SNOWDONIAS

20 EXTRA SPECIAL FEATURES make "SNOWDONIAS" Indestructible and Impenetrable!

NO perfect "Snowdonias" Scientists delved into scientific data and into every other process of manufacture; they studied Nature's destructive forces and the often interable work-a-day conditions that man is up against in almost every job on land and on the high seas. With the result, these super "Snowdonias" Rubbers, to-day, are the most amazing achievement the world has ever seen at any price. Men can't wear them out, nor the elements penetrate, nor even destroy, these massive "Snowdonias" in years. Think! 20 extra features in every pair of "Snowdonias". Guaranteed to withstand the most formidable odds and the biggest trouncing a real hand-built boot could ever take—nothing half-hearted about that! Still more! You'll never wear a lighter weight rubber boot or a boot of purer rubber, endowed with such a hefty bumper-like sole, rolled over the sides to meet those tremendously protective toe, side, and heel reinforcements, and on top of the sole, grand non-slip extra-wearing cleats; while for comfort and warmth they're lined to the toe with Genome thick Wool Stockinette. From Manufacturers and National Institutions, from scores of thousands of men in every trade and calling, praise in the past has been showered upon "Snowdonias". To-day, "Snowdonias" are miles better than ever they were, yet cost no more than the commonest boot on the market. Choose "Snowdonias" then for years of guaranteed service and SAVE MONEY. The three styles in Men's sizes, 5 to 11. ORDER BOOT SIZE WORN.

SO GREAT IS THE DEMAND FOR "SNOWDONIAS" THAT WE'VE ORDERED 99,710 PAIRS (Auditors' Certificate reproduced opposite)

WHO'D dream of choosing the flimsy, unhygienic, ordinary Wellingtons that crack and break down after a few months wear? Who'd pay as much and more for those when the Genuinely Hygienic "Snowdonia" Boot with its sumptuously cozy and extra durable Wool Stockinette lining, comes to you at money-saving warehouse prices with an unconditional guarantee to last twice as long as any other make! For common-sense reasons—the upper, twice the thickness of all other makes, is of fresh resilient "pure gum"—not loaded with chemicals to make it heavy—into which—and for the most part unseen—no less than 17 extra super reinforcements are incorporated at vulnerable parts, to give shapeliness and life-long Service, besides a sole which has never yet been eclipsed for wear, marvellous cushioned comfort and greater ease in walking. The "Snowdonia" sole is made of pure scientifically vulcanized rubber, twice as thick as any other, but does not leak it; with a unique non-slipping tread, also a rolled edge to protect the upper that features a corrugated extra protective toe-cap and surround—wonderful! Even leading men in the Wellington Boot Industry praise "Snowdonias" and acknowledge them to be the finest in the world for Quality and Style, Fit and Comfort and Value. So refuse substitutes—fit "Snowdonias". There's a style to suit every member of the family. YOU'LL SAVE POUNDS.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Hankow. Reliable authority states the Japanese peace terms communicated to the German Ambassador, H. Trautmann, were presented to the Chinese Generalissimo Chiang Kaishek who immediately rejected them. The terms are understood to include Japan's participation in economic military and political control of China with the latter's adherence to anti communist pact, payment of indemnity, formation of independent Government of inner Mongolia. Generalissimo Kaishek has handed over the Premiership to the Finance Minister Kung, while other Cabinet changes were made to increase the Chinese war efficiency. Shanghai reports, following further grenade throwing, the municipal police invested with the emergency powers including the right of search for arms. The Soviet Embassy in Shanghai was destroyed by fire, the origin is unknown.

Washington. In the long awaited address to Congress, President Roosevelt plunged straight into the international situation states the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent, and the speech which was broadcasted throughout the world, declared that the Dictatorships jeopardized the civilisation and world peace, and was only safe in democracies hands. He also pointed out that while the policies of other nations had far reaching effects on America, the United States had kept at peace despite provocation, which in other days might have brought war, but it followed that the nation must be made adequately strong in self defence. Concerning the home affairs, the President appealed for co-operation by capital and labour with the Government to ensure national unity, while he denounced minority in business which exploited, prevailing the situation, but he reaffirmed the belief in private enterprise. Quotes from speech, "I believe the civilised men increasingly insists on genuine participation in his own Government; world peace through international agreements is most safe in the hands of the democracies representative Government; reasonable earnings on capital are essential, but the misuse of power, of capital, or selfish suspension of employment of capital must be ended, or the system will destroy itself through its own abuses. Wall Street received a message favourably, while London authoritative circles gratified particularly in reference to democracy.

Teruel. According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the City's fate is still in the balance, with the Government forces fighting through to Citadel and effecting capture after breaching walls with dynamite. Outside the town the Insurgent forces are standing on recent gains to consolidate for further attack from a vantage point one and a half miles from the city where reinforcements are expected. Meanwhile the fighting has ceased. Saragossa message states the bodies of the dead British and American Journalists were taken by road to Hendaye after a religious service, when General Moscardo representing the Insurgent leader, declaimed "Long live England, North America and Spain". The streets were lined as the cortege left the town.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Shanghai. The "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent in close touch with the Japanese business and professional circles, finds evidence of the growing opinion that all is not right in the Chinese campaign. It is suggested that there is a growing divergence of opinion between the army and the Government, with the latter realising that war cost can never be offset by military gains, upon which the former are basing the demands for greater control. Other sources envisage the possibility of China being in desperate straits and turning to the Soviet, and this Germany and Italy are at pains to prevent. A Tokio message also indicates that Japan is not fully satisfied with Germany's interactions, and with many veiled suggestions she is extending aid to China and co-operating with Britain.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. The new commission to be sent to Palestine will be a technical commission. Its work will be confined to ascertaining facts and to considering in detail the practical possibilities of the scheme of partition. The terms of reference are contained in a despatch from the Secretary for the Colonies and to the High Commissioner for Palestine in the course of which Mr. Ormsby Gore says "In the statement of policy issued in July last, His Majesty's Government have expressed their general agreement with the arguments and the conclusions of the Royal Commission and their opinion scheme of the tripartite division is the best and most hopeful solution of the problem. In view of the public attention that has been devoted to the criticism of certain features of a tentative plan of the partition outlined in part three of the report of the Royal Commission. I wish to make it clear that His Majesty's Government are in no sense committed to the approval of that plan and in particular that they have not accepted the Commission's proposal for a compulsory transfer in the last resort of the Arabs from the Jewish to the Arab area. In the opinion of His Majesty's Government the discussions at Geneva justify the undertaking of further investigations required for the updrawing of a more precise scheme expressed in greater detail. The final decision cannot be taken in merely general terms, and further enquiry will undoubtedly provide the necessary materials, or of when the best possible scheme has been formulated to judge of its equity and practicability. As you are aware, it has been announced that a further special body will be appointed to visit Palestine and submit to His Majesty's Government after consultation with the local communities, the proposals for the detailed scheme of partition and that it will be the task of this body to advise in due course as to the provisional boundaries of the proposed Arab and Jewish areas and of the new British Mandated area and also to undertake the financial and other enquiries for which the Royal Commission, and that the Financial Commission should be appointed

After giving the terms of the reference the Colonial Secretary continued "if as a result of investigations of the technical commission which will undoubtedly occupy many months, the scheme of partition is regarded as equitable and practicable by His Majesty's Government, it will be referred to the Council of the League for consideration.

Beginning on the 4th April, upwards of a million boys and girls had left the schoolroom for industry, but did not previously come under the Health Insurance Scheme, because they were not yet sixteen years old and would become eligible for medical benefit. Sir Kingsley Wood said this year was likewise an important one for many hundreds of thousands of people of limited means who were qualified to benefit under the new Black coated workers pension scheme. He was glad to say that more than 215,000 had already made their application and that applications were now being received at the rate of over 22,000 weekly.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. A dramatic story has been unfolded, when four young May-fair men appeared on remand before the Westminster Magistrate, the Council prosecution stated that while showing rings at a hotel, Bellinger received a blow on the head and turning round found the man who had hit him standing with what looked a block mallet and wearing tinted spectacles and a dark coloured handkerchief over the lower part of his face. Bellinger was hit several times, subsequently Bellinger was shown photographs of men and said the man with the mallet was Harley. It was alleged that Jenkins made a statement, wherein he said that no violence was to be used and they merely intended to steal the rings if there had been an opportunity. Jenkins added that when he saw Harley coming from a bedroom and looking desperate, he flew out of the place and got on a bus, subsequently he met Wilmer and Harley, the latter showing him a handful of diamond rings. Lonsdale, Wilmer and himself realised they were in a terrible position, and Wilmer suggesting they had better "lay low in the country". The statements by Wilmer and Lonsdale corroborated and Jenkins statement asserted assault which was never contemplated. Harley stated the whole object of his getting mixed up with the robbery was to get insurance money. All four were remanded in custody.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Shanghai. The "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent reports grave developments in the international situation with the Japanese naval, military and Consular officials calling on the Municipal Council and making requests which mean the virtual control of the Settlement. The presence of the Japanese expeditionary force invests the requests with the force of demand and the phrasing of the delegations, the remarks leaves no doubt that they should be considered as such. The Council members consist of five British, two American, two Japanese and five Chinese and they've conveyed demands to the British and United States Governments but the Council members belief is, that unless these Governments refuse the demands, the control of the Settlement must pass to the Japanese when the Council would then resign. The main Japanese request is, that the Council should place the Japanese in controlling the positions in the Council Departments and raise the status authority numbers of the Japanese police. Tokio messages ascribe to the Home Minister, Admiral Suyetsugu, the statement alleging that Britain is obstructing Japan's economic expansion in China with Hong Kong, Indo China and the Soviet acting as channels for war material for China from England, France, Russia, Germany and Czechoslovakia. The Chinese press claims the reoccupation of Hangchow but the Japanese deny this, with a claim to the capture of Chufu three hundred miles south of Tientsen. Forty Japanese planes raided Hankow inflicting minor casualties.

Washington. Congress interest is mainly confined to the domestic matters touched upon in President Roosevelt's speech, but there is approval for the President's remark on the neighbourliness being reciprocal, while the press criticism is on a score of his failing failing to appreciate the gravity of the present situation at home and abroad. Both Italy and Germany find fault with the speech, particularly in reference to the democracy, Rome describing the declaration as inconsistent and aimless, while Berlin sarcastically refers to the attack of coueism. Wall street took an optimistic view and stocks rose all round.

Saragossa. According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the Insurgents are fighting their way into the south-west of Teruel and slowly encircling the town, while vigorous Government counter attacks were frustrated with both sides still subjected to Arctic conditions.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

Wellington. The projected record flight, England-New Zealand and return in nine days by Flying Officer Clouston in February, will have the Australasian terminal at Motueka where the flyer was born and his parents still reside.

London. Sir John Kelland, Chief Veterinary Officer at the Ministry of Agriculture since 1932 has been appointed Head of the new State Veterinary Service.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Shanghai. A Municipal Council Member informed the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent that the sweeping Japanese demands for the control of the Settlement created a most serious situation in the Council's history. The position has apparently been rendered graver by vague legal basis on which the Council's authority was founded and Japan is challenging the actual basis of rights now enjoyed by foreign powers, and so far as can now be ascertained there is no legal remedy for the repudiation of the agreement standing since 1854 but which is unsupported by written evidence. The Council has left the prevailing difficult situation to be settled through diplomatic channels. Japanese censors have established themes in the Cable and Postal Offices. A Tokio message announces the Government's intention of continuing war with the utmost vigour even though the Chinese sue for peace, unless she changes her attitude towards Japan.

Washington. In the annual Budget message to Congress, President Roosevelt announced that 991 million dollars will be spent on the National Defence during the coming fiscal year, this representing a record of peace time allocation, while he added a warning that "due to the world conditions over which this nation has no control" it might be necessary to increase the expenditure on armaments still further. With the total expenditure at 6,869 millions and revenue of 5,919 millions which respectively 559 millions and 401 millions are below the current year, the deficit shows a decrease of 138 millions on the current years estimates. The naval allocations amount of 570 millions with a fleet seeking and additional 23½ millions for new aircraft. While the message was being delivered to Congress, the President was in conference with naval officials when the supplementary programme was decided upon, if the international situation does not improve and the statement subsequently is issued, there would probably be a Congress message shortly recommending the naval expansion.

Shanghai. The Sino Japanese Forces are moving inevitably towards a large scale battle, 300 miles north of Hankow in the Yellow River region. Reliable sources estimate that half a million Chinese are concentrated along the Linghai railway reports the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent, while the Japanese are moving rapidly southwards along the Tientsin-Nanking railway and pushing towards Suchow with the apparent objective of cutting off Hankow. The Chinese are determined to make supreme efforts to resist this with Kaisheks Generals giving strong reinforcement, aided by many volunteer airmen. The Chinese planes raided Wuhu destroying six Japanese machines. A Washington message announces that the State Department are maintaining a close watch on the alleged Japanese encroachment on the national rights in Shanghai, but official reports are still unavailable.

Jerusalem. Two buses were ambushed resulting in two Jewish deaths. Troops and police are pursuing the marauders.

Houston. The first helium ever exported from the United States is being shipped to Germany this week, consisting of 17,500 cubic feet.

FACETIAE.

His wife, determined to cure him of his evil ways, with the aid of a sheet and an electric torch transformed herself into a fair resemblance of a ghost. She went in and shook the drunkard. "Wash that?" murmured the toper.

in sepulchral tones. "Shake hands,

"This is the devil," came the answer old horsh, I married your sister."

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. What the "Daily Telegraph" calls "disagreeable evidence of high tension which now exists in Shanghai between Japanese forces and the Nationalities responsible for keeping order in the International Settlement" is contained in various press reports which were given prominence in Saturday morning's papers of the incidents in which it is alleged that the Settlement police officers were manhandled by Japanese soldiers. Official report on these incidents is awaited in London. The "Daily Mail" says Editorially "British opinion will be deeply stirred by the news of the attacks by Japanese soldiers on two British policemen in Shanghai on Friday. It heartily endorses a prompt and stern protest by the Commander-in-Chief of the spot. In discussing the general situation created by the Japanese Military action at Shanghai, both the "Daily Mail" and "Daily Telegraph" make a point, that in the words of the Mail "there seems to be little connection between the orders of Tokio and acts of its armed forces". This is echoed throughout the press comment. Leader writers also direct their attention to the requests made on January 4th by the Japanese authorities to the Municipal Council of the International Settlement for an increase in the number of Japanese in the police force and in both higher Administrative and general personnel in the Councils employment. A full report on these requests has been received by the British Government from the British Consul General at Shanghai, and presumably other Governments whose nationals participate in the control of the International Settlement will also have received their own reports. In London the British Consul General's report is under expert consideration and it would be in conformity with the policy pursued since the beginning of the Far Eastern troubles, if a conclusion of such examination of proposals in relation to the Shanghai land regulations were followed by consultations with other interested powers.

London. The Lord Mayor's Fund for the relief of the distress in China, has received the following telegram from the British Consul General at Shanghai concerning the plight of the Chinese refugees "at present approximately 350,000 destitute refugees in Shanghai are being fed, clothed and housed. Repatriation to the surrounding districts occupied by the Japanese military is impossible at present. Other areas are faced with serious refugee problems particularly Hankow. It is anticipated the distress will increase for the next two months. The Chinese and local communities have contributed generously but the distress is widespread and beyond their capacity. Refugees in all centres probably total 1,000,000". In response to this urgent request the Lord Mayor Fund is sending immediately a further £15,000.

K. E. M. HOSPITAL NOTICE.

The attention of the public is called to the Regulations governing

- (a) Visiting hours at the K.E.M.Hospital.
- (b) Out-patient clinics at the K.E.M.Hospital.

The staff of the Medical Department has been anxious to meet the convenience of the public despite Regulations but this has resulted in imposition on good nature by some.

Staff members are interrupted in their regular duties to answer enquiries at irregular hours which investigation shows to be non-urgent and which could be quite as well dealt with at the usual period provided.

An appeal therefore is made to the public for cooperation so that if a visit to the Hospital is contemplated it will, unless the case be genuinely urgent, be made at the time prescribed by the Regulations.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Questions arising out of Japanese demands in Shanghai for an increased share in the Administration of the International Settlement, was the subject of consultation between the representatives there of the interested powers. The view expressed here is that in the present circumstances in Shanghai, the atmosphere is inappropriate for considering permanent changes in this direction. On the other hand it is freely recognised that it is the action of the countries to spare no effort to maintain peace and order in the Settlement and to suppress all forms of anti-foreign activity.

London. The National Council of Labour representing the Trades-union Congress and Labour Party, discussed the attitude regarding the boycotting of Japanese goods. The divergence of opinion exists concerning the definite embargo on handling the goods, owing to legal difficulties and risks, but the Council is endeavouring to formulate a policy to submit to the Continental Labour Leaders this week. Apart from the reiteration that the maximum should be done through the League of Nations and arrest Japanese aggression, no concrete steps are anticipated.

TRAGIC AIRPLANE ACCIDENT IN URUGUAY.

The day before yesterday the worst airplane accident involving the Argentine Airforce was reported from an isolated spot in Uruguayan Territory.

The nine occupants of the plane, which was one of the most modern, have perished among them the son of the President of the Argentine Republic.

The others killed are three Lieutenant Colonels, a Major (the co-pilot), a Captain of Frigates, and the wireless operator and mechanic.

A squadron of Argentine airplanes were returning from Uruguayana (an important town in Brazil situated on the River Uruguay) and all of them returned safely to Buenos Aires, with the exception of the most modern of the machines, and failing any report from the missing plane a search was being organized when the news came through from Uruguay that a wrecked plane had been found in a very isolated district bordering the river, and all occupants dead.

President Agustin F. Justo, who is finishing his term of office next month, has received the condolences of all on the death of his son Eduardo, and has gone out in a special train to the scene of the accident.

Consul General, Mr. Herbert Phillips, has addressed a letter of protest to the Japanese Consul General. One of the victims of the assault was Probationary Sergeant Turner, who was on duty at the East Barricade and requested the Japanese Police Officer to remonstrate with the Japanese sentries whom he considered were unnecessarily rough with the Chinese peasants passing through. When the Japanese policeman refused, Turner said he would report the matter. The Japanese constable alleged he had insulted the Japanese army and incited the soldiers to attack Turner, who in the subsequent assault suffered injuries necessitating hospital treatment. Sub Inspector Fowler and later Inspector West, arrived to try and calm the Japanese Officials, but were themselves assaulted, Fowler being struck in the face. They were also threatened with rifles by Japanese soldiers. Turner denies he used any offensive remarks. In his letter of protest, Mr. Phillips requests that the Japanese Consul General will endeavour to arrange a strict enquiry into the incident, and ask for assurance that suitable action will be taken to avoid a repetition of such disturbances.

Shanghai. The tension has increased here when Japanese marines occupied a British owned new Asia Hotel in the International Settlement and hauled down two Union Jack's while a clash between Japanese troops and Settlement police occurred on the French Concession border.

The incident occurred when a Japanese soldier commenced beating a Chinese woman in the French Concession and a Russian volunteer intervened. The soldier knocked down the Russian and more Japanese and Settlement police arrived and prepared for action, two French armoured cars were being called out.

After a heated discussion between Japanese officers and French police officials, the parties agreed and withdrew, but it is understood the French authorities will lodge a strong protest.

Mr Cornell Franklin, the American Chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Council, has vigorously protested against the recent attacks on British police officers and requesting the Japanese to take preventive measures against such incidents.

According to the "Sunday Times" Correspondent the incidents will adversely affect consideration by Britain, France and the United States of the Japanese demands for greater control in Shanghai.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Paris. Newspapers commenting on Italy's decision to build two 35,000 ton battleships and many smaller vessels, foresee a renewed Mediterranean Naval Armament race. One writer urges France to consider a speedy construction of comparable ships, while another declares that France has more important interests than Italy to defend in the Mediterranean. It is pointed out that Italy will be inevitably beaten in any arms race by Britain, and financing naval building may mean impoverishment of the social class forming a backbone of the Fascist State.

He foresaw an uncompromising fight with a handful endeavouring to retain the autocratic control over the country's finance.

Tokio. The Far East situation is being discussed by an emergency Cabinet meeting, and it is believed the Cabinet has accepted the army and navy League proposals, and that the Sino Japanese war continues until the Chinese Government are overthrown.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Washington. Sections of the United States Industry, especially Textile and boot and shoe trades, view with alarm the published list of articles on which Washington will discuss the concession under the proposed Anglo American Trade Agreement.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent, the spokesmen foresee the thriving centres ruined, but it is expected that much opposition is due to misunderstanding. Reductions will be carefully defined and imports from Britain will not affect the class of goods produced in the United States especially as regards the cotton and woolen articles.

The British Embassy officials praise the co operative spirit shown by the American negotiators.

Athens. Huge crowds thronged the procession route to the Cathedral where Prince Paul of Greece, and King George of Hellenes, an only brother, married Princess Frederika of Hanover, the Duke and Duchess of Brunswick's daughter. Tokio. The Emperor presiding over the Imperial Conference at the Palace, approved of "The Empire's unshakeable policy" to overthrow Marshal Chiang Kaishek unless he sues for peace on Japan's terms. The exact nature of the next moves which have been agreed after long discussions between the Cabinet and Chiefs of the armed forces are being kept strictly secret for the present says the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent, adding that it becomes clear that Japan is determined to wage war until China is powerless and the Japanese Far Eastern supremacy is unchallenged. A prolonged war is regarded as inevitable.

Hankow. Chiang Kaishek left for Lunghai front with considerable public speculation as to the probable resumption of the Chinese offensive. Twenty four planes raided the aerodrome here on Wednesday, dropping one hundred bombs. According to a Tokio message the Japanese have taken Tsinan and Weihsien. Newspapers all display a great interest in the Golden Wedding Celebrations of Mr. Lloyd George which will take place quietly on January 24th on the Riviera where the Wartime Premier and Dame Margaret are at present on holiday. Berlin. At the New Years reception of the Diplomatic Corps in the old Presidential Palace, Wilhelmstrasse, Herr Hitler replying to congratulatory message from Ambassadors voiced by the Papal Nuncio Orsenigo Gore, renewed the assurances of Germany's desire for peace and co operation with other nations. Sedgwick with a very creditable net score of 101 of a possible 105.

The 1st prize for the Open 500 and 600 yards Competition, given by the Hon. G. Roberts, was won by Capt Fleuret with 64 of a possible 70.

The Hamilton Challenge Trophy for the highest aggregate score in the Bishop's Trophy, 1st Stage of Governor's Challenge, F.I. Coy's Handicap and the Open 500 and 600 yards was won by Pte H.H. Sedgwick.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Paris. After an all night debate M. Chautemps Cabinet resigned, when Socialist and Communist members withdrew the support. President Lebrun consulted the various party leaders throughout the day says the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent and after refusals by Radicals, M. Chautemps and M. Daladier to form a Cabinet, the late Finance Minister, M. Bonnet agreed to make an attempt. Meanwhile the Socialist leaders who are responsible for the Government's fall passed a resolution demanding that a new popular front Government should be formed under their leadership and the Communists issued a manifesto threatening a general strike unless these demands were accepted.

Washington. The complete abolition of all holding companies as one of industrial and objectives with only investment trusts which contained no element of control are exempted and projected by President Roosevelt in a sweeping declaration made in answer to the question at the Press Conference. The method of eliminating the holding companies are not yet decided said the President. The statement leaves the financial circles still more bewildered over whether President Roosevelt favours the small concerns competing for public patronage or some form of a planned production.

Hankow. The Chinese are taking a swift advantage of the frozen Grand Canal as a cutout route and launched a swift counter attack and recaptured Tsising. Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek personally is conducting the operation with 40,000 troops massed on the German built fortified line from Lunghai and are prepared for the biggest battle of war. A Tokio message indicate that special care is being taken in drafting the Foreign Minister Hirota's speech that will deal with Japanese relations towards Britain, United States, Russia, Germany, Italy and Manchukuo. Washington reports the United States Nanking Embassy lodged a new protest to the Japanese concerning the continued looting of American property by Japanese soldiers.

and Dennis Lehen. The highest handicap score in this Competition a novelty prize was given by D.S.A. Weir, Esq in the form of an 18 carat Gold Wedding Ring. The winner of the ring holds it for one year and if during that year he marries it becomes his own property. If a married man wins it he holds it for one year. There was some keen competition and several single men were well in the running but alas, J.R. Gleadell a married man, was the winner by a narrow margin of .4 point from Joe Ryan (Single.) Hard luck Joe, better luck next year.

To conclude the Meeting the twelve finalists in the Governor's Challenge Shield & Silver Bowl Competition retired to the 900 & 100 yards ranges to contest for the most important prize of the Meeting. This is always the most trying shoot of the Meeting, 2 sighters & 15 shots to count at each 900 and 100 yards. By this time a stiff 3.0'clock breeze was blowing ranging from 20 to 25 degrees.

Some good scores were registered at 900 yards and on going back to the 1000 yards the leading positions were held by J.R. Gleadell 202, W. Aldridge 199, E.J. McAtasney & H.H. Sedgwick 198 and L. Reive 197.

His Excellency Sir M. Henniker-Heaton, doner of the Prize was present and showed great keenness during the Final Stages and congratulated Mr. Gleadell on his splendid effort.

London. Arrangements are made in the city for a fifty million dollar loan to Canada with issue at 3½% stock at 98½ to replace the maturing loans. The issue on Wednesday is assured of a good reception with the terms reflecting to Canada's high credit status.

London. Combined operations and exercise will take place at Singapore at the beginning of February in which ships of the Royal Navy from the East Indies Squadron and China Squadron and of the Royal Indian Navy troops of Singapore Garrison excluding volunteers, but reinforced by the first and second Punjab regiment and Malay regiment and Royal Air Force Squadrons at Singapore, reinforced by some units from India and Iraq will take part. The combined exercises of this nature are carried out from time to time with a view to testing the various defences of Singapore and are part of the normal training. The forthcoming exercise which it is expected will be on the same scale as last year will be of a comprehensive nature and will afford a further opportunity of studying the particular problems affecting each service. The exercise however as is inevitable in such cases will contain artificial elements which will prevent any precise conclusions being drawn. The Commander-in-Chief, Vice Admiral Sir Alexander Ramsay will be in command of the Naval forces. The Military forces will be under the command of Major General W.G.S. Dobbie, General Officer commanding Malay. The R.A.F. units in the defending force will be under the immediate command of Air Vice Marshal A.W. Tedder Air Officer commanding the Royal Air force in the far East command.

The increasing use is made of the screen in army training. Instruction by films is largely employed for objective training of troops in use of weapons, transport, and signalling. Among subjects taught by moving pictures and accompanied by explanatory talks by the instructor are rifle shooting from various positions and complete working of a light automatic gun. Drivers also are trained in the care and operation of motor vehicles, their salvage and unditching and signallers are shown the correct and incorrect methods of using the morse flag, the heliograph daylight lamp and telephone. Demonstrations of crossing a river by a company of infantry teaches the use of the latest types of kapok bridging materials. In other instructional films, artillery is seen negotiating trenches and hedges and coming into action, firing, and going out of action, while the infantry are seen preparing a village for defence and cavalry covering the advance. Driving and maintenance of tanks with methods of dismantling and reassembling are shown.

London. Responsible circles find good grounds for the happy issue of Anglo Irish talks but with all material for agreements advantageous to both countries, full confidence is not evident. The Irish Ministers are assured of a very friendly reception and if discussions lead up to the measures which are now practicable, good results should be attained says the "Sunday Times". An official announcement of the Conference sets wide limits and this is considered wise since the first object must be seeking common ground for to give and take negotiations. The preliminary Conference will last two or three days when Mr. Devalera will return to Dublin while experts on both sides continue talks. The defence matters will come within the second stage of the negotiations and since the conference is held on Mr. Devalera's initiative it is assumed he has some definite proposals. A better atmosphere prevails than at any previous Anglo Irish Conference.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Paris. The Finance Minister M. Bonnet is now engaged on forming a Cabinet but has informed President Loubet that the decision remains in the hands of the Radical and Socialist groups in the Chamber and Senate. The Socialists are definitely against M. Bonnet says the "Sunday Times" Correspondent and openly state that his Premiership would be a flat contradiction of the French peoples wishes. It is fairly certain however that M. Chautemps will be the Foreign Minister if M. Bonnet's efforts are successful.

New York. Ex President Hoover, addressing the Womens Republican Club by radio from San Francisco called upon America to co operate with the rest of the world and lift the burdens of war. Mr. Hoover's view was that the United States should not endanger herself by using Military force in other peoples wars but direct all efforts towards the advancement of the worlds economic and social welfare. Summing up he demanded the reduction of tariffs, upholding sanctity of treaties, refusal of recognition to advantage gained by violation of Facts.

Barcelona. The Government forces are cleaning up the Teruel area, but Artillery duels continue outside the city which has practically become no mans land. On the Aragon front heavy fog is impeding operations but elsewhere aircraft is active.

Amman. The Transjordan Pipe line was again damaged during Saturday night, but repairs were effected and the situation remains normal.

Dock labourer from the Falkland Islands.

One of yesterday's party, who shot at Bisley for the first time, is Sergeant W. Browning. He hails from the Falkland Islands, where he was born and which he has never left until this year. To Sergeant Browning, who is a dock labourer in Port Stanley, his experiences of travelling in England and Scotland have been the biggest events in his life.

"I have had a simply wonderful time," he said to a representative of the "Glasgow Herald". "The tour has been an education to me."

Private E. J. McAtasney, also from the Falkland Islands, joined the Colours in Glasgow in 1916, and was a patient in Erskine Hospital for some time. He has competed at Bisley five times.

The following is an abstract from the "Glasgow Herald" of July 24, 1937

Riflemen from Overseas.

Bisley Shots in Scotland.

Another visit to Craigton.

The hospitality which Miss Helen Rottenburgh, the Scottish riflewoman, dispenses for some hours at Craigton, Fintry, Stirlingshire, on a day following the close of the Bisley meeting has been for years an annual social event greatly enjoyed by colonial marksmen.

Last year Miss Rottenburgh entertained members of the Canadian and South African teams. Her guests yesterday were representative of teams which competed at Bisley from Canada, Australia, and the Falkland Islands.

At the receptions at Craigton there are always revealed by the visitors from overseas interesting links with the Mother Country, while among the shots are those who will carry back to their homes lasting memories and impressions of a first sojourn in England and Scotland.

According to the Japanese official spokesman, the navigation of the Yangtze by foreign vessels is only permissible with the Japanese approval when an escort will be provided since a free passage would obstruct military operations. Washington. The representatives appropriation's committee recommended the allocation of 553 million dollars for the navy during the coming year, this providing for the construction of two battleships and twenty other war vessels which will include two cruisers and eight destroyers. The appropriation is 26 $\frac{3}{4}$ million dollars above that for the current year, and the Chief of the naval operations, Admiral Leahy, addressing the committee declared that from a standpoint of peace the present world conditions are worse than a year ago and the United States could not reduce the defence without jeopardising security. Congressmen forecast President Roosevelt's message on the naval appropriations and will warn the rest of the world that the United States intends being prepared for any emergency.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Conversations between the United Kingdom Ministers and Mr. De Valera and his colleagues were continued at Downing Street on Tuesday morning and in the afternoon. The communique issued at the end of each session indicate that the discussion begun on Monday was continued and that some of the matters discussed came under a further review. The discussions were to be resumed at noon yesterday and the meeting had been arranged for 10 o'clock at the Board of Trade between the Ministers specially concerned with the questions of trade and agriculture. It is thought likely in well informed circles that a preliminary stage of these conversations would be concluded yesterday and that Mr. De Valera and his colleagues would be able to return to Dublin either yesterday evening or today. It was well understood from the beginning that the present conversations between the two Governments were in the nature of preliminary exploration of outstanding questions affecting the two countries. It was not contemplated that such exploratory discussions would lead immediately to a formal agreement. At this stage neither the United Kingdom nor Eire are entering into new commitments or being relieved of existing commitments but when the conversations are adjourned a valuable joint survey by statesmen of the two countries will have been made and will provide a basis for more detailed study by officials in London and Dublin in the interval before the conversations are renewed. Tuesday's conversations extended over two and a quarter hours, and the question of defence and trade and annuities question were further examined. As was to be expected the partition issue was not raised again on Tuesday, the position of the two sides having been made completely clear on Monday as recorded in the official communique. It is understood the plans already have been made for further examination of questions of defence, finance and trade to be carried on between officials of the two Governments. These exchanges are bound to take a few weeks and it is obvious that if there is to be a possibility of a comprehensive trade agreement between the United Kingdom and Eire there is an immense amount of detailed study and preparation to be done by the officials and experts. It is emphasized in official circles in London that Tuesday's talks were again of a most friendly and frank nature.

London. The General Electric Company and Babcock Wilcox received one and a half million pounds orders for electric and boiler equipment for three Brazilian destroyers.

London. The Chairmans Sub Committee of the Non Intervention Committee on Tuesday resumed their consideration of a draft resolution dealing with the various portions of the Committee's plan namely the withdrawal from Spain of foreign volunteers; the recognition in certain circumstances that Spanish parties possess a status justifying them in exercising the belligerent rights at sea and restoration and strengthening of the scheme for observation of the Spanish frontiers by land and sea. The Committee agreed upon a number of outstanding questions. The Committee agreed also to authorise the Secretary to prepare drafts of replies to be sent by the Committee to the two Spanish parties. The Sub Committee will meet again on Friday.

London. A message to the tailors and garment workers Union by President Newton and Secretary Conley makes a plea for Japanese boycott by individual refusal to purchase goods of Japanese manufacture and as the Union to support the measures, bringing the financial and commercial diplomatic pressure to restrain Japan from executing designs on China.

London. An increase of two inches in the average height and seven or eight pounds in weight of school children in the last forty years were mentioned by Lord Stanhope at Islington on Monday night when he spoke in support of the national health campaign. Tokio. The Governments statement on the decisions reached at the Imperial Conference has been issued but according to the "Daily Telegraph" the public generally consider it extremely mild and uninformative. The belief prevails that the statement by no means fully discloses the Conference decisions. The main points of the statement are, that Japan ceases forthwith to deal with Chiang Kaishek Administration but looks forward to the establishment and growth of a new Chinese regime with which harmonious co operation can be counted upon, increased assistance by Japan to the Chinese provincial Governments, modification of Chinese diplomats status in Japan, resumption of Japanese drive which stayed since Nanking's fall. The army and navy are dissatisfied at the Governments "spineless policy" and unless a more positive policy is announced there is a strong possibility of a change in the Administration.

Madrid. A Madrid message gives details of Mondays mysterious explosion when a munitions dump and underground railway was blown up with 300 casualties and the main thoroughfare wrecked. Government sources ascribe the calamity to a timebomb placed by an Insurgent Agent, but the indifference by soldiers smoking near petrol stations is not ruled out.

Berlin. It is officially announced that Pastor Neumoeller leader of the Confessional opposition Church, under arrest since July 1st is being tried by a special court on February 7th on charges of malicious attacks on the State and Nazi Party, constant misuse of the Pulpit for political ends, incitement to disobedience of the laws.

	£240.17s. 1d.

THE SOLARIUM, KING EDWARD VII. HOSPITAL, STANLEY.

The Solarium at the King Edward VII. Hospital recently built by Public Subscription to Commemorate the Silver Jubilee of His late Majesty King George the V. has been in use since the 5th of December, 1937. This building serves as a model to the community. Fitted with special Vita-Glass which permits the high energizing ultra-violet light to pass through (ordinary window glass filters this out) the Solarium permits the individual to be sheltered from the cold and yet expose the bare skin to the beneficial influence of Sunlight.

The Modern Doctor aims at providing a population that does not merely exist but which is effective. Light has been, and is, a great ally in accomplishing this. Ultra-violet light is probably one of the most vitalizing agents we possess to stimulate resistance to infections such as the common cold and influenza.

Apart from its Medical uses, in the brief time the Solarium has been in use it has emphasized the desirability and attractiveness of having such a room to live and work in

The Fund which has made the Solarium possible was initiated by the West Falklands as far back as April, 1935. Subscriptions flowed in from Farmers, Shepherds and labourers and members of all sections of the community in Stanley. Every subscriber has done something for the comfort and well-being of the patients in the King Edward Hospital and can feel that the noble use to which their money has been put warranted the delay in completing the commemoration of the Jubilee of our late beloved Sovereign.

London. A British Jews meeting under the Board of Deputies was described as the Jewish Parliament and passed a resolution welcoming the solution of the Palestine problems and providing for the establishment of a Jewish Dominion within the British Commonwealth. The text of the resolution is being conveyed to the Premier and Colonial Secretary.

Bucharest. Premier Goga in an interview with pressmen stated the action is being taken against the waves of the Jews who flooded Roumania after the war and whose presence necessitated measures for the protection of the Roumanian citizens. P. Goga alleged that many entered the country by trickery and there were now approximately 500,000 undesirable Jews in the country. He suggested the League of Nations should assist in solving the problem of their redistribution but denied any possible adoption of Fascist measures adding that any steps taken would be distinctly within the constitution.

Sandiego. Eighteen Naval bombing planes have taken off for a 2,500 miles non stop flight to Hawaii, the total crews are over 100.

Tokio. The Navy office official spokesman, Rear Admiral Mojo, informed the foreign journalists that Japan was adhering to the policy of a nonmenacing and nonaggressive navy, but if early reports of the United States that a new building programme were correct, the naval race might start with the Soviet having to be taken into account. While the Japanese secrecy in naval matters might cause uneasiness Rear Admiral Mojo said he asked the world to believe in Japan's good faith.

Saragossa. The Insurgents are continuing a slow advance on Teruel from the northern hills and all Government counter attacks were repulsed. Considerable aerial activity is reported with Valencia twice bombed during the day.

Globe Store

Which is the VERY BEST and MOST RELIABLE make of RADIO RECEIVERS?

There can only be one answer to such a question:-

"R.C.A.-Victor"

and among the many reasons for such an assertion is the undeniable fact that the manufacturers, the Radio Corporation of America, is the largest and strongest company and in possession of the greatest experience in the manufacturing of Radio Receiving Sets.

Freak machines are not produced under the "R.C.A.-Victor" Brand. For that reason purity of tone has always been the main object of the "RCA-Victor" manufacturers. What can be the good of getting dozens of stations if the music is blurred or distorted, or the speech raucous and offending to the ear?

Purity of Tone, and reliability while in use, are the best points of an "R.C.A.-Victor" set, and this is achieved by the use of sound radio-engineering principles and the employment of only the very best components, Valves, Condensers, Transformers, Resistors, coils and the thousand and one components that go into the making of a modern Radio Receiver.

But to please the ear is not enough - the sets are also housed in beautifully built and polished cabinets, made of fine woods (not metal or curdled milk) in fact handsome pieces of furniture that also please the eye.

There is a very good reason for only using fine woods for the cabinets. It is the same reason that guides piano and violin makers to use wood and only wood for such instruments. People do not want the tinny resonance of a brass band inside their houses. What would a piano built into a steel cabinet sound like? How would Kreisler's exquisite touch be interpreted on a violin made of an entirely artificial and unsympathetic material like 'bakelite'.

The long winter nights will soon be coming round again - and that is when you will fully appreciate the best Radio ~~Entertainments~~ that the world can give by tuning in on an "R.C.A.-Victor" set. The news from London every night given in a straightforward manner and in plain and ~~concise~~ English; marches and other first class ~~music~~ from Berlin at the turn of the knob; Casa Tow's programme from Buenos Aires every Monday and Friday night; Twenty stations on the South American Continent from which to select dance music; the opera in its season from 'Radio Municipal' in B.A.; and that very charming and very reliable source of classical music the "Estacion Oficial" in Montevideo.

We shall shortly be receiving a new consignment of R.C.A.-Victor Radio Receiving sets of the newest 1938 models, both 'all-electric' and battery and 'Wincharger' operated for ~~far use~~.

Please place your orders with us now, for early ~~delivery~~ as soon as the days shorten up.

Prices are lower this year, and easy terms can be arranged.

Tokio. The realisation of the financial difficulties are likely to result from prolonged hostilities and it is believed the explanation for the sudden change of the Japanese attitude is revealed in the Foreign Minister Hirota's declaration of the desire to maintain friendly relations with Britain and the United States.

Apparently the Government decided it cannot afford to incur Anglo American enmity and an attempt to curb the Anti British press campaign seen in the speech, urging the support of the Government attitude.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the Japanese fear the possible Soviet aid for China. Meantime the diet questions regarding the economic policy indicate that political opposition remains.

It is stated that scepticism exists in Washington regarding the speeches significance as it is emphasised that the Japanese policy often improvised by her forces in China.

Peking. The Japanese columns are approaching Suchow in a blizzard and meeting bitter resistance. The weather is hampering supplies and 30,000 Chinese troops are reported to be roving the country side crazy with hunger, the Japanese bombing having further dislocated transport. The Chinese positions at Mingkuang were stormed at bayonet point after five hours battle and the retreating troops destroyed the river bridges. The Japanese artillery are attempting to cross and crashed through ice, and the engineers in freezing water constructed temporary structures. Owing to the bitter weather frostbite is causing more casualties than fighting.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent, the Chinese renewed the attack on Wuhu decimating the Japanese force in the suburb. Planes bombed Japanese warships, and the Japanese Brigade Headquarters at Hsuechen were forced to retire.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Teriguan. Thirty bombs dropped by Nationalists seriously damaged the station and the track to Puigcerda, the frontier and the town on the Barcelona - France mountain railway, several bombs falling on French territory. The French and Spanish guns attacked planes and the raid casualties estimated is thirty killed and forty wounded.

Nationalists claim the progress north and south of Teruel while the Government admits slight modifications in the positions. It is reported that there are 225 killed and over 400 injured in the Government air raid on Salamanca.

Washington. Addressing representatives of the United States Jewish communities, the Interior Minister Ickes attacked the Dictators, asserting the nations which deemed freedom of thought and cruelly discriminated against their own citizens for race religion and political faith and were not conspicuously good neighbours abroad. He added it is not an accident that the Fascist leaders were unaccustomed to explain the actions at home and ignored the world opinion. Only when men despaired they yielded liberty to the Dictatorship in exchange for the illusion of a living. Democracys danger lay in the concentration of economic power over the labour wealth in the small autocratic class.

New York. The Labour dispute prevented the liner "Leviathan" leaving for Inverkeith Shipbreaking Yard, Scotland. One hundred and twenty five British and Canadian crew were engaged in England, and it was discovered that forty five Americans who were engaged here were receiving higher wages. During the three years the liner spent at Hoboken Pier, New Jersey, 80,000 dollars worth of rugs were destroyed or stolen. The vessel was sold for 800,000 dollars.

London. In connection with the British Consular representation in Russia it was stated in official circles in London, that the recent practice has been that one of the first Secretaries at the British Embassy in Moscow has been permitted by the United Kingdom Government to perform Consular functions there largely for the convenience of the Soviet Authorities since, for some years there has been no British Consul in Moscow. That the authority has now been withdrawn by His Majesty's Government, so that at present the only British Consul functioning in Russia is at Leningrad. This means that all Consular enquiries which had been previously addressed to Moscow must now go to Leningrad. Arrangement however is without prejudice to any final decision that may be reached following the announcement of the Soviet Government that they desire to establish a basis of parity for Consular representation.

London. Speaking at Liverpool on Monday the President of the Board of Trade referred negotiations for a trade treaty with the United States. "In the next few weeks Mr. Oliver Stanley said we are entering in a most important phase of negotiations for the most important trade treaty which this Government in its seven years of office has undertaken. We have in order to reach that stage had to overcome many difficulties which have meant hard work on both sides of the Atlantic. I am told by critics, that it is not going to be a Trade Agreement but a political agreement. I do not deny for one minute that any friendly entente with the United States or any sign to the world of any common interest, a friendliness between the United States and ourselves are bound to have the highest political importance. But this Trade Treaty. These negotiations are entered into on both sides because we both believe we can in a commercial treaty contribute to a commercial prosperity of our two countries and the world in general. That is what our negotiators will seek when they leave in a few days time to go to America. They will find many difficulties in their way, but I believe they will succeed, and I believe it is possible for them to bring back a Trade Treaty which will bring benefit to this country and to the United States and which will lead to a greater flow of trade between us and be an example which may do something to lower the restrictions on trade throughout the world.

London. According to the present arrangements Their Majesties the King and Queen with Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret will return to London next Monday from Sandringham where they have been since before Christmas.

It is gratifying to note that during the week-end the score list was headed on each day by one of our young members, namely C.Reive and J.Bound.

There is at present only a comparatively small list of members to pick from when selecting teams to represent the Colony either at Bisley or in the Postal Shoots and we would welcome with open arms a few more to supplement that list.

Of course the young members must realize that to improve their shooting they must dig in and practice more often and more seriously.

A man weighs twice as many pounds as his own age in years plus as many pounds as the age of his grandson in years. The age of the man's son multiplied by the grandson's age is equal to the weight of the grandson's father in pounds. The total weight of the three exceeds three times their total ages by the grandfather's age ten years ago. In 24 years the grandson will be as old as his father is now, who will be as old as the grandfather's present age minus the grandson's present age. If the grandfather's present age equals the grandson's weight, how old is the grandfather's son now?

Shanghai. Judging from despatches received there is reason to believe that Tokio is worried by the continued check to the Japanese forces in Tientsin - Nanking Railway area. The progress from the south is apparently halted near Pongpu, while the northern armies march was checked south of Yenchow. While the weather and lack of reinforcements have hindered the Japanese, they have also encountered more powerful opposition than expected, while they fear the extension of lines may be disastrous. It is understood the Japanese Commander-in-Chief requested reinforcements, consisting of four divisions but this was refused on the grounds that other contingencies must be met.

Mr. J. C. North's Stamps of the Falkland Islands.

At the meeting of the Huddersfield Philatelic Society on Wednesday evening Mr. J. C. North read a paper on "The Postage Stamps of the Falkland Islands". A display of the stamps of the Colony was given. Colour proofs of the first issue of 1878 were shown, and these were followed by many of the many beautifully printed stamps themselves, including numerous shades and varieties of watermark. In 1891 the postage to the United Kingdom and Colonies was reduced from 4d. to 2½d. per half ounce. As there were no ½d. or 2½d. stamps in stock, the 1d. was officially allowed to be bisected and surcharged ½d. Mr. North's collection includes a large number of these bisects, most of them being on the entire envelope.

The 2s. 6d. and 5s. values, issued in 1898, were the last of the Victorian stamps, and these are considered to be two of the finest of the British Colonial stamps printed. They certainly are excellent examples of the high degree of efficiency attained by the printers. The issues of King Edward VII.'s reign, including specially over-printed war stamps, were exhibited, and then came the George V. issues. The 1929 set in somewhat gaudy colours tends to spoil the high standard of the remainder of the Falkland Islands group. The centenary issue of 1933, an extremely beautiful set, was shown in blocks of four. This issue has appreciated very rapidly and is now quite valuable. Mr. North is also the fortunate possessor of the set perforated "specimen." With the Silver Jubilee and Coronation issues in mint blocks of four the talk ended.

Mr. G. Mellor, proposing a vote of thanks to Mr. North, emphasised the beauty of the design of the stamps of this colony, and also drew attention to the fine workmanship of the printers. The vote of thanks was seconded by Mr. R. E. C. Thomas and supported by Mr. T. B. Blakeborough.

Paris. The Franc continued steadily downward touching 154.87½ to the sterling before the exchange equalisation fund intervened, while a lifeless atmosphere prevailed in the Stock Markets. A Washington official statement says that France has ample gold and dollar balances in the United States to maintain support of the Franc, and the Tripartite agreement is still fully operative.

The Stock Markets reaction to President Roosevelt's statement that he opposed the wage reductions as a means of lowering prices was decided, the slump with losses ranging to seven and a half dollars says the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent. This is the sharpest decline of the year with Wall Street interpreting the President's remarks as an indication that there is little hope of an early agreement between the Administration and a big business to bring about the recovery. Over half a million shares changed hands in the first hours of Trading.

Hankow. Fifteen Japanese planes raided the town yesterday morning concentrating on the Aerodrome, but an attempt to bomb Hanyang Arsenal failed. According to Shanghai messages the situation in the Settlement is graver with terrorists executing, armed robberies and bomb outrages. Other incidents include a personal assault on the American Diplomat, Mr. Allison of the Nanking Embassy who was struck by a sentry while a Japanese soldier entered the house of the British resident and compelled the servants to hand over the wages at bayonet point. BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. At a public meeting of the League Council Thursday marking the opening of the hundredth Session, important declarations were made by members, including Mr. Anthony Eden who observed the League could legitimately be proud of its achievements, but there could be no advantage in shutting their eyes to certain events however regrettable and however much they might deplore them. "By defection of some of its more important members, the League is now faced with the fact that the area of co operation is restricted and that its ability to fulfil all functions originally contemplated for it is thereby reduced. We are compelled regretfully to recognise that fact, but His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom do not think it inappropriate that at the moment when they have to acknowledge the repudiation in some quarters of the League to declare that their faith in aims and ideals that inspire it remains unshaken. The principles on which the League was founded are laid down in preamble to covenant. They are the promotion of the International co operation and achievement of international peace and security on the basis of respect for international law. To those principles, His Majesty's Government hold fast and they believe that true peace and orderly progress and prosperity cannot be looked for in the world unless all nations co operate in some system based upon those principles. For a moment we must realize that in the present circumstances the League is not in a position to achieve all that was hoped for. It was designed to hold all nations of the world together in resistance to war and injustice. It was born of the universal desire to avoid recurrence of horrors through which the world had just passed. It was indeed hailed by all nations as responding to the urgent and spontaneous impulse. Believing as we do that the impulse survives, we can hope it will ultimately prevail and that differences will be narrowed to those of the method. For that reason it seems to His Majesty's Government essential in these difficult times to retain what still exists. They consider the League, despite its existing limitations and is the best instrument that has yet been devised for giving effect to the principles of international co operation and they are therefore determined to keep it in existence to give it their full support and to make use of its machinery and procedure to the fullest extent that circumstances permit.

"His Majesty's Government will welcome any co operation in work of the League which non members may be disposed to give and they do not regard their membership of the League as preventing or hindering friendly relations with non members since they see no reason why such relations should involve them in any departure from the principles to which I have referred. The League has never been, and His Majesty's Government for their part are resolved to do all in their power to ensure that it shall not become the home of any ideology, save that of peace and international co operation.

London. It is announced that Mr. Humbert Wolfe of the Ministry of Labour who has more than once represented the United Kingdom at International Conferences under the League's International Labour Organisation has been appointed Deputy Secretary of Ministry to succeed Mr. J. F. G. Price on the latter's retirement at the end of March. Mr. Wolfe has also the international reputation as a poet essayist and critic.

This health bulletin will be issued every month. It is hoped that in it you will find from time to time something that is of interest or benefit to you personally.

The Medical Department is primarily interested in teaching you how to keep fit, not how to get well. We believe the old saying that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Prime Minister Chamberlain recently said that people nowadays live on the average 19 years longer than when he was born. But what use is mere length of days. Surely what we want is increased health and happiness.

Straighten Up!

Lift your head, hold your shoulders square and your abdomen in, toes straight ahead. That is good walking posture - erect, but not stiff or awkward. If parents have the bad habit of slouching, it is not surprising that the children's posture needs attention.

Correct posture helps the organs of the body to do their work properly. A slumping posture may push the stomach, intestines, and other organs of the abdomen downward, crowding and cramping them. It may keep the lungs from expanding to their full capacity. It may even affect the action of the heart. For your own health's sake - and to set an example for your children stand, walk and sit erect.

Children's desks and work tables should permit the forearms and hands to rest on them without hunching of the shoulders. When boys and girls assume a correct sitting posture, their heads will be up, their arms supported, breathing unrestricted and their backs straight.

Undernourishment and physical weakness are quite frequently the cause of bad posture among children. The first need in such cases is to bring the child up to normal weight and strength. Posture usually improves as the weight increases.

A child should be taught to walk softly and avoid pounding with the heels. He should carry the feet close together, toeing straight ahead, and keeping his weight on the outer edge of the foot.

Sound, healthy feet are essential if one is to have good posture. And good posture is essential if one is to have good health.

The Solarium.

No gardener would dream of planting his seeds down in the cellar or for that matter in any place where the young plants would not be exposed to the sunlight. He knows perfectly well that sunlight is a stimulant and that while plants will grow to maturity in shade they will only grow profitably which is the same thing as to the best advantage, if there is ample sunlight. Human beings likewise grow "to the best advantage" when exposed to plenty of sunlight. There is a point we sometimes forget. If physical fitness had a market price, like potatoes, it would be easier to remember.

We need sunlight on our naked skin. The health giving qualities of sunlight are filtered out by clothing and by ordinary window glass. Only glass of a special kind allows nearly all the sunlight to pass through it and this is somewhat expensive.

The new Solarium at the K.E.M. Hospital is fitted with this special glass on all sides and when the patient's skin is exposed in this Solarium the patient rapidly feels the stimulating qualities of the sunlight.

This Solarium is open to any member of the public. When the sun is shining, he or she is free to come and sun bathe in any numbers which do not inconvenience the patient's or the hospital administration.

Whether or not you can come to the Solarium, make a point of getting some sunshine on your body this summer. It is cheap insurance!

You may have wondered where the flies go in the wintertime or you may not have. At any rate you must have observed how the fly population waxes to a peak in autumn, wanes to almost zero in winter.

It must be common knowledge too that the blue bottle fly lays its eggs in meat and, from our standpoint, has several other undesirable qualities. If all these eggs hatched, producing flies, the air would be blue with them. Actually, only a small percentage ever find suitable conditions to hatch. Still smaller are the number that hatch and thrive, or escape their natural enemies. It follows that the control of the fly problem consists in seeing to it that no suitable breeding places are left. That sheep's head you have been treasuring in the back yard - do not remove it - destroy it! Your neatsafe - is it fly-proof? When was it last scrubbed and lime washed? When did you last personally inspect it?

Again, every fly destroyed in early spring makes it that much more difficult for the fly to increase in numbers. Efficient fly catchers are cheap. Put out early, just after you have carefully cleaned up your yard these fly catchers are extremely useful.

Rome. Series explosions accompanied by an alarming outbreak of fire wrecked Segni the explosives factory thirty miles from the capital where 12,000 are employed. The dayshift were taking over shortly before 8.a.m., says the "Sunday Times" Correspondent when the first blast occurred and was heard forty miles away, reducing a large part of Segni village to ruins. All available fire brigades from wide districts centered on the spot and troops threw a cordon round the area. King Emmanuel and Queen Elena motored to the scene but was unallowed beyond the cordon for fear of further explosions, while Signor Mussolini left the wedding of his niece, and accompanied by the Ministers to inspect the wreckage. Exaggerated reports are current as to the death-roll, but an official communique stating the disaster is due to carelessness of a workman who exploded a compressed air container in the laboratory, and says that nine are dead and two hundred injured identified. First aid workers are positive at least that fifty are dead and over three hundred injured.

Shanghai. The Chinese checked the Japanese advance northwards along the Tientsin railway and threw the enemy back across the Mingkwang river, while guerilla forces captured Ihing, thus cutting the Nanking-Hangchow railway. Washington protested to Japan, relative to slapping of a Diplomat's face by a soldier and an account of the incident which varies considerably from Japanese reports is now in the State Department hands.

Barcelona. The Government has offered to abstain from bombardment of open cities if the Insurgents do likewise, but states "Terror against terror" be continued while the Insurgents persist in air attacks on the civil population. Meanwhile the Government threat to the Insurgent communications in the Teruel Sector is intensifying with the occupation of Heighth dominating the region adjacent to Saragossa.

Tokio. The Diet discussed relations with Britain on Saturday which characterised as "delicate" but the Foreign Minister Hirota declared that Japan is endeavouring to restore normalcy. Premier Prince Kenoye said the declaration of war on China will be considered in the light of Chiang Kaishek's attitude.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.NEWS IN BRIEF.

Shanghai. No major engagement is reported from Fukow Tientsen railway front, but sporadic fighting continues though the Japanese drive is not yet materialised. Hankow ascribes a lull to the Japanese indecision as to the future action, while the Chinese are taking advantage of a quiet period to reorganise the forces and train recruits. The Japanese spokesman at Shanghai admitted that the Chinese guerilla bands are still operating between Shanghai and Nanking. The Chinese New Year is being celebrated throughout the country and made brighter by Chiang Kaishek's optimism over the military situation.

Calcutta. A series of resolutions were passed by Congress, the party indicate a remarkable change in the attitude towards the military expenditure which hitherto is oppositionist. Bengal Council also urges the formation of the Indian army unit, and Calcutta Corporation demands military training for citizens.

Jerusalem. An armed band seized nine Arab constables from Sukhmata, but subsequently released the prisoners when armoured cars and aeroplanes scoured the countryside in the search. The corporal in charge of the police post was found murdered.

Berlin. Every town and village throughout displayed the Swastika Banners on Sunday in honour of the fifth anniversary of Herr Hitler's advent to power. For the first time, the anniversary passed without Herr Hitler's speech or manifesto, but Propaganda Minister Goebbels broadcast to the German youth claiming successes everywhere for totalitarianism. There were many military parades during the day, while the streets were thronged at night, particularly outside the Chancellory where repeated calls were made for the leader.

Rome. The shipbuilding firm of Ansaldo Co has obtained Judicial authority to seize the Soviet property in the settlement of two and half million lire. Apparently the claim refers to the destroyer "Tas-hkent" nearing completion at the Milan Yard, and if no settlement is reached she will probably be drafted into the Italian Navy.

New York. President Roosevelt's youngest son, John, is marrying Miss A.L. Clark of Boston, at the Nahant Episcopal Church, Mass., on June 18th and the ceremony will be attended by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Paris. The Minister of State M. Frossard considers the Labour code received is generally favourable, and the reception without encountering any marked hostility from the employers or employees. While the code makes a voting for or against, the strike is compulsory by workers but it has not yet become law, and Valenciennes message states that 90,000 iron workers intend striking shortly if the 400 economy dismissals are not rescinded.

London. The "Sunday Times" states the the experts for negotiating the Anglo American Trade Treaty in Washington, postponed the departure for ten days from Tuesday as preparation of claims in the United States is not sufficiently advanced.

SHEEP CHASE DOGS.

Sheep rebelled at Orkney Agricultural Society's native sheep dog trials. Instead of meekly allowing themselves to be penned they turned the tables and chased the dogs.

So surprised were the dogs by this "unsheeply conduct" that they actually fled until ordered back to work by their masters. Only two competitors succeeded in penning the sheep in the allotted time.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Close contacts between the British admiralty and United States navy department were renewed during the past three days with discussions referring specifically to the far east, states the "Daily Telegraph", while mutual naval construction programmes are considered and how these may be affected by the new Japanese construction. At the last conversation, the French naval attache was present, thus marking the first stage of the consultations between the London Treaty Signatories. Tokio messages indicate that Japanese opinion is already indulging in the speculation over counter measures to the United States building.

London. Reports of bombing of towns in the Spanish Civil War and of heavy casualties among the civilian population has been received in London with dismay and sorrow. The views of the British Government on indiscriminate bombing are well known. It will be recalled that last summer as the result of the British initiative International appeal, it was addressed to both sides in Spain on humanitarian grounds which urged the abstention from bombing of open towns, villages and objectives of non military character. The appeal concluded with the hope that it would help to lessen the cruel sufferings of the civil populations. It is understood that the United Kingdom Government is considering what further steps can be taken in view of the increase of bombing of towns behind the lines by both sides.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Washington. Admiral Leahy, chief of the United States naval operations indicated in evidence before the House of Representatives Naval Committee, that a complete breakdown of international efforts to limit armaments, disturbed political conditions, the Pact of Germany, Italy and Japan, and the fact that nothing could prevent the seizure of the South American Republics if the Monroe Doctrine was broken down, except if the United States sea power were solid grounds for immediate strengthening of the American fleet. In answer to the questions, Admiral Leahy said he had no accurate information concerning the Japanese building, except that cruiser and destroyer strength had considerably increased. Paris reports by the "Daily Telegraph" correspondent ascribe to the Marine Minister Bertrand statement, that naval policy of the world entered entirely the new phase during the past month and the French Naval power must be strengthened by replacing obsolete vessels. M. Bertrand added that the 1938 naval budget did not parallel the requirements, while the present naval standing definitely compromised national interests afloat and overseas.

Madrid. The Government forces exploded mines beneath Carabanckel, the Insurgent positions south-east of the capital on Monday morning, and hectic engagement ensued with the result, that the Government lines slightly advanced. Meanwhile the Insurgents maintained artillery bombardment of the city. Salamanca communique claims the Insurgent capture of Sanat Barbara lead-mines in the Cordova area. St. Jean de Luz reports received of a newly constructed Insurgent Cabinet, with General Franco as President.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Washington. The navy department announces, the marine forces numbering 1,500 are being withdrawn from Shanghai leaving the normal strength in the establishment. The United States accepted the Japanese apology for the face slapping incident involving a Diplomatic Agent, but a broader question of Japan's failure to live up to the promises after the U.S.S. "Panay" incident remains open.

Paris. A broadcast speech by the Finance Minister, M. Marchandeaux, outlined the plans in which he stated that the Tripartite accords of September 1936 were a frame work of the French international monetary policy, as these represented only dykes capable of stopping monetary disorder, and that France would remain faithful.

New York. Notwithstanding, Wall Street sales reached 760,000 and listlessness is apparent, slow advance developed with general indication of lifting the gloom, and the days gains averaged two dollars. The dealings covered 729 issues with 378 advances, 171 declines and 180 unchanged.

Valenciennes are following the threat of the strike action by 70,000 Lille workers based on a demand for 11.8 % wage increase, on the cost of living scale, delegates representing 20,000 metal workers are following suit and intend occupying the factories if demands are not immediately granted.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

Others wearing life jackets made for the beach and were helped ashore by a chain of helpers led by policemen who jumped into the surf. Meanwhile the lifeboat whose engine was put out of action was driven on the rocks and the occupants were rescued by lifeline. Four members of the crew of the "Alba" are feared drowned. The bodies of three have been recovered.

London. London dockers refuse to load the Japanese vessels at the Royal Albert Docks in respect of the metal consignments, and at a meeting outside the docks the workers urged to join Southampton and Middlesbrough dockers in the Japanese boycott.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. The Chancellor of the Exchequer announced in view of the present conditions of exchange, he had come to certain decisions on the subject of foreign lending. The decision illustrated the desire of His Majesty's Government to encourage suitable expansion of international capital transactions. Sir John Simon explained he did not consider the time had come when consent could be given indiscriminately to foreign issues, and in particular to those on behalf of Foreign Governments, Foreign local, or public authorities, or State controlled organisations. By consent he indicated that he meant the form of the sanction or approval defined in terms of reference of foreign transactions by the Advisory Committee when that body was set up to assist the Treasury in connection with concessions made when the crisis time ban of foreign lending was first modified. The application in respect of the issues by Foreign Governments or public authorities would continue to be considered on their merits on lines laid down in the Committee's terms of reference and with regard to the general policy of His Majesty's Government. A greater latitude would however, Sir John Simon stated be allowed until further notice in respect of applications which did not fall within the former class "I refer particularly first to the raising of new money in the British Market on a long term basis on behalf of British borrowers - in which term I include borrower in any part of the Empire - for the purpose of acquiring the assistance or developing the enterprise in foreign countries, and secondly to the transactions involving large blocks of foreign owned securities which were the subject of my predecessors letter of the 12th June, 1933, to the Chairman of the Stock Exchange Committee". Applications in this class the Chancellor mentioned should still be made to the Foreign Transactions Advisory Committee, because the Treasury would continue to avail itself of the Committee's advice. Such applications would however generally receive the sympathetic consideration of the committee, though he could not of course say that in particular cases there might not still be reasons of public policy leading to their rejection. The Chancellor concluded with a tribute to the work of the Advisory Committee and to the loyalty and helpful spirit of the financial community in implementing the Government's policy in foreign lending by voluntarily responding to the requests which had been made to it from time to time.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Parliament reassembled on Tuesday, and in the House of Commons nearly one hundred questions appearing on order paper were supplemented by several and put by private notice. An answer by the Prime Minister on M. Van Zeeland's report and the statement by the Chancellor of the Exchequer on foreign lending, created much interest and gave rise to a large number of supplementaries. After the questions have turned as is usual on the day of the reassembly, to business is of secondary importance.

Washington. Speaking in Senate during the debate on American Foreign Policy, Senator Borah described Mr. Eden's speech in the House of Commons as most unfortunate, since the world thereby was led to believe that Britain and the United States had an alliance for building up their navies. Senator Borah pointed out that a similar situation had led to a great war and no detailed answer was given when the question was asked as to what the actual relationship existed. Senators Borah, Johnson and Lewis joined forces on the plank "no American commitments with foreign powers."

Shanghai. No definite news received from the fighting fronts, although the Chinese admit the penetration of defences by the Japanese west of Mingkwang, but the Japanese advance along the Tientsin Pukow railway was halted. British forces in the Settlement area are reduced, by the departure of the Welsh Fusiliers for Sudan with the United States bands participating in a sendoff.

Only whisky that has been matured for long years in the wood is used in the blending of Johnnie Walker - only whisky that has developed depth and body and flavour.

All over Scotland fine whiskies are maturing year by year, waiting to give, when skilfully blended, that roundness and harmony which has always been distinctive feature of Johnnie Walker.

To-day especially it is worth asking for Johnnie Walker by name, not only for the age of the whiskies that fill the famous square bottle but also because of the skill of the blender.

His Excellency the Governor directs the publication, for general information, of the following correspondence exchanged between Lord Hampton and His Excellency on the occasion of the handing over of the R.R.S. "Discovery" to the Boy Scouts Association Trust Corporation:

From Lord Hampton to the Governor.

Dear Sir Herbert,

I am so sorry that the preparation of this book of photographs, together with my short history of "Discovery" was not completed before you had to return to the Falkland Islands.

I am therefore sending them to you via the Colonial Office trusting that the photographs will serve to remind you of a very pleasant occasion and of our sense of deep gratitude to you and your Government for its magnificent gift.

You may rest assured that the ship will be well looked after and will serve a very useful purpose in her old age. Needless to say, we shall be very glad to welcome anybody from the Falkland Islands who may care to visit the ship when they are in the Home Country.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,
(Sgd.) Hampton.
CHIEF COMMISSIONER.

From the Governor to Lord Hampton

Dear Lord Hampton,

Thank you for your letter of the 26th of November which arrived by the last mail.

This Colony has pride in the opportunity afforded to render service to the Boy Scouts Association by the gift of the "Discovery". On its behalf I would express appreciation of your generous acknowledgment and of the invitation extended to Falkland Islanders to visit the ship when in the Home Country.

No more pleasant memento of the occasion of the handing over of the vessel could have been conceived than the book of photographs you so kindly send me. Your able short history of the "Discovery" completes the record fittingly.

I am, My Lord,

Yours sincerely,

(Sgd.) H. HENNIKER HEATON.

COLONIAL RIFLE ASSOCIATIONS SMALL-BORE MATCH 1937.

Kenya Win Again.

Kenya Rifle Association have retained the Small-Bore Trophy which has been won by them for the third year in succession and the fourth since the Competition commenced in 1932. In that year and again in 1934 the Falklands teams were successful so it will be seen that no other Colony has had the honour of holding this Trophy. Kenya has proved themselves to be outstanding shots - they won last year by 17 points from Fiji - and are to be heartily congratulated on their splendid run of success. Here is a summary of results 1932 - 37.

	1932.	1933.	1934.	1935.	1936.	1937.
	Place	Score.	Place	Score.	Place	Score.
Falkland Islands	1.	1901.5.	1908	1.	1945.2.	1943.2.
Kenya.	3.	1893.1.	1936.2.	1939.1.	1958.1.	1954.1.

It will be noticed that last years scores are lower the previous ones and is accounted for by the fact that only eight people shot instead of ten. The change was made by the S.M.R.C. to try and induce more Colonies to enter teams and they think it should be given a trial for a few years. It seems a good move because a record entry of 17 teams were received but only fourteen returned cards. Gold Coast entered for the first time and Sir Arnold Hodson scored 193 for them, they took 8th place with a score of 1530. The scores of the first four teams are as follows:-

The Challenge Cup and Eight Silver Medals

Kenya Rifle Association						1576.
Capt. C.J.F. Irvine	100	100	200.	A.A. Blowers	98	98

H.H. Sedgwick	97.	98	195	W.J. Grierson	97	94

Particulars for the present year are not yet available but it is most likely that the competition will be shot in two sections in future, one open to teams of eight using aperture sights and slings and the other for teams of eight with open sights and no slings. For the present at any rate our team will continue in the former class only. It is to be hoped that members of the Camp Clubs will make a special effort to try for places in the Colony team. The conditions allow for such members to shoot on their own range under special witness. This should encourage them to go all out to "put them all in" and thus help to make the Team strong enough to beat Kenya and regain the Trophy once more. The ladies also might like to equal the performance of Mrs. A. Bernard of Fiji with 200 and Mrs. A.M. Irvine of Kenya with 199. In the Clubs competition Mrs. Irvine again scored 100 for her team.

The British Dominion Club's Team Competition 1937.

The above competition is open to any number of teams of 6 from Overseas Clubs who are affiliated to the B.M.K.C. and was won last year by Canadian Railway Montreal A team with a score of 594. Their B team was 3rd and their C team 14th. Our own teams shot very badly and were placed 19th, 21st and 23rd. The winning teams score is as follows:-

Small Silver Cup and Six Silver Medals

35 teams entered for this event and 29 returned cards. It seems that something has been wrong of late with our small bore shooters because we also won this competition at the first attempt in 1933 but have steadily gone back. Let us hope that a great improvement will take place this year and some of our lost laurels regained.

THE EDUCATION OF CAMP CHILDREN.

It has long been felt by the Government and by a number of parents living in the Camp that the system of education by travelling teachers has not been satisfactory despite the best service that such teachers could give. The alternative offered by the Government by the provision of a hostel in Stanley failed as parents refused to take advantage of it.

The Government has found difficulty in recruiting travelling teachers and there have been inevitable complaints of failure to provide even the small modicum of education afforded by this method. The problem is undoubtedly serious and every avenue has been explored for a solution. The experience of other countries similarly situated has been sought and an interesting report has been very courteously furnished by the Director of Education in Queensland. There are many analogies between conditions in respect of the education of Camp children in that state and in the Falklands. Certainly the standard of Education and of living is no higher with isolated families in "the backblocks" than in these islands.

The following experiments have been tried in Queensland:-

(a) Part time Schools: In such schools, one teacher was appointed to assume responsibility for two, three or four small schools, moving on from one to the other. This method has been completely superseded.

(b) Itinerant Teachers: Travelling Teachers were appointed to beats. The experience was that a child on each beat was visited on an average 2.6 times a year by the Teacher. The results were considered to be incommensurate with the expenditure and the system was abandoned and superseded by

(c) Correspondence Instruction: Where a child is resident more than $3\frac{1}{2}$ miles from a school primary education is provided by correspondence. Lessons are sent out weekly from the school to each pupil (whose work is usually supervised by the parent or by an older brother or sister) and the child's worked papers are returned to the school for correction.

The Correspondence instruction is quite free, all text books and stationery being supplied and postage paid by the state.

The Director of Education reports that there are 5901 children now receiving this form of education and that "the system operates admirably and is considered to be the most satisfactory one".

It is proposed to give the system a trial here on one of the beats when the material is available. The experiment will be watched with interest. A great deal more work will be required from the children than they have done hitherto. The active interest of parents will be essential.

The Council had decided at the same time, that the Committee must terminate such functions as it possessed in respect of Assyrians remaining in Iraq and had invited the Iraq Government.

London. Speaking in Birmingham on Friday, the Prime Minister paid tribute to the work of Sir Thomas Inskip, as Minister for the co-ordination of defence and said, that now the initial difficulties of rearmament programme had been overcome he did not think there was any cause for anxiety whether it was going fast enough or far enough. He believed in lessening of the tension and increased feeling of security in Europe today, and was largely due to the progress of British rearmament. At the same time Mr. Neville Chamberlain confessed the spectacle of the vast expenditure upon means of destruction and inspired him with a feeling of revolt against the folly of mankind. The Government were always searching for a way out and for a means to break through a senseless competition in arms in which the efforts of each nation to secure advantage over others were continually cancelled out. "The way out can only be found by a frank and free discussion by those who share our desires and by showing our contribution to the common cause of peace if others will do the same. The Government has given, and is giving an anxious thought to this question.

and so far as good will, and earnest desire to succeed can contribute towards success, those qualities will not be lacking on our part". Mr. Chamberlain also referred to the successful progress of negotiations for the exchange of prisoners between the two sides in the Civil War in Spain and to the fact that the main condition upon which an agreement to such an exchange was likely to be reached was that the British Government should appoint an official Arbitrator. The Government had expressed their readiness to undertake such responsibility. He regarded the circumstances as a great tribute to the British fairmindedness.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Berlin. The German internal crisis has taken a swift turn and behind the scenes activity indicate that Herr Hitler believed himself threatened by a military coup d'etat and acted accordingly. The "Daily Telegraph" gives details from trustworthy sources, that the army Commander-in-Chief, Von Fritsch, is under arrest which was carried out personally by the Secret Police Chief, Herr Himmler. Von Fritsch after forty eight hours confinement, was permitted to return home, but is still under house arrest. Genesis was Von Blomberg's marriage which gave the army officials grounds for meeting Herr Hitler when the opportunity also was taken to express the opinions on foreign policy. Certain Generals went further than prudence dictated, and statements made, that connection with Italy was unsatisfactory, while criticism was made of a standoffish attitude adopted towards Great Britain. The main outcome is that Herr Hitler has taken over the Supreme Command of armed forces as War Minister, thus relegating Von Blomberg and Von Fritsch. General Goering was created Field Marshal, but remains air Minister while the London Ambassador, Von Ribbentrop becomes Foreign Minister, succeeding Von Neurath who is now appointed Chief of a newly formed Secret Cabinet Council, to advise Herr Hitler on foreign questions. The guards at Chancellors were doubled. The Ambassadors in Vienna, Tokio and Rome have been recalled.

Hong Kong. Canton authorities placed a boom across the Pearl river and four British gunboats and many merchantmen were trapped. Meanwhile the Japanese planes bombed all the adjacent areas with warships concentrating on the Bocatigris Forts. All the state highways and railways are under fire. No news from other fronts.

THE VISIT OF THE M.V. "REINA DEL PACIFICO".

We understand that the m.v. "Reina del Pacifico" caught fire between Liverpool and Plymouth, and had to go to Plymouth for the necessary repairs, thus causing the ship's delay of one day, she also encountered very rough weather in the Bay of Biscay.

Sunday the day of the ship's arrival opened cloudy and unpromising with banks of fog on adjacent hills; the weather was calm and fortunately rain kept off. As usual tourists were conveyed to and from the ship by the S.S. "Fitzroy", the first trip to the shore being made at 10.30 a.m. Large numbers of tourists came on shore many of whom attended Church Services. The entrance to the Post Office was thronged with those seeking postage stamps and good use was made of the reading room at the Public baths where tourists were able to write post cards etc. Large numbers of people were seen making their way towards the Battle Memorial of which many photographs were taken. Several people were observed making their way towards the Wireless Station. A large number of tourists were able to visit the Penguin rookery at Yorke Bay both by boat and by car. The car belonging to the Hon. M.C. Craigie-Halkett was lent to convey visitors who were friends of Miss Carey, Col. Postmaster. The car driven by Mr. G. Pallini was taken to Yorke Bay, a skilful feat on the part of the driver taking into consideration the size of the car.

The "Reina del Pacifico" had on board 289 tourists among whom were several distinguished persons, namely, Lord and Lady Rosslyn, Sir Daniel and Lady Cooper and Major F.C. Wren the Author of Beau Geste and many other well known books, etc.

We understand that there was a brisk sale of our new pictured postage stamps. Large numbers of local people visited the ship during the day and appreciated the kindness of Captain Ridyard in providing a free and excellent cinema entertainment on board for their benefit.

The last trip to the ship was made at 5.30 p.m. and the final to the shore at 6.0 p.m. The "Reina del Pacifico" sailed at 7.0 p.m.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Washington. The State Secretary, Mr. Cordell Hull, broadcasting under the auspices of the Economic policy committee which supports the Trade Agreements Policy, expressed the United States willingness to join other nations in the endeavour to attain a general armaments limitation.

He added, "War and fear of war are gripping the minds and stultifying the spirit of mankind". He pointed out that while the increased armaments construction remained a regrettable fact, America was compelled to render her military and naval establishment adequate.

Attacking the nations seeking economic and self sufficiency, Mr. Hull declared that the economic warfare was largely responsible for the disintegration of international relationships. War preparations were sapping the already impaired economic health of many nations, and the world desperately needed international order based on the revitalised international law, according to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent he asserted.

Trade agreements formed a practical middle course between sentimental internationalism and narrow isolation.

Berlin. Herr Hitler before leaving for Berchtesgaden, read a report on the situation to the new Cabinet in Chancellery where Von Ribbentrop, General Keitel and Von Funk took places as Foreign Minister, Supreme Armed Forces Commander and Economics Minister respectively. According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the Cabinet expressed deep satisfaction at the concentration and strengthening of the political, military and economic resources.

Before the Cabinet meeting, the Fuhrer briefly addressed about forty high army and air force officers in private.

The appointment of new Ambassadors for London, Rome, Vienna, Tokio and Salamanca are anticipated in a few days, but it is believed that no new appointments are being found for Von Hassel, Von Derksen and Von Papen formerly of Rome, Tokio and Vienna respectively, owing to Herr Hitler's dissatisfaction with them.

Tokio. The Domei Agency states that the navy Ministry Conference has decided to inform Britain, United States and Japan that they will not reveal the future construction plans as requested. Several high naval officers attended the Conference which lasted two hours.

The press bitterly attacks Britain and the United States suggesting they place on Japan onus of a new naval building race. One paper described as high handed powers statement that failing assurances, that Japan will disclose the construction and restrict ships to 35,000 tons they will apply an escalator clause.

Saragossa. Nationalists advanced six miles on a twenty five miles front in a sudden Teruel offensive during the last thirty six hours. The attack followed heavy bombardment and aerial attack before dawn on Saturday. The most notable achievement was capturing the Lapalomera mountain, 5,250 feet, whence the Government artillery shelled the Nationalists, the only road between Saragossa and Teruel. The attackers also claim capture of about twenty villages held by the Government since the wars commencement.

FUEL ECONOMY.

The Government has recently been paying attention to the possibilities of placing before the Public a type of cooking range which will provide greater economy in fuel and at the same time furnish equally or more efficient operation than the types of ranges most generally in use.

2. With the active co-operation of His Excellency the Governor and Professor John Taylor, M.A., D.Sc., of the Industrial Research Council of Ireland, two cooking ranges of the latest scientific construction have been imported and tested.
The Government believes that these ranges attain a high standard of efficiency and are capable of producing good results on a much less quantity of fuel than is required by most other ranges of equal capacity.

3. It is sincerely hoped that the Government's efforts in this connexion will not be wasted and that the Public will whole-heartedly shew its interest by attending demonstrations which will be given at the times and places stated below. The sumarised results of the tests are as follows:-

With 2 1/2 lbs of peat from an oven temperature of 70 F the new type of range reached a temperature of 270 F in 45 minutes.

The usual type of range in common use locally with 5 lbs of peat (DOU-BLE) and from a temperature of 70 F reached 230 F in 75 minutes. At the end of two hours both ranges recorded 178 F.

To make a more conclusive trial a 12 hours' test was conducted in which it was shewn that the new range consumed exactly half the quantity of peat consumed by the old type and at the same time maintained a temperature 40 F higher.

DEMONSTRATIONS of the two ranges will be given in the Colonial Secretary's late Office, as follows:-

Monday 14th February from 9.0 a.m. to 4.0 p.m. continuous run.

Tuesday 15th February at 3.0 p.m.
sharp a quick heating demonstration.

Full particulars of fuel consumption, temperatures, dimensions and prices will be available at the times of the demonstrations or they may be seen on application to the Director of Public Works.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Berlin. The press and public are excluded from the trial of Pastor Neimoeller, the confessional opposition church leader and former submarine commander. The Pastor is charged with malicious attacks on the State and Nazi party, and the political misuse of the Pulpit and incitement to disobedience of laws. Prayers were offered in the confessional churches for the Pastor and twenty one are under arrest. It is understood that important persons offered to give evidence for P. Niemoeller, but recent events may deter some.

The Roman Catholic's under the Munich Archbishop and Cardinal Faulhaber protested from the pulpits against the Nazi ban on Catholic youth organisations which claim the protection under the Reich Concordat between the Pope and Reich and against the confiscation of church property.

Shanghai. Despite vigorous resistance, the Japanese forces are advancing towards Hsuechow, an important strategic post at the junction of Nanking Tientsen Lunghai railways and crossed the Hwai river more than halfway between Nanking and Hsuechow. The Chinese Commander announces the intention energetically to defend Hsuechow.

Washington State Department announced the early withdrawal of the 150th Infantry Regiment from Tientsin and being replaced by two companies of marines from Peiping in accordance with the policy to withdraw the troops when the situation warrants such action.

Spain. The Government protest that civilian bombing should cease, the Nationalists declare they bomb only military objectives, but the Government has arms factories in central Barcelona and petrol naval shipyards adjoining Valencia working class houses. They are unwilling therefore to give the undertaking not to bomb such towns.

The Nationalists incendiary bombed Reus and Alicante, killing twenty and claim eleven miles advance on the hitherto quiet front bordering Cordoba and Badajoz Provinces.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. The First Lord of the Admiralty told the House of Commons that three survivors of the "Endymion" had been interrogated by naval authorities at Gibraltar. No submarine or torpedo track or floating mine was seen from the bridge. The depth of the water where the explosion occurred ruled out the possibility of it being caused by a moored mine.

Two former attacks on British ships in Spanish waters were also the subject of a question and answer in the House of Commons. The Foreign Secretary said, that as the result of a full investigation into the circumstances of bombing of the "Thorpeness" at Valencia which caused the death or injury of several members of the crew, His Majesty's Government had reluctantly reached a conclusion that the ship was the object of a deliberate attack. Instructions accordingly had been sent to the British Agent in General Franco's territory to draw the attention of the Salamanca authorities to the deliberate nature of the attack and to inform them that His Majesty's Government took a serious view of the incident and to request a full explanation. Regarding the mining of H.M.S. "Hunter", Mr. Eden said the reply had been received from the Salamanca authorities denying the mine responsible for the damage that was laid by their vessels. His Majesty's Government were not able to accept this contention and further representations were accordingly being made without delay.

Questioned in the House of Commons on the bombing of Spanish towns, the Foreign Secretary described the action already taken and said that he expected to know the result of the initiatives within a few days. He assured the House that His Majesty's Government regarded the question as one of urgency.

Informing the House of Commons of Representations made in Tokio, and following the reports that Japan was constructing or intending to construct capital ships above the limits of the 1936 Naval Treaty, in reply to the question the Foreign Secretary added that the British Government had kept the German and Soviet Governments fully informed throughout, of the action taken.

The negative answer was given by the Foreign Secretary when asked in the House of Commons if His Majesty's Government had in any way altered its view as to the continuance of the International Settlement at Shanghai and the maintenance of the present administration.

Questioned in the House of Commons on the minority rights of Jews in Roumania, the Foreign Secretary described the position of petitions to the League and said that meanwhile His Majesty's Government were studying the question of any immediate action which might be considered useful in the circumstances and His Majesty's Minister on his instructions had reminded the Roumanian Foreign Minister of the interest which His Majesty's Government had always taken in the Minorities Treaty of which they were an original signatory and in the minorities procedure generally.

The Prime Minister announced in the House of Commons at Question Time, that for some time past His Majesty's Government had been impressed by the desirability of ensuring the fullest and most effective use of various efforts now being made to spread a better understanding of Great Britain and of British people abroad. It had been decided to set up a co-ordinating Committee whose function it would be to prevent overlapping and by the exchange of information among various bodies engaged in various forms of publicity abroad to co-ordinate programmes and activities. BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. In view of the recent recrudescence of attacks on merchant shipping by submarines in western Mediterranean, Mr. Eden said, that all concerned had been informed of the intentions of His Majesty's Government in the following terms "two parties to the Spanish conflict are aware that the naval forces of certain powers with special interest in the Mediterranean were authorised under arrangement concluded at Nyon to take certain measures for better protection of merchant ships not belonging to either of the Spanish parties in the conflict from interference on the high seas in the manner contrary to the rules above referred to. The recent experience has however shown these measures as at present applied are not sufficient to protect merchant shipping against illegal attack. In these circumstances His Majesty's Government are forced to the conclusion in order to secure the adequate protection for British shipping, and in the interests of safety of shipping of other nations, it is necessary to proceed to further measures in addition to those provided for under the Nyon Agreement. They therefore desire to inform the Spanish Government and Salamanca authorities that if from now onwards a submarine is detected submerged in the zone in western Mediterranean in which the British fleet operates in accordance with the division of the area agreed upon between the French and Italian Government and His Majesty's Government, it will be considered as contemplating attack on merchant shipping. His Majesty's Government will not tolerate submarines being submerged in this zone and orders accordingly has been given to His Majesty's warships, that if a submarine is found so submerged henceforth, it shall be attacked". Mr. Eden added that the French and Italian Governments have been informed of the action proposed and they had agreed to take similar action in their zones. Other parties to the Nyon Agreement also have been informed as had the Government of the United States, Germany and Portugal. The Foreign Secretary then turned to the circumstances in which the British steamship "Alcira" was bombed and sunk by two aeroplanes on February 4th, when about twenty miles south east of Barcelona. The ship was at the time carrying an observation officer of Non intervention board. Full reports of the incident were awaited but there was every reason to believe the attacking aircraft were in the service of General Franco. The British Agent at Salamanca has accordingly been instructed to impress upon General Franco's Administration very serious, the view which His Majesty's Government took of the incident. Sir Robert Hodgson has further been instructed to communicate with Salamanca Authorities in the following terms, "His Majesty's Government have in the past treated these unjustifiable attacks on British shipping with the utmost patience, but their patience is not inexhaustible and they have come to the conclusion that the time has come to let it be known once and for all that they cannot continue to deal with these attacks solely by protests and claims for compensation which have failed to check the attacks or to secure any material satisfaction for damages done. It should therefore be made known to General Franco that His Majesty's Government reserve to themselves the right henceforth without any further notice to take such retaliatory action in the event of any recurrence of these attacks as may be required by, and appropriate to the particular case". Replying supplementary, Mr. Eden said that his advice was that the steps the Government had decided upon would be sufficient to end completely these piratical attacks. He was confident it would be so, but should they be mistaken in their conclusions, the Government could not exclude and further action. In answer to another question, Mr. Eden said, that while he had no definite information as to the ports from which the pirate vessels carried on their operations, there was reason to believe they were based in Majorca.

Berlin. Herr Hitler's reorganisation of the army control and Foreign Policy created a profound impression throughout Europe. According to the "Sunday Times" Correspondent Von Ribbentrop's appointment as Foreign Minister will result in the efforts to strengthen Berlin, Rome and Tokio Anti Communist Treaties, more vigorous Colonial demands and stronger policy regarding Austria.

It is anticipated that the Anglo American friendship will be subordinated to these aims but precipitate the action unlikely owing to conflicting ideas among the Foreign Affairs Advisory Cabinet Council and a new procedure of consulting army leaders on Foreign Affairs.

The question remains how the army will receive thirteen Generals dismissals and whether the efficiency is impaired.

The arrest of the former Commander-in-Chief, General Von Fritsch is semiofficially denied despite the rumours circulating in Berlin and Paris.

Signor Mussolini wired congratulations to Herr Hitler expressing his satisfaction at the developments of strengthening the Italo German Collaboration.

The changes alarmed Paris where a fresh threat to peace is seen in the Fuhrers increased power, while the press emphasises the added need for Anglo French Co-operation.

Bucharest. The principal cafe, opposite the Royal Palace was wrecked in a fight between supporters and opponents of Premier Goga's Government. Chairs and tables were used as missiles and twenty persons were arrested.

Tense feeling exists between Government sympathisers and the extreme Fascist Ironguard who demand the bodies of two members killed in Sunday disorders, be permitted to lie in state with a guard of honour. The leader Codreanu, summoned an Ironguard Supreme Council containing several Generals and University Professors, while the police are patrolling the affected areas.

NEW GOVERNMENT OFFICES.

A link with the past is being rapidly destroyed by the demolition of the old building which has served for many years as Offices for the Colonial Secretarial Staff of the Colony. The older parts of the building were constructed almost a century ago and have an interesting and varied history. Gradually the space available has become insufficient and the structure unsound and so, almost in a moment, this monument to the pioneers is being swept away.

The new building which will rise on the old site will be dignified and modern; and in every way in keeping with the important business of the Colony which will be conducted there.

Provision is being made for Offices for the Colonial Secretary and Colonial Treasurer and their Staffs and also for the Auditor. In addition, there will be a Committee Room and Library and a Waiting Room for the Public. All Offices are to be on the ground floor; the first floor being used as Record Rooms.

The new building will be eighty-four feet long and fifty feet wide. It will be constructed of locally-made concrete blocks and will be roofed with red slates. Central heating is to be employed throughout thus minimising the risk of fire and keeping the offices cleaner. Two strong rooms are to be constructed to give adequate security to the Colony's currency.

The work of erection has already commenced as the foundations are almost completed and the first blocks were set on the 9th of this month. Within three or four months the outer shell of the building will have taken decided form and will give a good idea of the finished appearance which the Offices are to present.

Soon after the attack commenced, seven bombers heavily bombed the Japanese troops and artillery, inflicting serious losses.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent planes were piloted by foreigners assisting the Chinese. The Chinese advanced in waves in a vigorous attack and claim that the Japanese attempts to cross the Hwai river was unsuccessful. The Chinese deny the Japanese accounts of a disorderly retreat, stating that a strong resistance is continuing and 100,000 fresh troops are operating on the Lunghai railway front under Generalissimo Chiang Kaishek. Twelve Japanese planes are believed to be destroyed in the Chinese air raid on Nanking.

London. In answering a question in the House of Commons arising out of the recent successful action in courts for the damages against the police for a wrongful arrest, the Home Secretary described the elaborate code of instructions issued to the police force, to ensure that while the powers of detention on suspicion required for the defence of the public are used vigilantly and the utmost care is taken to avoid abuse of those powers even at the risk of some guilty persons going free. Sir Samuel Hoare gave the House assurance, and adequate safeguards were and would be provided for preventing the interference with the liberty of the subject. The evening papers give prominence to the answer and comment on the strength of traditional liberties in Britain at the time when the methods of police state are in ascendant in so many other parts of the world.

London. Reports from world wide sources record extraordinary weather conditions. Jerusalem messages state that heavy snow blocked the Palestine Syria Lebanon roads with coastal gales. San Francisco was struck by a 70 m.p.h. hurricane inflicting millions of dollars damage inland, while Goldengate bridge was twisted twelve feet from the alignment. Thirteen were killed and twenty injured in a Rio de Janeiro storm which flooded many areas.

London. Visitors to Buckingham Palace on Friday included the new Danish Minister, Count Reventlow and his wife who were received by the Queen, and Lord Gort recently appointed Chief of the Imperial General Staff whom the King received and invested with the Insignia of Knight Commander of the Order of the Bath.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Berlin. The day of extraordinary rumours throughout Europe which suggested the Garrison revolts in East Prussia and closing of frontiers prove the majority without foundation. Nevertheless the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent reports the German Political activity which is resulting in the German army purge, with a view to allaying discontent arising from recent high command changes. Mixed commissions of army and Nazi officials are to investigate the situation in the different Garrisons and suggest reforms but no serious opposition from the Corps of officers or rank and file are anticipated. The Nazi circles apparently fear increasing criticism of the regime and the aim of the purge is to establish reliability. The Crown Prince Wilhelm is appearing at an Italian resort without a passport and it is led to the belief that he had fled from the purge on the alleged implication with Von Fritsch in the Monarchist Plot. The statement is proved baseless. The Austrian frontier has been closed since Wednesday but elsewhere there are no restrictions.

Hong Kong. Crossing the Yangtse south of Wuhu, the Chinese launched a midnight attack on Changhaihuauan and cleared the surrounding area of Japanese and in view of the threatening situation the Japanese hurriedly despatched 10,000 reinforcements to Nanking area states the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent. The Chinese Guerilla tactics continue to harass all Japanese lines and captured documents to establish the increasing doubts of the invading forces. Canton reports the shelling by warships of Bocatignis forts, while Shanghai messages suggest the Japanese concentrations are in Honan and Hopei for an offensive on Hankow.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. How well the manhood of the country is doing exclaimed the War Secretary in a speech at Devonport in which he spoke of the work of the Territorials and described a great response to the appeal for recruits in the last year. In twelve months Mr. Hore-Belisha said the regular army had taken over 3,600 more recruits than in the previous year. In the same period the Territorial army had added the equivalent of the whole division to its strength. Applicants were in fact almost outrunning the capacity to put up buildings to accommodate them. The War Secretary commented on the fact of the defences of every one of the home naval ports was manned by Territorials. If one thing were necessary to illustrate the important role of the Territorial army, it might be found in that picture of the priceless defences of Plymouth Harbour being left with sublime confidence to the hands of Territorial gunners. The War Secretary's remarks on recruiting received further illustration, when the War Office announced that 3,416 recruits were enlisted in the Territorial army during January which was thus constituted another record month for the Territorial army recruiting.

London. A crusade advocating the Anti Japanese boycott was launched by a kerbside parade through the West End of 200 including many prominent personalities. Banners were displayed and pamphlets distributed but the public were apathetic.

The following is an extract from the Buenos Aires "Standard" dated 23rd December, 1937.

EWES GIVES BIRTH TO SEVEN LAMBS.

A five-year-old Corriedale ewe owned by Mr. W. J. C. Sheat Dunsandel, N.Z., was last month seen to give birth to seven lambs within half an hour. The last one was difficult to deliver and the mother died about 24 hours later.

One of the lambs was quite a good size, three were normal and three were small. Five were ewes and two rams. The three small ones were put in an oven for a little while but, after a drink, they joined the other members of the family, the weakest at the beginning becoming one of the nippiest. The mother last year had four lambs, three of which were alive and one dead.

A fortnight after birth all of this year's "septuplets" were doing well, and the intention is to keep them for breeding purposes as a test of the theory that "like begets like". The three smaller ones were still being hand-fed pending an opportunity for bereaved ewes to adopt them.

The ewe's performance, particularly in view of the survival of all the lambs, must be something like a world record.

Jessie Bell.

Mrs Jessie Bell, beloved wife of Henry Bell of Detroit Mich. U.S.A. who passed away on December 15th, 1937 was the Sister of Harry Clifton of Port Stanley, Falkland Islands, William Clifton of Bleaker Island, John Clifton of England, and Mrs James Clarke of Speedwell Island. The Late Mrs Bell was a former resident of the Falkland Islands and lived here for many years. Her Husband was employed by the Colonial Government as a Mason and worked on the construction of part of the present Government House. He also assisted in the building of Christ Church Cathedral. Mr and Mrs Bell left the Falklands thirty-five years ago for Buenos Aires and later made their home in the United States.

Mrs Bell, since leaving the Falklands, had often expressed the wish to be well enough to return. Though born in England, she looked upon these Islands as the land of her birth, and longed to die here when her time came. Before dying, Mrs Bell made a last request which was that her remains should be cremated and sent to the Falklands

Berlin. Uncertainty and anxiety prevails in Government circles following the flood of international rumours concerning Germany's internal situation. All classes of population are affected and no authentic news is published, while foreign newspapers are confiscated at the border states the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent. Herr Hitler remains at Berchtesgaden until today when he gives a dinner to the diplomatic Corps at the Chancellery, but it is understood that foreign press comments are carefully kept from him. The German Embassy in London issues a statement that the changes in the higher military command is due to personal reasons or routine while no officers have fled from the country nor has the frontier been closed. No attempts have been made on Herr Hitler's life. Nevertheless strange reticence is shown in official quarters in answer to direct questions while frontier reports emphasise a check to traffic. Poland advices reiterate that critical conditions prevail in Germany.

POWER BOAT "GEORGIA".

The Power Boat "Georgia" arrived back in Stanley at 4.35 yesterday afternoon bringing Mr. & Mrs D. Smith and family, the Matron also returned. They had a very good trip and the time taken each way was two hours, and very smooth water.

Bucharest. The new Government was formed within a few hours of the Goga Cabinets resignation with King Carol establishing martial law throughout, Patriarch Cristea becomes nominal Premier with the remainder of the Government consisting of seven ex Premiers and friends of the King and Throne as Dictatorial head states the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent. All Prefects are dismissed and the power conferred on military authorities who also control a press censorship. The Fascist Ironguard are instructed to stand by. Political changes are generally welcomed by populace.

Washington. At the White House Press Conference, President Roosevelt remained silent on the questions concerning foreign policy and gave no determinate answers on naval or military subjects but a general impression was gained that the United States primary object was the search for peace. Mr. Vinson addressing the Naval House Committee outlined the plans for the fleet expansion sufficient to protect the Atlantic and Pacific coasts simultaneously, while the appropriations committee have been informed that President Roosevelt is asking Congress for a supplementary 16 million dollars to strengthen the army.

Shanghai. All news from the fighting fronts indicate intense activity with Lunghai railway as the objective. The Japanese claim successes north of Nanking across the Hwai river and south of Changteh with the attack being pressed on Tangyin where 15,000 Chinese are maintaining resistance. Further east, the Chinese launched a successful counter attack and regained Tsingfing. The Japanese bombed Yangtze towns in the vicinity of Wuchang without effect.

Concerning the Rising Price of Butter.

Until present stocks are exhausted, our price for Argentine butter will be maintained at 1/6d. per lb., but when the new supply arrives by s.s. "Lafonia" on 23rd February the price will have to be higher - probably 1/8d. per lb.

This increase in the price of butter is due to a drought in the Argentine, and it is anticipated that the price will continue to rise during the winter due to shortage of milk supplies.

However, for those families who may not be able to purchase butter at the increased prices, we strongly recommend our

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. The Board of Trade returns for January published on Monday show that British foreign trade has begun the new year well. Imports and exports were larger in value last month than in the first month of any other year since the suspension of the gold standard in 1931. Compared with those for December, the figures showed a usual seasonal decrease, though that in exports was perhaps rather above the normal. It is pointed out however, that the returns based on values are now reflecting the recent fall in prices.

London. In the course of the reply to the Royal message from the Governor of the Straits Settlement on behalf of the people of Malaya on the occasion of Monday's ceremony at Singapore, the King telegraphed, "I warmly appreciate the sentiments which you have expressed to me on behalf of Malaya on the occasion of the opening of King George VI Dock. The construction of the naval base at Singapore is a symbol of the Empire's powerful resolve for peace and has been marked by generous co-operation for the purpose of naval defence.

London. The reply from Japan concerning the naval construction was mentioned at the House of Commons at Question time. BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. The Prime Minister was asked in the House of Commons to give assurance as an example to other nations, that the Government would prohibit the use of bombing aeroplanes for police purposes in a territory under British control. Mr. Chamberlain replied that His Majesty's Government were not prepared to limit the activities of the air force except as part of the International Agreement. If such an Agreement were found to be possible and the House had already been informed, His Majesty's Government were most anxious it should be possible the Government would be fully prepared to give the assurance suggested.

London. In the House of Commons the reply the Foreign Secretary said he was informed that a number of executions had taken place at Bilbao since the Insurgents occupation. Naturally it is impossible to obtain the exact figures. His Majesty's Government had strongly represented to the parties in Spain the advisability of refraining from further executions in order to avoid prejudicing prospective negotiations for the general exchange of prisoners. The British Agent at Salamanca had recently received the assurance of Basque prisoners who were the subject of negotiations they were in no danger. Replying supplementary Mr. Eden said the Government had received a similar assurance from the Spanish Government.

The bombing of civilians both in connection with the present Civil War in Spain and as a subject of general international agreement was referred to in several answers to the House of Commons questions by the Foreign Secretary. In one answer Mr. Eden recalled his statement on February 2nd in which he intimated the subject of the International Agreement regarding the bombing of civilian populations were being considered by competent departments with the express intention of reopening the question with

Asked whether he would give notice to the parties in Spain that Great Britain proposed to allow the importation into Spain of anti-aircraft guns and ammunition unless the bombing behind the lines ceased, Mr. Eden said that Great Britain was bound by an international undertaking assumed as signatory on the Non Intervention Agreement and added that he was not prepared at present to propose any modification of that agreement. He told the House in another reply that the Government had not approached the Vatican direct regarding the denunciation by the Pope of the bombing of civilians in Spain by both sides but they had informed the French Government that they were prepared to associate themselves with such initiative as the French Government might decide to take in the matter whether through the Vatican or other channels.

O B I T U A R Y.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Edgar Roberts who passed away suddenly yesterday at Walker Creek at the age of 62 years.

The following is an extract from a New Zealand paper.

SHIPS OF THE PAST.

s.s. GREAT BRITAIN.

To the Editor of the Age.

Sir,- From a friend in Monte Video, South America, has come to me a photograph of the old and famous auxiliary S.S. Great Britain being towed to her last resting place that old ship which is so linked up with the earlier history of Australia particularly Victoria. In the years 1852 to 1875, during which period she made 32 voyages from England. Here she is shown shorn of all her former glory making her final trip with the aid of a sturdy tug boat, from Port Stanley to Sparrow Cove, Falkland Islands, where my friend tells me she has been beached and left to lie there; that there was a movement to try to get her back to Bristol, England (where she was built) as a souvenir, but apparently the necessary cash was not forthcoming.

Designed by Brunel in 1838, her construction was commenced by Patterson in 1839, being launched in 1843, and making her maiden voyage to New York starting from Liverpool on July 26, 1845, under the command of Captain James Hoskin, who had commanded the Great Eastern since 1837. It has been written:- "With the possible exception of the Great Eastern, no ship has created such an expression of wonderment on the popular mind, or had so lengthy and successful a period of existence during the century 1836-1935, as the famous iron ship Great Britain." Her first commander on the Australian run was Captain Barnard R. Matthews, and on this first voyage here in 1852 she carried a crew of 137, passengers 630 and gold and silver specie valued a one million pounds. Captain John Gray, lieutenant, R.N.R., was the best known and the most popular commander the ship had. He was born in the Shetland Islands in 1821, was second officer of the Great Britain on her first voyage to Australia in 1852, chief officer in 1853-54, and in this latter year was appointed to her command, which he retained until his mysterious disappearance at sea on November 26, 1872, when 30 days out from Melbourne homeward bound.

In the obituary notices of the home press he was eulogised as the "beau ideal of a merchant captain-brave, skilful, manly and resourceful Captain Charles Chapman, a Lincolnshire man, born in 1821, chief officer of the ship, took charge after Captain Gray's disappearance, and upon arrival home was confirmed in the command of the ship, and remained as commander until the old vessel was taken off the Australian run in January, 1876. She was then laid up at Birkenhead, and in 1882 sold to Gibbs, Sons and Co., who removed her engines and reconditioned her, leaving her a full-rigged sailing ship. Captain Henry Stap, from Marshall's Sussex, was given the command of her, and had her for the rest of her seagoing career. She was put on the West Coast trade, taking coal (chiefly) out, with wheat back. On her third and last voyage she left Cardiff in March, 1886, with a cargo of coal for Panama, and when off Cape Horn met with very heavy weather, being partially dismantled, and sustaining considerable damage. Putting into the Falkland Islands on May 25th, 1886, she was surveyed, condemned and sold for a hulk, and at Port Stanley she has remained ever since, being used mostly as a storage hulk for wool, and so ended her active career.

Captain Stap returned home and was appointed to the command of Leyland's ship Halewood, and later their ship Ditton, 1891-1899, reputed to have been the largest three-masted ships ever built in Great Britain. It may interest readers to know that in the year 1935 there was living at Port Stanley, Charles Enestrom, a member of the crew of the old ship, who still retained vivid memories of that last voyage. As a young man of 21 he signed on at Cardiff in the year 1886 at the "princely" salary of 50/- a month. Sailing from Cardiff with a crew of 54, they had reached and rounded the Horn after battling for six weeks with bad weather, when a particularly venomous squall struck her, he relates from the south-west, and took away the fore and main topmasts, transforming the one-time "Pride of the Atlantic" into a mass of floating debris. For ten hours the ship seemed clutched in a death grip, with every hand fighting madly to clear away that wreckage, and though the captain wished to continue, the crew made him turn back. There was not a dry spot onboard; the tanks had been battered by the sea, and the water was salt and undrinkable, while the ship was leaking badly, and it was under these conditions she limped into Port Stanley. Enstrom "swallowed the anchor" and has remained there ever since. It has been placed on record that the commanders of the Great Britain were men of high standing in their profession, and front-rank seamen of their time.

Many have been the rumours of late years regarding the movements of this celebrated old ship, but this photograph, which I enclose, and which I trust can be reproduced, will show your readers that she is slowly proceeding to her last resting place, and that one can say "Vale" to the auxiliary S.S. Great Britain, truly once a noble vessel and the pride of her owners.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

He spent two nights lying on snow unable to climb the steep slopes. A search party found him conscious with badly frozen hands and feet and carried him to a military hospital.

Cape Town. The Commerce Industries Minister, R. Fourie announced in the House of Assembly that the Union Government are not renewing the subsidy to the Italian shipping lines when the present agreement ends in March. He added, the Government believed the agreement had achieved important trade connections between West Africa and Southern Europe and if their development needed further assistance the Government would invite all interested shipping companies to tender their services.

London. Negotiations between Canada and the United States for a new Trade Agreement were likely to take place at Washington concurrently with negotiations between the United Kingdom and the United States.

London. The Dominions Secretary was questioned in the House of Commons about the recent Anglo Irish discussions. He was asked if a constitutional position were established by a new constitution and by the acts passed in the former Free State Parliament at the time of the abdication had been discussed. Mr. McDonald replied no. Great Yarmouth. The brunt of Saturday's storm suffered by East Anglia where tremendous seas smashed coast defences and flooded villages inland and thousands of acres of agricultural land in the worst weather for fifty years. The sea inundated broads with houses four feet deep many hamlets necessitating evacuation while cattle were abandoned in submerged fields and drowned. The coastal sandhills were swept away and vast quantities of water being carried inland by the prevailing north sea winds.

Toronto. The High Court decision in "Stork Derby" whereby mothers bearing the most children within ten years of the Testators death, share £150,000 fortune, granted the award to Mesdames Maclean, Smith, Nagle and Temleck each with nine children, while the claims of Mesdames Kenny and Clarke are in dispute.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Munich. Preaching from St Michael's Church Pulpit, Cardinal Faulhaber voiced the strongest public indictment yet heard of in Nazi policy with broadcast relays to three other Churches where enthusiastic congregations assembled. The Cardinal emphasised the common aim of national socialism and Bolshevism attempting the destruction of Christianity and religious beliefs. The police lined the adjacent streets when the Cardinal drove off but took no action. The Bishop of Berlin, Count Preysing also made attacks on the administration in St Hedwig Cathedral, the sermon asserting attempts being made to establish not a national church but a national God.

Washington. Official circles regard the Japanese reply on the naval construction as establishing her position at 1936 level, and therefore no basis exists for further discussion on the naval limitation. The next step according to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent is for the United States in consultation with Britain and France to ascertain whether the other signatories of the London Treaty consider the Japanese reply sufficiently negative to justify invocation of the escape clause. The current opinion is such invocation justifiable with the United States seeking to preserve the 1936 Treaty and Japan is endeavouring to scrap the agreement and recommence naval limitation processes.

Barcelona. Comparative inactivity prevails on all Spanish fronts but sporadic fighting occurred at Estremadura. Both sides claim minor advances with the capture of war material and prisoners.

London. Despatches from Vienna appear prominently in all newspapers and space is devoted to central European developments and reflects interest and concern with which the public are following the events. The comment in the newspapers shows the sympathy with the Austrian Chancellor in whose disinterest and loyalty confidence is expressed. His character and exceptional skill with which he has steered his country through difficult times has earned him a widespread respect. The Austrian situation was also the subject of anxious comment by speakers in the House of Lords debate on Foreign Affairs on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Devalera is coming to London for this purpose next Monday. Discussions were suspended four weeks ago pending a more detailed examination of a number of points by officials of the two Governments. The necessary data has now been collected for the continuation of discussions between the Ministers themselves.

London. A statement was made in the House of Commons on behalf of the Government by Lord Winterton, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster on the resignation of the Ministers in Bihar and the United Provinces. He said "I greatly regret that the Ministries in the United Provinces and Bihar which, since they took office in July last year have administered the Government of the two important provinces of India with prudence and moderation to resign. Their resignation arose out of a policy they proposed to pursue in connection with the release of so called political prisoners. It has been an important feature of the programme of the Congress Ministries in all provinces to secure the release of all prisoners convicted of crimes which were considered to be actuated by political motive. The Governor's of the provinces in which there have been Congress Ministries, had after consultation with the Governor General found themselves able to accept the proposals of their Ministries for the release of a substantial number of such prisoners having satisfied themselves after examination of each individual case on its merits that no menace to peace and tranquility of province was involved.

Asked in the House of Commons by the Liberal Member Mander if the Austrian Government had asked the British Government what measure of support, if any, would be granted to them if they resisted the German demands, Mr. Eden replied "no such suggestion was ever made to His Majesty's Government". In a final reply Mr. Eden told the House that he was in consultation with the French Government.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. When the House of Commons met on Friday morning the Foreign Secretary was unable to add to the information which he gave on Thursday on the Austrian situation. They are therefore watching the situation closely."

London. At the beginning of February His Majesty's Government informed both parties in Spain they held themselves at the latter's disposal should their good offices be desired in connection with the Agreement between the two parties for the purpose of reducing the suffering inflicted on the civil populations by bombing from the air. On February 3rd the Government in Barcelona published a note announcing the decision to suspend all aerial bombardment of towns at the distance from the front, in view of the steps being taken by the British and French Government's to secure an agreement for the elimination of this method of warfare. The reply to the British initiative has now been received from the Insurgent authorities. It expresses their regret for the loss of life resulting from bombing cities and their attachment to humanitarian considerations and states that they take a good note of humanitarian initiative of His Majesty's Government. The reply however gives no answer to that initiative. In this connection it will be recalled that His Majesty's Government recently commended to both parties in Spain an appeal on this subject signed by a number of prominent persons in the United Kingdom, and have also informed the French Government that they are prepared to associate themselves with any appeal which they may decide to make in the matter.

BLUE WHALE 78 FEET LONG.

Largest Capture in Twenty-Six Years.

WEIGHT ESTIMATED ABOUT 60 TONS.

A true tall fishing story can be told by Mr. J. Perano, whaler, of Picton, New Zealand, for in the season recently ended he landed a blue whale, the largest taken in his 26 years of operations in Cook Strait. It measured 78ft. long, weighed perhaps 50 or 60 tons, yet had it been only 8ft shorter it would have been within the legal minimum size, and he would have had to let it go.

This huge whale was more than twice the length and a dozen times the displacement of the frail speed-boat from which it was harpooned. It was so bulky that considerable difficulty was experienced in handling it on a flensing slip designed only for the cutting up of hump-backs a mere 50ft in length. Its jaw-bones measured 21ft.; its girth must have been about 30ft. The weight of a whale is usually estimated at a ton per foot of length, but this whale was thought to be somewhat below that figure.

The blue whale is the biggest of all living things. It grows to upward of 100ft. long, and yields as much as 25 tons of valuable oil. To-day it is the chief quarry of the pelagic whaling fleets, and is being hunted rapidly to extinction. It is distinguished by its blue-grey colour, and long lean shape. The hump-back, the common whale in Cook Strait, is short and rotund, with tremendously long fins and Berlin. Outlining the foreign policy in almost three hours address to the Reichstag, Herr Hitler declared that Germany was willing to conclude understandings with all countries except Russia, but unremittably hostile to Moscow as the Bolshevism's world centre. According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the Fuhrer explained that the Italo German Pact was a basis of his policy and neither nation would permit the establishment of Bolshevism in Spain or any other European country. Germany and Italy desired Nationalist Spain and Japan would prevent communism spreading in the east.

He added that the Austro German agreement had averted a possible catastrophe. German minorities in European states including over ten million in two countries alone would be protected. Germany was never returning to the League of Nations and altho prepared to co-operate in other ways saw no value in the plans for an international economic settlement.

Facing the changing of the worlds realities, Germany recognised the Japanese Manchukuo conquest.

Herr Hitler reiterated the Colonial demands adding that these need not cause an Anti British conflict but declared democratic countries Anti German, and press attacks increasingly menaced peace.

Rome was pleased with the speech but Vienna was alarmed by the absence of the anticipated pledges guaranteeing Austria independence and recognition of the Fatherland from and the non interference in national affairs. Lithuania was disturbed by the promised protection of the minorities.

Tokio. The Cabinet resignation is possible following the Anticomunists attempted seizure of the political Headquarters. Feeling is high in the Diet where the Home Minister and Admiral Svetsugus explanations of the incident proved unacceptable.

It is suspected that the Home Minister and a member of the Cabinet Advisory Council is expected and a demonstration to provoke a quarrel between the parties on the national mobilisation power control bill. Demonstrators received thirty thousand Yen assistance.

The Bank of Japan and the Governor stressed the necessity of maintaining the present yen exchange rate facing the exports decline and following the outbreak of Sino Japanese hostilities.

Washington. It is revealed that rumors of the renewed war debts revision talks arose from discussions regarding the reduction of Hungary's post war relief loan for purchasing United States flour.

Treasury officials are examining Hungary's tentative suggestions based on the fact that Hungary received flour valued at 120 dollars per ton and now valued at 60 dollars. The Congress in opposition to the reduction forsee the precedent for war debts also contracted at war time prices and the administration leaders consider the renewed war debts debate inopportune.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. The House of Commons yesterday afternoon was crowded in every part for the explanatory statements on the resignation of Mr. Anthony Eden. The Diplomatic and Distinguished strangers Galleries were full. In a tense and expectant atmosphere the Chancellor of the Exchequer rose to answer the Foreign Office questions. He made a statement on Austria describing in a somewhat greater detail than Mr. Eden was able last week, and on information received from Austrian sources, the changes resulting from the Berchtesgaden meeting and which all had been the subject of official communiques issued in Vienna. In another reply Sir J. Simon said that His Majesty's Government had no information on the attitude of the Italian Government to the recent developments in Austria beyond what had appeared in the Italian press. Question time was punctuated by sharp bursts of cheering on entry of the Prime Minister who was warmly received by Ministerialists and of Mr. Eden who was greeted from all parts of the House as he walked to his seat below the gangway usually taken by Ministers who have resigned. The father of the House, Mr. Lloyd George was also welcomed on his return from holiday abroad.

Mr. Eden began his statement by remarking that the maintenance of peace was recognised by all as an objective of the country's foreign policy.

But peace to be enduring must rest on the foundations of a frank reciprocity. On that basis negotiations with all countries whatever their forms of Government were possible and desirable. But in such negotiations and their method, they must be watchful to see they were in fact strengthening and not undermining the foundations upon which the international confidence ultimately rested. Coming to the conversations with Italy - to the principle of which he reminded the House the Government had been committed since the exchange of letters last summer between Mr. Chamberlain and Signor Mussolini - he said the immediate issue was whether now was the time for their opening. In his conviction it was not in view of the attitude of the Italian Government to the international problems in general and towards Great Britain in particular. The Italian propaganda against Britain was rife throughout the world. Moreover a little progress in fact though much in promise had been made with the problems arising from the Spanish Civil War. While he had been Foreign Secretary he had made several attempts to better the Anglo Italian relations. In January 1935 after difficult negotiations they signed a Mediterranean Agreement and within a few days more Italians were sent to Spain while the propaganda continued. After the Prime Minister's exchange of letters, there was a temporary improvement, but soon it was followed by events in the Mediterranean with which the House was familiar and by glorification by the head of the Italian Government of the victories of the Italian forces in Spain. He submitted they ought not risk the repetition of these disillusioning experiences and he wished therefore before opening conversations to have an agreement not only on principles of the withdrawal of volunteers from Spain, but on detailed conditions of the withdrawal.

POST OFFICE NOTICE.

Mails for the East and West Falklands will be received at the Post Office not later than 4 p.m. on Thursday the 24th February, 1938.

(Sgd.) M. Carey,
Colonial Postmaster.

Mr. Anthony Eden, of whose signature a facsimile appears above, has resigned one of the most important posts that can be held under the British Government - that of Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

It is therefore opportune under the circumstances to print a few words regarding this remarkable young man - and we say 'young' conscious of the fact that he is well over 40, but nevertheless young as Cabinet Ministers go, and young and cleanly built physically.

As a rule British Cabinet Ministers are not particularly well favoured as to their appearance, though they generally give one the impression of solid respectability. Mr. Eden is handsome, always exquisitely dressed, and photographs of him, accompanied by his equally handsome wife, suggest a couple of princely aristocrats instead of one of the most energetic and hardworking men that ever took office under the British Crown.

He served during the Great War and held the rank of 'Captain', a title which he sensibly disdains to use preferring to be known as "Mr. Eden" rather than be confused with the host of temporary 'Captains' that sell 'baccy, beer, braces and other baubles of commerce - and knowing full well that no 'Captains' have ever risen to the post of Prime Minister, whereas we have had Mr. Baldwin, Mr. McDonald, Mr. Bonar Law, Mr. Lloyd George, Mr. Asquith - in fact all Prime Ministers have been plain 'Mister' since Lord Salisbury's resignation in 1902, always excepting Sir H. Campbell-Bannerman's Premiership of 1906/1908. And those who are best entitled to know, and they are many, say that Mr. Anthony Eden will some day be Prime Minister of Britain.

In Parliament he represented the constituency of Warwick & Leamington since the War, and he first came into international prominence when appointed special Minister for League of Nations Affairs. When the Hoare-Laval proposals to end the Italo-Abyssinian war created a popular outcry, and Sir Samuel Hoare resigned his post as Minister of Foreign Affairs in order to avoid embarrassing the whole Cabinet, Mr. Eden was called upon to fill Sir Samuel's shoes. He has filled the billet with remarkable success, and, though he has now resigned because he is unable to honestly agree with the foreign policy that the rest of the British Cabinet wish to put into practice, it is a foregone conclusion that he will soon be back into a position of prominence and responsibility in the same manner that his predecessor, Sir Samuel Hoare, is again in the Cabinet.

Mr. Eden has agreed to disagree with his Chief, Mr. Chamberlain, and he has resigned so that the Premier may have a stronger hand to play in the complications of the Italian-Spanish and German-Austrian war-engendering imbroglios. Major Atlee's statement to the effect that he sympathised with Mr. Eden and that he 'had been thrown to the wolves' can be discounted as so much electioneering propaganda, in an effort to turn Mr. Eden's universal popularity to the benefit of the Labour Party, and the other remarks made to the effect that Mussolini is a bankrupt Dictator were in bad taste - whether bankrupt or solvent Mussolini is the head of a country with over 40,000,000 subjects, people who neither act nor live nor think in the same terms as Anglo-Saxons; Mr. Eden, despite his unbounded capacity has been unable to reconcile Italian views with British views - and Mr. Chamberlain is going to try another Foreign Secretary to see whether success can be brought about through another medium.

Meantime, Good Luck Mr. Eden, Good Luck Mr. Chamberlain. You are really still in the same team. That holds British prestige above personal rank, or personal success.

They were in presence, progressive, deterioration of respect for international obligations and attempts, secure political designs by forcible means and such a time was not one in his judgement to plunge into negotiations unprepared. Mr. Eden went on to say the issue he had discharged was not the sole one dividing him from the Prime Minister. Within the last few weeks upon one of the most important decisions of foreign policy which did not concern Italy at all, there had been a difference which was fundamental and the Prime Minister, he knew was conscious of it. If the Government was to speak with undivided voice in international affairs, it was essential the Prime Minister and his Foreign Secretary should have a similar outlook and believe in the same methods. Concluding Mr. Eden said "of late conviction has steadily grown upon me and there has been too keen desire on our part to make terms with others rather than that others should make terms with us. There never was attitude of this country in the past. It should not in the interests of peace be our attitude today. I do not believe we can make progress in the European appeasement, more particularly in the light of events of the past few days - and these events must surely be present in all our minds - if we allow impression to gain currency abroad we yield to constant pressure. I am certain in my own mind, progress depends above all on the temper of the nation and that temper must find expression in a firm spirit. That spirit I am confident is there. Not to give voice to it, is I believe fair, neither to this country nor to the world.

Towards the end of the speech with which he followed Mr. Eden, the Prime Minister announced a communication had been handed to him by Count Grandi on Monday morning in which the Italian Government accepted "British formula concerning the withdrawal of foreign volunteers and the granting of Belligerent rights" as a gesture of goodwill for the opening of conversations and that the British Ambassador in Rome would be instructed to come to London for fullest instructions so that the Anglo Italian conversations could be opened with Count Ciano at once. He added that he had impressed certain points on Count Grandi. First, the British Government regarded the settlement of the Spanish question as essential to any agreement. Secondly, they were loyal members of the League of Nations and would desire to obtain the League's approval for any agreement, and if they were to be able to recommend the agreement for approval, the situation in Spain must not have been materially altered during the conversations by either sending of fresh Italian reinforcements to General Franco, or failure by the Italians implement arrangement contemplated by the British formula. Finally he told Count Grandi he was confident the Italian Government would approach negotiations in the same spirit as as themselves, namely in a perfect good faith and with the desire to reach an agreement. Mr. Chamberlain observed parenthetically, perhaps in that sentence he had expressed difference in the outlook between Mr. Eden and himself. He believed if negotiations were approached in the spirit of mutual confidence there was good hope they might be brought to a successful conclusion but if entered upon in the spirit of suspicion then no previous guarantees would necessarily prelude bad faith.

Earlier in the speech the Premier said his own views on foreign policy of the country was, that it should be based on three principles. Firstly, the protection of British interests and the lives of British nationals, secondly, the maintenance of peace so far as they could influence it and the settlement of differences by peaceful means, thirdly, the promotion of friendly relations with other countries which are willing to reciprocate and keep the rules of the international conduct without which there could be neither security nor stability. But it was not enough to lay down the general principles. If they wanted peace they must make constant efforts ascertain and if possible remove the conditions threatening peace and which had kept Europe in a state of tension and anxiety. Moreover he had never ceased to deplore the senseless waste of money in the renewal of arms competition and he refused to believe that with the mutual goodwill and determination it was impossible to remove genuine grievances and unfounded suspicions. For these reasons therefore, he and his colleagues had been anxious to find some opportunity of starting conversation with the two European countries with which they had been at variance, namely Germany and Italy in order they might learn whether there was common ground on which they might build a genuine scheme of appeasement in Europe. As to Germany Mr. Chamberlain did no more than refer to Lord Halifax's visit, but he reviewed in some detail the history of recent relations with Italy including the exchange of letters last July with Signor Mussolini. In the subsequent months to the events of which the Premier alluded the Anglo

Italian relations seriously and steadily deteriorated. Speaking of the need for effort to understand the mentality of other nations and how differently some facts could appear to the opposite sides, Mr. Chamberlain told the House he understood all that, the time of suspicion was growing in Rome that the British Government did not want conversations and were merely lulling Italians, while they completed rearmament in order to exact revenge for the Italian conquest of Abyssinia. In Britain such an idea appeared fantastic but in the atmosphere of ill will, suspicion bred suspicion and they must recognise that the fantastic idea had been seriously held in Italy. Therefore when recently in conversation with Mr. Eden, Count Grandi had indicated his wish of the Italian Government to open conversations, he, Mr. Chamberlain was most anxious to seize the opportunity to dispel such notions. So far as recognition of the Italian annexation was concerned, the late Foreign Secretary had indicated to Count Grandi - and he spoke for the whole of the Government - the attitude of the British public opinion and of other League members in consonance with whom the Government would desire to act would be profoundly influenced by consideration that the agreement reached as a result of the conversations promised to make a real contribution to the general appeasement. The meeting with Count Grandi of the Prime Minister and the Foreign Secretary was then arranged with a concurrence of the latter and it was only after that meeting that Mr. Chamberlain said the difference emerged between himself and Mr. Eden regarding the opening conversations on the lines already described by the latter. He himself thought the effect of rebuffing the Italian request for the opening of conversations would be disastrous and by the intensification the Anglo Italian misunderstanding ought to make war ultimately inevitable. In closing sentences the Prime Minister gave assurances to France that there would be no departure from the policy of close friendship with which the late Foreign Secretary had been identified and appealed for the effort to bring Britain and France on one hand and Germany and Italy on the other into friendly discussion which might lead to a settlement of differences and and prevent the increasing embitterment of relations always threatening the eventual outbreak of conflict which might mean the end of civilization.

The Story.

Melodrama of the last days of the Slave Traffic. The grim but gripping story tells of a slave trader's regeneration through his love for the girl he marries. Jim Lovett, owner of a schooner engaged in the slave trade, falls in love with and marries Nancy Marlowe without telling her how he earns a living. She sails with him immediately after the wedding. Lovett has ordered Thompson his first mate to dismiss the cutthroat crew who are his partners, and engage another. He plans to sail to Jamaica and make a home with Nancy there. Thompson disobeys and tricks Lovett. When the old crew learn that there is to be no more slave trading they mutiny, take control of the schooner, sail to Africa, and collect a shipload of slaves. Nancy, though broken hearted at the knowledge of Lovett's past, forgives him and believes in his repentance. After the slaves have been shipped, Lovett cleverly regains command of the vessel and, with the help of Swifty, a cabin boy, steers for St. Helena the nearest port. As they near harbour the crew try to drown the slaves and the schooner catches fire. Thompson and most of the crew are drowned after a stiff fight. Lovett, Nancy and Swifty are rescued by British sailors. At his trial Nancy pleads for her husband, admits his past wrong doing but insists on the sincerity of his repentance. The closing scene shows Lovett, Nancy and Swifty happy on a farm in Jamaica - an unconvincing concession to the popular desire for a happy ending.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Except in Rome and Berlin where satisfaction is unconcealed, genuine regret is expressed among the European capitals at the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Eden's resignation.

According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the majority of French opinion regrets the step but informed circles are not anticipating an unfavourable effect on Anglo French relations and the and the bourse is unaffected.

The event caused a great impression in Rome where Mr. Eden was regarded as chief supporter of sanctions during the Abyssinian war. His departure from the Cabinet is considered to portend a successful Anglo Italian talks.

An undisguised pleasure is manifested in Berlin where it is declared Mr. Eden opposed Mr. Chamberlain's efforts to make Britain freer from Geneva and "fell under the wheel of history trying to hold its progress".

Stockholm explains the resignation as due to unwillingness to comply with the Premier's desire to make concessions to the Dictators while Moscow sees "a complete capitulation to Fascism probably spelling the League of Nations death".

Sydney press sees no apparent surrender to the Italian bluster.

Following the traditional policy the United States officials are preserving silence on the situation.

In the afternoon the King and Queen paid a private visit to the Spring Flower Show of the Royal Horticultural Society.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Prague. The Czechoslovakian official spokesman took a grave view of Herr Hitler's reference in protection of German minorities in the European states. According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent he declared the reference contained a definite threat as ten million mentioned included three and half million Czechoslovak German subjects. He added this was the first time Germany officially used a threatening language, advancing the claim inadmissible by any independent country.

The Czechs would forcibly resist aggression, and strong national defences are almost completed.

The Fuehrers speech amazed China in view of the traditional Sino German friendship and the Chinese Berlin Embassy is making a vigorous protest against the Manchukuo recognition. Tokio is exultant.

Vienna. Following disorders, the Cabinet banned the political demonstrations except by Governments of the Fatherland front party. The Cabinets object is described as guaranteeing the execution of certain measures in the Austro German Agreement. Students were driven from Vienna university buildings by police after some hours occupation, while Nazi demonstrators shouted Anti Jewish slogans.

Roman Catholics counter demonstrated, distributing handbills and praising Chancellor Schuschnigg, and the workers bodies issued pamphlets demanding free Austria. Police protected the Fatherland front headquarters and public buildings from the Nazis. Thousands of Nazis prevented the Fatherland demonstration in Graz, in the main square. Many Jews are leaving the country and Non Nazis are perturbed at the winter sports visitors departure.

Chancellor Schuschnigg announced the appointment of Doctor Fischlock an active Nazi as Commerce Ministry and adviser regarding the Austro German trade, and to intensify economic relations.

Communiques stated that all measures contemplated at Berchtesgaden are now published and other reported measures false. The communiques

Thousands of Nazis paraded the streets at Graz and other provincial towns celebrating the Austro German "reconciliation". The police are apparently ordered not to intervene and traffic regulation and civil order is maintained by demonstrators wearing swastika's.

Iowa. A vital world importance of pending Anglo American trade negotiations stressed by the State Secretary, Mr. Cordell Hull addressing the National Farm Institute. Mr. Hull explained the two countries of foreign trade comprised of over a quarter of the worlds total. He continued "pursuing liberal commercial policies the two countries can accomplish much towards rebuilding international commerce with world wide benefits". Answering the trade agreements programme critics, he declared that military disarmament was impossible without economic appeasement.

Tokio. Following the attempted occupation of Headquarters of Mins-eito and Seigukai, the political parties by the anti communist demonstrators and home Minister, Admiral Suestsugu informed the Diet, the Government would not tolerate Fascist or other attempts to abolish the Parliamentary system.

The meeting pledged support to the efforts to strengthen good relations between Japan and the United States.

Bombay. The constitutional crisis is relieved according to the "Sunday Times" Correspondent by the Congress Executives decision, not to recall other Congress Ministries following the resignations of the Bihar and United provinces Governments. The Executive is reluctant to precipitate a direct action and is inviting the Viceroy to reconsider the decision in support of the provincial Governors vetoing political prisoners release.

Subhas Chandra Bose presiding at the Congress Annual Session at Haripura, declared their goal was independent of India which only was attainable through the Federal Republic in which the provinces and states were willing partners. The determined opposition to a forcible inauguration of the Federation might cause another civil disobedience campaign.

He added, after complete severance from British connection they would determine future relations with Britain through a voluntary treaty.

Cape Town. The English speaking South Africans are uneasy regarding the playing of the Afrikans anthem "Die stem van Suid Afrika voice of South Africa" at the Parliamentary reopening on 11th Feb.

Premier Hertzog, replying to Colonel Stallard the Dominion Party leader in the assembly, stated the British National Anthem would be played while the King was King of South Africa as most appropriate when the King's representative is present, but the Afrikaans Anthem is entitled to be adopted as the Unions National Anthem.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Questions addressed to the Foreign Secretary were answered in the House of Commons on Wednesday by the Prime Minister who regarding Austria said, it was still not possible to estimate the exact effects of the Austro German agreement. He emphasised that His Majesty's Government were following developments with close attention. Mr. Chamberlain also stated that communication had now been received from Salamanca authorities in reply to the British note of protest against the attacks on British shipping. The terms of communication could not be regarded as satisfactory by His Majesty's Government. The reply is to be returned to that communication which was at present under consideration and he would prefer not to make any statement until it had been communicated to General Franco's administration.

London. The Home Secretary speaking at the National Chamber of Trade lunch in London said, that for months past Europe had seemed to be irrevocably splitting itself into two hostile camps. Both were arming with feverish activity. In both alike there were rumours very dangerous, and rumours of the inevitable clash. In the circumstances such as those, great responsibility rested on the British Government. The Government were not prepared to accept the inevitability of war. They did not believe a catastrophe must come. They were determined to make a sustained effort to drive the haunting fear of war out of the hearts of men and women in Europe. They might fail in their attempt, but he asked the country to believe in their integrity. This said Sir S. Hoare, was no cowardly and shady negotiation upon which they had embarked. It was an honest attempt to fix the causes of difference and to remove them with honour and justice to both sides. Nor was it in any sense a sacrifice of old friends. If they wished to make new friends there could be no question of abandoning the old ones.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. A manifesto issued after the meeting on Wednesday of the National Council of Labour - the Executives of the Labour Party, and the Parliamentary Labour Party and Trade Union Council - called to consider the resignation of the Foreign Secretary and challenge the Government to submit a electorate change which it alleges had been made in the Governments foreign policy. It states "the Prime Minister and majority of Cabinet have disregarded the pledges upon which the national Government gained the nations confidence at the last general election. They have brought the League covenant into derision, They have abandoned the principles which have hitherto inspired British people in their international relations. The Government have decided to enter upon negotiations with the Government of Italy under the conditions which involve the betrayal of friendship and confidence of the democratic nations. The Governments policy imperils the security of the country and Commonwealth. The British Labour movement reaffirms its uncompromising opposition to any agreement with either Fascist Italy or Nazi Germany on a basis indicated by the Prime Minister in his statement to Parliament.

London. Members of the Commission which is to enquire into the cocoa position in West Africa are, William Nowell, Chairman former Director of the East African Agricultural Research Station, Rupert Thompson, Mincing Lane Merchant and B.A. Irving Ministry of Agriculture. The commission will sail in a fortnight hence.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Paris. The Cabinet is closely following the London political situation, and France's policy is outlined by the Foreign Minister M. Delbos to the foreign affairs committee following three hours Cabinet discussion of the possible results of Mr. Eden's resignation and Herr Hitler's speech. M. Delbos declared that in the event of an Anglo Italian Agreement, France might consider similar negotiations with Rome with certain guarantees. France regarded herself bound by alliance with Czechoslovakia, and close Anglo French co-operation is continuing. M. Delbos emphasised the need for United France in the present situation.

Despite the rumours, it is believed that Cabinet changes are unlikely.

The Cabinet approved of the exceptional credits of 3,200,000,000 francs for national defence obtainable by internal loan and part being allocated to constructing two 35,000 ton battleships and 58,000 tons of other naval construction.

Teruel. After bitter house to house fighting, the nationalists recaptured the town hoisting the red and yellow flag over the charred ruins of the former stronghold and almost all the lost territory is regained. The attackers report that 1,500 Government troops resisted in the town and were isolated from the remainder of the defeated army until the remnants fought through to safety. General Campesino commanded the defenders until the last minute escape by tank.

Barcelona communique states the troops evacuated Teruel on Monday and are removing arms, munitions, food and occupied a strategic plateau a short distance south of the Barring coastal advance to Valencia.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. Mr. Anthony Eden's resignation was raised in the House of Lords on Thursday evening by the Labour Opposition. Lord Addison thought the Government's decision to proceed with the Anglo-Italian conversations without preliminary conditions from their Foreign Secretary was considered desirable, but was a risky and unbusinesslike proceeding, and he expressed the anxiety that there should be the closest co-operation with the French Government. Lord Lothian supported the Government in the policy of trying to break through the miasma of suspension which lay over Europe and seek an arrangement to save Europe and the world from the repetition of 1914. Lord Londonderry also spoke in support of the policy outlined to the House of Commons by the Premier on Tuesday. Lord Allen and Lord Ponsonby were two Labour Peers who welcomed the Government's decision of a new approach to European countries with whom there were difficulties and misunderstandings. Lord Cecil who thought they knew as yet very little of the underlying causes of disagreement between the Premier and Mr. Eden which had come to a head in the latter's resignation, protested particularly against the argument used by supporters of the Government which implied that the League policy meant the attitude of negation to just the claims of any power. It was utterly untrue to suggest the League was against the negotiations. On the contrary, the whole conception of it was, that there should be full negotiations wherever there was a difference of opinion. He declared they would never get union in Europe or peace except by establishing the supremacy of law based on justice. He thought there had been a complete change in the attitude of the Government to the League since 1935. Lord Brocket felt Mr. Eden's resignation would make Italy take entirely a different view of Great Britain and he welcomed the change. Lord Teynham and other Lords spoke in favour of the Four Power Pact in Europe. Lord Strabolgi thought the Government had made a radical and serious change in the British foreign policy which opposition must denounce, although they had no desire to see a quarrel with Italy pursued.

Lord Halifax replied in a debate for Government. He said on January 10th Count Grandi conveyed to His Majesty's Government an earnest desire of the Italian Government to inaugurate the conversations suggested in July 1937. The whole of Government including Mr. Eden agreed the conversations with Italy were desirable. In the course of exploratory conversations the Foreign Secretary made it plain that Spain and the propaganda were grave obstacles to the possibility of an agreement. It was upon that basis Mr. Eden saw the Italian Ambassador again with the Prime Minister on Friday morning last and it was only after that interview that a sharp difference of view between the Prime Minister and Mr. Eden manifested itself. Shortly put what the Prime Minister thought should be vital conditions of the agreement that would issue from the conversations, Mr. Eden thought should be conditions precedent to the inauguration of conversations themselves. Upon this immediate issue, Mr. Eden resigned. Once the policy of conversations had been accepted as it had been by Mr. Eden and once the acceptance of such a policy was made known to the other party as it had been made known by Mr. Eden, and provided that what are vital questions to us such as Spain were clearly pronounced at the outset as indeed they had been then, I am to say that the other questions arising which Mr. Eden had declared to be an immediate issue between himself and the Prime Minister seem to me now as they have seemed to me throughout, secondary. The agreement existed on larger questions of a broad policy which is expressed by the willingness that the conversations should take place. It is a fact that in July last no conditions were attached to the opening of conversations. Subsequently the late Foreign Secretary desired to introduce conditions which were perfectly reasonable. He was amazed to hear some persons who had held responsible positions suggest that progress could have been made if at the beginning we insisted upon the acceptance of a period of probationary discipline. He did not. The Prime Minister also rightly thought that the agreement could not be achieved by those means. But the Prime Minister also believed that if an agreement was reached those conditions which had been referred to would in fact follow and that no agreement could be reached unless that were so". Lord Halifax maintained the Government's policy was not dictated by fear but inspired by hope. The constant object of the British foreign policy must be peace and the Government were not prepared to allow the opportunity to pass of securing peace by the action for which the present might be a psychological moment. "We may be disappointed but that will not necessarily prove we were wrong or that those who differed from us were right. What it will prove is, that forces of misunderstanding have been too strong for our efforts. I have no doubt, nevertheless, the attempt is the right thing to make". It had been suggested that totalitarian states, the word could not be trusted and they would be encouraged by signs of weakness, but the issue really was, were you going on for years refusing to face facts and by destroying your relations with potential enemies turning them into real enemies. Continuing, Lord Halifax said, "we are told the resignation of Mr. Eden marks a complete change of policy. That is not so. In this House on Thursday I made a speech on foreign policy of which then, the Foreign Secretary entirely approved. What was our policy last week remains our policy today". Lord Halifax dealt at length with the League of Nations and maintained that the Prime Minister supported the League and had given the assurance he would not tear one single article of the Covenant nor would he abandon even article sixteen in the hope that some day the League might be reconstituted in such a form that it would be able to use its powers and functions as intended. Regarding Abyssinia he said the Government had told the Italian Government that that would of matter if a general agreement was reached subject to the consent of the League that it would be considered. He had felt as strongly as anyone else about the Italian action in Abyssinia but let them face facts and not ignore them. They could only have prevented the conquest of Abyssinia by war. There were very few indeed with the responsibility who were prepared to face that. Concluding Lord Halifax said, a very plain choice lay before them. Things would either get better or worse. "If you do not want to see them worse you must take active steps and try and make them better. We shall refuse to hold our hands and merely drift along in dangerous times making warlike noises in a snip in order to encourage passengers". He maintained the debate showed preponderance of opinion behind the Government in this matter.

London. The Prime Minister had audience of the King at Buckingham Palace on Thursday evening. Another Minister who had audience on Thursday was Lord Halifax who is at present in charge of the Foreign Office and who was at the Palace as Lord President of the Council for the meeting of the Privy Council held on Thursday morning.

London. The Earl of Perth, British Ambassador in Rome arrived in London Thursday evening to receive his instructions with a view to opening in Rome on his return of Anglo Italian conversations.

London. The Prime Minister informed the House of Commons at question time, so far as the present Government were concerned his pledge was not to introduce conscription in peace time, this applied to compulsory service both military and civil.

BRITISH OFFICIAL NEWS.

London. It is reported that the conservative foreign affairs of the Parliamentary committee met on Thursday evening and expressed their wholehearted support of the Prime Ministers policy and their wishes for his success. The offer of resignation on the part of the officers of the committees in view of the abstention of two of them from the division on the oppositions vote of censure on Tuesday night was not accepted by the committee.

London. A gallant action of Private J.E.Mott of the first Battalion, Essex Regiment, in picking up a live bomb which had been thrown into a crowded cafe in Haifa on Christmas day, and throwing it into the street when it exploded, has been rewarded. The War Office announced the King has approved the award of the Medal of the British Empire Military Division for gallantry. The announcement states that the Jordanea Cafe in Haifa was crowded with soldiers and civilians when the bomb was thrown among them. Private Mott who was seated at a table with some other men of the battalion picked up the bomb and hurled it through a window into the street where it exploded with great violence. Private Mott's highly courageous act undoubtedly saved several lives and injuries to many of his companions adds the statement.

London. Approximately 12,000 acres of downland and water meadows in Sussex, between Eastbourne and Seaford will be preserved against the building development for all time, according to the announcement by the Ministry of Health. This results from the approval given by the Minister to the planning scheme made by local councils, and covering the area of some 19,000 acres.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Tokio. The first air raid on the Japanese Empire occurred when seven Chinese planes raided Formosa Island, 700 miles south of Tokio, bombing the capital Tachoka and Chikuto. Ten were killed and thirty injured in Tachoka and considerable damage to both towns. The planes flew at a great height and were unharmed.

General Matsui is retiring from the Supreme Japanese Commander in Central China and returned to Japan being succeeded by Lt. General Hata believed to favour a milder policy. Prince Asaka and Lt. General Yanagawa have been ordered home. No reasons are given but according to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent it is believed General Matsui clashed with the Government regarding the Yangtze Valley policy and was recalled when he intimated he would follow an independent course.

Washington. Admiral Dubose informed the House of Representatives Naval Committee, that the United States determination was not to conclude an understanding with other naval powers, but involved three times the expenditure authorised in the Naval Expansion Bill. Isolation would necessitate creating the Atlantic fleet to 166 vessels including 12 battleships. The scheme would cost 3,000 million dollars and require ten years construction plus dockyards expansion. It is believed that the United States are closely watching the Italian and German penetration to South America and a serious situation is envisaged if anti communist powers intervene in the future South American conflict.

The forthcoming Pacific manoeuvres are declared highly confidential and the press is excluded by the naval Secretary Swanson.

THE STORY.

Director: Sidney Lanfield.
Leading Players: Sonja Henie, Adolphe Menjou, Jean Hersholt, The Ritz Brothers.

Comedy romance with songs, and with Sonja Henie's ice-skating as the chief feature. The story has for its main ingredients a broken-down theatrical troupe stranded at a Swiss hotel, a girl (the daughter of the hotel-keeper himself formerly a world champion skater) who takes part in the Olympic games and wins the ice-skating, and a self-assured young American journalist resident at the hotel, who falls in love with the girl. At the head of the troupe are the voluble Adolphe Menjou and, as his foil, Arline Judge (taking the part of his wife); and a girl's band. All give successful performances: those who like the Ritz Brothers will find them extremely funny, and there is a scene where Borrah Minevitch conducts a mouth-organ band of his own, which is also amusing. Don Ameche as the reporter supplies the romantic interest. As his companion, Ned Sparks introduces more humour. In the skating sequences, Sonja Henie's grace and control are beyond question; and her acting is quite adequate. She is fresh and pleasant to look at. Her skating is actually best to watch when she is alone on the ice, but there are no doubt many who like spectacular ensembles for their own sake. Actual shots are included, in the film, of Garmisch-Partenkirchen during the last Olympic Games, with the sports going on. The film contains a little of everything, and the elements have been put together skilfully to make a good variety-entertainment as one could want, with a spectacular and well-timed finale in Madison Square Garden.

BIGGEST FIG

Smallest Racehorse.

The world's biggest pig and the world's smallest racehorse are to be seen on Ashton Marlet Ground.

"Billy" the pig is 8ft. 3in. in length, 7ft. 2in. in girth, and weighs half a ton!

By way of contrast, "Wee Jimmy" the racehorse who is 5½ years old, only weighs 52 pounds, and is only 24in. in height. This little creature is a perfect "pocket edition" of the racing throughbred. His mother and father are normal in size, and he has big brothers racing on the turf in South America.

Butler Parliamentary Secretary Ministry of Labour as Parliamentary Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs in the room of Lord Cranbourne and of Mr. A. T. Lennox Boyd, Mr. Lennox Boyd as Parliamentary Secretary, Ministry of Labour. It is understood that as the new Foreign Secretary is a member of Lords, the Prime Minister proposes himself to deal with all important aspects of foreign Affairs which are the subject of debate or of questions in the House of Commons.

London. Lord Perth who has returned from Rome to receive his instructions for the Anglo Italian conversations called at the Foreign Office where he saw Lord Halifax.

London. Lord Plymouth, Chairman of the Non Intervention Committee is continuing a series of consultations he has had in the last few days, in the course of which he has seen the French, Italian and Russian Ambassadors, and the German Charge d'Affaires. It was assumed that in these consultations the British formula regarding the terms of the withdrawal of Non Spanish "volunteers" from Spain and granting of belligerent rights is being discussed in all its details preparatory to a further meeting of the committee.

London. Remarkable response last year among the young men eligible for service as pilots in the Royal Air Force to the announcement of an increased number of vacancies to be filled as a result of the Government's air defence expansion programme which has been not only equalled but beaten this year when the number of vacancies was again larger. The Air Ministry announces that although a number of pilots required by the Royal Air Force during the present year which ends on March 31st reached the record figure of 1750, the whole of that number had been obtained by the end of January. Of the total, approximately 1,300 have been accepted from candidates from civil life and the balance in accordance with normal policy are selected volunteers from serving airmen in the Royal Air Force. The total number of pilots who have been entered since the expansion began in 1935 now exceeds 4,500.

London. Mr. Devalera and his colleagues will return to London on Wednesday and discussions with the United Kingdom will be resumed on Thursday.

London. Doctor Peter Amigo, Roman Catholic Bishop, Southwark, has been created Archbishop by the Pope.

FOREIGN OFFICIAL NEWS.

Vienna. Chancellor Schuschnigg's speech was warmly received and his appeal for peace and the loyal Austrians co-operation echoed among the press and public. The press praises Chancellor Schuschnigg's faith in Austria's future and stresses his warning that recent measures represent a limit of Austria's concessions.

The resolute tone of the speech caused a surprise and disappointment to Berlin where official comments are cautious and no press comment is forthcoming. Official circles explain that the speech was primarily for Austrian listeners, but the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent points out that it was broadcast to many countries including Germany.

When the Socialist Deputy Dymesch remarked in the Czechoslovakian Parliament that Chancellor Schuschnigg delivered a courageous speech members stood applauding the Austrian Chancellor for several minutes.

The Chancellors reference to the Austrian independence and Rome protocols vitality pleased Italy, while Paris press praises his resolute attitude regarding the independence.

Paris. A frequent tumult interrupted the Chamber Foreign Affairs debate despite appeals of the Vice President Candace and later President Herriot for more dignified proceedings in view of international interest in the debate. According to the "Daily Telegraph" Correspondent the Chamber and public galleries were packed and discord began when the right Deputy Boucher criticised the Governments foreign policy as being the only country which had not given a categorical no to the German Colonial demands.

Greater uproar occurred during the socialist Deputy Grumbach's speech; deputies engaging in spirited arguments until M. Herriot threatened to suspend the session.

Genoa. Following the Union of South Africa, the Governments decision to suspend a subsidy for shipping service between Italy and the Union and well informed shipping circles believe that the Italian Government are increasing the annual subsidy to the line concerned from twenty eight million to thirty five million lire. The Italian exporters representatives are visiting South Africa to study the means of increasing exports to the Union.

Health Bulletin No. 2.

New Drugs at the Hospital.

While it is important to emphasize the preventive side of medical efforts the fact remains that people still continue to fall ill. When a patient becomes ill he needs accurate diagnosis followed by effective treatment. Medical discoveries within recent years have provided quite a number of new agents that are of immense value both in diagnosis and treatment. Some of them have secured and are stored ready at the Hospital against the day when you may need them.

Sulphaniltamide - An important "killer" is an organism so small that when it is stained with an intense blue chemical and magnified a thousand times it still looks like a tiny blue dot. A group of them look like a chain of blue dots. This tiny creature possesses a most wonderful factory capable of producing a powerful poison which when liberated in the human blood stream is capable of producing a wide variety of diseases such as "child-bed fever", St. Anthony's Fire, Scarlet Fever and Heart Disease. In sulph-aniltamide we have a new drug which experience has proved to be not only helpful but a definite cure. Medicines which cure, according to medical standards, are few and far between. This drug is as close to magic as any remedy is likely to be.

Benzedrine - Depression for no particular reason attacks each one of us in turn. The less stable are markedly and sometimes disastrously affected. Periods occur, particularly in a climate like the Falkland Islands when we lose our sense of perspective, trifling matters becomes major grievances, we indulge in self-pity and we react to our environment like a spoiled child. The basis of "Blue-Monday" is probably chemical and chemical remedies theoretically might be expected to neutralize fits of depression. Alcohol is a failure but in suitable cases Benzedrine has shown to be distinctly useful. After taking it one has a sense of well being, a sense of increased efficiency and a buoyancy of spirits that is very desirable in those with a tendency to melancholia.

Sodium Evipan, Sodium Soneryl, Spinal Anaesthesia. Whenever life becomes too difficult human attempts evasion of or retreat from the realities of life. Methods of doing this are very many - thus, we may read a book, attend "the flicks", "hide our head in the sand", take alcohol etc. Surgically when life becomes too difficult for the patient we accomplish this retreat from reality by giving an anaesthetic until the difficulty has been overcome. The agents we use have improved in quality and increased in number until today we have a great range to choose from. The three mentioned at the beginning of the paragraph induce loss of consciousness or insensibility to pain with a minimum of discomfort to the patient and are very valuable aids to the doctor.

Staphylococcal Toxoid; - Manganese Butyrate; S.U.P. 36; Infections, boils, whitlows, abscesses, inflammation - these are the commonplace complaints of people in every community. They are commonly due to a tiny creature called a "coccus". The substances named are new products of the laboratory which have been shown to be valuable. In the past we had no specifics better than "patience and flannel" and while these are very useful the new remedies are a big help in shortening illness. Unfortunately unlike sulph-aniltamide they are not cures!

X-ray helps - Various special radio-opaque substances, that is, drugs which stop X-rays and hence make a shadow which can be seen have been perfected. To-day we have a substance which when introduced into the lung allow us to see the branches of the whole bronchial tree. Similarly we have drugs that visualize the kidney, the gall, bladder and the gastro-intestinal tract.

Influenza Vaccine - We shall presently have a vaccine which is capable of increasing your resistance to colds and influenza. It is hoped that those who know they are specially liable to contract these complaints will apply for immunisation.

The Common Cold.

Oh! It's just a cold! How often one hears that remark. But, remember that what is just a cold to you may be just a bronchitis to little sister, and just pneumonia to the people next door.

Though the common cold may be "familiar" it should not be treated with contempt, because it is costly, incapacitating and potentially dangerous. Start treating it at the first sign and use every precaution to avoid giving it to others.

At the first sign:

- (1) Get in bed.
- (2) Take a hot drink - Add extra blankets.
- (3) Drink plenty of water!
- (4) Eat lightly - (starve a cold)
- (5) Don't blow your nose - complications may follow.
- (6) Don't take "cold" medicines without advice.
- (7) Don't give your cold to others.

The Importance of Diet.

I once studied Nutrition under Professor V.E. McCollum. He is internationally known as a food expert and is responsible for many of the fundamental discoveries about the importance of diet. In a current number of McCall's Magazine he has this to say about the importance of diet:

Does it seem an impossibly far cry from a beautiful lady to a squeaking, scurrying laboratory rat? If you could visit our experimental rat colony here at Johns Hopkins I'd show you some interesting things that would make you realize how much the lady-who-wants-to-stay-young can learn from the little creatures in the cages.

Here, for example, are two rats from the same litter - let's call them Minnie and Mollie. They are getting along to the point in their life span which corresponds roughly to a woman's early forties. But Minnie looks old enough to be Mollie's grandmother! Her hair is dry, scant and dulled with gray. Her skin is rough and wrinkled. You can almost imagine that she looks enviously at Mollie's dark, glossy coat and healthy skin. "Why", she may be wondering to herself, "Why have I lost my looks when Mollie over there doesn't even know what a gray hair or wrinkle means?"

Iron-rich foods fight greyness

What Minnie can't realize but we can - from our years of experience in feeding rats more than five thousand diets of varying quality - is this: Invariably animals fed on a poorly balanced diet lose the characteristics of youth sooner than those that are well nourished. We know, too, that human beings react to diet very much as rats do. So it seems fair enough to point out to the woman who fears gray hair that Minnie was starved for iron-rich foods while Mollie got her full share of them.

Some people inherit a strong tendency to premature grayness, and for them diet probably can do little to ward off the untimely arrival of silver threads. But, for the average person, the chances are good that eating plentifully of such foods as eggs, liver, spinach and whole wheat - or in the case of anemia, taking an iron tonic by a physician's prescription - will help to keep the natural hair colour.

For a "Young" Skin...

Have you ever stopped to wonder what a wrinkle really is? Or why the skin of a young girl's throat fits smoothly while an older woman's sags and shows an unattractive crepiness? The answer can be summed up in one word - elasticity. Young skin can stretch and then snap back into place again; old skin stretches and stays stretched.

The skin is an exacting tyrant. In spite of all your best efforts with make-up, it will show signs of age if you deny its vitamin A (which abounds in green and yellow vegetables, butter, cream and liver) or if your iron starved blood is powerless to keep functioning the tiny glands that furnish the oils that make skin soft and resilient. Of course, no woman of forty can have a "young" skin free from wrinkles, blackheads and enlarged pores unless she keeps it scrupulously clean, protects it from sun and wind, and uses only pure, good beauty preparations. Intestinal hygiene plays an important part in skin condition, too. But proper diet is so essential to a healthy skin that I'd almost say that - when it comes to complexions - handsome is as handsome eats!

Check up on Yourself

Now it's one thing simply to eat some of the protective foods - and quite another to make certain that we're eating enough of them to turn the trick. That's why I think it's a good thing to check up occasionally by an accurate written record. Try this for a week: Write down each thing you eat. Then at the end of the seven days check your menus against this list of foods which each person should eat: a quart of milk; a glass of orange or tomato juice; a raw, canned or stewed fruit; a salad; a cooked leafy vegetable; an an ounce of butter or vitamin - fortified margarine; an egg; vitamin D from yeast, fish liver oils or irradiated milk. If these protective foods are accompanied by the soups, cereals, meats, potatoes and other vegetables, desserts and beverages that make up a good diet I think you can count on being able to smile at birthdays!
