valuable contribution of Mrs. Felton and her maid who kept watch and gave help to the British Squadron with the first warning of the enemy's approach.

"The little capital of the Islands is now the scene of a good gathering - perhaps the most numerous ever assembled there - appropriate with the Navy represented as it is by H.M.S. Durban and other vessels including R.R.S. Discovery II, the first British ship designed for wide research in the Southern Seas, - representative of British Science and enterprise.

"I am afraid my allotted time is now spent and I am happy to make way to my friend and yours, Mr. George Bonner O.B.E., a leading member of the Falkland Islands community who will address you."

"The Hon. George Bonner O.B.E."

The Hon. George Bonner then spoke through the microphone -
 "Your Excellency Sir James O'Grady, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands; Your Lordship the Bishop, and priests of all other denominations; Executive and Legislative Members of Councils; H.M.S. Durban, the Commodore, Officers and Men; the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's Reina del Pacifico, captain officers and men, and passengers; and all the people living in the Falkland Islands and Dependencies - I have the honour to follow the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, in sending hearty congratulations from all relatives and friends living here on your celebration of the Centenary this week in Stanley, and an auspicious future for the Colony, the Islands and Dependencies, and I hope you will have good weather during the festivities.

"The Falkland Islanders here celebrated the occasion this evening with a dinner at the Royal Empire Society with Admiral Sir Richard Phillimore in the chair, at which I had the honour of giving an address on the Islands with lantern slides. There was a big attendance of Islanders and friends and I think they enjoyed the evening. I explained the programme for the week, sufficiently I hope, for the visitors to understand something about it and I showed them copies of the Centenary stamps and said that they could be obtained from the Postmaster for two pounds a complete set plus postage when then would receive them by return; I am sure they are a great success.

"I do hope the Livestock Show will also be a great success. It is quite an innovation.

"Proud To Be A Falkland Islander."

"My wife and I are extremely sorry we could not get out for this special occasion but as you know our interests are with you all in the Islands and I hope soon to be paying you a visit.

"The Islanders have many things to be thankful for. They are better off than some countries in their present condition. I refer to the great whaling industry which has not yet recovered its usual prosperity. The woollen trade is gradually recovering its more normal conditions and will, we all hope, soon be able to pay us a price for our wool which will cover the cost of production.

"I am very proud to be a Falkland Islander and appreciate the honour bestowed on me to speak direct through the microphone which, through the advance of science and thanks to the B.B.C., make us feel we are no longer isolated from the Mother Country but closely established in all our doings.

"May you have a successful and prosperous year and a happy time during the Centenary Celebrations.

"God bless you and my love to my children and grandchildren."

"The Council and Fellows of the Royal Empire Society in the Home Country send Greetings and Congratulations to His Excellency the Governor and all other Fellows of the Society and residents of the Falkland Islands on the occasion of the Centenary of that Outpost of Empire.

"The Islands, though small in size, are great in history, and the memory of the many gallant men who have sailed from their shores to further the cause of the Empire is imperishable.

"The Council and Fellows send heartiest good wishes for the success of the Centenary Celebrations and for the future welfare and prosperity of the Falklands."

FIVE GENERATIONS IN STANLEY

FOR THE CENTENARY.

The Celebration of the Centenary of the Colony has been the means of bringing together in Stanley five generations of one family, namely Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aitkin, aged 85 and 81 respectively, Mrs. D. Mcaskill, Mrs. J. Biggs of the Murrell, Mrs. Jim Perry of Teal Inlet and Master Jim. C. Perry, aged 10 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Aitkin who celebrated their Golden Wedding in June last both came to the Islands as young people, married and had seven daughters and six sons. None of the sons married but the seven daughters did so. Six daughters and two sons survive while there are 46 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one, Master Jim, great-great-grandchild.

Our heartiest congratulations go out to Mr. and Mrs. Aitkin and their happy family on so auspicious a reunion. Both Mr. and Mrs. Aitkin in spite of their advancing age are in excellent health and may they long continue so to be.

THE CONFIRMATION.

With much regret the Bishop and the Dean, after careful consideration have decided to postpone the Confirmation this year.

Owing to the unavoidably early departure of His Lordship and the very full programme of the Centenary events it has been found impossible to fit the service in.

The Bishop and Dean both offer their full sympathy to the Candidates and hope they will not be too disappointed.

Port Howard Takes Both Championships.

During the judging of the Championship ram and ewe, about 11.0 a.m. His Excellency arrived and stayed a considerable time, taking a great interest in the exhibits.

In the cattle and horse sections the judges had good quality animals to deal with but found no difficulty in assessing the points.

In an interview Mr. T. Norris, the judge of the sheep, said

"I think the winning sheep extremely good. A very nice type of a commercial class of animal, that is to say, with a good frame, heavy fleece of high class wool. A very compact sheep, deep, broad and shapely with a masculine appearance about him.

"The wool is of medium strength, well marked and nice feel. Altogether he is a credit to the establishment where he was bred

"The Champion ewe is a similar type of sheep, also compact and broad, standing squarely, very well covered with heavy fleece of nice feel.

"In both sheep the charm was the way the wool opened. There was nothing matted nor fuzzy and the quality was carried right up to the tips.

"I should consider that Camp which is producing stock of the quality of these exhibits should be quite capable of producing a wool which can successfully compete in the markets of the world with the best wools of most other sheep breeding countries; That is, of course, when the quality which is now evident in these picked animals has been established right through the ordinary breeding flocks, for the value of a wool clip is not governed by the merits of the few selected animals but rather by the general quality of the whole flock.

"I first saw Falkland Islands wool at the London Sales in 1906, and the quality of what I have seen at this Local Exhibition is evidence of an extraordinary amount of progress having been effected since that time.

"As regards the lambs, they are, of course, too small as yet to be able to make any definite classification as to their real quality and the only system on which I could operate was by selecting those showing the most robust development with the broadest backs and deepest conformation combined with the feel and marking of the little amount of wool which they were carrying.

"Altogether I think the Colony should be proud of the fact that the sheep farmers are producing animals of such good quality as those in the Exhibition.

THE SWIMMING POOL.

His Excellency Lays Foundation Stone.

"A Bed-rock Of Hope."

A large number of spectators gathered at the north-west end of the Public Baths and Gymnasium on Tuesday when His Excellency the Governor laid the Foundation Stone of the projected Swimming Pool for Stanley. Among those present were His Lordship the Bishop and Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E.

His Excellency, who was accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) and met by the Hon. G. Roberts, Director of Public Works, made an introductory speech before performing the actual ceremony in which he said :-

"It is to me indeed, a very great pleasure to have the opportunity of laying this Foundation Stone to-day.

"I have always been optimistic during my life-time but I just want to safeguard myself by saying I hope we will not expect the Swimming Pool to be erected within the next twelve months. But if I do not have the privilege of opening the Pool since I may be called away to some other Dominion or Colony to continue my service in public life, I shall watch with keen interest that which will happen in regard to the Foundation Stone I am now about to lay.

"We have had trouble and anxiety during the time I have been here, even with regard to this Stone, and we are laying it because we hope it will be a bed-rock of hope to you and to increase your anxiety to get the swimming pool properly going.

"As an old swimmer myself, I used to watch keenly many children in London taking their lessons of a morning in a swimming pool. It is a form of the best possible exercise and I should imagine island people above all others should teach their children how to swim.

"It is a curious paradox, but as Britishers we are very careless about things of this character. I was born in an old town of the west of England, very ancient and one which used to be the second seaport in the United Kingdom - Bristol. The way I was taught to swim was by being pushed into the water by my fellows, with my clothes on, and then making the best of it. That was a very crude way of doing things and not an exercise in a beneficial form.

"I shall rejoice to know that the children of the Government School and the Roman Catholic School can, at least so many times a week, walk over to the Pool and benefit from this wonderful exercise and education. It is true we do not engage as much in sports as they do in the Dominions but I am hoping that in the years to come, Falkland Islanders will be able to join in international games and show, as they have in rifle shooting, that they can compete successfully.

"If I know anything about your character and temperament once we get the Swimming Pool we shall see the boys and girls at least trying and endeavouring to make themselves efficient so that they can take part in international games.

"What I particularly want to say to you now is, if any benevolent person can spare any coins during the next few years, I hope he will more than look at this Stone as he goes by the end of this Gymnasium and in the course of a few years we shall see our Swimming Pool erected and the children enjoying this fine exercise.

"I have much pleasure in laying this Foundation Stone - a duty I consider to be a great privilege to perform."

PIONEERS OF THE FALKLANDS.

Old People's Centenary Dinner.

Fifteen guests whose aggregate age totalled 1,126 years were entertained at an Old People's Dinner yesterday evening in the Council Chamber and Court Room, Stanley in connection with the Centenary Celebrations, the arrangements being under the careful supervision of the Hon. G. Roberts and Mr. A.R. Hoare assisted by Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Hoare.

The guests were Mesdames Mary Anderson, Phoebe Biggs, Susan Carey, Elizabeth Clausen, Mary Kelway, Bessie Newing and Elizabeth Rowlands, and Messrs. R. Aitken, A.J. Barnes, T. Burns, W.H. Goss, N. McLeod, T. Myles, H.W. Parrin and J. Peck, four of whom were born in the Falklands, namely Mesdames Carey and Kelway and Messrs. Goss and Peck. The remainder have, for the most part, lived in the Colony for the greater part of their lives. Among those who were unable to be present owing to indisposition were Mrs. Aitkin, and Messrs. J. Aldridge, J. Smith and C. Hansen.

During the proceedings they were visited by His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) and His Lordship the Bishop who chatted with the guests.

Before departing His Excellency presented each one with a Medallion struck in commemoration of the Centenary and addressed the following few words to them :-

"Do you know I am very proud to be here to-night on this occasion of the celebration of the Centenary of the Colony. I suppose all of you have done battle as pioneers in making secure for the King this little Possession right down in the South Atlantic, and why I am proud is because I have done something of that nature myself during the course of my public career.

"I have been engaged in many missions for the Government and for the King and I have been, like yourselves loyal all my life, at least I hope so. I do not want to protest my own virtues at all but I am a Britisher and day by day I am prouder than I was the day before that I am still a Britisher (hear, hear,) loyal to the King and the Constitution. Let me say this. If His Majesty the King were to see me to-night, I am sure he would approve of my presence here this evening and rejoice in the fact that I am among the older folk in the Falkland Islands. He would say 'You are doing the work I want you to do. Therefore, I thank you.'

"In the name of the Colony and on behalf of His Majesty the King I congratulate you on being assembled here to-night - the older folk - celebrating the Centenary and affirming your loyalty to the King."

THE BISHOP'S FAREWELL.

Government House,
Falkland Islands.
Friday, 17th Feb. '33.

I wish to write a line through the "Penguin" to say how much I regret having to leave the Island so quickly.

It is on account of the fact that there is no communication with Magallanes till April. Commodore Lane-Poole has very kindly offered to take me there in H.M.S. "Durban" and I very gratefully accepted his offer which will enable me to get through my work on the Coast in good time to get to England for a few weeks in order to get some man power for the Diocese.

It has been a great pleasure to me to have had the privilege of taking part in the Centenary Week. The first event of the week was, as it should be, the Commemoration Service at the Cathedral.

The Church was packed from end to end and the presence of His Excellency the Governor and the Executive and Legislative Councils as well as representatives of the Royal Navy and the Islands Forces gave the Service an official character. To give such services as these an official character just means that in our official and social life we must put First Things first. My text was "Seek ye First the Kingdom of God."

The Dean got the happy thought last year of trying to make this Centenary an occasion for the finishing the work of giving the Sanctuary and the Choir of the Cathedral more of a Cathedral appearance. This was to be a Memorial to the work of Dean and Mrs. Brandon. While we could have done with a good deal more money than we have received up to this moment, yet we shall be able to go a long way towards the stalls for the Dean, the Archdeacon, Canons and Choir which we want to erect.

In connection with that, I thought that it would make the Cathedral Celebrations of Holy Communion more impressive if we carried out the Canons, or Laws, of the Church and the Bishop and the Dean as Celebrants wore a Cope. I have, therefore, presented one.

There is one other thing I should like to say. This Centenary Week has been most wonderful in its weather. While we are apt to attribute evil, suffering and disappointment to God, let us not forget that 'every good gift and every perfect gift is from Above and cometh down from the Father of Lights with whom is no variableness or shadow of turning' as St. James tells us in his Epistle. Let us then, thank God for such gifts as these, our health, our sense of enjoyment, and in this particular case this wonderful weather in a place where bad weather usually prevails.

The Dean is making the service on Sunday something in the nature of a Thanksgiving and I, therefore, order that at the close of the service the whole congregation will say "The General Thanksgiving" followed by the Te Deum.

Now, as I leave here, I want to give you a little extract from the Book of Proverbs with which I closed my sermon on Sunday.

"These are very dangerous times and we don't want merely to repeat prayers in church but we want to cultivate a Religion which is to be part and parcel of our every day life. 'In all thy ways acknowledge Him (God) and He will direct thy paths.'"

I am, your friend and Bishop,

N.S. Falkland Isles.

THRILLING FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

H.M.S. Durban Illuminates Ship.

It would be no exaggeration to state that so fascinating a sight as that witnessed in Government Paddock on Wednesday night when the Centenary Fireworks Display was given, has never before been seen in the Colony.

In the first instance the weather conditions - so perverse ordinarily - could not have been more favourable, while, secondly, the scene was greatly enhanced by the spectacle of H.M.S. Durban's illuminated outlines as she lay at anchor in the harbour, sweeping her powerful searchlight across the inky black sky. The Colony is greatly indebted to Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E. for his generous permission for so rare a treat.

The actual firework display, under the supervision of the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett and Messrs. F.W. Byron, G.L. Challen and B. Ratcliff, lasted about an hour, commencing at 11.0 p.m..

Maroons and rockets, and Monster fountains of fire soared into the sky in profusion giving dazzling effects of floating lights, comets, sprays of changing colours and whistling shells breaking into clusters of spangles.

"War in the Air" was one of the special novelties, giving an effect to that of a barrage of modern high explosive shells. Another device which brought forth unstinted admiration was "The Falls of Niagara" - a spectacular curtain of silver fire falling tier upon tier to the ground in successive waves as they struck the earth, re-bounding with curious effect.

So fascinating was the display that even when the finale of seven shrapnel barrage rockets had been exploded one was very loath to go away, half hoping that there was yet more to come.

ATTEMPT ON ROOSEVELT'S LIFE.

According to a message received from Miami on Thursday, the presence of mind of Mrs. W.F. Cross, a frail little middle-aged woman, saved the life of Franklin Roosevelt when an attempt was made to shoot him there the previous night.

She deflected the hand of Giuseppe Zangara, the would-be assassin and his shot went wide.

The U.S. Secret Service believe the attempt to have been planned by a group of dangerous anarchists. It is stated that for some time they have been hatching a plot against the president-elect. Detectives have been sent to Paterson, New Jersey, the anarchists' headquarters, to round up all suspicious characters.

As a result of this attempt the President's guard has been doubled but the elaborate out-door ceremonies for his inauguration will be held as arranged. Roosevelt himself is in no way perturbed by the outrage.

THE SPORTS SPEECHES.

A Combined Meeting Every Three Years ?

The Town Hall was crowded on Saturday evening when the Sports Association prizes were distributed by His Excellency the Governor. His Excellency, who was accompanied by the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Acting Colonial Secretary) was welcomed by Mr. R. Greenshields, the Chairman of the Sports Association.

After the distribution Mr. Greenshields in thanking the Governor said that His Excellency, as they all knew took a very keen interest in all sports and although it must have been a very tiring week for him he had still found time to come and distribute the prizes.

The Centenary Week to which everybody had been looking forward had come and gone. The weather he was glad to say had been really good; they had never had such fine weather for years, whether it had been for the festivities or anything else. He hoped all the people from the West and the people from Darwin had enjoyed the programme of the Centenary Meeting of the Stanley Sports Association.

They could not have a Centenary Meeting every year, Mr. Greenshields continued, but he would like to see another meeting like the one they had just had every three years (loud applause.)

He thought that the Centenary Meeting had been the biggest that had ever taken place in Stanley. It had been carried out absolutely successfully and without a hitch and he hoped everybody had been satisfied. In congratulating Mr. Coutts on the success of the horse Bambina he said it was undoubtedly the fastest that had been seen in Stanley. He wished also to congratulate the West horses and their owners for the sportsmanlike way in which they responded in bringing them in. In some instances they had a fifteen hours' ride on the West and then fourteen hours journey on the East. They deserved a lot of praise for bringing in their horses and showing so much enthusiasm. A similar word was also due to the Darwin sportsmen and their mounts for the way they had responded this year.

In a personal word Mr. Greenshields expressed his sincere appreciation of the work put in by the various Committees of the Association and the way they ensured that the Meeting should be a success. He was sorry to say that one of the most popular of the members was in hospital and not able to be with them that evening. He was speaking of Mr. Joe Aldridge. The Centenary Meeting was the first he had missed for forty-one years. He remembered when the races used to be run on Pump Green in Stanley and when the first prize was a bottle of Champagne or six bottles of beer - you could help yourself. Then they were moved to the sand beach and finally to the present course.

In conclusion he wished to thank all the donors for the prizes for the Meeting. He was sure everybody would agree that there were some very fine prizes and he could be certain that the Association and all those who had won them were satisfied. (hear, hear.) Finally he asked for three hearty cheers for His Excellency for being present with them that evening. These were accorded with real Falkland Islands enthusiasm.

In response His Excellency assured Mr. Greenshields and all present that the occasion had given him as much pleasure as he had found in the Sports themselves - and speaking for the Government he was certain it was perfectly satisfied. He realised that such meetings were all to infrequent and he had been discussing the matter from every standpoint with the farmers and other people and they had come to the conclusion that they should try to have a similar meeting once every three years. Such an event would give an opportunity of improving the stock - for they would certainly have to have a stock show. To have such another week in about three years' time would be a good thing for the Colony from many points of view. It was most important for one thing that they should know each other better and unless they did they could not realise the problems and difficulties which confronted them and they could not face them successfully, or at least as successfully as if they had got together.

He wished to thank the farmers particularly for bringing in their animals. At a great deal of trouble and under great difficulties they had provided the beasts for the Stock Show. He was delighted with that, he had seen many such shows in Australia and he would suggest that as they do in that Continent, an auction sale should follow after the Show.

Continuing His Excellency stressed his great pleasure at the really fine behaviour which had been shown during the week, particularly from the men from the Camp. It had been a credit to them as well as a pleasure to himself when he had seen them walking about the streets. The Commodore and His Lordship the Bishop had similarly commented on the good conduct of them all.

In a final word the Governor said that though he did not know where he might be in three years' time but wherever he was he would be as enthusiastic as any as to what happened. He thanked them very sincerely for the three hearty Falkland Islands Cheers they had given him. (loud applause.)

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Over four hundred children sat down to the special Tea given in the Town Hall on Saturday afternoon last in connection with the Colony's Centenary Celebrations. A happier and more self-possessed throng of youngsters could not be imagined. Cakes and buns and pastries were there in profusion and in spite of the deafening chatter, interspersed with snatches of popular songs, ample justice was done to them. The climax was reached when the Hon. G. Roberts and Mr. A.R. Moore, who were responsible for the arrangements, with other helpers set to work to cut up the marvellous six tier cake provided by Mr. J.F. Summers. It would have seemed that the cheers would have cracked the heavens.

During the party His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett, paid the children a visit and after mingling with them pleased them all by addressing a few remarks in which he emphasised the importance of the occasion. Three hearty cheers were given for His Excellency who then departed.

Before the party ended each child was presented with a copy of the special Medallion struck particularly for the Centenary Celebrations.

BORAH AN INTERNATIONALIST.

A Reuter message from New York states that the transformation of Senator Borah, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, from a "great isolationist" into a leading internationalist in the United States Senate, is indicated by his six point programme to end economic war, states the "Daily Telegraph."

The points are :

1. Restore the gold standard. 2. rehabilitate silver in the Orient through an international agreement. 3. reduce armaments drastically. 4. reconsider international obligations with a view to an adjustment that will be satisfactory and permanent. 5. recognise Russia. 6. readjusting the tariffs with a view to lowering the tariff walls.

Senator Borah believes that America, backed with such a programme which would be sympathetic with the popular vote of the world, would quickly regain a position of world leadership.

A Cobham Venture.

A Daily Telegraph message reveals that an attempt is to be made by Sir Alan Cobham and Squadron leader Helmore to fly to Australia non-stop by the aid of refueling during the flight. It is expected that the flight will take place in April.

These two famous airmen will be co-pilots and will be the only crew.

Arrangements are being made for three refuelling stations so that the machine will have to fly 2,500 miles between each. While the machine is being refuelled from a tanker above it will continue to fly on its course.

BACCARAT SCANDAL.

A great baccarat scandal has been brought to light in Berlin by the police in an appeal for evidence of false play in the "Club of the West". It is stated that a number of men of position have already committed suicide because they had been ruined through gambling losses at various Berlin clubs, especially at the "Club of the West."

This institution was raided by the police who carried away seven packs of cards. Gambling experts have been wracking their brains over the order wherein the cards lay and they have now come to the conclusion that five of the packs were ordered in accordance with one or two systems which gave the croupier and his supposed accomplices control over the game.

LUXURY ARTICLES UNEBUYABLE.

Thousands of luxury articles, and even some necessities could not be bought in Paris at the end of last week when a large number of shops closed as a protest against the increased taxation.

Generally speaking the food shops and cafes remained open while it was only in the centre of Paris where the protest was unanimous says a Daily Telegraph report.

The provinces very largely followed the Paris lead especially in the south and on the eve of the carnival celebrations the streets of Nice presented an appearance of utter desolation.

UNEMPLOYED GOLD RUSH.

According to a report from New York a gold rush fever reminiscent of the 1896 Klondyke stampede is sweeping through the ranks of the unemployed in the United States. 75,000 men are already engaged in placer mining operations in seven of the western States.

The Washington Mines Bureau reports that it is receiving thousands of applications for information. While the rush is not discouraged the officials emphasise that the chances of finding an eldorado are extremely remote.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN GERMANY.

A message from Neunkirchen, Germany; dense black smoke is pouring from the gas-works there where an explosion occurred two days ago.

Every building and every tree and telegraph pole for miles around is shattered and Neunkirchen itself is like a bombarded town in war time.

At the time of the explosion the enormous gasometer contained four million cubic feet of gas. Some of the gigantic beams of which it was built were hurled tremendous distances and the railway station, practically half a mile away was almost totally destroyed by falling beams.

A passing motor car was blown to pieces.

Not a window was left intact for miles around and entire blocks of buildings were pressed in like pieces of paper.

The cause of the explosion is unknown but it is suggested that a first explosion was caused by a back-fire from a motor car in the petrol plant adjoining the gasometer.

The work of digging out the dead from the collapsed houses continues actively but hundreds are still unaccounted for.

Exactly twenty-four hours after the Neunkirchen explosion a gas plant at the Hammerqu Ironworks near Raitenhall, Bavaria, blew up with terrific force shattering two gas generators and demolishing the workshops. Fortunately the explosion occurred after work had finished.

I have been instructed by my government to return to Tokio by way of Britain and the United States, not via Siberia as originally announced. I shall probably leave next week if the Assembly decides to adopt the report of the Committee of Nineteen."

Matuszka will remain in England for the best part of a fortnight before sailing for America states the Daily Telegraph.

Meanwhile the Japanese Foreign Office has indicated that it intended making suggestions in Peking and Nanking that the Chinese irregular troops in Jehol should retire and a neutral zone be set up both sides of the Great Wall.

It is stated that the idea will minimise the possibility of the Jehol operations spreading into Northern China. At the moment the Jehol situation is regarded as the most dangerous which the far east has known since the Russo-Japanese War.

SILVER-WARE FOR FALKLANDS.

The Bristol Evening Post of the 2nd of January, last reports that :-

The speaker at the Bristol Rotary Club lunch to-day was Mr. Arthur Bryant of the Tenth District.

There was on view at the luncheon the handsome piece of Bristol silver-ware which is being presented by the city to Port Stanley in connection with the Falkland Islands centenary.

Bristol Interests.

Colonel E.H. Lennard, treasurer of the presentation fund, mentioned that Rotary had an interest in it, as the silver work had been done under the supervision of Rotarian Harper.

There were three special interests for Bristol in the Falklands, for the Governor (Sir James O'Grady) was once a poor Bristol boy; its present Bishop lived and ministered in Bristol for a number of years; and now, lying in the harbour at Port Stanley, was the Great Britain - the world's first ship of iron, which was built in the port of Bristol.

THE SIMPLE LIFE.

An article in the Aberdeen Press reads as under :-

The cult of the simple life, which was once so popular (in theory) appears to be fading away, perhaps because so many people, by reason of economic reverses, have been having a little too much of the real thing.

But if any of those stalwart upholders of the simple life, the sentimental novelists without ideas, wish to practise it in earnest away from the distracting fripperies of modern civilisation, the Falkland Islands are at their disposal.

In that little Colony near the toe of South America, the art of doing without can be learned. It has no roads except within the vicinity of Port Stanley, the capital, no trams, no railways, no aircraft.

So there is nothing, or not much, to prevent a hero from finding his lost manhood while he is delving in the health restoring earth, or solacing his soul by dipping sheep.

One adjunct of our culture might seem necessary, an umbrella, for the Falklands have only about a hundred dry days in the year, but Nature bans even that infringement upon her simplicity by keeping strong winds blowing almost everlastingly. So, if the back-to-the-land novelists wish to escape the inflictions of our social system, they can live the simple life in the Falklands - and see how they like it.

BRISTOL'S GIFT TO MARK THE FALKLANDS CENTENARY.

Expression Of Goodwill.

Through the courtesy of the Governor we are able to publish the following letter received by His Excellency from the Lord Mayor of Bristol in connection with that city's warm gift to the Colony on the occasion of the Centenary of the Falklands :

The Council House,
Bristol.
2nd January, 1935.

Dear Sir James,

On behalf of a body of Bristol citizens, it is my pleasure as Lord Mayor of the city, to convey to the Colchys of which you are the Governor, greetings and congratulations upon the occasion of its Centenary Celebrations.

As a tangible expression of our goodwill, we are forwarding by insured parcels post and by the present outgoing mail, a silver Smoking Set for use at Government House, Port Stanley. This consists of a cigar box, cigarette box and a pair of lighters, all made by Bristol craftsmen in distinctive style. The inscriptions emphasise the occasion of the Centenary and also record your own Governorship of the Colony.

This Presentation Set has been subscribed to by many local bodies and societies and by many interested individuals including present day City Councillors of all parties. I hope that it will prove useful both to yourself and to your successors at Government House.

Bristol values the links that exist between herself and the Empire's most southern Colony. The remains of a famous Bristol-built ship lie in Port Stanley Harbour and both the Lord Bishop of the Falklands and yourself as Governor and Commander-in-Chief have most intimate connections with Bristol. The personal greetings which this letter conveys to yourself extend also to the Lord Bishop whom so many Bristolians still remember with great affection.

Friday, 24th February, 1933.

I conclude with the hope that the Centenary Celebrations of next month will be fortunate and happy and with the assurance that the small commemorative gift that we are sending expresses the real interest and goodwill of the many citizens of Bristol concerned with it.

I am, dear Sir James,

Yours sincerely,

sd. Thos. J. Woso,
Lord Mayor.

On each of the gift boxes the Arms of Bristol City and the Falklands appear in enamel and the City Arms are also engraved on each of the swing lighters. Under the hall mark of each article is stamped "Bristol Silverware".

A distinctive feature of the gifts is the representation of the Dolphin which plays a prominent part in the romantic history of the City. The feet of each box are dolphins modelled in silver while the swing lighters have been carved in the form of dolphins by one of the city's oldest craftsmen. Engraved on the front of each of the boxes is the inscription :

"Presented by Bristol Citizens to Government House, Port Stanley, on the occasion of the Falkland Islands Centenary Celebrations, 1933, during the Governorship of Sir
James O'Grady, K.C.M.G., born in Bristol in 1866, a member of the Bristol Council 1897 - 1899."

The story of the Dolphin, His Excellency explained to a representative of the "Penguin" yesterday, goes back to the days of the Tudors when Edward Colston, one of the old merchant venturers from the City of Bristol, with his own fleet of sailing ship, roamed the seas. Coming home from one of his voyages the vessel on which he happened to be on board struck a rock and knocked a hole in her bottom. The old man was deeply religious and he went down on his hands and knees and prayed for a miracle. The miracle happened for a dolphin stuck its head in the hole and plugged the leak so enabling the ship to get back to Bristol. When they beached her they found the remains of the dolphin firmly fixed where the rock had penetrated the hull.

So rose into being the Dolphin Society the dinners of which, pre-war, were the second greatest functions in the Kingdom from the political point of view. They were second to the Guild Hall Dinners where the Prime Minister and other statesmen declared their policy and the Ministers used to visit the Dolphin Society's dinner to speak.

Edward Colston, like many other merchant venturers of his days, was a great benefactor to the city of Bristol. In addition to the Dolphin Society he founded the Colston School - a famous school in the city - where the boys still wear a long robe, yellow stockings, brogue shoes and breeches while, with other merchant venturers he also founded the Red Maids School where the girls still walk about in procession dressed in red petticoats, brogue boots or shoes with a red cape and little Mother Hubbard straw hats.

- o -

We understand that His Excellency has the intention of making a return gift to be fashioned if possible, in the form of a suitable article such as a cigarette case out of wood from the "Great Britain", for use in the Lord Mayor's Parlour in the Council Hall at Bristol.

Arrangements are being made for the Smoking Set to be placed on view to the Public in Stanley Museum

When he arrived at the station he found on the platform three old men with long beards. At first he thought they were strangers, but on closer inspection found they were indeed his brothers, and greeted them kindly. "But why, oh why, ae ye all grown sich whiskers?" he asked. FIGHTING AT JEHOL.

Chinese Withdrawing.

It is understood that the Japanese commander in charge of the forces fronting the Chinese at Jehol has launched an attack in which tanks and aircraft are participating.

The attack follows three days of minor fighting near the boundary.

In face of this great assault the Chinese have withdrawn their outlying detachments in Nanling- Peipiao district, and are forming a strong line at Chaoyang and along the hills over-looking the valley over which the Japanese must pass to continue the offensive. Japan has assured the Powers that she will do everything possible to prevent any fighting in Jehol spreading south of the Great Wall into China proper, says the "Daily Telegraph" Tokio correspondent.

Meanwhile the League of Nations at a special assembly which is being called, have to confront a task which calls for the most fateful decision in its history, namely, the voting on the Committee of Nineteen's Report.

Now Practically Certain.

A Capetown message states that a National Government for South Africa is now practically certain to be formed.

As a result of Thursday's conversations between the representatives of the Nationalist and South African parties an agreement has been reached on all the main grounds, reports the Daily Telegraph, and only a few minor details remain for settlement.

In a special interview on Thursday afternoon, General Smuts said "South Africa has now an opportunity of opening a completely new era in her history. We submit the proposals to our party caucuses to-morrow. It is regarded as certain that they will be accepted. If the caucus accepts Hertzog's statement it is regarded as inevitable that Malan Egjansen, the Minister of Native Affairs, and A.P. Fourie, the Minister for Mines, will tender their resignations. A General Election is practically certain in May.

A GREAT BLIZZARD.

No Abatement.

According to a message from London there appears to be no promise of an abatement of the blizzard which swept over the British Isles on Friday. It is the most severe that has been experienced during the past fifty years.

The forecast for Sunday was milder, with occasional rain. There is a new danger in a thaw which might result in heavy floods. In its trail the storm, which in Wales and in the north of England, has been arctic in intensity, has left isolated villages, broken communications, abandoned bus and tram services, a train submerged in a drift and lost cattle.

Devastation has been widespread. Indicative of this is the fact that the damage to the telephone system is the most extensive in living memory, states the Sunday Times.

Over fifty per cent of the lines between London and Wales and the west of England are out of order. The telephones and telegraph services to the south-west of Wales have completely failed.

Speaking at Birmingham on Saturday, Mr. Neville Chamberlain said Britain cannot return to the Gold Standard until she is satisfied that it will work.

"As long as we have not settled the question of inter-Governmental obligations there must remain anxiety and uncertainty which will make it impossible for the Gold Standard to function properly."

CAPETOWN COALITION.

A Reuter telegram from Capetown announces that both the Nationalist and South African parties have accepted the agreement for a coalition between the Premier, Hertzog, and the leader of the opposition, General Smuts.

The agreement was endorsed on Friday morning by the "Big Four", namely - Hertzog, Smuts, Horenga and Duncan.

The proposal is for the Premier to have six seats in the Cabinet including one for Labour, and Smuts six including one without portfolio.

When General Smuts put this agreement before the South African party caucus on Friday it was unanimously accepted but there was considerable opposition when the Nationalist party met. It was finally adopted, however, by 42 votes against 28.

After pointing out that the step for the coalition had been taken solely on Hertzog's responsibility, the Minister for the Interior, Malan, stated on Friday night that he would abide by the decision not because he approved of it, or ever would, but simply because it was an accomplished fact. It had been forced on the Nationalist party and he accepted it under protest.

THE MANCHUKUO SITUATION.

According to a message from Peking no general offensive has yet been launched.

Some 3,500 Japanese and 5,000 Manchukuo troops, however, have been engaged in occasional clashes but no concentrated action has begun.

The Chinese claim that General Tung-Fu-Ting's troops counter attacked the Japanese at Peipiao on Friday and gained ground as well as holding their position to the south of Peipiao against attacks by armoured cars and artillery. The Japanese used Mongol troops as an advance guard and attempted to outflank Chaoyang but were repulsed.

Occasional clashes are reported to be continuing in the vicinity of the Chaoyang-Peipiao district wherein the Chinese claim 100 prisoners.

Kidnapping reports and rumours are again causing consternation and alarm in many parts of the United States.

A 60,000 dollar ransom is being demanded by bandits who kidnapped Charles Boettcher, the Denver millionaire, from under the very eyes of his wife.

Boettcher was confronted by two men when he and his wife were walking near their home. He was attacked and thrown into a car. As the bandits drove off, almost before Mrs. Boettcher had realized what had happened they threw a piece of paper at her where-on was written the amount of the ransom. She is prepared to pay the full sum demanded.

BLIZZARD STILL RAGING.

According to a message from London on Sunday the blizzard is still raging in Yorkshire. In Wales and the west of England where there is a partial thaw large tracts of land are in danger of serious flooding.

The roads north and west of a line from the Wash to Salisbury are impassable and flooding is very extensive in Wiltshire, Gloucestershire and Berkshire; the water in some districts being several feet deep.

CHAOYANG BURNING.

Japanese Attack.

A Reuter message from Peking announces that the Chinese have evacuated Chaoyang leaving the city burning, Japanese aeroplanes loaded with incendiary bombs having started a number of fires.

Four Chinese brigades are now holding what is claimed to be a strong line ten miles west of Chaoyang, sixty miles in length which 30,000 Japanese forces apart from Manchukuo troops are attacking.

Kailu is also abandoned, Japanese bombing having produced a terrific effect, obliterating the radio station, the telegraph and post office. There are no regular Chinese troops in this region where volunteers are bearing the brunt of the Japanese attack. It is unlikely that the Japanese will meet the Chinese regulars until they reach Chihfeng, 150 miles distant.

The real test awaits China at Chihfeng and Lingyuan but till these places are reached the Japanese advance is being made as costly as possible.

Unless Marshall Chang's and General Teng's regulars at these places offer more resistance than the Japanese have so far encountered the main operations ought to be completed within a few days.

U.S. BANKING SITUATION.

The closing of the banks in Maryland for three days to stop the run in Baltimore by small depositors who withdrew thirteen million dollars in the week, coming after the closing of the Michigan banks for eight days, has led to drastic legislation in Washington giving the Government control of the banks.

The bankers and officials in various States, says the Daily Telegraph correspondent, are conferring with the authorities regarding the situation which is described by Mr. Macfadden, a member of the House Banking Committee, as "on the brink of an economic and financial chaos."

Such a declaration of impending disaster, according to the other members of the Banking Committee, is unwarranted by the facts.

Under the emergency powers given to the controller of currency the President is enabled to exercise the same authority on the national banks as held by the State officials in respect of State banks.

The Baltimore Stock Exchange closed on Saturday until further notice, the shops remained open and the newspapers are urging the public to "take it easy."

THE BEGINNING OF THE CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS.

EXPEDITION TO PORT LOUIS.

His Excellency Lays Wreath On

Matthew Brisbane's Grave.

A glorious day favoured the expedition to Port Louis on Sunday when the initial recognition of the Falklands Centenary was observed with the paying of a tribute to the memory of Matthew Brisbane, Britain's first appointed Governor of the Islands.

Among those on board the Lafonia which made the trip were, His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Chairman of the Centenary Committee) and the following members of the Committee - The Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett, the Hon. J. Innes Moir, the Hon. G. Roberts, the Hon. L.W.H. Young and Messrs. B. Newing and A.I. Fleuret (Joint Hon. Secretaries) with Mr. W. Barlas (representing the Dependencies.)

The Lafonia, bedecked with flags and making her departure from the Company's East Jetty to the accompaniment of the firing of maroons, carried 124 people. She steamed out through the Narrows, round the point to cruise placidly along Berkeley Sound, the smooth water disturbed only by the ripple of her advancing bow. As the expedition passed Hog Island the settlement could be easily seen with the Red Ensign aloft and the inhabitants, some twenty-six in number, moving like mere specks across the camp to the beach. More maroons were fired in salute as the ship anchored off shore and two large skows, specially brought for the purpose, were quickly unshipped to take the passengers to land, while the hosts of the day, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robson and Mr. and Mrs. George Robson, came on board to meet His Excellency and to join the official party at lunch.

The Heritage Of The Falkland Islands.

After lunch the Governor, accompanied by Mr. J. Robson and Mr. G. Robson with the members of the Committee and Mr. Barlas, proceeded to the hollow in which lay the old cemetery. Here, standing by the grave of Matthew Brisbane with some 160 people gathered about the rim of the hill, His Excellency said the following touching and inspiring words :

"In the Old Settlement of Port Louis, just a hundred years ago all but some seven months, Matthew Brisbane was brutally done to death by Gauchos and Indians, and this wreath I hold is being laid upon his grave in the name of the population of the Colony. In performing this solemn rite I feel myself, as Governor, greatly privileged to have to do this on your behalf and in your name.

"Before me at this ceremony I see boys and girls as well as the older people of the community. I beseech every one of you to read up and try always to bear in mind the work of the pioneers, those forefathers of ours, who laid the foundations of that Political Entity known as the British Empire.

"Each in his own way and by his own work, simple, honest and God-fearing men, laid the foundation of that Empire, and among them in this isolated Outpost, stands the name of Matthew Brisbane. Let us really treasure his memory and the memory of the men who worked under him.

"In the days that are coming our boys will venture forth in the world. Matthew Brisbane and the men of his type have left them the heritage of the Falkland Islands that they too may leave to their children after their life's adventure, trials, difficulties and troubles, a greater heritage than they themselves received in their time.

"I think there is a greater future even than that already experienced before the Falkland Islands. But I wish to emphasise how important it is that we should work together as a solid body, venturing forth and carrying on in the spirit begun by those forefathers, like Matthew Brisbane on whose grave I lay this wreath in your name and the name of the Colony."

The wreath, a beautiful tribute made by Mr. C.A. Parkinson (Government House Gardener) was composed of Schizanthi and Madonna Lilies on a groundwork of Veronica, and was placed against the tombstone upon which was the inscription :

"To the memory of Mr. Matthew Brisbane
who was barbarously murdered on the 26th August 1833.

In the command of the Beaufoy Cutter he was the zealous and able companion of Capt. James Weddell during his enterprising voyage to beyond the 74th degree
of South Latitude in February 1823.

"His remains were removed to this spot by the Erebus and Terror on the 25th August 1842.

"This tombstone was renewed by Governor
Allardyce C.M.G., 1908."

At the conclusion of this impressive little ceremony the Governor and the official party retired to enjoy the kind hospitality of their hosts and to meet Mr. & Mrs. J. Smith and Mr. & Mrs. A. Smith of Johnson's Harbour in the old Barrack House with its thick stone walls and musket loop-holes still visible.

The large throng of people at the graveside dispersed quietly to make the most of the ideal pic-nic conditions and to make a tour of the Settlement. The ruins of the old French fort were visited and after passing the remains of the store of William Dickson, one of those whose lives were lost in the massacre, a walk down to the beach revealed the massive stone shell that once was Antonita's canteen. Standing by the threshold one's imagination went back to that ominous day of the 26th August, 1833, when five Indian convicts and three Gauchos led by Antonio Rivero, hatched within those walls their murderous plot. Up the hill were the foundations of Mr. Brisbane's once spacious house; the door by which they entered and the spot where he fell. The assassins accounted for five victims, plundered and looted and made off up-country with their booty while the remaining inhabitants fled to Hog Island for safety.

It was difficult to associate so fiendish an action with Sunday's peaceful scene for everyone felt happy and content and made the homeward journey with the pleasant recollection of a memorable visit. A final word of appreciation must be expressed to the Hon. L.W.H. Young (Manager of the Falkland Islands Company) and Captain D.W. Roberts of the Lafonia for the excellence of the arrangements and the way they were carried out. (Penguin, Wednesday, 11th January, 1933.)

THE DEAN & MRS. BRANDON MEMORIAL FUND.

We understand that the promises of the amount to be paid by the date of the Centenary amounts to about £200, and in order that none may be disappointed who wish to subscribe the Fund will remain open for about two years. Many who cannot subscribe now may desire to do so later.

The money at present about to be received will be used to commence the erection and gradually the work will be finished as the late subscribers contribute. It is hoped to complete the erection of the Clergy and Choir Stalls in the Cathedral Chancel in the name of the former Dean and his wife.

The Dean desires that an opportunity may be given for local labour and has sought for tenders within the Colony, the decision however, is in the hands of a Body and consultation must take place before this can be decided. The Dean will be pleased to receive the amounts promised at some early date. (Penguin, Thursday 26th January, 1933.)

A CENTENARY MEMENTO.

Falkland Islands Brochure.

Historical & Descriptive.

We have been favoured with an advance copy of a Brochure containing a notice, historical and descriptive of the Falkland Islands prepared by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary), on the occasion of the Centenary of the Colony.

Attractive in appearance and appealing in its simplicity this informative pen-sketch has the added distinction of being completely produced in the Falklands except for the cover which, though designed locally, came from elsewhere. The latter is particularly impelling because of its bold but modest lines on a suitably coloured ground bordered in red and black, while the arrangement of the context harmonises admirably with the general high tone of the production.

The actual printing is being carried out at the Government Printing Office and Mr. C.G. Allan, the Government Printer, is to be warmly congratulated on issuing so fine an example of the printer's art - from the first page to the last the arrangement of the letterpress and the impression typify the care and painstaking efficiency characteristic of Mr. Allan's work.

Copies of this most interesting and valuable memento are in the course of preparation and will be placed on sale to the general public shortly at the price of one shilling. (Penguin, Tuesday, 17th January, 1933.)

---o---o---

THE MEDALLIONS.

We are able to announce that the Centenary Medallions which arrived by the s.s. Lafonia last week are now obtainable at the Colonial Secretary's Office and, by the kindness of the Hon. L.W.H. Young, at the Falkland Islands Company's West Store, at the price of 1/3d each in suitable cardboard boxes, and 2/6d each in attractive leatherette cases.

Made of light tone bronze and struck at the Royal Mint, the Medallion bears an effigy of His Majesty the King on the obverse side, and on the reverse side the Arms of the Colony with the words "Falkland Islands Centenary 1833 - 1933" engraved round it.

Copies of the mementos are to be distributed to all the Children of the Colony who are present at the Children's Tea arranged under the auspices of the Centenary Committee and being held in the Town Hall on Saturday, the 18th instant. Copies of the medallion in the leatherette cases will be similarly presented to all the Old People attending the Old People's Dinner on Thursday of Centenary Week. (Penguin, 1st February, 1933.)

HOCF BEATS.

On being asked to purchase one of the new Sports Programmes which have just arrived from England it suddenly dawned upon me that the Race Meeting is almost on us. Every Islander should possess one of these very creditable little booklets at least, it only costs 6d.

After perusing its pages I thought it was about time I sent along some turf information regarding the training and form of some of the horses in and around Stanley.

Firstly, our curiosity is centred on the latest arrival from the Magallanes race course, namely "Bambina" a mare recently imported by Mr. Peter Coutts of Goose Green. She comes with a good reputation but everybody was sorry to see her limping on arrival, due to her bucking while in the sling which resulted in a few cuts and bruises.

However, I am glad to learn that she is now none the worse for her high kicking and appears to be very much at home. Good luck to her new owner.

"My Lord", owned by Mike McCarthy came in to Stanley a short while ago with his stable companions "Trenador" and "Sally." The two former are not looking as well as we have seen them but probably the trip in the cold weather has made them look dull. "Sally" looks very well.

We are really pleased to see Bill Aldridge riding his mare "Blossom" which was unable to run last year owing to lameness, and feel sure she will do her best to uphold the prestige of the Stanley crowd. She, together with Tom Paice's recent importation from Hill Cove are the only Falkland Islands Breds to represent us in here.

Many people witnessed the "arrest" of Tom's horse last week but on inquiry it was found he had only strayed on to somebody else's ground. At the same time Bos's two were impounded, one of them, it will be remembered was made "famous" in these pages last year by its "stolen" trip to Long Island.

Bus Aldridge's "Espana" is very fit and has many admirers who will show their appreciation at the Tote. "Maggie" is being kept at Goose Green under the care of Findlay Morrison who will ride her during the Meeting. She is reported to be very much fitter than ever before. She is well worth keeping an eye on.

"Mr. Jim" it is rumoured, has changed hands and from what we hear his new owner hopes to follow in his father's footsteps and "Phil" the Cup. Bob Hutchinson is seen out most evenings with "Monte" who looks himself at his very best and will, no doubt, give a good account of himself against his rivals from the West.

Bob is also exercising "Casino", owned by Jim Binnie of Chartres. This pretty horse, it will be remembered won all he could two years ago and was given a well deserved ovation on the Stanley course for his efforts.

Another early trainer whom I see when going out to cut my "turf" most mornings is Mansell Hardy riding his "Ramona" on which he places high hopes of getting among the firsts.

It is well that we have so many new arrivals for this Meeting because one misses the old familiar "Beauty", "Klondyke", "Flushy", "Joan", "Arrogan" and "Bluebell". The last-named we hear, now has a foal which will, most likely, be heard of in years to come. "Dunmore", like myself, seems chiefly to be interested in removing turf.

The Hon. Secretary of the Stanley Sports Association tells me he has already received a number of entries for the Governor's Cup, including several from the West.

This is very encouraging and, in view of the fact that the Sweepstake on the Governor's Cup is to be drawn some days before the race takes place, that there are to be two firsts, seconds and thirds as well as starters, it will be as well to ask yourselves "Have I bought a ticket yet?"

Owing to several books of tickets on the sweepstake not having been returned from the Camp, the time of closing the Sweep on the Governor's Cup has been extended to Saturday, 11th February.

The following entries have been received for the Governor's Cup : "Teresina", "King of Clubs", "Rose Marie", "Nini II", "Mah Jong", "Almada", "Mr. Jim", "Tronador", "My Lord", "Maggie", "Bambina", and "España".

We are sorry to learn that "Rubicon" which had been entered from the West by John Moaskill, has now been cancelled. "Bambina" is quickly recovering from her lameness and stiffness and her trainer expects her to be in good form for the races.

"España", it is rumoured, is slightly lame, and as great things are expected of him this year we sincerely hope he will quickly recover.

"Rose Marie", "Nini II", "Mah Jong", and "Almada" are all being exercised and reports from the "stables" state that they are all doing good work.

We are told too that "Mr. Jim" is settling down to work in a satisfactory manner. "Tronador" and "My Lord" are also undergoing training. The former is up to his usual form and the latter is doing some sterling work.

There seems to be some mystery concerning "Maggie's" progress in training. The "King" (her owner) is keeping things dark, but a certain visitor to Stanley who has recently seen her trainer has offered to bet a "bottle o' pickles" that she will be among the first three to pass the winning post. We hand the information on for what it is worth.

With regard to the Association's Dance in the Town Hall on Thursday, 16th February, the public is requested to take note of the fact that the number of persons admitted to the Hall will be strictly limited.

The Race Course will be open on Sunday, 12th February, from 2.30 to 5.30 p.m., and on Monday, 13th February, from 5.0 to 7.0 p.m.. All horses must be entered before they will be permitted to run on the Course.

The Starting Gates will be used on Monday, 13th February, and the official starters are kindly requested to be on the Course for the purpose of testing the gates and becoming acquainted with their working.

B.B.C.'S. BEST WISHES.

During Saturday evening's programme from Daventry, England, the British Broadcasting Corporation sent their best wishes to the People of the Falkland Islands on the occasion of the celebration of the Centenary of the Colony.

It will not be necessary to state how much we appreciate this kind thought of the B.B.C. whose programmes are relayed to our local listeners whenever the weather conditions permit, thereby bridging to some degree the expanse of the ocean which divides us from the Motherland. (Penguin - Tuesday 14th February, 1933.)

HIS MAJESTY'S MESSAGE TO THE COLONY.

His Excellency the Governor has received through the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Colonies the following Gracious Message from His Majesty the King on the occasion of the celebration of the Centenary of the Colony :

"I have been greatly interested to hear of the coming Centenary Celebrations in the Falkland Islands, and I take the opportunity of requesting you to convey to the people of the Colony my earnest good wishes for their happiness and welfare. I shall always follow with affectionate solicitude the fortunes of a Colony whose people, though separated from the Mother Country by wide tracts of ocean are nevertheless bound to it by the closest ties of kinship and loyalty.
George R.I.."

His Excellency's Reply.

In reply to His Majesty's Gracious Message His Excellency the Governor has caused the following loyal telegram of gratitude to be despatched to the Secretary of State for the Colonies :

"Request that you will cause to be submitted to the King the heartfelt thanks of the people of the Colony for His Majesty's most gracious message. This manifestation of His Majesty's personal interest in their well-being stimulates their devotion to the throne, confirms their fellowship with the Empire as one whole and gives them encouragement in the daily round."

FIRST TRIP TO STANLEY

FOR TWENTY YEARS.

Among the many visitors from the West to Stanley for the Centenary Celebrations are two people who have not been to the Port since 1913. They are Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Betts of the well-known and respected family which has been so intimately connected with Pebble Island for many years, Mr. Betts himself, having managed the farm on behalf of Messrs. Dean Brothers before his recent retirement.

Their many friends will doubtless give them a hearty and well earned welcome while everybody will be interested to know of their holiday in the Capital particularly on so auspicious an occasion. (Penguin - Thursday, 9th February, 1933.)

OVER 500 CAMP VISITORS.

Since the beginning of last week the preparations in Stanley for the Centenary have been intense and with the arrival of the Lafonia from the West on Friday last as she fired her salute on coming through the Narrows one felt, that really at last, the Celebrations had begun.

Ross Road has assumed an unusual atmosphere of fete with its decorations of bunting while the illuminations of the Government Jetty and those of the Town Hall and Power Station have arrested the attention of all. The Jetty, it might be added, is an exceptionally fascinating sight after night-fall.

During the past few days the Lafonia and the Fleurus have conveyed from the West and East Camp stations over three hundred people while almost as many more have ridden in, making the total number of visitors from all over the Islands more than 500. It is no wonder that with this large influx and as a result of the recent exceptionally dry weather an official notice has been published asking the public to economise as much as possible with the water obtained from the town mains.

In addition H.M.S. Durban, the flag-ship of Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E., arrived Friday morning being preceded a few hours by the R.R.S. Discovery II under the command of Captain W. Carey.

The n.v. Reina del Pacifico called yesterday and though her stay was only over the Sunday her tourists augmented considerably the throng of visitors for the day. Her passengers for the Colony included His Lordship the Bishop of the Falkland Islands, the Right Reverend Norman de Jersey, and Mr. T.C. Norris, the Judge for the Stock Show, while among those in transit were Sir Arthur and Lady du Cros, Lord David Crichton Stuart and Sir William Morris. (Penguin - Monday, 13th February, 1933.)

FIVE GENERATIONS IN STANLEY

FOR THE CENTENARY.

The Celebration of the Centenary has been the means of bringing together in Stanley five generations of one family, namely, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Aitkin, aged 83 and 81 respectively, Mrs. D. Mcaskill, Mrs. J. Biggs of the Murrell, Mrs. J. Perry of Teal Inlet and Master Jim. C. Perry, aged 10 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Aitkin who celebrated the Diamond Wedding in June last both came to the Islands as young people, married and had seven daughters and six sons. None of the sons married but all the seven daughters did so. Six daughters and two sons survive while there are 46, grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one, Master Jim, great-great-grandchild.

Our heartiest congratulations go out to Mr. and Mrs. Aitkin and their happy family on so auspicious a reunion. Both Mr. and Mrs. Aitkin in spite of their advancing years are in excellent health and may they long continue so to be. (Penguin - Wednesday, 15th February 1933.)

THE CENTENARY REVIEW.

Sapper's Hill Gun Fires Salute.

Never before has so large a throng assembled on Government Paddock to witness so impressive a Parade as when yesterday, the Centenary Week of Celebrations began officially with a Review of a detachment from H.M.S. Durban and the Defence Force by His Excellency the Governor. The weather was ideal.

As His Excellency took up his position at the Base on the north side of the Parade Ground the six inch gun mounted on Sapper's Hill and manipulated by a Naval gun team, fired a shot across the Harbour in Salute - the first since it was placed in position there during the war. H.M.S. Durban then replied with a salvo of seventeen guns and as the echoes of the reports died away the Royal Marines Band struck up "God Save the King."

The Governor, accompanied by Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E., and the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) with attendant officers, then inspected the Parade which subsequently marched past the Base while His Excellency took the Salute.

In the enclosure with His Excellency were Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E., the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett and Mrs. Halkett, Major the Hon. J. Innes Moir and Mrs. Moir, the Hon. G. Roberts and Mrs. Roberts, the Hon. G.J. Felton and Mrs. Felton, the Hon. L.W.H. Young, the Very Reverend the Dean and Mrs. Lumsdale, Captain W. Carey and Mr. Johns (Chief Scientist) of R.R.S. Discovery II and Mr. T.C. Norris.

The Review Order.

9.45 a.m.. Troops drawn up in line at open order.
 9.50 His Excellency the Governor arrived at the Saluting Base.
 Gun Salute, salute from H.M.S. Durban and Royal Salute.
 Inspection of Troops.
 His Excellency returned to the Saluting Base. Band moved to the right of line and faced east.

HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP'S

CENTENARY MOTTO.

Will Direct Thy Path."

Following the impressive Review held in Government Paddock a Solemn Commemoration Service took place in the Cathedral Church of Christ at 10.30 yesterday morning when His Lordship the Bishop, who had only arrived in the Colony but an hour or so earlier, gave the address while the Very Reverend the Dean, assisted by the Rev. C.J. Baines, conducted the service.

His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E., and the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. attended with members of the Executive and Legislative Councils and their wives. There were also present representatives of the public bodies and organisations in the Islands besides a small detachment from H.M.S. Durban and the Defence Force with a number of the public including visitors from the Reina del Pacifico.

East And West Have Come Together.

His Lordship the Bishop took as his text "But seek Ye First the Kingdom of God and all His Righteousness and all these things will be added unto you." (6th Matthew, 33rd verse.)

"We are assembled here," the Bishop said, "at the commencement of a very memorable week. East and West have come together in one place. We have representatives here of the Royal Navy, the Research Ship Discovery II, the Islands Forces, Girl Guides, Boy Scouts and distinguished visitors from the Reina del Pacifico just passing through. And here we are assembled together with His Excellency the Governor, the Colonial Secretary and members of the Councils - Why are we collected in this Church to-day? It is to commemorate the Centenary of the Foundation of a British Colony in these Islands. But there we might stop. What more need we say: than the "Centenary of a British Colony?" What has happened during that hundred years? If a cinematographic picture could produce all the details of those years I wonder what kind of an impression it would leave on us? I take it we should be both pleased and grieved."

The Bishop then spoke of the long line of men who had done so much for the British Empire and cited the association of Lord Nelson with the Islands, the magnificent work of Bishop Sterling and the pioneering endeavours of the farmers whose names are household words in the great sheep lands on the Coast. Some of them had lost everything but, British-like, they rose again. What did it mean? People from the colder climates had far greater characters than those from the tropics; the rigours of the cold built up character and went to make Life.

In spite of all our failings and short-comings, and "His Lordship added, "there are many in these Islands let me tell you, we should pray that we may follow in the lead of those who have gone before. We are here to-day at a Service of Thanksgiving in the most southerly Cathedral in the world. I want, for a moment, to draw your attention to an article in the 'Times' for an appeal to which the collection to-day will be devoted; it is to unify this Cathedral in the name of Dean Brandon who, with Canon Blount, went out to declare the Gospel in these Islands. This service as the first Commemoration Service is just an alliteration of the text I gave you at the beginning of this address and in your endeavours to serve the King and the King of Kings I leave you this motto - 'In all thy way acknowledge Him and He will direct thy path.'"

SIR PHILIP CUNLIFFE-LISTER'S MESSAGE.

The B.B.C. Broadcast Talks.

Splendid Reception.

Conditions could hardly have been more favourable for the reception of the special Talks by the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister G.B.E., P.C., M.C., Secretary of State for The Colonies and the Hon. George Bonner O.B.E., arranged to be broadcast over the Empire Service by the B.B.C. on Monday evening in connection with the Colony's Centenary Celebrations.

A thrill as never experienced before must have passed through the hearts of all local listeners as they heard distinctly the speakers. Only very occasionally were the words slightly distorted by fading and just in one place were they confused by a slight crackle.

A word of congratulation is due to the Stanley Studio which relayed the messages to individual loudspeakers and made possible so splendid a reception of these memorable words transmitted through an excellent Empire Service.

At 7.30 p.m. the announcer's voice was heard to say : "London calling the West African Zone and especially the Falkland Islands. During this week the Falkland Islands are celebrating the Centenary of the Colony and it is our privilege to welcome to the Studio to-night, the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, on the occasion of the Centenary of the Colony, followed by Mr. George Bonner O.B.E., a member of the Executive Council and Chairman of the Falkland Islands Sheep Owners' Association who will speak."

"The Empire Listening In."

Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister said : "The occasion on which I am speaking to-night - the Centenary of the establishment of a British Settlement in the Falkland Islands - is a memorable one and made more memorable by the message sent by His Majesty the King.

"It is the first time that I have been able to avail myself of this new and wonderful service which can be heard all over the Empire and it will, I feel confident, draw closer the ties which bind us together.

"I would like to begin by offering the people of the Falkland Islands very hearty congratulations on their achievement in that Centenary of historical establishment and in the past four years, more particularly in the town of Stanley; congratulations to all and to the Governor, Sir James O'Grady, sincere felicitations on the success of the celebrations and a prosperous future.

"Speaking to you in the Falkland Islands, thousands of people in other parts of the Empire are listening-in and many are trying to picture to themselves who you are - the people to whom I am speaking.

"I am speaking from a city with eight million inhabitants, from a crowded country carrying five hundred people to a square mile, to remote islands with scarcely a single person to every two square miles; a place of wide solitude, scanty pastures, bare and barren in fields. These vigorous conditions have bred a hardy stock on which a sound physical and sturdy character, loyal and law-abiding, deeply attached to the British Constitution and His Majesty, has been built.

"Desire The Right."

"The history of the Colony is bound up with Maritime conditions. The Islands were discovered more than three hundred years ago by Captain Davis in the ship "Desire" from which the Colony takes its Motto - 'Desire The Right.'

"More recently the Colony has been made conspicuous through the victory of Admiral Sturdee's Squadron in 1914 and through the valuable contribution of Mrs. Felton and her maid who kept watch and gave help to the British Squadron with the first warning of the enemy's approach.

"The little capital of the Islands is now the scene of a good gathering - perhaps the most numerous ever assembled there - appropriate with the Navy represented as it is by H.M.S. Durban and other vessels including R.R.S. Discovery II, the first British ship designed for wide research in the Southern Seas, representative of British Science and Enterprise.

"I am afraid my allotted time is now spent and I am happy to make way to my friend and yours, Mr. George Bonner O.B.E., a leading member of the Falkland Islands community who will address you.

"The Hon. George Bonner O.B.E."

The Hon. George Bonner then spoke through the microphone -
"Your Excellency Sir James O'Grady, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Falkland Islands, Your Lordship the Bishop, and priests of all other denominations; Executive and Legislative Members of Councils; H.M.S. Durban, the Commodore, Officers and Men; the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's Reina del Pacifico, captain, officers, men and passengers; and all the people living in the Falkland Islands and Dependencies and our good friends on the R.R.S. Discovery II - I have the honour to follow the Right Honourable Sir Philip Cunliffe-Lister, His Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies, in sending hearty congratulations from all friends and relatives living here on your celebration of the Centenary this week in Stanley, and an auspicious future for the Colony, the Islands and Dependencies, and I hope you will have good weather during the festivities.

"The Falkland Islanders here celebrated the occasion this evening with a dinner at the Royal Empire Society with Admiral Sir Richard Phillimore in the chair, at which I had the honour of giving an address on the Islands with the aid of lantern slides. There was a big attendance of Islanders and friends and I think they enjoyed the evening. I explained the programme for the week sufficiently, I hope, for the visitors to understand something about it and I showed them copies of the Centenary stamps and said that they could be obtained from the Postmaster for two pounds a complete set plus postage when they would receive them by return; I am sure they are a great success.

"I do hope the Livestock Show will also be a great success. It is quite an innovation.

"Proud To Be A Falkland Islander."

"My wife and I are extremely sorry we could not get out for this special occasion but as you know our interests are with you all in the Islands and I hope soon to be paying you a visit.

"The Islanders have many things to be thankful for. They are better off than some countries in their present condition. I refer to the great whaling industry which has not yet recovered its usual prosperity. The woollen trade is gradually recovering to more normal conditions and will, we all hope, soon be able to pay us a price for our wool which will cover the cost of production.

"I am very proud to be a Falkland Islander and appreciate the honour bestowed on me to speak direct through the microphone which, through the advance of science and thanks to the B.B.C., make us feel we are no longer isolated from the Mother Country but closely established in all our doings.

"May you have a successful and prosperous year and a happy time during the Centenary Celebrations.

"God bless you and my love to my children and grandchildren."

THE STOCK SHOW.

Port Howard Takes Both Championships.

The Stock Show held at the Quarantine Station on Monday turned out to be even more successful than anticipated. There was a very encouraging number of entries while the Show itself was well supported by the public.

During the judging of the Champion Ram and Ewe, about 11.0 o'clock, His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., arrived and stayed a considerable time, taking a great interest in the exhibits.

Pens had been fitted for the sheep exhibits inside the main paddock where the parade of riding horses also took place. The cattle exhibits were on view in one of the smaller enclosures while the cart horse parade was held on the track outside the main entrance.

Conditions.

As was to be expected the sheep commanded the largest proportion of the classes and there was a fair representation from both the East and West Falklands. The conditions imposed for the entry of the sheep included that -

"the animal be shorn in the wool with the exception of mutton sheep. All sheep to be grass fed (i.e. not fed by hand) and not to have been fed on tussock grass later than three months previous to the date of the Show. Such artificial feeding would only be allowed as might be necessary on the voyage into Stanley and while in Stanley immediately prior to the Show."

The largest number of awards went to Port Howard Station (J. Waldron Ltd.) of which Mr. R.C. Bole Evans is the manager. This Station also carried off the prizes for the Champion Ram and Ewe.

It was stipulated that the riding horses should be Falkland Islands bred, saddled with Falkland Islands gear while the Cattle Class was for Dairy cows with calf at foot. In judging the riding horses points were awarded on the basis of 75 % for the horse and 25 % for the gear. The winner of the last named class was Mr. R. Hutchinson who, it is interesting to note, entered a horse he had bought only the previous evening from Pebble Island Station.

In these sections the judges found good quality animals but had no difficulty in assessing the points.

The Judges.

The judges were : Sheep - Mr. Tom C. Norris of Buenos Aires and lately General Manager of the Argentine Southern Land Company who visited the Colony by invitation specially for the purpose; Horses - Mr. T.C. Norris and Mr. J. Robertson; Cattle - Mr. G.M. Goddard and Mr. J. Morton.

Mr. T. Norris Interviewed.

In an interview Mr. T. Norris, the judge of the Sheep Sections said :

"I think the winning sheep extremely good. A very nice type of a commercial class of animal, that is to say, with a good frame, heavy fleece of high class wool. A very compact sheep, deep, broad and shapely with a masculine appearance about him.

"The wool is of medium strength, well marked and nice feel. Altogether he is a credit to the establishment where he was bred.

"The Champion ewe is a similar type of sheep, also compact and broad, standing squarely, very well covered with a heavy fleece of nice feel.

"In both sheep the charm was the way the wool opened. There was nothing matted nor fuzzy and the quality was carried right up to the tips.

"I should consider that Camp which is producing stock of the quality of these exhibits should be quite capable of producing a wool which can successfully compete in the markets of the world with the best wools of most other sheep breeding countries: That is, of course, when the quality which is now evident in these picked animals has been established right through the ordinary breeding flocks, for the value of a wool clip is not governed by the merits of the few selected animals but rather by the general quality of the whole flock.

"I first saw Falkland Islands wool at the London Sales in 1906, and the quality of what I have seen at this Local Exhibition is evidence of an extraordinary amount of progress having been effected since that time.

"As regards the lambs, they are, of course, too small as yet to be able to make any definite classification as to their real quality and the only system on which I could operate was by selecting those showing the most robust development with the broadest backs and deepest conformation, combined with the feel and marking of the little amount of wool which they were carrying.

"Altogether I think the Colony should be proud of the fact that the sheep farmers are producing animals of such good quality as those in the Exhibition.

THE SHEEP DOG TRIALS.

A novel feature of the Centenary Celebrations was the Sheep Dog Trials which took place on the afternoon of Tuesday, 14th February.

There were as many as fifteen entries and although none of the dogs succeeded in penning the three sheep in the allotted time some excellent exhibitions illustrating the sagacity of these fine animals were witnessed. The ultimate winners was Mr. S. Miller's "Speed" while Mr. J. Hall (Teal Inlet) took second place with his dog.

The Trials took place over a course in the paddocks adjoining the Race Course and behind the Government Bungalows.

Not more than one dog could be entered by each competitor and not more than two dogs could be entered from any one Station; this condition did not apply to competitors resident in Stanley.

Each competitor was asked to take up a position at a pen to the north of the grand stand on the north side of the course, and send out his dog to bring in three sheep just liberated from another pen about three hundred yards to the east. The competitor was allowed to advance up to the level of a gap in a fence about fifty yards to his front and on his right hand, and to assist his dog in driving the sheep through the gap and then right-handed through the rails, and about fifty yards to a gate, also right-handed, through which the sheep were to be driven and then penned. The time limit allowed was fifteen minutes.

ACROBATICS ON CHAIRS.

The Assault-At-Arms.

We have had the pleasure of witnessing many Assaults-at-arms in the Gymnasium but none have surpassed that which was given there on Wednesday, the 15th February, by H.M.S. Durban with the kind permission of Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E. the proceeds of which amounted to £13 14s. 6d and are being devoted to the Bisley Fund. The display followed almost immediately the Laying of the Foundation Stone of the Projected Swimming Bath.

First of all we were treated to a spirited exhibition of boxing by Brimley and Knight followed by a dexterous bout between Butler and Hubbard. The next thing to command our attention was the amazing agility of Reading Seaman Burley (Physical Training Instructor) on the horizontal bar which well merited the applause it received.

Able Seaman Constable and Marina Avis showed us how it was done with bayonets while later an interesting bayonet training display left no doubt as to the possibilities of rendering an opponent hors-de-combat even under the most disadvantageous circumstances. For this we were indebted to Mr. Laban (Gunner) assisted by Able Seaman Moore and Able Seaman Humphries.

The piece de resistance of the evening undoubtedly was the Chair Tricks episode by the Gymnastics Team under Leading Seaman Burley and consisting of Able Seamen Fielding, Daniels, Scattergood, Boswood and Newnham. What they did with, and on and off those chairs beggars description - they were simply excellent. Later they also gave just as efficient a display on the Box Horse and the Parallel Bars.

Another treat before the end was the Comic Quarter-staff bout in which Cpl. Heard, Stoker Gearing and Stoker Knight took part; they were amply rewarded by the spectators who were loud in their appreciation, despite the "hard knocks" they must have received.

Finally a word of commendation is also due to the Marines' Band which played pleasing selections throughout the performance.

THE SWIMMING POOL.

His Excellency Lays The Foundation Stone.

"A Bed-rock Of Hope."

A large number of spectators gathered at the north-west end of the Public Baths and Gymnasium on Tuesday when His Excellency the Governor laid the Foundation Stone of the projected Swimming Pool for Stanley. Among those present were His Lordship the Bishop and Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E..

His Excellency, who was accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) and met by the Hon. G. Roberts, Director of Public Works, made an introductory speech before performing the actual ceremony in which he said :-

"It is to me indeed, a very great pleasure to have the opportunity of laying this Foundation Stone to-day.

"I have always been optimistic during my life-time but I just want to safeguard myself by saying I hope we will not expect the Swimming Pool to be erected within the next twelve months. But if I do not have the privilege of opening the Pool since I may be called away to some other Dominion or Colony to continue my service in public life, I shall watch with keen interest that which will happen in regard to the Foundation Stone I am now about to lay.

"We have had trouble and anxiety during the time I have been here, even with regard to this Stone, and we are laying it because we hope it will be a bed-rock of hope to you and will increase your anxiety to get the swimming pool properly going.

"As an old swimmer myself, I used to watch keenly many children in London taking their lessons of a morning in a swimming pool. It is a form of the best possible exercise and I should imagine island people above all others should teach their children how to swim.

"It is a curious paradox, but as Britishers we are very careless about things of this character. I was born in an old town of the west of England, very ancient and one which used to be the second seaport in the United Kingdom - Bristol. The way I was taught to swim was by being pushed into the water with my clothes on by my fellows and then making the best of it. That was a very crude way of doing things and not an exercise in a beneficial form.

"I shall rejoice to know that the children of the Government School and the Roman Catholic School can, at least so many times a week, walk over to the Pool and benefit from this wonderful exercise and education. It is true we do not engage as much in sports as they do in the Dominions but I am hoping that in the years to come, Falkland Islanders will be able to join in international games and show, as they have in rifle shooting, that they can compete successfully.

"If I know anything about your character and temperament once we get the Swimming Pool we shall see the boys and girls at least trying and endeavouring to make themselves proficient so that they can take part in international games.

"What I particularly want to say to you now is, if any benevolent person can spare any coins during the next few years, I hope he will more than look at this Stone as he goes by the end of the Gymnasium and in the course of a few years we shall see our Swimming Pool erected and the children enjoying this fine exercise.

"I have much pleasure in laying this Foundation Stone - a duty I consider to be a great privilege to perform." (Penguin - Friday 17th February, 1933.)

CHEERS FOR THE CAKE.

Children's Party,

Over 400 children sat down to the special Tea given in the Town Hall on Saturday afternoon last in connection with the Colony's Centenary Celebrations. A happier and more self-possessed throng of youngsters could not be imagined. Cakes and buns and pastries were there in profusion and in spite of the deafening chatter, interspersed with snatches of popular songs, ample justice was done to them.

The climax was reached when the Hon. G. Roberts and Mr. A.R. Hoare, who were responsible for the arrangements, with other helpers set to work to cut up the marvellous six tier cake provided by Mr. J.F. Summers. It would have seemed that the cheers would crack the heavens.

During the Party His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. Craigie-Halkett, paid the children a visit and after mingling with them pleased them all by addressing a few remarks in which he emphasised the importance of the occasion. Three hearty cheers were given for His Excellency who then departed.

PIONEERS OF THE FALKLANDS.

Old People's Centenary Dinner.

Fifteen guests whose aggregate age totalled 1,126 years were entertained at an Old People's Dinner yesterday evening in the Council Chamber and Court Room, Stanley, in connection with the Centenary Celebrations, the arrangements being under the careful supervision of the Hon. G. Roberts and Mr. A.R. Hoare assisted by Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Hoare.

The guests were Mesdames Mary Anderson, Phoebe Biggs, Susan Carey, Elizabeth Clausen, Mary Kelway, Bessie Newing and Elizabeth Rowlands, and Messrs. R. Aitkin, A.J. Barnes, T. Burns, W.H. Goss, N. McLeod, T. Lyles, H.W. Parrin and J. Peck, four of whom were born in the Falklands, namely Mesdames Carey and Kelway and Messrs. Goss and Peck. The remainder have, for the most part of their lives, resided in the Colony. Among those who were unable to be present owing to indisposition were Mrs. Aitkin, and Messrs. J. Aldridge, J. Smith and C. Hansen.

During the proceedings they were visited by His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) and His Lordship the Bishop who chatted with the guests. Before departing His Excellency presented each one with a Medallion struck in commemoration of the Centenary and addressed the following words to them :-

"I am very proud to be here to-night on this occasion of the celebration of the Centenary of the Colony. I suppose all of you have done battle as pioneers in making secure for the King this little Possession right down in the South Atlantic. If His Majesty the King were to see me to-night I am sure he would approve of my presence here and rejoice in the fact that I am among the older folk of the Falkland Islands. He would say 'You are doing the work I want you to do.'

"In the name of the Colony and on behalf of His Majesty the King I congratulate you on being assembled here to-night - the older folk - celebrating the Centenary and affirming your loyalty to the King." (Penguin - Friday, 17th February, 1933.)

THRILLING FIREWORKS DISPLAY.

H.M.S. Durban Illuminates Ship.

It would be no exaggeration to state that so fascinating a sight as that witnessed in Government Paddock on Wednesday night when the Centenary Firework Display was given, has never before been seen in the Colony.

In the first instance the weather conditions - so perverse ordinarily - could not have been more favourable, while, secondly, the scene was greatly enhanced by the spectacle of H.M.S. Durban's illuminated outlines as she lay at anchor in the harbour, sweeping her powerful searchlight across the inky black sky. The Colony is greatly indebted to the Commodore for his generous permission for so rare a treat.

The actual firework display, under the supervision of the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett and Messrs. F.A. Byron, G.L. Challen and B. Ratcliff, lasted about an hour, commencing at 11.0 p.m..

Maroons and rockets, and monster fountains of fire soared into the sky in profusion giving dazzling effects of floating lights, comets, sprays of changing colours and whistling shells breaking into clusters of spangles.

"War in the Air" was one of the special novelties, giving an effect to that of a barrage of modern high explosive shells. Another device which brought forth unstinted admiration was "The Falls of Niagara" - a spectacular curtain of silver fire falling tier upon tier to the ground in successive waves as they struck the earth, re-bounding with curious effect.

So fascinating was the display that even when the finale of seven shrapnel barrage rockets had been exploded one was loath to go away, half hoping that there was more to come.

THE STANLEY SPORTS ASSOCIATION

MEETING.

A Four Days Programme.

Perfect weather prevailed throughout the four days Sports and Steer Riding Competition organised under the aegis of the Stanley Sports Association in connection with the Centenary Celebrations, and each day saw the paddocks thronged with people whose interest, as evidenced by the Tote activities, never flagged and remained keen to the end.

His Excellency the Governor with the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., Commodore R.H.O. Lane-Poole O.B.E., Members of Councils and officers of H.M.S. Durban and R.R.S. Discovery II were constant spectators.

There was a record number of entries while many of the races had close finishes and were exciting to watch. The horses from the West and Darwin more than upheld their reputations; one instance - The Chartres Plate - may be cited as an example, for in this both the first and second prizes went to Chartres horses.

The most distinguished horse of the Meeting was Mr. Peter Coutts' (of Goose Green) "Bambina" which swept everything before her and came home with seven firsts in two days - not ceding a single place. The Salvador Cup, however, gave her admirers a bad scare. It was her closest shave for she only won from Mrs. Greenshields "Rose Marie" by a short head. In the Archie Morrison Cup "Rose Marie" gave "Bambina" a good race but did not appear to have the ability to overtake her.

The leading horses were : Bambina (Peter Coutts) 7 firsts; Money Collector (G. Stewart) 3 firsts, 1 second; Ivor (R.C. Pole Evans) 2 firsts, 1 second, 1 third; Monte (R. Hutchinson) 2 firsts, 1 second, 1 third; Teresina (W. Rutter) 2 firsts, 3 thirds.

The jockeys with the most successes were : J. Middleton 7 firsts, R. Hutchinson 4 firsts, 3 seconds, 2 thirds; G. McKay 3 firsts, 3 seconds, 1 third.

In the foot events L.W. Aldridge was a popular winner of the 100 yards and Pole Jump while S. Bonnett, well favoured, took the Mile in his stride.

The Centenary Week Celebrations closed on Saturday, as far as the outdoor activities were concerned, with the much looked forward to Steer Riding Events on the race course.

There were over fourteen entrants and several showed considerable skill in managing the beasts which, with the efforts at lassoing them, provided ample entertainment for the large number of spectators. The winner was C. Perry who beat the favourite, L. Sollis, by the narrow margin of three points.

The judges were Messrs. C. Robertson and S. Miller while the steers were kindly provided by Port San Carlos Station.

THE SPORTS SPEECHES.

A Combined Meeting Every Three Years ?

The Town Hall was crowded on Saturday evening when the Sports Association prizes were distributed by His Excellency the Governor. His Excellency, who was accompanied by the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Acting Colonial Secretary) was welcomed by Mr. R. Greenshields, the Chairman of the Sports Association.

After the distribution, Mr. Greenshields in thanking the Governor said that His Excellency, as they all knew took a very keen interest in all sports and although it must have been a very tiring week for him he had still found time to come and distribute the prizes.

The Centenary Week to which everybody had been looking forward had come and gone. The weather he was glad to say had been really good; they had never seen such fine weather for years, for the festivities or anything else. He hoped all the people from the West and Darwin had enjoyed the programme of the Centenary Meeting of the Stanley Sports Association.

They could not have a Centenary Meeting every year, Mr. Greenshields continued, but he would like to see another meeting like the one they had just had every three years. (loud applause.)

He thought that the Centenary Meeting had been the biggest that had ever taken place in Stanley, It had been carried out absolutely successfully and without a hitch and he hoped everybody had been satisfied.

He congratulated Mr. Coutts on the success of the horse Bambina and said it was undoubtedly the fastest that had been seen in Stanley. He wished also to congratulate the West horses and their owners for the sportsmanlike way in which they responded in bringing them in. In some instances they had a fifteen hours' ride on the West and then fourteen hours' journey on the East. They deserved a lot of praise for showing so much enthusiasm. A similar word was also due to the Darwin sportsmen and their mounts for the way they had responded this year.

In a personal word Mr. Greenshields expressed his sincere appreciation of the work put in by the different Committees of the Association and the way they ensured that the Meeting should be a success. He was sorry to say that one of the most popular of their members was in hospital and not able to be with them that evening. He was speaking of Mr. Joe Aldridge. The Centenary Meeting was the first he had missed for forty-one years. He remembered when the races used to be run on Pump Green in Stanley and when the first prize was a bottle of Champagne or six bottles of beer - you could help yourself. Then they were moved to the Sand beach and finally to the present course.

He wished to thank all the donors of the prizes for the Meeting. He was sure everybody would agree that there were some very fine prizes and he could be certain that the Association and all those who had won them were satisfied. (hear, hear.) In conclusion Mr. Greenshields asked for three hearty cheers for His Excellency and these were accorded with real Falkland Islands enthusiasm.

Really Fine Behaviour.

In response His Excellency assured Mr. Greenshields and all present that the occasion had given him as much pleasure as he had found in the Sports themselves - and speaking for the Government he was certain it was perfectly satisfied. He realised that such meetings were all too infrequent and he had been discussing the matter from every standpoint with the farmers and other people and they had come to the conclusion that they should try to have a similar meeting once every three years. Such an event would give an opportunity of improving the stock - for they would certainly have to have a stock show. To have such another week in about three years' time would be a good thing for the Colony from many points of view. It was most important for one thing that they should know each other better and unless they did they could not realise the problems and difficulties which confronted them and they could not face them successfully, or at least as successfully as if they had got together.

He wished to thank the farmers particularly for bringing in their animals. At a great deal of trouble and under great difficulties they had provided the beasts for the Stock Show. He was delighted with the Show; he had seen many such shows in Australia and he would suggest that, as they do in that continent, an auction sale should follow after the show.

Continuing His Excellency stressed his great pleasure at the really fine behaviour which had been shown during the week, particularly from the men of the Camp. It had been a credit to them as well as a pleasure to himself when he had seen them walking about the streets. The Commodore and His Lordship the Bishop had similarly commented on the good conduct of them all.

In a final word the Governor said that though he did not know where he might be in three years' time he would be, wherever he was, as enthusiastic as any of them as to what happened in the Falklands. He thanked them very sincerely for the real hearty Falkland Islands Cheers they had given him. (Loud applause.)

THE LOCAL BISLEY.

In most wretched weather the Defence Force held their annual Bisley Meeting on Saturday and Sunday last. The entries were not so good as last year but the keenness and standard of shooting was as high as ever it has been.

Saturday morning although not very promising was considered good enough and a start was made at 8.0 a.m. with the First Stage of the Governor's Cup Competition, there being twenty-seven entries for this popular event.

Although it was very cold and the clouds gathered continually the conditions were not too bad in the morning and some very good scores were returned from the 200 yards. But about 9.30 the weather broke down and heavy squalls of hail and rain were experienced throughout the remainder of the day. During one detail at the 500 yards the firers had to make a hurried retreat to the Pavilion on three occasions owing to the severity of the downpours. Saturday was easily the worst day experienced since the Meeting was inaugurated.

The results and Prize List for Saturday were :

JAPANESE ADVANCING IN JEHOI.

A press report from Dairen states that the general opinion there seems to be that if the weather improves the chief points in the province of Jehoi will be occupied by the Japanese within a week.

According to Japanese reports little resistance is being made to all the advancing armies while the main bodies of the Chinese Troops are rapidly retreating and several battalions have surrendered in the north-west.

No major battles have been fought and in the first three days of the campaign it is reported that the casualties were negligible.

Four columns of Japanese troops are advancing towards Jehoi city. The main detachment is now within a hundred miles of the capital and within striking distance of the important centre of Chikfeng. A great help in the attack is the reconnaissance work given by the aeroplanes attached to the Japanese forces.

The League of Nations Committee dealing with the Colombia - Peru dispute over the Amazon port of Lititia on Tuesday, decided to summon a Council Meeting for to-day (Thursday) at which it is expected the Peruvian delegate will accept the principles of the Committee's peace proposals.

The Colombian delegate notified his acceptance of these principles yesterday.

FLOODS AT HOME.

A report from London states that unless the fall of rain continues there is little likelihood of the floods in the Thames Valley becoming worse as the level of the water at the highest lock on the river on Tuesday was steadying and the tributaries of the Upper Thames were falling.

In Yorkshire and the midlands the floods cover large areas in the low -lying districts and many roads are under water. Much damage has been caused and communications are seriously impeded. Many roads in the higher parts of Derbyshire, Yorkshire and the north-western counties are still impassable owing to snow drifts.

In the south there has been a rapid improvement.

THE BISLEY MEETING.

Sunday's Competitions.

The weather looked very doubtful at 7.0 a.m. on Sunday but it changed about 7.45 and the decision was made to carry on the Shoot. At 8.30 p.m. the Centenary Cup was started on the New Range at 300 yards.

From then onwards the elements continued to improve and not a squall was experienced through the whole day, in fact for a few minutes at lunch time the sun shone. But in the afternoon a tricky wind rose shifting obstinately from zero to 11 or to 1 o'clock spoiling quite a number of promising cards.

The Centenary Cup was fired in conjunction with the Second Stage of the Governor's Cup, the score being returned by those members who qualified for the Second Stage counting for both competitions. Taking into consideration the rarity of a ten round shoot on the Ranges the showing of the cards was, on the whole, very good.

At 3.0 p.m. a start was made on the Final Stage of the Governor's Cup and it was then that the wind gave trouble.

The Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E. (Colonial Secretary) paid a visit to the Ranges whilst the shooting for the Centenary Cup was taking place and he was also present during the firing off of the Final Stage of the Governor's Cup.

The results for the day were :

Thursday, 2nd March, 1933.

Congratulations are to be extended to Private H.H. Sedgwick who has achieved the distinction of winning both the First and Final Stages of the Governor's Cup at one Meeting. In addition to the Douthwaite Trophy and the Governor's Cup he also wins the N.R.A. Medal. His is an example of well merited reward through perseverance and endeavour on the part of one of the younger members of the Defence Force and Rifle Association, auguring well for that standard of efficiency among them to ensure the return of the Junior Kolapore Cup to the Colony when future teams shoot at Bisley. Keeping up the reputation of the "Old Stagers" was Mr. J.W. Grierson who gave an excellent exhibition in order to obtain Second Place. It was unfortunate that Mr. A.E. Biggs of Douglas Station had to return home before he was able to fire off his Final Stage for he was making a good show and might easily have obtained a higher position in the lists.

Mention must also be made of the high standard of shooting displayed by the members from Douglas Station, the most notable being the success of Mr. A.E. Biggs who in addition to winning the Falkland Islands Company's Handicap Cup qualified for the Final Stage of the Governor's Cup. Another Douglas Station member doing well was Pte. H.H. JAPANESE ADVANCE.

A press message from Dairen states that the Japanese made further advances in the Jehol Province on Wednesday, capturing two of the gateways to Jehol City - Chifheng to the north, and Lingyuan to the west.

Chifheng is less than 100 miles from Jehol City and if the cold weather continues the Japanese expect to occupy the latter place during the next two days.

There was little resistance at Chifheng but the taking of Lingyuan was not so easy a matter. Knowing this was the last barrier between the Japanese and Jehol City the Chinese offered a sterner resistance than had been previously encountered by the Japanese, but the latter, under the personal command of the famous General Hattori won the day and now hold that city.

Meanwhile Peking announces that two Chinese commanders left for the front line in the Jehol war area and it is believed to presage a critical battle for the possession of the Province.

STERLING STRONG.

The American banking financial situation, says a New York message, is chiefly responsible for the increase in the strength of sterling and also for increasing the Bank of England gold reserves at a rapid rate.

The demand for sterling is partly from repatriation of capital and partly from foreign purchases in this currency according to the Daily Telegraph.

The daily ear-markings of gold in New York range from 8,000,000 dollars to 18,750,000 and is almost entirely for British account.

The continuation of the movement at the present rate will, it is estimated, soon bring the British gold reserve near 1,000,000,000 dollars or higher than any time during the period Britain was on the gold standard from 1925 to 1931.

They were charged with : Between November 1930 and August 1932 conspiring together and with persons unknown to defraud such persons as the shareholders in Chosen Corporation Limited."

Evidence of arrest was given and the case adjourned until 29th March.

U.S.A. BANK CRISIS.

The United States bank crisis continues to spread. Another seven States joined in the "Bank Holiday",

In addition the San Francisco, Cleveland and Detroit stock exchanges and the New Orleans wool market have closed.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York has raised its re-discount rate from $2\frac{1}{2}$ to $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. The old rate has been in force since June last. The increase in the rate is presumably due to the crisis. It should discourage the outflow of gold and tend to prevent the withdrawal of funds from New York, states the Daily Telegraph.

Speaking of the financial situation, the Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Roy Chaplin, said "We are involved in an economic trouble more vital to our Nation than perhaps was the world war."

Business everywhere is being enormously handicapped. Doubts and fears have been accentuated by the feeling of distrust and dismay regarding the immediate future.

A Peking report states that the Chinese have given up all hope of saving Jehol city. According to the latest information the Japanese are credited with the expectation of reaching the city within twenty-four hours.

Jehol city is stated to be in a panic as a result of the rapid Japanese advance during the past two days reports the Daily Telegraph.

Fears of the local soldiers and inhabitants have been increased by the influx of thousands of demoralised Chinese troops who are now merely disorderly rabble.

Reports of rioting in the city have been received and the flight of refugees into the north of China has already begun while attempts to organise the city defences have broken down in almost hopeless confusion.

He died before the next stopping place was reached.

Death it is stated, is due either to heartweakness or cerebral hemorrhage.

JAPANESE HOLD JEHOI.

A message from Peking reports that with the Chinese troops broken and fleeing in four different routes into northern China, the Japanese army may be said to be holding the Jehol Province in the hollow of its hand.

One of the main aims of the operations, namely the expulsion of the Chinese irregulars from the Province, appears more to be a matter of hours.

The arrest of the Chinese General Tang Yu-lin who was in command at Jehol City has been ordered and if he is arrested there is no doubt that he will be executed.

GANDHI TO COME OUT.

There is a general belief in well informed circles in London that Gandhi, who has been in prison since January 1932, will shortly be released.

It is recalled that he was sent to prison because it was considered to be better that he should be there while the Civil Disobedience campaign was a disturbing factor in India. It is now thought there is but little danger of its revival and so the need for his detention may have passed. It is expected that his release will take place before the end of the month.

THE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SHOW.

Not A Failure.

Encouraging Words By His Excellency.

The opening ceremony of the Horticultural Society's Show was held on Friday last and performed by His Excellency the Governor who was introduced by the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett (Chairman of the Society.)

On behalf of the Society Mr. Halkett expressed his thanks to His Excellency who was accompanied by the Hon. J.M. Ellis O.B.E., for honouring the Society with his presence that day. He thanked also those ladies and gentlemen who had been good enough to judge the exhibits; they had done their best and it had to be remembered that there were no experts in the Colony to undertake this task.

Mr. George Newing, who acted as door-keeper, and Mrs. A.P. Hardy, who was in charge of the tea arrangements, were thanked with all those who had in any way assisted the Committee to make the Show successful. "I feel," Mr. Halkett went on to say, "that the Exhibition has not been a failure. As a matter of fact, I, as Chairman, quite expected to see a lot of blanks in the stall but the contrary is to be seen, and everything has gone off all right. On the other hand there have not been so many entries as last year. The exhibits are quite up to standard and I do not think their quality has been surpassed at any previous exhibition." (Applause.)

In a final word the chairman pointed out that if anybody deserved a word of praise it was the Committee and the Hon. Secretary and Treasurer. It had been up to them to do their best and they had done it. An Exhibition like the one His Excellency was about to open depended largely on their efforts.

"Progress & Improve."

His Excellency who was received with applause, said that since last year he had been trying to encourage them to make the Exhibition greater than it had been before. Circumstances, however, intervened to preclude this but he was not disappointed even at the reduction in the number of exhibitors. And he was certainly not disappointed from the point of view of the quality of the exhibits. It was a great thing that they should up, and progress and improve the quality of their gardens both from the point of view of flowers as well as vegetables. The Centenary had come along and many, like himself, were for weeks before the celebrations, preparing and now it was all over they wanted a rest. But next year there would be no Centenary Celebrations and he sincerely hoped that the Show would receive a more enthusiastic support even than that given in the years gone by. He was perfectly certain in fact that the Show next year would be better.

In commenting on the attendance that afternoon His Excellency said that in Tasmania when he was there, he had succeeded in persuading the people not to open their Shows until 8.0 o'clock at night when the men at work could go along with their wives. The afternoon was the wrong time, he thought. After all, the attendance at their Show that afternoon was no poorer than many in Australia when the opening ceremonies were performed in the afternoon even by the Governor or some other public official.

The Joy Of A Cabbage Patch.

A successor of his in the Falklands, who was also Governor of Tasmania before him, Sir William Allardyce, also took a very great pleasure in horticulture. He, himself, had always taken a great interest in it and in his younger days, when he cultivated his own cabbage patch in his workman's house; he used to be very proud of it.

"I know," the Governor continued, "of no greater pleasure in life, where a man can get rest away from the turmoil of the world, away from the great fight of life, than in cultivating his cabbage patch and growing flowers. The greatest joys of my life have come to me as a workman at the bench when I was able to go home to cultivate my cabbage patch. I think it a good thing for the Colony, and for the general community, that a man should take his pleasures away from the atmosphere of business, from cares and toil and from the purple patches in life."

No Golf Patch Cream.

His Excellency went on to explain in a lighter vein how it was no cabbages appeared in the Government House Garden exhibit. A great calamity had overtaken them the Governor announced. Somebody had left the garden gate open and the cows had come in and eaten them up. That was why they were not in the exhibit. It had, however, been a good thing for him because now he would get cream that did not taste of the "golf patch" or the "football patch" but of the "cabbage patch." (laughter.)

Appeal To Mothers.

Commenting on the handicrafts, particularly the needlework, His Excellency expressed the sincere hope that the women-folk would see that these things were persevered with, and though the exhibits at the Show were most praiseworthy it was up to them to improve that feature of the Exhibition because of the children. "I appeal to the mothers," the Governor said, "in that particular aspect for the sake of the little girls growing up. It is a very great thing. It opens up a new vista on life which will make them better citizens and better mothers."

In illustrating his words the Governor drew a picture of the life of the peasant community in Russia who occupied their time during the long winter months in which, in some places they were practically buried in snow for five months, by pursuing what was known as peasant industries.

Concluding his remarks His Excellency pointed out that the Society was losing money each year - as much as forty pounds - and the question was how could the lee-way be made up. They could reduce the prizes: for surely they did not take part in the Exhibition merely for what they could get, though, of course, he believed in men being paid for their work. They could help it considerably however, by supporting it. The Society was a real deserving institution and he hoped every soul in Stanley would visit the Town Hall - men, women and children - all of them to patronise the Show.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Mr. Richard Clifton, 2nd son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clifton of Stanley, who died on board the floating factory "Salvestria" on the 4th of March.

In a telegram received from the Magistrate at South Georgia it is stated that the cause of death is believed to be heart failure.

We learn that the Salvestria is due to arrive at South Georgia to-day (Wednesday) or to-morrow and arrangements are being made for the late Mr. Richard Clifton's body to be interred in the Cemetery at Grytviken.

DISARMAMENT CONFERENCE.

A London message states that the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of the Foreign Office left the city on Monday for Geneva where he is to resume the leadership of the British delegation to the Disarmament Conference.

The British Government has informed Washington, Paris, Rome and Berlin of Premier MacDonald's coming visit to Geneva and it is hoped to persuade Mussolini and Hitler to go there to confer with him and Sir John Simon, says the Daily Telegraph.

Mussolini hitherto has systematically refrained from attending in person the League and other International Conferences but it is thought that the crucial aspect of the Disarmament Conference in its present position might induce him to make this occasion a departure from precedent.

ITALIAN SUB-ARCTIC FLIGHT.

Preparations for the Italian Rome to Chicago formation flight have already begun with the arrival at Copenhagen of the Italian Captain Draghelli with nine mechanics and four pilots. Draghelli leaves on 15th March for Greenland to establish a camp there.

This Italian activity has led to a new attempt being made by American interests to obtain a concession for a base in Greenland to maintain a service from America to Europe by an arctic air route.

United States interests have already secured a concession in Iceland for this purpose.

JAPANESE REACH WALL OF CHINA.

A message from Chinchow reports that after ten days of extremely rapid operations the Japanese have obtained complete control of the province of Jehol. The retreating Chinese have been pursued to the Great Wall of China where the Japanese flag has been planted although Chinese information states that there is every possibility of resistance being made in the neighbourhood of the Kuperkow Pass, the most important route through the Wall.

Chinese reports describe terrible slaughter inflicted on the Chinese by Japanese aeroplanes which swept down to mountain passes and mowed down the disorderly retreaters with machine guns and bombs.

The tremendous rout thus created has been too much for Marshal Chang Hsueh-Liang's picked troops who are holding the territory near the wall. They are quite unable to stem it.

Unless the loyal Chinese generals receive help and supplies soon they may be forced to fight to a finish or to surrender to the Japanese.

ROOSEVELT FACES THE CRISIS.

A New York message reports that a feeling of courage to face the difficulties of the financial situation and confidence in the future has been inspired among the people of the United States by the measures President Roosevelt has taken to meet the crisis.

The President's declaration of the state of National Moratorium gives Roosevelt and his advisers time to perfect plans for reforms in the national banking system.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent in forecasting these measures suggests; there are not likely to be any wildly inflationary schemes; the Federal Government may, in part, guarantee Bank deposits; legislation may be passed to separate investments from commercial banking.

Whether America has temporarily gone off the gold standard was a question whereon the United States authorities are not in agreement. Whereas the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Woodin, states that America has, emphatically, not gone off the gold standard, the bankers assert that America has done so and has adopted a managed currency basis which will be effective for an indefinite period.

London banking circles took the view that America has suspended functions on the gold standard during the period of the Moratorium.

GERMAN ELECTIONS.

According to a message from Berlin the elections have given the Nazi-Monarchist alliance substantial majorities in the Reichstag and Prussian Diet. But they have not removed the factors which have paralysed legislation in Germany since the war. The Cabinet remains a combination of incompatibles, states the Daily Telegraph.

President Hindenburg on Monday morning received Hitler who was, this time, not accompanied by the Vice-Chancellor, Herr Papen and Baron Neurath.

The Cabinet was not expected to hold its first meeting to consider the new situation until to-day. It was officially stated on Tuesday that Papen would be chosen Premier of the Prussian Diet.

Nazi Storm Troops, it is reported, have now seized the town halls of the free cities of Bremen, Luebeck and Hamburg with the object of turning out their governments.

A ONE DAY DICTATORSHIP.

A Reuter message from Athens states that the dictatorship of General Plastiras, who on Monday seized the supreme power in Greece and declared a state of seige, is already over; it lasted one day. It is even rumoured that he will be arrested.

The coup d'etat was not approved by M. Venizelos on whose behalf Plastiras is supposed to be acting. After consultation Venizelos and the electoral opponent, Tsaldaris, agreed to form a cabinet under the Premiership of General Othoneos, the President of the Supreme War Council.

As soon as the Cabinet was formed Plastiras handed over the power to it and the state of seige and censorship which he had imposed was raised. It is announced, however, that the new Government has only been established until peace has been restored and subsequently the party which has gained the majority at the elections, namely that of Tsaldaris, will be called to power.

10,000 MILLION FRANCS LOAN.

A Paris bulletin announces that a Bill for the authorisation of the issue of a 10,000 million francs loan has been adopted in the Chamber. It will come before the Senate within the next day or two.

The conditions of the issue must be fixed by a decree, but, additionally, they must be governed generally speaking by the situation of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent conversion loan which now stands just over 90.

It is suggested that the new loan may possibly bear a lower rate of interest than $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent income provided that it be tax free.

Severe Fighting In Far East.

Severe fighting took place on Tuesday, states information received from Peking, over the possession of the Kupeikow Pass, one of the chief passes through the Great Wall of China.

This is a clear indication that the Japanese are not yet quite the complete masters of the situation. Nevertheless the Rising Sun flag flies over most of the passes leading from Jehol to China proper and Tuesday's operations wherein artillery and air bombers were engaged ended in the Japanese routing the Chinese and occupying Sanchiehfang, which is seven miles north east of the Pass.

Tuesday's rise in price modified the loss on paper to the Canadian Government and it is pointed out that if the prices keep up the entire loss will be extinguished.

NEW YORK'S MONETARY CRISES.

It is officially announced that the United States Government has taking control of the banking operations during the country's battle with the monetary crisis.

The banks, however, have been given power "to exercise their usual banking functions as the situation will permit and, as far as possible, to meet the needs of the community for food, medicine and the relief of the distressed, the payment of wages and salaries, and other essential purposes.

Most of the New York banks opened for business on Monday on this restricted basis and the banks in many other States followed suit.

It is obvious from the measures taken and others contemplated that the Government has been moved by the fear that the country's gold standard is seriously menaced by the demands for domestic and foreign gold, states the Daily Telegraph.

In London on Tuesday the sentiment was definitely more hopeful and the previous fears of the dollar depreciation have been largely allayed.

HITLER TAKES THE REINS.

According to the latest reports from Berlin the Hitlerising of Germany is proceeding apace.

On Tuesday the Chancellor announced that a Bill was to be introduced to alter the constitution. It is understood that the Government is contemplating the proclamation of a military state of seige says the Daily Telegraph.

This would place authority into the hands of General Von Blomberg, the President's nominee. At present it is held by the police who are mostly under the control of the Nazis.

Streets called after Republican statesmen are being re-christened with the name of Hitler.

To forestall the danger of the seizure of power by the Hitlerites the Austrian Government is contemplating a semi-dictatorship and the closing of the frontiers to keep out Nazi agitators.

NEW "PAPER DOLLARS" IN U.S.A.

Washington reports that a news issued of "paper dollars" is to be made in the United States to tide the country over the banking crisis.

This announcement was made on Wednesday by the Secretary to the Treasury, Mr. Woodin. It involves the abandonment of plans for the use of scrip or clearing house certificates as a medium of exchange.

It is proposed to issue 2,000,000,000 dollars' worth of this emergency currency says the Daily Telegraph. The Government has already authority for such action.

The scrip plan is abandoned because scrip would be issued locally and cause confusion in the inter-State transactions, also because it is regarded as a form of printing press money.

The Americans generally are bitterly exasperated by the flood of bank failures and are demanding the reorganisation of the banking system on lines which make deposits in the country as safe as those in Britain and Canada.

A member of the House of Commons there predicted that the United States would inflate her currency which would force a similar action in Canada thus bringing about a rise in commodity prices, an abundant railway revenue, and a return to world prosperity.

WOMEN CHANGE THEIR HAIR.

Large flat curls in front and short straight hair behind are the disguise women will adopt in the secrecy of their hairdressing saloons says a message from London. It will be the fashion also to "show your ears."

Two partings - the usual side one and another at right angles to it from the middle of the head to the bare ear, are necessary to achieve the correct effect.

The curls are the size of a two-shilling piece, and are so thin as to give the hair a kind of wind blown appearance. There is also plenty of choice in the matter of colouring. Platinum blondes are going "rose ash" which is much more becoming.

"We find that 'platinum' gives the skin a rather grubby appearance" said a famous London hairdresser. "The addition of a slight pink tinge has a very softening effect upon the face."

Many women are favouring the further extreme of vivid red.

According to a message from Munich Hitler is trying to extend his dictatorship to Bavaria.

On the pretext that there is unrest among the people there the Berlin Cabinet has asked the Bavarian Government to agree to General Von Epp taking over control of the police in that State as the Reich Commissary. The Munich Cabinet protested against this step and made representations to Hitler, the Cabinet and President Hindenberg, but the appointment has been made nevertheless says the Daily Telegraph.

Excitement had not abated at Munich on Thursday says a further message and Hitlerite flags were flying over public buildings. Nazi troops followed by large crowds were parading the streets and the general situation that night was such as anything might happen.

The Bavarian Diet building is occupied by the Nazis.

BOMB SCARE AT THE COURTS.

When the business of the Palace de Justice was in full swing in Paris, an usher walking through the central hall espied a suspicious looking object lying near the entrance to the Assize Court. Without waiting to investigate he shouted an alarm.

Swiftly the whisper ran round, "A bomb !" Fearless Republican Guards formed a ring round the object at a decent distance, while a telephone call was put through to the explosives experts at the Municipal Laboratory. Excited baristers, male and female, peeped over the Republican Guards' shoulders, and hurried away.

There was a murmur of admiration when a man in blue overalls was seen walking nonchalantly towards the centre of concern.

U.S.A. CRISIS BILL.

A Bill to meet the United States banking crisis was passed within two hours at Washington on Thursday by the House of Representatives.

The Daily Telegraph says the Bill continues President Roosevelt's emergency powers; orders the concentration of the Nation's gold into the Federal Reserve Banks; permits only "sound" banks reopening immediately, - those unable to prove their soundness will be administered during the reorganisation by the Government conservators and those guilty of violating the Act will be liable to fines up to 1,000 dollars or ten years' imprisonment; provides that during the emergency the President may regulate and prohibit transactions in foreign exchanges, transfers of credit between banking institutions, export hoarding and earmarking of gold or silver coin bullion or currency and may require any person engaged in such transactions to furnish under oath complete information relative to such transactions.

On the introduction of the Bill the President asked for immediate legislation and the House of Representatives granted him powers which in effect make him the financial dictator of the United States during the present crisis.

Later the Senate approved of the Bill by 73 votes to 7.

ALARMING CATASTROPHE IN CALIFORNIA.

125 Earthquake Shocks.

Thousands Killed & Injured.

Over 200 persons are reported dead and 5,000 injured in an earthquake which has wrought havoc in California.

Tidal waves and fires which have accompanied the shocks have added to the destruction.

Earth tremors began shortly after midnight on Friday and continued throughout Saturday causing hours of terror in the Californian coastline cities.

No fewer than one hundred and twenty-five shocks were reported to have been counted up to a late hour on Saturday night. They were experienced over an area of 6,000 square miles in a belt of coastline ranging thirty miles inland, states the Sunday Times correspondent at Los Angeles.

The epi-centre of the disturbance is estimated to be in the ocean bed off Long Beach. The most severe shock and the one which caused widespread damage barely lasted a minute.

Palatial residences and giant public buildings crumbled like matchwood burying hundreds of people. Long Beach, the resort of Millionaires, is reduced to ruins and fires are sweeping the city. Thousands of troops have been sent there to maintain order and the city is practically under martial law. The hospitals are crowded out.

Scores of people have seized the opportunity presented to carry out looting expeditions at Long Beach.

The authorities have ordered the evacuation of the women and children from the devastated city.

In Los Angeles the streets in one quarter are like a battlefield and thousands of people are fleeing to the country.

According to information received from Tokio it is understood that the Japanese troops have no intention of entering North China "unless the Chinese compel them to do so."

This assurance was understood to have been given on Saturday by the Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs to the British Ambassador.

The Japanese War Office is requisitioning motor cars, and motor trucks in Tokio, Osaka and Nagoya, which is interpreted as a precautionary measure in the event of developments in North China.

With the fall of Hsifengkow which the Chinese now admit, the Rising Sun flies on all the passes across the Great Wall.

HAVOC IN TOKIO.

Blizzard Follows Earthquake.

A Reuter message from Tokio states that a raging blizzard accompanied by snow has added to the havoc wrought by the recent earthquake there wherein devastation has been caused by fire and tidal waves.

The official figures of the casualties is now estimated to be 1,535 dead and missing, 948 injured. But through the interruption of communications which still exists these figures are admittedly incomplete and the casualties are expected to number over 3,000

Nearly 5,000 houses have been completely destroyed and over 3,000 have been engulfed by three mountainous waves which followed the earthquake.

Destroyers and flying boats have been sent to the rescue but snow has driven the planes back. The destroyers are patrolling the coast with medical supplies and provisions.

NEW YORK "THREADBARE."

A Daily Telegraph correspondent writes that living without ready cash is a problem in the United States at the moment.

Although rich restaurants are still available hundreds of thousands of people are carrying home-made lunches to the offices.

Cinemas are almost empty because ready money is required for more important uses. So far housewives have been able to exchange their husbands pay checks for household necessities but luxury haunts such as turkish baths and beauty parlours and florists are deserted.

In Reno, the divorce industry, which is strictly a cash business, is stagnant.

DISARMAMENT DIFFICULTIES.

A message from Geneva on Tuesday states that Mr. Ramsay MacDonald is continuing his efforts to find a means of bringing the Disarmament Conference to a successful issue.

The same evening he had a conference, the second within two days, with the French Foreign Minister, M. Paul Boncour. The British Minister pressed the view that the French Premier should proceed to Geneva without delay to take part in the discussions.

The British Government and Mr. MacDonald are anxious above all things to avoid rearmament on the part of Germany, says the Daily Telegraph.

They fear that, faced by the French resolve not to accept in any material measure the disarmament conditions, the German Government will ultimately declare its intention to re-arm in certain directions.

Mr. MacDonald having now ascertained the views of all the principal delegates at Geneva expects to be in a position to address the Conference to-day.

HERTZOG HUFFY.

According to a Reuter message from Cape Town General Hertzog on Wednesday threatened to resign from the Premiership and from the leadership of the Nationalist Party.

"I refuse to be a conditional Premier," he declared.

At the time of making the statement he was speaking at the Cape Nationalist Congress at de Aar, which had been specially called to consider the agreement to form a Coalition Government.

In replying to the leader of the Cape Nationalists, Mr. Malan, he demanded the passing of an unequivocal and unconditional resolution for or against the Coalition.

Eventually the Congress passed a noncommittal resolution which, while not pledging itself to the principle of coalition promised the Coalition Government its support provided that the Nationalist principles were not violated. This resolution is only slightly different from the one which Malan expressed his intention of moving. Consequently a serious split in the party is probable states the Daily Telegraph.

THE MOSCOW SCANDAL.

In addition to the four Englishmen arrested in Moscow early Sunday morning two more Englishmen, both belonging to the Metropolitan Vickers organisation, have been placed under arrest in addition to twenty-five Russians most of whom are engineers.

The Metropolitan Vickers' Leningrad offices were also raided on Saturday last but the manager was not arrested.

The Soviet Secret Police announcement alleges that the persons arrested had "set themselves the task of destroying the electrical power system of the Soviet Union and halting the work and enterprises served by them."

In a statement issued by the Company in London the news of the arrests has been confirmed. The Company is unable to account for the arrests. During the past ten years Messrs. Metropolitan Vickers Company has had continuous business dealings with the Russian Government and has supplied large quantities of electrical machinery and other apparatus and the relations between the Russian Government and the Company have been satisfactory in every way. Through the long period of its business dealings it has been a rigid rule of the Company that every employee must concern himself with matters of trade and technical assistance and have nothing to do with political and allied matters.

Pending further developments the Company is confident that a mistake has been made and that there are no grounds for the justification of the action of the authorities in Moscow.

NEW YORK BANKING NEWS.

Fortified by supplies of the new currencies hundreds of banks in the United States have re-opened after a ten days' bank holiday. Some have restricted withdrawals to necessities while others are only forbidding excessive payments obviously intended for hoarding. The first reports indicate that there is as much money being returned as withdrawn.

In New York alone 135 banks and Trust companies have opened on almost a normal basis.

- O -

Criminal action is expected to be taken shortly against those bankers whose illegal use of bank funds has been revealed by the recent holiday. As already reported J.W. Harriman has been arrested on a warrant charging him with mis-use of the funds of the Harriman National Bank and Trust Company whereof he was chairman.

Two further developments occurred on Wednesday in the process of cleaning up America's banking system.

The Government's representatives who are directing the affairs of the closing of the First National Bank and the Guardian National Trust in Detroit and Michigan have discharged all the officers of both institutions above the grade of assistant cashier.

Two bankers - Bernard Marcus, the president of the now defunct Bank of the United States in New York, and Saul Singer, the executive vice-president of the same concern - have lost their appeals against the prison sentences of three and six years for their part in the misappropriation of 6,500,000 dollars belonging to the bank.

PROPOSAL TO DISARM EUROPE.

There is every hope that the meetings between the Premiers of Britain, France, Germany and Italy will take place although the expectation is not entirely free from anxiety, states the Daily Telegraph.

Mussolini is held to be "the saviour of European Peace" because it is believed that the meetings, to which he has agreed, are desirable & will lead to a clear understanding of the problems arising out of the disarmament deadlock.

Mussolini wishes for an effective, far-reaching and binding armament reduction but is ready to disarm entirely by sea, land and air, if the other European States guarantee to do likewise.

At the conversations which are to begin with the British Minister to-day, Mussolini is understood to be advocating a general reduction in tariffs; the stabilisation of European currency on a gold basis as soon as reasonably practicable; and the liquidation of war debts.

U.S. CHEERFUL.

The boom in Wall Street continued on Thursday, states a message from New York and dealings were again on a very heavy scale. The pace, however, was not sustained although the turn over for the day was 340,000 shares. Despite the large profit taking the market closed irregularly higher.

The Americans on Thursday were positively cheerful. Though they do not claim that the war against depression has ended they consider themselves to have won a great battle under President Roosevelt's leadership and are following up with a vigorous offensive says the Daily Telegraph.

On Thursday eighty per cent of the New-York State banks opened and New York which is the heart of America's financial machinery is thus giving a great lead to the rest of the country.

TENSE SITUATION IN VIENNA.

Although the armed guards have been removed from the streets in Vienna, the situation is still tense.

The Clericals who hold the majority of the seats in the Cabinet are determined to cling to the power. As the Government has only a majority of one vote in Parliament the Clericals are resolved to rule Austria by decree.

The other parties are clamouring for dissolution in the hope of ending the present regime. This the Clericals will resist at all costs. The Austrian Hitlerites are filled with indignation at the Dictatorship because it is not of their brand.

It is considered possible that Hitler will participate in the conversations.

THE MOSCOW SCANDAL.

Possible International Complications.

In view of the continued refusal of the Moscow authorities to allow the British Embassy or lawyers to communicate with the Metropolitan Vickers prisoners, it is thought, says the Daily Telegraph, that they are being subjected to third degree methods.

Following the suspension of trade negotiations the sequential steps, if taken, are bound to have considerable international effects says the same journal.

It is denied by the Metropolitan Vickers management in Moscow that it is possible that the men concerned would be involved in the sabotage of the twenty million pounds Dniepskостroi Dam Power Station as this was erected jointly by the General Electric and another American firm. In addition the sabotage is technically impossible as each turbine blade weighs approximately five tons and a whole truck load of acid would be necessary to inflict serious damage.

AN ISLAND CENTENARY.

Claims To Remembrance.

We publish below a Leading Article appearing in The Times of the 14th February last dealing with the Centenary of the Falkland Islands.

A hundred years ago the British flag was finally and definitely hoisted on the Falkland Islands, after a chequered ownership in earlier years and a record, though hardly continuous, of some three and a half centuries.

Suddenly, as all remember, they blazed into universal fame in December, 1914, when, on the morning after Sturdee's swift and powerful squadron, which Lord Fisher had secretly dispatched from the Grand Fleet, had arrived at Port William the German squadron under Von Spee was sighted from the observation post on the hill.

To this day many have a warm place in their hearts for the gallant but obsolete Canopus which would otherwise have been the sole representative of the Navy in that remote harbour.

Of few islands of comparable size can it be said that they have influenced the course of the world's destiny so directly, and it was appropriate that Sir Richard Phillimore, who commanded one of the ships of Sturdee's squadron, should have presided over their Centenary celebration in London last night.

But the Falklands have other claims to remembrance as well. Many distinguished men from illustrious Elizabethan navigators onwards have set foot on their bleak shores - territory so bare and treeless that one of the drawbacks to residence or even a short sojourn on them is the incessant high wind, while the heavy rainfall is another.

A list would include not only captains and explorers but a fine body of naturalists, who may now be said to have left no form of life on the islands unclassified. Of these Darwin will always rank as the chief, for the Beagle brought him, and in the Beagle he took away specimens, now only skulls, of the one, since extinct, aboriginal mammal of the islands. "Canis Antarcticus" he called it; but others, like the Frenchman De Bougainville whose name is perpetuated in a plant, knew it as the "loop-renard", for it had lupine and vulpine qualities which made it an undesirable neighbour to sheep farms.

The sheep, of which many thousands are bred for their wool, were not the first imported animals; cattle were introduced before them, and many an exciting moment the bulls would give to hunters. But civilisation prevailed; the wild herds yielded to the domesticated; the islands became the seat of a Bishopric, and to this day the noise and the smell of petrol-driven engines are almost unknown.

Time will no doubt draw the little community more into the world; but the climate will probably always prevent the islands from becoming a popular resort with pleasure voyagers, highly interesting as they are.

BEER & WINE FOR THE STATES.

Approval has been given by the Senate to light wines and beer; this means that the Americans will probably be permitted by law to drink mildly stimulated beverages by the 5th of April.

The precise alcoholic content for the beer and wine has not yet been determined.

The Senate has authorised 3.05 by weight for beer and wine while the House of Representatives 3.2 for beer only.

The Americans are satisfied that the new "beer" will be drinkable but the "wine" with such a low alcoholic content is generally considered laughable.

Meanwhile nationwide preparations are being made for beer-gardens.

THE "TIMES" & THE CENTENARY.

A Clean & Attractive Town.

In an article in The Times of the 11th of February last, a column in length and contributed by a Special Correspondent, an interesting and appreciative survey of the Falklands is given. Together with it is a map and on the Picture Page appears a photograph of Government House taken by the Hon. G. Roberts.

Though the length of the article prohibits our publishing it in full we take this opportunity of giving the following extracts :

Stanley to-day is a clean and attractive town of 1,200 inhabitants. It is the capital and the only town in the islands. Communication is carried out between Stanley and the farms on horseback or by boat. There are no roads beyond the immediate vicinity of the town, but a start has been made on the construction of tracks negotiable by motor traffic.

The sheep are of the cross-bred type and are run solely for their wool. The average weight of a fleece is $7\frac{1}{2}$ lbs., and the yearly clip amounts to about 4,000,000 lbs. The total sheep population is slightly in excess of 600,000, and the ratio of acres to sheep throughout the islands works out at not less than five to one and of sheep to human beings at nearly 290 to one, this latter proportion probably constituting a record.

The Centenary of British rule has been eagerly awaited by the islanders, and preparations have been in progress throughout the past twelve months for the purpose of ensuring that the occasion is observed in a manner befitting its importance.

The conveyance to Port Stanley of visitors from the "camp", which term denotes the whole country outside the town, raises a problem and demands special arrangements. The farmers and shepherds of the East Falkland for the most part will make the journey overland on horseback, accompanied by their womenfolk and families, the baby balanced on the saddle in front of the father. Those from the West Falkland must avail themselves of a coasting vessel. Many of them have not visited Stanley for a number of years, and not a few will undertake for the first time the adventure of a trip to town.

"THE MEN ON THE SPOT."

The Sheffield Daily Telegraph published the following Leading Article on the 15th of February last :-

The Falkland Islands, that remote outpost of Empire in near neighbourhood to the confines of Antarctica, are not so well known as they deserve to be. It is just a hundred years since the British flag was hoisted there - the Centenary is being celebrated both in the Colony and here this week - but long before that it had been occupied in our name. Not only by us, for other countries laid claim to it, and even at this late period Argentina still regards herself as the owner "de jure."

For most people association with the destruction of Von Spee's naval squadron in 1914, by Admiral Sturdee, will form the best connection between the Motherland and this most southerly of all the Crown Colonies. The battle of the Falkland Islands did more than wipe out a menace; it really changed the course of history in some particulars; certainly it restored to us the supremacy of the southern seas and that at a time when such predominance meant a great deal.

For all its forbidding and bleak surroundings, the Colony has not been overlooked by men of note. Its population to-day may consist in the main of hardy headsmen and still harder whalers, but scientists of international renown have found much to interest them there.

Every boy will recall the visit of Darwin in the Beagle to the small and isolated community; Bougainville, the Frenchman whose name survives in the beautiful flower called after him, was also interested both in its fauna and flora. Then a greater yet, and a modern, Shackleton, must ever be associated with the stormy seas that rage round the colony perennially.

Despite its inhospitable climate and distant latitude, the inhabitants cling to the Imperial connection; witness the despatch to Bisley of a team of marksmen keen enough to carry off one of the chief trophies of that rifle meeting.

The Falklands may be destined to play a more important part still should the dream of Antarctica as a mineralogist's paradise ever be materialised. If so, it is well that we are the men on the spot, owners in actual possession.

Banned By Argentine Post Office.

The Falkland Islands commemorative stamps will have no franking value in Argentina, according to a resolution announced yesterday (11th March) by the Government. Consequently the recipients of letters bearing those stamps will be called upon to pay the postage plus the usual fine.

Yesterday's Herald contained some comments on a recent leading article in La Prensa, in which that paper claimed that the Argentine authorities should consider valid the stamps referred to, inasmuch as the Falkland Islands rightfully belong to Argentina and letters therefore, should bear Argentine stamps.

Furthermore, it was pointed out, the new issues bore the dates 1853 - 1953, commemorating British occupation of the island; which La Prensa considered a further reason for withholding recognition of their validity.

The Ministry of the Interior announced yesterday that steps had already been taken before the newspaper article referred to appeared, as he had communicated with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in that connection on two occasions, in February and at the beginning of March.

A communication had been sent to the Legation in Berne instructing it to notify the Postal Union that the Argentine Post Office refused to recognise the franking power of the stamps.

ANGLO-ARGENTINE AGREEMENT.

A trade agreement will shortly be signed announces the Sunday Times between Britain and the Argentine, removing not only the restrictions on the exchange of money but providing for lower tariffs between the two countries.

This agreement, it is hoped, will be the first of a series between Britain and other States for the lowering of tariff walls and thus contributing to the revival of trade prosperity.

So secret have been the discussions that not even the high commercial interests have had definite knowledge as to what was being proposed by the official representatives.

The Agreement, when announced, will justify the claim made frequently by the Chancellor of the Exchequer that the supreme importance of tariffs to Britain is that they provide means for promoting freer trade by bargaining.

LITTLE ENTENTE DISCONTENT.

According to a report from Geneva the Little Entente has cold-shouldered Mr. MacDonald's Rome negotiations by declaring that it will have nothing to do with the Four Power Pact.

The Little Entente issued a communication on Saturday stating that it did not recognise the dictum that good relations could be furthered between countries by agreements which disposed of the rights of a third party, either when these agreements applied to the signatories themselves or when they exercised pressure upon countries who were not signatories.

They further regret that the idea of a treaty revision should have been mooted as the policy of a revision would tend to upset the present calm atmosphere in relation to the Little Entente and the Powers.

THE LATE MR. A.W.N. VINCENT.

Death On The Reina.

It is with the deepest regret we record the death of Mr. A.W.N. Vincent who left Stanley in the m.v. Reina del Pacifico last month with Mrs. Vincent and their only son, Master Michael Vincent. A Marconigram received by the Hon. L.W.H. Young (Manager of the Falkland Islands Company, Stanley,) briefly announced that he passed away on the ship at 3.0 p.m. on Saturday last, the 25th March.

For over eleven years Mr. Vincent had been in the employ of the Falkland Islands Company, Stanley, in the capacity of accountant and was, until his serious break-down in health about twelve months ago, an enthusiastic sportsman who took a keen and active interest in all athletic pursuits.

In spite of his cheery fortitude his condition gradually became worse and he struggled vainly against his affliction. His death was all the more poignant since he passed away far from his friends in the Falkland Islands and within a week's journey of those whom he would soon have met again at home: the heartfelt sympathy of all in the Colony goes out to Mrs. Vincent and Micky in their irreparable loss and of excellent quality consistent with good price.

About drink - whatever your favourite beverage may be, we have it,

For your first drink in the morning we recommend water, and it costs you nothing or practically nothing. But though water may quench your early morning "thirst", it will hardly help you to sustain body and soul together during the eight-hour working day. So for Breakfast we recommend you to boil your water and blend it with an infusion of

Ceylon Tea - 1 lb. packets @ 2/- (Green label.)
2/6 (Yellow label.)
3/3 (Red label.)

or Pure Brazilian Coffee - fresh roasted & ground by us, now reduced to 2/- per lb.

or also Yerba Mate - at 1/2 per lb., this being the best drink of the lot for those who live extensively on a meat diet, as has been proved again and again by travellers on the South American Continent.

During the mid-day meal beer is desirable and for this we strongly recommend "TIGER BRAND" British Lager Beer. Firstly, because it is British made; secondly, because it is light, refreshing and invigorating, and the price is 12/8d per dozen bottles.

At tea-time obviously, you must drink TEA, otherwise this repast would be known by some other name. Only, see that you make it with one of our three qualities CEYLON TEA.

Whether you "dine" or "sup" for the last meal of the day, you should end the meal itself with either TEA or COFFEE, and when the time comes to pull your chairs up to the fire-side to indulge in a smoke, a yarn, or some reading, a tot or so of good whisky is indicated. For this purpose we have just imported an extra special cask of mellow whisky which we have bottled under the name of "ZACHARIAH FEE BRAND". And this special whisky will be on sale for four days only at the reduced price of 7/11 per bottle. From the 1st of April it's regular price will be 9/6 per bottle.

The supply is limited - the quality supreme.

TERRIBLE AIR CRASH.

Sleeping Family Burnt To Death.

According to a message from San Francisco fifteen people were killed and three houses were demolished when a giant air-liner crashed on Saturday night and burst into flames at Hayward, a suburb of the city.

The pilot, Jack Evans, was flying from Los Angeles when his machine was caught in a violent storm. Apparently he was forced to land when all the ground lights were blotted out by rain.

The plane tore into the house of a Portuguese named Avis, killing the whole family which included four children who were upstairs asleep and six guests downstairs, sitting in the parlour after dinner.

The impact was terrific and following the explosion which was heard for miles around, the flames leapt up over fifty feet and illuminated the neighbourhood like daylight. The occupants of the two neighbouring houses escaped into the driving rain in their night-clothes, saving nothing from the inferno that consumed their homes.

Evans with his two passengers, Miss Miller of Hollywood and Herman Brown, a wealthy builder of Los Angeles, perished in the flames.

NO BAIL

FOR BRITISH PRISONERS IN MOSCOW.

A Moscow message states that the Soviet Chief Prosecutor, Vishinsky has refused to release on bail the four British prisoners and nine of the Russian employees of the Metropolitan Vickers Company.

Alan Monkhouse, the Company's chief representative now on parole, was summoned on Saturday and underwent an interrogation lasting three hours.

It is reported that he tried to communicate his company's refusal to sue for bail unless all the employees, English and Russian, were granted bail and the Prosecutor refused to accept delivery on the grounds that the communication "asserted the innocence of the prisoners and denied the validity of the Soviet Court to try them."

AMAZING ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

John Langstrath, an eighteen-year-old Preston, Lancashire youth, who climbed a 250 foot pylon on Saturday carrying cables with 132,000 volts, was suddenly knocked over in a sheet of flame many yards long. His clothing and the soles of his boots were burnt off.

The engineer gave instructions that no one was to ascend the pylon until the current was turned off and experts had arrived, as the shock must have killed the unfortunate young man.

Just as permission to ascend had been given Langstrath was seen descending the ladder followed by another boy who had climbed with him.

Though badly burnt Langstrath is expected to recover.

CHALLENGE SHOOT.

"Old Soldiers" v. "Young Soldiers."

This popular annual match of the Defence Force Rifle Association is down on the programme of events to be shot off of Sunday next, the 1st April.

Last year the result of the contest was indecisive but this year the "Veterans", who will be at full strength, mean business.

Our correspondent has heard as well though, that the "Young Uns" are quite confident that they will be the conquerors this year so the outcome should be interesting.

The match will be a ten round shoot at the 300, 500 and 600 yards, each team comprising twelve members. Eddie Montasney will captain the "Young Soldiers" while Mr. Jack Grierson will lead the "Veterans". A Spoon shoot will also take place in conjunction with the other event.

The Teams are requested to be on the range at 10.0 a.m..

FALKLAND STAMPS.

"In The Interests Of Philately."

A Buenos Aires paper printed in English and published on the 11th of March states :-

"La Prensa suggests that the Post Office should refuse to deliver letters franked with the new Centenary issue of the Falkland Islands, unless the addressee submits to a surcharge. The stamps carry the inscription "1833 - 1933," and La Prensa fears that recognition of them might imply some waiving of Argentina's claim to the islands.

"If an incident does occur, says our Philatelic correspondent, the interest of all stamp collectors would be great, and a heavy volume of correspondence would find its way from Port Stanley in order to provide specimens bearing the Argentine surcharge, 'which would be much sought after by collectors all over the world.'

"It is suggested that the Argentine authorities might go still further in the interests of Philately. Let it refuse to take letters for the Falkland Islands unless addressed "Islas Malvinas, Republica Argentina". In that event, the British authorities in Port Stanley would be able to do a little surcharging. Or special Argentine stamps might be issued, and the demand for them would be high throughout the world; although, of course, La Prensa might become a little alarmed 'in case by any chance there should be confusion on the point in anybody's mind.'

"But there would be no need for anxiety; for, as our correspondent says, 'philatelists, like the devotees of Esperanto and the higher Communism, know no national boundaries. In the quietest suburbs lurk simple, law-abiding souls with a passion for Red Russia, the deserts of Iraq, and the gaily feathered birds in the jungles of New Guinea.'

"Somehow, despite the pleading of La Prensa, we cannot imagine an Argentine Government declining to deliver, without surcharge, stamped mail addressed here from a British colony; for, after all, the Falklands are British!"

It should be made clear that the article in Monday's "Penguin" reproduced from the Buenos Aires Herald makes reference to the statement of La Prensa that the Argentine authorities should not consider the Falkland Islands stamps valid.

FOREIGN TRADE OVER WAR DEBTS.

A statement issued from Washington with reference to the conversations of Sir R. Lindsay and the U.S.A. Secretary of State, Mr. Hull, says that the preliminary and tentative world economic discussions are continuing with a gratifying clarification of views.

The Daily Telegraph says that the real importance of American foreign trade compared with the un-importance of the war debts is the subject of many communications to the State Department from trade organisations.

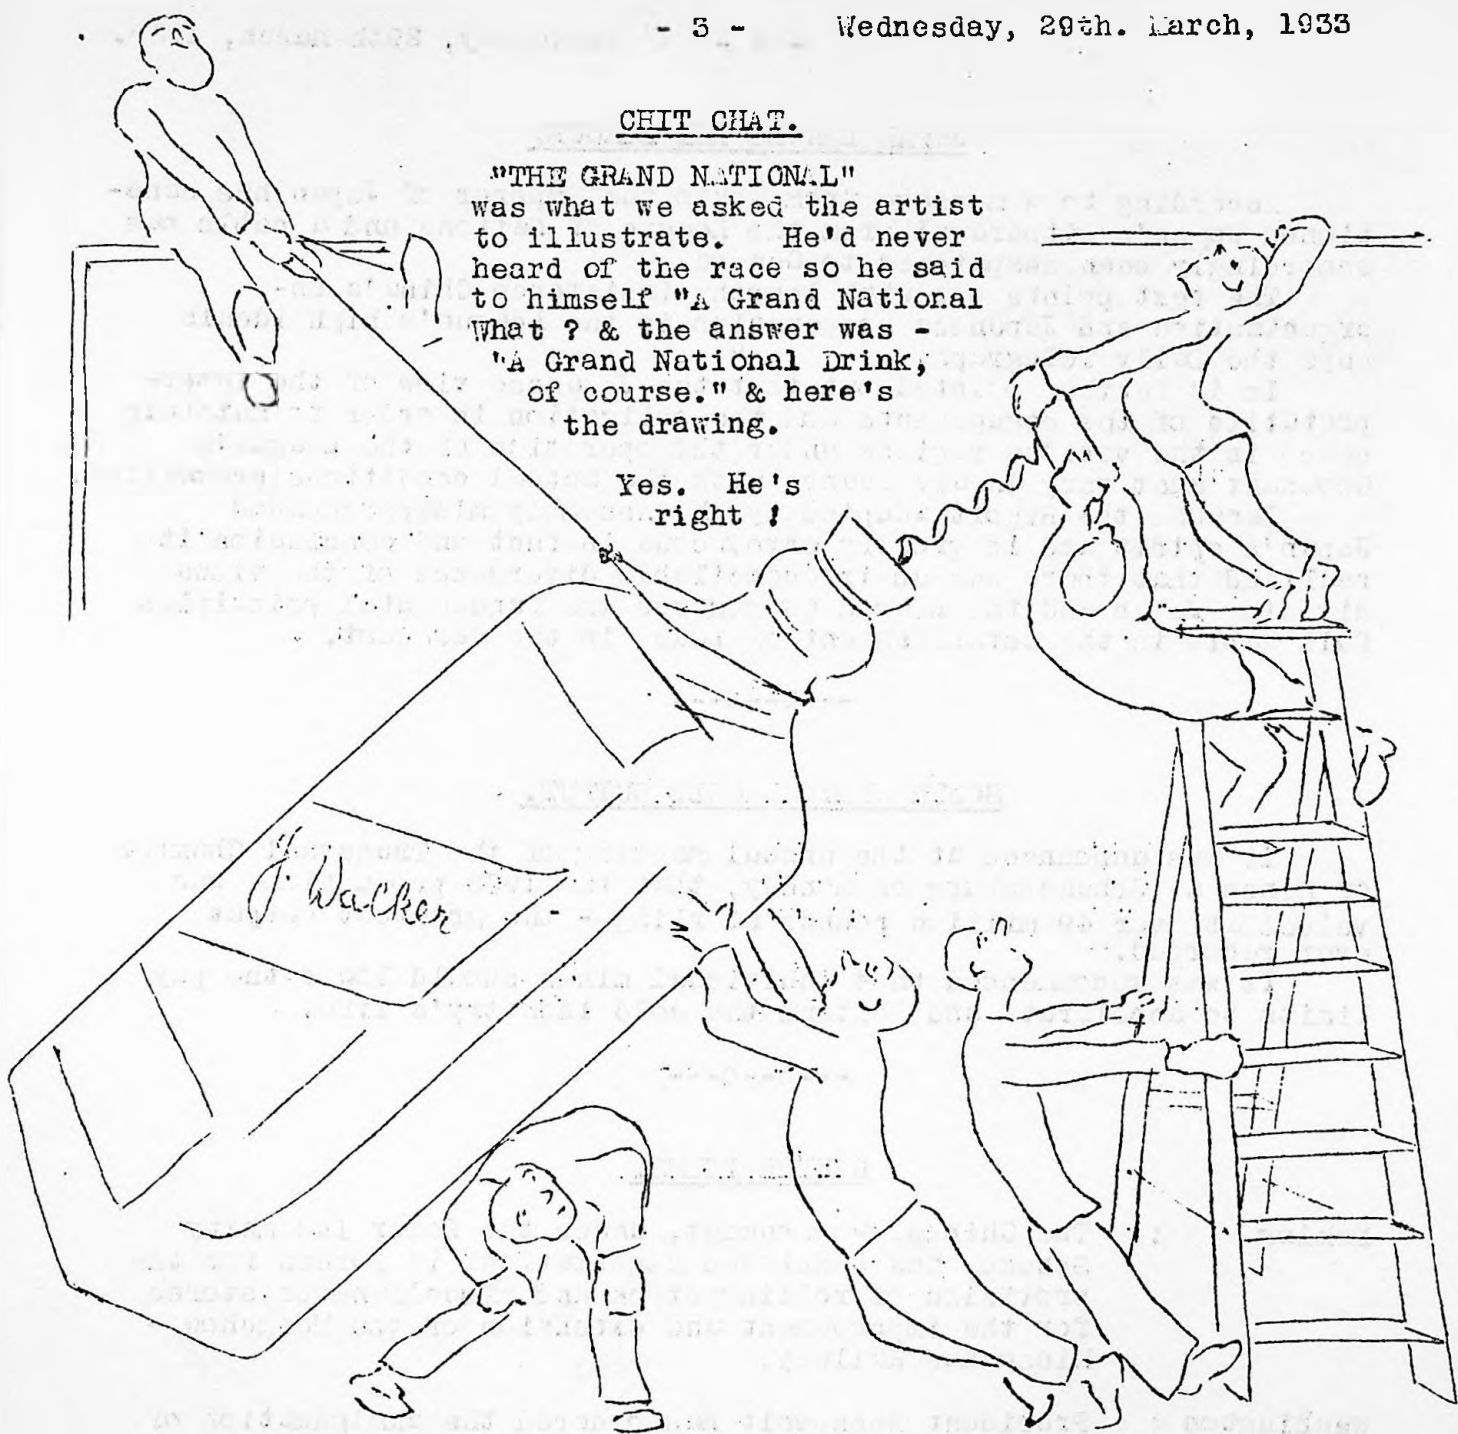

It is the official view that war debts and world economies are becoming more interlinked.

JAPAN LEAVES THE LEAGUE.

According to a message from Tokio the Emperor of Japan has sanctioned Japan's withdrawal from the League of Nations and a cable has accordingly been despatched to Geneva.

The text points out with lengthy insistence China's un-organisation and Japanese cooperation in the League's high ideals says the Daily Telegraph.

It is further pointed out that the Japanese view of the interpretation of the engagements and the obligation in order to maintain peace in the various regions under the operation of the League's Covenant must vary in accordance with the actual conditions prevailing.

Because the Report adopted by the Assembly misapprehended Japan's spirit and is grossly erroneous in fact and conclusion it realised that there was an irreconcilable divergence of the views dividing Japan and the League as regards the fundamental principles followable in the establishment of peace in the far east.

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION.

Interesting Link With Bishop Sterling.

We extend our heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Granmer Betts who celebrated their Golden Wedding on Saturday at the house of their son-in-law and daughter in Stanley - Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyse.

As hale and hearty as ever Mr. and Mrs. Betts, who came to Stanley last month for the first time in twenty years in order to be present at the Centenary Celebrations, are charmed with the Town which has undergone a great transformation since their last visit. But for all the pleasure it gives them they still love the Camp and shortly will be returning again to Pebble Island where they have lived since 1885. Only four times during the course of those forty-eight years have they been away.

Mr. Betts, who is now seventy-four, has the distinction of being the first British boy to be born on Keppel and as a youth he helped to build the first house on Carcass Island. Mrs. Betts is the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. Kiddle and was born in London. Her parents came out to the Falklands in the "Sea Witch" under the command of Captain Thomas in 1873, Mr. Kiddle being employed by Mr. George Dean at Port Stephens. Their knowledge of the West Falklands is most intimate and probably unique for they both remember well the Missionary Settlement at Keppel, Bishop Sterling, Mrs. Sterling and the celebrated Jemmy Button, one of the natives whom the Bishop took home to England; and they have a fund of anecdotes relating to the heroic work done in trying to convert these savage and primitive people whom Charles Darwin at first thought it impossible to civilise.

Mr. Betts father first made his acquaintance of the Falklands in the early fifties when the ship he was on went down off Cape Carysfort, near the Volunteers. He became a member of the crew of the first Allen Gardiner, Bishop Sterling's mission ship and for two years journeyed backwards and forwards to Tierra del Fuego. Then he went to Port Louis to work for Captain Packe but returned to the mission station at Keppel finally being dismissed because he would not go on the vessel when she made her ill-fated trip to Ushuaia in 1856 when the whole crew, except the cook, were massacred. He married a daughter of Sergeant Smith, one of the pensioners who came to the Colony, and from Keppel he went to Pebble Island where he remained over eleven years before retiring to live the rest of his days in Stanley.

Many friends and relatives were present on Saturday to proffer their congratulations and to taste the special cake made, unbeknown to Mr. and Mrs. Betts, by their fourteen year old grand-daughter, Lena Lyse. Among the gathering were Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Betts (grand-son and grand-daughter-in-law) with their baby boy who had the distinction of being the great-grandson of the guests of honour. Mr. and Mrs. Betts have twelve grand-children, two married sons - Messrs. Alexander and William Betts of Pebble, and one married daughter M- Mrs. J.W. Brown of Costa Rica while Mr. James Peck-Betts of Pebble is their adopted son.

"JEWS' PARLIAMENT."

A Protest Against Persecution

London.

The Board of Deputies of British Jews has passed a resolution protesting against the persecution of Jews in Germany.

It has been decided to convene a meeting at an early date, which, the Daily Telegraph understands, will fully represent non-Jewish as well as Jewish opinion.

Jewry throughout the whole of the British Empire is represented on the Board of Deputies and its popular designation "The Jews' Parliament" implies no exaggeration of its influence. Directly it represents 300,000 Jews in Great Britain alone.

While taking no part in the boycott of German goods, Mr. Laski said the Board recognised the depths of indignation which it called it forth. The Board had details of persecution, even of physical violence, to which Jews have been subjected and Captain Goering's denial was untrue.

IMPERIAL AIRWAYS CRASH.

15 Deaths.

The British air-liner "City of Liverpool" crashed in flames at Eesen, Belgium, at 2.30 p.m. on Tuesday. All on board, numbering fifteen of whom eleven were British, were killed and believed burnt.

Following a mid-air engine explosion, the machine hurtled from 500 feet in flames and struck the ground at approximately 125 miles an hour, one of the wings becoming detached in the fall.

Two passengers unsuccessfully leaped from the machine and their bodies were found a great distance from the wreck.

The bodies of the pilot (Captain L.E. Leu), the mechanic and four passengers were recovered from the debris. The extrication of the other remains is proceeding.

At the enquiry which opened at Dixmunde the same day an eye-witness stated that smoke preceded the explosion and the pilot appeared to be in control until the last.

ANTI-JEWISH BOYCOTT.

Nazis' Nationwide Decision.

A message from Munich states that the Nazis are officially sponsoring a nationwide anti-Jewish boycott, commencing at Tenam on Saturday.

The desirability of limiting the number of Jews in the professional classes has been stressed. This is to be done according to the percentage of the Hebrew population and a stringent boycott is to be enforced until the foreign press allegations of torture and maltreatment of the Jews ceases.

A notice announcing this propaganda campaign says "the trenchant measures we are taking will be ample to end the foreign anti-German campaign."

Meanwhile the Brunswick Nazi Government has officially dissolved the Steel Helmet organisation there and arrested 1,300 connected with it. Conflicting reports relative to this state on the one hand, that it is only a local disturbance, while other quarters allege that the Steel Helmets are engaged in a counter-revolutionary action.

A joint commission of Steel Helmet and Nazi leaders proceeded to Brunswick to investigate the matter and in consequence the dissolution has now been rescinded as from the 1st of April.

CHIT CHAT.

1933, The Centenary Year of The Falkland Islands, started full of hope that the tide of commercial depression had turned.

A few days ago came the news of the first (March) Wool Sales, with averages from 1d. to 2d. per lb less than the corresponding sale last year.

It is a mistake to think that only those actively engaged in sheepfarming are the sufferers under the depressing conditions obtaining. Everyone is affected to a greater or smaller extent, & almost everybody - particularly householders with families - will feel the need for economies during the current year.

THE WEST STORE, by its policy of selling a carefully selected range of goods at the cheapest possible prices, goes a long way towards automatically effecting these economies for the purchaser himself.

It has been, and will continue to be, "The Store's" pleasurable duty to consider the needs and the purse of its clients, and a month's shopping with us will convince you that this is no idle claim put forward for the mere sake of "boosting" ourselves.

We assure our clients that every "cut" it is possible to make; every price that can be lowered; every new line of goods that can make for cheap prices consistent with good quality, will be "Passed on" for the benefit of the customer.

It is impossible, with our huge range of goods of all classes - from Groceries to Clothing; from Ironmongery to Tobacco; from Timber to Crockery; to publish a complete price-list of our goods from month to month; but the careful householder, by studying our advertisements and comparing the prices can keep reasonably well in touch with all that is going on. And, if there is something you require that is not advertised, we invite you to come and visit us, see what you want, and rely upon our constant and loyal attention to your requirements.
