SHOOTING AT BISLEY

Our thoughts this month will often turn to Bisley now that shooting will be in full swing there. The Army Central Meeting is being held from Monday to Saturday and the Century range will be fully occupied during that time.

There one sees service shooting in all its forms with the rifle and light machine guns. This year the new Bren gun is being used in the latter competitions. Target dimensions are being altered to conform to N.R.A. dimensions. The regulations with regard to firing and preparatory positions in rifle matches have been changed so that the competitor is flat on the ground and not in the standing position.

During the competitions one sees men firing at 600 yards and running up the range firing at each other distance to 100 yards. Then rapid, snap, plate falling, and obstacle clearing make up the varied competitions. Doubtless listeners may hear the result of some of the principal events before the week end. During this week all ordinary practice will take place on Stickledown (900 and 1,000 yds.) and Long Siberia (up to 600 yds.).

The latter is unpopular on account of the distance from camp and is not used very much.

LEAGUE ASSEMBLY MEETS AT GENEVATHE NEGUS SPEAKS

The special session of the Assembly of the League of Nations called to consider the question of Sanctions and relations with Italy, met yesterday evening.

The Italian Memorandum to the League was first read. It stated that the Italian Government views the work she has undertaken in Ethiopia as a sacred mission of civilization and proposes to carry it out according to the principle of the Covenant of the League of Nations and of the other international documents which set forth the duties and tasks of civilizing powers. Italy will consider it an honour to inform the League of Nations of the progress achieved in her work of civilizing Ethiopia. After expressing the conviction that the League requires reform the Memorandum says that Italy is ready to take her part in such work.

Discussion was opened by the Argentine delegate who was followed by the Negus.

Speaking in Amharit he said that there was no example of a Chief of State coming to the floor of the Assembly but never before had the League had an example of a nation being threatened with being erased from the map by the most barbarian methods of warfare yet known. He recalled the decision taken by the Council and Assembly which ended in the declaration that Italy had violated the Covenant and was the aggressor.

It was true that Ethiopia was incapable of defending herself without armaments, aircraft, or outside help. Her fate might be the fate of any other small nation or even a European country.

SITUATION IN PALESTINE SHOWSIMPROVEMENT NOW

It is reported from Jerusalem that confidence is growing that the present easier situation in Palestine will shortly lead to more normal conditions and some Arab circles feel that adequate world attention has now been drawn to the Arab grievances. More Arab cars and hawkers are appearing in the streets and it is rumoured that many shops will be re-opened at the week-end. On the other hand the Arab leaders are apparently determined to continue the strike, but it is generally thought that the increasing financial stringency which makes the meeting of relief requirements difficult, and the belief of the Arab terrorists that ammunition is dwindling, will result in the leaders' objections being overruled.

Trans-Atlantic telephone calls were also passed between the Lord Mayor and the President of the Canadian National Exhibition and between the Telegraph Company and New York. Under the new scale which takes effect as from yesterday, the normal radio telegram rate through Rugby to and from British ships and some foreign ships, is reduced from 1/6d to 1/- per word, and through British post stations from 11d. to 8d. per word.

AT GENEVAATTITUDE OF THE BRITISHGOVERNMENT

The attitude of the British Government towards the questions before the League of Nations at Geneva was defined by the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden in the Assembly yesterday afternoon. No-one present, he said, could contemplate with any measure of satisfaction the circumstances in which the Assembly met. The occasion was painful to all. It was more than necessary in the interests of every member of the League and of the League as an organization, that these facts should be squarely faced. "So far as the application of Sanctions in the Italo-Abyssinian dispute is concerned, the members have in common applied certain economic and financial measures which they were in a position to impose and which they thought could be made effective by their own acts alone. Yet we are all conscious that these measures have failed to fulfil the purpose for which they were imposed. It is not that the measures in themselves have been without effect but that the conditions in which they were expected to operate have not been realized. The course of military events and the local situation in Abyssinia have brought us to the point at which the Sanctions in force are incapable of reversing the order of events in that country. Had the British Government any reason to believe that the maintenance of existing Sanctions or even the addition of other economic measures would re-establish the position in Abyssinia they would be prepared to advocate such a policy if the other members of the League agreed to join in its application. The British Government finds it impossible to entertain any such beliefs. In our view it is only military action that could now produce this result. I cannot believe that in the present world conditions such military action could be considered a possibility. Realities have to be recognised. The continuance of Sanctions at present in force can serve no useful purpose. At the same time it is the view of the British Government that this Assembly should not in any case recognise Italy's conquest over Abyssinia. Moreover, if harsh realities of the situation must influence our attitude towards the measures that we have adopted, they cannot in our judgment involve any modification of the view expressed of Italy's action by fifty members of the League last autumn. There remains the all-important subject of the League's future. Are we to say because we have failed on this occasion to make the rule of law prevail over the rule of force that we are therefore finally to abandon this object? Certainly not. With such an objective as this before us our endeavour must be centred upon the task of reconstruction. It is, however, clear that the lessons of the last few months must be embodied in practice. As regards the immediate future of the Assembly's work, His Majesty's Government are ready to join at any time in any work which this Assembly or any other organization of the League decides shall be undertaken. It may be that some preliminary exchange of views on the subject of the League's future can usefully take place during the present session, but it is essential that all countries should have time and opportunity sufficient to consider in detail the problem that confronts them. There must be, however, no avoidable delay and I suggest therefore that the time to get to grips with this problem should be at the Assembly in September."

HUGE TREASURY DEFICIT IN U.S.A.

It is reported from Washington that the third Fiscal year under the New Deal terminated at midnight on Tuesday and the Republican critics point out the treasury deficit of 4,610,000,000 dollars, which is the biggest ever recorded in peace time, while the peak national debt is 34,000,000,000 dollars, an increase of 13,000,000,000 dollars since the Roosevelt Administration was established, and the expenditure is 8,790,000,000 dollars as compared with January's estimate of 7,090,000,000 dollars.

The Governor of New York, Mr. Lehmann, has reconsidered his intention to retire.

SCENE IN THE LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

Catcalls from Press

It is reported from Geneva that when the Emperor of Abyssinia spoke in the Assembly Chamber of the League of Nations on Tuesday it was the occasion of an unparalleled scene. The Italian occupants of the press gallery burst into cat-calls and boos and whistles, and with the delegates counter-cheering the din was deafening.

Police and detectives attempted to seize the interrupters who endeavoured to escape through passages but the ring-leaders were eventually arrested and conveyed to the police station through jeering crowds. Among the journalists of considerable reputation concerned were Signor Signoretti the Director of the periodical "Stampa".

The League Secretary General has withdrawn the cards of all the Italian journalists implicated and they are henceforth banned from the League building.

Later press reports state that the Swiss Federal Government has decided not to prosecute the Italian journalists. They will be expelled from Switzerland and conducted across the frontier. The Italian Minister in Switzerland has protested and has requested that the journalists shall be given reasonable time before being expelled and conducted across to the nearest point of the Italian frontier. It is considered probable that the request will be granted.

SINO-JAPANESE SITUATION

It is reported from Peiping that the Sino-Japanese tension has not eased at all and the Japanese have requested that the Chinese troops shall be withdrawn from Fangtai railway junction within 24 hours, but it is understood that the twenty-ninth Chinese army favour resistance to this demand. Further Japanese troops are being drafted to that area.

A NEW CHARING CROSS

HOSPITAL

A project for transferring Charing Cross Hospital to a site near the Adelphi is under consideration. If suitable terms can be made with the Adelphi Estate Development Co., which has a building lease on the central portion of the estate, including the famous terrace, a great new hospital will rise above the embankment instead of the flats and offices which had been proposed. In any case, the rebuilding of the hospital cannot be much longer delayed. The present hospital, with about three hundred beds, just off the north side of the Strand, is over a hundred years old, and not suited for conversion.

The Adelphi site is considered ideal for a hospital. It is quiet and airy, with a fine south aspect.

Other Views Expressed

At yesterday afternoon's discussion on Sanctions at the meeting of the League Assembly at Geneva, Mr. deValera urged that the great powers should meet now in a peace conference to prevent war, rather than to wait for a conference which would have to be held after Europe had once more been drenched in blood. Sir James Parr, of New Zealand, favoured the maintenance of Sanctions but would acquiesce if the majority of the League members favoured suspension of them. Referring to League reform he advocated that all the nations of the world should be invited to the September meeting of the Assembly.

Another speaker yesterday afternoon was Senor Rivas Vienna of Chile, who supported Argentina's initiative in the non-recognition of the Italian conquest, and added that unless confidence in the efficacy of the League were restored, Chile might reconsider her continued membership.

The Swedish representative, Mr. K.G. Westman, said that the Sanctions front was already broken, but nothing could reverse the Assembly's verdict that Italy was the

AT THE LONDON CONSERVATIVE'S BANQUET

A flat denial of the reports that he was breaking up and that his resignation was imminent, was given by Mr. Baldwin in a speech at the Banquet celebrating the London Conservative Association's Centenary last night.

He said "When I feel incapable of sustaining the burden I shall pass it on but it is for me to decide and nobody is to dictate to me."

With regard to the Ethiopian dispute, the Premier said "I am content to be called a coward if I have done what I could in accordance with the views of every country in Europe to keep my own country out of war." He added "It is our strongest desire to bring together France and Germany without whose co-operation no peace in Europe is possible."

aggressor. He deplored the fact that the League was not universal.

Among the earlier speakers yesterday afternoon was Mr. Stanley Bruce, the Australian, who said that in view of the facts his Government were of the opinion that the time had been reached when in this dispute Sanctions were of no further avail and should be lifted. The alternative meant war for which he thought they were not prepared.

MINIATURE RIFLE CLUB

The "Dominion" and "Colonial" Small Bore Matches 1936.

As entries for the "Dominion" Match are unlimited, the committee have this year entered three teams, of six members.

For the "Colonial" Small Bore Match, one team of ten members.

Only one card per member is fired in the "Dominion" Match, and two cards in the C.S.B.M.

To ensure getting in the first three in the "Dominion" an average of 99 points per member is required.

In the C.S.B.M. Kenya, who won the competition last year returned a record score for the competition - they averaged 196 out of 200 points. With a view to selecting a team with a high average the committee arranged a novel competition which continued throughout the month of June.

The conditions were : If a member was desirous of firing two match cards in the C.S.B.M., he informed the Range Officer that he was to do so. If on his cards being checked it was found that he had returned a score of 196 or over he was credited with the sum of 1/-. Members could win 2/- during the month, but they were invited to continue the practice. Members could fire as often as they desired.

The scores of those who entered are as under :

J. Petterssen	190 193
F. Berntsen	192
L. Reive	192,196,195,198
C. Reive	190
J. Bound	196,193,194
W.J. Grierson	199,197,198,198
H. Sedgwick (2)	188,192
W.J. Bowles	193,190,193,195,195
J.P. Peck	188,185
K. Lellman	195,189
H. Sedgwick(1)	194,194
F.L. Hardy	195,192,194,192
W.M. Allan	197,190,194,194,194
C.G. Allan	191
E. Lellman	193,191

The committee have elected to continue the competition during the month of July. It is hoped that more members will enter for the Competition.

During the four years that the Colonial Small Bore Match has been fired, Kenya and the Falkland Islands have won the competition on two occasions. Kenya - 1933 and 1935, Falkland Islands 1932 and 1934. Can we win it this year and record the third event ?

The Falkland Islands won the "Dominion" 1933.

T E N N I SPerry Champion For Third Time

For the third year in succession J.J. Perry (Britain) won the singles championship at Wimbledon yesterday afternoon, defeating von Cramm (Germany) by 6/1, 6/1, 6/0.

This easy victory was wholly unexpected, for both players had shown splendid form in the earlier rounds. After the first game, which was strenuously fought, it became evident to the immense crowd which included 800 people who had waited in a queue throughout the night, that von Cramm was playing under difficulties. It was later learned that he had strained a muscle in his thigh in his first service in the second game. In such a condition he was no match for Perry who was in devastating form.

When Perry noticed his opponent limping he gallantly suggested that he should see the masseur, but von Cramm played gamely on and at the conclusion the umpire, at his request, announced what had happened and expressed von Cramm's regret that he was unable in the circumstances to play better

Mr. Morrison, in introducing the third reading said that the fact that they were able to meet the heavy charges for defence with such slight additional taxation showed ~~an~~ amount of financial strength in the country that was very impressive.

Mr. Chamberlain, replying to criticism of the Government's reticence regarding the defence plans, said that they had been perfectly straightforward in this matter.

A wedding of great local

 of Mr and Mrs. A.J. Harvey of

The bride, looking radiantly happy in a really lovely frock of white crepe-de-chine backed with blossom and carried a bouquet of roses, chrysanthemums and ferns given to her by friends. Her Father, Mr. A.J. Harvey, gave her away.

The bride was attended by five bridesmaids - Miss Ruth Harvey (her cousin), Miss Irene Aldridge, Miss Eileen Harries,
 Miss Norah Harries and Miss Ada
 Luxton.

Miss Ruth Harvey's frock was of pink crepe with a brown floral design and she carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. The other four little bridesmaids wore charming satin frocks in pastel shades - pink, yellow, mauve and blue.
 All the bridesmaids had becoming headdresses of net and flowers.

The best man was Mr. P.S.

NO TRAINS - NO TREES

The following is an extract from the Dundee Evening Telegraph and Post of the 30th of April, 1936.

"Imagine having to make up your mind about Christmas presents in July! Modern housewives - imagine having to bake your own bread, carry water, and pay your afternoon calls on horseback! That is what housewives in the Falkland Islands have to do.

I gathered these interesting facts from a lady native of the Falkland Islands who is at present on holiday in Dundee. She is Mrs. Creamer, who is residing with Mrs. Coutts, at 2 Rosewood Terrace.

'I was 23 when I paid my first visit to Britain' said Mrs. Creamer, 'and until that time I had never seen a train or a tree. There are no trees on the islands, no trains or motor transport, and on the East Island where I live, there are altogether only  $7\frac{1}{2}$  miles of road. I have been in England several times since then, but this is my first visit across the Border, and I love the place already. The scenery is much the same as in the island, except, of course, for the trees.

'Everybody has been grumbling about the weather here, but this is the kind of weather we get practically all the time in the Falklands. We have no long spell of summer weather as you do here. Our really warm days are few and far between.

'When I was first married' went on Mrs. Creamer, 'I stayed on a farm, or station, as we call them, and like the rest of the housewives I had to bake all the bread we needed. Though I have lived in Port Stanley for a number of years I still bake the bread. There is only one baker in the town. The wives of the farmers do quite a lot of the farm duties with the help of a maid or two. Maids are quite easily got, and on every farm there is a blacksmith-cum-plumber-cum general handyman.'

When Mrs. Creamer and her husband left the island for the holiday they travelled 1051 miles to Montevideo in the little 700 ton steamer that calls every six weeks, bringing mails and supplies. What do you do in your leisure time? I asked. 'Oh, pretty much the same as people do here' was the reply. 'Everyone there dances, and we have badminton clubs and a very keen bridge club. There is only one cinema, however, and the talkies have not arrived in Port Stanley yet. The films we see are all the old silent ones. The shops in Stanley are quite good, but if we want anything special we have to order it in advance. We have to think about our Christmas presents and Christmas wardrobe in July and our summer frocks and things at Christmas. There is a tremendous amount of business done by mail orders. We have a school - my daughter teaches there, and a very good little hospital. One of the greatest hardships of living in the islands is that the children have to be sent home to continue their education. My youngest son came here to school, got a situation, and I saw him last week for the first time in six years. Some of the houses in Port Stanley have electric light now, but it is only within the last ten years that we have had the water laid on. Before that, even in the town, all our water had to be carried in.'

Mrs. Creamer was in England when war broke out and during the war years took part in a thrilling incident in the islands. She was staying at the farm at the time and, her husband being in the army, was alone with her three children, two maids, and a boy of 14. One of her maids saw three German vessels bearing down on the Islands and Mrs. Creamer reported them to Port Stanley, where two British guard ships were lying. The ships steamed from Stanley Harbour and demolished all three German vessels. Mrs. Creamer has already been in touch with two Falkland Islanders resident in the district. One of them is a former maid who now lives in Glamis. The blacksmith at Mrs. Creamer's farm was a native of Glamis and he married her maid and came back to his native village. Another islander is settled in Monifieth. 'One finds Falkland Islanders all over the world' said Mrs. Creamer, 'even on my journey up to Scotland we met a man in the carriage who had been there and knew the islands'. One thing that does strike me about the Scots people is their friendliness. I find them much freer and friendlier than the English people.'

SWISS CAR OWNERS "STRIKE"

It is reported from Basle that the roads in Switzerland were almost completely motorless on Sunday, the Swiss car owners having effectively carried out their threatened strike "as a protest against the proposed compulsory addition of alcohol to fuel which the Government is contemplating." Only taxis and cars required for urgent purposes, for instance those of doctors, and fire brigades, were exempted from the obligation to stay in the garage. Drivers who were obliged to take out their cars under such circumstances were, however, required to report this to the automobile clubs where they were handed a placard reading "We Must use our car but we protest too".

At important traffic centres the automobile clubs posted observers who noted the numbers of all cars whose owners were dis-regarding strike parole. The motor owners' aim is not only to prevent the passing of a law enicrcing the admixture of alcohol which would result in fuel becoming expensive, but also to bring about the revision of alcohol legislation as a whole and the alcohol monopoly which it entails.

What is the difference between a "HOME LAID EGG" a "NEW LAID EGG" a "FRESH EGG", and
"ANY OLD EGG"

It stands to reason that all are "New Laid" at one time or another, but not for long.

A "FRESH EGG" might be a week or a fortnight old, or even three weeks, - it will remain "fresh" that long provided it is properly stored, at a suitable temperature and not subjected to long journeys or refrigerator storage.

But only a small proportion of eggs can be truly classified as "HOME LAID", either "NEW LAID" or "FRESH".

From today all Eggs on sale at the "Globe Store" will be guaranteed "HOME LAID NEW LAID" or "HOME LAID FRESH", from healthy fowls fed on the best grain with a Cod Liver Oil ration to provide adequate vitamins.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR'S PROTEST

The improper attitude of Japanese officials in reference to the recent enquiry into the death of a Japanese Officer, Sasaki, at Peking, was the subject of representations made on July 4th by the British Ambassador in Tokio, Sir Robert Clive, to the Japanese Vice Minister for Foreign Affairs. He drew attention to the constant complaints and criticisms during the trial and to the reflections on British judicial procedure in inspired statements to the press after the court had reached its decision.

The Ambassador also strongly protested against the arrest of the Indian merchant, Hussien, at Hainking, in contravention of British extra-territorial rights.

The arrest took place on June 17th, Hussien being suspected of having defrauded certain shopkeepers. Instead of handing him over to the nearest British Consul for trial if necessary, the Japanese authorities threw him and his wife and son into gaol and failed to inform the British Consul General at Mukden. The Acting Consul General at Harbin heard indirectly of the incident five days later, but the Mukden Consul General's demand that Hussien be handed over, was ignored. Hussien was interviewed by the Vice Consul on June 26th and reported that he and his family had been subjected to very severe treatment. The case was taken up in Tokio and Hussien and his family were released on the 5th of July. It is understood that the Japanese authorities do not now propose to prefer any charges against him.

The bride was charmingly

Her attendants - Miss Elizabeth

GERMAN AIRSHIP'S FLIGHTSOVER ENGLAND

It was announced in the House of Commons yesterday that the question of the recent flights over England by the German airship "Hindenberg" is being taken up with the German Government.

This statement was made by the Under-Secretary for Air, Sir Phillip Sassoon, in answer to a question which had special reference to such flights as that of last Sunday.

He said that as to the need for the course taken by the "Hindenberg" on that occasion, it was not possible to form an accurate judgement by the subsequent examination of data contained in the ordinary meteorological reports, particularly as the Commander of the airship may have had to take into account additional safety factors peculiar to lighter than air craft. He thought it was reasonable to assume that the Commander exercised proper discretion. No complaints of low flying or failure to recognize regulations as to flying over prohibited areas had been received and there was no reason to believe that the regulations were not properly observed.

The German airship had made eleven return journeys over the Atlantic since March. As they were not subject to special observation unless reported to be infringing the regulations he was unable to state the precise number of occasions on which the English coast had been crossed.

In reply to supplementary questions he added that these flights were allowed only in cases of urgent necessity and certainly not as a part of the regular service, and on the condition that the avoidance of prohibited areas was strictly observed.

Under the Anglo-German Air Convention each contracting party guaranteed the liberty of passage to aircraft of the other subject to the proviso that a special form of permission would be necessary for operation on a regular route by aircraft of the Air Transport Company.

SIX KILLED IN AEROPLANEACCIDENT

As a result of an accident which occurred near Mersah Matruh on July 7th, to aircraft of the Number 216 Bomber Squadron stationed at Heliopolis, Egypt, whilst engaged in night flying exercises in co-operation with the Army, three Royal Air Force personnel and three Army personnel were killed. The six other occupants of the aeroplane were injured.

PERSONAL MESSAGE BROADCASTTO PALESTINE

The British High Commissioner, Sir Arthur Wauchope, last night broadcast a personal message to Palestine, in which, after emphasising his personal distaste for the misery and bloodshed caused by the disorders, he stressed the firm determination of Britain to restore order. He said that he wished to bring about peace speedily, and for that purpose to encourage the growth of public opinion openly condemning all crime, violence and intimidation and exposing misrepresentation.

The first fundamental duty of the Government, he declared, was to ensure the security of lives and property, and military force must be used unhesitatingly until this was effected. Only one outcome was possible and the forces would be increased if necessary. He recalled a statement made by the Minister of the Colonies that the Royal Commission which would come only after the end of the disorders, would be impartial and authoritative, the sole aim of the Government being to obtain such a report as would enable it to do justice to all sections.

The High Commissioner also drew attention to the three regrettable results of the disorders - the increased cost in which they had involved the Palestine Government and its effect on taxation, the disturbance of normal trade which had caused hardship, and the interference with the ordinary medical attention given to the poorer pop-

HIS MAJESTY INSPECTS THE #### ROYAL AIR FORCE

The inspection of the Royal Air Force Stations yesterday by the King accompanied by the Duke of York was the first occasion that a British monarch has ever made such an aeral tour.

The King, who wore the blue uniform of a Marshal of the Royal Air Force, flew in his own Dragon Rapide aeroplane from Windsor, and first visited the fighter station at Northolt which forms part of the fighter command of the air defence of Britain.

His Majesty then proceeded by air to Wittering, the home of No. 11 Flying Training School which has recently been formed in connection with the expansion of the Air Force, where the pupils paraded and he inspected the airmen's dining hall and mess arrangements and took luncheon in the Officers' Mess. The bomber station at Mildenhall was next visited. It forms part of the new bomber command and here His Majesty inspected the aircraft and the crews of the squadrons.

The King next proceeded to Martlesham Heath where there is an aeroplane and armament experimental establishment and His Majesty showed a keen interest in several aircraft including a Vickers single-seater fighter spitfire first which is a two wing mono-plane with an enclosed pilot's cock-pit and is of all-metal construction.

The Spitfire gave a demonstration of its terrific speed when it made a power dive and also showed its wonderful stability with a slow climb.

Another aeroplane which was carefully examined was a Vickers single-seater fighter of the low-wing type, also four medium bombers, two bomber transports and one general purpose Vickers Wellesley machine, as well as the latest equipment.

The King was keenly interested in the new Handley Page medium bomber and he studied carefully the mechanism of the revolving gun turret of a demon fighter.

On the conclusion of the visit to Martlesham the Royal Party returned by air to London.

APPOINTMENT

DROUGHT IN THE U.S.A.

It is reported from New York that Roosevelt has taken personal charge of the drought relief activities.

The temperatures in the Middle West have reached up to 119 degrees, while thousands of acres of wheat have been parched by such heat as has not been known for two hundred years, and there is still no prospect of rain.

The wheat prices are keeping pace with the barometer and retail prices are rising. The greatest damage is done in North Dakota and the neighbouring states where the cattle are lying from thirst.

It is estimated that Government aid is necessary in 17 states and 200,000 farm families must be assisted.

Forest fires have broken out in Wyoming and Montana while concrete roads and other areas are buckling under the heat.

It is reported from Winnipeg that the crops in Manitoba, Alberta and Saskatchewan have been completely ruined and several municipalities in the corn belt are seeking 100% relief.

London. The Bank of London and South America is taking over the obligations of the Anglo-South-American Bank, whose entire share capital has been lost. The depositors are protected but there are no assets for shareholders.

FURTHER EXPENDITURE ONFIGHTING SERVICES

Supplementary estimates issued yesterday bring the total expenditure on Britain's fighting services for the current year to £188,163,700. Yesterday's supplementaries include £11,700,000 for air services, £6,600,000 for the Army, £1,059,000 for the Navy, and £293,700 for Army Royal Ordnance factories; but the total for the year given above also includes a £10,300,000 supplementary estimate for the Navy, published on April the 28th.

In connection with the additional provision now made for the navy, the following additions to new warship construction have already been approved, it is announced:- two 5,000 ton cruisers, nine destroyers, one aircraft carrier and four submarines.

This brings the total of the new construction in 1936 in the foregoing categories and capital ships to two battleships which will be equipped with 14-inch guns, seven cruisers, of which two of 10,000 tons will be built in the present calendar year under the existing naval treaty of 1930, and five of 5,000 tons; eighteen destroyers and two aircraft carriers which will be ordered but not necessarily completed this year, and eight submarines, all under the terms of the 1936 London Naval Treaty.

The supplementary estimate is important as showing the firm intention of the British Government to implement their declared policy of providing the necessary means "both of safeguarding ourselves against aggression and of playing our part in the enforcement, by common action, of international obligations."

It is abundantly clear from the fact that the second supplementary navy estimate has been introduced so soon after the first, not only that the policy of making good deficiencies is rapidly gathering volume, but also that there is great potentiality for increase in the future should circumstances require it. Although it is proposed to release certain units temporarily attached to the Mediterranean Fleet, to the Home Station and Stations abroad, it is the intention to maintain the strength in the Mediterranean at a somewhat higher level than formerly.

The movements contemplated are considered desirable from the point of view of Fleet Administration and the giving of overdue leave.

In reply to questions in the House of Commons yesterday Sir Samuel Hoare said that seven battleships and battle-cruisers are at present in every way ready for sea with full peace complements and one is now commissioned for trials after completing large repairs. Seven others are either undergoing modernisation or large repairs or are refitting, manned by reduced crews performing training services, but of these seven all but three can be made ready for sea at short notice if required.

The Air Force

Increased provision for the Royal Air Force brings the estimated expenditure on that service this year to £50,700,000, which is £24,715,000 more than the net estimate for 1935-6. The new expenditure is necessary to implement the policy foreshadowed in the White Paper of March 3rd which contemplated an increase of first line aircraft at home to about 1,750, excluding the Fleet Air Arm.

Overseas units comprising 25 Squadrons with a strength of approximately 270 first line aircraft will be increased by twelve Squadrons by the year 1939. In addition the present estimate provides for bringing the maximum personnel of the Air Force this year up to 55,000, an increase of 5,000 on the original total. Of the total estimate £8,055,000 is for payments likely to mature before March 31st next as a result of the placing of long term orders for large numbers of air frames and engines and auxiliary equipment and stores. This includes progress payments on aircraft equipment and stores which will not be delivered until 1937 and 1938. Much heavier provision for the bulk of the cost of this programme will, it is stated, have to be made in these later years.

The Army

New expenditure of £6,600,000 for the Army includes provision for additional charges in respect of the programme for remedying army deficiencies and special measures taken in connection with the Italo-Abyssinian dispute, including the cost of maintaining troops away from their normal stations, and the present Palestine emergency.

PROTECTING ENGLISH FRUIT

SYRUPS

It is understood that very shortly the National Mark will be adopted to pure syrups made from English fruit. This announcement gives particular interest to the work that has been going on at Long Ashton Research Station since last November in the production of these syrups.

Apart from their use in flavouring puddings, mixing with ice cream and using for soft drinks there is enormous scope for using these syrups in the milk drinks now being sold in the new milk bars.

NEW USE FOR TEA

The suggestion that hot tea prevents sunburn follows from a theory explained by Professor W.H. Crew, of New York University, in the London publication "Nature". Professor Crew found by experiment that human perspiration absorbs a large proportion of the ultra-violet rays of sunlight, which are responsible for sunburn; also that those of the rays with the shortest wave lengths are most nearly absorbed by a thin layer of perspiration on the skin.

This theory may explain why the worst sunburns are not obtained during violent exercise causing perspiration, but while the subject is resting or sleeping. And it follows that hot tea, which also causes perspiration, and is often taken for that reason to help "cool off" may prevent sunburn in the same way.

YOUNG TREES FOR OLD

Many old elm trees at King's College, Cambridge, have been uprooted by the authorities and laid prone upon the ground. This has been done because of disease in the trees, the authorities being of the opinion that this procedure was preferable to risking random falls which might occur during heavy gales.

A reserve line of young trees has been in existence for some time, and these are now making something of a show, but it will be many years before they can attain to the dignity and beauty of the veterans that have been gradually decaying.

"DOOMSDAY VILLAGE" DOOMED

A very unusual procedure is being carried out near Chichester, where Thorney Island, an ancient village with over 800 years of recorded history as a farming community, is being transplanted to various parts of Sussex. There are between 200 and 300 inhabitants, chiefly interested in agriculture.

The village is being pulled down, and the inhabitants are being settled on the mainland, as the whole island, with the exception of the church of St. Nicholas and the churchyard, has been bought by the Air Ministry for R.A.F. use.

Farms and cottages are being demolished, trees cut down, and fields levelled. Where corn was sprouting last year workmen are already erecting the framework of two great hangars. Modern quarters, a new church and a cinema are to be built for the men and their families.

The doomed village has its own school, manor house, and 12th century church, and is mentioned in the Domesday Book as "Tornei", a manor of "thirty-two villeins with eight ploughs." One by one, families whose forbears have farmed Thorney since before the Domesday Book was compiled, are leaving the island. With their departure the farms and cottages are steadily demolished.

WOMEN AS HARBOUR OFFICIALS

Among the 5,600,000 women workers in England and Wales are two harbour officials, six piano tuners, seven stockbrokers, twenty aviators, twenty-four farm bailiffs and one clerk of works.

BOXING

Last night the Gymnasium was the scene of a most successful Boxing Tournament. It is some time since there was any display of local talent in this direction, and it must have come as a surprise to the majority to find that so many of our neighbours and friends are distinctly promising with the gloves. Although we cannot claim the same degree of technical skill as is to be met with in championship fights, it is certain that the general sporting spirit could not have been anywhere surpassed, nor the entertainment value, as the enthusiasm of the audience bore witness.

At no time was there any hitch in the proceedings, and the greatest credit is due to all those who assisted in such efficient organisation. The actual fighting was consistently keen and very good to watch, with the boys providing the highlights of the evening.

Immediately after the arrival of His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Major the Hon. M.J. Stewart, the first contest between Betts and Meierhofer set the ball rolling with 3 rounds of even if rather uneventful fighting, resulting in a win for the latter on points. The second contest was the most disappointing one of them all, a very poor show being put up by Carse, who was knocked out by Hardy at the end of the first round. Next came one of the best fights of the evening, 3 very game rounds between the boys Lanning and Hirtle, resulting in a draw after Lanning had put up a fine show against a heavier and stronger opponent. The fourth contest between Bound and Bennett was very nearly a draw, a decision only being arrived at after an extra round of 1 minute had been fought: the fight then went to Bound on points. This was followed by another fast and even contest fought out by Evans and Lellman to a draw, despite an indecisive extra fourth round. The sixth contest was outstanding for the very plucky show put up by the boys Thompson and Cletheroe, a fine fight going eventually to Thompson on a points decision. Next came an entertaining exhibition by Biggs and Berntsen, with both boxers apparently amusing themselves enormously. This was once more a points decision - to Berntsen. The fight between Howatt and Wallen provided the only other approach to a K.O. decision, the referee stopping the fight in the third round in favour of Howatt, after an exciting if rather wild match of hard slogging. The ninth and last of the straight fights provided the best show of the evening, the extra round only serving to confirm the original verdict of the draw. Both Smith and Sedgwick are to be congratulated on their gameness and ability to give and take. The last two items were in somewhat lighter vein - 2 Exhibition Rounds by Sullivan and Summers, followed by Sullivan and Barnes giving us the like.

The prizes were then distributed by His Excellency, who also awarded the Governor's prize for the most sporting effort of the evening to Boy Lanning. His Excellency then said a few words in appreciation of the efforts of all concerned. His Excellency also expressed the hope that local interest and enthusiasm would not be allowed to wane after Mr. Martin of the Penola had left the Colony.

COOKERY LESSONS

Arrangements have been made for the Senior girls attending the Government School to receive teaching in the art of cookery. The lessons will be given by the Senior Mistress in the Church House kitchen, which has been renovated and equipped for the purpose.

It is hoped to make the lessons of real practical value to the future housewives of the Colony, and the Superintendent of Education hopes that all concerned will watch the experiment with sympathetic interest and do what they can to make it a success.

Later it may be possible to employ a full-time domestic science teacher and to provide classes for other groups of the community, including men. In this country, with our limited range of foodstuffs, it is most desirable that we should know how to make the best of our resources.

AUSTRO-GERMAN AGREEMENT

After a first instant of hesitation had passed all the leading papers in Rome yesterday announced the Austro-German Agreement in terms reserved for events of the very highest importance. The "Messaggero" heads its leader "The Service of the Cause of Peace.", the "Voce D'Italia" speaks of "European clarification" and the "Popola di Roma" of "a remarkable step forwards on the way to European rehabilitation."

All the Rome papers give prominence to the telegrams exchanged by Signor Mussolini and Herr Schuschnigg which the "Voce d'Italia" calls "an event which the people of Italy can only welcome with pleasure."

It is reported from Berlin that Herr Fuehrer has received the following telegram "The conclusion of the agreement whose aim is to restore friendly and neighbourly relations between two German states offers me a welcome opportunity to greet your Excellency as Fuehrer and as Chancellor of the German Reich, and at the same time to give expression to the conviction that the operation of this agreement will promote well-being in Austria and in the German Reich and will consequently be a blessing to the whole German people. I believe that your Excellency will share my opinion that this agreement is also a valuable contribution towards general peace."

Herr Fuehrer, the Reich Chancellor, thereupon replied "The greetings which your Excellency extends on the occasion of to-day's conclusion of the German-Austrian Agreement are heartily reciprocated. I wish to add that by this agreement the old traditional relations rooted in racial unity and a century-old similarity of history, will be restored in order that two German States may work together in the future hand in hand for their common welfare and for strengthening the peace of Europe."

CORRECTION.

ARRIVALS

Mr and Mrs. F.G. Langdon arrived in Stanley yesterday afternoon from Fitzroy.
 Mr. J.E. Hamilton and Mr. A. Alazia arrived yesterday also.

N O T I C E

The attention of the Government was drawn some time ago to the inability of the camp horses to make use of the metalled tracks into Stanley, and the Director of Public Works has for some time past been engaged in carrying out experiments on central soft tracks on the roads. These experiments have proved satisfactory as far as it is possible to judge from what has been tried and consequently tenders have been called for the work necessary to recondition these tracks which will it is hoped be appreciated by riders using these roads.

Jerusalem The British troops turned the tables on Arab insurgents yesterday. The insurgents were trying to ambush a party of soldiers of the Corps of Signals who were repairing telephone wires near Jenin. The terrorists' rifle shots were heard by the troops who rushed to the scene in lorries and surrounded the ambushers, seven of whom were killed.

NEW FLEET FOR BRITAIN

It is reported from Southampton that Sir Samuel Hoare, the First Lord of the Admiralty, has declared that the building of a new Fleet is a matter of life or death to Britain. He said that we have delayed so long in this re-building that it is now a problem of building what is virtually a new Fleet.

The British navy wants as much air power as we can develop just as the air power needs the navy to keep open the seven seas for the transport of food and raw materials.

Air power had made what was once the most secure island in the world the most vulnerable society in Europe.

PLEASURE STEAMER STRUCK BYLIGHTNING

During the exceptionally severe storm which broke over the Sussex coast on Sunday lightning struck the pleasure steamer "Brighton Belle" and her mast was damaged. Captain Smith who was on the bridge and the wireless operator, were knocked down and suffered burns about the face and neck. None of the passengers was reported to be injured, and as most of them were taking shelter from the heavy downpour, were unaware of the fact that the vessel had been struck.

Among the south coast towns which felt the full force of the storm Eastbourne suffered most. In one hour more than two inches of rain fell. The streets and many shops and houses were flooded, firemen being called in to pump water from flooded premises.

RAIN IN THE U.S.A.

It is reported from New York that at last the rain has come and the drought which has lasted for fifty days is now broken in Wyoming, Montana and Colorado. Temperatures also fell from 117 degrees to 66 degrees at Willston, North Dakota.

CONCESSIONS TO TELEPHONE USERS

Further important concessions to telephone users were announced yesterday in the House of Commons by the Postmaster General who said that since October 1934 when a series of reductions in telephone charges was inaugurated, the growth of the system had been remarkable. The annual increase in telephones was now about double that of the years preceding the reduction of the rates.

The principal new concession is that from October 1st every residential subscriber will be able to make 200 penny local calls yearly free of charge.

Major Tryon said that in a large number of cases this would mean a quarterly telephone rental of £1 which would cover all normal charges for service and he claimed with pride that the Post Office was thus offering inclusive services for the small residential user in all but the largest cities at a figure closely approximating to 1/6d. weekly. At the same time all ordinary residential subscribers would secure benefit up to 4/2d. each quarter.

Other reductions are made in favour of small business users. The total reductions made during the present year are estimated to involve a sacrifice of revenue after allowing for additional business induced by the lower rates, of £1,500,000 in a full year.

BOARD OF THE ADMIRALTY EXPRESSGRATITUDE

The Board of the Admiralty have sent a message expressing their high appreciation of the services rendered by the officers and men of His Majesty's ships which have been stationed in the Mediterranean and Red Sea waters for the past ten months - duty which has been arduous and has involved much hardship.

The Board have also sent a message of appreciation to the Australian and New Zealand Navy Boards, of the services rendered by the Officers and men of the Royal Australian Navy and the New Zealand Division whilst detached for duty in the Mediterranean and Red Sea. These ships, the Board declares, brought a valuable access of strength to the naval forces in those waters.

TELEGRAM TO OUR BISLEY TEAM

The following telegram has been dispatched to the Falkland Islands Team at Bisley Camp, Brookwood:-

"All extend very best wishes for your success Colonial Secretary."

New York. The total nationwide death toll from the eleven days' heat wave was 1,431 on Monday, and the crop damage far surpasses all previous losses. The morgue at Detroit is jammed with bodies and in the mental hospital there 63 people have died. The medical authorities are united in declaring that the conditions are fast approaching a major catastrophe.

BISLEY - 1936

During Thursday and Friday the thoughts of everybody in the Colony will be centred on that mecca for Riflemen - Bisley - where the Falkland Islands Team under the captaincy of Sergeant J.R. Gleadell, will be competing in the two Competitions which have drawn them from the Islands for the honour of this distant outpost of Empire, namely - the Junior MacKinnon and the Junior Kolapore.

On Thursday our Team will compete for the "Barnett" (Junior MacKinnon) Imperial Challenge Cup, presented by the late Major Sir Richard Barnett. The conditions are 1 sighting shot and 10 rounds to count at each of the distances 900 and 1000 yards, the highest possible individual score being 100 and the aggregate for the team 400.

The "Morning Post" Imperial Challenge Cup (Junior Kolapore), presented by the Directors of the "Morning Post" will be shot for on Friday, the conditions being the same as those for the Junior MacKinnon except that the distances are 300, 500 and 600 yards. The aggregate individual score in this Competition is 150 while the total aggregate for the Team is 600 points.

Both Trophies are valued at 100 guineas each.

The results of the two Competitions will be awaited with keen anticipation and meanwhile we wish Sergeant Gleadell and Privates Aldridge, Campbell and Hills every success.

"Keenshot".

PLANS TO END "STAY IN" STRIKES

It is reported from Paris that the Minister of the Interior has communicated to nearly all the Prefects of the Departments the Government's instructions regarding the ending of the stay-in strikes which have paralysed the country for the past five weeks.

In the event of a refusal by strikers to evacuate the factories after all the methods of conciliation have failed it is understood that armed force is to be used, but this will only be as a last resort and will be used with great discretion. The strikers are now optimistically estimated as numbering between 80,000 and 90,000. M. Blum has been conferring with his fellow Ministers regarding the practical application of the forty hour week which it is estimated will cost Paris alone 76,000,000 francs yearly.

STRIKES IN SPAIN NOW

It is reported from Madrid that the Cabinet may fall at any moment through the defiance of 75,000 strikers in the building trade.

The Minister of Labour gave a decision but the men refused to return to work last Monday. Great dissatisfaction has arisen among the employers at what they term the shilly-shallying of the Government.

Nine small sketches by Fra Bartolmmeo were sold for just under £1,500.

GIRL GUIDES' BIRTHDAY PARTY

The 9th of July 1936 was the eighth anniversary of the registration of the 1st Falkland Islands Company of the Girl Guides at Imperial Headquarters, and to celebrate the occasion, on Saturday, the 11th of July, the Guides invited members of the Stanley Sea Scouts, and the Officers and Leaders and Seconds of the 1st Stanley Boy Scouts' Troop to witness their ceremonies and to join the festivities in honour of their Birthday.

Punctually at 3 p.m. the Islands Commissioner, Mrs. Louis Williams, and the guests arrived, when the prepared programme was carried out the Commissioner officiating.

The table looked most artistic with eight candles, in red holders arranged down the length, and the tea provided by the Guides themselves was a wonderful repast, and proved more than enough for the large and happy party which attacked it.

After tea the fun waxed fast and furious, and one had visions of flying figures travelling at an astonishing speed, and the air was rent by shrieks of mirth and excitement.

When it is realized that the party did not break up until 8 p.m. and that this witness at least remained until it ended, and came away with a consciousness of efficiency, good discipline and whole-hearted enjoyment displayed by all, I think we may dismiss it as a "good party" and we hope that the 1st Falkland Islands Company of Girl Guides may have many more happy returns of their birthday.

THE MIDDLE WATCH

For the third year in succession the public of Port Stanley have been treated to the performance of a play in the Town Hall. On Tuesday, July 14th and Wednesday, July 15th a comedy "The Middle Watch" was produced, the proceeds being in aid of the King George Vth Fund for Children's Playing Fields. On both evenings the hall was filled, His Excellency the Governor being among those present on both nights.

Last year the Arabian Night's Entertainment "Ambrose Applejohn's Adventure" was presented but on this occasion a more ambitious piece was given, although in view of the difference in type of the two plays they cannot fairly be compared. For those who were not able to be present and have not yet been able to gather it from those who were more fortunate, the story is briefly this :-

The scene of the play is laid on H.M.S. Falcon, a cruiser on the China Station. The curtain rises to show the Captain's lobby, while a dance is taking place on the Quarter deck above. Among the guests is Fay Eaton who has just become engaged to Captain Randall and an American girl called Mary Carlton. After the dance, these two are anxious to remain on board for dinner in Randall's cabin and permission is obtained from Commander Baddeley, an understanding person as he has himself just become engaged to the Admiral's daughter. Mary was to act as a more obliging chaperone than Charlotte Hopkinson who had come for that purpose, but was proving too efficient.

Unfortunately the last boat breaks down, and as an outcome the two girls have to be accommodated on board. Arrangements are swiftly made for them to spend the night in Captain Maitland's quarters, the latter having fallen in love with Mary at first sight, although previously a confirmed woman hater. All is going well when a message is received saying that the Yacht "Nestor", with the Admiral's wife and daughter on board, is in distress. The Falcon is ordered to sea immediately and Admiral Hewett himself comes on board to take charge. The difficulties experienced by the ship's officers having to accommodate the Admiral in premises already occupied by the young ladies seem almost insurmountable, but the suspense is relieved by humorous episodes in the lobby where Marine C.G. has been posted on the cabins as sentry to prevent the access of unauthorised persons.

The presence of the ladies is very soon detected by the Admiral who announces his intention of making an official inquiry into the matter the following day. At breakfast next morning Mary succeeds in compromising the Admiral by a masterly piece of strategy and he realises the necessity of overlooking the whole matter. All would have been well had not Lady Hewett and her daughter insisted on returning to harbour on the Falcon. They at once discover the presence of Mary and Fay and demand explanations from the Admiral, the Captain and the Commander. At this point the situation is saved by cousin Charlotte whom everyone supposed landed the previous evening. She has spent the night shut up in the gyro compass room, and now appears on the scene in time to recognise Lady Hewett as a flighty young girl-friend of hers whose youthful escapades are brought to light and quite overshadow all present events, thereby relieving everyone from a thoroughly awkward situation.

The first thing impressed upon the mind at the end of the performance was the consistently good acting of all who took part. The natural way in which Captain C.A.G. Hutchison took the part of Admiral Hewett lent reality to the play, while Miss Hilary Felton, as his wife, took a difficult part which she carried off with cool assurance. Mr. W. Catten combined the parts of Ah Fong and Corporal Duckett, in both of which he displayed his now well known talent, and helped to make the play a rousing success.

Mary Carlton was admirably portrayed by Miss Rose Henniker-Heaton who, in a long and difficult part showed herself to be a gifted actress; and as Nancy Hewett, Miss Pricilla Henniker-Heaton did her part very effectively, fitting in well especially when she discovered the presence of Mary and Fay on the Falcon. Mr. J.H. Martin, as Marine Ogg, provided most of the laughter, while Mrs. J.E. Hamilton gave an admirable impression of a severe spinster and thoroughly impressed the audience with her austere disposition as chaperone. Another very natural actor was Miss Eileen Felton who played Fay Eaton. She made love to Bobo in a way which quite deceived the audience, and Mr. N.A. Gurney, as Bobo Randall, played up to her. Mr. V. D. Carse gave a good interpretation of Captain Maitland, dealing well with some very amusing dialogues with Lieut. R.E.D. Ryder, as Commander Baddeley, who gave the impression of being quite at ease. We should like to have seen more of Miss Jeanne Thomson, Mr. F. Sullivan and Mr. A.W. Summers, all of whom had small parts which they acted very well.

Credit should also be given to all those who gave their services off the stage such as the Bands, the Scene Shifters, Prompter, Call Boys, Sea Scouts, Property Manager, and those responsible for the lighting, scenery and make up, and especially to the Producer, Mr. L.F. Hodgson.

The success which attended this play and the two previous performances leads us to hope that a dramatic performance of such high standard will now become a permanent institution in the annual events of the Colony. The achievement of happy gatherings such as these will more than repay those who spend many hours in their production.

BISLEY

The question has been asked of late "can the members of our team compete for the King's prize at Bisley?"

The answer is "yes". The competition is open to British subjects who are past or present members of His Majesty's Forces. It is shot for in 3 stages, the first being a qualifying one and attracting about 1,000 competitors. The competitor who makes the highest score receives a bronze medal and badge. The second is open to the 300 competitors who make the highest score in the first stage, with a silver medal and badge to the competitor making the highest score. The third is open to the 100 making the highest score in the second stage. The competitor making the highest aggregate in the two later stages is the winner of His Majesty's prize of £250, gold medal and badge. The second and third stages are fired shoulder to shoulder which means that all competitors are squadded at the same time, 3 to each target in the 2nd and 2 to each target in the final. The second stage is shot off on Friday morning and the final on Saturday afternoon.

ATTEMPT ON THE LIFE OF #### HIS MAJESTY THE KING .

It is reported that His Majesty King Edward was returning on horseback from the ceremony of presenting the new colours to six battalions of the Brigade of Guards in Hyde Park yesterday, and had just reached Wellington Gate at Hyde Park corner, when a man in the crowd was seen to raise his arm and a revolver fell on the road between the King and his escort.

According to eye-witness accounts which as yet however are somewhat conflicting, a spectator knocked the revolver out of his hand when the man was about to fire.

A few seconds later several policemen had hurled themselves on the man, who at first struggled violently. On the way to the police station he gave his name as George Andrew Mahon and denied having intended to assassinate the King, merely having wanted to make "a protest" At Bow Street the arrested man was remanded for a week on the charge of being in possession of a revolver with intent to injure.

Chancellor Hitler sent the following telegram "I have just received the news of the dastardly attempt on your Majesty's life and express my heartiest congratulations at your Majesty's escape of this danger."

The latest reports state that two men were concerned in the attempt although the brief communique issued by Scotland Yard only mentions one arrest.

THE MACKINNON RESULT

The news of the result of the Junior MacKinnon competition at Bisley was anxiously awaited last evening and at the Defence Force Club varied were the forecasts as to the position of our own team.

At last the telegram arrived and showed that the Falkland Islands were sixth with a score of 322.

Sudan were first again this year, being 12 points ahead of the next team, while Nyassaland was second and the Malay States third. Nyassaland has competed in this competition on two previous occasions and has won the Trophy each time.

The detailed scores of our team were :-

Pte. A.H. Hills	84
Sgt. J.R. Gleadell	83
Pte. W. Aldridge	79
Pte. M.J. Campbell	76

522

The news which dashed our hopes to the ground was received early in the evening and was broadcast from the Stanley Studio later in the evening. To our disappointment we found that our Team was seventh.

Although we regret that this year we have been unsuccessful we heartily congratulate our rivals on their fine performance.

DEPARTURE OF MR. G.W. BUTCHERPresentation to him

To-day we wish all good luck to Mr and Mrs. G.W. Butcher who are leaving the Colony en-route for Mr. Butcher's new appointment in the Gold Coast.

Last night Miss K. Perry and Miss Maude Duffin, on behalf of the broadcast listeners, made a presentation to him at Belmont House of £12 with which he is going to buy a suitable memento of his years in the Falklands and have it suitably inscribed.

Mr. Butcher has been in this Colony for some years and has made a great number of friends; he and his wife will be very much missed we are sure.

New York. The death roll due to the heat wave is now nearing 4,500 and the temperature round about the Mississippi river has reached the unprecedented height of 92 degrees fahrenheit.

MARKED PROGRESS IN ALL THEPRINCIPAL INDUSTRIES

In the course of his speech in the House of Commons on Thursday night the President of the Board of Trade gave a survey of what he described as another year of marked progress in all the principal industries of the United Kingdom, with the exception of coal and cotton.

Progress had been remarkably good in all the industries supplying the home market. It had been slowest in the export trade.

Mr. Runciman cited a large number of statistics to illustrate the improvement in the country's economic position. The number of insured persons in employment in Great Britain in June, excluding agricultural workers, was over 440,000 more than a year ago; and the number of unemployed was nearly 300,000 less.

In spite of the competition from road transport the railway receipts were about £1,730,000 higher in the first six months of this year than in the corresponding period of 1935, and pooled receipts from the freight traffic accounted for nearly the whole of the increase.

In the same period the postal receipts increased by nearly 4% and bank clearance by nearly 7%.

The retail sales which reflected conditions over the whole country were 6% more in 1935 than in the previous year and the expansion had continued this year. The sales in the first five months of 1936 were about 7½% more in value than in 1935.

Industrial production last year was about 7% greater than in 1934 for both export and home markets and in the first quarter of this year there was an increase of 9% over the first quarter of last year. At the end of June the tonnage of merchant vessels under construction was 850,000 tons gross as compared with 560,000 tons gross a year ago.

Revising the main industries Mr. Runciman stated that engineering showed a continued improvement and in some branches - machine tools for instance - the demand had overtaken the supply. In the electrical industry an all round improvement had been continued since 1935.

Activity in other industries was reflected in the bigger demand for electrical material heavy and light.

The motor industry continued its prosperous career. From October to April last the production of private cars and chassis increased by over 11% and commercial vehicles by 10% as compared with the corresponding period a year earlier.

Artificial silk was a young industry which had shown remarkably rapid development. The United Kingdom was now the third largest producer of rayon yarn, and held second place as an exporter of rayon piece goods. The advance of rayon had not been at the expense of other textile industries. It had grown rather as a valuable source of new raw material to them.

Lancashire manufacturers in particular had been ready to seize upon the possibilities of using rayon yarn for the new fabrics, demand for which would make good some portion of the losses of the former trade in cotton fabrics.

The President of the Board of Trade also analysed the figures of overseas trade in the first half of the year which were published on Thursday.

He said that the comparison between the first six months of 1935 and 1936 showed that although the export trade had not gone up with the same rapidity as in recent years it was still increasing. From January to June in 1935 the total exports were valued at £206,500,000 and in the corresponding period this year the figures had risen to £207,900,000. The imports had gone up to an even greater degree. The imports of food and drink and tobacco showed an increase from £166,000,000 to £179,000,000; of raw materials and articles mainly unmanufactured from £103,000,000 to £119,000,000; and of articles wholly or mainly manufactured from £88,000,000 to very nearly £101,000,000.

A WEEK'S HOLIDAY ONPEBBLE ISLAND.

On Sunday, June 28th, the "Gentoo" took five people from Port Howard to Pebble Island for the holidays, and on Monday eight more people rode to Purvis from Manybranch to wait for the "Gentoo" which was due that morning.

After a long wait it was thought that all would have to spend the night in Purvis shanty in spite of signals made by fires of gorse and diddle-dee and various suggestions, but luckily the "Gentoo" was soon sighted, having seen the signals and soon all were ready on board.

Upon arrival at Pebble, and after a very calm crossing, cheer after cheer could be heard, so excited were all.

In the evening a dance was held in a part of the shed which had been cleared out and gaily decorated for the occasion by the "bhoys" (and I believe ladies also) and under the supervision of Mr. W. Betts. A wonderful band appeared, consisting of a full size piano accordeon played by Mr. F. Lee Junior, a smaller piano accordeon played by Master Syd. Lee, a violin by Mr. Peck-Betts, Ukelele by Mr. P. Anderson, kettle-drum by Mr. J. Smith and other music consisted of double-row accordians played by Mr.

A. Betts, Mr. W. Betts, Mr. A. Simpson, Mr. O. McPhee, Mr. A.S. Betts, and Mr. W. Nelson. Mr. E. Berntsen carried out the duties as M.C. assisted by Mr. Alan Betts and Mr. O. McPhee, and they must be congratulated on the way they conducted the dance and having quite a variety of old and modern dances, and no slacking.

The catering was done by Mrs W. Betts, Mrs J. Peck-Betts and Mrs. A. Betts, and a word of praise must be given to these ladies for the excellent cooking, there was no shortage of anything, not even drinks, thanks to the "bhoys" who saw to this.

A dance was held every night from Monday until Friday, and dancing was kept going until about 2.30 a.m. each day. The Misses M. and F. Lee, who are well known singers on the West, got no rest until they obliged the company with a couple of songs, and were loudly applauded.

The Spot Dances were won by Mrs. F. Lee and Mr. Alex Simpson, Mrs. W. Betts and Master Syd. Lee.

There was quite a lot of excitement caused one evening when two stalwart men entered dressed as pirates, and when asked by a small boy where they came from, said that they were the crew of the "K.K.". There was more excitement when a young fellow dressed as a lady entered with another young man in fancy dress. Two niggers were present another night but they happened to be the same two from the "K.K." and they sang the well-known song "When I am too old to Drink".

An exhibition boxing match was held one afternoon between Mr. A. Peck and Mr. W. Goss, which ended in a draw, according to the spectators.

A musical evening was held one afternoon as one person termed it, at Mr. T. Lee's home, and quite a number of old and new songs were sung by different people.

Many snapshots were taken and a flash-light photograph was taken one night at the dance by Mr. E. Berntsen.

A wonderful week was spent despite the sickness which a few developed and even they, I am sure, enjoyed their holiday.

The "Gentoo" conveyed the visitors to Purvis on Saturday morning, all feeling a bit tired after the week's enjoyment. The people of Pebble Island are to be congratulated on the way in which they carried out everything and the tremendous amount of trouble they took to make the visitors comfortable and to give them an enjoyable time.

The visitors left with a sad feeling, hoping to return again for the next winter holiday, it was a holiday never to be forgotten. Should auld acquaintance be forgot ?

SCOTLAND YARD APPEALS FOR EVIDENCE

Scotland Yard has issued an appeal for evidence from persons who witnessed the occurrence about which there is as yet little exact information, that is, the alleged attempt on the King's life.

The result of enquiries so far confirms both the belief that the arrested man is not connected with any organisation and the general impression that his behaviour was the result of the effect of some fancied grievance on an unbalanced mind.

Large crowds gathered outside Buckingham Palace yesterday and expressed in repeated cheering their relief that the unhappy incident had passed without harm to His Majesty the King.

PRODUCTION OF MUNITIONS TO BEEXPEDITED

His Majesty the King received in an audience at Buckingham Palace yesterday Engineer Vice-Admiral Sir Harold Brown on his appointment as an additional member of the Army Council to be responsible for the co-ordination and expediting of the production of munitions for the army and those munitions which the War Office supplies to the other services.

His Majesty also received Brigadier General Sir Alexander Ross, the President of the Canadian Legion, and Leader of the six-thousand pilgrims, the majority of whom sailed from Montreal yesterday to attend the unveiling of the Vimy monument on Hill 145.

REPRESENTATIONS MADE TO THEJAPANESE EMBASSY.

Strong representations have been made to the Japanese Embassy in London against the brutal treatment of Mr. Hushin the British India merchant and his wife while under detention at Hsinking in Manchuria by the Japanese authorities. Mr. Hushin was beaten and subjected to "water torture".

NEW GOVERNMENT FORMED IN MADRID

To the complete surprise of everybody in Madrid it was announced yesterday that the Premier, Senor Quiroza, the Minister of the Interior Senor Moles and three other Ministers had resigned from the Cabinet and a new Government was immediately formed by the President of the Cortes, Senor Martinez Barrio, a member of the Republican Union Party.

The Ministry of war which had previously been in the hands of Senor Quiroza is now occupied by General Miaja; the former Foreign Minister Senor Barcia becomes Minister of the Interior while the Ministry of Foreign Affairs has been given to a new minister Senor Faustio Yencarati. Further new ministers are Ramon Feud as Minister of Agriculture, Markelino Domingo as Minister of Education, Antonio Lara as Minister of Public Works, Sanchez as a Minister without portfolio.

Owing to strict censorship and conflicting rumours it is difficult to gain a clear survey of the progress of events in the military revolt.

It seems certain however that the position became worse for the Government yesterday. The Government now admit that the revolutionary movement was not confined to Morocco but also broke out in the Canary Islands, the Balearic Islands and "some provinces" in the peninsula, notably in Seville, Malaga and Cadiz where, however, it is stated that loyal troops and the police succeeded in getting the upper hand. It is denied however that the rebels in Morocco shipped troops to the Spanish coast, on the contrary loyal troops were on their way to Africa to restore order there.

General Franco, brother of the well-known airman and Commander of the troops in the Canary Islands is thought to be one of the chief organizers of the rebellion and has been deprived of his post.

Convincing evidence that Morocco is now practically in the power of the insurgents is given by the fact that the Commander of the Air Force, General Nunez el Prado intended to fly to North Africa on Saturday night in order to take the situation in hand but had to give up his plans since under the prevailing circumstances it was reported that there was no possibility of his landing.

The Socialist and Communist parties broadcast a manifesto yesterday calling on all party members to support the Government and be prepared at any moment for a fight to the death which might break out in consequence of the revolution.

The Government has decided to hold the Workers' Militia in readiness for action and several thousand well armed men of this organization are already occupied in strategic positions in Madrid while many of their wives are patrolling the streets carrying rifles.

The latest reports last night indicate that the situation has become more acute, the crew of the "Lepanto" one of three destroyers ordered to proceed to Morocco having tried to prevent the ship from steaming out.

It is further stated that General Sanjurjo who played a leading part in the abortive military rising of 1932 and who is now in exile in Portugal is also among the chief organizers of the present revolt.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

It is reported from Newcastle-on-Tyne that the Methodist Conference has vigorously debated the resolution urging the Churches to take no part in war and opposing the Government re-armament programme, but in view of the emphatic opinions expressed the question was not voted on.

GOLF

Paris. Britain has joined the International Steel Cartel with adherence valid until 1940, and as a consequence certain new contracts have been signed. The League of Nations statistics indicate a 20% increase in the world's steel output in the first part of 1936 as compared with 1935.

BRITISH CRUISERS MAKE FOR SPAIN.

The latest press telegrams from Madrid last night report an official Government declaration that the whole of Madrid and the surrounding area has been cleared of rebels and is now in the possession of the Spanish Government forces.

Conflicting reports from the Government and from the insurgents during yesterday have made the general position obscure but widespread disturbance prevails, (as reported on page 4) and measures for the safety of British Nationals are being taken where necessary.

In addition to the British warships now at Vigo, Malaga and Tangier the H.M.S. "Witch" is proceeding to Ferrol and H.M.S. "Wren" to Corunna. The Admiralty announced last night that the Rear Admiral Commanding the first cruiser squadron has been instructed to send one cruiser to Barcelona and one cruiser to Palma. The cruiser Amplion which sailed yesterday to join the Africa Station has been ordered to go to Teneriffe.

It is reported from Tangier that two rebel Spanish aeroplanes have bombed the cruiser "Jaime I" and the warships in the harbour replied with anti-aircraft guns but no hits were registered and the planes returned in the direction of Ceuta.

Two big battles were fought near Madrid yesterday between rebel troops and loyal forces consisting of the shock police. It is understood that the rebels were defeated in both cases

GERMANY'S EXPENDITURE ON

MILITARY PREPARATIONS

Mr. Churchill asked the Chancellor of the Exchequer in the House of Commons on Monday if he was aware of the expenditure by Germany on purposes directly and indirectly concerned with military preparations, including strategic roads, which might have amounted to £800,000,000 during 1935, and whether this rate of expenditure seemed to be continuing.

Mr. Neville Chamberlain replied that the Government had no official figures, but from information they had, he saw no reason to think that the figure mentioned by Mr. Churchill was necessarily excessive as applied to either year although there were elements of conjecture.

ACCELERATION OF THE BRITISH

RE-ARMAMENT PROGRAMME

The Minister for the Co-ordination of Defence, Sir Thomas Inskip, initiated a Debate in the House of Commons on Monday and gave a review of his Department's efforts to accelerate the programme of rearmament.

Referring to the naval programme he said that in ship production, equipment and personnel the reports were satisfactory and while the maintenance and replacement had been proceeding in the normal manner additions and expansions on a growing scale were constantly taking place. He was not aware of any anxiety in any quarter as to the naval position. Regarding munitions supply, when the new sources they hoped to secure among private firms were available and the Government factories were in the production of seven-eighths of the total requirements in shell fuse and cartridges, the case would have been provided.

A great advance had been made since he spoke eight weeks ago in the provision of the necessary gauges of all types and descriptions.

Sir Thomas Inskip announced the dispersal of the Royal Ordnance factory at Woolwich to various points in South Wales, Lancashire and Scotland.

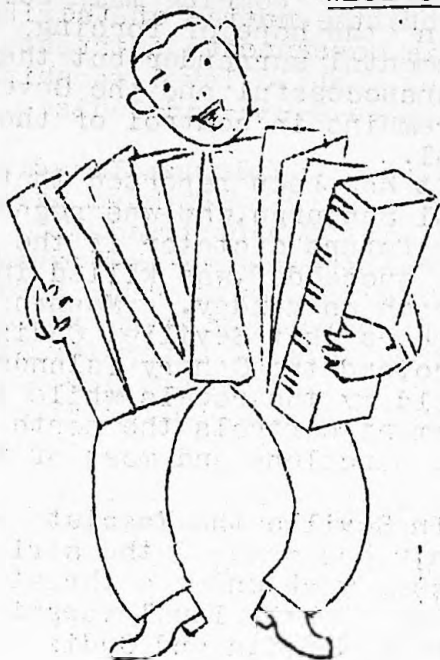

Turning to the Air Force the Minister said that it was a new and unknown factor in future war. Its development in machines and equipment during the last three or four years was simply amazing. The best illustration was that machines were under production to-day for regular use in the Air Force which five years ago would have been serious competitors for the Schneider Cup. Coming to the question of the expansion of aircraft production he said that comparing April, May and June with the corresponding period last year the delivery was about three and a half times as many aeroplanes and over three times as many engines.

Before he concluded Sir Thomas Inskip spoke of the work being done on the problem of food supplies in war time and said that they were on the point of reaching conclusions which he hoped would ensure to the country an increased output by agriculture as well as a sufficiency of supply from abroad of all essential food and feeding stuffs for which the country was dependent on imports.

APPOINTMENTS

Appointments in King Edward's household were announced in London on Monday and include two important new posts - Flight Lieut. E.H. Fielden (King's Pilot) appointed "Captain of the King's Flight"; Earl Granard has been appointed "His Majesty's Comptroller at Ascot".

There are a number of changes in the King's household personnel, also many re-appointments, the most important being the appointment of the Lord Chamberlain which is retained by the Earl of Cromer. The Duke of Sutherland becomes Lord Steward, the Duke of Beaufort becomes Master of the Horse. Major the Honourable Alexander Hardinge has been appointed Private Secretary to His Majesty's ward and Major Ulick Alexander as Keeper of the Privy Purse.

CIVIL WAR IN SPAIN.

London messages collected from various sources indicate that Spain is in the throes of a violent civil war which shows no sign of abatement. After two days' fighting the position remains obscure, says the Daily Telegraph, with the popular front Government ordering mobilisation of all males under 30 to fight this revolt engineered by army officers and fascists. Madrid was the centre of fierce street fighting for five hours on Monday, with the rebel airmen bombing main buildings in the hope of forcing Governmental surrender, but they were unsuccessful and the Government remains in control of the capital.

It has been reported that General Sanjurgo, who was regarded as the future dictator if the revolt succeeded, was killed in an air crash on Monday. Meanwhile it appears that Seville, Cadiz, Morocco, and the Canary Islands are held by the rebels while the Government controls the north of Spain, Barcelona and most of the towns.

In Seville the Fascist
Governor has ordered the strikers to resume work under a threat of shooting, while loyal warships have bombed Ceuta and Cadiz rebels.

Reports from Barcelona state that over 200 people have been killed and 3,000 injured when the loyalists bombed the town.

Refugees are fleeing into Gibraltar where starving children are being fed by the residents.

TO ENCOURAGE THE CONSUMPTION OF WHEAT.

There was a meeting of the International Wheat Committee in London yesterday. The Chilean Ambassador suggested an inquiry into the possibility of encouraging, through international action, the consumption of wheat instead of cereals with an inferior nutritive value.

He suggested that an international organisation might obtain at a low price part of the surplus likely to accumulate in several countries in the next few years and referred to the possibility of financing such a wheat reserve through an international institution such as the Bank of International Settlements.

The representatives of Great Britain, France and the Argentine welcomed these suggestions.

OUR INSUFFICIENT NAVAL STRENGTH

In a speech at the Empire Parliamentary Association last night the first Lord of the Admiralty, Sir Samuel Hoare, said that recent events had demonstrated that our naval strength which would have proved adequate in the past might no longer be sufficient to fulfil the demands of collective action and unlimited liability in the present and in the future.

RECEPTION AT BUCKINGHAMPALACE.

500 Debutantes Presented

His Majesty the King held an afternoon reception in the grounds of Buckingham Palace on Tuesday at which five hundred debutantes were presented.

Full Court Mourning ended on Monday and this was the first social function to be held by the King at Buckingham Palace since the death of King George.

The reception will rank as a court for those ladies presented.

Altogether 1,200 people were invited to the reception and large crowds gathered outside Buckingham Palace to witness the arrival of the King's guests.

justice to all who paid taxes, including the ordinary man in work, to see that the proceeds of their industry were not wantonly and needlessly frittered away.

The Minister drew the attention of the House of Commons to the provisions for a more flexible application of the rules regarding allowances for rent and such details in which discretionary adjustments of payments were permitted.

He taunted the Opposition with the failure of the attempt which he alleged on their part to start up agitation in the country against the regulations.

Mr. Arthur Greenwood, in moving an amendment for the Labour Party condemning the regulations, declared his party's unalterable objection to the household means test.

DEBATE ON UNEMPLOYMENT INTHE HOUSE OF COMMONS .

An important three-days' debate was opened in the House of Commons on Tuesday, on the subject of the draft unemployment assortment regulations by the Minister of Labour who moved for their approval.

The draft regulations are the second to be issued under the 1934 act setting up a new administration of unemployment assistance for those who have exhausted insurance benefit. The first draft regulations were partially suspended eighteen months ago as a result of general criticism in all parts of the House of Commons.

The new regulations, if approved, will come into effect on November 16th.

Mr. Ernest Brown claimed that the proposals formed a sound and just foundation for the solution of the great social problems involved. Defending the household means test he said that if relief of unemployment was to be a charge upon the national exchequer it was only common

THREE-POWER MEETING IN LONDON

A communique issued from the Foreign Office states that "as a result of the exchange of views foreshadowed in the communique issued in Geneva on July 4th relating to a further meeting of the Powers whose representatives drew up the London Arrangement of March 19th, the Government of France, Belgium and Britain have now decided that there shall be a meeting in London on the 23rd of July of the representatives of the three powers. The object of this meeting will be to examine and to consider how best to further the desires of the three powers and to consolidate the peace of Europe by means of a general settlement."

As was stated in the House of Commons on Monday night the Governments of Germany and Italy have been, and will be, kept informed.

The Foreign Secretary received both the German and the Italian Charges d' Affaires at the Foreign Office on Tuesday.

THE LATE KING'S FONY

It has been decided that "Jock" the grey pony which the late King George frequently rode when the Court was at Windsor or Sandringham and which was such a favourite with His Majesty, is to live in retirement in the Royal Mews at Windsor Castle. He now occupies a stall near the famous Windsor Greys, and over his manger is a polished brass tablet bearing the name "Jock". He is frequently to be seen exercising in Windsor Great Park, trotting alongside a horse ridden by a groom.

False ages given in the Census

Seven years have been added to the expectation of life in England since 1911. This fact emerges from the statistics recently published in a Blue Book by the Registrar-General.

The probability that an infant will die within a year of birth decreased between 1911 and 1931 by 40%. Of every 1,000 boys born, about 120 died in 1911 before reaching the age of one year, about 90 in 1921 and only about 72 in 1931. For girls the figures were 98 per 1,000 in 1911, 69 in 1921, and 54 in 1931.

Doubt is expressed as to whether people give correct ages when filling in census forms or registering deaths. By law, of course, the truth must be told, but in Part 1 of the Life Tables for England and Wales, Sir Alfred Watson, Government Actuary, writes; "An inspection of the numbers returned in the census, as well as the deaths recorded each year, shows considerable fluctuations from age to age which can only be accounted for, except at the younger ages, by mis-statement either accidental, e.g. through ignorance, or deliberate. The census statistics reveal a partiality for the ages ending in 0 and 8, whilst those ending in digits 1, 7 and 9 appear to be less favoured.

CIVIL WAR IN SPAIN.500 Reported Killed in Barcelona

It is reported from Madrid that the main battles between the Government and the rebel armies are still awaited but meanwhile the Government claims the capture of Toledo, Alcazar, & Guadalajara, and the forces are expected to advance towards Seville where fighting between the local rival forces is continuing.

A column of rebels under General Mola arrived to-day within thirty-six miles of Madrid and came into contact with the Government forces. On the heights of Buitrago another column of Mola's forces is reported in action.

The Government troops are in readiness to meet the third column which is expected shortly.

Sniping by alleged Fascists is proceeding continually from the balconies and upper windows of houses in Madrid upon persons in the streets. The Government claim to have won Barcelona after much bloodshed, where, in a communique the estimate of those dead is 500 while those injured number 3,000.

The Barcelona Air Force has sent a peremptory order to the rebels at Saragossa to surrender or be bombed.

A Military Tribunal is expected to start functioning in Barcelona to-day to try a large number of prisoners.

At Gibraltar a party of officers from three Spanish warships went on shore and requested fuel which was refused, the warships then left.

The latest reports from Madrid state that General Mola has been killed in battle.

PERSONNEL OF PALESTINECOMMISSION.

The Colonial Secretary stated in the House of Commons yesterday that he hoped to announce the personnel of the Palestine Commission next Wednesday.

The Commission obviously could not go to Palestine where the position, he said, was still serious, until sufficient order was restored to enable it to make investigations.

Mr. Ormsby-Gore referred to the suggestion that there should be a temporary suspension of immigration while the Commission carried out its enquiry and said that he was not at present in a position to make any statement as to the intentions of the Government beyond saying that their decision would be taken in due course on the merits of the case and would not be influenced by violence or intimidation.

NEW SHIP BOUGHT BY THE FALKLAND ISLANDS COMPANY

It will be most gratifying to all concerned to learn that another vessel has been obtained by the Falkland Islands Company, Limited, for the improvement of the local service and for the carriage of mails, passengers and goods between the Colony and South American ports. The vessel procured has cabin accommodation which will provide sleeping berths for 146 persons in 123 cabins together with good public rooms and deck space. There is comfortable second class accommodation with special provision for ladies. The cargo space is sufficient to load about 3,000 bales of wool and the vessel has a speed of about 12 knots.

The particulars according to Lloyds Register are as follows :
 Gross tons..1,872. Nett Tons 1,091.
 Length 283'. 3". Breadth 36'. 1".
 Depth 19'.0". Draught 18' 6½".
 The vessel is equipped with a direction finder, echo-sounding gear and submarine signalling apparatus.

The Government has with the approval of the Secretary of State entered into a new agreement for the subsidized mail and passenger service having consideration to the greatly increased cost of maintaining it. There will be no increase in rates. The Government will pay an additional £1,000 a year as subsidy with the stipulation that at least ten more hands will be employed than in the s.s. "Lafonia".

With the new vessel it is intended to speed up communications and arrangements have been completed with Government for not less than 12 return voyages between Stanley and Montevideo each year as against the present arrangement of not less than five such voyages. Other voyages to Brazil and the Southern Coast ports are contemplated and it is with confidence that the Colony as a whole can look forward to a higher measure of prosperity as the result of the trading of this vessel than could be obtained with the facilities available in the past.

THE THREE-POWER MEETING

At the end of the Three-Power Meeting in London on Thursday the following communique was issued. "The representatives of France, Belgium and the United Kingdom, mindful of the arrangement of the 19th of March, of proposals of the German Chancellor of the 31st of March, and of those of the French Government of the 8th of April, have arrived at the following conclusions. Firstly, the main purpose to which the efforts of all European nations must be directed is to consolidate peace by means of a general settlement. Secondly, such a settlement can only be achieved by the free co-operation of all the powers concerned, and nothing would be more fatal to the hopes of such a settlement than division, apparent or real, of Europe into opposing blocks. Thirdly, three Governments accordingly considered what step should be taken to arrange a meeting of the five Locarno Powers as soon as such a meeting can conveniently be held. The first business to be undertaken should, in their opinion, be to negotiate a new agreement to take the place of the Rhine Pact of Locarno and to resolve through the collaboration of all concerned on the situation created by the German initiative of the 7th of March. Fourthly, the three Governments accordingly propose to enter into communications with the German and Italian Governments with a view to obtaining their participation in the meeting thus proposed. Fifthly, if progress can be made at this meeting other matters affecting European peace will necessarily come under discussion. In such circumstances it would be natural to look forward to a widening of the area of discussion in such a manner as to facilitate, with the collaboration of the other interested Powers, the settlement of those problems the solution of which is essential to the peace of Europe. "

Conversations between the Belgian, French and British delegations which lasted for two hours on Thursday morning, were resumed at No. 10 Downing Street on Thursday afternoon when the French Premier, M. Blum, who had arrived by air during the forenoon, assumed the leadership of the French Delegation. The afternoon meeting lasted for over two hours and in British circles the warmest tributes are paid to the spirit of sincere collaboration in which the French and Belgian Ministers met their British colleagues and joined wholeheartedly in this new attempt to reach, with the free collaboration of all, an enduring European settlement.

It is reported from New York that the British Light-weight, Kid Berg, was technically knocked out in the second round of ten by the Italian, Spoldi. The heavy-weight title holder Braddock has accepted Schmeling's challenge.

SHORT THREE-POWER CONFERENCE

The three-power conference lasted only twelve hours and it is understood ended in complete agreement by all on the text of the communique which will be jointly presented to Germany and Italy with the hope that the invitation will be accepted and a date arranged without undue delay.

British circles point out that solidarity and sincerity are the keynotes of the work done in the conference on Thursday, and the agreement is interpreted as affording a new opportunity for Europe.

According to French views collective security is the dominant theme running through the agreement and there was no return to the ideas of a Four-Power Pact.

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT SUSPENDED

Three members of the House of Commons were suspended on Thursday. They are the first suspensions of the present Parliament.

As they are "first offenders" they will only be suspended for five days and will not lose their Parliamentary salaries. Pending their return Mr. Maxton will be the only member of the Independent Labour Party in the House.

The reason for the suspension of these members was that after twenty-seven hours of a non-stop debate on the means test for the unemployed, during which heated exchanges occurred, the climax was reached with the abuse of the Home Secretary, Sir John Simon, by Clydeside members, and the Speaker called upon them to withdraw their observations. Following their refusal Mr. George Buchanan representing Gorbals, Mr. Campbell Stephen for Camlachie, and Mr. James McGovern for Gorbals, were suspended. Mr. McGovern showed signs of refusing to leave the House when ordered and was escorted out by the Sergeant-at-Arms.

According to the Daily Telegraph Mr. Buchanan took the lead by calling the Home Secretary a liar and Stephen supported him and Mr. Govern repeated the offence with profanity.

GOVERNOR LANDON NOMINATED ASPRESIDENT.

It is reported from Kansas that Governor Landon has accepted the Republican nomination for the Presidency and in a speech from the Capitol made his platform the unshackling of initiative and the free spirit of American enterprise, to facilitate the expansion of business and employment.

Mr. Landon claimed that the first duty was to put the financial house in order but in foreign affairs he contended that America should maintain a benevolent isolation.

LARGE SCALE FIGHTING AT ADDISABABA DENIED.

It is reported from Rome that an official communique has been issued which denies any large scale fighting in the Addis Ababa area and it adds that rigorous action has been taken against small raiding bands.

DREADFUL SCENES IN BARCELONA

Churches Burned and Priests Killed.

Messages from Spain give no clear indication of the situation, with the Government claiming far-reaching victories including the defeat of the rebels marching on Madrid. The insurgents remain active in many areas and are achieving a certain measure of success.

A new terror has been added to the revolt, that is the fear of widespread reprisals by the ultimate victors as illustrated by the fall of Barcelona to the Government.

The Situation in Spain

In Barcelona the capture of the city has been followed by death and wanton destruction with Churches burned and priests decapitated and nuns turned naked into the streets.

San Sebastian is reported to be in flames. Rebel aeroplanes are still operating over the Straits and the leaders deny defeats at Madrid, Algeciras, Balneario, & Malaga.

General Franco, broadcasting from Ceuta in Spanish and in English stated that the rebel movement was national, non-party, and aimed at defeating communism.

According to a reuter message from Paris, a strong feeling exists that the French Government is siding with the Spanish socialists and there are rumours of arms sales.

Later press reports state that three British destroyers disembarked nearly three hundred persons at Marseilles yesterday from Barcelona and H.M.S. London was reported to be in Barcelona harbour with about a hundred refugees on board and to be taking off more American nationals.

British warships are standing by at Palina, Malaga, Alicante Almeria and other places ready to take off British and other nationals in case of need. A British destroyer has been to Tarragona and taken off three British and five American people. H.M.S. Veteran and H.M.S. Verity arrived at San Sebastian yesterday morning.

A big battle in which the rebels were stated to have gained the advantage was fought in the pass of Enderlaza bordering on the provinces of Navarre, & Guipuzcoa yesterday.

NO PILGRIMAGE TO WAILING WALL

It is reported from Jerusalem that the Orthodox Jews will not make their annual pilgrimage to the wailing wall on Monday. The Rabbis have cancelled the ceremony owing to fear of disturbances due to the fact that this ancient fast coincides with the hundredth day of the Arab strike.

PRIZE OF 100,000 MARKS FOR HORSERACE.

It is reported from Munich that the "Brown Ribbon of Germany" the 2,400 metres horse race which carries the biggest prize in the Reich, namely 100,000 marks, was won yesterday afternoon by the best German racehorse "Nereide" which thereby had its tenth victory in succession, never having been beaten yet.

The second horse was French, "Corrida", and the third "Wahnfried". "Nereide's" victory put the crowd in a fury of enthusiasm, partly because the French horse "Corrida" as a rival had been seriously feared, and partly because of the magnificent record to which the German horse had added one more triumph.

After the race "Corrida's" jockey, Elliot, declared laconically and generously "Nereide is the best horse in the world." This verdict, from a man who has raced on many of the world's greatest courses, was praise of which "Nereide's" owner acknowledged himself justly proud.

The Duke of York presided at the second meeting of the Coronation Commission which was held at St. James' Palace on Saturday. The Dominion representatives were attending for the first time.

REVOLVER INCIDENTFurther Action By The Police.

The man who caused the disturbance and alarm for the King's safety on July 16th after His Majesty had presented the new Colours to the Brigade of Guards in Hyde Park, appeared again on Friday at Bow Street Police Court.

Two new charges under the Treason Act of 1842 were added to the original charge under the firearms act.

After the evidence had been taken from a number of civilians and the police who witnessed the incident and others, the prisoner was remanded for another week, when, his solicitor stated, he will himself go into the witness box.

The evidence on Friday bore on the throwing of the revolver at the King's horse and on the arrested man's repeated references to some un-righted grievance. A long and involved letter which he had addressed to the Home Secretary the day before the incident, alleging undefined persecution by the authorities, was read out to the court.

UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCEDEBATE.

After a protracted and disturbed debate on unemployment assistance regulations, which only concluded on Friday after thirty-four hours of speeches, the House of Commons met on Saturday morning in calmer mood and before adjourning passed by 134 votes to 60 on the third reading, the cattle industry Bill extending the period of subsidy to the end of July next.

The motion for the adjournment for the summer recess will be taken next Friday. The Prime Minister hopes to leave London then for a holiday at Aix-les-Bains.

London The journal "Autocar" reports that there will be no British motor car display at the Johannesburg Empire Exhibition as the ground landlords are linked with the United States motor interests and the lease of a site prohibits the motor section.

"GREEN BELT" ROUND LONDON

Another stage towards the completion of a "green belt" round outer London was taken on Saturday by the Middlesex County Council in agreeing to purchase from the estate of the Royal Duchy of Lancaster two thousand acres near Enfield at a cost of £315,000.

The King has taken a great interest in the matter and steps have been taken to ensure that the area purchased shall suffer no change apart from setting aside some portion for playing fields.

The plenary session of the British Egyptian delegations held on Saturday evening in Cairo recorded with satisfaction the completion of the discussions on the military clauses of the proposed Anglo-Egyptian Treaty.

The text was initiated by the heads of the two delegations. Afterwards Sir Miles Lampson and Nahas Pasha began a discussion of the Soudan question.

Civil clauses and capitulations also remain to be dealt with. All these are of course internal parts of the whole. The delegations, who have worked under extreme hot weather conditions during the last fortnight or so are going to Alexandria for a few days this week, when work will be discontinued.

It is hoped when the negotiations have been formally concluded that the Egyptian Government delegation will come to London for the actual signature.

MOVING SCENES ON VIMY RIDGE

There were moving scenes on Vimy Ridge yesterday when King Edward unveiled, in the presence of M. Lebrun the President of the French Republic, a Memorial to Canada's 60,000 fallen, 10,600 of whom have no known grave but whose names are recorded at the base.

With a bodyguard of four Canadian Mounted Police His Majesty walked among the crowd of 50,000 people who came from all parts of the world and included 8,000 Canadian pilgrims.

At one time the King was almost mobbed by the enthusiastic crowd. He began his speech in French, a circumstance greatly appreciated in France.

Points in the speech were :-
"In dedicating this Memorial to our fallen comrades our thoughts turn rather to the splendour of their sacrifice and to the consecration of our love for them than to the cannonade which beat upon the ridge a score of years ago. It is one of the consolations which time brings that deeds of valour done on battlefields long survive the quarrels which drove the opposing hosts to conflict. Around us here there is peace and the re-building of hope."

President Lebrun welcoming the King recalled that it was on that very front when Prince of Wales that His Majesty had received in the war his "first trial of manhood".

The Canadian Premier, Mr. MacKenzie King, speaking from Ottawa said "A world at peace Canada believes is the only memorial worthy of the valour and sacrifice of all who gave their lives in the Great War."

Other speakers included Mr. Ernest Lapont the Canadian Minister of Justice, Mr. Ian MacKenzie Minister of Defence, and the Right Reverend Monseigneur Deschamps, auxiliary Bishop of Montreal who officiated at the dedicatory service.

King Edward travelled to France in H.M.S. "Enchantress", accompanied by Prince Arthur of Connaught, and returned to England last night by air.

CIVIL WAR IN SPAIN

GOVERNMENT AUTHORITIES ASSERT

CONTROL OVER THE UNRULY ELEMENTS.

Reports from Spain indicate that although the situation there on Friday was quiet with no shortage of food despite the absence of railway and road communication, there seemed danger of further looting and similar excesses. A party of women and children from the British community in Madrid have been given accommodation in the British Embassy and a request has been made to the authorities that adequate protection should be given to the British colony and its possessions.

At Barcelona the situation is still tense although there are signs that the Spanish Government authorities are now asserting control over the unruly elements who have been responsible for much burning of property and looting and who have quartered themselves in many of the leading hotels and clubs.

British warships there, including the cruiser London, have taken a great many of the British women and children and some Americans aboard, although the wives of many British residents have decided to stay with their husbands. Food supplies are available although prices have greatly increased. Some of the newspapers re-appeared for the first time on Saturday.

At Gibraltar the battle cruiser Repulse arrived on Saturday morning bringing back to their station the second battalion of the Gordon Highlanders who were moved recently to Egypt.

The destroyers Verity and Veteran, which reached San Sebastian on Friday have enabled about three hundred people to be evacuated. A destroyer is proceeding to Malaga to take off a further contingent of British subjects, while British and American subjects were taken from Tarragona on Friday by the destroyer Garland.

Other British naval vessels are actively engaged at various ports among them the destroyer Wishart which has reached Gijon, the Flotilla leader Keith which is standing by at Valencia and the Shamrock which is at Seville.

Few foreigners appear to have been injured in the disturbances, the only fatal case being that of the wife of the Norwegian Consul at San Sebastian who was mortally wounded when opening a window. An English student there also received a bullet wound.

The French Government have announced that they are remaining neutral in the Spanish Civil War. According to reports from Paris this decision has been influenced by advice tendered by Mr. Eden to M. Blum the French Premier when in London last week.

The rebel forces advancing on Madrid are claimed by the Spanish Government to have been driven back and the Government state that the rebels have lost 2,000 men in the fighting which took place. Concentrated attacks on the insurgents are now being delivered in Saragossa. The city was bombed from the air on Sunday and a battle on the road to the rebels' stronghold resulted in a loyalist victory.

BOY SCOUTS' DANCE

A most successful dance was held in the Town Hall last night under the auspices of the Boy Scouts' Association.

From the start the dance went with a swing - the Hall looking really festive with its gay decoration of flags, and those responsible for the music giving of their best.

The Scouts and their friends had worked hard to organize the dance and have every reason to feel satisfied with their efforts on behalf of the Association, whose funds we understand, will benefit to the extent of some £10.

CAMP WEDDING

An interesting wedding took place at the Deputy Registrar's Office, Fox Bay, on Tuesday the 7th of July, when Miss Christine Parrin, daughter of Mr and Mrs W.M. Parrin was married to Mr. Charles Dickson, son of Mr and Mrs. J. Dickson of Blue Mountain.

The bride was charmingly attired in a white silk crepe frock with a veil and wreath of orange blossom and carried a lovely bouquet.

She was attended by Miss K. Dickson who was dressed in a pink silk crepe frock and Miss June Skilling was also in attendance.

The Best Man was Mr. Edward Dickson (brother of the bridegroom).

After the ceremony a reception was held at the house of Mr. John Goodwin where the lovely three-tier cake made by Mr. J.F. Summers was sampled.

Later everyone gathered for supper, which was followed by a most enjoyable dance at the cookhouse.

Mr and Mrs. Dickson's home will be at Port Edgar and their many friends wish them good-luck.

INCREASED WIRELESS TRAFFIC

REDUCED RATE TO BE CONTINUED FOR A FURTHER SIX MONTHS

During the period December 1934 to June 1935 249 telegrams were received from the West Falklands and 279 were sent to the West Falklands.

From December 1935 to the end of June 1936 532 telegrams were received from the West Falklands and 381 were sent to the West Falklands.

The increased traffic is no doubt due to the reduced rate of 1d. per word which was introduced on trial and in view of the satisfactory results His Excellency the Governor has approved of the prolongation of the period of trial for another six months.

Telegrams may still be sent at the rate of 1d. per word and it is hoped that the use of telegraphic communication will be used more freely and that the traffic can be increased to such an extent that the temporary reduction of rate may become a permanent reduction.

THANKS

DISTURBANCE IN ADDIS ABABA

FOREIGNERS LEAVING SPAIN

Hundreds of foreigners are still leaving Spain; over 800 arrived yesterday at Marseilles, Bayonne, Lisbon and Genoa.

British warships have evacuated 785 people from Catalonia since the trouble began. The British Consulate at Marseilles states that there are still 1,600 British people in Barcelona.

The momentary lull in the fighting in the Madrid region is not expected to last long. General Franco is reported to have crossed from Morocco to Spain intending to lead a big attack on Madrid, while the Government have broadcast a communique which speaks of a big offensive by the Government troops with a view to ending the insurrection.

At Lisbon, where Gilroble, the Spanish Right Wing leader has just arrived, a British liner from Boulogne reports that communications with Madrid have been cut.

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL DANCE

A well attended and thoroughly enjoyable dance was held in the Town Hall last night.

The dance was organized by some of the members of the Benefites' Concert Party in aid of the "King George V. Memorial Fund for Children's Playing Fields" and the time and trouble taken by them to make the dance a success proved well worth while.

It had been intended that the dance should end at 1 a.m. but the dancers were so obviously enjoying themselves and not wishing to go home that the organizers decided to continue the dance until 2 a.m.

Negotiations with Italy for the resumption of trade suspended owing to old debts have been started.

NEW INFANTRY SECTION TO BE CREATED.

In the House of Commons on Tuesday afternoon the Secretary for War, Mr. Duff Cooper, in reply to a question announced the decision to create a new Infantry Section of the supplementary reserve with an initial establishment of 17,000 men.

Enlistment, which would be for general service in the Infantry for six years with the option of re-engagement for a further period of four years, would be open to unmarried men from 17 to 25 years of age. Men enlisting would be required to do twenty-six weeks' training in the first year and fourteen days' training annually thereafter. They would receive a free issue of clothing on enlistment and during the training period full pay as for the regular infantry of the line, with an annual bounty of £6, conditional on their carrying out the required annual training.

SISTER SHIP FOR THE FAMOUS "QUEEN MARY"

Mr. W.S. Morrison, Financial Secretary to the Treasury, stated in the House of Commons that the Chancellor of the Exchequer had received specific proposals from the Cunard White Star Company and had now agreed that advances should be made under the North Atlantic Shipping Act for the building of a sister ship to the "Queen Mary".

The Company had supplied evidence showing clearly the technical and commercial considerations for which they should place the contract with Messrs. John Brown, the builders of the "Queen Mary", and the Chancellor of the Exchequer had agreed to that course.

The Cunard White Star Company in a statement from their Liverpool offices said that the new ship would be known as Number 552 while under construction, which will, incidentally, give employment to about 7,000 men directly at Clydebank, and indirectly to about 300,000 others.

The keel will probably be laid down at the end of 1937 and be ready for Atlantic service in the summer of 1939.

NEWS IN BRIEF

London The Prime Minister announced at question time in the House of Commons yesterday that the House would re-assemble after the summer recess on October 29th and a new session would be opened by the King on November 3rd

London. Eighteen nationalities are represented among the 319 men and 466 women and children who have been evacuated from Barcelona and other Catalonian ports by ships of the British navy in the last few days. The total includes 544 British, 142 Swiss, 40 Americans and 21 French.

Ryde. The Yacht race round the Isle of Wight on Tuesday was won by the "Endeavour II" which beat the "Endeavour" by 27 minutes, 18 seconds and beat the "Velsheda" by more than an hour, while the "Astra" was becalmed. This is the third victory in three days for the "Endeavour II".

Cannes. Severe disappointment is felt along the Riviera that His Majesty King Edward cancelled his holiday as it is felt that this will gravely jeopardise the season. Paris official circles express the hope that this is only a postponement as the visit's scheduled informality was expected to provide a closer cementing of friendly relations. It is announced in London that the Premier, Mr. Baldwin, has also cancelled his French holiday owing to the uncertain situation.

Chicago. A world shortage of wheat, due to abnormally small crops in the wheat producing countries, is predicted by Chicago experts who expect higher prices than have prevailed since 1929. The latest figures show that there will be no "carry over" next year.

Washington. If the present trend towards recovery is maintained throughout 1936 it will be the best business year the United States have had since 1929, is the conclusion the United States Chamber of Commerce have come to after an elaborate review of the whole field of business activity. Employment in manufacturing establishments up to the end of June is the highest it has been since October 1930.

Tokio. The Japanese Government is considering plans for subsidising tramp shipping to enable the construction of tramp steamers capable of twenty knots. The scheme also provides for the development of new shipping routes.

Manchester. After four years of industrial peace the Lancashire cotton industry is confronted with a major controversy on wages. Three big amalgamations, representing 200,000 operatives, have presented demands for substantial increases. The weavers are asking for a 15% increase and the establishment of a minimum wage, while the spinners and cardroom workers claim a 14% increase in list rates, which is the equivalent of 1/8d in the pound.

London. It is understood that plans for experimental flights across the Atlantic in the Autumn are in an advanced stage and tests will be carried out by two 4-engined D.H. Albatross machines which have been ordered by the Air Ministry.

London. The first night-airmail from England to Scandinavia was inaugurated by British Airways on Tuesday, conveying 14,000 letters to Denmark and Sweden via Cologne in co-operation with the Swedish Company of Aero-Transport.

CANADIAN PILGRIMS

It is reported from London that nearly 8,000 Canadian pilgrims arrived there on Tuesday from Arras and are to pay homage to their fallen relatives and comrades by visits to the national and local shrines.

Following the Vimy Ridge ceremony it is anticipated that there will be more battlefield pilgrimages; and travel agencies report a greater interest among the younger people.

RETURN TO PROSPERITY

A report from Glasgow states that there is a rapid return to prosperity there as is shown by the increasing tonnage under construction in the local shipbuilding yards, while the steel trade is busier than for many years and work is booked for weeks ahead - in some cases many months ahead.

A new wage agreement has been reached in the steel industry whereby adults receive an advance of 4s/- weekly while aluminium workers have been granted an increase of 5%.

AIR MINISTRY FOR JAPAN.

A message from Tokio reports that the Japanese Government is establishing an air ministry which will control the military air force and all aviation matters.

It is also announced that a fifteen-year programme for air-raid defence has been drawn up by the Government which will cost approximately £40,000,000 and is aimed at strengthening the seven most important cities of Japan and vital industries in other parts of the country.

London. The will of the late R.B. Cunningham Graham, the writer and traveller, who died last March, has been proved in respect of his personal estate in Great Britain, which amounts to £100,647.

DR. H.G. EDMUNDS

We understand that Dr. H.G. Edmunds has been offered and has accepted the appointment of Medical Officer, Nigeria.

We offer our heartiest congratulations to Dr. Edmunds on this transfer, although we regret that he is leaving us and are sure that he will be greatly missed in this Colony.

THE SITUATION IN SPAIN.

An official decree just issued authorises the War Minister to declare the parts of Spain affected by Military operations to be "War Zones". The celebrations by the Government forces of the victory at San Sebastian on Tuesday were apparently premature as fighting has again broken out there, however trains have started running between San Sebastian and Bilbao and the road is clear between San Sebastian and Irun. At Gibraltar there was an exciting combat yesterday wherein a Spanish insurgents' gun boat bombed two Government submarines which returned fire, one submarine being sunk.

CANADIANS ENTERTAINED AT A ##### GARDEN PARTY.

Six thousand Canadian pilgrims were entertained at a garden party at Buckingham Palace on Wednesday afternoon at which the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester acted as host and hostess on behalf of the King.

Half-way through the proceedings His Majesty himself appeared among his guests who gave him an overwhelming reception and he was surrounded by surging cheering crowds until both hosts and guests were forced to seek shelter from a heavy downpour of rain.

Afterwards His Majesty spoke a few words to the pilgrims from the balcony of the Palace.

London. The Royal Aero Club have announced that the London-Johannesburg air-race commences on September 29th now instead of September 15th, to take full advantage of the moon.

BRITISH NAVAL AND AIR COMMITMENTS

Asked to what extent Britain had any military, naval or air commitments the terms of which had not been made public, the Foreign Secretary declared in the House of Commons on Wednesday afternoon that His Majesty's Government had no unpublished commitments.

In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon the First Lord of the Admiralty announced that it had been decided to give orders for two new battleships of the 1936 programme to Vickers Armstrong at Walker-on-Tyne and Cammell Laird at Birkenhead. Arrangements for the laying down of these ships were being made with all possible speed. It was the intention that the keels should be laid at the earliest moment permitted by the Washington Naval Treaty, namely in January, 1937.

Sir Samuel Hoare added, with regard to the enquiry made by the Minister for the co-ordination of Defence into the vulnerability of capital ships, that he had received an advance copy of a draft report from which it appeared that the designs of the battleships would not be affected by the recommendations.

Replying to a question in the House of Commons on the matter of the re-fortification of Heligoland, Mr. Anthony Eden said "The action of the German Government in this matter is unilateral and if the matter were to be dealt with separately His Majesty's Government would require to formulate the most express reserves with regard to that action. The House will, however, be aware from what I said in the course of last Monday's debate, that negotiations have been set on foot which it is hoped may lead to fresh effort at the European Settlement in which Germany would play her full part. I hope therefore that my honourable friend will agree with His Majesty's Government in feeling that individual matters of this kind, though they cannot pass unobserved should not be raised at the moment and in a manner in which they might react unfavourably on negotiations to which I have referred and thus prejudice the general settlement which we all hope may be reached."

account of the way in which the Mandate had been or was being implemented, and if the Commission is satisfied that any such grievances were well-founded, to make recommendations for their removal and for the prevention of their recurrence."

The Chairman of the Commission is Lord Peel, the former Secretary of State for India and a member of the India Round Table Conference and Chairman of the Burma Round Table Conference.

Other members are Sir Horace Rumbold (Vice-Chairman), formerly British Ambassador at Berlin; Sir Laurie Hammond, who recently presided over the Indian Delimitation Committee; Sir Morris Carter, former Chief Justice of Uganda and Tanganyika and Chairman of the Kenya Land Commission; Sir Harold Morris, former President of the Industrial Court, and Professor Coupland, Professor of Colonial History at Oxford.

The Colonial Secretary added that it was not yet possible to state the date when the commission would leave for Palestine and it was not proposed that the commission should begin work in Palestine until order had been restored.

Asked why Martial Law had not yet been enforced in Palestine, Mr. Ormsby-Gore said that Martial Law had not been proclaimed because, having regard to the intensive powers conferred on the High Commissioner by the Palestine Defence Order in Council, it had not been thought, up to now, that it was necessary or advisable to do so.

TENSION SOMEWHAT EASED IN MADRID.

Spanish Government aeroplanes are bombing the insurgents in the neighbourhood of Saragossa which the loyal columns are said to be nearing. The cruiser Devonshire is waiting at Valencia to take aboard refugees from Madrid but it is reported that the tension among the British community at Madrid has eased and most people are disinclined to leave. Madrid is still well supplied with food despite the insurgents' claim that they are threatening communication with the coast. The Government feels easier about the situation, this is indicated by a report suggesting the calling up of two more classes of recruits being suspended as unnecessary.

MORE WARSHIPS TO BE BUILT

It is reported from Washington that while Sir Samuel Hoare was announcing the new British battleship programme in the House of Commons, the Naval Secretary, Standley, was voicing similar projects to the Press Conference, intimating that the United States would probably commence the construction of two new battleships in 1937 with the contracts awarded this autumn.

The vessels would have improved armour speed guns.

London. In the re-shuffle of Under-Secretaries Earl Delawarr has been appointed as Under-Secretary for the Colonies.

REBEL LEADER EXECUTED

It is reported from Madrid that General Carrasco the ex-military Governor of San Sebastian, who led the rebels who surrendered the barracks at Loyola, was executed along with a score of officers of the garrison, on Thursday.

It is reported from Paris that the question of armaments for Spain is agitating political circles and M. Blum denied yesterday those reports which alleged French deliveries of arms and aeroplanes to Spain, but the press is apprehensive lest reports that Germany and Italy are furnishing arms to the insurgents may cause the French Government to re-consider their neutrality declarations and the Spanish trouble might then spread to Europe. It is believed that the Government are leaving the final decision regarding the furnishing of arms in abeyance for a day or two.

M. Delbos, speaking of foreign affairs in the Committee Chamber on Thursday night said that if foreign powers sent arms to the Spanish rebels the Government will have to reconsider its position.

A high official of the Spanish War Ministry arrived in Paris on Thursday by air to try to obtain an authorization for armament supplies from French firms.

JUNIOR MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENTS

His Majesty the King has approved a number of junior Ministerial appointments which will take effect on September 1st.

Mr. H. Rasmbotham, Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of Agriculture will be Minister of Pensions but will continue to assist the Minister of Agriculture in the House of Commons.

The Earl of Plymouth, Under-Secretary for the Colonies takes the place of Lord Stanhope who recently became First Commissioner of Works as Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs. The Earl of Feversham will be Parliamentary Secretary for the Ministry of Agriculture and Mr. Geoffrey Shakespeare, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Health will become Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Education.

NEW VOLUNTEER RESERVE FOR THEAIR FORCE.

The formation of a new volunteer reserve for the Royal Air Force was announced in the House of Lords on Thursday by the Secretary for Air.

Lord Swinton stated that the King had approved of the creation of a Royal Air Force volunteer reserve open only to men in civil life.

The number of pilots required annually for the volunteer reserve will be 800 and as this section is most urgent, organization is being proceeded with at once.

The pilots will receive their flying training at aerodrome centres which will be established immediately in the vicinity of important towns and areas with a large population.

There will be a network of such centres throughout the country with several in the neighbourhood of London. Ground instruction will be provided at town centres at which lectures on the theory of flight, airmanship and other essential subjects will be given, mainly during the winter evenings when opportunities for flying are necessarily restricted.

Volunteer pilots will be recruited from candidates between age limits of 18 to 25. The minimum period of service will be five years. Flying instruction will be arranged to allow pilots to train at week-ends, in the evenings, and at other times convenient to them. They will be encouraged to spend as much time as possible in the air in order to gain flying experience of value to the service.

In addition, the volunteers will have to attend an annual flying course of 15 days' duration. In the first instance the pilots will be trained on elementary types of light aircraft and later on service types to enable them to operate in Service Squadrons in an emergency.

Arrangements are being made for the scheme to come into force early in 1937. Lord Swinton has made an appeal for the co-operation of employers to ensure the full development of this important link in the defence of the nation.

MORE EMPLOYMENT IN BRITAIN

The President of the Board of Trade informed the House of Commons at question time on Thursday that an agreement was made the day before between the Exports Credit Department and the Soviet Trade representatives under which the department will give a guarantee in connection with orders which the Soviet Government organizations will place within the next twelve months for £10,000,000 worth of goods such as will give rise to a substantial amount of employment in England. They will not include munitions of war.

The President of the Board of Trade was questioned in the House of Commons on Thursday on the subject of trade with Italy.

Mr. Runciman replied "On the termination of Sanctions His Majesty's Government opened discussions with the Italian Government for the resumption of Anglo-Italian trade. His Majesty's Government regard it as essential that arrangements to be made should provide for the settlement of outstanding Trade Debts and they could not contemplate even temporary arrangements which did not include such provisions. I regret to state that the Italian Government were not willing to accept any arrangement in regard to trade debts which His Majesty's Government could regard as adequate. Negotiations have been temporarily suspended."

Mr. Runciman went on to explain that as a result of the working of the severe restrictions imposed by the Italian Government on imports from the United Kingdom and regulations regarding payment for exports from Italy, such exports to the United Kingdom other than fresh fruit or vegetables cannot be effected.

PROPOSED TRANS-ATLANTIC AIR-SERVICE

A statement on the proposed trans-Atlantic air service was made at question time in the House of Commons yesterday by the Under Secretary for Air.

Recalling the arrangements to which approval has now been given by the United Kingdom, Canadian, Irish Free State and Newfoundland Governments for survey flights to be undertaken and experimental air mail to be established as soon as possible, to be followed eventually by a mail and passenger service on a minimum schedule of two flights weekly in each direction, and subsequent discussions with the United States Government, Sir Philip Sassoon stated that a joint operating company had been incorporated at the instance of Imperial Airways and two companies had been nominated for that purpose by the Canadian and Irish Free State Governments and would participate with the Pan-American Airways on a basis of reciprocity in the operation of the services.

All practical preference will be given to the direct route via the Irish Free State, Newfoundland and Canada, but it may be necessary during the initial period to operate the services via Bermuda during the winter months.

Experimental long-distance flights and other necessary investigations will be carried out in the near future by Imperial Airways Limited and the results will be placed at the disposal of the joint company when established.

The Pan-American Airways will also conduct experimental flights. During the experimental stage flying operations will be financed by the Government of the United Kingdom. When the joint Company assumes responsibility it will receive an annual subsidy from several Governments on an agreed basis.

Each of the four Governments has undertaken to grant the necessary landing and transit rights within its own territory to the joint Company and to the Pan-American Airways.

It is contemplated that such rights will be exclusive in respect of the trans-atlantic air services for a period of 15 years.

An inter-governmental Committee on the Trans-Atlantic Air Services will be established

MR. MC.WHAN'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

A party was held in the Tabernacle schoolroom on the evening of the 29th of July to celebrate Mr. McWhan's birthday. It commenced at 5 p.m. and ended at 8 p.m. The table was gaily decorated with coloured paper.

We played games until tea was ready then each child was given a paper bag filled with a variety of cakes.

After tea was over we were shown magic lantern pictures of Robinson Crusoe which we all enjoyed very much. The little children gave a short performance some of them sang, others gave a recitation. A few of the boys took part in a short play.

During the evening Mr. McWhan was presented with a gift by Iona Norris. We all had a very enjoyable evening and were sorry when it came to an end.

THE SITUATION IN SPAIN

While the Spanish insurgents claim to have reached a point only 11 miles from Madrid, the Government claims that the insurgents were routed 35 miles west of Madrid, losing 63 dead and a number of prisoners. The Government has decreed the immediate mobilisation of men of the 1936 Class in the Reserve in the Catalonian eastern seaboard provinces. A number of persons, believed to be foreigners, have been arrested in Madrid on a charge of spreading false reports alleging that the foreign embassies are leaving Madrid and that the Garrison at Valencia has revolted. The insurgents are said to be massing thousands of troops for the big attack on San Sebastian. It is reported from Gibraltar that the Spanish Government flying boat which bombed Algeciras on Thursday, narrowly missing the British Consulate, was disabled by insurgent gunfire and compelled to land in British waters at Gibraltar and the crew of three were brought ashore in a launch.

ASSASSINATION IN CROWDED STREET

Press reports received this morning state that the head of the Moslem Church in Palestine was stabbed yesterday. In a crowded street the Arab murderer approached the Grand Imam to give him a kiss of homage and then stabbed him. The murderer had three accomplices and the four Arabs were arrested while the onlookers prepared to identify the perpetrator of the outrage. There is much excitement in Arab quarters but up to now there have been no demonstrations.

 that Russia is raising a levy on all State official factories of  $\frac{1}{2}\%$ on salaries to provide the Spanish popular front with approximately

With reference to Government Notice No. 35 of the 24th of April, 1936, it is hereby notified for general information, that

DEATH ON THE WEST FALKLAND

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of Mr. George Stewart, who passed away at the age of 81 years, on Saturday at the Saddle, Chartres.

Mr. Stewart spent most of his life in the Falklands, he first came to the Islands in the Schooner "Black Hawk" to work for the Falkland Islands Company and when he left them after five years he went to Roy Cove and then to Hill Cove where he worked for 19 years, after which he went to Chartres and was a much valued shepherd there for the last thirty-three years of his life.

INAUGURATION OF OLYMPIC GAMES

It is reported from Berlin that beflagged streets and abounding festival spirit marked the inauguration of the Olympic Games which were declared open by Herr Hitler on Saturday amidst scenes of magnificent pageantry.

There were 790,000 people present at the stadium while millions thronged the streets where broadcasts of the speeches made were re-diffused to the public.

The last of the relay runners carrying the sacred flame across Europe from Mount Olympus ignited the Olympic fire, which will burn until the games end, simultaneously with the release of thousands of carrier pigeons and the crash of gun salutes.

Herr Hitler made only a brief announcement but the official speeches were lengthy and dealt entirely with the games spirit and sportsmanlike rivalry.

ITALIAN AEROPLANE CRASH

It is reported from Oran, Algeria that an Italian plane crashed within sight of bathers on Friday and another made a forced landing in the same vicinity and according to Reuter when an examination was made the aircraft was found to be carrying machine guns and ammunition presumed to be destined for the Spanish insurgents.

The crash resulted in three deaths while the six occupants of the second plane were interned.

The machines had identification marks painted out but it is alleged that the occupants were Italian air force men in civilian clothes. A message from Rabat states that 14 more Italian planes have landed in French Morocco and these are of the same type as the one which crashed.

COMFORT FOR M.F.'s.

It was announced in the House of Commons on Friday that the Government had decided in order to meet the special disabilities imposed on members of Parliament whose constituencies are at a long distance from Westminster, to extend the existing free travelling facilities to include first class sleeping berths.

FOREIGN OFFICE CONSIDER PLEA FROM ### FRANCE.

The French Note appealing for a joint declaration of non-interference in Spanish affairs by the Mediterranean powers - Britain, France and Italy, is now under urgent consideration at the Foreign Office.

No reply so far has been drafted. The anxiety of the French Government that no power should interfere in this domestic crisis in Spain is fully shared by Britain, and the French Note is being very sympathetically considered.

DISTINGUISHED MEN ACCIDENT

VICTIMS.

Two distinguished men were victims of accidents yesterday. Lord Trivethin aged 93 fell into the river Wye near Builth Wells in Breconshire while fishing and was dead when taken out and it is presumed he had a seizure.

The Duke of Grafton was seriously burned when his car crashed into a wall during the Limerick International Grand Prix and burst into flames.

CCWES. The "Endeavour II" was leading in the J. Class Yachting race yesterday when her mast snapped and the race was abandoned.

ARMS ORDERED FROM BELGIUM

Both the Spanish Government and the Insurgents have been ordering large quantities of arms from Belgium. The Cabinet Committee considered the matter yesterday and as a result decided to establish an arms export licence system pending control of the manufacture of war munitions.

SOUTH GEORGIA WINTER SPORTS

The South Georgia winter sports meeting was held at Leith Harbour on Saturday and competitors and spectators came from all the stations. The weather was unfortunately very bad and made the conditions under which the ski run and ski jump were made very trying. Snow fell during the forenoon while the ski run was taking place, making the track sticky and difficult.

In the afternoon there was a fairly strong north east wind with snow and hail which made ski jumping tricky. The competitors found it very difficult to see on account of the hail and there were many falls.

There were forty-one entrants for the ski run, which commenced at 10 a.m. The winner of the champion class was Oistein Grasvold (Grytviken) in 56 minutes, 16 seconds; followed by Arne Bogen (Grytviken) in 60 mins., and Ingvald Nerissen (Leith) in 62 minutes, 6 seconds. The junior class was won by Kjell Bakkeli (Grytviken) in 65 minutes 10 seconds; followed by Odd Federsen (Grytviken) in 66 minutes, 54 seconds, and Fritjof Johansen (Leith) in 66 mins. 55 seconds. The "Old Boys" Class was won by Halvor Bøe (Hasvik) in 65 minutes, 45 seconds, followed by Knut Eggar (Stromness) in 70 minutes 10 seconds and Jens Berg (Leith) in 72 minutes, 25 seconds. The distance run was about seven miles.

The Ski Jump Champion Class was won by Ole Oerøed (Leith), followed by Arne Bogen (Grytviken) second, and Johan Oerøed (Leith), third.

The Cup presented for the best competitor in both events was won by Arne Bogen (Grytviken).

The longest jump was 30.5 metres and was made by Arne Bogen and Hans Kolberg (Leith). The visitors from Grytviken and Stromness were obliged to remain at Leith Harbour overnight on account of the weather. The winter manager - Mr. George Antell and the Leith Harbour Sports Committee are to be congratulated on the excellent arrangements made for carrying out the Meeting and for the comfort and hospitality shown to the visitors. The Meeting was, despite the deplorable weather, very successful and was thoroughly enjoyed.

BRITAIN'S REPLY TO THE FRENCHNOTE ON SPANISH SITUATION

The reply of the British Government to the French Note proposing the adoption of an agreed arrangement for non-intervention in Spain, was communicated to the Counsellor of the French Embassy in London yesterday afternoon.

The anxieties of the French Government are fully shared in London, and it is understood that the British Government, in their reply, welcome the French initiative to which they gave their agreement in principle.

THE SITUATION IN SPAIN

Major developments in the Spanish situation are still awaited. It is anticipated in Madrid that there will be a "decisive battle" to-day or on Thursday in the Leon Pass following the success claimed by the Government in the 24-hour battle on Monday. The Government is reported to be reinforcing the loyal forces in Madrid and attempting to envelope the insurgents; meanwhile Mola, in an interview with Burgos, claimed that military operations are proceeding according to plan. Despite the refusal of the navy to join the insurgents and the treachery of the Basque Nationalists, the insurgents have succeeded in bringing the greater part of the troops from Morocco across to the peninsula. They will advance south, proceeding slowly but surely towards their objective - Madrid.

It is reported from Biarritz that two Spanish airmen who landed there and were arrested, have been allowed to continue their flight

In some parts of Wales there was almost continuous sunshine.

HOPE ABANDONED NOW

It is reported from St. Helier that hope has been abandoned that the ten passengers of the missing air liner, which disappeared on Friday, will be found.

There has been an unbroken search since then, and scattered wreckage has been identified on the Minquier Reef which hints at a nose dive into the sea with small possibility of any survivors.

MUSSOLINI TO GO TO ABYSSINIA

It is intimated in Rome that Signor Mussolini intends flying to Abyssinia in the early autumn when the rains cease, to visit the battlefields of Addis Ababa and Harrar. The agreement between the Italian Colonial Administration and the French Company operating the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railway, on the question of tariffs and payments, has been concluded.

Miss M.Redmond & Mr. R. Morrison

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Mary's Church yesterday afternoon by the Reverend Father Drumm, between Miss Mary Ann Redmond and Mr. Roderick Morrison.

Miss Redmond is the second daughter of Mr. W. Redmond and the late Mrs. Redmond of Darwin and Mr. Morrison is the second son of Mr and Mrs. Morrison of Arrow Harbour.

The bride looked radiantly happy in a lovely gown of white crepe, wearing a wreath and orange blossom and carrying a bouquet of cinerarias and fern.

She was given away by her Father.

Her two bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Redmond (her sister), and Miss Elizabeth Smith (her cousin) who looked charming in pretty frocks of champagne-coloured crepe with a flowered design.

The best man was Mr. William Morrison (brother of the bridegroom).

After the ceremony a reception was held at Mrs. T. Smith's house where the friends and relations of the happy couple drank their health.

The future home of the bride and bridegroom will be at Seal Cove, near Walker Creek.

We should like to join their many friends in wishing Mr.and Mrs. R. Morrison every happiness in the future.

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN NEGOTIATIONS

HELD UP.

It is reported from Alexandria that the Anglo-Egyptian Treaty negotiations are momentarily held up on the capitulations question. The delegates are awaiting the reply of the British Government on the capitulations clause and meanwhile the Egyptian delegation has postponed its departure for London, which had been fixed for the 13th of this month, until later in the month.

DENIAL FROM ROME

It is reported from Rome that the report that Ras Imru is marching towards Dessie with 60,000 men is officially denied, and the Italian Government state that they are fully in control of the situation, though the rainy season in Ethiopia has slowed up the work of mopping-up brigands and irregular bands of rioters.

NORTH AMERICAN CROP SHORTAGE

The prospect of a crop shortage in North America owing to the drought, has caused wheat flour to reach new high levels and a further increase in bread prices, making bread dearer than it has been since 1930.

New York experts estimate that 100,000,000 bushels may need importing, while Canada's shortage is officially predicted to be a similar amount.

The Liverpool market anticipates an almost negligible carry-over but considers that the situation will be saved if the Danubian, Roumanian and Australian prospects are realized.

CORONATION PREPARATIONS

Collating reports from various sources the Daily Telegraph records that the forthcoming Coronation is already affecting the tourist trade and the current season has reached the peak since 1929.

His Majesty has authorised a reduction of fees for admission to the State Apartments at Windsor, with staff changes to facilitate visits. The Coronation colours selected for use throughout the Empire are the peony red and true blue as used in the Union Jack.

CAR HIT BY AN EXPRESS TRAIN

It is reported from Berlin that the Baroness von Neurath, sister-in-law of the German Foreign Minister, was killed on Tuesday when the car she was driving, with her own two children and her Mother as occupants, was struck by an express train.

ANTI-TRUST ACTS VIOLATED

It is reported from Wisconsin that the Federal Grand Jury has indicted 25 major oil companies, three Trade Journal Companies, and 58 individuals for violating anti-trust acts, in operating pools to fix petrol prices.

The District Attorney states that the names of those indicted will be withheld until the warrants are served.

EXTENSION OF SCOPE OF THE NATIONALTRUST

An interesting scheme for extending the scope of the work of the National Trust for the preservation of places of historic interest or natural beauty, is announced. It results from an arrangement reached between the Trust and Sir Charles Trevelyan, the Lord Lieutenant of Northumberland and the former President of the Board of Education.

THE NATIONAL TRUST

Wallington, a large estate near Morpeth, with a house 250 years old which has been associated with the Trevelyan family since 1777, and in which are books and other relics of Macaulay, will, at the death of Sir Charles, pass to the National Trust which will ensure the preservation of the house and its valuable contents and the beautiful grounds and provide access thereto by the general public while at the same time maintaining the connection of the Trevelyan family, living representatives of which will, so long as they wish, remain as tenants of the Trust.

The newspapers comment on the scheme as an ingenious manner of preserving against dispersion or unsympathetic development estates of historic interest or great beauty, the owners of which are unable to provide confidently for the future owing to the incidence of taxation and death duties.

CHALLENGE TO NEW YORK YACHT CLUB

The Royal Yacht Squadron at Cowes on Tuesday afternoon sent a challenge for America's Cup to the New York Yacht Club.

The challenger will be Mr. T.O.M. Sopwith's gib-headed cutter "Endeavour II" of 76 foot rating.

The proposal is that the first race of the series should be sailed on Saturday July 24th, 1937.

REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

Exchequer returns show a total ordinary revenue, excluding self-balancing items, which amounts to £184,473,589 as compared with £192,638,184 at the corresponding date last year. The total ordinary expenditure is £266,346,746 as compared with £257,947,452 at the corresponding date in 1935.

ABYSSINIAN TRIBESMEN ATTACK ADDIS-ABABA

It is reported from Paris that confirmation has been received from Djibouti that attacks have been made by Abyssinian tribesmen on Addis Ababa and that though they have been repulsed the situation remains critical with Italian reinforcements being rushed up by planes. The Ethiopians are also attacking Moggio and it is authoritatively stated that a furious battle is raging in the Lake Tana area.

FRANCE PLEASED WITH BRITAIN'SREPLY TO HER NOTE.

France received Britain's favourable reply, relative to non-interference in Spain, with pleasure but Italy's failure to answer causes a certain amount of apprehension.

Messages from Rome indicate that Italy's reply may well depend upon the findings of the French enquiry into the mission of the 22 Italian planes which went to Morocco last week, while the press comments unfavourably on the French attitude and suggests that French cars and planes are already helping the Spanish popular front, endorsed by employees, state factories and offices states a correspondent in Moscow. France has now sent the non-interference note to Germany and Russia but Berlin's official attitude is, that while the situation calls for extreme vigilance she will agree to the French request to the same degree as Russia.

It is reported from Gibraltar that during the air-naval battle in the Straits yesterday, a large shell from a Spanish Government destroyer fell on Gibraltar racecourse, exploding 200 yards from the refugee camp wherein 800 British subjects are sheltered. No-one was injured. The destroyer had rushed from Malaga to attack two steamers ferrying 2,000 insurgent troops from Morocco, but the insurgents' convoying planes bombed the destroyer, compelling it to return at full speed to Estepona whilst the insurgent troops landed at Algeciras and Lisbon.

The insurgents claim that they have captured 15 lorries loaded with men and ammunition near Saragossa, and the annihilation of the Government column, consisting of 250 loyalists, near Granada, with the capture of 3 guns, 4 machine-guns, several lorries and motor cars.

The price of flour is now the highest it has been for several years and the advance in price of bread is under consideration by the London Bakers' Association.

RESULT OF OFFICIAL ENQUIRY

It is reported from Paris that the result of the official enquiry into the character of the Italian planes landing in French Morocco, has established that the aircraft belonged to the regular Italian Air Force until July 20th and the crews included military aviators.

GRAIN PRICES SOARING

It is reported from Liverpool that the world grain prices have again risen but experts consider that Canada's 130,000,000 bushels' reserve will be equal to the demand created by the failure of the 1936 crops and that there will be no shortage, while the elimination of such reserves is regarded with satisfaction. It is reported from Buenos Aires that there is a favourable Argentine crop in prospect, with a likelihood that it will exceed the five-year average.

"QUEEN MARY'S" SISTER SHIP

It is reported from Clydebank that the John Brown Company, who have been awarded the contract for the sister ship to the "Queen Mary", are placing sub-contracts for 300,000 tons of steel frames, and it is understood that the main castings will be heavier than the "Queen Mary's" while the new Cunarder will be substantially larger with a launching weight of 38,500 tons. Apart from the hull the machinery costs and equipment are estimated at a cost of £2,500,000.

21 DEAD IN YORKSHIRE COLLIERYDISASTER.

The death roll of the serious colliery disaster in Yorkshire yesterday already numbers twenty-one and there is only slight hope for the lives of the thirty-six other men who are missing. The cause of the accident is still unknown but it is reported that a serious explosion occurred in the early hours of yesterday morning in the working of the Wharncliffe, Wood Moor, mine near Barnsley. An injured man has been brought to the surface but is too seriously hurt to give an account of what happened. He was found three-quarters of a mile from where the explosion occurred and his injuries indicate its terrific force. One of the doctors assisting the rescue parties which have been cutting their way through falls of the roof in order to get into the affected area, on returning to the surface yesterday afternoon said that many of the bodies found were terribly injured and these men must have been killed by the violence of the explosion, attitudes of others suggested suffocation by gas.

The Spanish Situation It can now be said that the great majority of British subjects who wish to leave Spain have been evacuated. There are still many hundreds who for private or business reasons prefer to stay at their own risk, but in view of the present unsettled conditions the British authorities in Spain are advising people to take advantage of the opportunity for getting away.

INQUEST ON VICTIMS OF THE COLLIERY DISASTER

An inquest was opened yesterday at Barnsley on the thirty-two victims of the disaster at Wharnccliffe, Wood Moor Colliery, whose bodies have been recovered. Evidence of identification was given in several cases by wives who have lost their husbands or mothers who have lost their only sons. A relief fund has been started by the Mayor of Barnsley. Efforts to recover the remaining twenty-five bodies are continuing but are rendered difficult and dangerous by gas. Twenty more bodies were brought to the surface yesterday.

BRITAIN'S WATER RESOURCES

Following the summer droughts of 1933 and 1934 a Committee was appointed to enquire into the better conservation and organization of the country's water resources. In the middle of the wettest summer for many years the Committee's report has just been issued. It recommends the establishment of a central advisory water board to collect and marshal all the available information about the country's water resources and requirements and to advise as to any schemes for improving the water supplies.

INCREASE IN NOTE CIRCULATION

The note circulation in England of £454,406,397 as shown in this week's Bank of England return is a new high record. The circulation at the same time last year - the height of the holiday season - was £411,835,941 and after an autumn decline, rose at Christmas to £424,506,785. These recent increases in circulation have been in part due to the foreign demand on account of hoarding and have been associated with a rise in the last three months of about £41,000,000 in the gold holdings of the banks.

EVEREST EXPEDITION RETURNSTO ENGLAND.

It is reported from Plymouth that the leader of the Everest Expedition, Mr. Hugh Rutledge, stated on his arrival there yesterday that the 1936 Expedition had found the mountain at its very worst and had never had a chance, but he was confident that the peak would be mastered in the near future.

He stated that he would not himself try again owing to his age.

COLLIERY DISASTER

Rescue parties, for which there is no lack of volunteers, are risking asphyxiation sudden and without warning by carbon mon-oxide.

The veteran President of the Miners' Federation, Mr. Herbert Smith, went down the pit yesterday on his arrival. He and two other miners' officials had rushed by air from Prague where they were attending an international miners' conference.

Later press reports state that forty-four bodies have now been recovered from the mine but there are still some victims whose bodies may have to remain in the mine for several days, buried in masses of debris.

The rescue teams found one party of nine men suffocated within 50 yards of the air intake which might have meant safety after they had battled their way for 400 yards through the deadly after-damp.

BRITISH CONSULATE HIT BY SHELLS

During the bombardment of Algeciras by Spanish warships yesterday the British consulate was hit by two shells, one of which exploded inside the building rendering it uninhabitable. The Vice-Consul and his wife and Mr and Mrs. E.G. Beckingsale escaped without serious injury but Mrs. Beckingsale was slightly hurt by falling debris.

Messages from Gibraltar indicate that the position there is considered unsatisfactory by the British authorities. In reply to protests, on the one side the Spanish Government representatives, and the insurgent leader Franco on the other, have offered immediate apologies for actions which have placed British lives in jeopardy. It is felt, however, that something more is necessary to prevent damage to British life and property, and unless there is an improvement and such incidents as firing on the batteries are not repeated, serious questions may arise as to the steps to be taken to deal with the situation.

An allegation has been published abroad that Vickers Armstrong were fulfilling a large order for the Spanish Government for armaments, this was denied in British official quarters yesterday afternoon. It was stated that Vickers Armstrong had made no application for an export licence, without which no arms or ammunition can be sent out of Britain.

Four Germans have been killed in Barcelona and the German Government is demanding compensation for their death and also for that of three other Germans including a little girl, who were killed on Thursday.

The cruiser "Jaime I" and the destroyer "Libertad Cervantes" re-appeared at Gibraltar yesterday afternoon and fired incessantly. The "Libertad Cervantes" fighting two insurgent flying boats which had arrived from Ceuta. Thirty-six British residents in Algeciras rushed to Gibraltar in motor buses yesterday and reported that the Argentine consulate had been destroyed at Algeciras. The Spanish popular front headquarters at San Sebastian have issued a threat of merciless air war devastating the Iberian peninsula from end to end unless the insurgents renounce the struggle, supporting this with a declaration that continuous air reinforcements are arriving and that there will shortly be 300 bombers available. Similarly, the insurgents' leader General Franco, who is believed to be in Spain, stated yesterday through the Italian correspondent that his rising had saved the country from a bolshevik revolution and with his air force already strong, he intends concentrating his troops on the Spanish mainland to overcome rapidly the existing Government. The Spanish Government have been notified that they will be held strictly accountable for all United States' property. Germany has lodged a strong protest and the German fleet in the Mediterranean is being added to.

VANCOUVER JUBILEE CELEBRATIONS

The Lord Mayor of London has left for Vancouver to take part in the Jubilee celebrations there. His luggage includes replicas of the Mace, Robes, Insignia, Chains of Office, harness and coach couplings as used in the city of London.

Berlin. Unemployment figures went down to 1,170,000 last month which is a drop of 140,000 since June.

THE SPANISH SITUATIONBRITISH WARSHIPS PATROL STRAITS:

It was reported on Saturday that British naval vessels will visit all ports on the north and east coast of Spain to-day and also the Balearic Islands in order to take away any of the remaining British nationals who are desirous of leaving. On the south coast British vessels are constantly visiting Spanish ports. There are in Madrid only 60 British subjects, including the 25 members of the Embassy and Consulate staffs.

In view of the danger to which Gibraltar harbour would be exposed the British Government has informed both the Spanish Government and General Franco, the Commander of the insurgent forces, that in future no Spanish war vessels should proceed to anchor in the naval or the commercial harbour at Gibraltar.

British warships will patrol the Straits of Gibraltar to protect British shipping from interference and it is made clear that there must be no firing in future on British ships. This is a renewal of similar warnings that have been given and General Franco has, moreover, been informed that if military aircraft fly over Gibraltar they will be warned off by the firing of three rounds in advance of the machine and if this warning is not effective fire will be directed at the aircraft.

A recent incident in the neighbourhood was the dropping of bombs near the British ship "Medon" and the Dutch ship "Zonnewyk" a few miles off Europa Point, for which it is practically certain that Spanish aircraft operating from Morocco were responsible.

On Friday Gibraltar witnessed an extremely heavy bombardment of Algeciras and the adjacent coast by the Spanish Government battleship "Jaime I" and three other warships, in the course of which, as already reported, the British consulate at Algeciras was hit through inaccurate fire. The battleship came close in shore and from the mouth of Algeciras harbour sank the insurgent gun-boat "Dato" and inflicted heavy damage on the coast batteries and barracks and set fire to wharves and much of the town.

THE SPANISH SITUATION

It is understood that the German Charge d' Affairs has given a definite assurance that Germany will not send war materials to the rebels in Spain. Germany has emphatically denied the reports from Paris that German ships are to make a demonstration at Barcelona.

Battle rages incessantly round San Sebastian. Insurgents who were attempting to climb the mountains dominating the town have been shell-ed by the forts.

Six thousand Moroccan troops have already crossed to Spain. The capture of Cadiz by the Government is reported from Malaga and Barcelona.

The newspapers in Madrid state that 400 insurgent leaders together with 700 officers and a large number of other ranks are at present imprisoned there.

A message from Bayonne reports that the Government frontier artillery has bombarded the insurgent headquarters in the northern sector near Oyargun, which is aflame, and an ammunition dump has exploded causing considerable damage.

Miss K.M. Smith and Mr. T.C. Fleuret

A picturesque wedding was solemnized in the Tabernacle on Saturday afternoon by Pastor W.F. McWhan, between Miss Kathleen Mary Smith and Mr. Theodore Clovis Fleuret.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr J.F. Smith and the late Mrs. Smith of Johnson's Harbour and Mr. Fleuret is the only son of Mr. E. Fleuret and the late Mrs. Fleuret of Limpet Creek.

Looking daintily pretty, the bride was charmingly dressed in pale pink georgette, wearing a veil and orange blossom and carrying a lovely bouquet of mixed flowers and ferns - the gift of friends, tastefully arranged by Mrs. A. Kiddle. Her uncle, Mr. Jack Barnes, gave her away.

As bridesmaids Miss Smith had her cousin Miss Gladys McPhee, and little Miss Hazel Kenny, a friend. They wore attractive frocks of pink crepe and carried bouquets.

The best man was Mr. Peter Kiddle (brother-in-law of the bridegroom).

After the ceremony a very enjoyable reception was held at Brandon House, (the home of the bride's aunt) where the many friends of the happy couple toasted them and tasted the delicious three-tier wedding cake which had been made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. D. Carey, and decorated by Mrs. A. Hardy. The excellent catering arrangements were in the capable hands of Mr. J.F. Summers.

The future home of the bride and bridegroom will be at Lorenzo near Douglas and we should like to join their many friends in wishing Mr and Mrs. T. Fleuret every happiness in the future.

The capture of the Marida railway junction between Badajoz and Madrid has resulted in the establishment of contact between the insurgent armies in the north-west and the south-west of Spain.

Berlin. Olympic Football

Following protests a private re-play of Saturday's football match was ordered. Peru refused and the match was adjudged as being won by Austria. Peru is now considering her immediate withdrawal from the Olympic games.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING ABROAD

The King embarked yesterday morning on the yacht "Nahlin" at Sibenik in Dalmatia at the beginning of his holiday cruise.

Press messages report that the town was gaily decorated and large crowds had assembled. They cheered loudly as the King left the railway coach in which His Majesty had travelled from Calais, and proceeded on board. Later His Majesty went on shore and visited the Cathedral. When the yacht sailed, accompanied by the British destroyers "Grafton" and "Glow-worm", a courtesy escort was provided of two destroyers and a torpedo boat, by the Yugo-Slavian naval authorities.

PROTEST FROM BRITISH AMBASSADOR

The British Ambassador to Spain has sent a message to the Officer commanding the Spanish cruiser "Almirante Cervera", a shell from which struck the 54 ton yacht "Blue Shadow" yesterday at Gijon, and killed its owner and captain, Mr. Rupert Saville, and severely injured his wife. Sir Henry Chilton protests strongly against the action of the cruiser and draws attention to the fact that the Blue Ensign was being flown by the yacht. Pending instructions from his Government the Ambassador reserves the right

INCREASINGLY SERIOUS SITUATION INSPAIN.

It is reported from Washington that the United States Embassy has circularised all the Americans in Madrid urging them to leave the capital immediately in view of the increasingly threatening situation.

A conference was held in the White House yesterday, attended by President Roosevelt, when the possibility of re-establishing an American naval squadron in European waters was discussed.

The Soviet Government has informed the French Charge d'Affairs in Moscow that the U.S.S.R. will adhere to the text of the French propositions with regard to non-intervention in Spain.

The Belgian Ambassador called at the Foreign Office in London yesterday and communicated a note conveying the appreciation of his Government of the assistance rendered by the British navy in embarking distressed Belgian subjects in Spain. The French Government and the British Government are in close touch regarding the former Government's initiative on behalf of the declaration by outside powers of non-interference in the Spanish Civil war, which was warmly welcomed in London, and in support of which the British Government caused representations to be made in other capitals. The French Government is keeping the British informed regarding the progress of its enquiries and it is understood that these reports indicate a generally favourable reception of the formula tentatively put forward by the French for the prohibition of the export of arms, munitions, and aeroplanes, both military and civil, to any of the parties to the Spanish conflict. In some cases points of detail remain for negotiation, but agreement in principle by the chief interested powers may be said to be in sight. The difficulties of several Governments appear to be that they would desire to go further, rather than reluctance to go so far as the French suggestions. Hope is entertained that declarations by the chief interested Governments in the sense urged by France will not now be long delayed.

FIGHTING IN SPAIN CONTINUES

It is reported from Saragossa that the insurgents' position is not improved at all, the well-armed Spanish Governmental forces are waging guerilla warfare which is hampering the rebels on their narrow front. Miners in Oviedo are catapulting dynamite and have partially destroyed the insurgents' barracks. The rebel leader, General Franco, declares that if his forces are victorious the new Spain will be based on a corporative system similar to that established in Portugal, Italy and Germany.

Information from the war fronts in Spain yesterday, reported that heavy fighting had taken place throughout the day, resulting in the capture by the insurgents of points adjoining San Sebastian, while Government planes operating from Madrid, bombed positions gained by the insurgents and demanded the surrender of the rebel headquarters at Burgos. The newly appointed Spanish Ambassador, it is reported from Rome, was ambushed by insurgents when attempting to take up his duties and was forced to sign his resignation at the point of a pistol. The rebel leader Franco intends to starve Madrid into submission to avoid loss of life, while General Mola adds "We can take Madrid when we like."

Signor Mussolini has withdrawn his reservations to the French plan for unified neutrality against Spain and according to the Daily Telegraph correspondent this concession was made so that other states accepting the neutrality principles may continue negotiations without delay.

NEW BRITISH INDUSTRY

Fire Resisting Materials

A new British Industry which has made marked progress is the production of woven asbestos fabrics. At a recent exhibition examples of dyed and even printed fabrics suitable for decoration were shown and it is anticipated that the demand for these fire-resisting materials for schools, halls, theatres, cinemas and wherever the danger of fire is most to be avoided, will increase rapidly as the remarkable achievements in the new manufacture become better known.

DENIAL OF FOREIGN NEWSPAPERREPORTS.

Gibraltar press messages give a denial to the reports in foreign newspapers to the effect that the British naval authorities have established a virtual blockade in the Straits of Gibraltar and have forbidden naval action in the Bay of Gibraltar with the result of hampering the action of the Spanish naval forces against the insurgents from Morocco. The only action, it is stated, which the British naval authorities at Gibraltar have taken is to request the Spanish Government not to send warships into British waters or to take action liable to endanger British life, shipping or property.

RE-CONSTRUCTION OF THE KINGSTON

BYE-PASS.

Kingston bye-pass, the nine mile stretch on the London-Portsmouth road, one of the first of the great bye-passes to be constructed on roads out of London soon after the war, is to be re-constructed.

The road, which cost £400,000 and took four years to build, has, since it came into use in 1927, acquired a bad reputation for the number of accidents.

The proposal is to re-construct it with a dual carriageway separated by a central reserve. The lighting will also be improved. The work, which will begin on the two mile section west of Surbiton, will be put in hand immediately.

The great increase in the traffic has necessitated the re-building of a number of comparatively new roads, and dual-carriageways are a growing feature of these re-constructions.

The number has grown so rapidly that the Ministry of Transport is issuing special regulations regarding their use in order to secure a uniform observance of the one-way working of each of the two carriageways.

A recent decision of the Government to place trunk roads under central authority of the Ministry of Transport will facilitate the measures of modernisation, such as the plan for the Kingston Bye-pass. The urgency of the matter is emphasised by the number of new motor vehicles registered each month. The figures for June at 38,536 were more than six thousand in excess of those in June last year.

APPOINTMENT.

Mr. Harford, Administrative Officer, Nigeria, has been appointed as Administrator of Antigua and Federal Secretary of the Leeward Islands, succeeding the late Mr. H.E. Bader.

7,718,557 WIRELESS LICENCES

IN THE UNITED KINGDOM.

The total number of wireless licences in the United Kingdom at the end of July was 7,718,557, as compared with 7,146,329 a year ago.

This increase indicates the continued growth of public interest in wireless and large attendances are expected at the Radio Exhibition which opens at Olympia in a fortnight's time.

There is special curiosity among the buying public this year to see the television sets which the wireless trade is likely to be showing, in anticipation of the opening of a television service. The widespread utilisation of wireless for police work has taken a new form in Lancashire where the first police

THE SPANISH SITUATION

Mr. Ogilvie Forbes, Counsellor at the British Embassy at Madrid who is on leave in England, is going back to Madrid to take charge of the Embassy in the absence of the Ambassador, who moved to his summer quarters before the outbreak of the Civil War and is now near St. Jean de Luz.

It is stated that Sir Charles Wingfield, the British Ambassador in Lisbon is interrupting his leave to return to Portugal. It is likely that he will sail from England this week-end. From her adjacency to the areas of disturbance, Portugal takes an important place among the powers who are involved in the negotiations on the French initiative of understanding regarding non-intervention in the Spanish conflict.

The Portuguese Government has already given its adherence in principle to these proposals but in doing so raised one or two points upon which replies have now gone to Lisbon.

In England there is sympathetic comprehension of the anxieties of the Portuguese Government in the face of what remains an unpredictable development of the present troubles. Comment is made that these aspects of her position give Portugal a strong interest in the early and successful outcome of the French efforts, in support of which the British Government has been active, for the general agreement against intervention. It is also recalled that eventualities involving danger to Portuguese security are provided for in the Covenant of the League of Nations. The British attitude in such circumstances would be defined as well by the Anglo-Portuguese Treaty.

Arrangements have been made for a destroyer to convey Mr. Ogilvie Forbes from Marseilles to Valencia on his journey to Madrid to take charge of the British Embassy. He will probably reach Madrid early next week.

A report from Lisbon states that Badajoz is now entirely surrounded by insurgent troops and has been subjected to heavy bombardment since 4 p.m. yesterday. Four three-engined planes repeatedly dropped loads of bombs into the panic-stricken town. From the hills on the Portuguese side of the frontier the civil population could be seen rushing out of the town in all directions, the women and children fleeing for safety across the international bridge over the river Guadiana where the Portuguese frontier guards are disarming and interning men fugitives. One bomb dropped among a group of fugitives attempting to reach the international bridge, killing about twenty.

Meanwhile the civil guard, following an abortive rising last week, have again revolted and it is stated that they have won over the Carabineers and Customs Officers and all three bodies have joined together and are attacking the Government defenders of Madrid.

Lisbon newspapers declare that about 10,000 Moroccan warriors have already crossed the straits to join the insurgents.

Later press messages report that a broadcast from the rebel headquarters last night gave out that Badajoz, San Sebastian and Gijon were about to fall to the rebels. The insurgent leaders are convinced that the hour of victory is at hand. The Moscow press accuses Germany and Italy of having aided the rebels in their preparations for the revolt and having obtained pledges from General Franco relative to his future foreign policy if successful. It is contended that the ultimate aim in these moves is to wreck the French popular front and break up the alliances system.

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN TREATY

It is reported from Alexandria that the Anglo-Egyptian treaty is now complete and both the delegations at the plenary meeting on Wednesday expressed the greatest satisfaction at the success achieved. The Egyptian delegation, headed by Premier Nahas Pasha, is sailing for London on Monday for the signature of the Treaty. The Premier announced that Egypt rejoiced that this happy result of the negotiations offered a salutary example to the world. This view is also expressed in Paris where the "Petit Journal" says that Great Britain's liberal and intelligent policy makes allies of earlier enemies and France should "take the tip".

The Agreement took effect on the 10th of August and is subject to three months' notice of denunciation by either Government.

In order to gain practical scientific data on the weight-carrying capacity of certain types of bridges which have been standing for many years, selected bridges scheduled for demolition are being deliberately broken by overloading in the presence of officials of the Ministry of Transport and experts from the Department of Scientific and Industrial Research and the Building Research Station.

The first experiment took place yesterday near Derby and others will follow in Birmingham and in Essex.

An ingenious mechanism has been devised for recording the gradual distortion of the bridge under strain up to breaking point.

ATROCITIES IN MADRID DENIED

The British Colony in Madrid have cabled Mr. Eden repudiating the stories circulated abroad with reference to atrocities in Madrid. Members of the British Colony remaining in the capital emphasise that they have never been in the slightest danger and that the Spanish authorities have done everything possible for the protection of foreign life and property. There is no truth in the report from Lisbon that the Government has invited a foreign power to act as intermediary between them and the rebels; it is stated that the Government are determined to quell the revolt without negotiating with the rebels. The insurgent rebels in the vanguard of General Franco's southern advance, penetrated the historic Trinidad gate of Badajos (Continued on Page 4.)

ATROCITIES IN SPAIN DENIED

yesterday. Since 5 p.m. a fierce battle has been raging in the streets under the broiling sun, and the rebels succeeded in reaching the ancient ramparts and walls surrounding the city proper of Badajoz, where they engaged in a hand-to-hand combat with workers and militia estimated at 3,500 strong.

It is understood that there is some difficulty about the evacuation of foreigners working in the mines in Spain. The local miners' committee has objected to their departure. Ten days ago, on the advice of the executive company in London, about a hundred of the British employees left for home. The number remaining, whose evacuation is now in question, is stated to be thirty-eight. The latest advice received by the London office is to the effect that the British employees are well, safe, and on good terms with the Spanish workers. A few days ago they were offered safe conduct from the mines but they decided to stay on. The reason for the change of attitude of the local miners' committee is not known.

The British Government, through the British Consul in Madrid and the Spanish Ambassador in London, have asked that wireless instructions should be sent to the local representatives of the Spanish Government to facilitate the withdrawal of British employees.

The British Consul at Huelva is also continuing his efforts to secure their departure and safe passage to the destroyer which meanwhile remains there.

It is now confirmed in London that the Portuguese Government have informed the French and British Government of the Portuguese adherence in principle to the proposed agreement for non-intervention in Spain. This notification, it is understood, was accompanied by various observations on the subject.

Press reports from various parts of Spain show little change in the position. Favourable news is said to have been received of the first train load of foreign refugees being evacuated by way of Alicante, where three British ships are at present stationed.

It is claimed by the Spanish Government that risings against the rebel forces are taking place in many parts of the country under the control of the insurgents. The insurgent leaders, on the other hand, continue to express confidence regarding their final victory.

DISAPPEARING PRISONS

Thirty Abolished In Britain

The latest report of the Prison Commissioners makes good reading. It shows that, in the reign of King George V., while the population of Britain was going up the proportion of it in prison was going down even faster.

In 25 years the number of people received into prison dropped from 186,398 a year to 56,425 a year.

The daily average prison population dropped from 20,826 to 12,238. This has made it possible to do away altogether with 30 out of 50 of our local prisons.

At the same time the Commissioners record that discipline in the prisons has definitely improved and that the "Prisoners on leaving prison, return to the world less embittered and at war with society than they did 25 years ago." Routine solitary confinement, the broad arrow on clothing, and the close crop have now been done away with.

In short, humane methods have gone hand in hand with marked reduction in crime.

Stanley,
 9th August, 1936.

To
 "Penguin"

Sir,

I am requested by the members of the Reform League to ask you to find space in the "Penguin". This letter may seem lengthy, but the subject dealt with is too important to be dismissed with a few words.

All your readers will agree with me when I state that the problem of the unemployed in Stanley is a most important and disquieting subject. I do not intend to set forth what our members consider to be the cause, or what we think would be a cure of unemployment, but wish to state what I will term a social aspect of the position and show how the public, both League Members and others, can do a little towards finding work for the workless.

It has been brought to the notice of the League that last summer many of those who had casual work to give, gave it to men who had full time employment whilst those out of work were left idle, some existing on the Relief allowance, and some even debarred from the benefits of this fund.

You will understand, and I am sure that your readers will too, that this state of things causes bitter feelings amongst the workless and is a poor way of showing sympathy to the unfortunate.

So, I appeal to the public in the name of the League, that this coming summer, all those who have casual work to give, will place that work in the hands of the unemployed rather than to those who have the good fortune to be in steady work.

By so doing it will show true sympathy to the unemployed, and help the Government in their endeavour to solve the problem, and it is only by all working together, that this problem can be solved.

Of course the members of the League are fully aware that the Government can in no way interfere in this matter of private individuals offering work, but we rely solely on the sense of fair play and justice which we believe that the public have.

We likewise appeal to all members of the League and all non-members who are in employment, not to accept any spare time work whilst there is one man unemployed. It may at first seem hard to some, to give up the opportunity of earning extra money, but I am convinced that all men of goodwill, will see the justice of our appeal.

Sir, I expect the majority of your readers profess and call themselves Christians, well, here is an opportunity for them to show the strength of their faith, by helping those of their neighbours, who are not so fortunate as to enjoy constant work.

I trust our appeal to all may be read with careful thought, for if it is, the justice of it will be apparent and a few more unemployed men may through this appeal, gain some work.

I am,
Your obedient servant,
(Sgd.) Clement Harrison
(Secretary. F.I. Reform League)

Biarritz A fokker aeroplane, believed to be British, crashed in flames on Saturday evening near Biarritz, and absolutely destroyed all the occupants who were incinerated and their number unknown. The plane was not expected at the aerodrome and those watching declared that the efforts to land appeared to be those of an inexperienced pilot.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN BRITAIN AND FRANCE.

It is officially announced that a full agreement has been reached between the British and French Governments on the text of the French proposals for the prohibition of the export of iron and munitions of war to Spain.

The Notes were signed and exchanged between the two Governments in Paris on Saturday afternoon. The Agreement will come into force as soon as the assent of Germany, Italy, Portugal and Russia is received.

The attitude of the Soviet Government is understood to be favourable, and the Portuguese Government has accepted the principle of non-intervention. No final reply has yet been received from Germany or Italy, and the British Government are again urgently supporting the representations of the French Government in Rome.

Lord Halifax will be returning to London to-day. Meanwhile he has been kept in close touch with the latest developments during the last two days and the following communique was issued at the Foreign Office on Saturday, with the full approval of the Secretary of State who will be returning to London ~~this~~ week to resume charge, "His Majesty's Government are continuing to give their fullest support to the efforts of the French Government to secure an agreement between the powers chiefly interested, to refrain entirely from all interference in the present fighting in Spain. His Majesty's Government have, for their part, declared their willingness, when the general agreement is reached, to prohibit the export of arms to either side, and they will also take every measure open to them to prevent the supply of civil aircraft. It is hoped that the agreement of the other Governments to this effect will be obtained in the very near future. In the meantime no licences have been issued since the commencement of the present troubles in Spain for the export to that country of arms.

or munitions, under the Arms Export Prohibition Order of 1931, and it should be realised that the maintenance of a strict and impartial attitude of non-intervention is essential if the unhappy events in Spain are to be prevented from having serious repercussions elsewhere. British subjects who assist either side in Spain, by land, sea, or air, are not only running grave risks for themselves, but are also rendering it more difficult to arrive at the proposed agreement. They must not expect to receive any assistance or support whatever in the difficulties which they may meet with during such enterprises which run counter to the objects which His Majesty's Government are seeking to attain."

CIVIL WAR CONTINUES UNABATED

Messages from Spain continue to consist of rival claims and counter claims, and every indication that the end of the civil war, after four weeks of merciless fighting, is as far off as ever.

The insurgents claim that railway communication has been established between Burgos and Seville, also that repairs to a battleship and two cruisers and two light cruisers have been completed. The Government inter alia state that the insurgents' offensive against Irun six mile front was completely shattered after six hours of the fiercest fighting.

The funeral service at Malaga for sailors killed in the "Jaime Primo" last week, was rudely interrupted when an insurgent aeroplane suddenly appeared, causing the crowd marching behind the draped bodies to rush for cover.

The insurgents' attack on San Sebastian was resumed yesterday morning, three columns of lorries loaded with men, guns, and ammunition, participating in the advance.

It is expected that the rebel cruisers "Canarias" and "Espana" and "Almirante Cervera" will participate in the attack by bombarding the heights dominating San Sebastian.

According to a message from Hendaye the insurgents hope that if they succeed in isolating San Sebastian the Government forces will retire, thus avoiding a repetition of the horrors of street fighting as witnessed in Badajoz. It is understood that Mola and Franco have ordered that the larger towns should be captured if possible without bombardment, but if the Government forces refuse to retire the insurgents will shell San Sebastian from land and sea.

The Government forces are massing on the heights ready to meet the attack.

It is reported that after a fierce battle at Lalinea the Government troops were defeated with the loss of 170 men, while a message from Rabat states that the garrison at Ifin, territory hitherto loyal to the Government, has revolted and joined the rebels.

Representations were made on Saturday to the Spanish Government in Madrid asking them to facilitate the withdrawal to Huelva, where a British destroyer is stationed, of 37 British subjects who are members of the staff of the Rio Tinto mines, not hitherto evacuated. Their departure had been delayed owing to the attitude assumed by the local miners' committee.

These representations were, it is understood, well received, and it was unofficially reported on Saturday evening that the local difficulties have been overcome.

ITALIAN COLONISTS TO THE FORE

It is announced that the first agricultural colonies will be established in October on the Emperor's land, the first colonists are to be black-shirts who have chosen to remain in East Africa.

The Italian Treasury has arrived at Addis Ababa to establish a section of the Royal Treasury, and the winding-up of the Bank of Ethiopia will begin on the 1st of September.

GRANADA HELD BY INSURGENTS

ALL QUIET IN MADRID

According to a message from
Mr. Ogilvie Forbes, the Counsellor at the British Embassy in Madrid, who arrived to take charge there on Sunday, there are now about two hundred British residents left in the capital. Forty-one of these are being housed in the Embassy grounds. All is quiet in Madrid at the moment but as a precautionary measure the Embassy has taken over the Commercial Secretariat for additional accommodation in case of need, and as a further precautionary step the Union Jack is being painted on the roofs of the Embassy and the Commercial Secretariat in order to minimise the danger of possible bombing by aircraft.

The evacuation of foreign nationals from Granada by aeroplane, under arrangements made with the two sides to the Civil War in Spain, has continued. Three of the eleven British subjects have been brought out of the city which is held by the insurgents and invested by Government troops, but the other eight have decided to stay on at their own risk.

The Danish Government has expressed its thanks for the prompt assistance recently rendered by the British authorities in connection with the evacuation of Danish and Icelandic subjects from Spain.

THE GREAT BRITAIN

Reminiscences of a Passenger

The following letter is taken from the Times of May 29th, 1936, and we feel sure that it will interest our readers.

To The Editor of the Times.

"Sir, The "Queen Mary" to-day is the largest and most luxurious British vessel. Such in 1866 was the "Great Britain". In your issue of May 19th and of May 21st you have given much information about that celebrated ship. Let me tell you something of what life was then like aboard her.

Captain Gray was in command. She carried a milch cow for the children, a butcher, and a whole farmyard of animals and poultry for slaughter. We left Melbourne with sides of beef slung in the tops. First-class passengers brought aboard their own luxuries, especially green apples and wines. The ship provided lime juice. In the saloon long tables ran fore and aft, with a rack attached to the ceiling over each table, in the line of each table's length. This rack carried the glasses, decanters and table equipment of the passenger whose seat was beneath it. The jingling of all this stuff can be imagined.

The private cabins flanked the saloon. They opened directly into it. The ladies' drawing room was in the counter and directly over the screw. It had large stern windows. Saloon lights were put out at 10 p.m. and no form of private light permitted. In the private cabins the ship provided a safe oil lamp.

The "Great Britain" was essentially a sailing ship, and her routine was that of a sailing ship, but she had auxiliary steam power that could push her along at 9 n.m. per hour in a calm. Her screw was hoisted clear of the water or lowered into it at will.

In the waist was a great capstan. Its bar when shipped swept almost the whole breadth of the deck.

"On the wind gradually strengthening until her canvas alone gave her 9 n.m. all the crew and the passengers of all classes manned the bars and, with a fiddler on the capstan head, walked the screw up to a rousing chanty with the chorus 'Hurrah ! Hurrah ! for we'll all, get, blind, drunk, when Johnny comes marching home.' The swelling canvas, the straining gear, the vessel's rhythmic sway, the tramp and enthusiasm of the men at the bars, the lilt of the chanty, and the crash of its chorus never failed to infect the whole ship's company with contagious good humour.

She was well manned and handled. Three days out from Liverpool a lad fell from aloft. As he fell he struck something, but he floated nevertheless. The ship was travelling fast under canvas. At 'man overboard' she was brought into the wind. Two boats got away. They were directed to the floating man by signals from aloft. They got him, and on doing so tossed oars. They were then two miles distant from the ship. Smart work, but in vain, for he died of his wound as the vessel berthed. I have a fine lithograph of her shortening sail to pick up a pilot. This shows her peculiar rig"

It is reported from Stockholm that the missing Swedish ambulance unit, which was lost in Abyssinia, has safely reached Nairobi, and according to statements by the leader of the unit, Dr. Hylander, the Ethiopian war is by no means over. CANADIAN PILGRIMS RETURN

It is reported from Southampton that on embarking for the return to Canada, the leader of the Vimy Ridge Pilgrimage, Mr. Allan, said that the trip had surpassed the fondest hopes, and the reception in the old country and in France had been marvellous. The spirit of Canadian loyalty had been strengthened if that were possible, but the highlight of the tour was the garden party at Buckingham Palace when His Majesty's democratic reception and friendliness impressed everybody tremendously.

ASSISTANCE FOR AGRICULTURE ?

It is reported that farmers in England are discussing the proposal of the creation of a central fund of £20,000,000 for the assistance and development of Agriculture, with the suggestion that consumer prices might be lowered by one-third. The fund would abolish all subsidies, which cost £17,500,000 during the year 1935/6, and would be formed from a levy on competitive agricultural imports and would be administered by a permanent agricultural commission.

SUNSHINE IN LONDON AT LAST

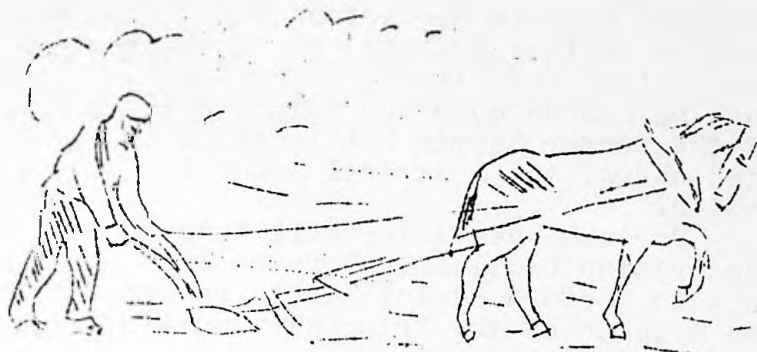

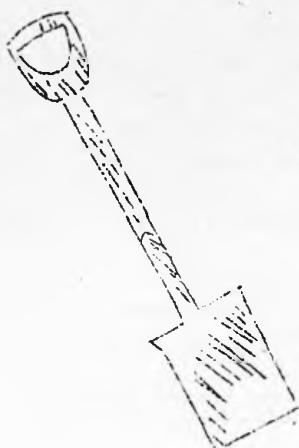

After six weeks of unseasonable weather, London and the south of England is enjoying a spell of sunny hot weather which seems likely to continue for several days.

The swimming pools and open-air cafes which have been poorly patronised so far this summer, were crowded on Monday, and nearly 16,000 people watched England and All India in the Test Match at the Oval - a much improved attendance as compared with that on Saturday.

A presentation was made at Kennington Oval on Monday to Mr. W. Findlay on behalf of the Cricket Boards of control of South Africa, Australia and India, as a token of their appreciation of his courtesy as Secretary of the Marylebone Cricket Club from 1926 to 1936, and as a tribute to his services to Empire Cricket. New Zealand have also made a presentation to Mr. Findlay.

SHIP'S BELL HANDED OVER TO GERMANS

"I am confident that this bell will ring in a period of still closer friendship between our two countries" affirmed Captain Bedford of the British cruiser Neptune, at an interesting function at Kiel on Monday when he handed over the ship's bell of the former German battleship Hindenburg, to Admiral General Raeder.

For some years the bell hung in the British battleship Revenge and Captain Bedford explained its return was a token of the friendship uniting the two navies.

Admiral General Raeder, in reply, thanked the British Admiralty on behalf of the German navy.

EGYPTIAN DELEGATION SAIL FORENGLAND.

The Egyptian Premier Nahas Pasha, and part of the Egyptian delegation sailed for London from Alexandria on Monday. The entire delegation is expected to reach London on Sunday. The delegation is going to England to sign the Anglo-Egyptian Treaty.

CORONATION PLANS ANNOUNCED

Details of King Edward VIII's Coronation Procession are now officially announced, with a drive in robes covering  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles which will be  $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles longer than the drive taken by King George in 1911. The return journey from the Abbey will be through the Victoria Embankment and Hyde Park.

It is understood that the famous Windsor Greys will draw the coach, with His Majesty wearing the Imperial State Crown during the return drive. Schemes are already afoot for making London the most brilliant city in Europe during the Coronation season, while seats on the provisional route are already changing hands at £20 per seat. Insurance rates against the postponement of the ceremony for any reason are quoted at £15. 15s. -d. per cent.

DEMAND FOR WAGE INCREASE

It is reported from Pittsburgh that representatives of 40,000 steel workers are demanding an increase of wages up to 20%, owing to the higher cost of living, while 5 dollars a day for ordinary labouring is sought. Financiers in Wall Street are showing concern at these demands but the market is standing firm.

BRITISH DESTROYER BOMBED

The British destroyer Blanche, which is in the vicinity of Melilla, was bombed on Monday by aeroplanes belonging to the insurgent forces in Spain in mistake for a Spanish destroyer leader "Jose Luis Diez".

Fortunately the British warship escaped damage. Immediately afterwards the British authorities received apologies from the rebel leaders, who, in expressing their general regret, offered the explanation that the "Blanche" was mistaken for a Spanish destroyer.

The holding-up of the German steamer "Kamerun" by a Spanish Government cruiser, while carrying refugees from Spain to Genoa is regarded as a serious matter in competent German circles. Three shots were fired to compel the "Kamerun" to halt, whereafter the vessel was searched by men from a Spanish submarine. It is stated that this incident is to be the subject of an energetic protest and it will be pointed out that stopping a German vessel by gunfire outside Spanish territorial waters constitutes a violation of international law.

Speaking at Gunton in Norfolk yesterday afternoon, the First Lord of the Admiralty described some aspects of the work of evacuation carried out by British ships from the disturbed areas in Spain.

As soon as the first news of the Spanish rebellion was received it became clear that the situation of a great number of British subjects might at any time become precarious. Immediate measures were taken to furnish opportunities for their evacuation and to provide British consular officers at Spanish ports with means of communication.

Sir Samuel Hoare explained that the waters off the coast of Spain were roughly mapped out into areas and were put under the direction of various naval authorities and measures were taken to co-ordinate activities of all kinds.

In a remarkably short time the organisation was in full swing. His Majesty's ships maintained by wireless a full system of communication between the Foreign Office and the consular authorities, and British and foreign citizens were evacuated by destroyers and cruisers to Marseilles, Bayonne, St. Jean de Luz, Oporto and Gibraltar.

No distinction, Sir Samuel Hoare added, had been made between British and foreign nationals, and so far about 3,500 men, women and children had been evacuated, of whom about 2,000 were British.

CHRISTENING ON CARGO BOAT

The following is an extract from the magazine "Sea Breezes" (the P.S.N.C. journal).

"Captain R.E. Dunn of our m.v. Losada sends us the following:-

Amongst the passengers on board were a Mr. and Mrs. Smith and two children. Mr and Mrs. Smith and family were proceeding to England for a holiday after having spent three years on Easter Island, where Mr. Smith was farm manager for Messrs. Williamson, Balfour & Co.

Easter Island is situated about one thousand miles west of Valparaiso and Mr. and Mrs. Smith are the only white people on the island. It is worthy of note that the vessel belonging to Messrs. Williamson, Balfour and Co., which calls at Easter Island once during the year, is the old 'Jamaica', late of the P.S.N.Co., which traded on the Central American station.

Mr. Smith's younger child was born on Easter Island during his last contract, and on account of there not being any parson on the island had not been received into the Church, also amongst the passengers on the 'Losada' was the Rev. Frederick Laight, resident minister at Magallanes, and he approached Mr. and Mrs. Smith with a view to having the child christened before the vessel's arrival at England.

Mrs. Smith was delighted with the suggestion of the Rev. Laight, and on the 20th of February, at 2 p.m., off the South Goodwin Lightship, the ceremony was performed on board in the presence of the Commander, chief engineer, officers, and all the other passengers, the child being christened Ian Murdo.

Although the child was about 18 months old, he did not appear to mind the ceremony, and treated the whole proceeding with a matter of indifference, but Mrs. Smith, undoubtedly, was very pleased.

After the ceremony the child's health was toasted by all on board."

NON-INTERVENTION PLANS GAINSUPPORT.

The Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, returned to the Foreign Office on Tuesday at the end of a brief period of rest in the country during which the Lord Privy Seal has been in charge.

In London the response of the German Government to the British representations in Berlin in support of the French proposals for non-intervention in the Spanish Civil War is considered to be encouraging. The Germans having maintained their demand for the release of the Lufthansa aeroplane which was detained by the Spanish authorities, as a prelude to the acceptance of the French proposals. Both the French and the British Governments have represented to the Spanish Government the desirability of meeting the Germans on this minor point, having regard to the wider considerations involved. It is believed that once this obstacle is removed an agreement on the French draft plan could be reached.

In Rome too, British support for the French plan is being continued and the importance has been stressed of the security of the agreement on essentials, without delay, leaving many secondary issues which are bound to arise, for subsequent negotiations.

It is understood that the Italians have given serious assurances that they are anxious to prevent the spread of those repercussions of the Spanish troubles which the French initiative was designed to obviate, and have undertaken to bring the British representations immediately to the attention of Signor Mussolini who is absent from Rome on holiday.

COST OF LIVING HIGHER NOW

The Ministry of Labour cost of living index on August 1st was approximately 46% above the level of July 1914 and was the same as the figure for the previous month. The corresponding figure for a year ago was 43%. Exchequer returns show a total ordinary revenue which amounts to £212,836,519 as compared with £224,432,126 at the corresponding date of last year. The total ordinary expenditure is £287,337,639 as compared with £276,530,582 at the corresponding date of 1935.

CHANGES IN RATES OF PAY

Changes of rates in pay, which came into operation in Great Britain last month are estimated to have resulted in an increase of nearly £60,000 in weekly full-time wages of over 1,000,000 workers, and in a decrease of about £3,800 affecting 44,000 workers. The principal increase was in the engineering industry.

INCREASED CONSUMPTION OFELECTRICITY

The consumption of electricity in Great Britain continues to increase at a very rapid rate. The last annual report of the Central Electricity Board stated that expansion in this country since 1929 and up to the end of last year, had been 70% as compared with the expansion in the world output in the same period, of 20%. In the first seven months of 1936 there has been an increase of 16% over the total at the end of last year and an aggregate increase over the past two years which amounts to 30%.

As the result of the remarkable growth in demand, the Central Electricity Board is having to hurry on with schemes for the extension of the "Grid System" - the national system of transmission lines linking supply stations and co-ordinating the load.

The estimates of future consumption of electricity made in 1926, at the time of the inception of the "Grid System", allowed 385 units per head for the present year, but in consequence of the great increase in industrial activity, and the rate at which the demand is running, it appears likely that an output of about 450 units per head will soon be required.

The way to Badajos has been opened by the Government victory at Estrada Madura. The loyalists claim that they have captured Alia in the Guadeloupe mountains. The position in Madrid is also much improved according to the War Minister, who, after a Cabinet Meeting on Wednesday, declared that "the enemy will be prevented from crossing the Guadarramas. Wednesday marked the beginning of the end for them. The Government has routed the insurgent column, and the district of Navalperal has been completely cleared of insurgents."

The "Almirante Cervera", the only warship in rebel hands with anti-aircraft guns, is stated to be sinking, and was last seen slowly steaming westward toward Gijon with a heavy list.

GENERAL SMUTS SPEAKS HIS MIND

It is reported from Durban that General Smuts, in a press interview on Thursday, voiced the opinion that the Spanish Civil War was not only a dangerous symptom but was another product of the League breakdown during the Italo-Abyssinian crisis.

General Smuts considered that the Spanish business was closely associated with the Italian business which, together, have created a grave situation and a wild armaments race.

TERRORIST TRIALPrisoners Accuse Themselves

It is reported from Moscow by the Daily Telegraph correspondent that an uncanny atmosphere prevails in the Zinovieff, Kameneff terrorist trial, with the sixteen prisoners who were once hardy and fearless old bolsheviks, accusing themselves and each other of all crimes and the additional crime of incitement.

Among those thus accused are Sokolnikoff, the former Ambassador to Britain; Rykoff, former Premier of the Soviet Cabinet; Tomskey, the Trade Union Chief; Bukharin, Editor of Izvestia; and Radek, Official for Foreign Affairs and propagandist.

THE SAVE THE CHILDREN FUND

We publish hereunder a copy of a letter which has been received by the Reverend Father Migone who in the past has collected contributions in the Colony towards the "Save the Children Fund", an Association whose aim it is, irrespective of Race, Country or Creed, to preserve child life whether menaced by conditions of hardship or distress and to raise the standards of child care and protection throughout the world.

Father Migone intends to make another appeal for this good cause and we feel sure that the general public will respond as generously as they have done on similar occasions previously.

20, Gordon Square,
London W.C.1.
18th June, 1936.

The Rev. Father Migone, Falkland Islands.

Dear Father Migone,

Happily the work of the Save the Children Fund does make steady progress and we have the satisfaction of knowing that thousands of children have been given a chance of life through the generosity of our friends all over the world.

The financial uncertainty of the last few years has naturally affected our resources, and curtailed the scope of our work. We could not, however, take the easy path of giving up and we are still working in countries where children are suffering unnecessarily. You will see what we are doing from the enclosed leaflet.

As we have frequently said the love of little children knows no frontiers or political barriers and so we go on asking our friends to send us what is possible to help us in the struggle for their lives and welfare.

We know that South America has her own acute problems but we beg you to remember the countries where the horror of camp life in huts which do not keep out wind, rain and snow, still exists.

Will you make this appeal a memorable one by a generous gift and will you ask your friends to help us in our great work among the little ones.

Yours sincerely,
(Sgd.) (Miss) Cecilia John.
Hon. Overseas Organiser.

REVIVAL OF BRITISH FLAXINDUSTRY

An important stage in the revival of the British flax industry was marked on Thursday by the starting up of electrically driven machinery of the latest design in the de-seeding section of the new flax mills at Billing in Northamptonshire.

The mills, which will be in full operation by September 7th, are part of a new industrial venture associated with a carefully planned agricultural experiment in the same county.

Six hundred acres have been sown with pedigree seed and despite the adverse weather a crop of exceptionally good quality has been harvested.

AGE DISTRIBUTION OF UNEMPLOYED

The half-yearly analysis of the age distribution of unemployed men and women made by the Labour Ministry shows that while there was a reduction between May 1935 and last May in the number of unemployed in nearly every age group the reduction was greater proportionally among persons under thirty-five years. Men under 35 were 44.9% of all unemployed in May 1935, but this May the percentage had fallen to 41.6%.

San Carlos are to be congratulated on being the first winners of His Excellency's shield, and considering that the shooters had been dancing the previous night from 7.30 p.m. to 5.30 a.m., all the members are deserving of praise for the excellent results. To finish off the meeting a challenge shoot was held between D. McMullen and G. Betts. Mr. McMullen was the winner with 98 points. Some of the Stanley members will have to look to their laurels when a challenge arrives from a combined Camp team. A good postal match should be the result. And may more teams be formed in the Camp is the wish of

DIPLOMATIC ACTIVITY IN ROME

In Rome yesterday there was unexpected diplomatic activity the purport whereof was that Italy accepted the French text on the Spanish neutrality agreement. Italy had addressed France on this question but without awaiting a reply Signor Ciano last night summoned the French Ambassador and handed him a Note giving Italy's full acceptance of the French proposals and promising to give effect thereto when the French, British, Portuguese, German and Soviet Governments had accepted. Another fierce battle was fought at Naval Peral yesterday where it is claimed that the rebel attackers were again defeated. A night attack on the Government lines near Madrid was repulsed with heavy rebel losses yesterday. The Government casualties were not stated.

His Excellency the Governor was present and some 300 other guests.

Throughout, the dance went with a swing - the bands excelling themselves, and when it neared one o'clock the hosts decided to extend the dance until 2 a.m., a most popular decision.

At the conclusion of the dance Captain Edmunds was "chaired" round the hall by members of the Force to the accompaniment of the song "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow", heartily sung by all.

ITALIAN DECISION WELCOMED

The Italian intimation to France that Italy will prohibit the export and re-export or transit to Spain or Spanish possessions and to the Spanish zone of Morocco, of arms, munitions and war materials, including aircraft as soon as France, Great Britain, Portugal, Germany and Russia have all done or are ready to do the same, has been welcomed in London where it is felt that another important stage has been accomplished on what has proved a difficult and tortuous road to general agreement on non-intervention.

The "Times" on Saturday noted that the main condition of the Italian acceptance was already fulfilled save for the final adhesion of Germany, and deplored the fact that "just when Italy has agreed to come into line, negotiations in Berlin have been interrupted by the unfortunate incident of the "Kamerun".

The "Times" added, that even with this obstacle a sense of perspective should ensure the speedy settlement and completion of the non-intervention ring.

No finality has yet been reached in the discussions which have been in progress between British diplomatic representatives in Madrid and the Spanish Government regarding a decree recently published there declaring certain areas in Spain to be blockaded.

In this connection it is understood that the Government of Madrid do not intend to exercise the right of search at sea, in respect of British vessels.

ROAD ACCIDENTS IN ENGLAND

A report has just been published by the Ministry of Transport giving an analysis of over 6,300 road accidents in 1935 involving the deaths of nearly 6,500 people.

The enquiry, which has been undertaken as part of a campaign for road safety has followed the same lines as that of 1933 except that for the first time publicity is given to the ascribed causes of the accidents on the basis of police reports.

Perhaps the most surprising fact revealed is that Sunday is the day of the week with least accidents. Saturday has the most.

33% of the accidents were the result of collision between moving vehicles, and 47%, of collisions between moving vehicles and pedestrians. 30% of the accidents occurred at road junctions and 62% on straight roads or open road bends with good sight lines.

From Monday to Friday the hours of the day with the largest number of accidents are between 5 and 6 in the evening. The second most dangerous hour is between 10 and 11 at night.

Tables in the report show how the death curve among pedestrians descends rapidly after the age of eleven until it reaches its lowest point between 20 and 25 and then gradually rises again, steepening beyond the age of 50.

10% of the pedestrians killed were under 5, while more than 50% of those killed while crossing the road were 60 years and over.

It is reported from Moscow that the climax to the conspiracy trial came on Saturday when the accused echoed the demand of the State Prosecutor Vishinsky that they should be shot, and only begged to be allowed to say "Good-bye" to the workers.

Their attitude was typified by that of Marchowsky, the ex-commander of the Red Army, who, at the close of his evidence begged death "for treason to the working class" and then broke down, and wept bitterly and had to be carried out by the police.

HUNGER REVOLTS IN UKRAINE

It is reported from Odessa that there have been further hunger strikes in Ukraine. According to the Russian news organs, a mob consisting of peasants and labourers have stormed the military warehouse in Poltava in order to obtain food supplies stored there.

The District Military Commander sent troops to quell the disturbance whereupon a pitched battle ensued between the soldiers and the peasants who were armed with clubs, twenty-three persons being killed and over fifty wounded.

It is reported that serious rebellions also occurred at Isjum on the Donez and Konotop district because the army confiscated all food supplies leaving the population to face starvation.

These outbreaks are the result of an attitude of dissent which has been developing for months because the Red Army, which enjoys the direct support of the Government, is well equipped and provided for while the populace lacks most of the essential necessities of life.

A message from Charkow announces that the trial of sixty peasants will be held in the near future, these having refused to give up an entire new harvest to the Military Commissar.

More than 2,000 peasants have been arrested during the past few weeks and numerous detachments of soldiers in Ukraine have been ordered to remain in a constant state of being fully prepared in case of further disorders.

BRITISH WARSHIP IN COLLISION

H.M.S. "Keith", a flotilla leader of 1400 tons, which was on its way home from the Mediterranean, has been in collision with the Greek steamer "Antonia Glemas".

The accident occurred in the English Channel yesterday afternoon during thick fog. There were no casualties. The destroyer "Brilliant" embarked the crew of the Greek steamer which was later reported to have sunk, and proceeded with them on board to Portsmouth.

Later reports indicate that the British cargo steamer "Gibel Zerjon" which was previously reported to have gone to Melilla, made for Gibraltar after the incident in which an apology was made to the British naval authorities, following their protest against attempted interference with the "Gibel Zerjon" by the Spanish cruiser "Miguel de Cervantes". (See earlier press on this subject on Page 2.)

"QUEEN MARY" BREAKS RECORD

The performance of the Cunard White Star Liner "Queen Mary" in setting up a new record for the east to west crossing of the Atlantic, of 4 days, 7 hours and 12 minutes, at an average speed of 30.01 knots, is widely commented on in the newspapers as indicating a likelihood that she will at an early date capture the "Blue Riband", at present held by the French liner "Normandie", for the west to east crossing at an average speed of 30.31 knots.

BRITISH VESSEL DETAINED BY SPANISH

Within twenty-four hours of the Spanish Government's assurance to Britain that the right to search would not be applied to British ships on the high seas, the British vessel "Gibelzerjon" was stopped ten miles from Melilla and apparently detained.

The naval authorities at Gibraltar acted promptly and the battle cruiser "Repulse" and two destroyers were at once ordered to investigate the case - some of the crew of the "Repulse" were ashore but were hurried aboard, and shortly afterwards the "Repulse" was seen steaming at 20 knots past Europa Point, with the gun crews standing-by and all decks cleared, in the direction of Melilla.

It is reported from Lisbon that the British Ambassador there has refused to accept a note of protest from the Insurgent Junta protesting against the bombing of insurgent strongholds by French built planes flying the French colours. It is alleged that a squadron of fifteen such craft bombed Naval Peral and other places on Friday. As a result of direct hits by the insurgent aircraft the big petrol depot at Malaga has been completely gutted - it is understood that this depot held 1,000,000 gallons of spirit.

According to reports from Seville a squadron of insurgent bombers raided Madrid and heavily bombarded the region of the militia barracks and returned safely on Sunday.

The German naval headquarters announce that the northern contingent of German warships in Spanish Waters, the cruiser "Koeln" and torpedo boats "Seeadler" and "Albatross", were relieved on Sunday by the cruiser "Leipzig" and torpedo boats "Jaguar" and "Wolf", and are en-route for home waters. The German battle-ships "Deutschland", "Admiral Scheer" and torpedo boats "Leopard" and "Luchs" are still on duty in the Mediterranean and will be relieved on Wednesday.

EGYPTIAN DELEGATION REACHESENGLAND.

An influential representative party of thirteen Egyptian personalities reached London on Sunday night - their object is to set the seal on the Treaty which has dissipated the bitterness between Britain and the Egyptian nationalists for many years.

Headed by the Premier, Nahas Pasha, the delegation included twelve Pashas.

Victoria Station was packed with enthusiastic crowds when they arrived, including many Egyptians who, when Mr. Eden shook hands with Nahas Pasha, shouted "Long live the Anglo-Egyptian friendship."

The Treaty supplements the 1922 Treaty which, while marking a big step in Egyptian independence, left unsettled a number of reserved points like Britain's right to maintain troops in Egypt, the future Government of the Sudan, the defence of the Suez Canal and so-called capitulations relating to legal actions wherein foreigners are concerned.

Berlin. The airship "Hindenburg" arrived at Frankfurt-on-Main on Saturday from New Jersey, creating a new record round trip from Germany to America and back to Germany in one week.

GERMANY COMES INTO LINE

The news, announced in Berlin yesterday, that Germany had prohibited the export of war materials to Spain in accordance with the proposals of the French Government, was received in London with great satisfaction.

The fact that the decision was made although the discussions with the Madrid Government over the release of an interned German aeroplane have not yet been concluded, has made a good impression.

The embargo is now in force in Britain, France, and Germany, and it is presumed that Russia, Italy, and Portugal, which have already expressed their willingness to impose one simultaneously with the other principal interested powers, will take steps to bring it into operation immediately they have been officially notified. In view of the importance of the time factor it is unlikely that there will be any delay on the part of the French Government, with whom the matter rests, in making this notification in Moscow, Rome, and Lisbon.

Yesterday's developments in the negotiations for non-intervention have given much gratification in authoritative British circles where there is evident optimism that the wider dangers inherent in the situation arising from the Spanish conflict will now be obviated. Warm tributes are paid to the patient and far-seeing statesmanship shown throughout the long and difficult negotiations by the French Prime Minister, M. Leon Blum. No secret has been made by the French Government of the valuable and timely support which M. Blum's initiative has had throughout from the British Government. On several occasions the British have seconded the French representations in other capitals when such assistance was desired, and Britain's unilateral and unconditional assumption last Wednesday of the obligations provided for in the French Plan, did much to strengthen confidence in the ultimate general agreement.

Peking Early yesterday morning three British soldiers of the Legation Guard in Peking returning to their barracks in rickshaws, were fired upon from a motor car which drove off afterwards without lights. The soldiers were not hit but one rickshaw man received a bullet wound in the leg. The identity and nationality of the assailants is unknown. The facts were at once notified by the British Legation authorities to the Chairman of the Hopei Chahar Council and to the Chinese police who are making enquiries.

GERMANY INCREASES HER ARMY

It is estimated in Berlin that the German army will be increased to at least a million men after a year, by a decree signed by Herr Hitler forthwith increasing the period of active military service of all arm~~ies~~es from one year to two years.

It is stated that Germany will take any measure necessary to guarantee the freedom and independence of the nation against military threats from Soviet Imperialism.

The Decree will throw a still heavier burden of organisation on the already hardworked Reichswehr Generals.

New barracks will have to be built throughout the country and officers will have to be found to train the extra conscripts.

After October, when the 1916 Class conscripts have been called to the Colours, Germany will have a standing army of 200,000 men who have served for twelve years, and the 1915 and 1916 classes are each 350,000 strong. Later, when the post-war classes are called up they will probably be larger and the army will be over 1,000,000 strong, apart from the labour corps and semi-military organisations.

Discarded jewellery, broken gold watches, English or foreign gold coins, why hoard ? Change for cash. Broken sterling silver articles also bought.

The insurgents launched a carefully planned offensive against Irun and San Sebastian at dawn yesterday, but the result, which may prove the civil war's decisive encounter, remains doubtful, states the Daily Telegraph Correspondent.

Tanks, aeroplanes, and 10,000 men advanced in converging columns over a twelve mile front but the entrenched Government troops vigorously resisted and a whole day of fighting only gained the attackers  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles, while an attempt to capture Fort Martial also failed.

Messages received in London announced that the insurgents have captured the territory comprising the British-owned Rio Tinto copper and sulphur mines which were previously held by the workers' committee.

It is reported from Tokio that the Spanish Legation has announced that they will henceforth represent Franco and the Insurgent Government and not the Madrid Administration which they regard as communistic.

The first King Edward stamps were put on sale on Tuesday in Great Britain and the North of Ireland in the  $\frac{1}{2}$ d,  $1\frac{1}{2}$ d, and  $2\frac{1}{2}$ d denominations only, while the penny issue will be available about the middle of September. Designs for permanency are under consideration but 3,000,000,000 are being issued as a test of the public's reaction.

It is reported from Helsingfors that the latest budget estimate allocates an additional 45,000,000 marks for Defence, making a total of 598,713,500 marks.

The s.s. "Lafonia" is at present at Albemarle and is expected to return to Stanley to-morrow.

F O O D 1 9 .

In our last article we saw that certain articles of food in common use contained various important properties essential to making a square meal and a complete diet. It is so important to remember what is meant by a square meal, it is the mixing of four main classes of food-stuff to make a complete and adequate diet supplying the various properties mentioned in the previous articles.

In the square meal suggested by Plimmer, diagrammatically the four groups mentioned in the last article are shewn :-

Fat or Butter Class.	Seed or Bread Class.
Fresh Fruits & Vegetables	Meat or other 1st Class Protein.

Three examples of quite simple Square Meals are :-

- i. Milk and Potatoes
- ii. or Eggs, Cheese and Potatoes
- iii. or Milk, Oatmeal and Scotch Kale.

We shall again look at certain foodstuffs in order to find out their relative values.

Malt a powdered extract of Barley contains Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> and a chemical which aids the digestion hence the reason for mixing it with Cod Liver Oil to make Cod Liver Oil and Malt mixture.

Pulses. the dried seeds of peas, lentils and beans, contain Proteins but of rather 2nd class quality, Vitamin B<sub>1</sub> is the most important Vitamin present.

Nuts. used as a meat substitute by vegetarians are a very concentrated food of mineral salts, Vitamin B, proteins, fats and carbohydrates.

Chocolate and Cocoa contain no vitamins but of high fuel value because of their natural fat and the sugar which has been added. They should be used as flavouring agents and not as substantial foods.

Fats and Oils. Vitamin content varies. Bone marrow fat is an excellent fatty food for children. Margarine, consists of vegetable oils, fish oils and animal oils, its fat soluble vitamin content is uncertain depending on the manufacture, Vitamin A & D are often added in special preparations.

Sugar, Syrup, Jam and Honey - Sugar is a carbohydrate and as such is a fuel food, not proper food in the wider sense of the word.

The idea that children have a craving for it is quite wrong because sugar is not a natural food but the craving is an acquired habit like smoking or drinking. Nature avoids excess of sugar for example the sugar in milk or fruit. Children now suck sweets at all times of the day and therefore reject good wholesome food.

The effect on the teeth is not so much that sugar alters the chemistry of the mouth but on account of the indirect effect on the appetite which is spoilt and proper food refused.

F O O D 1.9.

Sugar has fuel value, certainly, but it is definitely not an article of diet for proper nutrition.

However, it is justifiable to give sugar for its fuel value under certain circumstances, as in athletes engaged in strenuous work, certain diseases including heart failure and in all kinds of vomiting, for example seasickness.

Fresh Fruits are valuable for the Vitamin C content. Prunes, bananas, canteloupes and dates contain some Vitamin A. Vitamin B is present in Tomatoes and Oranges. Fruit also contains certain mineral salts.

Canned Fruits lose little of their Vitamin content but the favourite varieties of fruit are not too rich in Vitamin C. The disadvantage of canned fruit is the large amount of sugar or syrup they contain.

Dried Fruits, their vitamin content has been lost, but they are a fuel food supplying sugar, protein, mineral salts and fibre.

Vegetables — the leaves are rich in Vitamin C, contain also B1 and B2; especially contain calcium salts and Vitamin A & C.

Roots and tubers contain carbohydrates and oils, carrots are valuable for Vitamin A and swedes for Vitamin C. Peas, Beans, leeks and potatoes contain Vitamin B1. The potato is a very good food, it can be served in many different ways, it contains a fair quantity of protein, carbohydrate, mineral salts and Vitamins C, B1, B2, A and possibly D, therefore it contributes a large amount towards a square meal. As mentioned before, potatoes and milk make a complete diet.

F.I.D.F.M. RIFLE CLUBMatch for Platoon Shield

The first match of the season for the Platoon Shield was shot off on Monday, 24th of August, and resulted in two wins for No. 2 Platoon by 11 and 5 points.

Owing to the re-organisation of the Defence Force several members have been transferred to other Platoons, but it is interesting to note that Headquarters only scored 6 points less and No. 2, two points less, than in their first matches last year.

A remarkable feature of the composition of the teams was that three generations of the Summers' family were represented, with the grandson proving the best shot.

ANGLO-EGYPTIAN TREATY

The signing of the Anglo-Egyptian Treaty, for which the Egyptian delegation came to England, took place in the Locarno Room of the Foreign Office yesterday morning.

The ceremony was witnessed by a privileged company which included, besides the two delegations and their officials, the wives and daughters of the Egyptian delegates. The Speeches of the Foreign Secretary and Nahas Pasha were broadcast to Egypt.

In both speeches stress was laid upon the community of interests of the two countries, which had found expression in the Treaty.

The Agreement was hailed as marking the inauguration of a new period of fuller and freer co-operation in Anglo-Egyptian relations. Last night Nahas Pasha and his colleagues of the Egyptian delegation were entertained at dinner at the Foreign Office.

REGARDING THE SPANISH SITUATION

The British Ambassador at Lisbon has been instructed to support his French colleague in requesting the Portuguese Government to put into effect, with the least possible delay, its undertaking in agreement with the other interested powers, to prohibit the export to Spain or Spanish possessions, of arms, munitions and aircraft.

Mr. Arthur Greenwood and Sir Walter Citrine, accompanied by Labour and Trade Union officials, called at the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon and continued the discussion they had with the Foreign Secretary last Wednesday on the present situation in Spain. Lord Halifax, who was in charge of the Foreign Office during the earlier stages of the Spanish crisis, was also present.

FIRE AT MALVINA HOUSE

A fire, which might have had most serious consequences had it not been attended to with such promptitude, broke out in a chimney at Malvina House at 8 o'clock last night.

The fire was discovered by Mr. W.G. Gleadell who informed the police and the Fire Brigade.

Maroons were fired and the dockyard bell was rung, and in a very short time the Fire Brigade, the Police, and numerous outside helpers were on the spot.

The fire was soon put out though it had raged fiercely,

Miss B. Scott and Mr. J. Sarney

Despite the unpromising weather earlier in the day, the sun shone brightly for the wedding of Miss Betty Scott and Mr. James Sarney on Wednesday afternoon.

The wedding was solemnized in the Tabernacle by Pastor W.F. McWhan.

Miss Scott is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Scott and the late Mr. Frederick Scott of Darwin and Mr. Sarney is the youngest son of Mr. Harry Sarney and the late Mrs. Sarney of Ealing, London.

Wearing an attractive gown of white satin and a veil and orange blossom, the bride looked charming. She carried a lovely bouquet of mixed flowers and fern. Her brother, Mr. C. Scott, gave her away.

She had three bridesmaids, Miss Beatrice Scott (her sister), Miss Noreen Scott ( her sister), and Miss Elizabeth Finlayson (her cousin). They made a pleasing triette in tasteful frocks of yellow satin, wearing head-dresses of net and flowers.

The Best Man was Mr. John Middleton ( a friend of the bridegroom).

A reception was held later at the bride's home where many friends and relations of the happy couple assembled to drink their health.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sarney will make their home at Darwin.

We should like to join their friends in wishing them every happiness in the future.

NEW BRIDGE IN HEART OF LONDON

A new bridge across the Thames at Charing Cross, in the heart of London, the plans for which have been under discussion for the past twenty-five years, is the recommendation embodied in a report just issued by the London and counties Traffic Advisory Committee after 18 months' examination of various alternative schemes, and consultation with the official bodies and private interests affected.

The Committee rejects the proposals for a tunnel and also the suggestion that Charing Cross railway station should be removed to the south side of the river.

A combined road and rail bridge is contemplated, which, by the provision of adequate approaches, on the importance of which the committee insists, would constitute a north-south artery through one of the busiest sections of central London.

On the north side it is suggested that the planning of an approach should start from Euston road and on the south from the Elephant and Castle.

NEW EMPIRE FLYING BOATS

Two of the new Empire Flying Boats should both be afloat at Rochester and ready for their final trials within the next week. One of the boats is intended by Imperial Airways for immediate service in the Mediterranean between Brindisi and Alexandria, while the other is destined for long-range experimental flights in connection with the preparation of the North Atlantic route.

Other machines now under construction, which will engage in the same long-distance experiments, are Mayo Composite Aircraft and the de Havilland albatross.

In the meantime, in preparation for the north Atlantic service, air pilots, meteorologists, and observation stations have been working in Newfoundland since the autumn of 1934 on accumulating data for one of the most comprehensive weather forecasting schemes ever devised.

These investigations, which have been undertaken on behalf of the Air Ministry and the Canadian and Newfoundland authorities, include the charting of the upper air and the examination of the prevalence of fog in the Newfoundland zone and over the mouth of the St. Lawrence. The object of this organization which will be set up, is to keep pilots on the Atlantic route informed of the movements of fog and to lead them through clear channels.

The charting of the upper air will provide data upon which it is hoped a high degree of accuracy in forecasting will be based.

The principle of radio control is to be extended and pilots will be instructed as to course and landing places by radio in accordance with weather reports.

WORLD PEACE CONFERENCE

According to the New York "Times", President Roosevelt is considering a plan to summon a world peace conference to which King Edward, Stalin, Hitler, Mussolini and the French President will be invited, while representatives of Japan, China and some other countries will also be asked to attend.

The President believes that if re-elected he would hold an unequalled position to promote world peace, but while the Conference could not discuss general terms the leaders could unite in a proclamation to use their personal influence against war.

Roosevelt has not denied this report and it is understood that State Department officials are studying schemes and their possibilities.

INCREASING BARBARITIESIN SPAIN

The present meeting of diplomatic representatives to Spain on the Franco-Spanish border, at which it was proposed that an appeal should be made to the contending forces in the Spanish civil war on humanitarian grounds, to mitigate the suffering as far as possible, is the subject of a telegram to the British Ambassador from the Foreign Secretary, the terms of which have been made public.

It points out that the proposal is one which His Majesty's Government has already had in mind and which has its strongest support. The internal politics of Spain are the concern of the Spanish people but the mitigation of suffering is the concern of all. "The apparent refusal to take prisoners and the consequent mass execution of those who are captured, or who surrender, the reprisals for such acts and increasing barbarities to which the reprisals will inevitably lead, are matters to which civilised states cannot be indifferent. I understand it to be proposed that the diplomatic representatives should co-operate in the formulation of the scheme of approach to the leaders of both sides. In any such approach His Majesty's Government will be ready and anxious to share. Moreover, it is also their urgent desire to play their full part in any organized international effort such as will, it is to be hoped, result from this approach. "

The speed record for British trains was broken by the streamlined "Silver Jubilee" train on the service passenger run from Newcastle to London on Thursday, reaching a maximum of 113 miles an hour as compared with its previous record of 112 miles an hour.

It is believed to be the world record for steam-hauled passenger trains on ordinary service.

THE ANGLO-EGYPTIAN TREATY

The Anglo-Egyptian Treaty, which was signed on Wednesday and the text of which is to be published, will not be ratified until Parliament has had an opportunity of discussing it. It is expected that ratification on the Egyptian side will take place in November. After the exchange of ratifications and the registration of the Treaty at Geneva, a number of matters will arise including the question of the admission of Egypt to the League membership.

The text of the Treaty of Alliance between Great Britain and Egypt is published as a White Paper. The Treaty of sixteen articles is accompanied by an agreed minute of interpretation and by notes exchanged regarding several matters and by a separate convention relating to immunities and privileges to be enjoyed by British forces in Egypt.

The Treaty terminates the military occupation of Egypt by British forces and establishes an alliance between the two countries.

It continues for a period of twenty years, after which, if either party so requests, the parties will negotiate with a view to revising its terms by an agreement in the light of then existing circumstances - negotiations for revision may, if both parties wish it, be entered into at any time after ten years. Any revision must provide for the continuance of the alliance in accordance with the principles contained in the present treaty defining the scope of the alliance as follows:-

Neither party will adopt an attitude or conclude a treaty inconsistent with the Alliance.

They will consult each other with a view to the peaceful settlement of any dispute with a third state threatening a risk of rupture with that state. In the event of either party being engaged in war the other will come to its aid as an ally subject to its obligations under the Covenant of the League of Nations or Pact of Paris.

It is provided in advance that the form of Egypt's assistance will be as follows:- In the event of war or imminent menace of war or apprehended international emergency, Egypt will accord all facilities in its power to the United Kingdom, these facilities and this assistance to include the use of Egyptian ports, aerodromes, means of communication and all necessary administrative and legislative measures including the establishment of martial law and effective censorship. Among these facilities will be included facilities for the sending of British forces or reinforcements.

Regarding the protection of the Suez Canal the Treaty states that whilst the Canal is an integral part of Egypt it is a universal means of communication and an essential means of communication between the different parts of the British Empire. With a view to ensuring, in collaboration with the Egyptian forces, the defence of the Canal, the United Kingdom is authorised by Egypt to maintain in the Canal zone forces not exceeding 10,000 land forces, and air forces not exceeding 400 pilots, until such time as the two parties agree that the Egyptian army is capable of ensuring by its own resources the proper and entire security of navigation in the Canal; these numbers may be increased in the event of war, menace of war or apprehended international emergency.

At the end of the period of the Treaty the question as to whether the Egyptian army has become capable to do this may, if the parties do not agree, be submitted to the League Council for a decision in accordance with the provisions of the Covenant now in force, or to some other person or body agreed upon by the parties.

The Egyptian Government will build in the Canal zone additional barracks required for British troops up to the number indicated previously, with full amenities and an emergency water supply according to the requirements of the British Government and will construct roads, the most important of which is that across the Delta from the Canal zone to Alexandria and that from the Canal zone to Cairo. They will also improve railway facilities in the Canal zone. When this work has been carried out to the satisfaction of both parties, the British forces in Egypt other than those already stationed on the Canal, will be withdrawn to the Canal zone - this applies to forces in Cairo, including Abbassia and Helmia in Heliopolis, Helouan and Aboukir, but not to forces in Alexandria which will remain in their present positions for a period not exceeding eight years, which is the time considered necessary for the final completion of the new barracks accommodation in the Canal zone and for the improvement of the various roads and railway facilities.

There is also provision for three other roads to be built as soon as possible. Other military provisions are as follows :- The British air forces are permitted to fly wherever they consider it necessary for the purposes of training, reciprocal treatment being accorded to the Egyptian air forces in British territories. Adequate landing grounds and sea-plane anchorages will be provided for the British air forces in Egyptian territory and waters, and additional ones will be furnished if the British authorities consider this necessary for the allied requirements. While the British personnel at present with the Egyptian army will be withdrawn, the Egyptian Government, in the interests of the alliance, will avail themselves of the advice of the British military mission in order to perfect the training of the Egyptian Army and Air Force. The British Government undertakes to provide appropriate training in the United Kingdom for such personnel of the Egyptian forces as the Egyptian Government may wish to send.

The armaments and equipment of the Egyptian forces will not differ in type from those of the British troops.

The Sudan clauses provide that the administration of the Sudan will continue to be that resulting from the Condominium Agreements of 1899. It is agreed that the primary aim of the Administration must be the welfare of the Sudanese. The parties reserve the liberty to conclude the new conventions regarding the Sudan in the future and the question of the sovereignty of the Sudan is not prejudiced by the Treaty. The security of foreigners, and the position of foreign officials, form the subject of the concluding articles of the Treaty. While His Majesty's Government recognise that the responsibility for the lives and property of foreigners in Egypt devolves exclusively upon the Egyptian Government the Egyptian Government undertake that they will ensure the fulfilment of their obligations in this respect. The European Bureau of the Public Security Department will disappear on ratification but for a further five years the European element will be retained in the Egyptian city police which will remain for the same period under the command of British Officers.

His Majesty's Government recognise that the capitulatory regime is no longer in accordance with the spirit of the times and the present state of Egypt, and agree therefore to support Egypt in an immediate approach to the other powers with a view to an agreement on the following points - first, the disappearance of existing restrictions on the Egyptian sovereignty in the matter of the application of Egyptian legislation, including financial legislation to foreigners. Secondly, a transitional regime for a reasonable and not unduly prolonged period to be fixed by agreement, during which mixed tribunals will remain and will exercise besides their present judicial jurisdiction, the jurisdiction of the Consular courts. At the end of this period the Egyptian Government will be free to dispense with mixed tribunals. The Egyptian Government undertakes that legislation made applicable to foreigners will not be inconsistent with the principles of modern legislation, or discriminate against foreigners. The Treaty also provides that each party will be represented in the capital of the other by an Ambassador.

Egypt will apply for membership of the League of Nations and her application will be supported by the British Government. It is stated that the rights and obligations of both parties under the League covenant or Pact of Paris are not prejudiced by the Treaty and that any difference regarding the application of, or interpretation of, its provisions, which cannot be settled by direct negotiations, will be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Covenant.

FIGHTING IN SPAIN CONTINUES

It is reported from Hendayes that the battle for Irun continued all yesterday, and was largely confined to an artillery and machine-gun duel until the evening when a terrific struggle started around the Church of San Marcial, situated on the crest of a hill commanding Irun.

The defending Government troops, with seven batteries, were stationed there when the insurgent planes opened the attack by blowing up the road to the Church, after which the insurgents advanced, and fierce hand-to-hand fighting followed, both sides using hand grenades and dynamite bombs with devastating effects on the Moroccan troops and legionaries. The insurgents stormed the crest from the south and heavy Government machine-gun fire repelled or wiped out successive waves of attackers. In the evening the insurgents abandoned the attack of San Marcial and are now bombarding Irun.

It is understood that the French Government will demand the establishment of a neutral zone to ensure the safety of French soil.

The adoption of measures for putting into force the embargo on arms to Spain, and their agreement to appoint representatives to serve on a committee to sit in London to consider questions arising out of the situation, have been notified by the Governments of several other European countries which had accepted the non-intervention Agreement, including Denmark, Poland, Turkey and Belgium.

ARMS RACE UNABLE TO BE CHECKED

It is reported from Rome that Signor Mussolini, broadcasting to the nation on the conclusion of the Army manoeuvres on Saturday, said that the arms race cannot be checked, and while Italy did not believe in the absurdity of perpetual peace, she desired to live in peace and to co-operate to that end among the nations, but, he added, "we can at any time, on a single frontier, mobilise 8,000,000 men."

According to the Daily Telegraph correspondent the King of Italy is reviewing the manoeuvres of the forces to-day when the march past will consist of 66,000 troops, 400 each of heavy guns and mortars, 3,500 mechanised units, and 100 aeroplanes. Referring to this the Duce said that it represented an almost negligible fraction of the nation's resources, which were the result of fourteen years of Fascist sacrificing regime; he stated that the Italian motto must henceforth be "Strength to affront all eventualities, to look any destiny straight in the face."

"QUEEN MARY" WINS BLUE RIBAND

The Cunard White Star liner "Queen Mary" won the Blue Riband by beating the "Normandie" on her east bound record by several hours, passing Bishop Rock at 8.15 p.m. yesterday, - having accomplished the journey in three days, twenty-three hours, 57 minutes, at an average speed of 30.63 knots as compared with the "Normandie's" 30.31, on the longer route, thus making a double record on the round voyage. This record must stand for three months before the award is made and it is considered certain that the "Normandie" will challenge again while the weather holds.

NON-INTERVENTION AGREEMENT

Replies favourable to the proposal with which Great Britain and France have already associated themselves, for a Committee which might sit in London for the purpose of keeping the Governments in contact regarding the execution of the non-intervention agreement, have been received from a number of other powers including Italy.

The projected Committee would be purely of an advisory character and would have for its principal function the exchange of information as to the actual measures taken to prevent the export of arms, munitions, and aircraft to Spain, in accord with the programme of essentials submitted by France and accepted by other countries.

The Committee would also, presumably, consider other points arising from the non-intervention agreement and it might also serve usefully in connection with the contemplated appeal on humanitarian grounds to all the parties to the Spanish civil conflict, to abate the horrors reported from all over Spain. The British representatives to serve on the Committee have not yet been chosen. It is reported from Spain that the insurgents captured Mount Buruntea, near San Sebastian yesterday in a surprise attack, all the defenders being killed. Three thousand women and children crossed the French frontier and have been placed in a refugee camp.

GREAT WELCOME FOR "QUEEN MARY"

The Cunard White Star liner "Queen Mary" had a tumultuous welcome from vast crowds, afloat and ashore, when she reached Southampton yesterday afternoon at the end of a double record-breaking voyage across the Atlantic and back.

The liner, which had a crowded escort of pleasure steamers, private yachts and speed boats up Southampton Water, docked at 12.40 to the noise of hundreds of sirens, breaking through the drone of many aeroplanes circling overhead.

This reception recalled the enthusiasm of last March when the mighty ship first came to her home port.

Referring to the recapture of the Blue Riband of the Atlantic for Great Britain, Sir Edgar Britten, and the Chief Engineer, Mr. Llewellyn Roberts, both stressed the reserves of power which the ship still possessed. At the ceremony at Liverpool Sir Percy Bates, the Chairman of the White Star Line, explained that the fast run had been made at this stage in the liner's career principally to obtain technical data for the design of the sister ship, 55, the keel of which will be laid in the Clydeside Yard of the "Queen Mary's" builders - John Brown, in a few months' time. From this point of view, he said, the record breaking voyage had yielded important and valuable information.

YACHT "NAHLIN" HITS BRIDGE

The Yacht "Nahlin", on which the King is making a holiday cruise and which is expected, after leaving Greek waters to proceed to Gallipoli, when passing through the narrow channel of Euripos yesterday, struck the bridge at Chalcis, between the island of Euboea and the mainland. The impact was not severe and the only damage was to the ship's boat.

On His Majesty's return from the cruise he is going to Balmoral, and the newspapers anticipate that when he later comes to London he will take up residence at Buckingham Palace.

SOLO FLIGHT ACROSS ATLANTIC

Mrs. Beryl Markham of Kenya, who is contemplating a solo flight across the Atlantic, has chosen Abingdon aerodrome as her place of departure as it provides space for the extra long run required by a machine over-loaded with fuel at the start.

NEWS IN BRIEF .

London The fourth annual report of the League Loans Committee indicates that of the £81,000,000 in loans issued, Austria, Danzig, Estonia and Hungary have fulfilled their obligations but the position of Bulgaria and Greece is unsatisfactory.

Washington Roosevelt has accepted in principle the scheme suggested by agricultural leaders for providing Government insurance against drought and other causes of failure, and creating an "ever normal granary". It is estimated that the insurance of all staple crops could be self supporting if the state paid the initial expenses, estimated at 25,000,000 dollars annually, which is considerably below the average spent on relieving impoverished farmers. The President has provisionally promised the conference of farm leaders that after the elections he will discuss the operation of the scheme.

Trotsky has admitted to the police that he had contact with an international group of supporters and had advised them with regard to current problems. Two of his secretaries have been arrested and deported. It is reported from Moscow that a ruthless campaign to stamp out anti-Stalin opposition continues.

ALTERATIONS TO THE HOSPITAL

The alterations and improvements to the Hospital are almost completed, and we understand that special hospital beds, with the necessary equipment, arrived by the last mail and have been installed.

We are glad to see that as a result of the improvements more wards have been prepared with a northerly aspect.

It is expected that the alterations and improvements will be finally completed by the end of the year.

The "Queen Mary" has a garage on board which has space for 36 cars.

THE POSITION IN SPAIN

War Until End of the Winter

It is reported from Lisbon that Mola, when interviewed yesterday, said that the hour of victory is approaching but that war will continue until the end of the winter. He added that he did not believe in the neutrality of the nations and accused the French popular front of openly aiding the Spanish Marxists.

From Hendayes comes the report that fighting continued yesterday until dusk, but despite the insurgent's great superiority in artillery, the military position on the front at Irun remained practically unchanged. Although the Government troops were compelled to withdraw under heavy artillery fire on the bank of the river Bidassoa, and their position at San Marcial was constantly shelled, they did not surrender their main defences.

Twenty-seven buildings are reported to have been struck in Irun, the most serious damage occurred at the Jesuit College now used as the headquarters of the Trade Unions, and in the vicinity of the railway station. General Mola is personally conducting the attack and is making a desperate effort to capture Irun.

An unofficial estimate of the people killed and wounded as a result of yesterday's fighting is 1,600.

NO "CLOSE SEASON" FOR WHALES

It was announced last night that the British Government have decided, with great reluctance, to withdraw the regulation imposing on whaling ships registered in the United Kingdom a close season for whaling in Antarctic waters, and to impose on such ships such regulations only as are required by the 1931 International Convention for the protection of whales.

The decision to withdraw the regulation, it is stated, has been forced upon the Government by circumstances which they are powerless to control. Suggestions that Norway is the champion of the protection of whales while Great Britain stands in the way, are regarded as a complete misrepresentation of the position. So far as the British Government is concerned the question is one of securing a reasonable limitation of the number of whales killed, without unduly enhancing the price of whale oil, and of protecting British companies from the sabotage inspired by their foreign competitors.

His Majesty's Government is still prepared, if the Norwegian blockade is unconditionally withdrawn, to discuss any reasonable proposal for the limitation of the catch during the forthcoming season.

AIR PILOT FAINTS FROM EXHAUSTION

The passengers from the stranded air liner "Horsa", who are now at Karachi, tell a dramatic story of their wait for rescue.

The first day after landing the pilot captain fainted from exhaustion and over-work, then the first officer, Mr. G. Baker, collapsed, and both were placed under the wing of the machine to shelter from the heat. Without vegetation or animal life the landing place offered no sustenance and the plane's stores were rationed - 1½ cups of water twice a day and two biscuits, eked out by the heavy dew-fall collected from the surfaces of the wings. The rations were almost exhausted when the rescue was effected on Saturday.

THE "QUEEN MARY" has twenty-four motor-driven lifeboats, each can accommodate 145 people.

Each funnel has a circumference of 100 feet and could take three large locomotives side by side.

It is hoped that the preceding articles have made clear the necessity for eating more protective foods, milk, cheese, eggs, fresh fruit and vegetables. It will be noticed that fresh, uncooked fruits and vegetables are better sources of vitamin than dried cooked ones. It would not be advisable to turn into food cranks who refuse to eat anything cooked. Cooking increases the digestibility and palatability of many foods, but it tends to destroy the vitamins and to waste the mineral salts. It would be a very good thing if more uncooked food were eaten; more mustard and cress, more water and land cress, more lettuce, which can be grown and cut like mustard and cress, a little raw grated carrot is a very pleasant addition to a salad.

Tender kale leaves and chopped white heart cabbage makes excellent salads with plain French dressing of oil or vinegar. As such good potatoes can be imported it seems a pity that so many people tend to grow potatoes to the exclusion of other vegetables that cannot be obtained from elsewhere. In small gardens, the potato plot could be more profitably employed in raising a constant supply of green vegetables. It would seem hard to say eat more fruit, which is an expensive item but it must be realized that fruit is not a luxury. The real luxuries are sweets, tobacco and drinks on which money is spent willingly. By all means have these if you can afford fruit as well, but do not buy real luxuries denying yourself fruit which is really good for you.

In most parts of the world it is difficult for people to obtain enough animal protein, on account of its cost but here meat is so cheap that almost too much is eaten and it is often over-cooked. It would be far better if less muscle meat were taken and more other parts of the animal; liver and kidneys are particularly valuable, brain, tongue, sweatbreads and heart are also good.

Better still, substitute more fish and eggs for meat, or best of all take more milk and milk products.

such as cheese. Too much meat not only upsets the balance of the day's food, but also puts a great tax upon the liver and kidneys.

Mineral salts are, as we have seen, amongst the constituents that make food protective; yet these salts are very easily lost in cooking, particularly in boiling. Try not to over boil your vegetables, and do not throw away the water in which they are boiled, use it for making stock, the most valuable salts will not be wasted. Peel potatoes after boiling them; or bake them and eat them skin and all; you will get the full value of their mineral and salt content.

JAPAN'S REPLY TO BRITISH NOTE

A Note was received at the Foreign Office yesterday from the Japanese Embassy in London, containing the Japanese Government's reply to the Note sent by the British Government on the 15th of July, in which Great Britain announced its intention to invoke the Escalator Clause under the London Naval Treaty of 1930, and to keep 40,000 tons of over-age destroyers in excess of the 150,000 tons permitted under Article 16 of the Treaty. In their Note, the Japanese Government state their intention in these circumstances to keep 15,598 tons of submarines, as well as 11,059 tons of destroyers in excess of the Treaty figures, to make up an extra 28,000 tons to which they become entitled in view of the British invocation of the Escalator Clause. The reason given is that they have not sufficient over-age destroyer tonnage alone to make up the total. The Japanese Government in their Note do not adduce any legal arguments to support the correctness of their proposed action under the terms of the London Treaty, and the position is now under the consideration of the British Government.

IRUN IN DESPERATE FLIGHT

TERRIBLE BLOODSHED FORECAST

It is reported from Hendayes that Irun is now in a desperate plight with the insurgents almost on the outskirts of the town and the defenders driven back from their key positions.

The defenders of Lapuncha offered desperate resistance and the Government troops clung to their positions under a withering hail of machine-gun and rifle fire, but at 6 p.m. Lapuncha was finally stormed, thus completing the capture of Turiarte Ridge and enabling the insurgents to bring San Marcial under direct artillery fire. Later the insurgents launched a violent attack on San Marcial, the attackers being met by occasional rifle fire, but from a vantage point on the French frontier the Government troops did not appear to offer much resistance; meanwhile the foreign legionaries advanced on Behobia, the defenders slowly retreating but contesting every yard of the ground. The insurgents' advance guards reached the gates of Behobia 5.15 p.m. when fighting in the streets began, the Government militia taking advantage of every scrap of cover, prepared to fight to the bitter end.

It is estimated that thousands of refugees crossed the frontier yesterday.

Preparations for a stern fight have been made in Irun where the defenders have barricaded the streets and manned strategic positions. It is expected that as a result of this battle the death roll and bloodshed will be tremendous.

INDISPOSITION OF FOREIGN

SECRETARY

The slight indisposition of the Foreign Secretary was announced on Wednesday night. It is now learned that Mr. Anthony Eden is suffering from chicken pox which will necessitate his remaining away from the Foreign Office for a short time. The attack is not serious and he will be in touch with his department by telephone. He expects to be fully recovered in time to lead the British delegation to the League Assembly. Mr. Eden returned from his recent holiday very well and this chance infection, with the restrictions it necessitates, has come at a most inconvenient time when he has a heavy programme of work before him in connection with the forthcoming League Meetings at which the question of League reform will come up for consideration, and negotiations arising from the communique of July 23rd. The Foreign Secretary, however, although away from his desk, will not depart from his intention of devoting a the next fortnight to preparations through diplomatic channels, for the Five Power Conference.

LONDON-JOHANNESBURG AIR RACE

The final details completing the intricate organisation of the Schlesinger air race from London to Johannesburg on September 29th, for which fourteen well-known British racing airmen have entered, were issued on Tuesday night by the racing committee of the Royal Aero-Club.

The race will begin from Portsmouth airport at 6.15 a.m. The machines will start at intervals of one minute and these differences in time will be adjusted at Cairo, which is the only official control in the race, although the competitors must be seen turning at Zuinun Aerodrome at Belgrade.

Imperial Airways have undertaken the responsibility of the airport lighting and ground control at all the known airports on the route between Cairo and Johannesburg. The airports will remain lighted all night during the nights of September 29th and 30th and on October 1st.

NEGOTIATIONS REGARDING NON-INTERVENTION IN SPAIN

If the reply of the German Government, which it is hoped will be received shortly, is favourable in principle to the proposed international committee for the exchange of information regarding the non-intervention in Spain, the negotiations should, in the British view, be brought to a conclusion without delay and the first meeting of the Committee might be held at an early date. In the meantime, in anticipation of the International Committee, the British Government has set up an inter-departmental Committee which met yesterday and discussed the efficacy of the measures the Government has put into operation to prevent the export of arms, munitions and aircraft to Spain. The Committee, upon which all the Government departments concerned are represented, and over which Mr. W.S. Morrison the Financial Secretary to the Treasury presided, also investigated the possibility of enforcing additional measures such as the non-interventionist powers might consider applying after the International Committee has made a review of the position and reported.

AIRMEN FORCED TO LAND IN WALES

The Atlantic flyers, Richman and Merrill, who left New York on Wednesday night, made a forced landing yesterday afternoon in a small field near Llwynoelyan in Wales owing to petrol shortage. The fuel was at once sent by air from Croydon to Carmarthenshire so that the American Airmen could continue their flight, but it was not expected that they would be able to take off again for Croydon until this morning.

SAFETY CLOTHING FOR MINERS

Some remarkable instances of the reduction in the injury rates in mines, by the use of safety clothing, are given in the annual report of the Safety in Mines Research Board, just issued. Chief among these is the improvement in head injury rate, obtained by the use of hard hats, which in several cases has been so marked that the colliery owners indemnity companies have found it worth while to contribute towards the cost of equipping the workmen with hard hats.

REGARDING WHALING

It is understood that the Norwegian whaling crews want to limit the catch to 2,000,000 barrels but the Unilever Co., want 2,500,000. The dispute ended with the blockade of English ships in Sandefjord and Messrs. Tonsberg, Salvesen and Unilever sent English crews to Sandefjord to remove the ships to England, but most of these crews returned when they heard the real cause for the blockade but the Companies concerned succeeded in removing the ships with unorganised crews. The blockade ended on Thursday but nothing is known up to now as to the agreements reached. It is reported to be probable that Messrs. Salvesen and Unilever will catch with English and Scotch crews. Up to now they have employed about 2,000 men from Norway on English whalers.

DISORDER IN PALESTINE ..

In the face of the continued disorder in Palestine it is known that the British Government has under consideration the re-inforcement of the military garrisons there. It has already been announced that the training of the first army division has been cancelled and the division has returned to Aldershot from the manoeuvre area.

The War Office stated last night that a number of reservists in Section "A" of the Army Reserve are being called up. This action is being taken solely for the purpose of bringing up to the establishment certain units which may be required for the reinforcement of the Palestine Garrison if they are sent.

The section of the Army Reserve in question consists of a limited number of men who undertake to come up for service if called upon, without the issue of a proclamation.

MINERS' STRIKE AVERTED

The threatened stoppage in the South Wales coalfields to-day has been averted by a last minute settlement, reached as a result of the efforts of the mines department, and the strike notices issued by the South Wales Miners' Federation have been withdrawn. The notices were posted as a result of a refusal by the owners of the Bedwas Colliery to accept the Federation's proposal for an independent ballot on one of the questions in the dispute, - the desire or otherwise of the miners at Bedwas to belong to the Federation, or to continue as members of a rival organisation for whom the employers collect dues by deductions from wages - or to meet the Federation leaders.

The Mines Secretary has now obtained an agreement from the Colliery Company to meet the Federation Officials under a neutral Chairman nominated by himself, early this week to hear the latter's case and to discuss the question of a secret and independent ballot.

The owners say that they have made this offer which has been accepted by the Federation solely in order to avoid what they describe as a national calamity in the stopping of the South Wales coalfields.

IMPORTANT STATEMENT REGARDING

BRITISH GOVERNMENT'S POLICY IN REGARD TO PALESTINE

An important statement of His Majesty's Government's policy in connection with the situation in Palestine has been issued from the Colonial Office. It states, in short, that the situation which has been created in Palestine is a direct challenge to the authority of the British Government in Palestine. The statement proceeds with a rehearsal of the successive announcements relating to the Royal Commission, and reports the Colonial Secretary's assurance that the Commission will undertake its duties of investigation of the causes of unrest and alleged grievance, either of the Arabs or the Jews, as soon as order has been restored in Palestine - an essential condition to enable it to perform them effectively. In the more general reflections on the policy, with which it concludes, the statement reproduces the declaration of the League's permanent Mandate Commission in 1930, that obligations laid down in the Mandate for Palestine in regard to two sections of the population are of equal weight and that the two obligations imposed upon the Mandatory are in no sense irreconcilable, and continues "His Majesty's Government are fully in accord with the sense of this pronouncement and it is their earnest desire to carry out a

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF DIPLOMATS TO MEET TO-MORROW

The British Government have notified the Governments concerned that the first meeting of the International Committee of Diplomats to deal with the matters rising from the Agreement for non-intervention in the Spanish Civil War will be held at the Foreign Office to-morrow morning.

The chair will be taken in the absence of Mr. Eden by Mr. W.S. Morrison the Financial Secretary to the Treasury who will be the chief representative of the Government.

Mr. Morrison is also Chairman of the British inter-departmental committee which has been set up in connection with the same question.

It is hoped in London that the final reply of the Portuguese Government, to whom explanations regarding the Committee's proposed work have been furnished similar to those given in Berlin, will have been received before to-morrow and that the Portuguese representatives will be present at the first meeting.

The number of countries represented on the Committee will be approximately twenty-four.

POISON GAS THREATENED

In view of the reports that the Spanish rebels have threatened to use poison gas as a reprisal for a similar action alleged to have been taken already by the Spanish Government forces, Mr. Ogilvie Forbes, the British Charge d' Affaires in Madrid, has been instructed to approach the Madrid Government to ascertain the facts and to make clear the serious view which would be taken of any such action by outside public opinion. At the same time the British Ambassador to Spain, Sir Henry Chilton, now at Hendaye, has been asked to try to secure the co-operation of the Diplomatic corps in conveying to the rebel forces also a warning of the grave consequences which might follow the use of poison gas in the prosecution of a Civil conflict.

The British Government has no evidence that poison gas has been used by either side.

Messages from St. Jean de Luz state that it is understood that the work of the diplomatic conference striving to "humanise" the Civil War is being hampered by the attitude of the Madrid Government whose representatives are at present unwilling to reach an agreement and the latest suggestions of the diplomatic corps were met with an emphatic refusal.

AIR RAIDS IN MADRID

Rebel air raids are re-curring in Madrid, causing the authorities to take extensive measures to meet the danger. The street lamps have been painted dark blue and air raid shelters have been provided at various points and underground stations are open nightly. The food shortage is assuming serious proportions while the British-American Club is faced with closing down owing to its greatly reduced membership.

BRITISH POLICY RE. PALESTINE

policy of impartial justice to both the Arabs and Jews and to work for the peace and progress of the country so specially dear to both races. It has been the constant aim of the British policy to secure and maintain relations of friendship and confidence with the Moslem peoples. For this reason, apart from all others His Majesty's Government would have wished to avoid the course of action which has now been forced upon them. But no Government, least of all a Government exercising Mandatory responsibilities can allow themselves to be deflected from their course by violence and outrage. It is still their hope however that when those who are disturbing the peace of Palestine have been brought to realise that their present actions are inimical to the true interests of all sections of the population and to the country as a whole, and that the Mandatory Government is determined to exercise its authority with impartiality and justice, it will be possible for the Royal Commission to proceed to Palestine." Finally, the Government state that their confident hope is that "the Royal Commission will make recommendations which will enable them to bring finality to the situation of doubt and fear on both sides and that out of the tragic misunderstandings and disorder of the last five months, a lasting settlement can be reached."

After a careful review of the whole situation His Majesty's Government are satisfied that the campaign of violence and threats of violence by which the Arab leaders are attempting to influence the policy of His Majesty's Government cannot be allowed to continue and that a more rapid and effective action must now be taken in order to bring the present state of disorder to an end with the least possible delay. With this in view it has been considered essential to send further substantial reinforcements to Palestine. An additional division of troops is accordingly being sent there and in view of the size of the reinforcement and of additional responsibilities entailed, it has been decided that supreme military control in the country shall be entrusted to a Lieutenant-General. The Officer selected for this Command is Lieutenant-General J.G. Dill, late Director General of the Military operations and Intelligence at the War Office. His Majesty's Government deeply regret that such decisions should have been forced upon them. Great Britain accepted the Mandate for Palestine upon terms which involve responsibility for the welfare of all sections of the population of Palestine. They regard this responsibility as a trust which they have no choice but to carry out.

DECLINE IN UNEMPLOYMENT INGREAT BRITAIN.

The decline of unemployment in Great Britain continues. The Ministry of Labour provisionally estimates that at the 24th of August the number of insured persons aged 16 to 64 in employment in Great Britain exclusive of agricultural workers was approximately 10,961,000 - 66,000 more than the month before and 500,000 more than in the year before.

At the same date the numbers of registered unemployed in Great Britain were 1,613,940, comprising 1,297,596 wholly unemployed, 244,874 temporarily laid off and 71,470 normally in casual employment. This total was 38,132 less than at the twentieth of July last and 334,024 less than a year ago, despite the increase of the number of unemployed boys and girls between the 20th of July and the 24th of August of 19,227 owing largely to the registration of juveniles who left school at the end of the summer term.

CONGRATULATIONS TO AIRWOMAN

The Air Secretary, Lord Swinton, has sent to Mrs. Beryl Markham, the Kenya Airwoman and the first woman pilot to fly solo across the north Atlantic from east to west, a telegram of "heartly congratulations on your splendid achievement". Leaving Abingdon Aerodrome on Friday evening in her Perceval Gull Aeroplane Mrs. Markham was forced to land in Nova Scotia on Saturday afternoon by a lack of petrol, after an arduous flight against strong winds and through fog.

He will continue to maintain close touch with his colleagues on questions of major importance, but it is not expected that he will return to Downing Street until some time in October. It is understood that Mr. Baldwin has asked Mr. Neville Chamberlain to take his place at a mass meeting in connection with the Conservative Party Conference which will be held at Margate on the 2nd of October and at which the Premier was to have been the principal speaker.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING

A message from Vienna states that King Edward, accompanied by his Equerry, visited Professor Heinrich Neumann the famous ear specialist yesterday, remaining with him for nearly an hour.

Secrecy is maintained regarding the purpose of the visit but it is believed to be in connection with the treatment King Edward received from Professor Neumann in the autumn of 1935 when it was suggested that the King's ear should be examined in about a year's time. It is reliably stated that the matter is not serious but Professor Neumann will probably carry out similar treatment to-day or on Thursday.

"MOCK TRIAL" IN SCHOOLROOM

The Tabernacle schoolroom was crowded last night when a "Mock Trial" was conducted by Mr. W.H. Sedgwick as Judge. The case in point was whether or not Mr. James McArthur Adolphus Finch had murdered the favourite rooster belonging to his neighbour Mrs. de Rascal.

Witnesses, in what can only be described as impressive clothing, came forward and gave what we felt to be rather biased evidence on the part of two of the ladies, while a jury composed of ladies of fashion and one man, studied the rights and wrongs of the case.

We were filled with admiration

NEW ISSUE OF COLONIAL STAMPS

Arrangements are being made for a new issue at or about the date of the Coronation next year of Colonial Stamps bearing the King's effigy. The new issues will be confined at first to a few denominations for each territory and will be based on a common design.

The stamps will form part of the new permanent issues and will not be special Coronation issues.

No such special Coronation issues for the Colonies are at present in contemplation. The stamps will be of standard size. The design comprises a three-quarter profile vignette of the King's head in a circle placed towards the top left-hand corner of the stamp, with the Imperial Crown in the top right-hand corner. The name of the territory is shown beneath the vignette.

The duty tablet is shewn at the bottom right-hand corner and the denomination appears in words at the base of the stamp.

The above arrangements will apply to Aden, the Bahamas, Bermuda, British Guiana, British Honduras, British Solomon Is, and Protectorate, Ceylon, Cyprus, Falkland Islands, Fiji, Gambia, Gibraltar, Gilbert and Ellice Islands, the Gold Coast, Hong Kong, Jamaica and Dependencies, Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika Territory, the Leeward Islands,

IMPROVING ROUGH GRAZINGS IN GALLOWAY

H.M.Young, N.D.A., N.D.D., C.D.A.D.

The following has been taken from the Scottish Journal of Agriculture, April, 1936.

"In his recent book "The land Now and To-morrow" Professor Stapledon mentions the pioneer work done in the improvement of rough grazings by Mr. A. Allan, Auchenleck, Minnigaff. In view of the attention thus drawn to these improvements, and of the increased interest taken in them, this further record of the work is now given.

Auchenleck sheep farm lies in the parish of Minnigaff, about  $4\frac{1}{2}$  miles north-north-east of Newton Stewart. The farm-house, which stands at the lower end of the farm, is easily reached by road via Cumloden and Glenshalloch.

There are many acres of flat and slightly sloping land in Glenshalloch drained by the Fenkiln burn, on whose right banks, and abutting on the road, lie the originally improved grazings of Auchenleck. The altitude of these grazings is about 300 feet. There are no deep drains, and only a few shallow sheep drains operate in suitable places.

The soil is a dark brown peat overlying the white "till" or clay so typical of the district. In its original state this peat is very fibrous and flaky; indeed, when a block is removed it is found to be difficult to break down by hand. Its depth varies from  $2\frac{1}{2}$  feet to greater amounts. It seems to be more than ordinarily retentive of moisture.

In the original state, the surface is fairly flat but distinctly tussocky. There are no moss hags and no deep crevices of any kind to prevent carting.

The herbage is what one would expect to find in these circumstances. Nardus is plentiful, and there is some cotton grass; but Sphagnum Moss, Spruit, Rush, a little poor heather and a plentiful sprinkling of bog myrtle complete the list of plants to be found in the natural sward. No clover, good grazing grass or Yorkshire Fog is evident; indeed in the natural state it was a waste place.

It is quite certain that sheep did not do well when grazed there. It was regarded as a "deathly" place. In October 1920 an attempt to winter 20 hogs resulted in a death rate of 30 per cent. No hay was ever cut, burning being carried out each spring when the conditions allowed.

In October 1922 Mr. Allan put light dressings of basic slag on patches of ground over the area. No improvement was observable in the summer of 1923. In October 1923 and 1924 basic slag was again applied to patches of the area, and in the springs succeeding about 80 lb. per acre of hay loft sweepings were scattered from a cart over the slagged areas.

In the summers of 1924 and 1925 it could be seen that White Clover and Yorkshire Fog had taken root. With this encouragement, Mr. Allan embarked on a definite scheme for the improvement of from 30 to 40 acres of the waste land annually.

In October 1925 he applied 6 cwt. of 26 per cent basic slag per acre to 40 acres, and in the spring of 1926, loft sweepings not being available, he purchased seed cleanings from a local firm and sowed these broadcast at the rate of 100 lbs. per acre.

From the summer of 1926 hay has been cut annually on this area, and the yield has varied from 30 to 40 cwt. per acre. Even at the first cutting a change in the herbage was evident. Yorkshire Fog was present in abundance, while White Clover, Crested Dogtail, Cocksfoot, Ryegrasses and Meadow Grasses were to be found scattered throughout the hay. With each succeeding year, the White Clover, Crested Dogtail, Meadow Grasses and Cocksfoot have definitely increased in quantity. The bog-myrtle bushes have disappeared, while rushes and Cotton Grass are only to be found in places somewhat inaccessible to the manure sower - i.e. at dyke backs and along the edges of drains."

FRENCH NATIONAL DEFENCE

It is reported from Paris that the Council Ministers have authorised extra expenditure of 56,000,000 francs this year on national defence, and President Lebrun has signed a decree permitting the spending of 1,350,000 francs on the navy.

These sums are in addition to the normal defence budget of £180,000,000 annually to provide for the extension of the Maginot line on the Belgian and Swiss frontiers, the formation of specialist corps in all branches of the army and the air force, the increased mechanised divisions of the air force and armaments generally.

The total cost of the four years' programme will be 14,000,000,000 francs.

NEW ISSUE OF COLONIAL STAMPS

The stamps will be printed by the "recess" process except in the case of the Gold Coast which will continue to use photogravure process as adopted in 1928 and except possibly in the case of Aden.

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING

The opening meeting of the International Committee for the application of the Agreement regarding non-intervention in Spain was held in the Locarno Room of the Foreign Office yesterday morning.

The Ambassadors of Belgium, France, Italy and Poland and the Ministers of Bulgaria, Greece, Latvia, Lithuania, the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden were present, together with the High Commissioner for the Irish Free State. Czechoslovakia, Germany, Russia, Turkey, Yugo Slavia and eight other countries were represented by their Charges d' Affaires.

The British representative was Mr. W.S. Morrison, Financial Secretary to the Treasury. The Parliamentary Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Lord Cranborne, was also present.

On the proposal of the French Ambassador Mr. W.S. Morrison was elected Chairman.

After a general discussion on the scope of the work of the Committee it was proposed that the several delegations should, as soon as possible, furnish the Committee with particulars regarding the legislative and other steps taken by their respective Governments to give effect to the Agreement for Non-Intervention. It was agreed that this proposal should be referred to the Governments represented on the Committee for their consideration.

The Committee also took note of the fact that the text of the notes exchanged between the French Government and the other Governments constituting the Agreement would be published by the French Government when the assent of the other Governments had been obtained.

The Committee expressed the wish to meet again as soon as possible. The second meeting will accordingly be summoned by the Chairman as soon as in his judgement sufficient material has been received for that purpose. It is understood that during the course of the meeting the absence of the representative from Portugal, one of the limitrophe powers, was mentioned with regret and the hope was expressed by more than one speaker that the Portuguese Government would be represented at the next meeting.

MESSAGE FOR TROOPS LEAVING FORPALESTINE

A special order of the day addressed to all the troops of the First Division who are embarking for Palestine, by the Commander-in-Chief at Aldershot, said "I cannot let you leave without wishing you Good Luck during what I hope and believe will only be a short visit to Palestine. Remember that the maintenance of law and order is a thankless task which brings little honour or reward but entails heavy responsibilities. The fame of the British Army stands high as a result of many such arduous tasks. I know you all well enough to be completely satisfied that this great reputation is safe in your hands and that when you return you will have raised it to even higher levels."

A message from Marseilles states that Lieutenant-General Dill, the newly-appointed Commander in Palestine embarked on the destroyer "Douglas" there yesterday afternoon.

LULL IN FIGHTING IN SPAIN

It is reported from St. Jean de Luz that there has been a two days' lull in the fighting at San Sebastian though the town is surrounded by insurgents. This strengthens the report of a truce while the rebel press announces that negotiations have been opened indirectly at Madrid's request for a fortnight's armistice.

Two insurgent columns have joined and are advancing on Madrid and General Franco is landing numerous Moors and Legionaries from Morocco. The insurgent cavalry captured Pico Pass in an attack at dawn yesterday, thus facilitating their advance on Madrid.

URGENT REPRESENTATIONS MADE TO

During the last few days the British Government have caused repeated and urgent representations to be made in Lisbon and they are still in touch through the British Ambassador, Sir Charles Wingfield, with the Portuguese Government regarding Portugal's membership of the Committee of Application. The Portuguese Government are aware of the general character of the proceedings at Wednesday's meeting of the Committee at which they were not represented.

FLYING BOAT FLEET LAUNCHED

The second of a fleet of twenty-nine Empire Flying Boats under construction by Short Brothers, was launched at Rochester yesterday.

Originally intended for preliminary long distance experimental flights in connection with the North Atlantic air mail route this boat "Caledonia" will, owing to the loss of the "Scipio" off Crete recently, have to go with the "Canopus" the first of the new craft, into regular service in the Mediterranean on Empire routes. This will mean a delay of six weeks or more in the starting of the long range test flights which will now probably nearly coincide with the early flights of the Mayo Composite Craft specially designed for the North Atlantic service.

LEATH WATCH BEETLE ATTACKS THEATRE

The Sheldonian Theatre, one of the most famous buildings in Oxford and designed by Sir Christopher Wren, has been attacked by the death watch beetle to such an extent that it has been found necessary to close it for six months while steps are taken to ascertain the damage.

CHURCH BELLS MAKE ARMoured CARS

Reinforcements in Madrid

It is reported from Madrid that the Garrison has been reinforced by the arrival of 5,000 militia from Catalonia - said to be "in exchange for one-third of the gold reserve in the Bank of Spain".

All the Church bells are to be melted to make armoured cars.

It is reported from Tangier that the German cruiser "Nurnberg" and the Portuguese destroyer "Tejo" have left there, presumably for Portugal. A message from Washington states that Mr. Cordell Hull has announced that the cruiser "Quincey" and the destroyers "Kane" & "Hatfield" and the coastguard cutter "Cayuga" have been ordered to withdraw from Spanish waters and to proceed to nearby neutral ports to await possible emergency calls. The American Government's representatives in Spain have been told to remain at their posts as long as they safely can but have been given their full discretion to close their offices and flee from the country if necessary.

45,000 MEN PARADE BEFORE

HERR HITLER

In Nuremburg yesterday "Labour Service Day", the Labour Corps, 45,000 strong, shouldering spades, bearing drums and with flags flying, goose-stepped before Herr Hitler on the vast parade ground there.

This Corps of 45,000 included 10,000 brown young men stripped to the waist who were greeted with wild enthusiasm by the crowd.

Herr Hitler in his address described the Labour Service Corps as a High School for Nazi training. He said "In Marxist countries the towns are being burned, the villages being shot to pieces, one class is fighting another and fathers are killing one another, but we have chosen a different course - instead of separating you we unite you."

FIRST EDITOR OF THE "PENGUIN" IN ABYSSINIA

Captain J.K. Nethercoate

The following extract is taken from "The Bournemouth Daily Echo" of July 1st, 1936.

"During the Italian advance in the recent war in Abyssinia there was in the Ethiopian capital, Addis Ababa, a Bournemouth man, the only Britisher in the service of the Abyssinian Government.

He is Captain J. Keith Nethercoate, the son of Alderman J.A. Nethercoate, J.P., and he has now returned to his home. It was in October 1935 that he reached the country to take charge of the Government's technical services, and he remained until the day of the Emperor's departure. 'That last day in the stricken capital was one of the most interesting days in my life.' Captain Nethercoate told an 'Echo' reporter. 'The scenes when the mob broke loose were indescribable. The only upheaval that I have ever experienced similar to it was that which occurred in the European War when the Arab king, Fiesal, left Damascus. It was just a mad lawless turmoil. There was not a quiet corner in the whole city. I had to leave Addis Ababa in a special train following the King, and owing to the disturbance was only able to get away with the clothes I stood in and with my pockets filled with native money and two small souvenirs. Everything else was left behind for the mob. Every Sunday evening at half-past nine, local time, right up to the time Haile Selassie left, I used to broadcast from one of the Government's radio stations in the capital. I received many letters about these talks and quite a number came from the Bournemouth district. I remember that one was from someone in Charminster road, and others came from Ferndown, New Milton and the Isle of Wight. Apart from these, thousands of letters came from all parts of the world expressing sympathy with the Abyssinian cause.' Many people, apparently thinking the broadcaster was an Ethiopian, wrote complimenting him upon the way he spoke the English language and one correspondent remarked 'you speak as though you had been born in England'.

Captain Nethercoate described life in Addis Ababa as being full of thrills during the latter stages of the Italian advance, when their aeroplanes from Dessie came over machine-gunning the city. One of his officers, a Swiss, carried on his work with hands badly burned from the corrosive fluid which struck him in one of these raids. All the officers with whom he worked in the country were either German, Swiss or Austrian. Curiously enough he shared a house in Addis Ababa with the same officer with whom he had quartered at Haifa in Palestine after the European War. In his Department in Addis Ababa were the two sons of Dr. Martin, the Ethiopian Minister in London, both of whom had engineering degrees. Captain Nethercoate's work in the capital was to organise the technical services, and although the technical equipment was as good or better than any in use in Europe, there was not sufficient time to train the staff to get the full value of it.

Of the country and its people Captain Nethercoate is full of praise. In Addis Ababa at night he says, it was no uncommon sight to see taxicabs and hyenas running about the streets together. It is a country where strawberries grow all the year round. The two souvenirs which Captain Nethercoate has brought home with him are the small silk national flag which was carried on the Emperor's motor-car, and the official rubber stamp of his department, bearing the Ethiopian lion. Captain Nethercoate is still in touch with the Emperor of Ethiopia."

DISCUSSION OF NAVAL QUESTIONS

A meeting has been arranged to take place at the Foreign Office on Tuesday next between representatives of the British Government and the Norwegian, Swedish, Danish and Finnish Governments to discuss naval questions.

The purpose of these conversations will be the same as in the case of recent discussions with Russia and Poland and of those which have been begun with Germany - namely the conclusion of the bi-lateral agreements extending the London Naval Treaty. There will be present, on the British Government side, representatives of the Foreign Office and of the Admiralty and the visiting Governments are sending special naval experts.

NEW TRADE AGREEMENT

On the 2nd of September a new trade and clearing agreement, the text of which was published last night, was signed between the United Kingdom and Turkey.

It comes into force on the 17th of September and replaces the Trade and Payments Agreement signed on the 4th of June 1935.

The articles relating to trade repeat the substance of the corresponding articles of the Agreement of June 1935 but the effect of the provisions for payment is to place Anglo-Turkish trade in the future on a full clearing basis. Of the sums received by the clearing office, 70% will be used for the settlement of debts in respect of the United Kingdom goods exported to Turkey, and 30% will be placed at the free disposal of the Central Bank of Turkey. Provision is made for compensation transactions involving the exchange of certain goods between Turkey and the United Kingdom and also for the import of certain Turkish goods into the United Kingdom in settlement of outstanding trade debts. The effect of the new agreement should be to reduce materially the delays in payment which are at present experienced by the United Kingdom traders as is shown by the fact that over £1,000,000 was blocked in Turkey awaiting payment to the United Kingdom creditors at the end of August.

The Reverend Gerald Kenneth Lowe, of Murillo, Ontario, Canada, has been chosen by the Bishop from numerous applicants for the Senior Chaplaincy in the Falkland Islands. His Lordship the Bishop writes; "This time we have a young Canadian and his young wife and they have been accustomed to living in out of the way places in Canada. He comes with very strong recommendations from the Archbishop of Toronto."

The Reverend and Mrs. Lowe will arrive in Montevideo about the 20th of November and will reach the Falklands on the 3rd of December.

A communication has been received that the late Canon Mackain by his will bequeathed the sum of £50 to "The Trustees of Stanley Cathedral, Falkland Islands, for exterior repairs."

It will be remembered that Canon Mackain was Commissary to the late Bishop de Jersey and was an honorary Canon of Christ Church Cathedral.

The visit of Mr. O'Neill to Fitzroy was thoroughly enjoyed by young and old alike. His "talks" were instructive and his games were amusing. The "Parson" sure has a winning way "wid 'im". Our "Sheriff" is very keen on knowing "Who stole Prince Charlie's hat?"

The best of wishes to Mr. O'Neill and his "Brother" in their good work.

FIERCE FIGHTING CONTINUES IN SPAIN.

It is reported from Madrid that thousands of men women and children are holding out against the Government forces at Alcazar and Toledo and are determined to fight until death rather than surrender. They asked the besiegers to send a priest in order that they might die as Christians. This request was granted but the bombardment which has already demolished three-quarters of the fortresses was resumed when the priests had entered.

INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING.

It has been arranged that the next meeting of the International Committee for the application of the Agreement regarding non-intervention in Spain, shall be held at the Foreign Office at 4 p.m. on Monday afternoon. The French Government has now made public the text of the notes exchanged between itself and nineteen of the other Governments constituting the Agreement.

In connection with the collation of the legislative and other steps taken by the various non-interventionist Governments to give effect to the Agreement, which was one of the matters discussed at the first Meeting last Wednesday, it is understood that a considerable number of Governments have already furnished the necessary information. A dozen or more replies are still awaited. All the representatives on the International Committee are co-operating to advance its work. The absence of the Portuguese representative at Wednesday's meeting was noted by more than one member of the Committee with regret and it was stated in London yesterday that the British Ambassador in Lisbon, Sir Charles Wingfield, had been again instructed to support further representations which the French Government had caused to be made in the hope that the Portuguese Government would decide to participate in the Committee's work before the next meeting. Similar representations have been made to the Portuguese Government through their Charge d'Affaires in London.

TIDAL WAVE KILLS 50 PEOPLE

It is reported from Oslo that fifty people were killed and sixty were injured yesterday when an avalanche from the Raven Mountain raised a tidal wave on Lake Loen which engulfed the village of Nesdal leaving only four houses standing. Relief planes were sent immediately from Bergen.

There was an almost similar disaster in 1905 when sixty people were killed.

F.I.D.F. MINIATURE RIFLE CLUB

The annual matches for the Colonial Small Bore Trophy and the Dominions Teams' Competition were shot off in the Drill Hall on Wednesday and Thursday. These are postal shoots which means that all cards are forwarded to London where they are gauged and the Statistical Officer of the S.M.R.C. decides the positions of the various teams in the different competitions.

The scores made by our teams this year are a little disappointing, most of the members in the Colonial Shoot doing very well, but a few did not shoot as well as was anticipated, with the result that our total may be about the same as last year when the final scores are received, although at present this is reckoned as being six points below.

The "A" team in the Dominions Teams' Competition shot very much below the standard of recent years and the "B" and "C" are level on points. This is the first year that three teams have been entered for this event and it is by having as many members as possible shooting in the representative matches that a higher standard can be reached. Now that clubs are being formed in the Camp some of the Station teams may feel that they would like to enter for this Competition (teams of 6), and in time a very strong team to represent the Islands will be formed.

The conditions for the Small Bore Trophy were altered after the first year so that a member of any team could shoot under witness on his own range and be included in the Colonial Team. The cards would then be gathered at a Central Club and posted together.

Knowing the abilities of some of our Camp members we are hopeful that we may be able to put stronger teams up in the future. Judging from the scores of recent years we think that our team will take one of the leading positions because our score is still better than the one which got third place in the Trophy last year.

His Excellency the Governor and Major the Honourable M.J. Stewart were present during the first evening's shoot and the Honourable G. Roberts signed all the cards and witnessed the shooting throughout. The following are the scores:-

WELCOME FOR ROOSEVELT

It is reported from Charlotte, in North Carolina, that President Roosevelt was tumultuously welcomed at a monster rally there on Saturday and spoke from the 25th Psalm declaring that while the New Deal is the country's shepherd "it will not want aiming to lead the people to the green pastures." The New Deal meant irrigation, better soil, higher wages, and security for the townsman, he said.

The President drove unprotected from the heavy rain through cheering crowds of people.

A message from Chicago states that the Independent progressive leaders expected to support Mr. Roosevelt include the Governor of Minnesota and Governor Peterson.

HITLER ADDRESSES 250,000

According to the Daily Telegraph Correspondent the Fuhrer spoke for ten minutes but is reserving his big speech for -to-day.

On Saturday the proceedings opened in Nuremburg with the flight of 400 war planes over the town followed by a March Past of 90,000 political officers.

FLYING BOAT'S TEST FLIGHT

The giant flying boat "Caledonia", the second of the 29 aircraft now being built for the Imperial Airways Empire routes was launched at Rochester on Friday and underwent test flights which were stated to be satisfactory. Meanwhile the flying boat "Canopus" which is the first of the series, is nearly ready for the acceptance tests of Imperial Airways. The "Canopus" is regarded by builders and other experts who have inspected her as being a model of what an efficient and luxurious flying boat should be. The "Times" says that she gives every promise of surviving her owners' trials with credit.

INSURGENTS NEED A REST

It is reported from San Sebastian that the Insurgents' leader has ordered five days' rest for the troops before resuming the advance on Bilbao. There are 40,000 troops defending the town but they have hardly any arms or ammunition. The United States Consul and other nationals were evacuated from Bilbao by a United States destroyer yesterday.

On Sunday the insurgents captured San Sebastian, meeting with no resistance. The militia which had been stationed at San Sebastian has withdrawn to Bilbao.

The King landed at Heathrow Aerodrome, West Drayton, Middlesex, yesterday evening and drove to his residence at Fort Belvedere near Windsor.

MORE TROOPS FOR PALESTINE

Two ships, carrying nearly 3,000 troops, left Southampton for Palestine within an hour yesterday afternoon. The reservists formed half the strength.

St. John's, Newfoundland. The American airmen, Richman and Merrill, landed at 8 o'clock last night in dense fog 2½ miles from Musgrave Harbour. Both were reported to be uninjured. They have made a second record Atlantic flight. The plane's propeller has been damaged but the plane is not wrecked.

-----INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETING

The second meeting of the International Committee for the application of the Agreement regarding non-intervention in Spain, was held in the Locarno Room at the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon.

The Meeting was attended by representatives of twenty-six countries. The Committee had under consideration certain questions relating to the scope of the Agreement and the delegates undertook where necessary to obtain the instructions of their Governments at the earliest possible moment in regard to the questions submitted.

The Committee re-affirmed the resolution adopted at its first meeting that the proceedings at its meetings should be treated as strictly confidential subject to the issue of an agreed communique at the conclusion of each meeting.

After a general exchange of views it was agreed to appoint an informal sub-committee to assist the Chairman in the day-to-day work of the Committee and that this sub-committee should be composed of representatives of Belgium, the United Kingdom, Czecho-slovakia, France, Germany, Italy, Sweden and Russia.

The first meeting of this sub-committee will be held at the Foreign Office this afternoon. The Committee took note with satisfaction that the majority of the representatives had already furnished to the Secretariat copies of the legislative and administrative measures adopted by their respective countries to give effect to the Agreement for non-intervention.

SEQUEL TO INCIDENT IN HYDE PARK

At the Old Bailey yesterday George Andrew McMahon, having been acquitted on the first two counts alleging intent to endanger the life and the presentation of arms at the person of the King, was found guilty and sentenced to twelve months' hard labour upon the remaining charge relating to the incident in the Royal procession on July 16th last, namely "unlawfully and wilfully producing near the person of the King a pistol with intent to alarm His Majesty."

During the trial McMahon in the witness box made a statement conflicting with his previous statement made at the police court proceedings, and introducing a complicated story of alleged relations with representatives of a foreign power who were supposed to have offered him money to shoot the King.

In his cross examination the Attorney General said "I am going to suggest that this story of a plot is the product of your imagination." The prisoner denied this. Summing up the Judge said "I am quite satisfied that you never at any moment had any intention of harming the King. If I thought for one moment that you had had such an intention I should be bound to take the most severe measures possible, but I do not see anything in the evidence which leads to that conclusion."

EXPANSION OF OVERSEAS TRADE

Allowing for seasonal influences Britain's overseas trade continued to expand in August. The imports amounted to £66,057,087 as compared with £68,731,020 in July, and £59,146,232 in August last year.

The Exports totalled £35,258,115 as against £40,085,922 in July and £34,882,955 in August 1935.

The re-exports were £4,355,909 as compared with £4,991,716 in July and £4,185,561 a year ago.

Although the figures for imports, exports, and re-exports, are all lower than in July, they represent an increase on those of August last year and also on August of 1934.

For the first eight months of this year the imports totalled £536,624,391 - an increase of £57,579,713 on the corresponding period of 1935. The exports for the eight months totalled £283,170,234 - an increase of £5,433,283 as compared with 1935 and of £28,080,910 as compared with the corresponding period of 1934. The export of manufactured goods has risen by £4,707,641.

FORTY-HOUR WEEK IN COAL MINES

It is reported that a new decree enforcing the 40-hour week in the coal-mines has been completed and forwarded to the miners and the mine owners for their final approval. This is the first decree dealing with the hours since the enactment on June 21st of the Government Bill providing a forty-hour week in France.

Meanwhile two alternatives appear to face the textile employers at Lille - they can either accept the Government proposal for arbitration, which will probably mean signing a collective contract with the employees, giving them a forty hour week with a rise of wages, or they can refuse, and see their industry virtually nationalised.

They have been given twenty-four hours in which to make up their minds. The possibility is envisaged that the employers' attitude in Lille may lead to a general strike throughout the country.

OPENING OF THE EMPIRE EXHIBITION AT JOHANNESBURG

The opening ceremony of the Empire Exhibition at Johannesburg was broadcast to listeners in England by the B.B.C. yesterday.

The High Commissioner for South Africa in London, Mr. T.E. Water, and the Dominions Secretary, Mr. Malcolm McDonald were among those who listened to the opening speeches. Lord Clarendon, the Governor-General of the Union, read a message of good wishes from the King to 15,000 people who attended the ceremony. These included old pioneers who had not visited the Rand for twenty years.

General Hertzog, the South African Premier, welcomed the visitors, and the recorded speeches of Mr. Baldwin, and the Prime Ministers of the other Dominions were heard.

Some 3,000,000 visitors are expected before the exhibition closes its doors, and arrangements have been made for visits by large numbers of school children from all over the Union.

BORN TRAVELLERS

The following is taken from the "Daily Express" of the 18th of July, 1936:-

"Three-year-old Elizabeth Jones, now living in Langley Road, Slough, Bucks, would smile if you advised her not to venture so far as the end of her road. She has already travelled 30,367 miles.

Two-year-old "Sonny" Jones, her brother, has already travelled 9,906 miles.

The children recently arrived at Croydon from Rotterdam. They could not tell you much about their travels, but their father, Mr. A.G. Nelson Jones, has kept a complete record.

Five weeks after Elizabeth was born in the Falkland Islands she sailed for Plymouth via the West Coast of South America, Panama Canal & West Indies (12,461 miles).

The same year she made the direct voyage from Leith, Scotland, to South Georgia (about 8,000miles)

It was in South Georgia that "Sonny" arrived. He was only nine weeks old when he began his travels with his sister.

They made the 850-mile voyage to Port Stanley, Falkland Islands. The following year they returned to South Georgia.

This year, so far, they have voyaged from South Georgia to Rotterdam (about 8,000 miles) and have flown the 206 miles from Rotterdam to Croydon."

H.M. Young, N.D.A., N.D.D., C.D.A.D.

The following article is taken from the Scottish Journal of Agriculture of April, 1936, and is a continuation of the article on Page 2. of the "Penguin" for last Thursday, which described the work done by Mr. Allan of Auchenleck, Minnigaff, to improve the land of his sheep farm.

"About 1927 Mr. Allan made other interesting experiments. On one plot he applied farmyard manure to the phosphated ground. This was a great success. It definitely quickened the clover growth and the spread of good grasses. Unfortunately only a limited quantity of this manure is available on the farm.

A second phosphated plot had lime applied to it at the rate of 30 cwt. per acre. This treatment was a failure, the lime apparently acting as a deterrent.

A third plot, to which no phosphate had been applied in October, was dressed in the spring with 100 lbs. of seed cleanings per acre. The seeds of Yorkshire Fog and Clover failed to catch, and the plot was not a success.

Mr. Allan had also been experimenting with mineral phosphate, and been impressed with its usefulness. In 1928 he manured 30 acres with ground mineral phosphate, the quantity applied varying from 6 cwt. to 20 cwt. per acre. To part of this area 6 cwt. of kainit per acre was applied in addition.

The summer of 1929 brought remarkable results. It was clearly seen then that the heavy dressing of mineral phosphate was supplying a necessary element in sufficient quantity. The rate of improvement was definitely increased, and clovers and grasses were now to be found quite plentifully in the first year's hay.

It will thus be readily understood that in the years since 1929 Mr. Allan has continued to apply ground mineral phosphate as the first step towards improving his grazings. In all, he has treated about 200 acres of the type of land described, and for many years yet he will be able to find land in the valley for the continuance of his activities.

It should here be stated that no cultivation of any kind is practised.

The practice of the farm now is to apply 20 cwt. per acre of ground mineral phosphate from a Wallace manure distributor in October or early November. In the following March or early April, while the surface of the ground is still damp or even distinctly wet, 80 to 100 lb. of seed cleanings per acre are spread over the surface from a cart.

The point about surface dampness is of major importance - to get this, early sowing is necessary. It has been observed that if later sowing is practised the moss dries up quickly on the surface and many germinated seeds are left in the top layer high and dry.

In the summer following the application of the seeds, the area is cut over by mower in July.

After the removal of the hay the area is grazed by cattle and sheep till the following April, when it is shut up again for hay. This process is repeated from year to year.

The cuttings and grazings help greatly in the spread of the wild white clover and in the elimination of weeds. The betterment seems to be cumulative. The proof of this statement is to be found in the originally improved area, which is now pasturage of a really good class, and certainly yields much better sheep food than is to be found for miles around.

The condition of the sections more recently treated shows clearly that they are improving year by year."

POLAR EXPEDITION SHIP SINKS IN STORMMost of the Crew Drowned

It is reported from Copenhagen that Dr. Charcot, the leader of the French Polar Expedition in the ship "Pourquoi Pas", and all the crew except one man, were drowned when the ship sank yesterday in a storm off the Icelandic coast.

Thirty bodies are reported to have drifted ashore. Mr. Brian Roberts of the British Grahamland Expedition was a member of one of Dr. Charcot's Expeditions in the North Polar regions.

ANOMALOUS SITUATION AT GENEVA

An anomalous position is likely to arise at the Assembly on Monday owing to the fact that the Negus has decided to send a delegate.

It is generally believed that the Credentials Committee will refuse recognition of the Ethiopian delegate's status and the Negus will almost certainly be questioned, and the existence of any form of Independent Government in Ethiopia is considered to be a matter for speculation. It is expected that the Italian claim to represent Ethiopia will be ignored. The position of the Argentine Foreign Secretary, Senor Lamas, who is likely to be elected as President of the Assembly, may prove difficult as he has always championed non-recognition of the fruits of aggression.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING

The King, who according to the present arrangements is leaving to-day for Balmoral, transacted business at Buckingham Palace on Wednesday.

Among His Majesty's visitors was Sir William Clark, the British High Commissioner in the Union of South Africa, who is returning to South Africa after his leave. The King also received Mr. H.T. Seymour on his appointment as British Minister at Teheran, and Mr. E.F. Guy on his appointment as British Minister at Caracas, Venezuela.

It is expected that His Majesty will stay three weeks in Scotland. The Duke and Duchess of Kent, who have just returned from the Continent will probably accompany the King to Balmoral where the Duke and Duchess of York with Princesses Elizabeth and Margaret Rose and the Duke and Duchess of Gloucester will be there to greet them.

EXPANSION OF ROYAL AIR FORCE

Twenty-six new Squadrons - twenty-three in the regular service and three in the auxiliary - have now been added to the strength of the Royal Air Force under the terms of the Expansion Plan announced by the Government in May last year.

Three of these have been formed during the past month. Forty-five more units must be added to bring up the strength of the Metropolitan Air Force to 123 squadrons as proposed last year.

A further extension to 129 squadrons, backed by full war reserves and representing a vast augmentation of the striking power of the service was outlined in the White Paper on Defence published early in March this year.

Bombing squadrons predominate among the units formed up to the present. Eighteen new squadrons are equipped with bombing aircraft and five with fighters.

Three squadrons of the new "General reconnaissance" category are now in being.

Sites for no fewer than forty new R.A.F. stations have been acquired. On thirty-two of them the erection of buildings and site levelling are already well under way. Thirteen special civil flying training schools where initial tuition for young pilots is given, have been created. Men are joining the service in satisfactory numbers and quality.

Between April 1935 and the end of March this year the Force took on 940 pilots and just under 15,000 airmen. Since April the 1st another 900 pilots and large numbers of airmen have joined up.

INCREASE IN FOOD CONSUMPTION

Sir Kingsley Wood, the Minister for Health, speaking on Wednesday at Plymouth on the problem of nutrition said that the consumption of food of all kinds in the United Kingdom had grown considerably. To-day it was probably over 25,000,000 tons yearly.

The consumption of dairy products and of eggs, fruit and vegetables, so important to good nutrition, had greatly increased. There had undoubtedly been at the same time a considerable improvement in food standards, which had been achieved largely by the health authorities and their professional advisers.

Sixty years ago, he said, some 15,000 samples only were submitted annually to the Public Analysts and of these over 19% were found to be adulterated or not up to standard. Last year over 143,000 samples were submitted - the highest on record - and the percentage of goods adulterated or not up to the standard was only a little over 5%.

INDUSTRIAL REVIVAL IN BRITAIN

The number of private cars and taxis produced in the ten months from October last to the end of July was 41,122 or 15.4% greater than in the corresponding period of 1934 and last year. The increase in the case of commercial vehicles was 12,203 or 15.5% greater than in the corresponding period of 1934 and last year.

PROPOSED ISSUE OF NEW THREEPENNYPIECES

The Royal Mint and the Treasury are understood to have under consideration the issue of threepenny pieces of a larger size in place of the present very small silver coins. The new coin would be of a size midway between a sixpence and a shilling and of a distinctive colour - neither silver nor copper - and with a special edge in the form perhaps of a wave.

The issue of threepenny pieces of the existing pattern made by the Mint in 1934 amounted in value of £94,000 of which £60,000 went to the Scottish banks.

INSURGENTS CLAIM ANOTHER VICTORY

The Spanish war news yesterday largely consisted of claims made by the insurgents who declare that they have captured the hill town of Ronda - a bulwark of the Malaga region; but well informed circles at La Linea discredit this claim, while recent visitors to Malaga opine that the city is unlikely to be captured speedily. They state that the position of the Government forces has been difficult owing to a shortage of ammunition and petrol but a large consignment of arms and ammunition from Mexico is expected to arrive at Malaga to-day. The insurgents claim that 3,000 Government troops have been killed in the Toledo region in the past few days. Important insurgent successes are also claimed at Guadarrama and Somosierra.

Following the refusal of the garrison at Alcazar to surrender the Government are continuing their attacks and are also mining the town. Operations are understood to have almost reached the centre of Alcazar and the mine may be sprung at any moment. The expert miners engaged on the work are frequently interrupted by desperate sallies from the beleaguered men who rush out with grenades and machine guns and attempt to stop the mining operations.

F.I.D.F. BAND BROADCASTS

Last night, before the commencement of the usual programme from the Stanley Broadcasting Studio, listeners were delighted to hear the Falkland Islands Defence Force Band playing a selection of fine tunes, including "The Dawn of Spring" and the March "Sons of the Brave".

This broadcasting of local talent reminded us of the "old days" when it was a regular feature of the Studio programmes and we hope that we shall hear some more at a later date.

Bucharest The famous Roumanian Statesman, Titulesco, is dangerously ill. The doctors declare that his illness is due to poisoning.

PUBLISHED FURTHER SOUTH

The following is taken from The New Zealand Herald of June 24th, 1936.

"Appropriately named the 'Penguin', a copy of a newspaper that is probably published further south than any other in the world has been received in Auckland. It appears each day at Stanley, capital of the Falkland Islands, and consists of four mimeographed foolscap pages which cost 1d, delivery being free.

The issue of the 'Penguin' received in Auckland provides plenty of local and overseas news for its readers. On the front page there is a Government notice to the effect that the New Zealand Government has agreed to the secondment to the Falkland Islands of an officer of the Department of Agriculture to advise on matters concerning the sheep-farming industry. An advertisement regarding the quality of pork and mutton sausages to be obtained from the Speedwell Shop, a list of shipping departures, news of a golf tournament in England, and an application for increased wages by Lancashire weavers, complete the front page news.

Page two of the Penguin bears a column of typescript dealing with questions answered in the House of Commons by Mr. Anthony Eden, the Foreign Secretary, a short humorous story, and press opinion on the League of Nations from a Berlin newspaper. Football results and news of the Italo-Ethiopian war and the British Budget fill most of the third page, and the back page is entirely devoted to shipping news - arrivals and departures of vessels from Montevideo and the United Kingdom."

If you damp the string before you tie a parcel it contracts as it dries and in this way makes your parcel so much more secure.

H O M E N O T E S

Bacon will go twice as far if after cutting off the rind each rasher is dipped in flour and fried quickly. The flour prevents the bacon from running to fat, and the flavour is improved too.

Curtains wear out much more quickly at the top so make equal hems at the top and bottom and reverse the way you hang them each time they are washed.

Polo-necked jumpers have a tendency to stretch when washed and afterwards the neck hangs loose and seems to lose its smart appearance. Run a thread round the neck edge, and draw it up fairly tight. This in no way interferes with the washing, but when the jumper is dry, just pull out the thread and you will find the neck has kept its shape beautifully, and even has a renewed elasticity.

Rubber bands can be used instead of string for tying down jams and jellies. They save a lot of trouble but be sure to have good strong ones for the very narrow bands don't always keep the tops air-tight. A cover rubber-banded like this keeps a jar dust-proof when in use too. It can be taken off and replaced so very easily.

An inverted parchment lampshade is a most becoming disguise for clay flower-pots with early summer flowers which are growing in a living-room.

To make "lightwork" of darkening dark socks in artificial light - substitute a torch in place of the usual mushroom.

If you place a large flower block at the bottom of your salad bowl your salads will keep beautifully dry and crisp, for all the surplus water drains through. Another practical use for a block is to have it on your desk for holding pencils and pens - so much more easy to reach for in a hurry than fumbling in a tray.

SOCIAL REFORM - CHILD WELFARE

Sir Kingsley Wood, the Minister of Health, in a speech on Thursday afternoon said that he hoped that the new midwifery service under the Government's Midwives' Act would be in operation throughout the country by July next and that every mother would then be able to obtain, whatever her circumstances, the services of a qualified midwife. He wanted to see the whole status of the midwifery profession raised to a higher level.

Sir Kingsley Wood claimed that a record of which British people could be proudest in connection with social reform was their progress in Child Welfare. But they must go on constantly developing and extending.

He expressed the hope that in the next session of Parliament he would be able to bring forward proposals for filling the gap that at present existed in the medical supervision of the child between the time at which he left school to enter employment and when he commenced health insurance.

BRITAIN'S FIRST CROP OF HEMP

The first crop of hemp to be grown in Britain is now being harvested at Billing in Northamptonshire as part of an experimental effort to revive the British flax industry. Despite the unfavourable season the crop is reported to be highly satisfactory.

HIS MAJESTY VISITS EXHIBITION

The King, making his first public appearance since his holiday, visited the building exhibition at Olympia on Thursday afternoon. The King spent more than an hour walking around the stalls and he displayed particular interest in the types of houses and flats designed to assist slum clearance.

PROTEST AGAINST VANDALISM

It is reported from Cardiff, Glamorgan, that the County Council there has passed a resolution supporting the Welsh Nationalists' protest against the Government's vandalism of ignoring industrial aids and constructing munition factories and air bases in the beautiful countryside.

HARVARD TERCENTENARY

It is reported from Cambridge, Massachusetts, that messages sealed at a similar celebration 100 years ago, were read by President Conant at the Harvard Tercentenary on Thursday.

Among the 10,000 people present was Mr. Peter Harvard the only living descendant of the founder. Greetings were sent from Harvard Clubs all over the world.

FAREWELL INSPECTION OF THESCOTS' GUARDS

The Duke of York as Colonel of the Scots' Guards visited Aldershot yesterday and made a farewell inspection of the second battalion who leave Aldershot for Palestine to-morrow. In his address the Duke said "You are going to Palestine under more or less active service conditions. The situation there is very delicate and your duty will be to maintain law and order - a task that carries with it very heavy responsibilities and calls for the utmost tact. As your Colonel I expect you by your behaviour, bearing and appearance when on and off parade, and particularly in your association with the civilian population, to uphold the good name of His Majesty's Foot Guards."

ALCAZAR BLOWN UP YESTERDAYGarrison in Pitiabie State

Meals of Horseflesh

An eye-witness of the blowing up of the town of Alcazar declares that the explosion was tremendous and huge stones were flung into the air and crashed on the roofs of the houses. A hundred insurgents including women and children had taken refuge in a cellar and were unhurt.

The siege of 60 days had reduced the garrison to a pitiabie state - for some time they had been existing on one meal a day consisting of a small piece of horseflesh and a morsel of bread. The interior of the fortress was a terrible spectacle with unburied and decomposed corpses everywhere, but the Garrison, including cadets and the sons of noble houses was undaunted.

A message from Paris reports that the League Red Cross Societies have announced that the Spanish Government and the insurgents have undertaken to respect the Geneva Convention and the Red Cross and have agreed to a reciprocal evacuation of women and children from Spain.

NINETY-THIRD SESSION OF THELEAGUE OF NATIONS

The ninety-third session of the Council of the League of Nations opened yesterday evening at Geneva under the Presidency of Senor Vicuna (Chile).

The Council, which met in private, adopted its Agenda and decided in accordance with the request of the Governments of Iran and Iraq to remove from it the question relating to the frontier dispute between those two countries.

It decided to forward to the Assembly the communications received from eighteen Governments regarding the application of the principle of the Covenant.

A message from Geneva says that the Secretary General, Avenol, then made a statement on the circumstances in which he recently visited Italy and informed the Council of his conversations in Rome with the Italian Foreign Minister and head of the Government. He informed the Council that Signor Mussolini had made it a condition of Italy's participation in the work of the present Assembly that no Abyssinian delegation should be present, and reported that he had told Signor Mussolini that this was a question to be decided by the Credentials Committee of the Assembly.

The Council held no discussion on this point.

A later message states that it is understood that the Credentials Committee will find the Ethiopian Government does not fulfil the conditions laid down by the Covenant and there is little doubt that the majority of the Assembly will endorse this recommendation, thus clearing the path for the re-admission of Italy.

BRITISH SUBJECTS EVACUATEDFROM BILBAO

A message from St. Jean de Luz states that all the British subjects who desired to leave Bilbao have now been evacuated. They were taken either to St. Jean de Luz or to Bordeaux.

The British Consul at Bilbao and the Consulate staff arrived at St. Jean de Luz yesterday afternoon on board H.M.S. "Exmouth". Seventy British subjects have preferred to remain in Bilbao for business reasons. Bilbao, though calm at present, is reported to be in hourly expectation of an insurgent attack.

ADMINISTRATION OF TOGOLAND

A Report on the administration of Togoland and the Cameroons under the British Mandate, presented to the League Council by the British Government, contains in addition to the usual detailed account of the stewardship of the Mandatory, a quantity of material of interest to anthropologists and students of native life.

In the course of the report on Togoland, emphasis is laid on the principle that any policy which does not foster native institutions must result in the de-tribalization of the natives, and the destruction of all South African atmosphere. Outside influences can quite easily destroy all tribal institutions and traditions unless they are carefully fostered and grafted on to the modern organization.

The first principle of the Gold Coast Government, it is stated, has been to adopt for purposes of local Government, institutions which the people themselves have evolved through the ages, and modified where necessity demands it but moulded so that the people may develop on their own lines and stand in due course on their own feet. There has been no variation from this policy.

FUNDS FOR REFUGEES FROM SPAIN

A letter appeared in the papers on Saturday morning, signed by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York and Westminster and others, appealing for funds for the British refugees from Spain, many of whom have reached England entirely destitute.

About 400 are being maintained from charitable funds and a comparable number still in Gibraltar or Marseilles are also dependent on charity.

Harrowing examples are cited of men and women who have spent most of their lives in Spain and built up prosperous businesses or professional connections and who have had to leave behind everything down to their smallest personal effects.

A committee has been formed to organise help for the refugees.

MADRID'S WATER RESERVOIRCAPTURED

It is reported from Hendaye that the insurgents among the cellars and ruins of the Alcazar in Toledo which was mined by the Government attackers on Friday continue their resistance while only one wall and a tower remain intact.

Although bombarded by field guns and aeroplanes the defenders made a counter attack yesterday and hand-to-hand fighting ensued.

According to the Sunday Times correspondent the insurgents are believed to be almost without rations or water.

A fresh offensive against Madrid has commenced on the Talavera front. The insurgents have captured the fortified town of Ronda fifty miles from Malaga where 700 fascists were found massacred, and the houses, shops and banks pillaged. It is reported that the workers shot the military and civil governors at Malaga following the discovery of an anti-Government plot and the British Government there has appealed to Gibraltar for warships. The insurgents announce that they have taken Havafria and have penetrated the valley of Lozoya capturing Madrid's principal water reservoir.

There is reported to be a serious shortage of food in Gijon.

BLACK OUTLOOK IN PALESTINE

It is reported from Jerusalem that there is little prospect of the conclusion of the Arab strike after five months as the numbers of the Moderate faction are decreasing owing to terrorist intimidation.

The Arab National Committee is perturbed by the activities of Fawzibey, believed leader of the terrorists, who is understood to be visiting Jerusalem disguised.

The Arabs are apprehensive of his activities absorbing the funds intended for the strike sufferers. An Arab peasant was killed by desperadoes demanding food on Saturday, while a bomb dropped at one house killed one man and wounded two. The army headquarters are being established at Jerusalem, Haifa, or Nazareth.

AGREEMENT REGARDING WHALING

After protracted negotiations an agreement has been reached between the British and Norwegian Governments upon the measures to be taken during the forthcoming whaling season to prevent excessive inroads into the stock of whales.

The basis of the present agreement is to prevent the excessive diminution of the whale population by the restriction by close season and by the limitation of the number of whale catchers - that is small boats which go out from the parent ship - which shall be used at any one time in connection with the whale factory.

In a few exceptional cases where these conditions would operate unfairly, and in particular circumstances, restriction by quota has been substituted for restriction by close season.

The open season will be from the 8th of December, 1936 to the 7th of March, 1937, and the number of whale catchers allowed to be used at any one time by any factory ship will vary from seven to five according to the classification agreed upon between the two Governments. As the legislation at present in force in the United Kingdom and the Dominions does not confer the power to restrict the number of whale catchers, the Agreement will, in the case of their ships, be voluntary. The United Kingdom-ships will, as in previous years, carry inspectors who will ensure compliance with the statutory regulations and also safeguard the terms of voluntary agreement. The Governments of the Dominions have been asked to make similar provision in respect of ships registered in their territories.

AUSTRIAN MILITARY SERVICE

It is reported from Vienna that 100,000 Austrian men between the ages of 18 and 42 (the total Austrian voluntary militia) may be forced to do compulsory militia service according to an announcement made by Vice Chancellor Baarbar enfels yesterday. He said that if there was not sufficient willingness to serve voluntarily, the Government was determined to introduce compulsory militia service.

This speech was the sequel to the threat made by Starhemberg's Heimwehr to withdraw 70,000 Heimwehr members from the militia in retaliation for Baarbar enfels' alleged desertion of the Heimwehr cause whereof he was formerly leader, since he became Vice Chancellor.

LORD MAYOR FOR CORONATION YEAR

It is reported from London that the Lord Mayor of London for Coronation year is to be elected to-day and the names of Alderman Sir George Broadbridge & Sir Harry Twyford have been submitted but it is a foregone conclusion that the former will be chosen.

VICEROY MAKES FIRST ADDRESS

It is reported from Simla that the first address by the Marquess of Linlithgow as Viceroy of India was made in the Assembly Chamber at Simla on Monday. The Chamber was crowded by members of both Houses of the Indian Legislature.

The members listened with rapt attention to a thirty-five minutes address when the problems of autonomy were dealt with and a plea for co-operation was made. The close of the address was greeted with prolonged applause.

The Viceroy dealt with the impending changes in the Constitution and contrasted British liberalism in Government with certain European Dictatorships, adding that India's new status would be "an experiment in representative Government which, for breadth of conception and boldness of design, was without parallel in history."

GERMAN ARMY MANOEUVRES

The Daily Telegraph Correspondent at Bad Nauheim who is attending the German army manoeuvres reports that the regiments participating are almost entirely composed of conscripts and are apparently fully equipped with machine guns, anti-tank guns and light mortars, while the first line transport is horse drawn.

The opposing forces are in red and blue under the Generals Geyer and Dollman respectively, with Air co-operation squadrons attached to both sides.

Herr Hitler is believed to be present.

A further bomb outrage is reported from Jerusalem. The following figures relating to the Arabs and Jews have been published:- Arabs arrested 2,643; Jews arrested 346. Arabs convicted 1,645; Jews convicted 218. Arabs acquitted 710; Jews acquitted 71.

FALKLAND ISLANDS DEFENCE FORCE CLUBSupper for Billiards Players

As a climax to a billiard match recently concluded between two teams drawn from the members of the Defence Force Club, the losing side provided an excellent supper in the Drill Hall last night for all the players who took part.

Although 44 members actually took part in the match only 36 sat down to the supper at 10.30 p.m.

At about 11 o'clock the strains of an accordion once again exhilarated the feelings of the members, and dancing, intermingled with songs by certain celebrated artistes, held sway until 12.30 p.m. when the "boys" dispersed to enjoy a well-earned sleep, which it is to be hoped was not spoilt by nightmare.

PALESTINE REINFORCEMENTS REACH

HAIFA

The first contingent of the British reinforcements arrived at Haifa yesterday in the liner "Laurentic".

The disembarkation of the troops was effected without a hitch and the troops were taken to Jerusalem by two special trains preceded by pilot cars armed with machine guns. Blue-jackets were mounted on the footplates of the engines.

The latest information received stated that the troops were comfortably encamped near the railway station at Jerusalem.

The troopship "Dorsetshire" was expected to arrive yesterday evening with a further contingent.

"BIG BEN" OFF DUTY

Big Ben stopped at 8.43 a.m. yesterday. This was observed by office workers hurrying to their work soon after nine, and reported.

It was discovered that a ladder which had been used in connection with the whitewashing of the clock chamber had been left propped against the spindle which turns the hands and had jammed it. This was soon rectified and Big Ben is working as usual.

SERIOUS INCIDENT IN SHANGHAI

Three Japanese soldiers were fired on in the road leading through the International Settlement yesterday afternoon, states a message from Shanghai.

One man was killed and the other two were injured. The district wherein this took place was afterwards entirely surrounded by Japanese troops which were reinforced by a landing party from a Japanese battleship in the harbour. The Japanese Ambassador, after a lengthy conference with high Japanese officials declared that the Hong Kew incident showed that far stronger measures would have to be applied to eradicate anti-Nipponism from China and accused the Chinese Government of a lack of good faith towards Japan and said that it must bear the sole responsibility for the rampancy of anti-Japanese activities in China. He added that every measure would be taken - even to the occupation of the International Zone, to suppress this anti-Japanese feeling.

This incident caused a great sensation in Tokio and well informed circles opine that the situation thus caused is of the gravest.

H.M. Young, N.D.A., N.D.D., C.D.A.D.

The following article is taken from the Scottish Journal of Agriculture of April, 1936, and is a continuation of the article on Page 2 of the "Penguin" for last Thursday, which described the work done by Mr. Allan of Auchenleck, Minnigaff, to improve the land of his sheep farm.

"It will have been observed that the type of phosphatic manure applied was changed in 1928 from basic slag to mineral phosphate, and that potash is not now used. These changes appear at present to be fully justified. Apparently the mineral phosphate becomes readily available in the brown wet peat. It gives quicker results than slag when applied in quantity. As for potash, it was apparent that the chloride form was not suitable; although no potash has since been applied, it is thought that if another form were used an excellent response would be got.

One of the interesting changes following the manuring is the change in the peat itself. In the original state it is rough and fibrous and 'dead'. In a few years after treatment, it has changed to black peaty soil not at all fibrous and very much alive. The activity of moles in the area is really remarkable.

The seed cleanings used each year are composed of Yorkshire Fog (Holcus mollis and Holcus lanatus) to the extent of about 80 per cent.

Light seeds of Perennial Ryegrass, Italian Ryegrass, Crested Dogs tail, Cocksfoot, Small Fescues and Meadow Grasses and White Clover are also present. A very large percentage of these really good grasses must die, but the clover certainly germinates and lives well, and it is evident from the hay that a proportion of the better grasses survive the bad conditions. The only weed seed in the cleanings that persists is the ordinary buttercup, which may be a nuisance in years to come.

It will be readily understood that the hay for the first few years consists of Yorkshire Fog. It improves as the years go on. The grazing of the autumn aftermath and early spring growth by cattle and sheep helps to this end. The Yorkshire Fog comes on early and is eaten; the consequent opening up of the surface helps the spread of clover and establishment of grasses.

The elimination of Spruit, Bog Myrtle and Rush is not so easily explained. They do not disappear, either through competition or through a change in the soil conditions caused by manuring.

There are, however, grounds for investigation into the complete suitability of seed cleanings for the present purpose. No trial has yet been made of a mixture of good seeds for the purpose. It is significant, however, that on one section of the improved grazings, where a few pounds of a good Cocksfoot seed were sown, the plant is established in comparative abundance; moreover, it is healthy and of a good type. Apparently it would do well if present in greater quantity in the sowing.

The cost of the seed cleanings runs from 4s to 6s. per cwt.

Possibly the most important aspect of these improvements, and certainly the goal of the whole effort, lies in the effect on the stock-carrying capacity of the farm. It will be recalled that in 1922 no hogs were wintered at home because of a high death rate.

The position changed rapidly. In 1927-28, 60 hogs were wintered on the improved grazings without a casualty. This number has been rapidly increased until, in March 1936, 400 hogs are being wintered, and so far, there has been only one casualty."

FALKLAND ISLANDS DEFENCE FORCE MINIATURE RIFLEC L U B

The team shoot for the medals presented by Mr. J.F. Bonner took place in the Drill Hall on Thursday, 17th, and proved to be the most interesting and exciting event of the season. The issue was in doubt until the last shot was fired and it was then found that L. Reive's team had won by three points.

FAMOUS AIRMAN'S FUNERAL

The funeral of Captain Campbell Black, who was killed on Saturday in an aerodrome accident at Liverpool, took place in London yesterday.

It was attended by many distinguished representatives of Civil aviation and of the theatrical profession to which his widow, Florence Desmond, belongs. They included Sir F. Shelmerdene, the Director General of Civil Aviation, and Mr. C.W.A. Scott who with the deceased airman won the London to Melbourne air race.

It is announced that Captain Black's aeroplane "Miss Liverpool 1" will not compete in the London to Johannesburg race which starts on Tuesday.

HIS MAJESTY IN ABERDEEN

The King and the Duke of York were both in Aberdeen yesterday. The Duke, accompanied by the Duchess, paid an official visit for the purpose of opening the city's new infirmary buildings which have been erected and equipped at a cost of over £500,000.

The King's visit was informal and unexpected, but His Majesty was cheered by railway workers and others who recognised him when he arrived at the station to welcome guests who had travelled by train from London on their way to Balmoral.

London. His Majesty's Government last night entertained at dinner Field Marshal Baron Mannerheim, the Chief of the Finnish general staff, who is at present in England.

DECISION OF THE CREDENTIALSCOMMITTEE

The League of Nations Assembly met yesterday evening to receive the report of the Credentials Committee on the admissibility of the Ethiopian delegation.

The Credentials Committee, which had held several sessions during the day, had reached the decision (according to press messages from Geneva) that Ethiopia should "have the benefit of the doubt" and that their credentials should be accepted.

The Committee decided against the reference of the questions to an International Court.

On the submission of the Committee's report to the Assembly as to the right of Ethiopia to a seat, this was challenged by the Hungarian representative who was supported by the delegates of Albania and Austria.

The Report of the Credentials Committee, giving the right to the Ethiopian delegation to attend the Assembly was then put to the vote and accepted by 39 votes to 4 with 6 abstentions.

ORIENT LINER ON FIRE

Fire broke out yesterday in the hold of the 14,982 tons Orient liner "Ormonde" which is outward bound from Melbourne.

A statement issued in London by the Company last night says that as a strong wind was blowing at the time Captain Thorne thought it advisable to anchor in Twofold Bay, 250 miles south of Sydney, in order to deal with the fire before proceeding on the voyage. His latest report states that the fire is confined to one section of the hold and is under control and there is no cause for anxiety.

UNITED KINGDOM POSTAL TRAFFIC

The average daily receipts of the Post Offices in the United Kingdom from postal traffic per working day in August showed an increase of 5.2% as compared with the corresponding month of 1935.

With three exceptions the postal receipts have been higher than in the corresponding months a year earlier for each month since the end of 1932 - a remarkable demonstration of the regular progress of recovery in Great Britain since the worst period of the world depression.

VISIT TO R.A.F. STATIONS ABROAD

The Under Secretary for Air, Sir Philip Sassoon, will leave England on Friday by air to visit overseas Royal Air Force Stations in Egypt, the Sudan, and Kenya.

He expects to return to England on about October the 19th.

An impromptu programme of music and songs was greatly appreciated by all present.

During the course of the evening, at the request of the members, Lieutenant Fleuret with a few well chosen words handed Captain Allan a sum of money subscribed by members of the Force as a parting gift and with which they requested he should purchase a present on arrival in the United Kingdom and have it suitably inscribed.

Both Captain Allan and Mr. Thompson thanked the members for providing such an excellent farewell party, the former stating that he would have much pleasure in purchasing a present by which he would always remember the Falkland Islands Defence Force.

ITALY ELECTED VICE-PRESIDENT

The Assembly of the League of Nations met last night at Geneva to elect its six Vice Presidents and out of fifty-two voting France received 49, Great Britain 47, Jugo-Slavia 44, Canada 39, the U.S.S.R. 35, and Italy 32 votes.

The election of the new League Council will take place on Wednesday.

Yesterday the first Committee of the Assembly discussed the increase of the number of non-permanent council seats and the reservation of an extra seat for an Asiatic power. To-day a general debate opens in the Assembly.

An official silence is being maintained in Rome on the subject of the Credentials Committee's decision regarding Abyssinia which was accepted on Wednesday by the League Assembly. It is not expected that Italy will leave the League as a result of the Assembly's decision for while the decision to admit Abyssinia creates a serious situation political circles point out that it does not compel Italy to take action as she is not present at Geneva. It is believed in Rome that in any case the decision merely postponed the inevitable day when the League will have to recognise that the Abyssinians represent no-one.

Port Stanley,

26th September, 1936.

On our departure I wish on behalf of Mrs. Allan and myself to take this opportunity of saying good-bye to the many friends we have made during our seven and a half years' stay in the Colony. We wish you one and all the very best of luck and prosperity.

Yours sincerely,
 (Sgd.) W.M. Allan.

B O N V O Y A G E

To-day we have to bid fare-well to Captain and Mrs. W.M. Allan. During their seven and a half years' residence in the Colony they have made a great many friends. Throughout they have entered into the social life of the Colony and the multifarious activities of the Defence Force organizations and will be very much missed.

We wish them "Bon Voyage" and the best of luck.

S.S. "F I T Z R O Y"

The s.s. "Fitzroy" is due to leave Stanley for Montevideo at noon to-day taking the following passengers :-

Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. H.T. Hatchman and two children, Mr. C.R. Skilling, Mr. E.K. Lindenberg, Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Thompson, Mr. E.F. Thompson, Mr. P.E. Thompson, Master A. Thompson, Mrs. M.M. McLaren and 3 children, Mr. W.G. Levins, Miss M. Bonner, Miss J.E. Clark and Mrs. S. Atkins.

Mr. and Mrs. C.F. Thompson, who made their home in the Falkland Islands some thirty years ago, are leaving by the "Fitzroy" to-day with the younger members of their family. Their large number of friends and connexions will regret their departure. Mr. Thompson is leaving many monuments of his craftsmanship in the Falklands - one of his last pieces of work being the building of the new Deanery when he worked in conjunction with Mr. J.W. Grierson.

We offer our best wishes for their happiness and prosperity in the future.

REPORT ON FOOD INVESTIGATION

The report of the Food Investigation Board just published gives a description of many ways in which research is aiding the producers and distributors in connection with quality; and the age and handling of meat, fruit and fish. The cold storage of herrings and the gas storage of homegrown pears are two of the problems to which much study was devoted last year with marked success, while other investigations have shown that the process of ripening in bananas can be initiated by the passing of ethylene gas over green fruit.

The Board is establishing a laboratory at Smithfield on lines corresponding to the ten year old laboratory at Covent Garden.

INDUSTRIAL RECOVERY IN BRITAIN

Signs of the cumulative effects of industrial recovery of the last few years in Britain appear in the current statistics and reports.

The gross receipts of the four main-line railways last week were £128,000 or 4.3% over the total for the corresponding week of last year, while the takings for the year to date exceed those for the same period of 1935 by 3.2%.

In the Tyne district the number of ships laid up is reduced to 32 - the lowest for six years.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR RESUMPTIONOF TRADE WITH ITALY

In the House of Commons on July 13th the President of the Board of Trade - Mr. Walter Runciman, explained the reasons for which negotiations for the resumption of the Anglo-Italian trade following the lifting of Sanctions had had to be suspended. The two Governments did not however altogether lose touch during the interval, on the question of a commercial agreement, and on Thursday the Board of Trade announced that arrangements had been made for the resumption of negotiations regarding trade and payments, and delegates have proceeded to Rome for this purpose.

BLUE GOWN FOR THE FUTURE

It is announced from Bradford that dyers' chemists and colour specialists who invent new shades for fashion have decided that blue is to be the colour for 1937, the Coronation year. A fashion expert's forecast of out-doors colourings in wool wear is shown in such titles as Windsor Blue, Embassy Blue, Commander Blue, Harrow Blue, and Albany Blue.

Colour experts plan things months ahead of the public's purchasing time. Colours for the remainder of 1936 have all been settled, including wistaria, a dainty mauve, mauve haze, a delicate grey, Devon cream and dusky rose, lemon pink and equablue, an exquisite green-blue, and lilac rose and blumist, a delicate blue-grey.

LAST NIGHT'S DANCE

A hilarious time was spent in the Town Hall last night when the members of the Folk Dance Society entertained their friends at a social, which marked the termination of a most successful Folk Dance Season.

His Excellency the Governor, accompanied by Major the Honourable M.J. Stewart, the Honourable R.L. Cheverton and the Honourable A.R. Hoare, arrived at 9.30 p.m.

The programme consisted of Folk Dances interspersed with modern dances for the first half, and after the supper interval it had been the intention to have all modern dances, but there were so many requests for Folk Dances that the second half of the programme had almost as many Folk Dances as modern dances.

The excellent refreshments, provided by the members, were under the capable management of Mrs. F. Gleadell and Mrs. S. Summers with selected helpers.

The bands and Mr. G.L. Pallini with his radio who gave their services free, provided a fine selection of music and as a result of a general request the dance was extended until 2 a.m.

Miss. K. Paice was a valuable helper, undertaking the rather dull job of collecting the tickets.

The Folk Dance Society wish to thank all those who in any way gave assistance - especially the bands and Mr. Pallini.

O B I T U A R Y

It is with deep regret that we have to announce the death of Mr. G. Hynam who passed away last night.

HOUSE OF COMMONS RE-OPENS

Parliament ( which would not normally meet until November) will meet on Monday.

It is no secret in well-informed financial circles that France would only contemplate devaluation within the framework of currency alignment of the sterling dollar - this assuring a common level of prices.

Negotiations to that end have been proceeding for the last three months. It remains to be seen the extent whereto the Anglo-American Governments will give France an assurance not to undertake any fresh depreciation of their currencies following any devaluation in France.

POLICY OF NON-INTERVENTIONIN SPAIN

It is reported from London that the French Foreign Minister in the League Assembly on Saturday, referring to the policy of non-intervention, in reply to the speech of Senor Alvarez del Vayo, said that France had not lightly initiated that policy.

The Government had weighed the dangers of rival intervention in the furnishing of arms and the fatal consequences of the inevitable incidents. Further, this initiative was approved by all countries, no matter what their regime, which were addressed by France. It was a proof that all had the same consciousness of peril and also must have the same loyalty in observing the engagements which they undertook.

Referring to the proposed London conference of the Locarno powers he said that the French Government was still ready to reach any agreement which would guarantee the security of all the interested countries, excluding any ulterior motive of domination or of ostracism, and which would contribute to the peace of Europe.

Alluding to disarmament M. Delbos said that efforts to reach an agreement should proceed in three stages - firstly the control of armaments, secondly by the limitation of armaments and, thirdly by the reduction of armaments.

CURRENCY READJUSTMENT

The French Government's decision to readjust its currency and the conclusion of a monetary agreement between Britain, the United States and France, were announced early on Saturday.

The statement, issued by the Treasury, containing a declaration by His Majesty's Government after consultations with the Governments of the United States and France, arises out of the discussions between the three Governments during the last few days, during which the French Government indicated the possibility of the readjustment of the value of the franc.

His Majesty's Government have no responsibility for the actual monetary measures which the French Government have decided to propose.

The discussions were concerned with the attitude which the British Government would adopt in the event of readjustment. The discussions were necessarily limited to the three countries which are at present the main centres of international financial transactions. To have enlarged the field would have been inconsistent with the need for secrecy essential for the success of French monetary measures.

The declaration does not involve any change in the British monetary policy. Sterling will remain free currency not linked to gold or to any other currency. As stated in the declaration, the policy will continue to take into full account the requirements of internal prosperity of the countries of the British Commonwealth of Nations and an exchange equalisation fund will be used to smooth out fluctuations and thus facilitate international trade. The declaration is intended to make it clear that His Majesty's Government will not deliberately depreciate the pound sterling by way of reprisal for the monetary measures proposed by France. This would, of course, be entirely contrary to the policy which the British monetary authorities have always pursued, and the Chancellor of the Exchequer felt no difficulty about giving such an assurance and undertaking to consult the other Governments with a view to avoiding as far as possible

ROYAL TELEPHONES

His Majesty is a firm believer in the use of the telephone, and he has given instructions for a telephone to be placed in every room of Buckingham Palace which he may use. The number of telephones at St. James' Palace and Fort Belvedere has also been increased. King Edward VIII, unlike King George V., uses the telephone on all possible occasions - he even puts through calls himself without the operator's assistance. All calls from Buckingham Palace are secret, as special devices prevent the operators listening in.

Gold leaf, thinner than cigarette paper has been applied over a surface equivalent to nearly half an acre, and 253,000 gold leaves are being used. One hundred leaves weigh only 8½ drams. Great precautions have been taken lest at such a height they should blow away, but even so about 10% was lost.

IMPROVING ROUGH GRAZINGSIN GALLOWAY.

H.M. Young, N.D.A., N.D.D., C.D.A.D.

The following article is taken from the Scottish Journal of Agriculture of April, 1936 and concludes the series we have published in the "Penguin" on September 10th, 17th and 24th, describing the work done by Mr. Allan of Auchenleck, Minnigaff, to improve the land of his sheep farm.

"Of cattle there is an interesting tale to tell. Before 1922, twenty-five to thirty Galloway cows suckled calves which were sold off their mothers, in the Newton Stewart Market. To-day
Mr. Allan has 100 Galloway cows, which winter well on the hay from the improved area. The good quality of the calves sold off is shown in an ever-increasing demand. The prices are always good and are often the top prices realised at the Newton Stewart sales..

An addition of 100 Galloway cows to its sheep stock is not the limit of the stock-carrying capacity of Auchenleck, and Mr. Allan may further increase the numbers.

That these improvements at Auchenleck are significant and of great importance, the writer is firmly convinced. They at least point the way to a lessening of the death-rate among hill sheep and to an increase in the capacity of all farms of this type for carrying cattle.

There are large tracts of similar land in this country, and many thousands of acres in the south-west of Scotland, capable of similar improvement and use."

Father: "Do you know what has happened to my shaving brush ? I can't find it."
Mother: "No. But Tommy's wooden horse has a new tail."

PORTUGUESE REPRESENTATIVE PRESENTAT INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEEMEETING.

The Portuguese representative was present at the fourth meeting of the International Committee for the application of the Agreement regarding non-intervention in Spain at the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon.

The Chairman - Lord Plymouth in the absence of Mr. W.S. Morrison who is at present at Geneva - informed the Committee that he had summoned the meeting to take the first possible opportunity of advising them of the decision of the Portuguese Government to nominate a representative.

The Committee received this information with great satisfaction and the composition of the Chairman's sub-committee has been enlarged by the addition thereto of the representative of Portugal.

The Chairman explained that the Portuguese decision followed a communication by Mr. Morrison to the Portuguese Foreign Minister of the conclusions reached by the Committee as to the procedure to be adopted by them on receipt of complaints respecting alleged breaches of Agreement. The Committee hoped that such complaints would be few, if any. If such complaints are received it will, however, be the duty of the Committee to examine them with a view to ascertaining the facts. A complaint would not be taken into consideration by the committee unless it is received from a responsible source and unless it is regarded by the Government preferring it as being of sufficient importance and as being founded on evidence of sufficient weight to afford a reasonable presumption that in fact some breach of the Agreement has occurred. To secure their object the Committee have agreed that they should at once lay it down, as a matter of principle, that complaints regarding alleged breaches of the Agreement will only be considered if the complaint is submitted on behalf of the Government of one or other of the countries party to the Agreement.

The Committee were confident that no Government would take it upon itself to submit a complaint unless it had taken steps to ascertain that in fact there was some substance in the complaint and that the complaint was of sufficient importance to justify its being brought before the Committee, though it would clearly be impossible for such a Government to determine beyond all possible question whether or not a breach of the Agreement had been made.

The Committee agreed that upon receipt of a complaint the Chairman should communicate it to the representative of the Government of the country against which it was levelled with the request that that Government should supply the Committee with such explanations as are necessary to establish the facts. On the receipt of the observations of the Government against which the complaint had been preferred, the Committee should take such steps as may appear proper in each case to establish the facts.

In the letter in which he acknowledged Mr. Morrison's communication Senor Monteiro said "As the rules of procedure adopted answer the doubts which I had formulated, I am happy to inform you that a representative of my country will take part in the next meeting of the Committee. On this occasion I wish to emphasise that the reserves or conditions which, in the name of the Portuguese Government, I communicated to the British and French Governments in my Note of August 21st last, are in no sense affected by the above-mentioned decision and that my Government maintains them in their entirety".

The Order, which amends the 1931 Order, under which emergency regulations have been made by the High Commissioner during recent months, enables the High Commissioner to delegate power to the General Officer Commanding the Forces in Palestine - this command has just been taken up by Lieut. General J.D. Dill - to make regulations securing the public

FRENCH MONETARY POLICYFOR REVIVAL OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE

Events abroad following the French Government's decision regarding the franc, showing a wide extension of currency re-alignment in sympathy with the policy affirmed by the French, British, and United States Governments for the revival of international trade, are recorded in the papers with approval, and optimistic conclusions are generally drawn.

Latvia decided on Monday to link her currency to sterling, and the press reports suggest that Greece will do likewise. As a result of the adjustments made, or generally believed to be in contemplation, it is argued that a substantial area embracing most of Europe, nearly all Africa, the whole of North America and of Australia, and considerable parts of Asia, will enjoy stable exchange relations and will be freed gradually of the hampering currency restrictions.

There were no dealings on the Foreign Exchange market on Monday in the currencies of France, Switzerland, or the Netherlands, nor in Italian lire. The chief interest was in the sterling dollar rate. There was considerable activity on the Stock Exchange and in the commodity markets. Gold at 140/9 reached the highest price since early May. Metals rose. Gold shares were in demand and the view that international trade is likely to benefit was supported by the buyers of shipping shares.

ARMY RESERVISTS' PROMPTITUDE

The prompt manner in which the reservists of Section A of the Army Reserve, who were recently called up for service in connection with the reinforcing of the garrison in Palestine, reported for duty, is the subject of a statement issued by the War Office on Monday.

The Calling-up notices were received at the earliest by the Reservists on Saturday morning, 5th September. Less than 48 hours later no fewer than 70% were at their regimental depots, and by the 10th of September the total of the reservists rejoined was 99%. Bearing in mind that the men were scattered throughout the British Isles it is considered that the figures bear witness to the excellent spirit of the reservists. An interesting point is that only 2% were found to be medically unfit and these only temporarily so on account of injuries or illness.

MARTIAL LAW IN PALESTINE

safety and the defence of Palestine.

The Order will be brought into force in Palestine by the Proclamation of the High Commissioner, but a further proclamation will be required for the delegation of power to the General Officer Commanding who will then be able to make regulations as and when he considers necessary on such subjects as censorship, arrest, detention, exclusion and deportation, the control of harbour ports and aerodromes, transportation by land, air, or water, trading appropriation, the control and forfeiture and disposition of property, the infliction of communal fines and the forfeiture and destruction of property, as punitive measures.

These regulations will not be open to challenge in any court of law. Moreover, the power conferred will include the setting up of military courts for the trial of offences against these regulations, from the decision of which there shall, if the General Officer Commanding thinks fit, be no appeal.

The new Order in Council relating to Defence and the public safety in Palestine has been generally anticipated since the issue on September 7th of an Official Statement in which it was stated that the Government, after a careful review of the whole situation, had satisfied themselves that in view of the continuance of the campaign of violence and the threats of violence by which the Arab leaders have been attempting to influence policy, that more effective action must be taken to bring the disorders to an end, and in which the despatch of reinforcements to Palestine was announced.

The Proclamation of Martial Law would not in itself have conferred greater powers over the civil population than are already possessed, whereas the present Order puts the authorities in possession of clearly defined and unchallengeable powers.

ENGLAND - JOHANNESBURG AIR RACE

The air race from England to Johannesburg started very early yesterday morning. Captain Halse, who was the first of the competitors to reach Belgrade, arrived first at Cairo where he landed at 7.10 British summer time. Halse - who is flying a Perceval Gull - was the second to set off from Portsmouth and is at scratch in the handicap section of the race.

Llewellyn and Hughesdon in a Vega Gull, Rose and Bagshaw in a Double Eagle, and Scott and Guthrie in a Vega Gull, were all reported to have left Salonika soon after 6.20 British summer time. Findley and Waller, in an Air Speed Envoy, and Clouston in a Miles Hawk Six, left Belgrade early yesterday afternoon. The three other competitors would appear to have abandoned the race. Owing to lack of petrol, Waller, in a Mew Gull, was forced to land at Ruma 50 miles east of Belgrade and was delayed for  $4\frac{1}{2}$  hours before he could obtain fuel. He flew into Belgrade where he announced his intention of giving up the race. The competitors describe the flying conditions as being far from good, with mist up to 10,000 feet.

INSURGENTS ADVANCE ON MADRID

It is reported from Rabat that the insurgents' advance on Madrid has begun. The Government is hurriedly constructing three lines of defence around the capital. A message from St. Jean de Luz reports that General O'Duffy, who claims to have raised an Irish brigade of 2,000 men for service in Spain, crossed the frontier yesterday en route for Burgos at Pampeluna. O'Duffy's plan is that the Irish men should go out in mufti to enlist in the Spanish Foreign Legion.

Foodstuffs are being gathered together in Madrid in preparation for a siege. The insurgent Cruiser "Canaris" sank the Government destroyer "Almirante Juan Fernandez" yesterday in a naval battle in the Straits.
