SILVER IN U.S.A.

Following the imposition of the ban on silver exports in the United States the Treasury Secretary, Morgenthau, stated on Friday that the step had been taken owing to the receipt of information that international speculators were making large shipments to indefinite foreign countries.

The Treasury announcement cited instances such as "London or Bombay" shipments and another as "Shanghai via Vancouver."

Morgenthau added that Professor Rogers is now investigating the Chinese silver question on behalf of the Treasury and he reports that the United States silver purchases have steadied the market and been helpful to business while the reports that there has been a drain of silver from China since the United States had embarked on silver buying was without foundation.

JAPAN'S NAVAL BID.

The Daily Telegraph states that it is understood in diplomatic circles that Japan is determined to bid for naval parity with Britain and America at the 1935 Naval Conference.

She will reject any proposals allotting her a lower ratio than the other two countries - the "High seas powers."

The same journal states also that the new British battleships being laid down in 1937 differ from any type now afloat, having guns firing twice as fast as the fifteen inch afloat now with protection on an entirely novel plan believed to be capable of defying any method of aerial attack with the entire structure virtually bomb proof.

THE BRITISH WAR DEBT.

The press comment on the British War Debt reply is to the effect that it is "Brusque, sanctimonious and self-righteous" according to the Washington Post.

The journal added that it would be the last of futile recriminations which had only served to emphasise the irreconcilability between the British and the United States views on the problem adding that the discussions might now be continued along definitely constructive lines.

NAZI "REVOLUTION" CAUGHT OUT.

From an incomplete wireless message it would appear that considerable excitement was experienced in Germany over the week-end when, at the instigation of Hitler, several of the prominent Nazi leaders were arrested.

Continuing from the point where the message was picked up the news states :

"Vice Chancellor Von Papen's house was guarded by police and nobody was allowed to pass, but whether the arrest was merely protective is unstated.

"The revolution was a comedy before it even began and the real cause for such bitter dissention in the Nazi party is probably to be found, says the Daily Telegraph correspondent, in the growing dissatisfaction of the extremists with Hitler's desire to consolidate on moderate lines.

"General Schleiker was sitting down to luncheon when the room was filled with police. In making a move to reach his revolver the police answered with a volley and Frau Von Schleiker, who threw herself at the leader beseeching him to cease fire, intercepted the bullet.

"Roehm was arrested in his bedroom at Bad Weisse, where he is spending sick leave, by Hitler personally."

Hitler has issued twelve commands, the bulletin continues, to the new Chief of Staff, Herr Lutze, including among other matters a demand for simplicity and unostentation in the leaders, forbidding them to give expensive entertainments, the use of costly limosines or drink to excess. "I would like every mother to feel assured that her son, in joining the Storm Troopers or the Hitler Youth Movement, will not be morally corrupted" is a statement included in Hitler's injunctions.

According to a message from London the Anglo-German negotiations on the Dawes and Young Loans have been resumed and the Government has decided to delay setting up the proposed Clearing House fixed for the beginning of this month.

FOOTBALL.

No. 2 Platoon 2 : No. 3 Platoon 2.

A Lucky Draw.

The outstanding feature of Sunday's game was the scoring of all the goals (except one in which the ball was inadvertently put into the goal by a defender trying to clear) by new "blood" in the Defence Force. Both of No. 2's goals were scored by L. Grant and Kirk from mellees while No. 3's second goal was obtained (very luckily) by Bound - although it must be said that this new left winger put in a rattling good shot. In letting this last-mentioned goal through Stanford Williams committed his one blunder in an otherwise well played game. On several occasions he made excellent clearances and handled the ball well; it appeared that this unfortunate lapse was due to indecision owing to the rush of the opposing forwards and in his anxiety to clear forgot that he had an excellent pair of hands.

Compared with the previous week's game there was more excitement and the play was faster but unfortunately a great deal of the work was to no purpose for players were still apt to flock round the ball getting in each other's way rather than opening up and letting one man alone take the ball. The real root of the evil seems to be the over-exuberance of the players to get to the ball (and sometimes rather for the man) instead of keeping their positions or covering one another; that is to say, if it is necessary for a player to move out of position into another man's place, then the latter should move into the former's place until the pressure of the moment has so relaxed as to allow them both to resume their proper places.

No. 3 were lucky to get 1 point as a result of the game if one takes only into consideration the way they obtained their goals. Both were gifts. The first was due to a defender centring right into the goal mouth and the second we have already dealt with. But to say that they did not deserve any goals would be unfair for they attacked quite as much as their opponents and their forwards thrust hard so that on the whole the result was not a bad reflection on the respective merits of the sides. At half time the score stood at 1 - 0 in No. 3's favour. In the second half No. 2 scored two goals and No. 3 one, making the final score 2 - 2.

As regards the individual players P. Hardy at centre-half was as conspicuous as any while L. Grant on No. 2's left wing and R. Grant at right half for No. 3 were often well in the picture. J. Petterssen at back was very sound while F. White has lost none of his skill or dash. R. Wallen in his unusual position at forward was neat and worked hard.

Not for a long time has Stanley experienced so high a wind as that which blew continuously on Monday, throughout the night and all day yesterday lashing the spray over the exposed parts of Ross Road besides making walking extremely difficult at times and motorecycling hazardous.

The average velocity was about 45 or 50 miles an hour sometimes being even 70 or more. In some parts of the town sheet-iron was blown about like feathers while so great was the wash in the harbour that two motor-boats belonging to Mr A. Steel and Mr G. Perry sank at anchor.

THE GERMAN "REVOLUTION."

Hitler's suppression of the Storm-troopers is even more drastic than at first supposed states the Daily Telegraph's Berlin correspondent; and it is believed that between two and three hundred persons have been executed while about three hundred arrests have been made in Munich alone.

An anti-Nazi version has been given in the Paris press over the week-end to the effect that Hitler never intended the Storm-trooper leaders to be killed and sobbed when it was reported so. The same source states that Rohm's conspiracy was betrayed to Hitler by Goebbels who was approached by the plotters.

Among those "guarded" is Prince August Wilhelm, a son of the ex-Kaiser, while the ex-Crown Prince has gone on vacation in Switzerland.

There are several important reactions among them being an indignant denial from the Vatican that Klausener, the head of the Berlin Catholics, has committed suicide while the Austrian and Belgian frontier guards have been strengthened.

Hitler has telegraphed congratulations to Hitler and Goering on crushing the rebellion.

Von Papen is still virtually a prisoner.

THE GERMAN SITUATION.

A message from Berlin states that following a five-hour Cabinet meeting behind closed doors it was announced on Tuesday that Von Papen had resigned but, the Daily Telegraph correspondent states, it is not indicated whether this resignation has been accepted as Hitler left immediately by plane for Rendeck, to see President Von Hindenberg, who is considered Von Papen's protector.

The Propaganda Ministry states that the arrest of Von Papen became necessary as his staff were plotting, but Hitler's invitation to him to attend the Cabinet meeting is regarded as an indication that he has been personally acquitted of any complicity.

Unusual precautions were taken to guard the Ministers attending the meeting. All the adjacent thoroughfares to the Wilhelmstrasse were lined with specially picked troops carrying fixed bayonets.

Though from every corner of the Reich telegrams are arriving assuring Hitler of the Storm-troops' loyalty these are emanating from the leaders while the rank and file are seething with discontent over the drastic actions and events of the past few days.

The Cabinet gave Hitler legal sanction for his action against "treasonable activities" undertaken in a national emergency.

A NEW FRENCH PACT.

The Daily Telegraph learns that the French Foreign Minister, M. Barthou, will visit London next week for the purpose of learning the British Cabinet's views on a Mutual Assistance Pact which France wishes to conclude with the European powers for the defence of international peace against an eventual aggressor.

Hitherto the British Cabinet has observed an attitude of extreme reserve but, considering the present disturbed condition of Central Europe, it is expected that Mr Baldwin and his colleagues will recognise that there is good ground for the policy France wishes to enforce.

MAD SCRAMBLE

TO SEE SHOT GANGSTER.

Morbid sightseers have turned the usually quiet town of Arcadia into a sort of Hampstead-Heath-on-bank-holiday.

They have flocked to it by car, aeroplane and train. Cars are parked everywhere; it is almost impossible to move in any street for a surging, struggling mass of people. Scores of planes are in the fields outside the town.

The reason for it all: Clyde Farrow, the U.S.A. "Public Enemy No. 2" and his cigar-smoking sweetheart, were brought to Arcadia after they had been shot dead just outside the town. They have been put on exhibition.

A SCOT & HIS MULE.

In some recent army manoeuvres in Hampshire the following amusing incident is related showing how the British soldier remains the same in real or mimic war, in sun or rain.

A Scottish soldier, during the most pitiless showers which fell in the early hours, was dragging a reluctant mule across a bridge over the River Test which bore a notice saying that it had been destroyed.

The rain was coming down in pailfuls, and the soldier, dripping as if he were under a spout, was bending forward with the effort to get the mule across.

An umpire galloped up and demanded : "Can't you see this blooming bridge is blown up ?"

"Can't you see I'm blooming well swimming it ?" retorted the soldier.

STRENGTH OF GERMAN ARMY.

Increase In Influence.

Strange stories are being told of the week-end developments in Germany states the special correspondent of the Daily Telegraph now in Berlin, and questions are being asked why Goering delayed action against the hostile Berlin Stormtrooper soldiers until Hitler's Munich success was assured.

Allegations have been made by the brother of the executed Strauser that the direct cause of the shootings was the discovery by Goering of a plot in which the Chancellor connived to supplant him (Goering) as Nazi second in command.

To avoid this possibility Goering forced Hitler's hand.

It is pointed out that though the leaders of discontent have been removed nothing has been done to eliminate the causes of unrest and the only apparent result is that the army's political strength has increased since the generals have cooperated in the Hitler-Goering coup and as a result will demand increased influence.

---o---o---

NAVAL TALKS HITCH.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent reveals that serious differences have arisen in the preliminary naval talks particularly with reference to capital ships.

America is remaining adamant in her refusal to accept the British proposal for a reduction of the maximum tonnage for such vessels from 35 to 25-thousand tons.

America is prepared to agree to reductions but insists on the maximum tonnage being above 30-thousand, her standpoint finding support in Italy's decision to lay down two fast 35,000-ton battle-ships.

Britain, in diplomatic conversations, is seeking to dissuade Italy from building above 27,000 tons, but Rome defends her action on the grounds that her present capital ships are obsolete and that she cannot afford to build more than two in this category.

It is learned that France will demand an aggregate naval strength equalling Italy and Germany combined, with a further margin of power than Italy for policing her colonial empire.

THE GERMAN WAR DEBTS.

Agreement Signed.

The agreement regarding the German debt question was signed in London on Thursday afternoon. It covers a period of six months as from the 1st of July, 1934, and it provides that during this period the German Government will provide sterling funds at the Bank of England for the purchase at full nominal value all coupons under the Dawes and Young Loans. This applies to coupons in the beneficial ownership of British owners on the 15th of June, 1934.

As regards the other medium and long term debts, the agreement provides that the terms of the offer of the Reichsbank, embodied in the communique issued on the 29th of May last, shall apply to all interest et cetera due in respect of investments which, on the 15th of June last, were in the beneficial ownerships of British owners.

The agreement provides that the British Government will not during the period of the agreement exercise, in respect of Germany, the powers given them by the Debt Clearing Offices and Imports Restrictions Act, 1934.

The agreement is, of course, without prejudice to standstill terms in regard to short term debts.

Mr Chamberlain, in his speech in the House of Commons, added that in the preamble of the agreement both governments affirm an earnest desire that the trade and financial relations between these two countries will continue on a non-discriminatory and a most friendly basis, and that the volume of mutual trade shall be maintained and, as far as possible, be increased.

During the debate on the monetary policy, Mr Chamberlain declined to accede to the suggestion that a Committee should be set up to make a new enquiry into the subject.

He said "We have a sound banking system; they never had before; we have cheap capital; we have general confidence in finance and we have secured so much success under our policy."

Encouraging news came through on Saturday concerning the third Test Match being played at Manchester where England declared for nine wickets with a score of 627. Australia went in and at the close of play had lost one wicket for 136 runs.

Six Australian cricketers, including five of the players engaged in the present Test showed signs of sore throats and sickness. As already recorded Bradman and Chipperfield had to leave the field on Friday and after the day's play Woodfull, Ponsford and Brown retired early after reporting themselves unwell. Kippax, who is not in the team was also indisposed but was rather better on Saturday. After being examined by the doctor Bradman and Chipperfield were not permitted to appear in the team on Saturday. The other three, however, had sufficiently recovered to be able to turn out.

ANGLO-FRENCH TALKS.

The French Foreign Minister, M. Barthou, arrived in London yesterday (Sunday) and was met by Sir John Simon.

There are suggestions that the outcome of the talks will mean further commitments by Britain but the Sunday Times says that this is not the case.

It is stated that it has been made plain that no alliances and no special security obligations in extension to those provided for by the Locarno Treaty are envisaged.

This point was emphasized on Saturday by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr Neville Chamberlain, at the Birmingham Conservative Party meeting.

M. Barthou is accompanied by M. Petri, the Minister of Marine, whose intention is to join in the naval talks relative to the 1935 Conference and make contact with American representation.

THE GERMAN SITUATION.

A report from Berlin states that Von Papen, who has the support of President Von Hindenburg, has demanded an enquiry into the arrest of his staff and the shooting of his secretary, Von Rose, during the execution of the Rohn conspirators over the week-end.

In the event of Hindenburg acceding to Von Papen's request a serious situation may arise for the Hitler Government.

The list of executions is still mounting and while it is officially stated that there are forty-six dead, unofficial observers report the Munich executions to number 122 with 73 in Berlin, 54 at Breslau, 5 at Dresden and 1 at Stuttgart, including the Cabinet Minister Rohn, the ex-Bavarian Premier Von Kahr and eight former members of the Reichstag with at least one army general while the list is expected to be added to.

Lutze, the new head of the Brown Army has stated that the revolt was confined to the leaders.

Hitler's decree, issued on Monday, states that any expression of contempt for the Brown-shirts will be met with full severity.

A further message from the Daily Telegraph Berlin correspondent states that the spectre of a hungry winter is throwing its shadow over Germany and so great is the government's anxiety that a new law has been passed making Doctor Schmidt, "Minister of Economics" - a post unique in German history - so critical is the food situation.

Schmidt has been given full powers to put restrictive orders into effect without Cabinet sanction. Unless these powers are extended they will expire on the 1st of September, but it is expected that a system of ration tickets for food and textiles will be introduced before then.

Rathenau, the food controller during the war, was not armed with such authority as that granted Schmidt and the war regulations are being examined with a view to their possible re-application.

The problem is based on foreign exchanges as food necessities must generally be purchased abroad and the present ban on credit exports limits purchase.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN BRITAIN.

The Ministry of Labour's monthly report shows an increase of 2,205 in unemployment. The increase is partly attributed to the Whitsun holiday falling within the period under review and also to a sharp seasonal decline in coal-mining. But the other industries such as shipbuilding and engineering showed higher employment returns.

FORD SALES UP.

The Company announces that the world sale for June amounted to 101,661 compared with 32,543 last year, while the total sales for the first six months of 1934 are 119 per cent above those for the corresponding period last year.

WEDDING AT PORT HOWARD.

A very interesting wedding took place at Port Howard on the 5th instant when Miss Ellen Elizabeth Smith, the only daughter of Mr and Mrs John Crook Smith of Port Howard, was married to Mr Robert Pearson, a son of the late Mr William A. Pearson and Mrs Pearson of Stanley.

Mr R.C. Pole-Evans, J.P., performed the ceremony and the witnesses were Messrs John C. Smith and Charles Porter and Miss Gladys A. Johnson.

The bride looked most happy in a charming dress of pale blue crepe-de-chine and white lace trimmed with pearls, a veil with a coronet of orange blossom, and carrying a large bouquet of mixed flowers. As the attendant, her cousin, Miss Gladys Johnson, made a pretty little bridesmaid in a dainty frilled dress of pink crepe-silk suede with hat and shoes to match.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents where numerous relatives and friends drank the health of the happy couple and viewed the fine array of presents.

Two nights of dancing were subsequently enjoyed by all in the highly festooned dining-hall of the Port Howard Cookhouse which had been specially painted and decorated for the occasion.

CRICKET IN BYGONE DAYS.

How cricket started. No one knows exactly but it is thought to come from the old game of stool-ball where a player used his hand as a bat and a stool (called a "cricket") for a wicket.

Ladies' Cricket Match. A 1779 print shows a cricket match between "ladies of quality and fashion" at Sevenoaks. The picture shows that the bat was like a hockey club. You had to hit hard and no stone-walling was possible. Also only two wickets were used.

The changing bat. By 1800 prints show us bats that had changed shape and were more like the modern bat to look at. Bowling then began to become more scientific and also three stumps were in use.

First English Team in Australia. When, in 1861, the first English eleven visited Australia the Australians were allowed to field eighteen (sometimes twenty-two) players against them. The Surrey bowler, William Caffyn, was the first player to bowl a ball for England on Australian soil. Later he stayed in Australia and coached the Australians.

The first Test Match with Australia in the Antipodes was in 1877 and was won by the Australians. Each team had eleven players a side.

The First Australians in England. In 1878 the first Australian team came over and opposed an M.C.C. England eleven and won in one day's play by nine wickets. The English side only made 33 and 19 in the two innings.

The great "W.G." (Dr W.G. Grace) came out second ball each inning with a total of four.

The famous Australian, F.R. Spofforth, "the demon bowler", took six wickets for four runs and another Australian, H.E. Boyle, six wickets for three runs. Our bowlers did well too, Alfred Shaw taking half the Australian wickets for ten runs. It was certainly a bowler's match.

The first Test Match in England. This took place at the Oval in 1880 and was won by England.

Dr W.G. Grace scored the first century ever made by an Englishman in a Test Match, making 132 out of the English total of 483.

The Australians scored 149 and followed on, their captain, W. Murdoch making 153 out of their total of 327. The English eleven won by five wickets.

This was the only occasion on which Dr Grace and his two brothers (E.M. & G.F.) played in a Test Match together.

BUYING BRITISH PLANTS.

Two messages have been received in England to tell of substantial overseas orders for British aeroplanes.

Sir George Pearce, Commonwealth Minister of Defence, announces, says Reuter from Melbourne, that the Commonwealth Government has ordered twenty-four Seagull amphibian planes to reinforce Australia's defences.

The contract, involving an outlay of £2345,000, has been given to the Vickers Supermarine Aviation Works at Southampton.

The Government of Finland has placed a substantial order with the Bristol Aeroplane Company for Bulldog Mark IV single seater fighter planes, says a Helsingfors cable.

NEVER WRONG CLOCK.

For a new clock which is shortly to be placed on the market, it is claimed that it can never gain or lose.

It is an electric clock and its inventor says it will revolutionise the clock industry. More amazing still is the fact that it will cost only five shillings.

The clock will work in any position. It can be attached to wireless sets, telephones and motor-cars.

It is claimed that it is entirely shock-proof and has been designed principally for fitting to motor-cars. It has a device which makes it impervious to any vibration or bumping.

A large London firm connected with the motoring business is considering taking up this new invention.

The owner, a business man, hoped to live there, but he has found this impossible.

A Secretary, who went to take possession of the island paradise, was so enchanted that he refused to return, and is living there still.

CAPT SCOTT'S LAST NOTE.

A message from New York states that one of the last letters written by Captain Scott before he perished on the tragic journey from the South Pole in 1912 has been presented to Admiral Byrd who is now exploring the Antarctic.

The presentation has been made by wireless by Lady Speyer, widow of the late Sir Edgar Speyer, who was the treasurer of the Scott expedition.

The document was found with Scott's body by the rescue party sent from England to search for the lost explorer and his party. It describes the hopelessness of his position and his despair of ever escaping the icy grip of the Antarctic.

Sir Edgar took the letter to America when he became a naturalised American citizen and relinquished the use of his title.

The letter will be handed to Admiral Byrd when he returns from Little America, the base of his present expedition.

LONE FLIGHT AT 72.

England's oldest pilot, Mr A.J. Richardson, of North Walsham, Norfolk, aged seventy-two, has started from Norwich aerodrome on another of his lone flights. He intends to tour the Continent and will probably spend some time in Norway.

Mr Richardson learnt to fly at the age of sixty-five and now he is using his tiny monoplane regularly.

He has a private landing ground at his house but he goes to the Norwich aerodrome practically every day, accompanied by his wife. He is well known at all the European air ports.

OGPU CHIEF DEAD.

Grimmest figure in Russia, Menzhinsky, the head of the dread OGPU, or secret political police, has died.

His name rarely appeared in the press, and then usually as a signature to a death warrant.

He was one of the main figures behind the arrest and prosecution of the British employees of Metro-Vickers last year.

Held in high honour by the Soviet Government as "an irreconcilable revolutionary fighter" he was a powerful figure behind the Soviet Union.

His name struck fear into the hearts of plotters. His method was to work quietly and secretly, and then pounce suddenly.

In his personal relations Menzhinsky was reported to be kind and benevolent. But he was stern and without pity in his work. No appeal for mercy could shake his relentless pursuit and punishment of State enemies.

GERMANY INSENSIBLE

AGAINST FOREIGN PRESS.

It is stated from Berlin that surprise has been caused by the announcement that the Reichstag would assemble with compulsory attendance, but ten minutes later instructions were issued to all German newspapers that the information should not be published.

According to the Daily Telegraph, however, Hitler will then make an announcement on the recent "plot" and subsequent government action.

The Minister for Propaganda, Herr Goebbels, in a broadcast on Tuesday night made a bitter attack on the world's press in connection with the recent happenings, this following on the confiscation of all the issues in Germany of the Daily Telegraph on Monday with the suggestion that prohibition might be extended to other issues.

Herr Goebbels added "with disgust and indignation" in the name of the German people, that the country would not tolerate the presence of foreign journalists who set nation against nation and conjured up an atmosphere which made honourable and unprejudiced relations between peoples impossible.

The papers cited generally were all British national dailies, the Havas Agency, the French "Oeuvre" and the Vienna Broadcasting station which are described as a "Slop-pail of cowardly lies."

DOLLFUSS CABINET RESTORED.

The restoration of the Dollfuss Cabinet was carried out during the night of Tuesday - Wednesday, states the Daily Telegraph Vienna correspondent, with the effect of strengthening the reactionary element in the government.

Dollfuss now holds the post of Chancellor, Minister of Foreign Affairs, War, Agriculture and Forestry and Security.

The change is officially stated to be preparatory to a general onslaught of all political enemies which is likely to involve all classes of Nazis and Social Democrats.

NEW ZEALAND CONCESSIONS.

It is reported from Wellington, New Zealand, that generous concessions to British manufactures are contained in a tariff resolution approved by the House of Representatives.

A wide range of goods has been covered the principal of which are motor-car bodies and radio sets, the duty on which has been abolished while a flat rate of fifteen per cent has been imposed on all completed in the United Kingdom compared with one of seventy-three and a half on foreign motor vehicles.

In many cases the Ottawa margins have been greatly exceeded.

Premier Coates, in introducing the Bill, said that the main aspects of the financial policy were the development of the local coal industry, the maintenance and extension of the markets for New Zealand products and the encouragement of inter-Empire trade for obtaining revenue.

---o---o---

BRITISH AIR EXPANSION.

According to the Daily Telegraph the British programme of air expansion outlined by Mr Baldwin will envisage Britain attaining a position of comparative equality with the most powerful of foreign forces within striking distance in 1930.

At the conclusion of a five years' programme it is proposed that the R.A.F. will have acquired from 48 to 50 new squadrons but the rate of progress is modifiable if substantial changes occur in international conditions and the political situation.

It is anticipated that the initial cost will be between four and five million sterling for the first year with subsequent increases, while on the other hand maintenance and replacement will not exceed £100,000.

It is gathered that the Admiralty demands of a maintenance of 5/5/3 with the United States and Japan applies to aeroplanes as well as warships.

Britain would prefer to see a substantial reduction in the American and Japanese naval air arms; on the other hand the Government as a whole approves of the Admiralty's demand for a considerable increase in cruiser strength.

DUTCH & GERMAN FINANCE.

It is reported from Amsterdam that a provisional agreement has been reached between the Dutch and German delegates with reference to the transfer of debt payments and this has been submitted to the Dutch Government.

A Berlin message states that the Reichsbank gold reserve has risen from 2 to 2.1 per cent, this being the first increase for many months.

PACIFIC FIS TURBANCES.

An alarming strike situation has arisen along the Pacific Coast states the Daily Telegraph correspondent at San Francisco where there are outspoken threats of a general cessation of activity thereby focussing eyes on a new centre of the United States disturbance.

The longshoremen's strike has already been in progress nine weeks and with the shipping industry between Seattle and the Mexican border paralysed to the extent of 100,000,000 dollars and eight persons already killed the anxiety of the situation has not been relieved.

The crux of the dispute is the demand of the union leaders for the sole right of the control of the working conditions while the employers are adamantly resisting.

Communist activity against a new deal is very evident and the prospects of an agreement being reached in the near future are remote.

Troops are guarding the docks where vast quantities of commodities are rotting in containers while food hoarding has commenced along the Pacific coast with particular attention being paid to tinned goods.

HITLER'S STRONG WORDS.

According to a message from Berlin on Saturday, Hitler addressed a crowded Reichstag on the recent revolt and its suppression, the Vice-Chancellor, Von Papen, being absent.

Hitler's summary of the deaths resulting from the outbreak varied according to the classification of those engaged, but it is definitely found that those shot & executed and those who have committed suicide number seventy-seven. Many of these were shot when attempting to evade arrest or were troopers guilty of mishandling prisoners.

Hitler further stated that Von Hindenburg had reconciled the army to the present state of affairs and he was retaining his position.

Among the dramatic utterances made by the Chancellor were : "He who lifts a hand for a blow must know that death is his fate;" adding "I beat down the revolution before it sprung up." Further, he said "I protest against the belief that court procedure could bring to light the guilt or innocence of those concerned and he who rises against us commits high treason and cannot but fall."

Commenting on the foreign diplomats suggestions that the foreign relations of the mutineers were harmless, the Chancellor said "If three men talk with a foreign diplomat they will be shot."

The Reichstag approved of Hitler's action with acclamation.

TRIBUTE TO BRITISH DIPLOMACY.

European reaction to the proposals for an Eastern Pact pays a tribute to British diplomacy, states the Daily Telegraph.

Berlin's view is that it would give France a free hand and a position of complete predominance in Europe.

Rome is gratified but without direct interest. The Italian press shows an inclination to follow in Britain's footsteps with the implicit recognition that Germany should have equal armaments with France.

FOOTBALL.

No. 3 Platoon 5 : No. 1 Platoon 2.

Dashing Forwards Successful.

Sunday afternoon's game in the Inter-Platoon League brought about a surprise win for No. 3 Platoon judging from the standard of their play when they opposed No. 2 Platoon and snatched a point from the team which lost to No. 1 Platoon 4 - 0 at the beginning of the season. But No. 3 Platoon certainly deserved their victory over the week-end if only on account of the excellent work of their inside forwards who showed dash and determination - No. 1's inside forwards might please note !

A thin layer of snow covered part of the field and the ground was very heavy from the recent heavy rains, this greatly interfering with the speed of the game while an awkward wind and a decidedly nasty snow squall during the second half made things very uncomfortable for the participants. On the whole the standard of play was mediocre and of a rough and tumble character with No. 1 Platoon doing most of the attacking in the first half but not being able to score. No. 3's half backs were good and when the forwards broke away with the ball they were always dangerous. No. 3 opened the score from an attack on the right wing the ball being put into the net by M. Hardy, the outside left, from a pass across the centre.

Though they certainly tried hard No. 1's forwards were definitely non-plussed and helpless in front of goal though it must be said that Grierson in his unusual role of goalkeeper made some excellent saves and cleared well. At half time the score was 1 - 0 in No. 3's favour.

In the second half No. 1 still maintained a good offensive (except in front of goal) but throughout the team there was a lack of cohesion and men would get out of place so that when White, D. Fleuret and J. Bound got the ball they had no difficulty in seeing their objective and making for it. They played well and thoroughly deserved the goals they obtained. Bound scored in the first half but he was offside and so the point was disallowed. Steen, another promising player, also scored for No. 1 in the first half but his goal was also ruled off-side. At one period in the game No. 3 Platoon were leading 3 - 0 and there seemed every likelihood of yet a fourth goal being scored against No. 1 but from a successful breakaway Etheridge scored a good goal and a little later Steen with a nice drive from the wing saw the ball cannon off Grierson's foot into the net - rather luckily but none-the-less well deserved. With the score now standing at 3 - 2 and with No. 1 Platoon making every endeavour to turn defeat into at least a draw the closing stages of the game were interesting & exciting but No. 3 kept their opponents at bay without undue strain so that they finished the match with a position at the top of the League.

The teams were : No. 1 Platoon - H. Thomas; W. Aldridge & H. Summers; D. Williams, F. O'Sullivan & R. Campbell; R. Steen, L.W. Sedgwick, A. Etheridge, E.J. Biggs & C. Clifton. No. 3 Platoon - W.J. Grierson; J. Petterssen & C. Thompson; R. Grant, T.D. Evans & G. Pearson; A. Hills, F. White, D. Fleuret, J. Bound & M. Hardy. Referee - Mr J.D. Cremer.

THE "EASTERN LOCARNO."

The Daily Telegraph diplomatic correspondent understands that neither Germany nor Poland will reject outright the amended Franco-Soviet proposals for the "Eastern Locarno" and the special Franco-Soviet-German Pact of Mutual Guarantees as transmitted and recommended to their consideration by the British Government.

On the other hand neither Berlin nor Warsaw are favourable to these proposals. It is possible that Poland will ultimately decide to remain neutral between Germany and Russia therefore, & like Britain and Italy will be outside these arrangements. Berlin may agree to endorse them after substantial amendments to the present draft.

Radek, the well-known Soviet publicist in an article in the "Izvestia" applauds Britain's support of the pact and says that if British statesmen are acting in defence of the Eastern Pact - that is to say the pact be based on the equality of all the participants - the Soviet will fully agree.

A later message states that Mussolini's approval of the proposed Eastern Locarno Pact is based on the fact that, as co-guarantors of France and Germany from the point of view of security under the Locarno Treaty, Britain and Italy become, under the Eastern Locarno, the real arbiters of Europe.

The Daily Telegraph points out that it would depend upon Britain and Italy whether the Russo-German conflict would warrant French intervention and on whose behalf.

While Mussolini is convinced that no better way could now be found to bring about a limitation of armaments British circles remain unoptimistic.

SERIOUS SITUATION IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Looting & Food Rioting.

What is expected to be the most disastrous general strike in the history of the United States was timed to begin along the Pacific coast on Monday morning.

With the people already on the verge of famine as the result of a two-months dockers' strike the last hope of an eleventh hour intervention was centred on President Roosevelt.

It was believed so a press message on Sunday recorded, that Roosevelt was contemplating a dash to California in the cruiser Houston in which he has been holidaying in the Pacific.

Meanwhile exhaustive precautions have been taken to preserve order. Martial Law was expected to be declared and 4,000 National Guards were ready says the Daily Telegraph. The strikers, numbering over 125,000, declare that they will starve the city into submission to the demands of the dockers.

The people are rationed as in war-time; restaurants are shut; motor traffic stopped for lack of petrol; food shops closed; and hundreds of residents have fled from the city for fear of bloodshed and famine.

The strikers have thrown a 100-mile cordon of pickets round the city.

Disorder broke out on the water-front on Monday night and the militia fired on the mob who were pelting them with stones.

A later message states that looting and food rioting immediately broke out following on the complete cessation of all transport coincident with the declaration of the general strike.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent states that 6,000 soldiers are already in the city and have been compelled to use their bayonets. Business has been entirely paralysed and a Citizen's Committee of 500 has been formed to deal with the situation.

Outgoing passenger traffic has been brought to a standstill by a sympathetic strike of wireless operators without whom no ship is permitted to depart while within the city, the laundries, tobacconists and bar-tenders are involved in creating a most fantastic situation.

Tanks armed with machine guns, one pounders, field artillery with the famous French "75s" and the troops in full war equipment consisting of automatic rifles and steel helmets are arriving immediately to reinforce the troops already present.

According to Reuter areas further afield have been affected and messages from Portland, Oregon, Boston and New York indicate that the waterside workers of all types will shortly join with their San Francisco colleagues.

Even walnut sellers in San Antonio and 8,000 tilers in Birmingham (Alabama) are joining, their action being generally based on wage questions.

The outlook on all sides is gloomy and attempts at reconciliation remain futile with Wall Street depressed and the strike risk insurances having risen threefold during the past three days.

Up to Tuesday morning only minor outbreaks of violence had been reported with infinitesimal damage and no injuries.

THE MERSEY TUNNEL.

Over 120,000 people were present at the ceremony at Liverpool yesterday when His Majesty the King, by pressing a golden switch, formally opened the Mersey Tunnel which is the longest underwater roadway in the world and one of the greatest engineering achievements of modern times.

The tunnel is to be called "Queensway" in honour of Her Majesty the Queen.

It cost £8,000,000 and is the largest enterprise ever undertaken by a single municipality.

When His Majesty pressed the switch green and gold curtains rolled back revealing the entrance to the tunnel.

In a place of honour at the ceremony close to the Royal Dais was the company of workmen of every trade who had taken part in the construction of the tunnel. They were dressed in working kit - dungarees and blue shirts, carpenter overalls, oilskins and oil-skin caps. The six foremen were presented to the King.

Their Majesties afterwards drove through the two miles long tunnel which has soft diffused lighting. It is forty-four feet in diameter and holds four lines of traffic. They remarked upon the freshness of its air which comes through special ventilation shafts able to deliver 5,000,000 cubic feet of air a minute.

The King, during the day, which was marked by exceptional enthusiasm from the great crowds, also opened the £3,000,000 East Lancashire road and the 130-acre Walton Hall Park.

The navy are seeking appropriations to the extent of 650,000,000 yen and the army 500,000,000.

The War Minister has submitted a national defence programme to the War Council and included in it are measures dealing with the 1935 Naval Conference and Japan's withdrawal from the League of Nations, but no official statement has been issued.

U.S.A. WHEAT PIT FRENZY.

According to news from Chicago the wheat pit frenzy in the city the other day following upon the Government Crop Board's announcement that the year's harvest will be the lowest for forty years has had a sequel in reaction while the market has remained active and the early advance has been maintained.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent states that Winnipeg influences were chiefly responsible for the setback where prices fell following an announcement that the Canadian crop was expected to be slightly above the average.

HOUSEWIVES IN A PANIC.

A Famine panic exists among the housewives in San Francisco owing to the announcement of a butchers' sympathetic strike with the longshoremen while the transportation of goods is at a standstill reports the Daily Telegraph correspondent.

It is understood that fresh vegetables are only sufficiently in stock to last one day while smoked and dried meats will be exhausted during the week.

Gangs of armed agitators are parading the streets in lorries threatening would-be workers while hotels are considering closing down in face of picketing threats.

A PUZZLING SITUATION.

The Daily Telegraph points out that Britain's action in transmitting to Germany and Poland the French proposals for the "Eastern Locarno" without committing herself to their adoption has created a puzzling situation in that it is indefinite where the nations concerned should send their replies. The question is whether they should go to London or to Paris.

Reuter's correspondent in Brussels states that the Public Works' Minister, M. Forthomme, declares that Sir John Simon's speech on the Pact is the most important event affecting Belgium since the armistice, "leaving no room for doubt of England's express wish to oppose any violations of Belgian territory, such a declaration meaning more than any pact or treaty."

Berlin reports that Germany intends to hold fast to the 1925 Locarno Treaty according to an apparently inspired press statement.

ANOTHER DAWES LOAN HITCH.

Conflict has arisen between the government and the trustees of the Dawes Loan in connection with service, states the Daily Telegraph Berlin correspondent.

Owing to the foreign exchange situation the monthly Dawes and Young July payments were not put at the disposal of the Reichsbank. The Trustees of the Dawes Loan have retaliated by instructing the Reichsbank to refrain from paying to the government revenue on which the loan services have been secured.

SAN FRANCISCO HUNGRY.

The city is becoming hungry for, notwithstanding the Strike Committee's permission for food convoys these have been found to be insufficient and in consequence the situation becomes more alarming, states the Daily Telegraph correspondent at San Francisco.

The strikers have permitted nineteen of the city's 3,000 restaurants to open and these are besieged all day and the committee is now considering whether they will permit the opening of further restaurants in view of the possibility of antagonising public feeling. Special police guardsmen and military patrols are stationed with machine-guns at all food warehouses.

A better outlook prevails while the trains are now running again and the strikers have issued orders that the food lorries are not to be molested and the electric workers are to resume duty.

The diplomatic officials have requested the mayor to arrange for a free passage for their motor-cars and this is being done but additional troops are arriving in the city hourly and barricades are being erected states Reuter's correspondent.

The extension of the strike is indicated by messages from Huntsville, Alabama, where the cotton workers, numbering 10,000, have ceased work, and from Minneapolis where 7,000 lorry drivers have gone on strike making the situation so acute that the National Guard has been mobilised.

At the Defence Force Headquarters.

On receiving the result His Excellency the Acting Governor, accompanied by Major the Hon. J. Innes Moir, personally conveyed the news to the members of the Defence Force at Headquarters.

Already, however, the news had travelled. No. 2 Platoon were on parade under the command of Lieutenant W.M. Allan, engaged in bayonet drill when the door of the Drill Hall was thrown open and a figure rushed in shouting "We've won". The excitement was intense but not a man moved more than momentarily with a quiver until the word "stand easy" and then rifle butts resounded on the wooden floor as they have never sounded before. The parade was quickly dismissed and a bee-line was made for the Club to drink to the Team's success. From all sides members of the other platoons congregated and when His Excellency arrived the place was crammed with happy Volunteers. The health of the winners was suitably toasted and so successfully that somebody in a moment of high exuberance drank His Excellency's beer. Special "precautions" were taken to guard against such another catastrophe and there were many volunteers to undertake the onerous duty of watching it, the honour falling to Company Sergeant Major E.J. Gleadell.

Then, of course, there was the ubiquitous Donald McPhee with his bagpipes, how he managed to steer his way through the dense throng only he can tell.

Everywhere in the town members of the Force were being invited in to drink the health of the winners and until a late hour jubilation and celebration continued.

At the Defence Force Club again congratulations were pouring in from all sides, Lieutenant R. Greenshield of Douglas Station being one of the first with Mr Walter Newing also telephoning. Mr J.D. Creamer rang up Lieutenant Allan on behalf of the Falkland Islands Company and besides sending along congratulations supplemented it with six bottles of Scotch Nan - dwarfing applause greeting this announcement.

Mr G. Bonner C.B.E. also phoned up and in commiserating with Eddie Mac's low score of the previous day in the Junior MacKinnon told of how last year while he was watching Sir Arnold Hodson shoot for Sierra Leone something went wrong with Sir Arnold's rifle and probably the same predicament had overcome our King's Cup finalist.

This is the fourth time Eddie McAtasney has competed in the competition and the first time that he been in the winning team. Both Lieutenant A.I. Fleuret and Sergeant J.R. Gleadell as already mentioned were in the previous team which brought the Cup back to Stanley while Len Reive went home last.

We have taken the Cup from the China Treaty Ports who made 533. The highest score ever put up we believe was that of Sudan in 1931 when the winners made 549.

THE SAN FRANCISCO STRIKE.

Proposals for arbitration have aroused hopes that there will be a settlement shortly of the strike which has paralysed the city for three days but the extremist unions are violently opposed to the proposals which the strike committee passed on Tuesday night after a stormy seven hours debate states the Daily Telegraph correspondent.

Unfortunately, it is added, their agreement is necessary before action can be taken. Meanwhile the city remains calm and the food situation has improved by the opening of another fifty restaurants while the butchers, grocers and greengrocers have been given permission for one day sales.

Elsewhere the strike situation shows no signs of slackening and the militia are being called out at Minneapolis while the textile workers in Alabama are continuing on strike. The strikers at Seattle have also stormed the pier where the non-union labourers are working under a police guard.

It is understood that President Roosevelt is not intervening but the Recovery Administrator, General Johnson, is negotiating for a settlement.

A later report states : According to the Daily Telegraph correspondent at San Francisco the general strike which was intended to paralyse the Pacific coast is proving a fiasco.

Although the strike has not officially been called off and no Arbitration Boards have been able to obtain a settlement, thousands returned to work on Thursday and the city is reverting to normal.

Supplies of food and fuel are being distributed peaceably and the tram-cars are running.

The extremist section of the strikers, led by an Australian named Bridges, has been decisively beaten in committee while opposing arbitration proposals.

Meanwhile the dockers strike continues and vessels have been compelled to load and discharge by their own crews while it is estimated that there is a daily loss to the city of approximately five million dollars.

Later the Strike Committee voted 191 as against 174 in favour of the termination of the strike.

HIMALAYAS TRAGEDY.

A message from Berlin states that following reports from Simla it is believed that the Himalayan expedition which is attempting to climb Nanga Parbat, 26,629 feet high and called the "Mountain of Horror" have lost their lives in a terrific blizzard.

The unexpected snowstorm was co-incidental with the assault of the summit, the party consisting of distinguished German explorers with two British Indian Army officers.

A Reuter message from Calcutta later reports that it is now ascertained that Herr Merkl and Doctors Wieland and Welzenbach of the Nanga Parbat climbing expedition have undoubtedly perished in the blizzard but that Captain Sangster and Lieutenant Frier of the Indian Army, attached for porter and coolie duties are safe.

The bodies of three missing porters have been found but there is no trace of the German climbers.

Another climbing tragedy in the same area was reported from Darjeeling at the same time. The Englishman Maurice Wilson attempted to climb to Mount Everest summit and after departing from Rongbuk Monastery was last seen in the vicinity of Camp V. He has been missing for three weeks.

THE FOURTH TEST.

According to a message from Leeds on Saturday night the Fourth Test Match, pregnant with possibilities the previous evening, took a startling change following England's dismissal for 200 runs and Australia's loss of three wickets for just over thirty.

Before a crowd of 40,000 spectators Bradman followed for the third wicket down and with Ponsford batted all day.

Between them they scored 388 which beats all records for a fourth wicket stand in matches between England and Australia and England and South Africa, the previous best being 323 by Hobbs and Rhodes at Melbourne in 1911.

Ponsford's brilliant innings of 181 terminated by his unfortunate hitting of his own wicket but Bradman continued scoring with McCabe as partner.

England is now in the extremely humiliating position of having their first innings score more than doubled for the loss of only four Australian wickets and Bradman, McCabe, Chipperfield and Darling are yet to be disposed of.

The score at the close of play on Saturday was : 494 for four wickets; Bradman 271 not out, Ponsford 181, McCabe 18.

WHEAT PRICES.

According to various reports from different quarters the weather has checked the world wheat surplus and in all countries the prices are rising states the Daily Telegraph.

Not for forty years, state the experts, have conditions reacted so disastrously to crops as the result of which the surpluses have been reduced to normal.

Official reports from Russia, the United States, Canada, Argentina and Australia are guarded but all indicate a crop reduction and it is estimated that for the next twelve months the world demand will be equal for the first time for many years to the world supply.

ENGLISH AVIATION.

According to a message from London the Administration for Civil Aviation will not be transferred to the Air Ministry from a purely Civil State Department. This statement was made by Lord Londonderry, the Minister for Air, when he was pointing out that there had never been any effort to build up a fleet intended for war purposes but that it was directed throughout solely for the advance of commercial aviation.

The Berlin press regards the British Air Force development as another argument against the Eastern Pact, pointing out that the Pact becomes practically valueless in view of the pace being set to France.

---o---o---

THE WORLD'S WEATHER.

According to a message from London worldwide reports indicate freakish weather conditions.

While the British Metropolis is drenched in a series of storms which have broken all 1934 records and resulted in flooding in many parts of the Thames Valley, the United States swelters in a heat wave which breaks a sixty years' record, with Cincinnati registering a temperature of 105.3.

The latest reports indicate 200 heat deaths throughout the United States.

Berlin is also suffering from similar conditions and despite the political situation the entire Cabinet has deserted the capital.

From Panama earthquake shocks are reported causing damage estimated at half a million dollars and resulting in the disappearance of a number of islands off the coast and many casualties.

POLISH FLOODS.

A Warsaw message states that flood waters have resulted in the Vistula River rising sixteen feet above normal and the muddy surge is bearing debris and frequently human bodies swirling through the town where thousands of spectators are watching for the first sign of a breach in the dykes.

Many regions are isolated and aircraft are dropping provisions. Meanwhile the waters are moving northwards though reports from the upper reaches indicate a rising death-roll which cannot yet be approximated.

A HITLER ATTACK.

An inspired press article from Rome by Signor Gayda, is constituting one of the strongest attacks upon the Hitler Government yet made. The article says that the furthest limit of forbearance in both Austrian and world opinion has been reached in respect of the Austrian terrorist outrages which are being "conducted by German agitators."

SAN FRANCISCO.

While more than seventy per cent of the strikers have returned to work states Reuter's correspondent, the waterfront employers have announced a plan for arbitration to settle the maritime strike, provided that the longshoremen's union agrees to submit to all the differences to Roosevelt's Disputes' Board.

The situation in Minneapolis is still uncertain.

DRASTIC GERMAN DECREE.

It is stated from Berlin that a new decree has been imposed subjecting the entire textile industry to drastic control by the Minister of Economics with the supplies of wool, cotton and other raw fibres rationed and a thirty-six hours' week imposed for the workers.

---o---o---

THE FREAK WEATHER.

Further reports from London announce that from all quarters information show record extraordinary weather freaks throughout the world over the week-end.

While in the United States the death roll has gone up another thirty-five over yesterday's figure as a result of the heat, gales have been sweeping Europe ruining the vineyard and tobacco plantations Switzerland has suffered particularly from the heavy rain while Italy only slightly less. Meanwhile Madrid has been sweltering in 125 degrees.

Late Saturday night London suburbs were subjected to a heavy downfall which drowned out the electric light sub-stations, plunging a large portion of the southern part of the city into darkness. The city proper is untouched.

---o---o---

THE "ENDEAVOUR."

A message from Gosport, Monmouthshire, states that the America Cup challenger, the "Endeavour", set sail for the United States yesterday (Monday) and is expected to reach Rhode Island in three weeks via the Azores and Bermuda.

Her owner, Mr Sopwith, stated in an interview "The boat is a good one and we will try."

The American view is that the "Endeavour's" chances are not increased by the amateur crew, such vessels requiring the knowledge of experienced professionals. Nevertheless the United States interest is fully aroused in the forthcoming contest.

IRISH STRIKE IMPENDING.

The demands of the General Workers' Union, states a message from Dublin, for improved conditions in the wages of certain sections of the newspaper workers, also applies to laundry workers and those employed by the omnibus companies, and failing the owners' compliance there will be a widespread strike on Thursday.

ACUTE FRENCH SITUATION.

France is faced with the probability of a Cabinet collapse as the result of M. Tardieu's attack on M. Chautemps before the Stavisky Commission on Friday and the developments on Saturday had not improved the situation.

According to the Sunday Times Saturday's Cabinet meeting broke up in disagreement following which the Vice-Premier, M. Cheron, motored 400 miles across France to inform M. Doumergue of the proceedings.

Failing a settlement when M. Doumergue returns to-day (Tuesday) it is feared that a number of the Ministers may resign with fatal results to the National Government and the creation of a political breach without parallel since the Dreyfus case.

M. Herriot's view at the Cabinet meeting was radical, the Minister regarding M. Tardieu's statement as a party attack and subsequently the Foreign Minister, M. Barthou, urged M. Tardieu to resign on having broken the party truce. But M. Tardieu refused and said his attack was a personal one against M. Chautemps in his former government capacity.

A later message states that the uneasiness is considered sufficiently serious to warrant calling President Doumergue back to Paris for an immediate Cabinet Meeting.

THE PACIFIC COAST STRIKE.

A message from Oakland, United States, reports that the collapse of the general strike is practically universal in the San Francisco area but the teamsters have held out and in a clash with the police on the Seattle waterfront, four police were seriously injured and many strikers are suffering from the effects of tear gas bombs.

The riot was dispersed by a charge of three hundred mounted police.

---o---o---

THE POLISH FLOODS.

It is stated from Warsaw that the Polish floods are still dangerous but there is every indication of an improvement in the situation particularly between Czecho-Slovakia's and the Polish border and at the towns of Craoow, Tarnow, Debica and Rzezow.

The water of the Vistula is still sixteen feet above the normal level and on Saturday an area of over thirteen miles was affected with 13,000 inhabitants in peril of being without homes.

Altogether thousands of square miles are inundated and the casualties, which are enormous, have not yet been officially estimated

THE KING'S PRIZE AT BISLEY.

(Contributed.)

The message which conveyed to us last Friday the joyous news that our boys had won the Junior Kolapore Cup by ten clear points over Sierra Leone also contained the following words "Moatasney in King's Final."

"Moatasney in King's Final - What does that mean?" was a question asked by more than one person in Stanley that night. So, that everyone may be enlightened on that point, I shall endeavour to explain the significance of these few words.

The competition was first started in 1860 during the reign of Queen Victoria under the name of the "Queen's Prize". It is open to British subjects who are past or present members of His Majesty's Forces or the Forces of any British protected State.

From time to time the prizes and conditions of the competition have been varied but of later years it has been competed for in three stages. The First, or Qualifying Stage, the Second Stage and the Third or Final Stage: Usually one thousand people, more or less compete.

The First or Qualifying Stage is shot off at the 200, 500 & 600 yards distances, seven shots to count at each range with a possible aggregate of 105 points. The winner of this stage receives the National Rifle Association Bronze Medal and the N.R.A. Badge. He, along with 299 others, according to the order of merit, enter the Second Stage.

This stage is fired at the 300, 500 & 600 yards distances, ten shots to count at each range with a range possible of 50 points and an aggregate possible of 150 points. This shoot is really one of the finest during the meeting as all the 300 competitors lie down together, three to each of the one hundred targets, and then starts the grim battle to attain that most coveted position "One of the King's Hundred."

The shooting is always high in this stage and I would say that Moatasney must have made at least 140 points and probably more. The winner of this stage receives the N.R.A. Silver Medal and the N.R.A. Silver Badge and along with the 99 next in order of merit lies down at the 900 and 1,000 yards' range to compete for the King's Prize of £250, the N.R.A. Gold Medal and Gold Badge. Here, fifteen shots are fired at each of the two ranges with a range possible of 75 and an aggregate of 150 points which, added to the aggregate total of the Second Stage, makes a Grand Aggregate of 300 points.

The Final Stage takes place on the afternoon of the last day of the meeting which falls on a Saturday. In the morning of that day the 100 finalists meet outside the N.R.A. Offices where a group photograph is taken, a copy of which is presented to each of the finalists.

At 1.30 p.m. the shoot commences at 900 yards before a huge crowd of spectators composed of those unfortunates who did not qualify for the Final Stage, friends and relatives and others who are interested. The B.B.C. Van is placed just behind the mound and broadcasts a commentary to the outside world as the shoot progresses. When the last shot has been fired and the winner proclaimed he is chaired shoulder high and carried to the strain of "See the Conquering Hero Comes" played by a military band, a cheering mob following him to the N.R.A. Offices where his rifle is tested to see the it goes the weight and that the rifle as a whole conforms with the N.R.A. Rules and Regulations.

It is truly a grand sight and one that fills an onlooker with joy and pride for the man who has proved himself victor in so gruelling a competition. What a man he must be! What a nerve he must have and what a relief he must feel when his last shot in the competition has been fired.

Segdewick, D.L.I., also another reputed shot, we do not yet know what position Mac. took in the Final Stage.

I shall conclude by saying "Well Done, Mac - You are the first Falkland Islander to qualify for the 'King's Hundred,' and now we want to know "Who will be the next ?" So buck up lads and do your "durndest."

FOOTBALL.

No. 1 Platoon 3 : No. 2 Platoon 1.

After a bad fall of snow and rain on Saturday the football pitch was very heavy for the game between Nos 1 and 2 Platoons on Sunday in the Inter-Platoon League and consequently the standard of play was considerably affected.

No. 2 Platoon started off with the wind in their favour and at half time should have been leading by at least three clear goals. But whether it was that their opponents' goal was enchanted or whether it was that their forwards got stuck in the mud is an open question. There is no doubt that some golden opportunities went begging. No. 1 Platoon were not playing a decisive game and were kept well in check but now and then they made good breakaways and gave Stanford Williams an opportunity of showing his worth. Several times he made excellent saves and when at last B. Fleuret, who was by far the most outstanding man on No. 1's side, scored, it was only after No. 2's goalkeeper had made a great effort to keep the ball out. At half time No. 1 was leading by the only goal obtained.

In the second half, with the wind in their favour No. 1 Platoon spent more time in attacking but their efforts were not the kind to score even though the opposing backs were uncertain in their clearances. Spencer played a conspicuous game on his wing for No. 1 and was responsible for scoring his sides next goal - his dash of speed was extremely useful and his successful shot worthy of the goal it obtained. Several determined breakaways were made by the losing side and the combination between L. Grant and Wallen gave Pedersen endless trouble but these two players more often than not spoiled effective finishes by forgetting where ~~one~~ another was. Nevertheless Grant, with a splendid piece of work for a youngster worried his way through and with a shot which completely the beat No. 1's goalkeeper scored for his side and reduced the leaway. But before the end of the game B. Fleuret put No. 1 Platoon up again with a good goal and the end came with this team winning by 3 - 1.

THE POLISH FLOODS.

The Daily Telegraph correspondent in Warsaw states that more than 10,000 soldiers and civilians were working ceaselessly to avert the flood threat, but continued rain was ruining their efforts with the Vistula, fed by her tributaries, still rising.

Hastily constructed dams, protecting the suburbs as well as the huge Szczucin Dam protecting the adjacent country, have overflowed.

The lower part of the river has an area over five miles wide and all cities below Warsaw are endangered.

It was expected, from this report, received in Stanley yesterday, that Tuesday would decide the city's fate.

THE DARDANELLES INCIDENT.

In answer to a Parliamentary question concerning the firing of Turkish santries on British Naval officers in the Dardanelles last week, Sir John Simon is reported to have said that the tragic incident was apparently due to a lamentable misunderstanding in which the officers approached closed to the Turkish coast in a boat that was flying no flag and the Turkish officers and men were not informed.

According to the statement of the Turkish government, the Turkish coastal patrol has had strict orders to summon any suspect craft to be questioned and in the present case it beckoned to the boat to approach.

There was reason to think that the signal was misunderstood. At any rate when the skiff moved away the Turkish guards repeatedly fired with the result that Surgeon-Lieutenant Robinson was killed and fell into the water while Lieutenant Mannsell was slightly wounded. Surgeon-Lieutenant Robinson's body had not been recovered by Tuesday.

The Turkish Ambassador, on instructions from his Government has expressed his government's very sincere regret that this tragic misunderstanding should have occurred and the Turkish Government has informed the British Ambassador that it was deeply distressed at the occurrence.

DEFENCE FORCE

PROMOTION & APPOINTMENT.

At the Smoking Concert held in the Defence Force Club last night to celebrate the winning of the Junior Kolapore Cup for the second time, His Excellency the Acting Governor made the following interesting and popular announcement :

"To mark the event and, as it were, to set the seal on my satisfaction I have decided to make one promotion and one appointment in the Defence Force.

"I have very great pleasure in announcing to you the promotion of your Adjutant, Lieutenant W.M. Allan, to be Captain, and the grant to Sergeant Lawrence Aldridge of a commission as Second Lieutenant."

"SECURITY FIRST."

According to a message from Berlin officially inspired press comment on the British plans to increase her Air Force says that England has now adopted the French standpoint of "Security first, Disarmament afterwards," adding that "in the aeroplane factories around defenceless Germany and now in England there is feverish activity."

In the matter of Italy's participation in the Naval Conversations it is reported from Paris that Barthou is likely to initiate an exchange of views when visiting the Duce.

THE WORLD WEATHER.

A later message from Warsaw than that on page 2 states that with the reduction in the Vistula floods the danger to the Polish capital is considered to be averted but the dykes some five miles from the city have burst and, depending upon the water's direction, the crisis remains in abeyance.

The water from the Sub-Carpathian regions is increasing and dams are bursting in all directions while the mountain tributaries are swelling rapidly.

Meanwhile the phenomenal drought continues in the United States and the heat-wave deaths are amounting to approximately 800 with forest fires breaking out everywhere.

In an effort to save their cattle, the farmers are driving them in the northern area to Chicago where the vanguard of 20,000 arrived on Tuesday. Altogether over 200,000 are expected within the next few days.- this is the largest figure for twenty-six years. Thousands of cattle on the ranges cannot be shipped and are so emaciated that they are only fit for shooting.

THE "SMOKER" SPEECHES.

The Junior Kolapore Cup Victory.

▲ Splendid Achievement.

In introducing His Excellency the Acting Governor at the Smoking Concert held in the Defence Force Club Room on Wednesday to celebrate the Bisley Team's success, Captain W.M. Allan (then Lieutenant) as chairman, said that His Excellency was due to leave the Colony in the near future to take up another appointment and it was by the Acting Governor's express wish that the function that evening should be arranged so that he would have the opportunity of meeting all the members of the Force with a view to expressing his sincere gratitude and appreciation of the honour the Bisley Team had brought to the Colony. It was not necessary for him, the speaker, to introduce His Excellency to the members as they all appreciated fully the great interest he took in all the activities of the Force no matter whether it were drill, shooting or sport. (Applause.)

Those Who Have Contributed.

His Excellency said : 'Mr Chairman, Gentlemen : This is indeed a happy occasion - for myself at any rate it is one of the happiest during my eight years in the Falklands if not in my whole life.

'The team we sent to Bisley two months ago with such high hopes has nobly fulfilled those hopes. In the words of the poet - Zachariah Fee -

'For they with all have wiped the floor
To bring back home the Kolapore.'

"But this evening I do not intend to say much about the team or their splendid achievement except that we are all immensely proud of 'Arthur and his Men.' When they return - I suppose about the middle of September - we shall know how to welcome them and show them what we think of them.

"Rather to-night I want us to remember all those good friends who have contributed in their different ways to this successful outcome of the team's endeavours. Let me briefly recall some of them.

"In the first place we shall not forget Sir Arnold Hodson who took the first team to Bisley from this Colony. Then there are those two generous supporters - one of whom I am very glad to see with us this evening - Bishop de Jersey and Mr George Bonner.

"The Falkland Islands Company under Mr Young and the Estate Louis Williams under Mr Rowe have been never failing in practical and valuable help - we owe both these gentlemen a debt of gratitude.

"And further we have to thank the Bisley Committee with its enthusiastic chairman and treasurer, Mr Craigie-Halkett and Mr Bert Newing, and also, may I say, the Government of the Colony which foots the greater part of the bill !

"I should like to mention the members of former teams who have played the part of pioneers on this road to victory as well as those members of the Rifle Association who, although not chosen this year, made the pace for the ultimate winners.

Promotion & Appointment.

"I will not detain you much longer from the enjoyment of this evening's entertainment. I do, however, want, as Commander-in-Chief, to express to you our delight at this particular achievement and my appreciation generally of the good order and healthy spirit which prevail in the Defence Force.

"To mark the event and, as it were, to set the seal on my satisfaction I have decided to make one promotion and one appointment in the Defence Force.

"I have very great pleasure in announcing to you the promotion of your Adjutant, Lieutenant W.M. Allan, to be Captain and the grant to Sergeant Lawrence Aldridge of a commission as Second Lieutenant.

"Will Mr Allan step forward and receive my personal congratulations and will Sergeant Aldridge do likewise in order that I may hand him his commission." (Loud and prolonged applause.)

The First Colony To Win Twice.

In proposing the toast of "Our Guests", Major the Hon. J. Innes Moir first of all congratulated Mr Allan on his promotion and extended on behalf of the officers of the Force a hearty welcome to Sergeant Aldridge who had now become one of their number; he knew that Mr Aldridge's promotion was very much appreciated and he could say with surety that it was a very popular one among them all.

Continuing, Major Moir said that it was not his part to sing the triumphs of the Bisley Team, his duty was to extend a hearty welcome on behalf of the Defence Force to those gentlemen who were present that evening as guests. Each in his own particular way had done a great deal to help in this triumph and so he would give the members of the Force the toast of "Our Guests", coupling with it the name of Mr Bonner.

Mr George Bonner, O.B.E., replied that it gave him very much pleasure to be amongst them especially on this occasion when they were celebrating the return of the Junior Kolapore Cup. Until this year no Colony had won it twice. After reminding them that it was Governor Hodson who put them on their mettle he told how he had himself been to Bisley and saw the Colony's team fighting for very life. Now they had won the Cup again. The first time the devil of a thunderstorm came on and while the others got under their sheets our men got on top - the weather then did not prevent them from winning it. This time, he believed, from all reports, they had very hot weather and so the Colony's men had proved that the Islands can produce a team that can shoot under any conditions.

After congratulating Captain Allan and Second Lieutenant Aldridge on their promotion, Mr Bonner went on to say that the Volunteers, whose traditions these two were maintaining, were a Force in the world and not only in the Falkland Islands. They would be considered where-ever they were and if half a dozen Falkland Islanders anywhere were shooting they would have the respect due to them.

Since his return to the Colony he had seen the Defence Force going about and he admired it. Certainly he admired Falkland Islanders, being one himself and it was one of his greatest pleasures to know that the Team this time was a completely Falkland Islands team. But they had a great man in Mr Allan; they had to get a man like Mr Allan out here to teach them what to do and it was up to them to realise what a man they had in him to work under - "Stick to him and carry out his instructions."

Mr Bonner went on to point out that there seemed to him means of extending Miniature Rifle Club activities to the Camps. He, himself was quite willing to do all he could on his own station. It was quite a simple thing at San Carlos to put up a miniature rifle range in the wool shed and it would be something for the Camp men; they could practice shooting and when they came in to Stanley they could get the finishing touches under Captain Allan. He thought it would be a great thing for the Colony if such a plan could be put into effect and believed that it could be carried through with very little expense whatever.

After dealing with the difficult times the Islands were going through and encouraging the younger fellows to strike out in the world for themselves and after impressing upon the members the interdependence of the Force with the Royal Navy, the speaker concluded by urging the Volunteers to do their bit. They could do it if they were properly trained - and in Captain Allan they had the very man to train them. Finally he said that whatever he, Mr Bonner, could do for the Defence Force he would do as long as he lived. (Loud applause.)

"The Cradle Of Our Bisley Teams."

In giving the toast of the "Defence Force" Mr E.G. Rowe spoke crisply and pointedly: "I call it the Cradle of our Bisley Teams," he said. He thought they would all agree that it was a fine institution; it had a very fine club and it had proved its usefulness, not least of all in its primary object as a Defence Force. It had many allied interests. Its greatest utility in these piping times of peace was that it inculcated discipline, promoted comradeship and fostered sport. Stanley would be lost without its Volunteers. It was in the Force that the young men, and some not so young, met in perfect comradeship and made good use of their spare evenings with benefit to the community and enjoyment to themselves. He said "benefit to the community" because of the discipline which instilled in one a moral tone while drill and physical culture promoted a healthy mind in a healthy body; then of course there were the sports.

The recent victory gained by the Bisley Team, Mr Rowe concluded, was more than sufficient evidence not only of the Defence Force's usefulness but of its efficiency, and he asked them to drink to the Cradle of that Bisley Team, to all those who had gone before and to all those who will be going in the future.

The response to this toast was made by Captain D.R. Watson, who expressed on behalf of the Force the Volunteers' great appreciation of all that had been said.

He would assure all of their guests that evening that the Defence Force was always ready to do what was asked of it. Whether it was drill, a sham fight or concerning sport - they would always turn out and he could safely say that should they be needed on any real occasion, they would be there.

Continuing Captain Watson went on to thank very sincerely those gentlemen - the employers of labour who had given so much support to the Defence Force in letting the men off when they were able to on such occasions as Field Days and for other purposes when called upon. The Defence Force realised what this meant to the employers of labour and appreciated their public spirited action and co-operation very much. In conclusion the speaker referred to the assistance given the Volunteers by the Government whom they could not thank too much.

A further report of the social proceedings at the Smoker will be published in due course.

SCHOOL TEA PARTY.

For some time past the Senior girls of the Government School have been concentrating on the intricacies of Highland Dancing. Their enthusiasm and zeal were unexpectedly rewarded last week when an interested spectator, who desired to hide under the cloak of anonymity, generously donated a sum of money to be devoted to the interests of the children as a mark of his appreciation of their artistic performance.

The outcome - a most enjoyable party, organised by Mrs W.D.A. Jones, took place, with the kind permission of Mr A.R. Hoare, Superintendent of Education, in the Infants Department on Tuesday afternoon after school hours.

After tea, which was enjoyed by all, and to which the parents of the children contributed in no small measure by supplying many varied dainties, dancing was indulged in until 6.0 o'clock, when the happy band reluctantly dispersed full of joy and gratitude for a very pleasant afternoon.

THE "ELLIS" CUP.

W.M.S.C. Billiard Competition.

The final for the "Ellis" Cup, presented by His Excellency the Acting Governor in 1932 for competition among the members of the Working Men's Social Club took place on Thursday evening when His Excellency, accompanied by Major the Hon. J. Innes Moir, (Aide-de-Camp), was present to watch the match and afterwards presented the trophy to the winner - Mr Aubrey Summers.

Mr Summers had a handicap of minus 20 while his opponent, Mr T. Campbell had a handicap of minus 30. From the beginning Summers showed himself in fine form while Campbell seemed to be quite off his usual colour and could not get settled down. But though the game did not produce any big breaks the spectators were kept keenly interested.

In welcoming His Excellency, Mr V.A.H. Biggs, the chairman, referred to the great interest the Acting Governor had always taken in the affairs of the Club and went on to say that it was His Excellency's last year in the Colony and he, the chairman, was sure that the best wishes of all would go with Mr Ellis when he said good-bye to the Falklands.

In reply His Excellency thanked Mr Biggs for the kind words with reference to himself which he appreciated very deeply.

"I have always regarded the club," His Excellency went on to say, "as a valuable institution and any small thing that has been in my power to do for it, I have been only too glad to do."

"The game we have just seen has been very interesting and the winner certainly showed great decision in potting the red while the loser has our sympathy in so much as whatever luck was going he could not be said to have had his fair share of it."

His Excellency then presented his own cup which is for annual competition and gave the prizes to the runner up and the the third man, Messrs T. Campbell and J. Ratcliffe respectively.

To obtain the trophy a player must win the cup twice in succession or three times in all. The previous winners have been Messrs L. Reive (1932) and D. Peck (1933.)

AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR "MURDERED."

A wave of horror has spread over the world on the news of the tragic shooting of the Austrian Chancellor, Dr. Dollfuss, which took place on Wednesday.

The London official press states that the following telegram has been sent by His Majesty the King to the President of the Austrian Republic : "It is with horror that I have learned of the dastardly murder of Federal Chancellor Doctor Dollfuss and I hasten to convey to you, Monsieur le President, my profound sympathy with you and the Austrian nation at this tragic moment. Pray also convey to Frau Dollfuss, on behalf of the Queen and myself our heartfelt condolences.

Questioned in the House of Commons regarding the Austrian situation, Sir John Simon read the official version of the events communicated verbally to the Diplomatic Corps in Vienna.

He continued "I understand that the insurgents are now in custody the safe conduct promised them being treated as having lapsed by reason of the death of the Chancellor, and that the identity of those who actually fired on the Chancellor is known. In spite of the temporary success of the insurgents in seizing the Federal Chancery and the Radio Station, they have received no general support from the population either in Vienna or in the provinces where, according to the latest reports, everything is now under control. I called upon the Austrian Minister this morning to express on my own behalf and on behalf of His Majesty's Government our horror at this cowardly outrage and our sympathy with Doctor Dollfuss's relations.

"Baron Franckenstein informed me that he had heard officially from his government that Doctor Dollfuss had lived for a considerable time after he had been shot and was allowed to bleed to death by his assassins who refused him both medical and spiritual aid. I may add that the attitude of this country as to the independence and integrity of Austria in accordance with the relevant treaties as stated in the declaration which I made on behalf of His Majesty's Government in February last remains unchanged by these tragic events.

"On the 17th of February last the French, Italian and United Kingdom governments agreed to issue the following communique - 'The Austrian Government has inquired of the governments of France, Great Britain and Italy as to their attitude with regard to the dossier which it had prepared with a view to establishing German interference in the internal affairs of Austria and communicated to them.'

'The conversations which have taken place between the three governments on this subject have shown that they take a common view as to the necessity of maintaining Austria's independence and integrity in accordance with the relevant treaties.'

The British Minister, Sir Walford Selby, who has been on leave in England, left for Vienna on Thursday afternoon.

A later message stated that Doctor Dollfuss died almost penniless and Rome's official announcement concerning troop movements emphasises the grave view taken by Italy in the Austrian situation. Mussolini was early at his office conferring with his colleagues, including the Under Secretary for War, Air and Foreign Affairs.

It is generally believed that the Duce will take a lead in proposing to Britain and France a joint protest to Germany against her alleged share in the responsibility for the murder of Doctor Dollfuss.

The report that Mussolini contemplates going to Vienna for the funeral of Doctor Dollfuss is discounted in Rome.

The Austro-German frontier which closed on Wednesday was opened again on Thursday for traffic.

Following reports that members of an Austrian Legion consisting of Austrian Nazis in Germany, is desirous of invading Austria, the armed police of the Reichswehr and Hitler's Blackshirts troops have been summoned to prevent the members of the Legion crossing the frontier.

A message from London yesterday stated that the eyes of the world are turned on Italy since Mussolini has despatched 40,000 troops with aeroplanes to the Austrian frontier in the Brenner Pass zone following the joint declaration of Britain and France that Austria's independence must be maintained.

Von Rintelen, who is understood to be the Nazis' selection for the dictatorship is slowly sinking, the Daily Telegraph reports, and among his property is found the rest of the proposed Cabinet.

Meanwhile Prince Starhemberg is acting as Chancellor and, presiding over the Cabinet meeting held on Thursday, has granted Doctor Dollfuss's widow a considerable State pension.

The French and Italian press claim that Germany has considerable responsibility in the Dollfuss murder while frank satisfaction is shown by the German extreme Nazi organs.

The United States thinks that Italian intervention is probable "without which it may be impossible to hold Austria together."

The Daily Telegraph New York correspondent reports that a wave of almost panic selling occurred in Wall Street following the receipt of the Austrian news and all stocks declined from three to four points while over two million shares changed hands before 13.00. The world bourses have also reacted but the falls in London were not emphatic.

THE LATE MR VERE PACKE.

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Mr Vere Packe in England. Mr Packe, who acted as Colonial Treasurer in the Falklands for a short time and was for some years a member of the Executive and Legislative Councils, was for many years associated with the sheep farming industry of the Colony and was actively engaged in managing his farms until about the year 1915 when he left the Colony to take up permanent residence in England. Mr Packe subsequently sold his farms to the Falkland Islands Company Limited.

WARSHIP RUMOUR DISCOUNTED.

It is stated that the arrival of M.M.S. Dragon at Barharbor, Maine, has given rise to a rumour that she was despatched expressly to rush home Mr Ramsay MacDonald, the Premier, in view of the European situation.

The Admiralty explains that H.M.S. Dragon is on her normal summer exercises and her arrival at Barharbor, is not secret nor has it any connection with MacDonald's presence at Halifax, Nova Scotia.

A message from Halifax says that Mr MacDonald is following the Austrian situation closely and is in daily communication with Whitehall but there is little likelihood of his holiday being out short.

BRITISH RECOVERY TRIUMPH.

The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Mr Neville Chamberlain, in a "Home and Empire" article on the national recovery states that the British Government had achieved a notable triumph.

When the gold reserves began to dwindle in 1931 the whole financial structure and national standards were imperilled, he says.

Owing to the drastic measures adopted and the relentless honesty prevailing in national finance, willingly supported by all classes, international confidence in the pound was restored.

This was a complete reply to any who would still advocate unorthodox and untried methods in regard to credit and currency.

In the industrial sphere the recovery in extent and rapidity was unparalleled in the history of the nation and, in view of world conditions, was a recovery against the tide.

Cardinal Innitzer performed the consecration ceremony while aeroplanes circled overhead drawing long black streamers across the sky.

He started the return trip at about 2.15 but took somewhat longer to get home on account of the severe snow-storm which broke over the peninsula during the lunch hour.

THE SMOKING CONCERT.

The Smoking Concert held in the Defence Force Club Room on Wednesday last week to celebrate the victory of the Bisley Team in winning the Junior Kolap^ore Cup was perhaps the jolliest ever known there.

Presided over by Captain W.M. Allan (then Lieutenant), there was a large attendance of members and the guests were : His Excellency the Acting Governor, accompanied by Major the Hon. J. Innes Moir (Aide-de-Camp,) the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett, O.B.E., (Acting Colonial Secretary,) the Hon. L.W.H. Young, Mr George Bonner, O.B.E., Mr E.G. Rowe, Mr J.D. Creamer & Mr Bert Newing; while supporting the chairman were the Very Reverend the Dean (Chaplain), Captain D.R. Watson & Lieutenant S.W. Harding.

After selections by the Band who set the ball rolling with some well played pieces, and the toast of "The King" having been given, His Excellency the Acting Governor made his speech already reported with subsequent speeches.

The first item on the social side was a selected songs by Pte K.V. Lellman followed by a duet by Ptes A.W. Summers & H. Summers, both items being well given and well received. Then the inevitable "Billy" Catten, without whom no concert party is complete, gave his first turn and was listened to with every mark of attention.

The Band then varied the programme somewhat and after the toast of "Our Guests" C.S.M. E.J. Gleadell, whom we can with all truth call the "Man with the india-rubber face" kept the assembly with their sides aching at his clever contortions. A well attempted duet by Corporal A. Peck and Private Des. Peck was received with applause as was also a selected by Sgt Summers. After the toast "The Defence Force" Mr W. Couper's was himself again leading community singing - now an item which one could not leave out of any successful Defence Force function - and this was followed by some greatly appreciated numbers from Mr Charles Thompson and again from Mr Billy Catten.

The number that really took the gathering by storm and caused endless mirth was the excellent recitation given and composed by Mr Donald McPhee. As a humourist Mr McPhee is well-known among his associates but on Wednesday last he excelled himself with his mirth-providing story of "How the Governor lost his beer" on that all important night when the news of the Team's victory came through. From beginning to end the piece was one long laugh and to crown all the monologue at the end just simply brought the "house" down.

Mussolini, in defending Austria's independence, aims at securing the support of Britain and France and it is also likely that an understanding will be reached with Czecho-Slovakia in order to meet future eventualities in Austria.
